Feel Unusual Quake

Some Did--Some Didn't

A number of Knox City and area residents could not believe that what they were actually feeling early Friday morning was an actual earthquake!

O'Brien Mid-School Principal Charles Reed really made fun of his wife, Faye, when she told him "We're having an earthquake!" They were in an upstairs bedroom when the bed began shaking and a light fixture began to swing. What really upset her was the fact that the light fixture was not on a chain but a permanent fixture!

Esther Conn of O'Brien reported that she felt the tremor at her home. Mrs. Conn was quite sure that it was an earthquake since she had experienced one years ago when she lived in Peru.

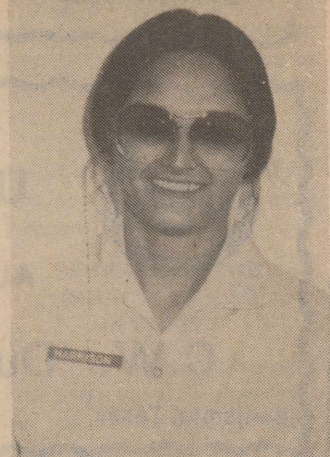

Scott Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Lynn, was still in bed when the quake occurred and said that his bed shook.

It was all over in a matter of seconds, according to those in the area who felt it. Mr. and Mrs. Mat Verhalen were eating breakfast at the time and thought they heard a train (and they say they do not know for sure that it was not a train) and their kitchen floor beneath their feet shook for awhile from the vibrations. They also said that could have been caused by a loud train that travels fairly close to their home.

Mrs. Allen Hester reported that she was awake but still in bed when the quake shook her bed and said that she reached out and touched the wall and it was shaking, too. She said she dozed off again and when she awoke she believed it to have been a bad dream until her daughter, Mrs. Donald Johnson, called and said she had heard the news on television.

den, Colorado, placed the epicenter of the earthquake 20 miles north of Snyder and said the quake started at 6:47 a.m.

NEIS spokesman Waverly Person said the quake measured between 4.75 and 5.0 on the Richter scale.

There were no injuries and no apparent damage from the quake.

Duane Seay, manager of Perry Bros. in Snyder and son-in-law of the Neil Perdues, said a neighbor was sitting in a bathtub when the "water began to ripple."

Another neighbor, who collects lamps, heard them shaking and started grabbing them off a mantle.

Seay said, "Lots of people around here were certainly shook up when they saw their light fixtures swinging." It didn't bother Seay much, though; he slept through it.

"Most people, when they realized what was going on, reacted with some form of panic," he said.

Seay, his wife, the former Charlotte Perdue, and their daughters moved to Snyder about two or three months ago.

THE PATIENT'S RIGHT TO KNOW

How times have changed. Not too long ago, much about medicine and treatment of an illness was very secretive. But, nowadays people want to know what's wrong with them, what caused the problem and how fast it takes to be cured. They also want to know about the drugs they take, what they are, what they do and what the side effects may be.

We feel that these are all logical questions and in our pharmacy we carefully explain the directions for use and other pertinent information about your prescriptions.

BENJAMIN NEWS

By GLADENE GREEN

CHEERLEADERS RETURN

The Benjamin Cheerleaders returned home Friday from a week's cheerleading camp at Tarleton State University at Stephenville (not SMU as I said last week!) They reported a good time and learned a lot of new things to do come football season.

HERE 'N THERE

A picture appears elsewhere in this week's News. There's still more homecoming news coming in. Matter of fact, that's about all there is. This last week was sort of a "rest, but get back in the old routine" week after homecoming has come and gone. Everyone is still talking about what a "fun" weekend it was.

Allie Moorhouse called to tell me she had Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Campbell of Big Lake, Lois Spikes of Wichita Falls, Louise George, also of Wichita Falls, John Ed Jones of Stephenville, and Margaret Browder Todd of Truscott as her guests during homecoming.

Visiting Judy Shipman was C.W. Harbert of Arlington, Milabeth Swamer of Mansfield and Claudia Waters of El Paso. Judy said lots more stopped by to say hello but these were her houseguests.

Kevin and Jennifer Roberts of Lawton, Oklahoma, spent a week here recently with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roberts, while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roberts attended the National PTA Convention in Atlanta, Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roberts entertained the Bill Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Roberts and Trish of O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Duke, Rebekah and Zeke, Thursday night with a family dinner in their home. Bill will leave July 6 for a year in Okinawa. He and his family returned to Lawton Friday afternoon.

Masterson Buried On JY Ranch

Funeral services for Truscott native Robert B. Masterson III, owner of the JY Ranch near Guthrie, were held Friday, June 9, at the First United Methodist Church in Paducah. The Rev. Henry Salley, church pastor, officiated. Burial followed at the JY Ranch.

Mr. Masterson, 60, died at 6:12 a.m. Thursday, June 8, at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock following a lengthy illness.

Born July 17, 1917, at Truscott, approximately 20 miles east of the JY Ranch, he grew up on the ranch where he and his brother, Tom, had a private tutor. Both went on to attend New Mexico Institute and Texas Tech University.

While at Tech, he studied voice and was encouraged to go to New York for training in the grand opera. Masterson chose the ranch and became a third generation cattleman in the family.

Exercise Tips

For many people, week-ends provide the only time available to work out and participate in sports. To help you enjoy the sunshine and some exercise, the American Bottled Water Association offers these suggestions:

Dress accordingly for the type of exercise and the weather. Wear light, loose fitting clothes to allow for maximum freedom of movement, blood circulation and comfort. Proper shoes are also important; sneakers and crepe-soled shoes are usually best.

A good way to "get in shape" is to begin your exercise program with less strenuous sports such as cycling, swimming, or softball. Be careful not to "over-do;" increase the amount of time you exercise gradually.

It's important to replenish body fluids lost through perspiration. To quench the thirst that builds during exertion, as well as help you cool off, have a container of bottled domestic water handy whenever you exercise.

To guard against heat-stroke caused by over-exposure to strong sun rays, wear a cap or other light head covering. It's also a good idea to take frequent rest breaks in the shade.

City County Library Elects New Officials

The nominating committee for the City-County Library met in a recent meeting and submitted recommendations for the election of three board members. The nominating committee is appointed by the Knox County Commissioner's Court, the City of Munday, the Munday United Fund, and the Munday Chamber of Commerce. Their representatives are: Knox County, Judge Homer T. Melton; City of Munday, Alderman M.M. Booe; Munday United Fund, Father Bartholomew Landwermeyer; and Munday Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, Callie Ann Combs, manager.

Retiring from the board this year were Bobby D. Burnett, Mrs. Ann Abell, and Mrs. Darlene Bellinghausen, Knox City. Each of the retiring members were re-elected by the board upon the recommendation of the nominating committee.

Officers for the fiscal year were elected. They are president, Bobby D. Burnett, (re-elected) Mrs. Ann Abell, vice-president, Mrs. Karen Longan, recording secretary with the librarian, Mrs. Donald Hobert, acting as treasurer. Holdover directors are Mrs. Herschel Cowan, Mrs. Ruth Brown, Rhineland; Mrs. Charles Griffith, Benjamin; Mrs. Dean Nuckols, Goree; and M.L. Waggoner.

The board approved the budget, also the employment of Mrs. Allene Beaty whose salary is provided under the STEP Program through a contract agreement with the West Texas Council of Governments and the City of Munday. Mrs. Beaty will work as assistant to the librarian sixteen hours each week. The board voiced appreciation to the City of Munday for its efforts in providing the library with additional personnel, as library traffic always shows an increase during the summer months and summer reading programs are attractive to young readers for entertainment. The library, in cooperation with the Texas State Library System, sponsors a summer reading program for pre-school and students who read a minimum of 10 books during the summer months. Individual reading certificates are issued to all who meet the requirements at the end of the summer. Last year more than 100 reading certificates were awarded.

During the fiscal year, 8,835 books were checked out. This year, so far, the librarian has supplied 54 16-mm films for school use and to civic groups. This film is furnished by the state system through the Abilene Major Resource System. There is a time limit on the usage of the film. However, they can be secured overnight if the film is in stock, and is available upon request to any group.

A new film strip projector, complete with audio has been received at the library on a permanent loan basis. It has some 30 film strips and cassettes designed for pre-school and elementary grade levels. These include animated fairy tales, seasons of the year, holidays and many other entertaining stories of educational value to young children. This equipment must be used in the library and can be seen by groups by appointment during the summer months and has been used so far as a part of the story hour. A new cabinet for the film strips and cassettes has also been received as a part of the overall grant.

Within the very near future, the library shall also receive a 16 mm film projector. Special film may be ordered on a wide variety of subjects from the Abilene library and shown in the library for special study groups or meetings, or shall be scheduled by the librarian for group meetings. This equipment is also a part of the annual permanent loan systems members receive.

Last year the library received a permanent loan book collection valued at $2,300.00. Many of these books were reference books, basic non-fiction and fiction.

According to the librarian, Mrs. Edith Hobert, "The benefits to this library after becoming a systems member has multiplied, and as long as we remain a part of the system, we can expect to expand services and add to the present collection of books which we certainly could not afford otherwise. This library serves all of Knox County and many residents of surrounding counties. It supplements all school libraries in research materials. We invite you to come in and see the new equipment, and if you are not now a patron, remember the services are free. Entertainment for every member of the family can be found in your City-County Library," Mrs. Hobert concluded.

President Calls For 25 Watershed Projects

WASHINGTON--President Carter today included in a supplementary budget request to Congress funds to finance 25 new small watershed project starts by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service (SCS), according to M. Rupert Cutler, assistant secretary of agriculture for conservation, research and education.

The 25 projects will cost a total of $75 million, with the President requesting an initial outlay in fiscal year 1979 of $6 million. This is in addition to a previous 1979 budget request of $142,522,000 to continue construction on 528 small watershed projects already under way.

The projects will be selected by SCS during the coming fiscal year. All will be eligible for funding as local sponsors complete preparations for construction.

The new starts were recommended by President Carter as a follow-up to the administration's new water resource policy announced June 6.

Dr. Cutler said the President's water policy message also gave SCS approval to fund 80 percent of the cost of non-structural measures in small watershed projects. Up to now, non-structural measures have been paid for entirely by local sponsors.

Streams In Desert Places

By Ozelle Stephens

David said in his prayer to God, "But as for me, my contentment is not in wealth but in seeing you and knowing all is well between us, and when I awake in heaven, I will be satisfied, for I will see you face to face." (Psalms 17:15.) When you are trusting the Lord and keep constant in fellowship your life is in sweet communion with him every moment. He keeps you as the apple of his eye; he hides you under the shadow of his wing. He inclines his ear to you, hears and answers all prayers. He is listening all the time. He will show you his strong love in wonderful ways. If you fall, he will lift you up and lead you on a smooth path. He will protect you as he would the pupil of his eye and will push back the enemy from hurting you. The secret of it all is the constant fellowship with HIM who loves you so much.

IRS Urges Credential Check

Taxpayers should ask to see the credentials of all persons identifying themselves as Internal Revenue Service employees, the IRS said.

From time to time, individuals have posed as employees of the Internal Revenue Service to collect money for what these imposters refer to as unpaid taxes.

Taxpayers should bear in mind that every public contact IRS employee carries distinctive identification and is required to produce identification when conducting official business.

If, after seeing an employee's identification, a taxpayer still doubts his or her authenticity, the taxpayer should immediately contact his or her nearest IRS office.

Stenholm's Office Personnel Are Only Two Paid Workers

Lora Oman and Fern Hansen are "Two of the hardest working and dependable persons we have on our volunteer staff," commented Charles Stenholm's Campaign Manager Bill Longley.

Stenholm won the Democratic nod of the voters in the June 3 17th Congressional District's runoff. He is seeking the post now held by retiring Congressman Omar Burleson. Stenholm, a native of Stamford, was born and reared in the 17th District.

Lora and Fern are the only two paid staff members in the Stenholm organization. "But, I am not sure you can say they are paid," commented Longley. "They both get paid half salary, and both usually put in more than the regular 40 hours per week. So they really are just as much a part of the entire volunteer organization as everyone else," Longley added.

Any of the campaign workers at the Stamford headquarters are quick to praise Fern and Lora. "They are supposed to have weekends off, but they are always coming in when we need them," noted Brent Bolding, Stenholm's youth coordinator.

Lora, the office manager and bookkeeper; and Fern, the office secretary, are both from Avoca. They drive the 12 miles each day to the Stenholm headquarters where they perform their own duties in addition to coordinating all the volunteer office help.

Originally from Anson, Lora has known Stenholm for 37 years (all but two years of his life.) "I have known Charlie since I married and moved with my husband, the late Johnny V. Oman, to Ericksdahl to a farm owned by Charlie's mother and father. Charlie was only a baby, then our son, John Bill, was born, and he and Charlie went to school in Stamford at the same time. Charlie was John Bill's 'idol,' and both were very active in FFA, Lora related.

Speaking of Stenholm, she said, "Charlie has always been a friendly hardworking, conscientious young man. Above all, he is a fine Christian gentleman." Fern has known Stenholm 35 years. She is a Stamford-Avoca native and the wife of the late Johnny Hansen.

Lora taught Stenholm in her first Sunday School class at Bethel Lutheran Church where both are still active members. "He was a thoughtful and studious child at 10 years old," she remembers.

During Lora's first term on Bethel Lutheran's Church Council, "Charlie was board chairman, and it was wonderful to serve with him."

"He is one of the finest persons I have ever known, and it has been a joy and privilege to work with him and his wonderful family in every way for Congressmen," Lora said.

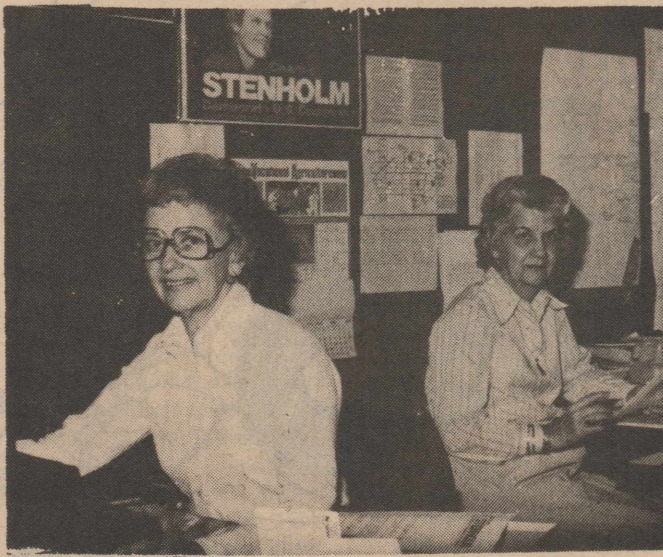

Fern has known Stenholm 35 years. She is a Stamford-Avoca native and the wife of the late Johnny Hansen.

Charlie is a kind, considerate man. He and Cindy (Stenholm's wife) are good friends. I'm working for Charlie because I believe in him. He is honest and well qualified for the job (of Congressman)," Fern said.

She tells of Stenholm asking her to attend a precinct meeting two years ago. She not only attended that meeting, but went on to county and state meetings.

"I'm convinced everyone needs to get involved," stated Fern. "I'm grateful for the opportunity to work in this campaign for Charlie."

Stenholm also is quick to praise the two volunteers on his staff. "They have known me most of my life. I guess they know just about as much about me as anybody around here does," he said. "I am extremely grateful for their time, hard work and dedication. It's people like Fern and Lora that make everything come into focus, make you know that everything you are doing is worth an extra mile. I can come into the campaign headquarters literally exhausted after a long day of campaigning. I know they are just as exhausted, but they have a big smile and friendly hello and want to know 'how it went.' "

FERN HANSEN, LEFT, AND LORA OMAN, although volunteers over half of the time, are the only two paid staff members of the Charles Stenholm for Congress campaign organization. Stenholm won the bid for the Democratic 17th Congressional District race. Both Mrs. Oman and Mrs. Hansen are long-time friends of Stenholm, both having known him most of his life. Mrs. Hansen is the office secretary, and Mrs. Oman is the office manager and bookkeeper in the Stamford campaign headquarters, home of the Democratic candidate for Congress.

"I guess campaigning would really be rough if it weren't for people like Lora and Fern and all the other wonderful volunteers working in our behalf all over the District," Stenholm said. Campaign Manager Longley knows of over 250 active workers throughout the District, "but there is no telling how many there are that I don't even know about," he said.

Both Lora and Fern are proud to boast about their children and grandchildren. And both still find time to spend on their hobbies. Fern enjoys bridge and plants, and Lora enjoys needlepoint and sewing.

Fern Hansen and Lora Oman are definite assets to the Stenholm for Congress Campaign. But they look upon their jobs as "a step in the goal of sending Charlie to Washington. That's what we're all working together for. We are a team working for a common goal," both ladies agree.

Want To Know More About Solar Energy?

DALLAS, TEXAS - Gotta question about solar energy?

If you have, just give the U.S. Department of Energy a telephone call between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. on May 3, 4, 5, and 6 and you will get an answer.

Employer's Report Deadline Is Near

Employers must report on Form 941 Social Security and withheld Federal income taxes for the second quarter of 1978 by Monday, July 31. If the quarterly liability (reduced by any deposit during the quarter) is $200 or more, the unpaid balance must be deposited.

Persons who have deposited the entire quarterly tax liability in a Federal Reserve Bank or approved commercial bank have until August 10 to file Form 941, "Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return," the Internal Revenue Service said.

Employers should use the preaddressed Forms 941 mailed to them by the IRS or obtain copies of the form from the nearest IRS office.

On those four days, DoE will be manning telephones in the Regional Office in Dallas with experts on hand to provide answers to questions about this exotic energy source.

The name of the program is "Sun Dial". It is a part of a nationwide "Sun Day" program that will see programs and exhibitions held throughout the nation.

The five states served by the Dallas Regional Office of DoE include Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, and New Mexico.

Individuals wanting information concerning solar energy have three numbers to call. Those living in the Dallas Fort Worth Metroplex should telephone 358-3471. O'Brien Happenings

By CHARLENE BROTHERS

Tomorrow, June 21, is the beginning of summer. As hot as the past few days have been, I hate to think of what it will be after summer really gets here. Sunday was the hottest day I had been out in in a long time. Monday may have been as hot, the only difference is that I was inside most of the time. I noticed the heat Sunday afternoon more, I guess, because there were some of us that climbed Kiowa Peak and it was hot. Someone said they hoped we did not find any snakes, I told them I thought the snakes were smarter than we were, they would be in the shade where it was a little cooler. After we got to the top, I thought about just staying up there, the wind up there was cooler than it was at the bottom. The only thing is, I could not figure how I could get my bed up there.

We had the motorcycle riders again Sunday afternoon. I went over and saw some of the places they ride and how they do. For anyone that is afraid of motorcycles, you should never go and watch them. I'm only afraid when I'm on one. The other guy does not bother me. There were 13 motorcycles and that many or more riders, some of them doubled up some. Some of the younger ones, if they do not get hurt or something, are going to be good riders before long. They do a good job of handling the machines now. One of my nieces came up with a name for them, LBG Gang. We had a little trouble this time, J.O. hurt his shoulder some when he was on someone else's bike and missed a curve and turned over. He is sore and cannot use his arm now, but will be fine in a few days. Knowing him he will be back on his own in a few weeks.

There have been a few asking when the next O'Brien Homecoming will be, it will be next year. The committee has not decided just when yet, but it will be next year. They will let everyone know in time to make plans to come. We are going to try to have a big one this next time. So plan to come and help with it.

Cotton that has emerged since the rains is making good growth. High winds are causing some damage to the foliage; however, insect activity is light.

Producers should inspect those cotton fields that are adjacent to wheat fields. Thrips moving out of the wheat into cotton can cause stand reduction. Control measures should be applied for thrips only in those cases where heavy infestations are causing damage to the terminal buds and interfering with stand development.

All horse owners in Knox County are urged to vaccinate their horses against sleeping sickness.

ATTENDS WEDDING

Mrs. Alma Pack was in Blanchard, Oklahoma, for the June 10 wedding of her granddaughter, Paula Elaine, to J.D. Yarbrough of Lindsey, Oklahoma.

The couple was married in a candlelight ceremony at the home of the bride by the Rev. Don Queen, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Blanchard.

Given in marriage by her father, Arnold Pack of Grapevine, Texas, the bride wore a formal length gown of white dotted swiss trimmed in pink lace and pink satin ribbon. Her veil was also trimmed in pink lace. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

LaDonna McCutchen was maid of honor. She wore a pink floral dress similar to the bride's and carried an arm bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Carl Franklin of Norman, Oklahoma, served as best man. Cindy Peary, sister of the bridegroom, and Debbie Wilson served at the reception.

The newlyweds will make their home near Blanchard where they are both employed in Oklahoma City.

Following the wedding, Mrs. Pack returned to Grapevine with her son and family where she also visited with her daughter, Jeanette Isom of Ladonia.

Lions Club News

By Z.I. Smith

On Wednesday, Lion Gene Clonts brought his son-in-law Stann Gunn of Los Angeles, California, as his guest and Lion David Lorenz brought his father George Lorenz of Langdon, North Dakota. The Lions extend a welcome and invitation to return whenever possible. Lion David Counts gave a good report on bond committee collections and payments. Many lions have given personal donations in order that extra money could be used to pay off a larger amount of bonds.

President Patterson announced that ladies night and installation of officers would be Thursday, July 6, and speaker would be new district Governor Darwin Willis. When the scheduled program could not show up for Lion Sammy B. White, he asked Lion Bill Baker to comment on the possibility of a proposition 13 vote in Texas. Lion Baker explained there could not be a referendum vote by citizens of Texas but there could be a tax revolt. He gave some figures on Property tax amounts and collection in Texas as compared to the four states around us. It was his hope that legislators would find some other way of raising money for state operations than by raising the level of existing taxes.

WTU Urges PUC Not To Adopt Rate

West Texas Utilities Co. has urged the Public Utility Commission of Texas not to adopt innovative utility rate structures or new electric use management controls until it is proven conclusively that benefits outweigh costs and that the customer will readily accept the changes.

In a statement prepared for hearings which began Monday in Austin, G. Holman King, a WTU vice president, advised against rate concepts "which might be politically attractive in the short run but which would have disastrous effects on the public in the long run."

Stamford Art Show To Benefit WTRC

The Old West as lived by the real life cowboys of yesteryear comes alive once again in Stamford, Texas, as the Stamford Art Foundation hosts the Fifth Annual Western Art Exhibition and Sale to benefit the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

Several hundred western art buffs and collectors will converge on this western Texas city to view and buy multi-media art valued at several hundreds of thousands of dollars. Thirty-seven of the top western artists in the nation will display their works in oil, water color and bronze in this extraordinary exhibit.

Load management deals with non-pricing methods for changing the level or pattern of demand for electricity. It could involve devices which curtail operation of appliances such as water heaters and air-conditioners at certain times.

Specifically, King said WTU opposes widespread application of time-of-day pricing, mechanical load management techniques, and lifeline rates.

Time-of-day pricing would charge more for electricity consumed during the hours when demands on an electric system's generating capacity is at its peak. By trimming the peak, a utility company could delay capital outlays for new power plants and benefit all customers.

Artists showing this year include: Wayne Baize, Joe Beeler, Bill Bender, James Boren, Clark Bronson, Bill Chappel, Jerry Crandall, Bob Daughters, Juan Dell, Nicholas Firfires, Lincoln Fox, Jim Hamilton, John Hampton, Peter Hurd, Alan Kinney, John Kittelson, Bob Lee, Frank Liljegen, Robert Loughheed, Ted Long, George B. Marks, Pat Mathiesen, Clay McGaughy, William Moyers, Gary Myers, Gary Niblett, Tom Ryan, David Sanders, Bob Scriver, Bill Shaddix, Gene Stewart, Ron Stewart, Jack Swanson, Paul Tadlock, Ronald Thomason, Russ Vickers, and H.C. Zachry.

A special Collectors' Preview Party and Sale is set for 6:30 p.m. Thursday, June 29, at the John Selmon Memorial Art Gallery on the Texas Cowboy Reunion Grounds. The admission price to the Collectors' Party entitles those attending to a delicious chuckwagon style meal and first opportunity to purchase these outstanding works of art.

Those wishing to make reservations for the Collectors' Preview Party should write the Stamford Art Foundation, P.O. Box 609, Stamford, Tex. 79553, or phone (773-3614).

Many of the artists in the exhibit will be on hand at the party to visit with the patrons.

The Collectors' Preview Party comes on the eve of the opening of the Texas Cowboy Reunion which has been an annual tradition in Stamford since 1930. The collection of art will be open for the general public to view and enjoy during this year's Texas Cowboy Reunion. All proceeds raised by the Stamford Art Foundation will benefit the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

WTU opposes widespread application of time-of-day pricing, mechanical load management techniques, and lifeline rates.

Time-of-day pricing would charge more for electricity consumed during the hours when demands on an electric system's generating capacity is at its peak. By trimming the peak, a utility company could delay capital outlays for new power plants and benefit all customers.

Time-of-day pricing has been found practical for some of WTU's large electric customers which have flexibility to change their time of use, King said, but is not considered feasible for most residential and commercial customers.

A major objection, he noted, would be the initial cost of special time-of-day meters. Cost of installation throughout WTU's large, sparsely populated territory would be almost $25 million, which is equal to the cost of the company's newest power generating plant.

Another obstacle would be customer resistance. Shifting a desired amount of electric load away from the peak demand period would require customers to turn off their air-conditioners during the hottest hours of the summer. Load curves of WTU's 1977 system peak demand show that to accomplish a significant reduction of electric usage, the period defined as "on-peak" and subject to higher rates would have to be extended from early afternoon to almost midnight.

"This would defeat the purpose of air-conditioning and be completely unacceptable to our customers," King said.

He added that WTU's experience with time-controlled water heaters indicates that customers will not accept time clocks or other devices which drastically interfere with their living patterns.

Concerning lifeline rates, the WTU statement recognizes "the severe economic squeeze being felt by the poor and by those on fixed incomes," but rejects lifeline rates as a method of relieving those problems.

"Our study in the city of Abilene in 1976, using U.S. Census Bureau data, block canvassing, real estate evaluation, and other information showed no consistent correlations between financial income and kilowatt hour usage."

King said the Crisis Intervention Program administered by the Texas Department of Community Affairs worked reasonably well this past winter in identifying and assisting those with real needs.

"We believe this approach to be far more cost effective and efficient than lifeline or other socially oriented utility rate forms. WTU endorses the idea that the poor need relief from rising utility bills, as well as other inflated living costs, but believes the better solution lies in the use of social agencies qualified to determine an individual's need and to act accordingly."

The hearings have been scheduled for nine days, and were requested by the Texas Legislature. A Commission spokesman said the purpose is to "find rate structures which meet present-day conditions."

After considering the findings, the Commission will issue recommendations to the Legislature late this year.

King said WTU sees the main issue of the hearing as an effort to "determine how the rising cost of electric service will be assigned to each of the customer classes being served by each utility."

The primary question to be answered, he said, is "Will it be public policy in Texas to allocate the cost burden as equitably as possible among our customers or will one class be given preferential treatment over the others?"
