

Member Towns Receive Water

Valve Turns Tap On Millers Creek

Knox City and area residents witnessed a dream come true Tuesday morning, October 3, at approximately 9:15 a.m. when city officials and board members of the North Central Municipal Water Authority turned the important valve to begin the flow of the welcomed and long-awaited water project.

Knox City was the second town to receive the abundant water supply following another county town, Goree, whose storage tank valves were opened Monday night. An 'anxious' six years and three days have passed since construction began on the north Texas reservoir and many town and area people seemed to wonder if the dam would ever hold an amount of water large enough to serve the needs of our area folk.

The big event finally happened during the August Texas floods when totals of 15 to 20 inches were received filling the watershed over the spillway.

Located south of Bomarton, the reservoir will serve in addition to Knox City and Goree, Munday and Haskell.

Not under contract but committed to Millers Creek are the towns of Aspermont, Rochester, and O'Brien.

Munday residents were to have received their water Wednesday morning with the Haskell valves scheduled to be opened Thursday morning (today).

Knox City and the other three member towns have been using underground water wells for their supply.

North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority turned the first shovel of dirt on September 29, 1972. The Millers Creek Dam was completed August 29, 1974, and more than four years have passed since the first rains.

Pete Beecher, general manager of the water authority, said that the lake is full and the authority's permit for impoundment allows 25,528 acre-feet of water.

The water has been tested by state officials and it has proven good and bacteria-free.

Local To Ride At State Fair

Knox City resident Marti Tackitt will be in Dallas this coming Saturday, October 7, to participate in the opening parade of the 1978 State Fair of Texas. The parade will wind down Griffin, Commerce, Harwood, and Canton streets and will begin at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. Tackitt and her mount, Miss Silva, will be representing Tackitts' Arabian Horse Farm.

Marti and Miss Silva have participated in the West Texas Fair Parade in Abilene, Texas Cowboy Reunion Parade in Stamford, Knox City Rodeo Parade, as well as parades in Roby, Benjamin, Seymour, and numerous other cities. The 'twosome' will also be featured in the Cotton Bowl parade in downtown Dallas on New Year's Day.

The USMC Drum and Bugle Corps, followed by the USMC Color Guard and the Silent Drill Team, all from Washington, D.C., will open the parade. Governor Dolph Briscoe will follow closely behind as will numerous high school bands and beauty queens including Miss Texas World Debbie Palmer. Completing the array of excitement will be drill teams, floats, baton corps, and riding clubs.

OFFICIALS ON HAND to officially turn on the valve for Millers Creek water to begin flowing into Knox City are, from left, Authority Directors Leon Burkhman and Joe Clonts, and Mayor Ken Crossover.

Beecher said an engineer has estimated the reservoir is capable of providing 400,000 million gallons of water per year to the towns.

The raw water from Millers Creek Reservoir will be treated at the site, stored in a terminal storage nearby and then carried through about 54 miles of supply lines to each town.

Attending the ceremonies Tuesday morning were Mayor Kenneth Crossover and his wife, Doris, Chamber of Commerce secretary, City Secretary Faye Railsback; Pete Beecher, Billy Harris, plant superintendent, of Goree; E. J. Stewart, maintenance employee, of Haskell; W.R. Baker, Chamber of Commerce president; Mary and David Counts; board members Joe Clonts and Leon Burkham; and former Knox City Mayor Buddy Angle and his wife Billye.

(Bill) Baker, Chamber of Commerce president, douses the major with a bucket full of the new water! At Haskell Friday Night

'Hounds To Play No.1 Indians

Excitement is in the air as the Greyhounds prepare for their district 7-A opener against the top ranked Class A team in Texas, according to the Harris Poll, the neighboring Haskell Indians. The clash will take place in Indian Stadium and fans should note the time change to 7:30 p.m. for district games.

According to Coach Jimmy Rogers, it is very seldom in an athlete's career he is number one or that he gets to play a number one team. He feels that this is a tremendous opportunity and that the team has nothing to lose but everything to gain.

The Hounds go into the contest with a flawless record of 4-0, have defeated Rule, Albany, Archer City, and Throckmorton to earn this achievement.

Haskell on the other hand deadlocked to an 'unlucky' 13-13 with rival Class AA Stamford in last Friday night's contest blotching their season record for the first time this year making their slate 3-0-1.

Indian coach Don Flippin said in an interview last week with the Abilene Reporter-News that he is feeling highly rated he feels that perhaps his club is feeling the pressure from it. He further commented that the Indians have not been playing well this fall and attributes the reason to the ratings. Flippin's "Injun's" were picked by the Texas High School magazine and the Harris Poll to win district in the pre-season picks.

In Friday night's action, the Hounds of Knox City soundly defeated the Hounds of Throckmorton to the tune of 35-0.

Things got off to a good start for the Hounds when Tim Roberson scored the first of his three touchdowns as he went across the goal line for a 12-yard TD. Domingo Garcia added two points with a run which gave the

Hounds an 8-0 lead.

Following a scoreless second quarter, the Hounds returned to the field and pulled 20 points out of the magic hat with Roberson again scoring first with a 64-yard TD run.

His third and final TD was an 11-yarder with Garcia booting the extra point to give the KC Hounds a 21-0 lead.

Joe Gutierrez rallied for six points as he put another score on the board for KC plunging over from the one yard line. Garcia again came in when needed and added another extra point.

Knox City's Neil Tackitt had the only interception of the night on either squad and ended the Hounds' scoring for the night by returning the interception a total of 28 yards for the score. Garcia again added the PAT for a total of one run and three kicks for extra points.

Leading defensive tacklers were Joe Alsides,

Oscar Gutierrez, and Domingo Garcia. Leading ball carrier Friday night was Tim Roberson with 104 yards. Fumbles were recovered by Skipper Jackson and Robert Espinosa, while Jackson was outstanding offensive linesman and David Walling as receiver.

After being sidelined part of last week, Terry Watson returned to the field in top form and was credited with several bone-crushing tackles.

Jimmy Rushing turned in an impressive performance in his role of linebacker and his improvement in each game has been outstanding. David Counts also made several key defensive plays to add to his credit.

The entire offensive line played as a unit with each member Sammy White, Kyle White, Andy Barnard, Greg Covey, Cyle Clayton, Skipper Jackson, and David Counts doing a good job of adjusting to the Throckmorton defense. This group of young men did a great job in the second half of play.

Statistics for the KC and Throck teams, respectively, are first downs, 12, 7; yards rushing, 253, 17; yards passing, 93, 50; passes 5-8, 2-4; punts, 2-36, 8-26; fumbles lost, 2, 2; and yards penalized, 45, 5.

Friday Pep Rally To Be Downtown

Due to the upcoming importance of Friday night's district opener against the state-ranked Haskell Indians, the regular pep rally normally held in the school gym has been moved to the downtown area in order to boost more spirit throughout the town.

The rally will be held at the usual 3:30 p.m. time and the street between White Auto Store and the City Hall will be the site of the event.

Greyhound cheerleaders, twirlers, and drill team members will perform for the spectators.

Booster Club Asks Help On New Scoreboards

The Knox City-O'Brien Booster Club is undertaking an ambitious program to furnish the school with a new gym clock for basketball this winter and a new football scoreboard for next fall.

According to officials, the club needs the help and financial assistance of each and every Greyhound supporter.

These two items are much needed and the cost is a combined total of $3900.00.

Adult Education Class Offered Again

The Adult Basic Education classes will be offered again this year. Classes will begin Tuesday, October 10, at 6:00 p.m. in the high school and will be held each Monday or Tuesday night. The exact night will be decided according to the needs of the group. Classes will be held for three hours from 6:00 - 9:00 one night weekly.

Adults 16 years of age or over and who have been out of school at least one year may register for one of three levels of instruction. Basic level (grades 1 - 3) will be for those who have little or no schooling, need English as a second language, or are working toward U.S. Citizenship. Intermediate level (grades 4 - 6) is for those who have completed the basic level or have had some formal education. Advanced level is for those who have completed the intermediate level or have some junior or senior high school education. The advanced level also prepares the student for the General Educational Development (GED) high school equivalency test.

All Adult Basic Education classes are free to those attending and the school will provide books and supplies. The Adult Education Program is coordinated through the Sweetwater Adult Education Co-op and the Texas Education Agency.

An effort is being made to determine the need for establishing Adult Basic Education classes in the neighboring towns of Rule, Haskell, Munday, Weinert, and Aspermont, as well as Knox City. For further information call the Knox City High School or contact Mrs. Betty Davis, program supervisor, at 864-2848, 864-2915 or 864-2284.

O'BRIEN HAPPENINGS

BY CHARLENE BROTHERS

To all you people who enjoy seeing the Donny and Marie show, what would you think if you had a cousin that looked like Donny? Or maybe I should say Donny looks like him, as he is older than Donny. One of my cousins that we saw in California this summer would pass for Donny's older brother. I think they are very good looking. They said someone else had told him he looked like Donny.

If no one has any more news this week than I do, we may as well shut the paper down. Nothing has happened over here except the talk about the meeting next Tuesday night, which we do not want people to forget. The weather has been pretty for a change, and finally the maize is getting ready to cut. I'm sure the bankers are going to like this, so the farmers can pay off some notes. We might have some cotton to gin before frost if the weather will stay pretty and it does not rain anymore for a while. There is going to be some fairly good cotton this fall if the frost does not come to early. West of town I believe they have some of the best cotton that they have had in several years. I'm sure not all of it is going to be that good, but a lot of it is. The price should be pretty good this fall, even the ones that contracted will still get a fairly decent price, 50- to 53- is not a bad price for cotton.

Be sure and remember Tuesday night, October 10, for the town meeting and the free meal for O'Brien residents and property owners. There have been several that have wanted to try this beautification program for a good little while now, so finally the council has decided to have the meeting and if you do not cooperate with us, we cannot get the thing off the ground. So come out and enjoy this meal and get on a committee to do something about our town. (There is an ad elsewhere in the paper telling about this.)

HERE AND THERE

Vicki Hewitt visited in Snyder with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davis and also with Scott McAnelly.

Marvin Manning visited in Springtown with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gibson, Shane and Shawna; Mr. and Mrs. Derwin Lancaster and family and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Ivey several days.

Mrs. Rhonda Moeller of Haskell visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Hewitt and Toni during the weekend while her husband, Alan, enjoyed a few days fishing.

Ava Covey is in the Scottish-Rite Children's Hospital at Dallas, where she had surgery on her hip, Monday, October 2.

Mildred Draper is in the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where she had surgery last week. (I'm sure Mildred and Ava both would enjoy getting a card from us here at home.)

Visiting in the home of Mrs. Serena Johnston during the weekend were Mrs. Iris Hughes and granddaughter, Dawn, and Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Johnston, all of Lubbock.

C.H. Underwood and Coy Hewitt attended a tax meeting in Haskell last Tuesday night. (I did not learn just exactly what the meeting covered, but if it is about taxes most people are interested these days.)

Have you noticed what the gin is doing to the property north of the gins? They are really helping the looks of things. This just shows how much a little work can help the looks of things that have grown up so badly. We have lots of property in the city limits that would look better if a little work of this kind, and others, was done to it. (The following is strictly my opinion, if we could get rid of some of the old car bodies around town it would help also. They do make things look so bad. If you have a gripe coming, just call me and not anyone else, this came from me. Some people get so worked up when you talk about the junk they have laying around, and it would look so much better if some of it was done away with, or at least collected and put together better.) Maybe we need one day a month to just gripe about things that have not gone to suit us, mine this time would be the phone company.

WE NEED YOUR SUPPORT!

AMONG THE AREA SUPPORTERS in Abilene at the Civic Center Saturday night for the Burleson-Stenholm Appreciation Dinner were, from left, Lee and Jerry Smith, Lennis and Ann Tibbets of Rochester, Betty Albus, Buddy Angle, David Albus, and Stacy Angle, all of Knox City.

Burleson-Stenholm Event A 'Success'

Standing ovations, applause, and praise were the order of the evening as Congressman Omar Burleson and Democratic candidate for the 17th District Charles Stenholm were honored at an appreciation banquet Saturday evening in the Abilene Civic Center.

More than 650 persons attended the $25 a plate appreciation banquet. Present at the banquet were several "big brass" which included Attorney General and candidate for Governor John Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baum, a Democratic candidate in the May primary who has recently endorsed Stenholm; Representative Elect Dr. Gary Thompson; Representative Elect Walter Grubbs, Texas Senator Ray Farabee, U.S. Senate Candidate Bob Krueger; and Congressional Candidate Phil Gramm. A telegram was read from U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen who was unable to attend.

Retiring Congressman Burleson thanked the people for their dedication and devotion during the past 32 years. "There have been changes over the years," noted Burleson. "I haven't been against all of them, but I have looked at some with apprehension. Our society has moved so rapidly. We have spent money we didn't have. Concerns have now set in. This is encouraging; maybe we are returning to what we originally were."

Burleson said he was not going to make any promises for Stenholm, "but these are some of the things I think he will do." Speaking of many needs in the country, Burleson praised Stenholm as "the Congressman who can achieve these goals."

After speaking of numerous tasks which Congress faces, Burleson stated, "These are the reasons that I believe in Charles Stenholm. And I believe in his dedication to Washington, Texas and right here at home. I think he has the courage. I have trust and confidence in Charlie. With his devotion, his love and knowledge of the soil and his experience as a businessman, he is definitely Congressional material."

"After he is in Washington, he is going to need our continued support," Burleson added. "He will have the necessary response of 'I'm doing the best I can. I'm seeking the answers.' I am not going to tell anyone how to vote. I just simply commend this man (Stenholm) to you," concluded Burleson.

State Senator Grant Jones introduced Congressman Burleson. Charles Coody, professional golfer and lifelong friend and former classmate, introduced Stenholm to the crowd in attendance.

"I have known Charlie to be a fierce competitor. He fights for what he believes in. He's an excellent family man and a fine Christian," Coody said.

Stenholm appeared before the large crowd with ease and dignity. One member in the audience remarked that she "felt at ease knowing Charlie was going to represent (her) in Congress. He just has the makings of a great Congressman," she said.

Stenholm joked with Burleson, saying, "Omar, you have already given my speech." He then related a story of Burleson's first introduction to the free enterprise system when he was 12 years old. Stenholm then presented Burleson with a plaque which included a can of the salve Burleson had sold as a young man.

Stenholm told the audience, "In the next 38 days before the general election, we are going to continue just as we have been doing the past year and working as hard as we can." Monday, October 2, marked the year's anniversary since Stenholm announced his candidacy.

"We are one of 24 rural communities left in America," stated Stenholm. "We believe in the conservative view of this District. I believe that the people of our country are speaking (referring to the 13th Constitutional Amendment in California). As your Congressman, I will listen just as Omar has listened. My name will be on the bill which will come before Congress next session that government live within its means."

"I am proud to be a farmer," Stenholm said. "I oppose selling our wheat to the Soviet Union at a price lower than what it costs the farmer to produce. I will seek a post on the Agriculture Committee, and I will have to demonstrate to my colleagues that we in the 17th District know what is needed."

Stenholm spoke of the oil and gas industry as being "tremendously important to this District. The best way to solve our oil and gas problems is through the free enterprise system. Also the development of solar power is a must," he said.

"The oil and gas industry and agriculture have many similarities. We both have a lot in common, and both have a lot of importance in the role of solving our country's problems. We must make sure that our world trade pays a fair price to the producer."

Stenholm spoke of the necessity of government getting out of our daily lives. "Some aspects are necessary, but there is a limit," said Stenholm. He also noted, "We are helping far too many people today who don't really need the help."

"There are plenty of places to cut federal spending. It can be done and it must be done," Stenholm emphatically stated.

Stenholm also mentioned his belief in a National Sunset law, his opposition to the National Health Policy, opposition to a guaranteed income, and holding off on raising the minimum wage for two years.

"The biggest job I am going to have, in addition to attempting to fill Omar's shoes, is convincing 217 of my fellow Congressmen that if they will vote for what we believe in, they'll be better off, we'll be better off, and the country will be better off," Stenholm concluded.

FIRE...AWAY

One of the best ways to protect your home from the ravages of fire is to install a smoke detector...and be able to put a fire out almost before it begins. The Hartford Insurance Group, sponsor of the Junior Fire Marshal Program, points out that a good smoke detector sets off an alarm at the first sign of fire. This gives you enough time to escape uninjured—if you and your family have made and rehearsed a home escape plan.

Their first win of the season was against Hamlin with the final score being 32-0, followed by a 26-0 win over Albany.
The game against Quanah was rained out; however, the JV's hit hard against the varsity in practice, preparing them for their 8-0 win over Archer City, which was the toughest team the JV's have faced to date.
This week, the team hopes to keep its winning streak as well as unscored-on streak going against Haskell.
The JV squad is made up of junior, sophomore, and freshman students with the defense being strong and the offense coming right along.
According to reports, the Bullies hope to be district champs right alongside of the varsity Hounds this year.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

September 26, 1978
To the Editor:
Since the week of September 24 - 30 was Responsible Pet Care Week, this is a good time to remind pet owners (and potential pet owners) of the responsibilities of caring for their animals.
To start with, not everyone should own a pet. Much thought should be given to the prospect of acquiring a pet. Many a dog or cat is turned over to humane societies because it was hastily acquired as a cute, playful puppy or kitten, but as it became older and required more time and care, the owner became reluctant to provide the necessary care. Many people think that the humane societies can easily find new homes for the pets they tire of, but unfortunately this is not true. Only a small percentage of animals turned over to humane societies can be placed in new homes because of the tremendous number of surplus animals. For these reasons, we encourage people not to get pets unless they are willing to care for them for their lifetimes, which includes providing all necessary veterinarian care, as well as food, water, shelter and exercise.
If a family does decide on a pet, responsibility should be fixed for caring for the pet. Never, under any circumstances, should an animal have to depend on a small child to remember to feed and water it. Also, small children should not be allowed to play, unsupervised, with a small puppy or kitten. They are frail living creatures, not stuffed toys. They can be injured by youngsters or may become frightened and possibly bite or scratch them.
One of the biggest parts of being a responsible pet owner is keeping ones pet confined to the yard or on a leash at all times. Dogs running loose are a nuisance to all the neighbors. They also run the risk of being hit by a car (or causing an accident), of fighting with stray animals, or of being poisoned or injured by angry neighbors. It is good citizenship as well as a kindness to your dog to keep it confined to your yard.

Vaccinations and other necessary veterinary care are a part of responsible pet care. Sterilization is a very important step in pet care also, in view of the great number of surplus animals destroyed each year. Spaying and neutering are relatively safe and simple operations, and will make your pet more content to stay at home. Most important, you will be sure that your pet is not contributing to the greatest problem facing cats and dogs today - pet overpopulation.

Sincerely,

KNOX COUNTY HISTORY comes to life for Texas Tech co-eds Catrennia Williamson, left, of Grand Saline, and Debra Kunkel, of Olney. Catrennia, a student assistant at Texas Tech's Southwest Collection, a regional historical research center, reviews with Miss Kunkel issues of THE KNOX COUNTY NEWS, recently microfilmed by the Southwest Collection.

Knox County Papers Filmed At Texas Tech

LUBBOCK - Fifty six years of Knox County history are being preserved at Texas Tech University.

The Southwest Collection, located on the Tech campus in Lubbock, has microfilmed past issues of Knox County newspapers.

A regional archives, the Southwest Collection is a center for research devoted to perpetuating the heritage of the American Southwest. In addition to newspapers, the repository houses books, periodicals, tape recorded interviews, maps, photographs and personal and business papers from throughout the region.

Because of the rapid deterioration of newsprint, the Southwest Collection is filming papers from West Texas in an effort to preserve perhaps the only records of the histories of the communities they serve, according to David Murrah, head of the repository.

"These issues are especially valuable for historical research as each contains many stories pertaining to the history of the community or region," Murrah said.

The repository now holds more than 400 Texas newspaper titles, including 66 microfilmed collections.

Loaned for copy by The Knox County News, courtesy of Billye Angle, publisher, and the Knox City Schools, courtesy of Bill Baker, superintendent of schools, the Southwestern Journal, The Knox City Journal, The Knox County Herald and The Knox County News range in date from 1921 to 1977. The papers were published weekly.

Along with thousands of facts and figures of historical worth, the papers record such things as a finding that there were more white roofs than black roofs in 1921 in Knox County.

In other news, the Church of Christ held a revival, oil companies in Texas and Oklahoma were in a struggle for supremacy, and the lowest priced Chevrolet roadster cost $525.

But perhaps of greatest interest to researchers, who can now view the papers at the Southwest Collection, are the accounts of birth, death, major events, and human interest stories.

Other papers being filmed from West Texas include papers from Jayton, Spur, Olney, and Wichita Falls.

IN CHILDRESS

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith were in Childress Sunday afternoon where they visited with Lee's sister-in-law, Mrs. Roy Smith, and his niece, Mrs. Jean Ann Coyle. Also visiting were Sally and Terry Keener and Melissa of Knox City.

Junior Class Is 'Collecting'

The junior class of KCHS has voted as one of its money-making projects to collect aluminum cans and newspapers. The money will be used for the group's senior trip next year.

A "pick-up" day for newspapers will be held in about a month and details will be published later. Magazines, catalogs, and paperback books, all without staples, please, would also be welcomed.

Call In Your News 658-3142

Juniors will be collecting aluminum cans wherever they find them. The class set each member's minimum to be 2808 cans, or approximately 20 dollars worth of cans.

Readers are asked to please start now to save newspapers for the class and help class members leave our community a little cleaner!

Junior class president is Cyle Clayton and the sponsor is Mrs. Renella Watson, if readers wish to contact the class about its projects. Class members will appreciate your support!

State Fair To Begin In Dallas Friday

"Celebration-Texas Style," loud, boisterous and bigger than all outdoors in a description aptly fitting the nation's largest annual exposition, the State Fair of Texas.

From October 6-22, more than three million visitors are expected to pour through the gates to join in the 1978 State Fair of Texas, a 17 day festival packed with music, color and action.

Fairtime activities span a cultural and entertainment spectrum from musical comedy to rodeo, fashion shows to football, Suffolk lambs to jellies and jams.

"A Chorus Line," acclaimed by critics and audiences as the Broadway hit of the 70's opened at the State Fair of Texas on October 3. This award-winning musical is built around a dancer's audition that ultimately reveals the personal lives and struggles of the young performers. Conceived and choreographed by Michael Bennett with music by Marvin Hamlisch, "A Chorus Line" opened in New York in 1975 and continues to play to sold-out houses.

Football fans will crowd the Cotton Bowl on October 7 for still another episode in the continuing battle for pigskin supremacy between Texas and Oklahoma. S.M.U. will take on Houston in the Bowl on October 21.

For another "Celebration-Texas Style," former World Champion Cowboy Larry

Mahan will be spotlighted at the State Fair Rodeo, October 7-15. Mahan not only plans to perform with his band, "The Ramblin' Rodeo Revue," but will climb aboard a bronc or two. Over 500 cowboys in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) will be competing for $50,000 in prize money to be split among six events. The events will include: calf roping, steer wrestling, saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding and bull riding, plus barrel racing for the cowgirls.

The magical Midway, sparkling with new rides and landscaping following completion of a summer renovation project, will offer an assortment of old fashioned thrills, plus plush prizes and a feast of foods from corny dogs to cotton candy.

The Centennial Building will offer suggestions for leisure time. The exhibit will feature outdoor furniture, greenhouses, garden supplies and stereo equipment. For those wishing to spend their leisure time traveling, they can stop and plan a trip to Japan or visit the Lotus sports car display. Others will enjoy live entertainment or Exxon sports films.

The most widely attended exhibit at the fair is the Southwest Automobile Show. Along with the 1979 new makes and models, will be a full size wooden replica of a 1957 pick-up. The truck was constructed by a young art student and will be on display on the outside lot.

The Craft Village and Embarcadero are especially fun for those with an itch to buy. The Craft Village is for the art-minded, while the Embarcadero features unusual gifts from jewelry to T-shirts.

The State Fair is a kaleidoscope for all, with fashion shows daily and football mania surrounding a multitude of activities, a true "Celebration-Texas Style."

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS ABOUT CANDY

Proteins, minerals, vitamins, carbohydrates, fats or combinations of these nutrients are provided by the nonsugar ingredients, such as chocolate, nuts, fruits and milk, used in candy. These ingredients contribute to the nutritive merit of candy, as well as to its texture and taste.

A good, balanced diet includes six basic essentials: proteins, fats, carbohydrates, vitamins, minerals and water. At least two (and usually more) of these are found in every ingredient used in the manufacture of candy. For instance, molasses has a good amount of calcium and iron, and chocolate liquor contains riboflavin, calcium and iron.

1954 did faithfully and diligently perform those duties as prescribed in Articles 288 and 289 of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Grand Lodge of Texas until his retirement in 1978.

WHEREAS, Brother McGee because of his love and devotion to the craft performed many tasks for the betterment of this lodge and for Masonry that were not prescribed as duties to his office, to wit, He arrived early at meetings to see that the building was heated or cooled, sent cards and remembrances to Brother Masons and/or their families during sickness or bereavement, made sure that the building was cleaned and presentable for all meetings, was the last person to leave meetings to insure that everything was put away and building properly closed, secured refreshments for stated meetings, reminded the brothers if they forgot to pay their dues.

WHEREAS, Brother McGee did for 24 years offer guidance and counsel for the new members and the newly elected officers. This token of his love and devotion to the tenets of Freemasonry has been a source of inspiration to all who have passed these portals.

RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be prepared and forwarded to the Grand Lodge of Texas and request that it be entered into the records of the Grand Lodge of Texas.

EVERY PRESCRIPTION IS A MIRACLE DRUG

Because, after a personal examination and study of your problem, your physician has selected the one specific medicine he believes will help you most. The odds are it will.

That is why it is wiser to depend on your physician's prescriptions when sick instead of home remedies prepared for the average person. Also, when you treat yourself you can only treat the symptoms which distress. But a physician has the knowledge to find the cause of your sickness and cure it.

Glynn Suzette Hill of Munday and Louis John Urbanczyk Jr. of Goree were married Saturday afternoon, September 30, at three o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Rhineland.

Father Brendon McGuire performed the ceremony before an altar setting of two candelabra, flanking a unity candle. White bows with silk roses marked the pews in the cathedral.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hill of Munday, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis John Urbanczyk of Goree are parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. McGee Attends Convention

Mrs. J.C. McGee, district president of the Mesquite District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, attended the state board meeting in Austin, September 25 through 27.

The meeting opened in the TFWC club house with Mrs. H.B. Bratton, state president, in charge. Her theme for this meeting, "Diversify by Voice," all giving their voice on plans for this administration. Music was enjoyed at every session and on Tuesday evening at the Presidents' dinner, all of the 14 presidents in the state were in attendance to give plans for their respective district.

Mesquite district had 12 attending the board meeting and Mrs. McGee presented some of her plans. She announced the fall board meeting which will be in Moran on October 21 and March 2 and 3 will be the spring convention in Sweetwater.

Mrs. McGee told how she 'forms' a tree in her talks to various clubs, with this tree being a mesquite. Using the title "Roots and Fruits of Federation", the strong roots are the GFWC, the trunk of the tree is the TFWC. Branches are the districts and the fruit is all of the workers in each club. Lena has been guest speaker to clubs in Putnam, Albany, Anson, Sweetwater, Haskell, Snyder, and Knox City.

The TFWC library is asking for books written by or about Texas women. Anyone wishing to donate a book is asked to contact Mrs. McGee. Another project is collecting wigs for M.D. Anderson, and if anyone would like to contribute to this cause, they should contact her.

Lena also reminds persons of the safety equipment now available at the City Hall to help prevent crime. She urges residents to take advantage of the equipment to mark all household items, thus eliminating burglaries to a great extent.

Haskell Woman Artist Of Month

Artist of the month for October at the Citizens State Bank is Mrs. R.W. (Bob) Herren of Haskell.

Mrs. Herren became interested in painting at a very early age and soon it became evident to her parents they should start her in private art lessons. She has taken from various teachers throughout her life. The one having the greatest influence on her work was an Australian, John Kirsch, who spent his summers in Estes Park, Colorado. Kirsch loved the mountains and found the Colorado environment the most interesting to paint. Through his love for the mountains, Mrs. Herren gained her admiration for them also.

Her second teacher was a Mrs. McDonald of Stamford. Since that time, Mrs. Herren has studied in all the medias including charcoal, pastel, ink, watercolor, acrylic, and oils. At the present, she is teaching china painting and oils occasionally.

She has studied with such teachers as Robert Atwood, Vermont; Warren Culler; Esma Glenn; William Whiteside; Ted and Bud Ballock, Ohio; Charles Pruitt, Harold Scott, John Crump, and Elean de Koenig of New York.

There is a permanent exhibit of Mrs. Herren's paintings in the Haskell National Bank as well as the community room. She has had exhibits in the Abilene Fine Arts Museum, Iva Lee's shop, the Haskell County Fair, and various homes.

Mrs. Herren is a firm believer that everyone needs a hobby and the best one to have is painting. She has a studio in her backyard where she teaches china painting. Mrs. Herren has the china blanks and fires china for the public with her two kilns.

Former Resident Weds In Ranch Home Vows

Serving the three-tiered wedding cake were Wendy Stout and Holly Holt, nieces of the bride, while another of the bride's nieces, Paige Holt, laded mint green punch from a crystal punch bowl.
