Loss Is Big Upset For Indians

'Hounds 'Massacre' Haskell Indians

We did it! Reports of bedlam, screaming, crying, and shouting were witnessed following Friday night's game in Haskell where the Knox City Greyhounds, after preparing well, gave the Indians, rated by Harris System as the number one class A team in the state of Texas, a little more than they could handle.

Haskell fans may have felt somewhat like the Dallas Cowboys following their recent Monday night football defeat. Seems as though many persons, including a photographer from one of the area daily papers, were convinced that Haskell would walk away victoriously as its Saturday's sports section page one carried a huge shot of Haskell's Joseph Browning in the first quarter of play. With deadlines to meet, the photographer returned to the city just awaiting the results to fill in the headline.

However, with 2:37 left in the final period of play, the tide turned as Greyhound quarterback Dwayne Johnson "reared" back, pumped and threw long for receiver Joe Gutierrez. Gutierrez sped down the left sideline and beat his closest defender as he made an over-the-shoulder catch at the Haskell 25 and then raced into the end zone. Domingo Garcia's extra point kick try was blocked by Indian Giles Kemp with the 6-3 lead remaining.

Haskell had received its three points as Indian Robert Rodriguez booted a 25 yard field goal to put Haskell in front 3-0 with 2:57 left in the game. Indian players and fans enjoyed the "victory" only briefly as the Hounds proved fatal exactly 20 seconds later.

From the first play until the last whistle the Hounds had a party.

The Hound offense moved the ball almost at will but had a few breaks and flags go against them from time to time, stopping their momentum only temporarily. When they were stopped, Jimmy Rushing did a superb job of punting the football.

Haskell had its moments by first intercepting a pass to stop the Hounds on their first possession. The 'Injuns' drove the ball; however, David Counts recovered a fumble to stop their drive.

On Haskell's next possession, they drove to the KC 15 yard line where Domingo Garcia intercepted a pass.

The Hounds started on their own 15 and drove steadily down to Haskell's four where a fumble halted the drive. According to reports, this was the best drive this season for the Hounds' offense.

For three quarters, totaling 45 minutes, things were about even as the two teams played in a classic defensive struggle.

Things started picking up in the fourth quarter when Haskell began to move. The big gainer was a 38 yard bootleg. Then a penalty away from the play against Greyhound Coach Jimmy Rogers for standing on the playing field gave the Indians new life with a first down when they were going to have to kick the ball away. The next play, Haskell's Hise ran for ten yards and with the Hounds being penalized an additional 15 yards, left the pigskin on the KC 18 yard line.

Rushings Are Game Boosters

Marie and Roy Rushing have been named Boosters of the Week for the Knox City-Aspermont game in Greyhound stadium Friday at 7:30 p.m.

The Rushings' son Jimmy plays linebacker and running back for the Greyhounds. A senior, he wears number 35.

Marie and Roy are also the parents of a daughter Judy Feemster and one granddaughter, Cyndy.

Both Marie and Roy were born and reared in Knox County. The former Marie Mangis graduated from Knox City High, having attended Knox City Schools all her school years. She was in pep squad and played volleyball in high school.

Marie is a Stanley Products dealer and keeps books for her husband's shop. Fishing is a favorite recreation activity and attending all school-related sports activities.

Roy attended both Benjamin and Knox City Schools. He is an avid sports fan, not only of school-related sports but enjoys playing the guitar and frequently participates in the monthly country music jamboree held at Rochester.

After being employed by Egenbacher Implement for her husband's shop, Fishing is a favorite recreation activity and attending all school-related sports activities.

Roy went into business for himself. He moved to his present location next to Dairy Queen when he bought out Drew Holcomb to accommodate his expanding business.

The momentum was going for Haskell; however, on the next play a miscue occurred and KC's David Counts recovered his second important fumble of the night, keeping the Hounds alive.

Hound team members started to prowl with a sensational pass reception by David (alias Tony Hill) Benson. A miscue by the Hounds then gave Haskell what they wanted, when they recovered a fumble on their 44. They drove to the Hounds' five yard line for a first and goal but the Hounds would not be denied. The defense rose to the occasion and on the fourth down from the seven yard line the Indians settled for their 27 yard field goal.

The Hounds never let down a second and on the following kickoff Ricky Gonzales almost broke for a score but he set in motion the next play.

Johnson, behind great blocking, faded back and threw the picture perfect pass to Gutierrez streaking down the sideline with no one there to catch him. The extra point was blocked; however, "the sweet smell of victory" was a tremendous sensation.

The Hounds were loose and were not going to be the victim of a let down that Haskell experienced.

On two Haskell plays following the kickoff, the Hounds trapped Haskell's quarterback for minus 9 and 14 yards, respectively, on outstanding defense by the secondary and a great charge by Terry Watson.

On third down, David Walling intercepted a pass and ran it back 15 yards where the Hounds ran out the remaining time.

Among the comments was that the tremendous fan support was a factor in the KC victory as the cheering and enthusiasm were very much evident and effective.

The Hounds host the Aspermont Hornets Friday at Greyhound Stadium beginning at 7:30. The Hornets are coming off a defeat handed to them by the Paducah Dragons in the final fleeting seconds of last Friday night's game with a touchdown and a two-point conversion squeaking by Aspermont 8-7.

Paducah Implement New Dealer

Paducah Implement Co. has been named authorized dealer for Sperry New Holland farm equipment in this area, according to Rufus Gibbs, owner of the Paducah firm.

The firm will be handling the complete line of Sperry New Holland farm products including balers and other haying machines, forage harvesters, grinder-mis, spreaders, and combines.

Gibbs noted that he is joining a world-wide organization now serving farmers in more than 70 countries. Sperry New Holland, he said, is the world's largest manufacturer of specialized farm equipment.

Paducah Implement, located on Easley Street, Highway 70, has been in Paducah since 1973 and presently employs six persons. Gibbs reported that his staff will be trained in all phases of service by Sperry New Holland engineers and technicians.

One of the prime objectives of his company and Sperry New Holland, Gibbs said, is to provide area farmers with top quality service facilities and trained service personnel.

He said he expects his first shipment of equipment to arrive next month. This initial shipment will include balers, bale wagons, mower, conditioners and other hay equipment, and will be ready for display and demonstration at that time.

Dudney Named By Clements

Gubernatorial candidate Bill Clements today announced that Phil Dudney is serving as the Knox County chairman for the Bill Clements for Governor campaign.

"Clements campaign organizations have now been established in all of the state's 254 counties. This is an unprecedented accomplishment in a Republican gubernatorial campaign in this state," Clements said.

"And, it points up the fact that my campaign is not a one-party effort. My candidacy is attracting Democrats, Independents and Republicans alike this year because Texans are realizing that the governor's race is not a case of Democrats versus Republicans, but a case of conservatives versus liberals," he added.

"This statewide organization clearly shows

DWAYNE JOHNSON

Johnson Named Area Top Player

Knox City Greyhound quarterback Dwayne Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Johnson, has been awarded the honor of 'Area Player of the Week' by the Wichita Falls Record News.

According to reports from the Record News, Johnson's selection was made for his pass for the only touchdown which proved crucial as the Hounds edged out Haskell, 6-3, in an upset of the state-ranked team.

Other players in the area gained more yards and other players scored more touchdowns; however, no one had a hand in a more important play than KC's Johnson, according to the paper.

The touchdown pass which was completed by Joe Gutierrez covered 63 yards and came only 20 seconds after the Indians took the lead in the game on a 25 yard field goal with less than three minutes to play.

The 6-0, 160-pound junior QB completed five of his eight passes in Friday night's contest for 148 yards and rushed for 29 yards in 17 carries.

Coach Jimmy Rogers stated that the team didn't really have a big hero in the game; however, Johnson "did play pretty fair."

"It was more of a team effort. We don't have one standout like some other teams do. We just have 11 good football players," he continued.

Rogers cited two defensive players, linebacker Jimmy Rushing and defensive end David Counts for their efforts in the game also.

"By no means does it (the win) cinch the district for us. It just means that we beat one of the good, big teams in the district and that Haskell has to hope someone else beats us."

Up until the Hounds' defeat of Haskell, the Indians were rated as the number one class A team by the Harris Poll and number six by the Associated Press Poll.

The win kept Knox City's unbeaten 5-0 record intact and dropped the favored Indians to a 3-1-1 season mark and an 0-1 district record.

SWCD Board To Elect New Director

An election for a director to serve in Zone Five on the Wichita Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District Board is scheduled for Thursday, October 12 (today), at the Gilliland Gin, announced

L.D. Offutt, chairman of the board. The election will be held at 10:00 a.m.

State law decrees that to be eligible to vote in a soil and water conservation district director's election, a person must own agricultural land within the subdivision where the election is being held. The person must also live in a county all or any part of which is in the district and the voter must be 21 years old.

Legal qualifications state that a candidate for the office of a soil and water conservation district director must own land in the zone he represents, be 21 years of age and be actively engaged in farming or ranching. He must also live in a county all or part of which is in the district.

Zone Five of the district includes all of Knox County north of the South Wichita River.

The purpose of the Wichita Brazos SWCD, with headquarters in Knox City, is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The district board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator.

By Ozelle Stephens

"...be thou faithful unto death, and I will give you a crown of life." (Rev. 2:10)
The Lord knows how much you have to suffer for the cause of Christ as you live in this short life, but his grace is sufficient. John tells us in Revelations to stop being afraid of what we are about to suffer for we are being tested to see if we have the pure love of God in your heart and are really trusting Him.

If God is first in your heart you can remain faithful even when facing death. It is then He said, "I will give you the crown of life - an unending glorious future."

You must keep loving God and being faithful to serve Him as you did when you were first saved or He will come and remove your candlestick - that means the Holy Spirit. Without Him you live in darkness. But to all who are victorious to the end He will give fruits from the Tree of Life in the Paradise of God. (V.7)

22 Big Performances

Rex Allen Jr. To Headline Stock Show

FORT WORTH - Rex Allen Jr. has been signed as guest entertainer for the 1979 edition of the World's Original Indoor Rodeo, scheduled January 24 through February 4 as part of the 83rd annual Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show.

The announcement was made last week by W.R. Watt Jr., president-manager of the Stock Show and Rodeo, who said Allen will be performing at each of the 22 rodeo performances in the recently renovated Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum.

"We are pleased to have this energetic, versatile entertainer as part of our rodeo program," Watt said. "With his heritage in western music, Rex Allen Jr. and his band, the Country Travelers, composed of Joe Holcomb, Denny De Marco, and Bill McCullough, will present an outstanding family style show which visitors can enjoy."

The country and western music charts have been seeing a lot of Allen. Since his team-up with Warner Bros. Records in 1974, he has logged such hits as "Can You Hear Those Pioneers," "Play Me No Sad Songs," and "Another Goodbye Song." And, his sturdy baritone voice is currently on country charts with a new single record, "With Love."

Rex Jr. grew up on movie sets and worked the rodeo, fair and theater circuit with his father from the time he was six. While in junior high school, he formed his first performing group, and followed that with Saturday's Children, a project which brought him television exposure and the hint of a career in line with his family heritage.

Young Rex will be following his dad's footsteps when he comes to the Fort Worth Rodeo. Allen Sr. played here in 1960 and again in 1968.

After a tour of military duty, Allen moved to Nashville where he felt his talents as a country vocalist would be best recognized. In short order, he was signed by CBS-TV to represent Nashville and country music on a summer replacement show, "CBS Newcomers."

Allen recently commented that his most important record was "Can You Hear Those Pioneers," which was co-written with his wife, Judy, as it served to turn a struggling career into a prosperous one. In the last three years, he has had seven records in the National Country Top Ten.

"Western music is my heritage, and something I expect to continue doing on all my shows and albums for the rest of my life," Allen said. "I would like to keep this simplicity of western music in all my music. The harmony is too pretty to lose."

He has produced three albums. His first, Another Goodbye Song, held diverse material. Next came Ridin'.

High with a wide range of music from traditional to contemporary and some of Allen's own. Then in a definitive effort came one entitled simply, Rex, and featured mostly Allen's own works.

The entertainer has a multi-faceted career. He has written songs for Joe Stampley and Margo Smith as well as himself. Allen also produces records for Sherry Bryce and Tommy Hunter, star of Canada's longest running country music TV show. And, Rex Jr. has participated in a number of nationally run TV and radio commercials.

Rodeo ticket mail orders are being accepted at the Stock Show office, P.O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas, 76101. All seats are reserved at $5 each.

Mail said when ordering by mail, "Indicate the rodeo performance desired, and include an extra $1 for the total order to cover return postage. Tickets will be mailed out in early December."

The Fort Worth Rodeo begins at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, January 24, with 8:00 p.m. performances through February 4. A special 10:00 a.m. rodeo is set Saturday, January 27, with other rodeos at 2:00 p.m. January 27 through February 4.

Eastland Savings Opens Solar Office

Eastland Savings, a division of Olney Savings Association, featured the Sun at the Grand Opening of their new solar building in Eastland on Tuesday, October 3.

Over 700 guests attended the ceremonies and viewed the energy-savings equipment.

This solar structure is one of the first commercial buildings to be developed without the help of federal funds. And it serves as an innovative and timely contribution to the energy conservation effort in the North Texas region.

Ranger Junior College, a nearby college actively pursuing energy-conservation and alternatives, will join hands with Eastland Savings in a Solar Energy Option Program.

Dr. Berl McKinnerney, a dean at Ranger Junior College, will head the project to teach and educate through observation and maintenance the efficiency and practicality of solar energy.

Don McClatchy, president and chief executive officer of Olney Savings explained, "It was management's option, endorsed by the Board of Directors, if Olney Savings were to make decisions about solar energy programs, we'd better have experience with it. Building our own building would buy us that experience. And even though no opportunities have arisen until now, because everything is experimental, Eastland Savings will give us solid background on whether or not solar energy programs are economically feasible and cost-effective."

Eastland Savings is a division of Olney Savings, acquired in 1976. A 50-year-old $150 million dollar savings and loan association with the home office in Olney, Olney Savings has branch offices in Seymour, Jacksboro, Bridgeport, Nocona, Weatherford, Azle, Ranger Savings in Ranger and Electra Savings in Electra.

Researchers Say Laetrile Cures Cancer

HENDERSONVILLE, N.C. - Can laetrile REALLY cure cancer? "No!" roars the American Medical Association. "Yes!" answers Dr. Harold W. Manner, professor of Biology and chairman of the Biology Department at Chicago's Loyola University.

In an exclusive interview in The Mother Earth News No. 54 November/December 1978 Dr. Manner describes the astonishing success he has had using laetrile in experiments with laboratory mice: "At the end of four to six weeks the (cancerous) growths were completely gone from 90% of the animals. Not a cancer cell anywhere. In addition to that, at the close of the experiment the other 10% of the mice were all in stages of partial tumor regression - ALL were better off than when we started."

Physicians across the country have given cancer diagnosed patients clean bills of health following the use of Dr. Manner's prescribed treatments. "After a few days of this treatment, their bodies feel stronger and healthier. Which is why they say, 'I've NEVER felt so good!' Now, this doesn't mean that these people are cured in a week, but in many cases they ARE on their way to a complete remission of their tumors."

Asked if he thought the Food and Drug Administration and the American Medical Association would back the use of laetrile should the treatments gain wide public support, Dr. Manner responded, "They've spent so much time and money OPPOSING laetrile that they'd look very foolish if they did an about-face now... (But) they're coming around, little by little... and eventually they'll put it all together and announce that they've finally discovered the answer."

Dr. Manner has received complete reports on seventeen such cases. "When I have 100 of these files I'm going to take them in a package to Washington, D.C., and I think the whole laetrile controversy will be over."

By Oliver and Sid Richardson
Last Thursday night the JV Bullies played Haskell at O'Brien. Haskell was one of the toughest teams the Bullies have played.
Haskell got off first with a touchdown on the first play. It shook the Bullies up pretty bad and they stayed that way the whole first half. Chuco Magana managed to get into the end zone on a short gain in the second quarter. Although Haskell received a safety just before the half for two points.
At halftime Coach Sloan gave the Bullies a good pep talk to get them back on their feet.
In second half, Chuck Hutchinson caught a pass from Jay Rutherford and went in for six. The Bullies' defense held Haskell for the rest of the game for a final score of 12-8, Knox City.

HOT RICE SALAD FOR RIGHT NOW
Without stirring around too much in the kitchen, you can prepare an eye-catching but nutritious dinner by adapting the Chinese method of stir fry cooking.
Stir frying requires only a few minutes of high heat and involves tossing ingredients vigorously in a small amount of butter or oil. While the mixture is usually spooned over rice, try this recipe for stirring the rice in before serving.
Rice is a versatile staple available in regular, par-boiled, pre-cooked and brown forms. Although some prefer the long grain variety for salads, medium grain is also fine. So any cooked rice works well in a salad.
Both family and guests can enjoy this hot rice salad, whose ingredients retain their vitamins and whose varied colors and textures

The Future Of The Food Stamp Program

by Cy Brickfield

One of the key subjects of debate as Congress considers major reforms of our nation's welfare system will be the future of the Food Stamp program.

Despite the fact that Congress authorized last year some important changes in this vital effort to eliminate hunger in America, there are still calls for the outright gutting of the program and, as I see it, the wholesale abandonment of our nation's poor and hungry.

Some politicians have attacked the program as being "a haven for the chiselers and rip-off artists," while more sympathetic critics have been charging that "people who need food stamps aren't getting them when those who don't need them are." It may turn out, in the long run, that the latter criticism comes the closest to the heart of the problem.

Of course, the charges of cheating and chiseling are accompanied by the usual array of anti-welfare horror stories, and hysterically escalating estimates of how many hundreds of millions of dollars this abuse of a basically good program is costing our country's hard-working taxpayers.

Admittedly, some of these stories are indeed true—and their truth is something about which we should rightfully be outraged—but many more of them are little more than misunderstandings or misinterpretations of superficial observations that no one bothered to check out before accusing people of fraud.

For instance, there is the oft-repeated tale of well-dressed matrons in minks using food stamps to purchase groceries which are then loaded into the trunks of their brand-new shiny Cadillacs. Variations of this story have turned up in newspapers and magazines, on radio and television, at cocktail parties, and presumably in Congressional cloak-room conversations.

As word-of-mouth evidence goes, it is utterly damning. But the normally conservative U.S. News and World Report investigated some of these incidents a few years ago and discovered that the well-dressed matrons were usually "a friend or a volunteer collecting food for someone too old or too ill to shop personally."

The article quoted the entirely logical explanation offered by C. Larry Goolsby, head of the Charlotte, N.C., Food Stamp program.

"We have a number of people in this community who are volunteers, and they assist food stamp recipients by going to the store for them," Goolsby said. "And it so happens that a lot of these people are wealthy and drive nice cars."

Congress passed last year legislation which should eliminate many of the past problems and abuses of the Food Stamp program. The intent of the legislation was to guarantee that only those people who are truly entitled to utilize the benefits of food stamps will be allowed to do so. Once the final Department of Agriculture regulations are implemented, the argument about wholesale cheating in the Food Stamp program will become moot.

In the current debate on welfare reform, it is important to emphasize the tremendous amount of good the Food Stamp program is accomplishing. For most of the 17 million Americans participating (at least one million of whom are elderly), food stamps have often meant the difference between salvation and starvation. Until our nation is ready to replace band-aid approaches to the problems of poverty with comprehensive, compassionate, realistic welfare reform, food stamps will remain our best weapon against hunger.

Serious efforts are being made to extend food stamp benefits to the millions of deserving needy people who are eligible for them but who are not receiving them. Those older Americans who are entitled to participate in the program should feel no stigma in applying for Food Stamps; it's better than going hungry—and, in this nation at this time, there is no need to.

Your Social Security

RETIREMENT TEST
Are you receiving a social security check and still working? If so, you may be interested in some recent changes in what you can earn and still draw Social Security.

What you can earn now depends on your age. If you are under 65 years old you may earn as much as $3,240.00 in a year and draw all of your Social Security. If you earn over that amount, one dollar of Social Security will be withheld for each two dollars you earn.

If you are 65 or older in any part of a year and not yet 72, you may earn up to $4,000.00 and receive all of your Social Security. For all earnings over $4,000.00, one dollar of Social Security will be withheld for each two dollars you earn. Of course, you may earn all you want beginning with the month you are 72 year old and still draw all of your Social Security.

Before this year, many school teachers, farmers, students, and others received Social Security checks for some months regardless of what their total earnings were for the year. They did this because in some months their earnings were less than a small monthly amount or they did little or no work in their business.

Beginning in 1978, these people can draw Social Security checks because of low monthly earnings in ONE and only ONE year. After that one year, the amount they can draw will depend entirely on the amount of their annual earnings - just like everyone else.

You should consult your local Social Security office to find out how these rules apply to you. Of course, none of these rules apply to people drawing disability checks. If a disabled person goes to work he should report it immediately to Social Security.

The Vernon Social Security office is at 1701 Cumberland in Vernon and the phone number is 817-552-9346.

NEED EVIDENCE TO GET A DUPLICATE SOCIAL SECURITY CARD

A person who needs a duplicate social security card to replace one lost or to change or correct information on his/her social security record must submit evidence of identity and evidence substantiating the change before the new card can be issued. For example, a woman who is changing her surname because of marriage should submit any evidence such as a marriage license or driver's license which shows both the previous and new names. A social security number will not be reissued if the evidence requirements are not met.

Previously, all a person had to do was submit the stub of the lost card, or the old card, and a new card could be issued on the spot. If the card was lost, it was only necessary that the individual complete an application for a duplicate card. Under recent changes, anyone who wishes to get a duplicate social security card must complete an application form and present evidence of his/her identity. In addition, the application must be checked against the records at social security headquarters before a new card will be issued. Since it takes three to four weeks to issue and deliver the new card after all documents have been submitted (if the individual is unable to prove his/her number) the Social Security office encourages anyone who has lost his/her card or has changed her name to apply for a duplicate card as soon as possible.

A free leaflet, "Applying for a Social Security Number," lists the new kinds of evidence that can be used to establish a person's identity. Copies can be obtained at the local social security office located at 1701 Cumberland in Vernon.

The fast pace of life today has cut meal preparation time to a fraction of what it used to be. Women are spending more hours outside the home working, involved in community activities or pursuing hobbies and special interests.

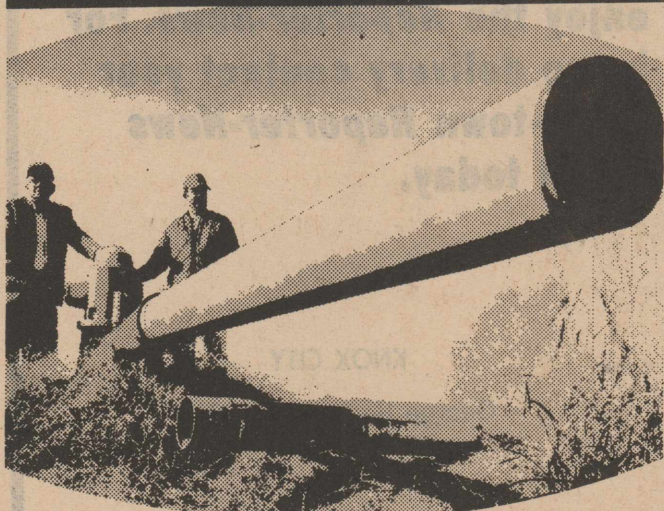

Modern conveniences in food and equipment have made it possible for today's homemakers to spend less time in the kitchen. However, packaged or frozen meals can get pretty dull and are often expensive in terms of dollar value.

dish meals are a real treasure offering convenience combined with home-cooked flavor. Flounder Skillet, for example, unites fillets, sliced potatoes and frozen green beans for a hearty and flavorful dish. Perfect for busy-day dinners, fish cooks in minutes and it is high in protein, low in fat, ideal fare for the cholesterol-conscious.

GTC Director Is Former Pitcher

How do you go about convincing your wife after coming in at 6 a.m. that you were playing softball from 7 p.m. until 4 a.m.?

You might keep it straight and report matter-of-factly that "I began losing my stuff in the 30th inning" and hope she buys your story. But, if you are lucky like Eddie King, accounting director for General Telephone Company of the Southwest, the local newspaper along with the New York Times, New York Herald, Newsweek, several other publications and the major wire services will help you out of the doghouse by reporting your whereabouts.

Otherwise you might be in trouble.

King, longtime softball pitcher in amateur softball leagues, had the experience when he pitched 25 innings of the 31 inning game recorded as the longest national tournament softball game. The game occurred during the 19th game of the National Softball Tournament in Clearwater, Florida, September 24, 1963.

During the game, King walked one batter, (intentionally) allowed only eight hits and struck out 25 in leading the 10 time National Champion Clearwater Florida Bombers to a 4 to 3 victory over the Portland Oregon Beavers.

King started his softball career in St. Petersburg, Florida and played for the Clearwater Bombers of Clearwater, Florida 14 years before taking a one year retirement after which he played another two years. The telephone accountant estimates he pitched over 3,200 innings in over 500 games for Clearwater. He first started pitching for Clearwater in 1955.

Highlights of his softball years include an invitation in 1966 by the Venezuela Softball Association to conduct a 10 day softball pitching clinic.

He was named to the Amateur Softball National Tournament All-Star Team six times during his career with the Clearwater Bombers. He participated in eighteen National tournaments.

Stenholm Gives Views On Domestic Economic Policy

Charles Stenholm, Stamford farmer who handily defeated Dusty Rhodes in the June runoff election for Democratic candidate, 17th Congressional District, and who will face Republican candidate Bill Fisher in the November general election, has issued the following summary:

"Today I am again summarizing my general philosophy regarding the domestic economic policy of our country.

"I believe very strongly that current taxing and spending policies are extremely counterproductive to the American Free Enterprise System. The individual must have a greater say over how his money is spent and this can best be accomplished by reducing government spending, thereby reducing the need for ever increasing taxes. Independent business has always been and will always be the best judge of how to manage our economy for maximum production, maximum employment, and fair wages and profits. Encouraged competition, free and unhindered by unnecessary government interference in the marketplace will guarantee we the people (consumers) our best protection.

"TAXES must be cut. Inflation is the cruelest tax of all and should be reduced first. Inflation strikes hardest at those least able to help themselves: Senior Citizens living on fixed incomes and those in lower income brackets. Inflation can be stopped. A balanced budget is a necessary first step. Wages, fees, and prices that do not reflect increases in productivity, services rendered, or cost of production are also inflationary. We know our Senior Citizens are not causing inflation. Responsibility lies first with our Federal Government spending habits.

"In an election year it is always easier to promise more and more of everything to everybody. Lower taxes without cutting spending makes a popular political slogan, but the risks are far too great. We are currently running an annual budget deficit of over 50 billion dollars. Our total debt is over 4 trillion dollars. Inflation is running at almost nine percent. To run the chance of increasing inflation by increasing our National Debt by over 225 billion dollars in the next three years in fiscally irresponsible.

"Fully realizing the degree of difficulty of affecting change in the United States Congress, and having a basic understanding of the desires and fears of many diverse special interest groups I shall work toward these goals:

1. A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT requiring a "Pay as you go" concept in Federal spending.

2. Annual PHASED-IN CUTS IN SPENDING designed to balance the budget by January 1, 1982.

A. Initial cuts should be concentrated in the regulatory phases of government.

B. Total government spending limited to less than 20 percent of our annual Gross National Product.

3. Annual PHASED-IN CUTS IN TAXES commensurate with the January 1, 1982 balanced budget.

A. Initial cuts should be in those areas that will encourage capital formation and investment incentives for job creation.

4. FUNDS BUDGETED ANNUALLY for debt reduction.

"Our entire taxing structure must be carefully reviewed and changed to place more emphasis on incentives for individuals to gain employment, stay employed, and go into business for themselves to succeed or fail by the fruit of their own efforts.

"It is clearly within the power of the Congress to make the tough choices that will reduce both taxes and unnecessary government spending without harming the most vulnerable members of our society. To these goals I am committed. I ask your help in making our country an even better place to live."

Health Views

HEALTH PROBLEMS CAN INTERFERE WITH A CHILD'S LEARNING ABILITIES

Every year, literally thousands of health problems which are prevalent in students of grade and high-school level are first recognized by their teachers. Likewise, coaches and physical education instructors watch for and often detect health irregularities which might interfere with a child's physical performance and learning ability.

Part of their jobs? Not really. It's that extra sense of dedication that makes these already overworked public servants give your child that extra attention. All because they really care.

The "school guardian" is responsible in many cases for the detection of potential health problems and the funneling of children to proper health authorities. Many of the children that visit medical doctors', dentists', eye doctors', and doctors' of chiropractic offices have been referred by concerned schoolteachers and coaches. Thus, many health problems are pin-pointed, hopefully before they become serious.

Through a combination of experience and extreme awareness to a child's reaction to work and play situations, teachers are very helpful. Yet, the school authorities' dedication gives rise to another problem—a pervasive attitude among parents that they can rely totally on the school. Because of the guardianship portrayed by the school official, many parents figure that if the child has a health problem, the school teacher or coach will notice it.

What most people don't know is that most health problems are far too complex for the teacher to note. And with a busy schedule (and in many cases more children than the teacher can efficiently handle), the educator can't be expected to have the time to screen problems that are beyond his or her scope of training, no matter how conscientious the teacher may be.

The result: many children have health problems that retard their ability to learn or engage in sports effectively. And unfortunately, many of these problems go unnoticed until they become serious. It is estimated that three out of every ten school children have health problems that could affect their futures—if not directly, certainly in terms of diminished abilities.

Concerned parents should consider that before they admonish their children for lack of performance in school, lack of coordination, and poor work and play habits. Not every child can be expected to be an Einstein in the classroom or a Joe Namath on the playing field, but every one should be able to make the most of his or her abilities, with ease and comfort.

Sure, the school teacher cares. So does the coach and the physical education instructor. And that's why they, along with the concerned health professions, urge parents to take more responsibility for their children's health. Some health problems can be obvious—but some are much more remote to the non-expert.

TWELVE GREAT SIGHTS: A WEEK OF HISTORY AND ENCHANTMENT IN JORDAN

Lack of distance lends enchantment in Jordan, where all sights are convenient and the twelve best sights can be visited in less than a week.

Jordan is conveniently middle-sized and compact. Its good highway network and transportation make tours easy to take.

All sorts of combinations can be worked out, but it is possible to visit the twelve best-known sights in six days, or seven at most. For all but two days, you return to your modern hotel in Amman, the capital city, in plenty of time for dinner. Two nights would be spent in excellent accommodations elsewhere.

The places you'll see on such a tour?

Amman. Now a city of 750,000, modern in most ways, it is one of the oldest continuously inhabited spots on earth and is mentioned often in the Bible. Gold and silver items are best buys in the souk, or bazaar area. Excellent restaurants serve everything from stuffed lamb to chow mein to French dishes.

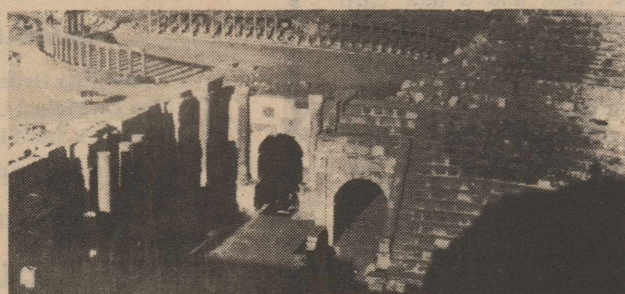

Most impressive sight is the second century Roman amphitheater. One of the largest in the world, it seats 6,000. Amman is worth a full day's time.

Jerash. Just over 30 minutes by car from Amman, it is the site of what is probably the most beautifully preserved Graeco-Roman city in the world. The ancient ruins were buried beneath the sands of northern Jordan for hundreds of years before excavation and restoration began in the 1920s.

Ajlun. A short drive from Jerash and developed as a weekend resort with sports facilities. A good restaurant and overnight sleeping accommodations are available. There's a 12th century Arab castle and a national park with a large pine forest and spectacular natural scenery. Jerash and Ajlun are an easy day's adventure.

Eighth Century Castles

Azraq. Sixty miles from Amman as the crow flies, but the route is roundabout. However, en route, a string sink in the salty Dead Sea. However, the wicked cities of Sodom and Gomorrah are said to be sunken beneath its waters. Again, these three are within an easy day's round-trip from Amman.

Kerak. About 75 miles due south of Amman and a busy, prosperous town now, Kerak is the site of an enormous fortress that Saladin had trouble taking from the Crusaders. During fighting, Saladin ordered troops not to attack one wing of the Kerak castle that held the nuptial bedchamber of a young Crusader and his bride. The castle is so huge that two or three hours are needed to tour it.

Hidden City

Petra. Some 160 miles south of Amman on the King's Highway, it's a hidden city with buildings carved into rose-red mountain rock. Stronghold of a people known as the Nabataeans, who extracted tribute from caravans for safe passage, it was a metropolis hundreds of years before New Testament times. Deserted in the seventh century, Petra was lost to the world until its rediscovery about 160 years ago. Entrance to the city is through a siq, or narrow defile, between walls towering 200 feet overhead.

Petra, with a stop at Kerak, can be reached in a day. Stay over at the modern rest house, see more of Petra in the morning and be off to Aqaba.

Where Moses Stood

Mt. Nebo. Six miles northwest of Madaba, with a magnificent view across the Jordan Valley to Jerusalem. Moses is said to have stood on Mt. Nebo and first looked upon the Holy Land. Zarka Ma'in and The Dead Sea. Can be reached from the Madaba-Mt. Nebo area. There are over 50 hot springs, small and large, tepid to boiling. When he could tear himself away from Salome and other affairs, King Herod the Great came here to lower his afflicted body into the steaming waters. In the distance is the Dead Sea, 1,296 feet below sea level and the lowest spot on earth.

Gold Jewelry Proves Popular

Although prices were high, American consumers bought more real gold and silver accessories in 1977 than in 1976, reports Beverly Rhoades, a clothing specialist.

The largest jewelry consumption, however, was in gold tone, she points out.

Accessory consumption in real gold and silver and in gold and silver tone are expected to increase even more in 1978, the specialist says.

Miss Rhoades is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

NO-TRICK TREATS

A PUMPKIN PATCH of tasty jack-o'-lantern burgers is a hearty Halloween send-off for a band of merry masqueraders. These quick treats join with carrot sticks, celery stalks, ripe olives and cider to make an easy dinner for Trick-or-Treaters. The recipe from the new Hallmark Holiday Cookbook calls for 2 pounds of ground beef, 1 1/2 teaspoons of salt, 1 teaspoon of pepper, 1/4 cup of tomato juice and 8 slices of American cheese. Mix the beef, salt, pepper and tomato juice. Gently form into eight patties. Meanwhile, have the children create their own funny-face cheese cutouts. On a lightly greased hot skillet, cook five minutes on one side and three on the other for medium-rare burgers. Add the cheese jack-o'-lanterns, cook for two more minutes, and serve open-faced on hamburger buns or toasted English muffins. The Hallmark Holiday Cookbook is available in stores that carry Hallmark products. It features special meals and treats for every major seasonal celebration.

the strong momentum of my campaign and the widespread support for my candidacy," he stated.

"Many Texans realize that my opponent is a liberal, as shown by the 300 percent increase in the size of his staff and the 600 percent increase in his budget during his term as attorney general. His record speaks for itself and it clearly says that he is not a good manager of the taxpayers' dollars," Clements said.

"Texans want another conservative governor in Austin - like they have always had - and they want someone who will safeguard their future from excessive taxation and government spending. I am committed to that and I have proposed a Taxpayer's Bill of Rights to ensure it," Clements said.

Women's Fall Fashions Bring Variety Of Trends

By Sharon Book
Assistant County Extension Agent

This fall brings us a variety of changes in our fashion which means that most of us will be making changes in our wardrobe. Many of these fashions we remember from several years back.

Women's fall fashions focus on soft, touchable and layers. Big shapes are evident with shoulder pads for a squared shoulder look of jackets, dresses, sweaters, and coats. Popular fabrics include soft crepe, challis, tweed, damask, Crepe de Chine, velour, corduroy, and flannel.

Layering the new big look with last year's suit or dress provides the comfort factor needed for warmth and still retains versatility of the wardrobe. Skirts are narrower, wrapped or with interesting waist detailing such as a higher front waist cumberbund. Lengths range from below the knee to mid-calf. This year's length is regulated by the proportion created with the top. Watch for damasks or quilted silk vests worn with the big sleeve blouse.

Pants are shorter and narrower. They feature full trouser styling at the top, tapering to the ankle. The Spencer jacket, the newest look worn with skirts, pants and vests, is short and fitted at the waist with slight shoulder pads for the squared touch.

Keep air conditioner grills and filters clean to maximize energy use, advises Linda McCormach, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

Your Social Security

FRAUD CONVICTION

James H. Harper, branch manager of the Vernon Social Security Office, announced today another supplemental security income (SSI) fraud conviction and sentencing in the southwest region.

Harper stated that Mary Tucker of Tulsa, Oklahoma, who pled guilty last March in District Court in Tulsa to having made false statements to the Social Security Administration about her work and income to qualify for SSI benefits, was sentenced yesterday to two years probation, and required to refund all the benefits incorrectly paid to her.

Harper said, "SSI is administered by the Social Security Administration to assist the needy, aged, blind and disabled. This latest conviction is only part of a large and intense effort by SSA to eliminate fraud from the SSI program, and many similar criminal actions are pending."

ANNUAL WAGE REPORTING

Beginning January, 1979, employers will be relieved of much of the burdensome paperwork involved in reporting employees' wages to the federal government.

Although the employer must continue to file Forms 941 and 943 quarterly with the Internal Revenue Service to report total wages paid and tax liability, the detailed Schedule A or Employee Listing will no longer be required. Rather, employers will report wages on an annual basis using the familiar Form W-2.

These annual wage reports made on Form W-2 will be sent directly to the Social Security Administration. SSA will process this data and credit each individual's earnings record with his reported earnings. SSA will convert the Form W-2 information to magnetic tapes which will then be referred to the Internal Revenue Service for income tax purposes.

To ensure the accuracy of the earnings information the administration encourages employers to make their W-2 wage reports by electronic means which include magnetic tape, disc cartridge, or diskette. Employers who do not have computer equipment can report wages electronically through private tax and accounting services. Employers who report through this media do not have to file paper copies of W-2 Form Copy A and will have flexibility in designing the W-2 Form that they issue to their employees.

...80 years 'young'

Mrs. Duncan Honored With Party

Mrs. W.L. Duncan was honored Sunday, October 8, with a birthday dinner in the Community Center by her six children. Mrs. Duncan will be 80 years 'young' on Sunday, October 15.

Born in Grayson County, Mrs. Duncan moved to O'Brien in 1937. Her husband, W.L., worked for Elmo Stephens for several years and they resided in the Needmore community. The couple moved to Knox City about 1971 and Mr. Duncan died in February 1975.

Children attending were Mr. and Mrs. O.C. Poe of Knox City, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Duncan of O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Duncan of Weatherford, and Mrs. Frances Hudson of Eastland.

RARE FACTS ABOUT PLATINUM

Platinum has always been a rare metal. Its earliest known use dates back to Egypt in the 17th century B.C., when the ancient craftsmen who worked it probably thought they had stumbled across a very hard type of silver. Long before Columbus arrived in the new world, the Incas used platinum alloyed with gold, silver and copper to make pendants and nose rings.

Perhaps the only people who didn't recognize its value were the Spanish conquistadores who, assuming that gold and silver were the only precious metals in their South American empire, ordered the platinum they discovered thrown into the sea!

Today platinum sells for more than $200 an ounce. Platinum is harder, heavier and rarer than gold; its average occurrence in the earth's crust is only two-tenths of a part per million. The occurrence of iron, by contrast, is 47,000 parts per million.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hudson of Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. A.A. Cox of O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Duncan of Knox City, Leonia Raby and Betty Poe and Mr. and Mrs. B.B. Hendrix, all of Knox City, Jennifer Holmes of Rochester, and the Rev. and Mrs. Bob Cameron and Beth of Fort Worth.

Platinum has many unique qualities. It melts at 3224° Fahrenheit; it does not tarnish at high temperatures; it resists most acids, and it is not affected by these corrosive substances. These desirable characteristics make it a valuable metal to science and industry (one new use is in the catalytic converters which reduce the toxic content of exhaust gases on late model cars). It is also an ideal metal for jewelry: knowledgeable people prefer platinum for ring settings because it won't tarnish, it resists nicks and scratches, it shines and reflects light from a gem, and it holds even the most precious stone safer than any other metal.

popular for wedding bands and engagement rings, is involved with other affairs of the heart as well: it is used in heart pacemakers because it will not be rejected by the body's protective mechanisms and thus can be implanted in the human body with total safety.

Chemically and aesthetically, platinum is the noblest metal. (Metals with high resistance to corrosion are called noble, while those which tarnish and corrode easily are called base metals.) Platinum's resistance to corrosion is greater than that of gold, silver, stainless steel, even titanium... a rare and valuable combination of stunning beauty and impressive durability.

This precious metal which is becoming more and more

BILL CLEMENTS WILL CUT TAXES AND GOVERNMENT SPENDING

Texas was built by men with the vision to look ahead and the grit to get things done. Bill Clements is the man to keep this tradition alive for the future of Texas.

Bill Clements will bring a strong, fresh and tough approach to our government in Austin. He is a businessman, not a politician.

Bill Clements started with nothing and built a successful, worldwide company with hard work and the skill to manage men and money. And now Bill Clements wants to preserve the future of our state and he wants the working people of Texas to have the same opportunities he had.

With his proposed "Taxpayers' Bill of Rights," Bill Clements is committed to protecting Texans from excessive taxation and runaway government spending. He is pledged to cutting taxes and returning that money directly to the taxpayers.

As former Chairman of the Southern Methodist University Board of Governors, Bill Clements knows how to make education in Texas the best in the Nation. He's for discipline in the classroom and "back to basics" quality education.

As the son and grandson of farmers, Bill Clements knows the frustrations that an indifferent government can cause people who make their living off the land. He will use the strength of the State Government to fight burdensome Federal restrictions.

"I believe that Texas has always had more promise than problems, but the balance is more delicate each year. We need to get to work now."
