Hounds Slay Dragons

Defence! Defence! Defence!

Regardless of how you spell it, the Knox City Greyhounds have a great defense! For the second time in as many weeks, the opposition has ended up with minus yards' rushing.

The 41-7 Knox City win over the Paducah Dragons on their home turf is a little misleading. Early in the game, the Hounds fumbled on their own 21 yard line, but the defense returned the ball to the offense four plays later.

When the Hound offense could not move the pigskin, Jimmy Rushing boomed a 42 yard punt. The punt was mishandled and David Counts recovered on the Dragon 33 yard line. Three plays later, Paducah intercepted a Hound pass.

On the fourth down, Paducah punted the ball to Ricky Gonzales on the Hound 45 yard line. Behind a good wall of blockers, Gonzales raced 55 yards for the first Hound score. Domingo Garcia's kick was his first of five extra points of the night.

The next time the Hounds got possession, the offense cranked up. Sammy White caught two passes and Tim Roberson ran the final eight yards for KC's second touchdown.

As the first half was coming to a close, Doug Ray made an outstanding defensive charge to force yet another Dragon punt. The half ended with the Dragons intercepting a Hound pass.

The second half opened with a short kick. Knox City went to work on its 35 yard line. A good drive followed with good blocking on the offensive line and hard running and two Johnson to Counts pass completions; however, the drive stalled on the Paducah 11 yard line on fourth down and needing one yard, the Hounds could not make it for another first down.

Skipper Jackson did a number on a Dragon runner to force Paducah into a punting situation.

The hard running of Jimmy Rushing was featured on the next Hound drive with a 12 yard pass completion to David Benson thrown in for good measure. The drive stalled on the Dragon one yard line.

On third down and needing eight, Paducah's quarterback found an open receiver behind the Hound defense and away they went; however, Domingo Garcia closed and tackled the runner on the Hound 19, climaxing an 81 yard pass and run. Two plays later, another pass was caught in the end zone for a Dragon score. After the kick, the score was 14-7 with 9:48 left on the clock.

After receiving the kickoff, a 38 yard run by Rushing was wiped out by a penalty. Sammy White caught a 22 yard pass and the drive ended on the Dragon 30 yard line.

The Hound offense decided that they had had enough and behind good blocking, Tim Roberson ran for 24 yards, Dwayne Johnson ran a quarterback sneak for 23 yards, and Joe Gutierrez ran for 14, his last scoring from one yard out. The score was 21-7 with 4:57 left in the game.

With time running out, the Dragons attempted to make a first down on their own 27 yard line. On the third play following the Dragons' failing on the fourth down, Dwayne Johnson found Ricky Gonzales in the end zone for a 20 yard touchdown pass. The extra point attempt was no good, and the score was 27-7 with 1:37 remaining.

Scouts Win Honors At Camporee

The Greenbelt District Scouting Camporee was held at Copper Breaks State Park on October 21 and 22, with KC Scouts bringing home several awards.

Scouts attending from Knox City were Mike Oliver, David Thompson, Michael Rauch, Ray Rios, Michael Albus, Mark Delgado, Andy Correll, Cliff Hacker, Adam Garcia, and Tracy Carter, along with Scoutmaster David Albus.

The Camporee was an opportunity for adventure, fun, challenge, and mastering of scouting skills. Competition was very tough, but the Scouts proved themselves to be among the best coming home with awards.

The Troop won the Award of Merit for having the best campsite. As every troop wants to win this award, it is an honor to be considered the best, neatest, and most efficient campers at the Camporee.

The Eagle Patrol, consisting of Mike Oliver, Michael Albus, Michael Rauch, Tracy Carter, and Andy Correll, won second in compass course and second in knot relay.

The Cobra Patrol, consisting of David Thompson, Cliff Hacker, Ray Rios, Adam Garcia, and Mark Delgado, won first in compass course and third in radiation competition.

Turkeywalk Saturday

Knox City and area residents are reminded of the Turkeywalk in behalf of the American Heart Association set for Saturday, November 11, sponsored by the Knox County 4-H Clubs.

The fund-raising event will begin at the Rhineland Gym with check-in and registration at 9:00 a.m. and the kickoff at 9:30.

A 15 mile walk through the country, seven and one-half miles out and then seven and a half miles back to Rhineland, is being coordinated by Sue Oxford of Benjamin.

Prizes and turkeys are being donated by merchants in Benjamin, Munday, and Knox City for two age groups, those up to 16 and those over 16.

A free turkey will be given to each participant who turns in $100.00 or more and finishes the 15 mile walk.

In case of rain, the Turkeywalk will be postponed, officials said. They also remind participants to bring a sack lunch.

Is Your Paper Expiring Today?

There are only a few November subscribers who have failed to renew their subscriptions to the News.

Postal regulations require that subscriptions be paid in advance. Due to the ever-increasing cost of mailing notices, only one notice is sent, several weeks in advance in order that subscribers may have plenty of time to come by the News office or mail in their checks.

However, if you are one of those who has not renewed and would like to continue to receive the News, please call today and let us know. As always, your cooperation is appreciated.

Bulldogs Finish Their Season With Victories

The second half proved to be a different story, however, when the Bulldogs came back strong holding Quannah scoreless the second half and producing 12 more points on offense. The final score showed victory number six by the score of 24-14.

This set the stage for the final game against Paducah. This game proved to be the toughest of the year but the Bulldogs again proved equal to the task. With the score knotted at 14-14, David Lankford intercepted a Paducah pass with about one minute to play. One play produced three yards and the Bulldogs used their final time out with the ball on the Paducah 8 yard line with 31 seconds left on the clock. The Bulldogs offense went without a huddle ran three plays with the final play getting off with only two seconds showing on the clock. That was just enough as Ricky Gutierrez took a handoff from Tyke Meizer and crossed the goal line as time expired. The score showed O'Brien 20 and Paducah 14 in an exciting game that completed an outstanding year.

The arch rival Munday Bulldogs faced their stiffest competition in the last two games in Quannah and Paducah. The Bulldogs faced Quannah on the Indians home field. The first half score showed the Bulldogs trailing by a score of 14-12.

Happy Birthday, Lance!

They plan to return to Germany by plane after a few more weeks in the States.

with them. I cannot make up my mind which time of the year I like best, summer or winter. In the summertime when I am smothering to death I can hardly wait until winter. I think I need to go to a country that has a temperature of about 70 degrees the year around. Wonder if there is such a place? I know for sure West Texas is not! Monday was cold to me and others here in O'Brien. Maybe this will be the night we get that frost. Some of the boies are not ready for a freeze yet, but a medium frost would probably help mature them and get ready to harvest sooner.

I have been asked to mention the Cemetery Fund, as it is time to start thinking about the drive that is made

Delia Kay Rites Held In O'Brien

Services for O'Brien resident Mrs. Lewis (Delia) Kay were held Thursday afternoon, November 2, at 2:30 o'clock in the O'Brien Baptist Church. Officiating were former church pastor, the Rev. Bob Cameron of Fort Worth and the Rev. James Patterson, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Knox City. Graveside services were conducted by the Order of the Eastern Star in the Knox City Cemetery under the direction of Smith Funeral Home.

Mrs. Kay, 72, died Tuesday, October 31, at 1:50 p.m. in the Concho County Hospital following a brief illness.

Born November 22, 1905, in Prescott, Arkansas, Mrs. Kay moved to Knox County at a young age. She married Lewis Kay on August 25, 1934, in Seymour. The couple had resided on their farm west of O'Brien since 1936. Mrs. Kay was a member of the O'Brien Baptist Church, the Order of the Eastern Star, the Knox City Study Club, and the Retired Teachers Association.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters, Betty Lucille Monsen of Roseville, California, and Doris Louise Jones of Wichita Falls; two sisters, Mrs. Ernie Bryant of O'Brien and Mrs. Dena McMahan of Kermit; and six grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Orville Manning, Oather Poe, B.B. Hendrix, Alfred Hendrix, Demp Emerson, and Gene Underwood.

year. Also remember that the price of labor has gone up, and it is costing much more to keep it clean than it did a short while ago.

Also remember our "Saving Fund." We need a fund that can be built up to where the "interest" will work this cemetery in the future. The older generation is passing away fast, so let's make provisions for some way to work this cemetery after we are gone.

Make your checks payable to the O'Brien Cemetery Fund and mail to Beatrice Ellis, O'Brien, Texas 79539. Checks may be left at the O'Brien Coop Gin office with Charlene Brothers if you wish.

If you had rather donate work than money, this will be appreciated very much, as someone to work is very hard to find at certain times of the year. So there is a way everyone can help if you will.

HERE AND THERE

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Hewitt, Vicki and Toni during the weekend were her mother and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davis of Snyder. They all attended the Rule homecoming.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Manning during the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Neal and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horton, all of Blanket. They are relatives of the Manning brothers, Bill, Orval and Marvin.

Marvin Manning, Myrtle Roberson and Charlene Brothers visited in Springtown and Azle during the weekend with the Derwin Lancaster family, the Larry Gibsons, the Jerry Brothers family, the Tim Ivey family and the Darvin Altoms.

A Coin Toss?

Haskell, Munday, KC 'All Tied Up'

A game of special importance to Knox City and area fans was played Friday night in Munday as the Moguls hosted the Haskell Indians on their home field. The Indians literally 'zapped' the Moguls by a score of 47-3, throwing the District 7A race as of now into a three-way tie between those two teams and the Knox City Greyhounds.

On October 6, Knox City journeyed to Haskell to meet the Number One Class A team and delightfully returned home with a 6-3 victory under its belt. Things were running smoothly for the Hounds until their Saturday night, October 21, game with the other county school, Munday. During the first half, the Hounds outscored Munday 20 to 7 with the Moguls coming back in the second half to 'sweeten' their homecoming with a win, 28-20, over the Greyhounds.

Since losing to Knox City four games ago, Haskell has since charged back to outscore its last three opponents, 153-9, to get back into that important race that may be decided by a coin flip. Haskell quarterback Jimmy Harris and running backs Ronnie Hise and Mark Wallace each scored two TD's to spark the Indians to their sixth win of the season against a loss and a tie. Munday is now 6-3 but this was the first loss for the Moguls in district play.

The Indians completely dominated the first half of play, running 44 plays to Munday's 18 and controlling the clock for 17 minutes and 9 seconds out of a possible 24 minutes. With this, they controlled the scoreboard, 20-0.

Haskell drove 70 yards the first time it had the football, using up four minutes with Harris going around right end for the final seven yards on fourth down. Hise kicked the first of five extra points and Haskell was on its way.

A Munday fumble at its 20 was recovered by Giles Kemp to set up Haskell's next TD, a halfback pass from Ronnie Hise to end Joseph Browning for 13 yards.

Harris got his second touchdown early in the second quarter when he sneaked over from the one. That made it 20-0 and the Indians threatened again getting to the Munday four before a holding penalty rubbed that threat out.

Munday's offense never got on track, thanks mainly to the defensive work of the Indians. The Moguls had only two first downs in the first half, 38 yards rushing and never threatened.

Haskell's defense didn't let up in the second half, limiting the Moguls to only 78 yards total offense for the entire game and five first downs, two coming as a result of penalties.

On the third possession of the third period, Haskell made it 27-0 when Wallace took a pitch-out and raced around left end for seven yards and another score. A minute and a half later, Haskell scored again with Ronnie Hise going over from the three.

This touchdown was set up when Mark Jackson, hit Munday quarterback Randy Ronton before he threw the ball and Giles Kemp recovered at the Munday 20.

Munday at this point drove for its only points a 28-yard field goal by Larry Welch but the Indians were not through and with 1:58 remaining, Harris faked to Hise and then pitched to Wallace around left end for an 8-yard touchdown.

Comments from Haskell coach Don Flippin, in the Abilene Reporter News Monday Morning Quarterback column following Friday night's game with the Munday Moguls were, "Our game plan was to run right at them and that's what we did. I don't think any one thing fired us up except we've got our backs to the wall in the district race and all we've got going for us really is a coin toss. I think one thing that has helped us in the last three games is moving Mark Wallace to running back. We alternate him with Ronnie Hise and that's two good backs running at you. After the loss to Knox City, we decided we hadn't been working hard enough and we had gotten away from contact work in our drills, afraid of getting someone hurt. That's been changed, too."

In this week's action, Haskell meets Quanah in Haskell, Munday faces Aspermont on the Hornet field, while the Hounds are open.

In the last district game of the season, November 17, Haskell will meet Paducah in Paducah, Munday will be open, and Knox City hosts Crowell.

COMMUNICATING WITH CHILDREN

(This is the second article in the communication series.)
Adult/child communication requires some adapting. Conversing with a child requires a special skill.

A four-year-old does not grasp adult concepts and styles of communication. For example, children have little appreciation of teasing and sarcasm, which most adults tend to use throughout their conversations with other adults.

HOUNDS

The Hounds kicked off and the Dragons completed an eleven yard pass. On the next play, the Dragons, trying to stop the clock, threw a pass to the sideline but Garcia was there waiting. After he intercepted the pass, he stepped smartly 40 yards into the end zone and afterwards completed the extra point with this bringing the score to a margin of 34-7 with 1:04 left.

After this kickoff, David Counts intercepted a Dragon pass returning it 27 yards to the Dragon 23 yard line.

The second Greyhound offense was ordered onto the field in a moment of generosity. Generosity? It didn't seem that way as Terry Watson ran a sweep to the left on the first play breaking three tackles and finally was pushed out of bounds at the Dragon one yard line. On the next play, Watson bulled into the end zone for the score. The kick was good, which brought the score to 41-7.

Not planned, the ensuing kickoff bounced off a Dragon player and into the arms of a Greyhound player.

This time, Hound quarterback Steve Rumley fell on the ball and time was allowed to expire.

Joe Alsides had several key defensive plays as did Greg Whitten and Robert Espinosa.

With the Munday loss, the Hounds are very much in the picture to represent District 7A in the playoffs as Haskell 'soundly' defeated Munday by a score of 47-3 last Friday night, bringing the district to a three-way tie at this point between Knox City, Haskell and Munday.

Statistics for the KC-Paducah game, respectively, were first downs, 20, 7; yards rushing, 235, -3; yards passing, 94, 176; passes completed, 8 of 13, 10 of 23; passes intercepted, 2, 2; fumbles lost, 1, 1; punts, 2 for 36, 7 for 35; and penalties, 5 for 55, 9 for 82.

Olney Savings Association Opens Employee Credit Union

OLNEY - The first credit union for employees of a savings and loan association in Texas has been organized by Olney Savings Association.

The Olney Savings Credit Union will serve employees of Olney Savings Association in Olney and its branch offices in nine counties, their families and employees of certain affiliated companies. Carmen Bullock, the credit union's chief executive officer, announced Wednesday.

One of the largest savings and loan associations in north central Texas, the $154 million Olney Savings Association has branches in Seymour, Baylor County; Bridgeport, Wise County;

Weatherford, Parker County; Jacksboro, Jack County; Nocona, Montague County, and Azle, Tarrant County. In addition, it has divisions in Eastland and Ranger, both in Eastland County, and Electra, Wichita County. Total deposits are listed at $121 million and total loans, $128 million.

Ms. Bullock, administrative assistant to the president of Olney Savings Association, said the state-chartered credit union was formed to "help our employees with their borrowing and saving."

Under federal conflict of interest regulations, employees are discouraged and, in some cases forbidden, to borrow from the savings and loan where they work, she said.

"We want our people to have a convenient and professional financial resource available. Starting our own credit union seemed the ideal solution."

The Olney Savings Credit Union plans to offer a full range of financial services including payroll deductions, Ms. Bullock said.

Top management heartily endorses the new credit union. Donald McClatchy, president and managing officer of Olney Savings Association, has been active in the formative stages of the non-profit cooperative.

"We're all pitching in," he said. "It irritates me beyond words to have to send our employees somewhere else to borrow money. Our employees are wonderful - I mean that in a non-paternalistic way. They work hard and stay with us a long time. To keep good people, you have to offer a total package of compensation. Along with salary come fringe benefits, and I think our credit union will be an important one."

"To me, it makes a great deal of sense to have a credit union, professionally managed, to meet the borrowing needs and other financial needs of our employees."

McClatchy, active in a number of state and national financial associations, is immediate past president of the National Savings and Loan League, Washington, D.C. He served as president of the Texas Savings and Loan League in 1968-69 and is an ex-officio member of the Federal Savings and Loan Advisory Council.

What will his friends in Texas' other 318 savings and loans think of his association's sponsorship of a credit union?

"They'll be watching closely to see what we do," McClatchy predicted.

Although credit unions for financial institutions are somewhat a novelty, there are ten for savings and loans and 15 for banks across the country.

McClatchy believes "there is room for all kinds of good financial institutions. I don't see any conflict or problem at all. Any financial institution will prosper and

Bullock Reports State Government Surplus

AUSTIN - State Comptroller Bob Bullock Monday reported that Texas state government ended the last fiscal year with a $9.7 billion surplus.

Bullock filed with the Governor's office the 1978 annual financial report for the fiscal year which ended August 31, 1978.

This year-end cash balance was $244.8 million greater than the cash balance at the beginning of the year.

"The economic environment of Texas government should be the envy of budget-makers in the other 49 states and is closely linked to the state's prospering economy," Bullock said.

The report showed that Texas government had total revenues and beginning cash of $11.1 billion during the year and spent $8.4 billion.

The favorable position was made possible by record revenues from all major sources, including $5 billion in tax collections, $2 billion in federal funds, $414 million in licenses and fees, $665 million from investments of state funds and $405 million in income from state-owned lands.

Support for public education at all levels accounted for the biggest state expenditure, $3.7 billion or about 46 percent of state spending.

Public welfare was the second largest function of state government with outlays of $1.6 billion. Spending for state highways amounted to $921.8 million.

Texas' predominant role in the rise of the Southwest as a major economic population center has resulted in substantial increases in state revenues, the report notes.

Economic indicators such as population growth, personal income, employment and energy production were detailed. These developments include:

• For the year ended June 30, 1977, the Texas population was estimated 12,830,000, a 1.8 percent increase above previous years. For the past ten years, the state's population had an annual increase of 1.7 percent, more than double the percentage increase of the nation as a whole.

• Texas per capita personal income averaged $6,803 in 1977 - a 10.3 percent boost above the prior year.

• Texas employment totaled 5.07 million in May 1978, excluding agricultural workers. This is a 4.3 percent increase over the previous year.

• The number of state employees in Texas declined relative to the state's population in 1977.

TAKE NO CHANCES WITH YOUR EYES

Most people do not give their eyes the best possible care. To further complicate the danger, some unscrupulous promoters offer eye products that delay proper treatment, even though causing no immediate harm. Be wary of mail-order medicine men.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

By Gerri Watson
Last Saturday, the Juniors had their first workday. They washed cars and did odd jobs such as mowing lawns and cleaning houses. Everyone worked very hard and they made approximately four hundred and fifty dollars. We would like to thank everyone who helped us make this money. We also thank Wayne Watson for the use of his service station.

The pens and pads projects that we have been working on turned out very good. We made seven hundred dollars. Congratulations to all the juniors and Mrs. Watson who worked so hard to make this money.

STREAMS IN DESERT PLACES

By OZELLE STEPHENS

"Oh, come let us sing to the Lord. Give a joyous shout in honor of the rock of our salvation." (Psalms 95:1)

What would be a proper response to the Lord in Thanksgiving for our salvation? There is no better one than to obey Jesus' command when He said to go and spread the gospel throughout the world. Again He said, "...you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8)

In the times we are living in, it is easy to help spread the Gospel throughout the earth. How thankful we should be for this privilege. We do have a chance to do this every day as we listen to the challenges on TV and the radio, as well as our churches. Remember all He asks is that we obey Him; He will give you the equipment and joy, peace and prosperity for doing His work. He will not give you a spirit of fear but of power, of love, and a sound mind. Don't wait too long; we have a short time to work.

Bullies See The Light

By Greg Oliver and Sid Richardson

The Knox City Bullies found the guiding light last Thursday night against the Paducah Lizards.

The hard hitting was started by a 30-yard scoring run by Scott Lynn on the very first offensive series. The extra point run was unsuccessful.

In the second quarter, Chuco Magana got in on a short gain for six points. The extra point pass was again unsuccessful. Just before the half, Scott Lynn scored again and again the extra point try was unsuccessful.

In the second half, the Lizards came out ready to play and made a game out of the rest of the contest. Neither team scored so it left the score 18-0, Knox City.

This game ended our district play for the year. It looks now as if Quannah won our JV district. As you know they are the only team to beat the Bullies, 7-6.

The Bullies have one game left; it's with Roby. It doesn't mean anything district-wise, but the Bullies would like to finish out on a good note.

IN GRAPEVINE

The Angle Sisters performed at the Grapevine Opry Saturday night and attending the late show were former resident Marlene Hamer, her husband Mike, and daughter Michelle, of Arlington. Marlene will be remembered here as the former Marlene Smith. The Hamers, who are both employed by Braniff Airlines, are in the process of building a new home in Grapevine.

Also attending the show were Knox City residents Mr. and Mrs. Z.I. Smith.

Gwen and Stacy, along with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Angle, were weekend guests of Chisai and Joe Lindsay.

Rex Allen Sr. 'Sold' On WT Rehab Center

ABILENE - Country and western singer Rex Allen said he was "sold" on the West Texas Rehabilitation Center (WTRC) here the first time he saw the facility back in the early 60's.

"I was doing a rodeo in San Antonio," Allen recalled, "when Shelley Smith (executive director of the WTRC), called me and said he wanted to show me something in Abilene. I visited the center on my way home and told Shelley, 'Whatever you want me to do, I'll do' - because I was sold."

What impressed Allen? "For one thing, the kind of work they were doing and the fine quality of it," he said. "What especially impressed me about this operation, though, was the fact that such a large percentage of the money collected goes directly to serving handicapped patients. I've been involved with several other charities where this has not been the case."

About 80 cents out of every dollar donated to the WTRC goes to direct patient services, according to an independent auditing firm. The remaining 20 cents finances administration and fund-raising costs.

What Smith wanted Allen to do was star in the center's first telethon - now, 15 years later, one of the WTRC's major money-making events.

"The first year," Allen said, "the stage was set up outside. I brought one fiddle player with me, and a couple of hours before we were supposed to start, I told Shelley we needed to practice with the band."

"What band?" he said. "You're it!" So we played the entire six hours all by ourselves."

Allen has been in every telethon since that first one in 1963.

"This is a really special place to me," Allen said.

Benjamin 'Squeaks' By Harrold

The Benjamin Mustangs slipped past the Harrold Hornets by a 'squeaking' 16-14 to take a District 3-B game in Harrold last Friday night.

Joey Pierce was the scoring man for the Mustangs as he crossed the goalline twice for two touchdowns and booted both extra points.

Scoring for Harrold were Robert Gates and Mark Rainwater with one touchdown each and Richard Anzalda, two points.

Born May 17, 1902, in Cross Plains, he was the retired owner of a cleaners in Abilene for many years. He had moved to Abilene from Cross Plains in 1941 and lived in Knox City at one time. Mr. Hill married Lela Pauline Roch in 1922 in Cross Plains and was a 50-year member of the Church of Christ.

Among those attending the services from Knox City were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith.

Fire Department News

By Volunteer Fire Members

It seems as though our Federal Agencies pass along so many safety regulations, they can't win for losing. In their attempt to clean the air of automobile pollution, they required catalytic converters and we informed you about their danger.

We have run across another dangerous "safety feature" on automobiles. Every car made after 1973 or so has at least a safety bumper. Most cars today have them on both the front and rear. An article we saw in the state brochure told of incidences of fire related collisions and the after effects of these bumpers.

This safety device is constructed to reduce damage to autos in collisions of approximately 30 m.p.h. These bumpers work on a sliding hydraulic piston assembly and as you know will move in and out when something is bumped. But in a fire situation these hydraulic systems are potential bombs. Reports are that these bumper systems have exploded, throwing the bumpers quite a distance before coming to a stop or hitting something. In this article, an incident of a bumper cutting a ten to twelve inch tree trunk like a match stick was reported. It is frightening to think what it would do to a human in this way.

So it goes without saying, if your auto, equipped with "safety bumpers" is in a fire related collision, do not walk in front of it as you seek aid. Stay to the sides of the car, a safe distance, about 200 feet just in case these bumpers and/or the fuel tank explode.

Remember: Prevention is the best firefighter.

End of '78 - Beginning Of The End Of Weevil

MEMPHIS (Special) - The end of 1978 may be a special landmark for cotton - and the beginning of the end for the boll weevil.

Those are views expressed by members of the National Cotton Council's Boll Weevil Action Committee after an inspection of the eradication trial site in Virginia and North Carolina.

Committee Chairman Robert R. Coker, a cotton producer of Hartsville, S.C., said encouraging progress is being seen by growers and scientists in the eradication test.

Of particular interest is Chowan County, N.C., which is isolated on the eastern edge of the area. As a research project last year, the entire cotton acreage there was subjected to weevil suppression measures, Coker said.

"In a followup test this year, pheromone traps were used season long, and by late June, only ten weevils had been found in the county," he stated. "Starting on June 29, five Dimilin applications were applied under an experimental use permit at rates of one-half to one ounce per acre. Only two to five sprays of insecticides for worm control were required, and these were applied August 4 to September 7," Coker added.

He said as of the first of November, not a single weevil has been found in Chowan County since late June.

These results, according to Coker, confirm the critical importance of getting Dimilin registered in time for next year's use in this and other cotton insect programs.

Dimilin, he explained, is a new insect growth regulator that interferes with weevil egg hatch and reproduction. Its registration for cotton has been under review by EPA since December, 1976, and is expected by the end of the year.

USDA's Dr. James R. Brazzel is overall director of the trial program. He says, "Cotton growers simply can't afford to raise cotton the way they're having to do it now. In the trial area, general insect control has been costing $50 to $60 per acre per year, and control is becoming more expensive and more difficult each year because former secondary pests have now become major problems. If we could eliminate the boll weevil and rely on biological or beneficial insects for worm control to the extent we have during the first summer of the trial, there would really be a number of economic and environmental benefits."

Cotton grower and committee member Marshall

Grant of Garysburg, N.C., reported this fall to the Council's board of directors that growers in the 18-county area responded perfectly in paying more than $800,000 into the trial program fund at the rate of $50.50 per acre. The other half of operational costs was borne equally between USDA and the two state departments of agriculture.

Coker and Grant explained that program operations in 1978 utilized mainly pheromone traps and insecticides to reduce weevil populations low enough to facilitate eradication with traps, sterile weevils, and hopefully Dimilin, during the following two years. In addition, chemical treatments were applied for all other cotton insects but growers will be responsible for controlling these other pests next year.

"From the program this year," Grant said, "I think we can already see some of the real benefits of having the weevil out of the picture. With the low populations going into the season we had essentially that this year. This meant no early weevil treatments and the protection of beneficials which kept worms under control until late in the season. The late season worm and diapause treatments virtually assure an extremely light weevil population next spring."

Coker said, "The trial program is truly an outstanding example of cooperation between industry and government. The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) of the U.S. Department of Agriculture is in charge of operations. Research and other services are provided by several other USDA agencies, state experiment stations, cooperative extension services, and state departments of agriculture. Cotton producers in the trial are prime participants, of course."

se, and 100 percent of these are paying their 50 percent share of the cost."

He noted that because of recent cold winters and heavy treatments to control worms, weevil populations have been kept low in most areas. He said this could cause some growers to think they can forget about the weevil.

"However, it can bounce back quickly like it did in south Georgia and other locations this year," Coker asserted, "and we face the horror of losing weevil control chemicals in the future due to insect resistance developing or through regulatory action. In addition, most of the newer worm control chemicals, including the synthetic pyrethroids, are poor weevil killers."

"These factors, he said, are realistic reasons why we cannot relax our efforts against the boll weevil. If we turn our back now or are lulled into complacency, the pest will surely surge back and spread to the point that it could literally destroy U.S. cotton."

Beta Chi Chapter Meets In Munday

The Beta Chi Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma met in the library of the Munday High School Saturday, November 4, at 2:30 p.m.

Place cards written in various colors directed the members to attractively arranged tables decorated in the matching colors where chapter committees were seated together as a convenience for beginning their committee work for the year. Later in the meeting, pictures for the chapter scrapbook were made of each committee group working at their respective tables.

President LaRue Reeves called the meeting to order and brought a timely message from the fall issue of the Delta Kappa Gamma bulletin and then directed the group in the reading of the Beta Chi Collect.

Music chairman Virginia Casey introduced Dottie Lowrey who introduced and accompanied Connie Verhalen and her son, Bradley, as they sang "I'm Just a Flag Waving American," "America The Beautiful," "God Made Me Special and The Only One Of My Kind," and "Jesus Loves Me."

The president announced that this year plans are, at each meeting, to honor some member who has made some special contribution to Delta Kappa Gamma and its meetings. Mabel Derr, chairman of achievement awards committee, stated that Virginia Casey was recommended for the honor at the first meeting. Members praised Virginia as a charming, dependable person who has made each monthly meeting more enjoyable by securing and presenting talented, outstanding, local musicians that everyone enjoys. Her numbers are always surprises to the group and are always enjoyable. Mabel presented Virginia a long stemmed red rose as a token of appreciation from the chapter.

Program committee chairman Leona Partridge gave a program review of Beta Chi history, discussed the chapter's seven purposes, and gave past program instances and contributions of various chapter members. Mrs. Partridge said, "Honor the past and celebrate the future" in committee togetherness."

Mary Jo Lankford, Mary Martin, and Virginia Casey directed a sing-song, "Golden Gift Fund" (to the tune of "Shortening Bread"), "It Carries Me Along," and "The Delta Kappa Gamma Song."

Door prizes of antique snuff bottles filled with "Joseph's Coat" were presented to each of the 31 members present.

Attending from Knox City were Hazel Long, Sudia Cash, Mary Jo Lankford, Lillian Logan, Dottie Lowrey, Gretchen Colehour, and Zoy Risinger.

Refreshments of pastries, tea and coffee were served.

The next meeting of the Beta Chi Chapter will be December 2 at 2:30 p.m. in the Knox City Community Center. Knox City members will serve as hostesses with Mary Jo Lankford and the scholarship committee in charge of the program.

Your Social Security

SOCIAL SECURITY: WHAT HAPPENS TO YOUR TAXES?

The Social Security Act was signed into law by President Roosevelt on August 14, 1935. The first deductions from workers' paychecks occurred in 1937. Established in 1939 to finance the program was the Old Age and Survivors Trust Fund, from which the first monthly benefits were paid in 1940.

The original act did not provide for dependents, disability, or health insurance benefits, and only workers in non-agricultural industry and commerce were covered. Later amendments provided additional benefits and extended coverage to the majority of American workers. The Disability Trust Fund was established in 1956, with first benefits paid in 1957. Today, 9 out of 10 workers in the U.S. are earning protection under social security, and nearly 1 out of every 7 persons in this country receives monthly social security checks.

Retirement, survivors, disability and hospital insurance benefits are financed by the trust fund. Medical insurance benefits are financed by general revenues and through individually paid premiums.

Employers deduct social security (FICA) taxes from their employees' paychecks (6.05% of gross wages up to a maximum of $17,700 in 1978). The employer then matches the tax and the combined amount goes to the Internal Revenue Service where it is deposited in the general fund of the Treasury. Self-employed workers pay their own social security taxes (8.1% of net income up to a maximum of $17,700 in 1978) directly to the Internal Revenue Service when they file their individual income tax returns. IRS sends a report of each individual's earnings to the Social Security Administration in Baltimore, MD.

On an estimated basis, the tax amounts received in the general fund are automatically appropriated to the Social Security trust fund. Periodic adjustments are made to the extent that the estimates are found to differ from actual taxes collected. That portion of the trust fund not required to meet current expenditures for benefits and administration is invested in interest-bearing U.S. government securities.

Throughout its history, the social security program has been self-supporting. Its only source of funds is the social security tax collected from workers and employers (and the interest earned on the invested balances of the trust fund). Since the 1950's, the program has been operating on what may be termed a current-cost financing basis. The social security taxes of current employees, employers, and self-employed individuals receiving monthly social security checks, and to pay current administrative costs of the program. In the same manner, benefits for the present working force will be financed by the taxes of the next working generation. The taxpayer is, in essence, financing a government program of retirement, disability, and health insurance - not as most people think, saving for his or her own retirement in any direct sense.

From 1937 - 1976, cumulative income to the trust fund amounted to $661 billion and cumulative disbursements amounted to $620 billion - leaving a balance of $41 billion in the trust fund at the end of calendar year 1976. The most important test of financial soundness for the social security program is whether future income (taxes plus interest on trust fund assets) can reasonably be expected to equal future benefits and administrative costs.

On the basis of current projections (assuming no changes were made in the financing provisions of the program), it appears that future income to the trust fund will be exceeded by disbursements, resulting in a substantial reduction in trust fund reserves. Since the enactment of social security in 1935, dramatic changes in the economic, social and demographic conditions of the U.S. have occurred. Such factors as: 1. continual growth of real per capita income, 2. the sharp increase of women in the labor force, 3. increase in the life expectancy of the elderly, 4. growth of private pensions, 5. the sharp decline in the birthrate since 1960, 6. the trend toward earlier retirement, 7. reduction in taxes resulting from lower level employment and unemployment during recessionary periods, and 8. the increasing number of disabled workers, have all affected the future funding of social security.

The very basis of public support for the program depends on confidence in its solvency. The social security program has been in close actuarial balance throughout most of its existence. When there was an imbalance, Congress has acted to revise taxes or benefits or both in order to bring the program into balance again. Extensive legislation was enacted in late 1977 in just such an attempt to maintain the solvency of the trust fund. Measures such as: 1. projected increases in the tax contribution rates and the maximum taxable wage base, 2. a new method for calculating benefit amounts, 3. the government pension offset, 4. revisions in the annual earnings test, and 5. limitations on the retroactivity of applications, should result in substantial savings to the trust fund in years to come.
