Organized prayer has been banned in public schools since a U. S. Supreme Court ruling in 1963.

Pesticide Storage, Facility Security

Provided by Brandon McGinty, CEA-Ag

Recent national events have caused a heightened awareness of inspecting and evaluating pesticide security programs, Dr. Don Renchie, Texas Cooperative Extension agricultural and environmental safety specialist, said federal and state regulatory officials are asking agricultural pesticide users to review and update their security programs.

"Each of us is asked to conduct a thorough inspection of our pesticide and pesticide equipments' storage facilities to locate and eliminate any weak areas," Renchie said. "Any inspection should be aimed at removing the risk of unauthorized entry into pesticide storage facilities. In addition, and most important, is the prevention of pesticide removal by unauthorized persons."

Renchie recommends: Store pesticides in a separate location, preferably in a locked storage building dedicated for just that purpose. Searate pesticides by use (insecticides with insecticides, herbicides with herbicides, etc.) and when practical, store application equipment separately, under lock and key. Always lock pesticide storage cabinets, closets, rooms and buildings. Locks should be case hardened, tamper resistant and in top working order. Use cable seal locks to secure individual storage containers.

Keep perimeter fences six to eight feet tall, with appropriate signs posted (Danger - Pesticides and No Smoking) and dusk to dawn security lighting supplies. Limit access to appropriate personnel, and tightly the year account for at least 22 per-most cases: 17 skunks, with all but control access keys. Thoroughly scrutinize any unauthorized personnel. Maintain through stock records and perform frequent inventories. Also, establish contact with local law enforcement and fire authorities.

'Security also involves being alert to unusual or suspicious actions,' he said. "Indications that something is amiss may include unusual behavior by a purchaser or individual."

Owls Fall to 6-1 With Loss To Groom Tigers Here Friday Night

The Groom Tigers, ranked second in the state, brought their impressive game to Silverton last Friday night, and even though the Owls were able to stay in the game with them, they weren't able to overcome the power with which the Tigers kept putting the ball into the endzone.

Clay Britten, one of five Britten cousins on Groom's roster, was very efficient at quarterback, and enroute to executing a 48-14 victory for the visitors also earned Player of the Week honors for him-

The Owls brought several outstanding plays onto the field, giving their fans a number of things to cheer about; however, being turned away at the goal line twice with no points wasn't among them.

Groom received the kickoff which opened the game and returned it 61 yards. A facemask violation was called against the Owls, to move the Tigers to the 25. On second down, Dustin Hale pounced on a Groom fumble on the Silverton 19, but the referees ruled the ball was down. The Tigers made a first down on the 10, after which they scored with 4:57 still to be played in the first quarter. They kicked the PAT and held an

When Groom kicked off, Monty Wood returned the ball to the 35, where he absorbed a tremendous hit. Andrew Francis ran for a first down on the Groom 25, after which the Tiger defense held and the Owls punted the ball into the Groom scored again with 9:13 remaining in the second quarter.

Not everything about the "good old days" was so good. Ask Ben Wilson. At ninety, he remembers what life was like before electricity: wood stoves, oil lamps. His father was a farmer and when Ben started his own place, in '42, the cooperative hooked him up.

Ben still depends on co-op power for his home. He belongs to a Smart Choice cooperative. What's "Smart Choice?" We're a coalition of Texas co-ops committed to making the right decision on electric

Smart Choice Co-ops have made it possible for farm and ranch families, no matter how remote, to enjoy the same comforts and amenities as urban dwellers. For rural Texans, co-op power means more than lights and television and farm machinery and household appliances. It means freedom from drudgery, independence from the dictates of corporate boardrooms, and the power to decide their own path to the future. We intend to use that freedom to decide whether deregulation is right for our members.

Electric cooperatives in Texas have been providing power to Texans since 1937. As co-ops, we are non-profit and memberowned. To learn more about deregulation, visit us at our web site, or call your local Smart Choice cooperative.
