

THE KNOX COUNTY HERALD

VOLUME 52

KNOX CITY, KNOX COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JULY 18, 1957

NUMBER 33

Mayor Otis Harbert believes if you holler long enough and loud enough, and to a person high enough, you'll get something done. Because since the city and the Chamber of Commerce howled to the president of the General Telephone Co. of the Southwest about telephone service here, company officials have promised that service will definitely improve, and in the near future.

The principal complaint was about the length of time it takes to get an operator when placing a long distance call. The mayor was ready with dates, times and witnesses that it has often taken 30 minutes, or more, to get an answer.

Another sore point was a mix-up in local service, with persons calling a local cafe getting the fire hall as often as not.

Technicians said it couldn't happen... but sure enough, a telephone company official was in the city hall the other day when the fire hall phone rang. City Secretary Wesley Garrison snatched the receiver off the hook, and someone ordered a hamburger!

Congressman Frank Ikard informs us that we can expect a new look in the dollar bill about September 1st.

We've been wondering for some time how we could continue putting so much high-priced paper in a dollar bill that's worth only 50 cents!

However, they aren't cutting the bill in half. One of the most noticeable differences is that George Washington's picture on the bill will make him appear fatter. This is because the new money will be printed on dry paper. At present our money is printed when the paper is wet, and as it dries the paper shrinks, contracting and distorting Washington's features.

Another change will be that the new money will bear the signature of R. B. Anderson, distinguished Texan and former Democrat, who will be secretary of the Treasury.

And the new bill will bear the slogan, "In God We Trust," which has never before appeared on a dollar bill.

And indeed we'll have to trust in God, because we can't trust the dollar bill to stay at its present value.

Something you can put your trust in is Herald want-ads.

Mrs. Otto Lawson was caring for a pet parakeet belonging to her grandson, Kenny, while Kenny was on a vacation trip recently. She let the bird fly the coop, and after looking high and low and in the middle, placed an ad in the Herald... just to be on the safe side, however, she bought another bird!

Perhaps she'll have more confidence in our ads next time... because the lost bird had made its way across town to Watson & Reyes Service Station, and perched on Steve Reyes' shoulder while he worked on a car.

Someone with two left feet must have been fitted with shoes Wednesday at Cobb's Department Store, where a sale is in progress... because we purchased a pair of number sevens and, when we got home and prepared to put them on, found they were both for the right foot.

Advertising for the sale says "No exchanges, no refunds"... but we're a-fixin' to talk to the management!

Bobby D. Burnett, Jim Anderson and Danny Burt are attending Camp Christian, in progress at Lake Brownwood this week. They were carried to Brownwood by C. M. Wann and Bobby Burnett, who will return for them when the camp is over.

Mrs. Erwin Egenbacher was to leave today for a vacation in Colorado, accompanying her brother, Johnny Scales of Elberta. They will visit another brother, Homer, and family in Denver and plan to see other interesting parts of the state.

Jimmy Harper Killed In Head-On Auto Crash

Funeral services for James Foster (Jimmy) Harper, 44, local cafe operator, were held at the First Methodist Church at 4 p. m. Sunday, July 14.

Knox 4-H Club Boys Attend District Camp

Six Knox County 4-H Club boys attended a three-day 4-H Camp at Buffalo Gap July 10, 11 and 12, accompanied by County Agent Roy England.

Study sessions on parliamentary procedure, first aid, record keeping and news reporting were conducted, and recreational activities included swimming, baseball, horseshoe and washer pitching.

O'Brien Schools Short 4 Teachers

Three teachers have resigned and one retired from O'Brien public schools, and replacements are being sought, Supt. Elvin Mathis said this week.

Mrs. Wallace Reid of Munday, sixth and seventh grade teacher, resigned because of illness. Mrs. Maurine Allison of Rule, commercial teacher, retired to help her husband in a Rule business. George Mullino of Rochester resigned as vocational agriculture teacher to enter full-time farming.

Retiring is Mrs. R. L. Foote of Haskell, homemaking teacher. Mathis said applications will be considered at the next board meeting.

Lunchroom Workers Attend Workshop

A total of 303 supervisors and workers in Texas school lunchroom programs participated in a Texas Tech workshop on that subject July 8-13.

Leaders were representatives of colleges and school lunch agencies in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arkansas. Mrs. Pete Knight and Mrs. L. V. Worley represented the Knox City lunchroom and Mrs. Ranzy Herring and Mrs. Cummings attended from O'Brien.

Stephens Brothers New Owners of Chevrolet Agency

Dan Steakley, Chevrolet dealer here the past ten years, announced this week that he has sold his business to Elmo Stephens of O'Brien and Cicero Stephens of Kermit, with the new owners to take over as soon as inventory is completed.

The business will be known as Stephens Bros. Chevrolet Co., and will be under the management of Cicero Stephens, who has been associated with Stodghill Chevrolet Co. in Kermit.

Mr. Stephens said Wednesday that he has rented a house, and he and Mrs. Stephens will move here in a very short time.

His brother, Elmo, has extensive farming interests in Haskell County and on the Plains, and will not take an active part in operation of the agency.

Steakley, who also recently sold an interest he owned in the Chevrolet agency at Haskell, has purchased Johnson Bros. Chevrolet Co. in Temple and Belton. The Steakley home here has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Colehour, and a home purchased in Temple. Mr. and Mrs. Steakley and Sue will move there next week.

The Steakleys moved here from Sweetwater in 1947, when he established the automobile agency. Mrs. Steakley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hoge.

In announcing the sale, Steakley expressed his thanks to the people of this area for the splendid business they have given him.

Harper was killed in a two-car, head-on auto crash on U. S. Highway 82 east of Dundee at 2:30 a. m. Friday. He was one of four persons killed, and two others were injured. Dead were Mrs. Alma Garrett, 32, and her daughter, Barbara Ann, 13, both of Houston; and Mrs. Garrett's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Reeves, 69, of Ardmore, Okla.

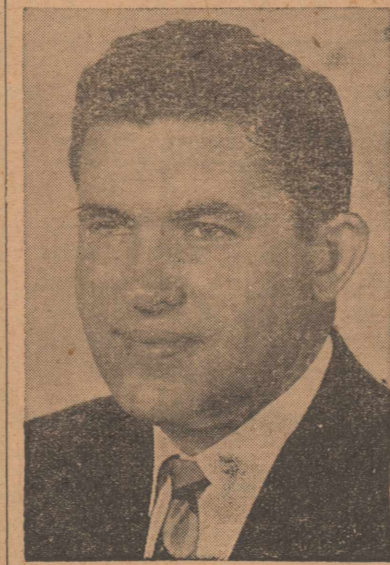

Mrs. Garrett's husband, Gilmer Leon, was critically injured. Another daughter, Linda, 12, was only slightly injured.

Harper was alone in his car at the time of the accident. He was born January 1, 1913 in Little Rock, Ark., and moved to Knox City four years ago as manager of Johnston Testers. He moved to Rule with the oil well testing concern, but returned to Knox City in three months as manager of Faith Testers. He and his wife opened a cafe, Dixie's Cafe, here in April, 1956. Last month they moved the cafe into their newly-remodeled building.

Survivors include his wife, Dixie; a son, Jimmy Ross, 17, of Knox City; a daughter, Charlotte Ann, 14, of Dallas; his mother, Mrs. Fanny Harper of Dallas; three brothers, Millard, Billy and Carol Harper, all of Dallas; and three sisters, Mrs. John Schluber of Mentone, Ind., Mrs. Hugh Poindexter of Bellaire and Mrs. R. J. Bux of Dallas.

Burial was in the Knox City Cemetery under the direction of Warren Funeral Home.

O'Brien Pastor On Staff at Baptist Youth Encampment

Rev. Mart Hardin, pastor at O'Brien, will be recreation director of the third annual youth camp at Lueders Baptist Encampment grounds July 22-25.

Campers will be boys and girls between 14 and 17 years of age.

A feature of the camp will be conferences on various subjects. Conference leaders will be Rev. Jim Graves, assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. Ed Laux, pastor of Pioneer Drive Baptist Church, both of Abilene; Dr. Bill Norman, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Quanah, and Mrs. George Graham, district WMU president.

Enrollment at the Junior RA camp this week reached 450, bringing the total campers at the Baptist camps to 1835 so far this season.

Fines totaling $289.00 were levied in city court during the past 30 days by City Judge W. E. Lovelace.

In three cases of disturbance two fines were $15 each and one was $19.50, totaling $49.50. Traffic violations accounted for $110.00. Two $5.00 fines were levied for making U turns in the middle of the block. One offender was fined $50.00 for using illegal mufflers, since it was his fourth offense. Two other fines were $15 and one was $20.

Lyles Services Held at Vernon

Funeral services for Mrs. L. M. Lyles, 83, long time Wilbarger County resident, were held Monday at 2:30 in Sullivan Funeral Chapel in Vernon. Officiating were Rev. Bruce Parks, pastor of the Texas Street Methodist Church, and Rev. Curtis W. Drake, pastor of the Church of God.

Mrs. Lyles died in a Vernon hospital Saturday after several months illness. She was born October 25, 1873 in Kentucky and was married to L. M. Lyles in 1887 in Kentucky. They moved to Rayland in 1907 and to Vernon in 1921. Mr. Lyles died in 1935 and since that time Mrs. Lyles made her home with a daughter, Mrs. Oncie Woods.

Survivors include four sons, Sam Lyles of Knox City, Curtis, Robert and Roy Lyles of Vernon; three daughters, Mrs. Betty Boren, Alex, Okla., and Mrs. Clarice Walker and Mrs. Woods, both of Vernon; two brothers, two sisters, 28 grandchildren and 38 great-grandchildren.

O'BRIEN YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY LAKE OUTING

The Young People's training union class of the O'Brien Baptist Church enjoyed an outing at Lake Kemp Tuesday, July 9.

The group spent the day swimming, fishing, water skiing and surfboard riding. A picnic lunch was served by the sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Grindstaff, Mr. and Mrs. Lynward Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Manning.

Attending were Danny Walsworth, Kay Ford, Sammy Grindstaff, Ann Speck, Lowell Rowan, Joyce Denton, Jerry Rowan, Jerry Covey, Royce Manning, Doris Kay, Betty Poe and Elyvonne Manning.

Haskell Court Defers Action on Herbicide Law

The Haskell County commissioners court, at a meeting Monday, deferred taking any action on a proposal to invoke the Texas Herbicide Law in the county.

The meeting was called after a number of farmers in Knox and Haskell counties had reported extensive damage to their cotton crops by 2-4-D, commercial weed-killer, which was applied by other farmers several miles away.

The law was invoked in Knox County last week, but affords little protection to farmers unless the same provisions apply in Haskell County.

The agreement to defer action was made upon the suggestion of County Judge Alfred Turnbow. The Haskell County judge told the commissioners he had conferred with State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, and that White promised to have a representative at a later meeting to explain all phases of the law.

County Attorney Curtis Pogue explained that the law requires commercial applicators of hormone-type herbicides to be bonded for at least $20,000 or carry liability insurance of sufficient amount to take care of any reasonable damage that might occur to crops. The law also sets forth the height and maximum wind velocities at which the chemicals may be applied. The opinion was expressed that the 10 mph maximum wind velocity would practically eliminate herbicide spraying during the crop growing season in West Texas.

Under the law a farmer may apply a hormone herbicide to 10 acres without a permit from the state. If he applies it to more than 10 acres he must secure a permit. If he hires out his spray rig he becomes a commercial applicator and must secure a permit.

It is estimated that the law would double, or more than double, the cost of applying the chemical.

Judge Turnbow quoted Commissioner White as saying that previous history of commercial applicators was so unfavorable that bonding and insurance companies hesitated to take a risk on them.

One commissioner, Francis Blake of Precinct 4, said he did not want to tell farmers what to do, and would vote against invoking the law.

A second meeting will be called when a representative from Commissioner White's office can be present. Farmers in Knox and north Haskell counties will be watching the results with interest, since prevailing winds will cause their crops to be endangered when weed-killer is applied in other parts of Haskell County.

Former Resident Dies While in Colorado

Funeral services were held in Weslaco last week for U. S. Nix, who died while he and his wife were vacationing at the home of a son in Durango, Colo.

Mr. Nix is a former resident of Knox City and his wife is the former Pauline Warren, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Warren.

Survivors are the wife and the son, Sidney Paul Nix, who is active vice-president of a bank in Durango.

Fourteen Knox Boys Attend R. A. Camp

Fourteen members of the Royal Ambassadors organization of the First Baptist Church are attending camp at the Baptist Encampment grounds in Lueders this week.

With the group of boys is Roy Austin, song leader and youth director of the church. Camp began Monday and the boys are to return home today (Thursday).

Rochester, Rule Men Buy Warren Funeral Home

A deal was completed Wednesday whereby Mr. and Mrs. W. Lance Pinkard of Rule and Mr. and Mrs. Hob Smith of Rochester became owners of Warren Funeral Home in Knox City.

The funeral home has been operated by E. Q. Warren since March 29, 1926. Mr. Warren moved here from Merkel in 1920, and was in the automobile business for a time. He purchased the funeral home from Bryant-Link Co. The firm also had a dry goods store, and the funeral home was in a warehouse in the alley behind the store. Warren built a sheet-iron building which now houses Corley's Beauty Shop, and later moved his business into the Masonic Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinkard operate a funeral home in Rule, moving there a year and a half ago from Rising Star, where he was manager of Higginbotham Funeral Home and Furniture Store for six years. Pinkard is a graduate of Comanche High School and attended John Tarleton College and Dallas College of Mortuary Science.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinkard have two children, a daughter, Paula, 10; and a son, Perry, 8.

The Smiths are well known in Knox City, since Smith was born and reared here. He is the son of J. W. Smith and the late "Mammy" Smith. At one time he was associated in the Orient Drug Store with Henry Jones and J. A. Wilson, but has lived at Rochester since 1928. He received his mortuary license at Big Spring in 1937 and is a partner in Mansell & Smith Funeral Home.

The Smiths' son-in-law, Paul Clayton, who married, Martha Sue Smith in June, is attending the Dallas College of Mortuary Science and upon completion of the course will be an active member of the Pinkard & Smith Funeral Home staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith also have a son, Dan, a lieutenant in the Navy, presently stationed in Puerto Rico.

LONG-TIME RANCH MANAGER DIES; FUNERAL SERVICES SLATED TODAY

Funeral services for Wayne Dolan, manager of McFadden Ranch, were to be held at 3 p. m. today (Thursday) at the Benjamin Baptist Church with the Rev. K. E. Woolley, pastor, officiating.

Dolan died at the McFadden ranch house at 5:30 a. m. Wednesday, July 17, presumably of a heart attack. He had felt ill the past two weeks, but had ridden over the ranch all day Tuesday.

Lake Stamford Boat Regatta Slated For Sunday, July 28

For the first time the people in this immediate area will have the opportunity to see boat racing at its high level. In recent years Sweetwater and Brownwood have been the nearest points where official boat races have been held, and this year Lake Stamford will be the scene of these races sanctioned and authorized by the National Outboard Assn.

Races will start at 2 p. m. Sunday, July 28 and will be over before 6 p. m. Everyone in the area is invited, and tickets are on sale locally at Hoge's Pharmacy. Tickets are offered on the "per car" basis.

The site of the regatta will be the area designated for the new State Park. Only a small area will be patrolled for the races, allowing those not interested to boat, ski or fish without obstruction to the racers. The racing boats are very fast and in ideal conditions often travel as fast as 70 miles per hour. They are very small and barely skim the water. The driver is usually on his knees in order to balance and control the boat. A very small object on the course, or even the backwash from a 5 h.p. motor could result in a bad spill or even a tragic accident. Consequently, persons in other boats are urged to keep clear of the race area.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wall Jr. and daughter, Annie, spent Thursday and Friday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wall Sr. The family was enroute to their home in Prescott, Ariz., after a vacation trip to New Hampshire and New York. Wall is a range conservationist and Mrs. Wall teaches school in Prescott.

Arnold Pack has received his discharge from the U. S. Navy after three and a half years of service, three of which were in the Panama Canal. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Pack, and his wife is the former Jo May Newbrough.

Two Scholarships "Going Begging" At Texas Tech

There's a $6,000 "treasure" awaiting two agriculture students planning to enter Texas Tech at Lubbock, and so far it's unclaimed, according to Agriculture Dean W. L. Stangel.

The treasure consists of two $3,000 scholarships to be given by Western Compress and Storage Co. of Abilene. Each of the grants will provide $750 annually for four years for an agronomy student who will emphasize study of cotton, irrigation and water sources.

Eligibility for the scholarships is limited to students in nine counties: Taylor, Nolan, Jones, Haskell, Fisher, Scurry, Knox, Mitchell and Callahan.

The scholarships are awarded only upon written application made before August 1, prior to the freshman year. No qualified applications have been received so far, Dean Stangel said.

"We're not going to award these grants to just anyone," the dean pointed out. "But surely in the counties mentioned there are some top students who are interested and can qualify for these scholarships."

Sam Anderson, who is taking some summer work at San Marcos Academy, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Anderson recently.

Streams In Desert Places

By Ozelle Stephens

Caleb had faith that gave him courage to say to the people of Israel, "Let us go up at once and possess the land." (Num. 13:30). He had faith that made him know he was not alone at any time. A Christian is never alone. You may have burdens to bear but you have someone to share your load. You may have trials but you have someone to stand beside you all the way. That one loves you with an everlasting love. Accept His presence and be continually filled with His spirit so you will be able to live in victory every day.
