

JUST TALK

By JAMES HILL

Every dog has his day and Sunday, June 17th is Dad's! Don't forget the good old boy on this day, for it will be another year before he can indulge himself as king of his empire.

At this writing we don't know whether this year's rainfall will be equal to or exceed last year's, but we have had a great deal of moisture this week. We have also had a large number of tornado warnings issued and from the looks of things this year will be an extremely long siege of such happenings.

If we think it tiring to run to the storm cellar practically every night, we aren't by ourselves, for the law enforcement agencies of the county are equally tired.

Due to their vigilance, very few tornadoes kill many people nowadays, for they are usually forewarned in plenty of time to seek shelter. The people of Haskell can very well testify to the efficiency of this vast network.

Palmer Campsey has been in bed with the mumps and last week his wife Beverly and their small son made a run to the cellar after the tornado warning was issued, but first she made sure Dad was comfortable and safe with a heavy mattress covering him!

Rev. Floyd Bailey had a very close call last week when his appendix ruptured. He was transferred to Wichita Falls for emergency surgery and was in critical condition for several days. He is "doing nicely" now and is improving satisfactorily, it was reported.

Brother Bailey didn't seem too concerned for his own sake but was put out that he would be late with one of his reports. The first time he had missed one in at least 25 years! Surely he won't mar his good record with this one slip—anyway due to the circumstances!

More new buildings—Arlidge Motors plan to move into their new building sometime around the first of July, and we noticed in the Stamford American last week where John Webb of Stamford is opening a new store in Knox City. The new building is being constructed where the old theatre building stood before the fire destroyed it. The new building will be 25 by 140 feet and the new business will handle a complete line of department store merchandise.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Webb will manage the Stamford store and their son John, will manage the store here.

Tentative opening date will be in September.

STACKED DECK — The new Lions Club President Bill Sams was slightly put out last Thursday when time began running out for the annual Ladies Night and installation of new officers.

For one thing Bill had put in a hectic day, was tired and out of sorts, anyway, then had to dress up for the party that night.

The wife had to open the LL concession stand that same night and as I didn't have a way to the meeting, Bill said he would pick me up.

After that we went by to get his wife, June, and as we stopped at the store, all heck broke loose. First, a hard rain, some hail, and lastly the tornado warning was sounded. We sat around for the next hour trying to get to the car without ruining our clothes, and finally at 8:10—40 minutes late—we arrived at the cafeteria.

Naturally the turnout was a lot smaller, than expected, which didn't help his feelings any—but actually considering the circumstances, we thought it a big crowd.

Bill thanked those who attended and said, "I am extremely proud of the fact that I CAN get elected to some office!"

Bill can always come up with an answer regardless of circumstances, and he didn't disappoint any of us Thursday.

Charlie Clarke and Bill Sams told me they would like to start a new club here for "those who have run and lost." Bill, of course, would be president, and the rest of us can try to get in on the ground floor.

Several candidates told me a number of people asked them who I was supporting in the last race. Of course they didn't know—but like I always say—"It's for the man most capable and honest!" That usually narrows the field down to at least one, doesn't it?

When candidates run who can't make the grade I scratch them all out at home!

IT'S 8 OUT OF 10 FOR PLYMOUTH!

In ten tough tests at Riverside, California, against comparably equipped Fords and Chevrolets, Plymouth won eight! Plymouth asked the independent U. S. Testing Company to conduct these tests and keep them fair. They bought the cars, hired the drivers, and enforced the rules. The official results are below. You'll see that Plymouth not only beat the other two cars in acceleration, passing and stopping, but in economy, too. It's dramatic proof this is the Greatest Plymouth Ever Built!

Do So Many Home Buyers Insist on Medallion Homes?

"Live Better Electrically," the advertising slogan says. Modern homemakers know that it's more than a mere slogan—it's a fact. You CAN live better electrically when you buy a Medallion home. Here's why. The man who built that home, the Medallion home, EARNED the privilege of displaying the medallion by observing certain minimum electrical standards in the design and construction of the home, and in the appliances which are a part of the plan for living. It has been called "the Hallmark of Excellence." And it is. So look for the "Live Better Electrically" medallion when you are thinking of buying a new home. Enjoy FLAMELESS electric living!

push button war on Johnson Grass

ORTHO C-56 Johnson Grass Control is right on target. Soaking through the waxy coating of the leaves and shooting to the root, it turns plants brown while you're in the field.

Taking aim at this cotton strangler is the new ORTHO gravity hand sprayer. Just a press of your thumb, and you get the easiest control of Johnson Grass you've ever had. And because of the applicator's deadly aim, there's much less risk of injury to cotton.

A chemical with a long name makes C-56 so effective. Hexachlorocyclopentadiene. It increases tremendously the penetration of kerosene or oil. Not only into young shoots, but even through the heavy wax coating of older plants (though these may need more applications). Even in drought, or in low temperatures, when oils are usually less effective. And it will not sterilize the soil.

To introduce you to C-56, your ORTHO Dealer is offering the new ORTHO gravity hand sprayer at a special low price of $7.95.

Don't wage a losing battle with Johnson Grass. Just press the button and knock it out — with C-56 and the ORTHO gravity hand sprayer.

Streams in Desert Places

Ozelle Stephens

"But you shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto me . . ." (Acts 1:8).

This being Pentecostal week we are turning our thoughts upon the working of the Holy Ghost on the day of Pentecost. This was the initial day of a new order. The giving of the Holy Ghost was a new beginning of a new spiritual life, a new relationship, a new friendship, a new authority, and a new power. Who is dwelling in the believer, the spirit of truth whom the world cannot receive, neither knows. But you know Him for he dwelleth with you and shall be in you. (John 14:17).

The Holy Spirit has had a general work since the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. (Gen. 1:2) In the dispensation of the Father, " . . . the Lord came down in a cloud, and spoke unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders; and it came to pass, that when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease. (Nu. 11:25). This is a gift which is given to the believer to be used in the Kingdom work. Power comes with these gifts that you will be able to work for your God without failing, and you will not be ashamed to witness for Him.

Uncle Ben from Benjamin says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where Bobby Kennedy is claiming the Democrats is gaining in Vermont. It could be the game warden has caught a couple of them hiding in the brush up there. And I was reading a piece where 17 per cent of all the people born in Georgia moves out of the state after they die. I reckon they git converted to the Republican party and has to run fer their lives.

They ain't nothing in this world that splits folks up like politics. When the other side puts it out it's always propagand and when your side puts it out Moses bring it straight down from Mt. Sinai. When a tax collector takes a bribe he gits thrown in jail, but a public office holder calls it a campaign contribution and gits elected fer another term.

I was reading here a while back where some woman from South Carolina celebrated her 104th birthday. She told the newspaper folks she loved everybody, even Republicans. I know a heap of Democrats that would rather die at 64 as to love Republicans at 104—and viser verser.

I recollect about a feller we used to have living out here. He was a great Republican, — didn't have much use fer anybody if they wasn't a Republican. He wouldn't even speak to a Democrat. He'd go to his funeral, didn't mind seeing him buried, but he didn't want nothing to do with him while he was living.

We was talking about these things at the country store Saturday night and the fellers was agreed that common sense in this country has gone in orbit and horse sense is disappearing with the horses. Ed Doolittle allowed as how his old lady was even talking orbit stuff these days. Ed says some mornings when she gits up she says she feels "go" and some mornings she complains she is feeling "stay."

Clem Webster said he was reading where some feller in Hollywood is fixing to manufacture wimmen's clothes out of cellophane. All the fellers was in favor of it, natural, and Zeke Grubb claimed it would fit in real good with the Age Of The Fig Leaf, that being the one in which we was living.

I don't know what the world is coming to no more. Sometimes I think the people in this country has growed tall but not up. How else can you figger it when rich folks will pay $100 fer a necktie, when the big print giveth and the small print taketh away, when ever magazine puts a girl on the cover and no cover on the girl, and when it's easier to git a divorce than to git married?

It's sad, Mister Editor. I've come down to the sunset of my days fer what? To see instant coffee, instant milk, instant biscuits, and if ole Khushy has his way, instant cremation.

Yours truly,
Uncle Ben

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

FRIEND OF THE COURT

Since ancient Rome, an amicus curiae is a friend of the court. He plays a vital part in presenting a court with arguments which help it to reach a just decision. A pending case may well affect many people besides the parties. A court often welcomes outsiders into a lawsuit who cannot present evidence or question witnesses. Their main role is to inform the court, to write briefs, to tell the court of likely outcomes of its decision.

There are many types of friends of the court.

1. Court appointed Amici. The court may ask a professor of law or a public spirited group to help the court find facts, present the law, or supply other helpful information.

2. Special interest Amici are the largest group. Private commercial interest, trade and similar groups, have money at stake. They too might help the court—but their main purpose is to have the court set a precedent favorable to them.

3. Governmental Amici. The district attorney, Attorney General, or other lawyer for a public agency or the state or U. S. can present a public view of the case—often without a special interest. Such agencies can often inform the court how the outcome of a particular case is likely to affect the public.

Sometimes a government agency can represent a state's special interest. For example, California may join Texas in a dispute between Texas and the U. S. over off-shore oil. Or a principle in a water dispute between two eastern states may affect Texas' stake in Rio Grande river water. Though in such a case Texas would speak in the public interest it also has a special interest motive for Texas.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

If variety is the spice of your life, see the choice selection of buys now at your Chevrolet dealer's One-Stop Shopping Center. One of those new Chevrolets, Chevy II's or Corvairs should suit you perfectly and spare your budget any strain!

We wouldn't presume to tell you which one to buy, but your Chevrolet dealer has more ways of helping you make up your mind. Like the Jet-smooth Chevrolet Impala, luxurious, extremely comfortable, undoubtedly the best riding car in its field; the Chevy II Nova, lively, lovely, and inexpensive, too;
the Corvair Monza, a family car that rather thinly disguises its desire to be a sports car; and the Corvette, America's out-and-out sports car. As you see, your Chevrolet dealer has just the tonic for that "let's go traveling" look in your eye. And, what's nice about buying one, you won't have to juggle your life around to afford it. You know?

Four fun 'n' fun ways to get away (shown top to bottom) are the Corvette, Corvair Monza Coupe, Chevy II Nova Station Wagon and Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan.

Now, beautiful buying days at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's Golden Sales Jubilee!
