Arledge Motors Under New Management

Attended the rodeo at Seymour last Thursday and since it had been years since we had attended one, it brought back many pleasant memories.

During the grand entry the announcer stopped the parade to announce that there were 380 horses in the arena, more than ever before.

An oddity that has struck us for some time is the fact that Knox City doesn't seem to like horses or horse lovers very much — Yet we are right next to the largest ranches in the country and three of them, 6666, Pitchfork and Waggoner's are known not only in Texas, but the entire world.

One horse lover told us recently that he had heard the city had passed a law prohibiting a horse on the streets. Being law-abiding, we immediately tied up our horse and made a few phone calls to verify this story. We were surprised that it was untrue, however.

Knox City could be the first town in America to outlaw a horse, for little places like New York City and Chicago not only allow them on the streets, but cops ride them to work.

If our dander seems to be up unnecessarily, we must confess that it is, and the reason for it is that neither Munday nor Knox City was represented at the rodeo — neither town has a riding club, roping club or horse club of any description.

To keep the record from going unbroken, however, Benjamin was there with their club.

Horseback riding is a whale of a lot of fun for young and old, and if you haven't tried it, by all means do so, one of these days.

SAFETY SLOGAN — Drive safely, the life you save may be your own — or more important — someone's life who is worth saving.

PROGRESS — One of our favorite riding paths was closed recently when the owner told us our horses were scaring his cattle . . . having been brought up around stock of all kinds, this came as a surprise, and we didn't believe it until we made further inquiries.

It all brings to mind that we are a lot older than we thought and that the time when a car would make a cow run for high timber is over, it is just the opposite for the "pickup cowboys" of this day and age.

Frank McAuley Jr., tells us that on the big ranches, they not only use horses but helicopters and airplanes and that now cattle have learned that when an airplane hovers or circles overhead it won't be long until a cowboy on horseback will appear. They find a tree or some bushes, lie down and play hard to see!

We have almost decided to trade our horse for a pickup so we can go on a cattle roundup. In order to really be a "cowboy" in this day and age, it must be air conditioned with an automatic drive, naturally!

Cars are wonderful machines, though. First they were responsible for the elimination of horses, and now they're working on people.

ONE LOST ONE GAINED — Knox City lost another young business man last week to gain another, Jack Arledge sold his interest of Arledge Motors to Charles Lankford.

Charles is a home town product and was a salesman for Arledge five years ago. He moved to Stamford where he has been sales manager of the Ford agency there. He and his family have already moved back home and are residing north of town.

Bobby Tankersley, one of the best calf ropers in the business, had bad luck Thursday and just missed breaking a record or two with his fast catch.

If we aren't mistaken there will be a jackpot roping at Rochester Sunday. Billy Ray Morrow can be contacted there for further information.

Jack Arledge announced last week that he had sold his interest of Arledge Motors to Charles Lankford, of Stamford.

Lankford and his family moved from Stamford and Arledge moved to Midland where he is sales manager for Beaty Ford Center, there.

Arledge was the Ford dealer in Knox City five years.

Lankford was sales manager of the Ford agency in Stamford.

Name of the company will be changed at a later date.

Area Cotton Warehouse Seen

Dreams of a cooperative warehouse and compress for cotton ginner in this area seemed closer to fruition following a meeting in Knox City Monday night, cotton men who attended reported Tuesday.

Talk of such an enterprise long has been heard in this area, and definite plans may be imminent, according to H. K. Henry, of Haskell.

Representatives of area cooperative gins assembled in Knox City Monday night to explore the possibilities of a cooperative warehouse and compress.

The organization setting up such facilities also would be connected with one of the cooperative marketing organizations on selling cotton, it was explained.

A. D. May of Rule was named president of an organization formed after the talks, and R. A. Shaver, Rochester, was elected vice president.

Cooperative gins from Rheinland, O'Brien, Munday, Rochester, Spur, Rule, Haskell and Balingier, were represented at the Knox City meeting.

Other gin operators in the area have been invited to attend future meetings.

Major Provisions Of 1964 Feed Grain Program Announced By ASCS Office

The 1964 feed grain program will be basically the same as the successful 1963 program, T. W. Russell, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said today. The sign-up period for both fall and spring-sown crops is planned for early 1964.

As recommended by producers, the Chairman pointed out, the Department of Agriculture has held changes to the "fewest consistent with law and economic circumstances." The major change in next year's feed grain program is an increase in the top limit on diversion from a farm's base acreage with an increase in the rate of payment for maximum diversion. This is intended to encourage producers to divert additional feed grain acreage and to increase their income.

In 1964, a producer may divert as much as 50 per cent of his feed grain base acreage (in 1963 it was 40 per cent), and those who divert from 40 to 50 per cent will receive diversion payments at the maximum rate for all acres diverted. As before, the maximum acreage diversion will be 25 acres if this is more than 50 per cent of the base.

As in the 1963 program, two rates of diversion payment will be offered: (a) Producers who divert at least 20 per cent of their base acres will be eligible for payments (based on the county price support rate for the feed grain diverted) on 20 per cent of the normal yield of the diverted acres; (b) for diversions between 20 and 40 per cent of their acreage, the payments on this part of the diversion will be at a rate of 50 per cent of the farm's normal yield times the county support rate.

Participants who divert 40 to 50 per cent of the base (or 25 acres, if this is greater) will receive the 50 per cent maximum rate of payment on all acres diverted. Under a new legal provision, payments may not exceed 20 per cent of the value of the land diverted.

The total national average price support levels in 1964 will be the same as in 1963, but a slightly larger proportion of the support will be made available through loans. For the feed grains covered by the program, the loan rate, support payment, and total national average support are, respectively: Corn (per bushel), $1.10, 15 cents, $1.25; barley (per bu.) 84 cents, 12 cents, 96 cents; grain sorghum (per cwt.) $1.77, 23 cents, $2.00.

Payments-in-kind for both diversion and the non-loan part of the price support will again be made in the form of negotiable certificates with which the producer may receive grain from CCC stocks or cash at the ASCS County Office if he wishes CCC to help in marketing the certificates.

As in the past, eligibility for payments and price support will be conditional upon maintenance of normal acreage (1959-60) in soil-conserving crops or practices, including summer fallow and idle land. Also as in the past, a producer who owns or operates more than one farm will be eligible to participate in the program on one farm only if, on each of his other farms, the feed grain base is not exceeded.

Uncle Ben from Benjamin says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I been in a state of shock all week over a item quoting a official from the U. S. Department of Education. It seems the experts has started teaching a new system of arithmetic to the school younguns. They ain't got it going in all the schools yet, the piece says, but by 1965 they hope to have the old system done away with complete and the new one installed all over the country.

I read the piece six times, Mister Editor, and on the last time around I knowed me or them was crazy and, natural, it had to be me. They gov the Constitution and the Administration on their side and, like the feller said, you can't beat city hall.

In the first place, the experts is doing away with the "Tutem System", which is the two times two is four system. They say this ain't true if you use "Base Seven." I reckon Base Seven is a first cousin to Third Base or Cloud Nine or somepun. Anyhow, Base Seven and Tutem is in conflict. It says so right on the front page.

Furthermore, they allow as how it ain't important in this new arithmetic to know what a circle is, the main thing is to know "what happens when the circle loses its roundness."

And in this new system of arithmetic fer the school kids of 1965, they won't be no such thing as a line. It will be knowed as a "set of points standing shoulder to shoulder."

And they put the stopper in the jug by announcing the days is about over fer adding, subtracting, and dividing. Under the new system these items will be called "intersection, union, and complementation."

I recollect complaining a few year ago when the schools slowed down on teaching reading, writing, and arithmetic, and started giving courses in hair-do, folk dancing, and flute-playing. I just didn't know, Mister Editor, when I was well off.

But I reckon, like this piece says, the next generation has got to have a "Univac mind" to keep pace with space. In another 20 year, when a feller wants to call up his wife at the factory where

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

THE CAMP STOVE

Nancy and her husband, along with several other couples, were going on a weekend camping trip to a nearby lake. Before leaving Nancy bought a small camp stove to cook the fish they planned to catch.

The first time that Nancy tried to use the stove, the gasoline container, which was a component of the stove, exploded.

Nancy sustained severe injuries, and she sued the manufacturer of the stove.

At the trial there was testimony that the gasoline container was defective in that there was not a sufficient overlap of the edges of the cap and the body of the container, and that she's working, he'll have to dial 663-2549 and tell 'em its Social Security 243-48-9565, Internal Revenue Service 44-48-9556 calling SS 244-07-3037, IRS 43-610-5764, please. And a feller can't handle that situation with the kind of arithmetic we got now.

I started to report these matters to the fellers at the country store Saurday night, but I got to figgering it wasn't no use in having everybody going crazy at the same time, at least not till 1965.

Yours truly,
Uncle Ben

such defect was the cause of the explosion.

The manufacturer claimed that the explosion was caused by improper use of the stove. He also stated that even if there was a defect in Nancy's stove, it was an obvious defect and that she was negligent in not discovering it.

Can Nancy win her lawsuit? Yes, said the court.

The stove as offered to the public was, by reason of its negligent construction, inherently dangerous. The manufacturer knew or ought to have known of the defective condition of the article it placed on the market for general use. It places no hardship on manufacturers of such articles to charge them with knowledge of their own methods of manufacturing and of the defects in such methods if they exist.

The court further pointed out that although the danger inherent in the defect in the container was manifest to those who understood and were familiar with the method of fastening the cap to the container, it could not be said that the danger was apparent to Nancy, who had no knowledge of the manufacturing method used in making the stoves.

Nancy had a right to assume that the stove was reasonably safe for use with ordinary care on her part.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas Legislative Council, research agency for the Legislature, is in the curious position of being asked to take a close look at the ethical standards of its own boss.

Council, meeting in Austin, agreed on a proposed study of conflict of interest questions affecting State officials and em- and Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr suggested the study as a result of investigations into the private business affairs of former Railroad Commissioner W. J. Murray Jr.

A Travis County grand jury found Murray innocent of any violation of criminal laws during his terms of office. Carr observed in a later report that the Murray case raised "a serious question of a conflict of interest" between official duties and private interests.

Carr's report said Murray grossed $1,700,000 during his 16 years on the Commission — most of it from oil and gas ventures. Attorney General recommended "adequate laws" to control "any deviations from (ethical) standards."

Council will be responsible for conducting research and investigation of possible conflict of interest cases among all State officials — including the lawmakers themselves — with a view toward "improving our present code of ethics."

MORE REPUBLICANS? — Another action by the Legislative Council had interesting "two party" implications.

Rep. Bob Johnson of Dallas was named executive director of the council, succeeding Read Granberry who died last year. Johnson has resigned his Dallas legislative post to accept the $15,500-a-year assignment — creating still another vacancy in the eight-man Dallas delegation to the House of Representatives.

This leaves only one Democrat, Rep. Ben Atwell, lined up against the six incumbent Republicans.

Dallas Republicans surprised themselves and stunned Democrats last year by winning all the legislative races they entered. Speculation then was that the three remaining Democrats on the Dallas House delegation — Reps. Bob Hughes, Johnson and Atwell — would be in for a rough 1964 general election should Dallas Republicans oppose them, and an even rougher time of it if Barry Goldwater were chosen to head the GOP ticket as presidential nominee. Hughes recently resigned his legislative post to accept appointment to a judgeship. This caused more speculation about a possible 1964 election sweep by the Dallas Republican organization.

Johnson's resignation has intensified the "Republican sweep" fears.

CRAM COURSE ON ANNEXATION — Texas Municipal League will conduct a special one-day "institute" in Austin on Aug. 5. It will be a cram course for Texas municipal officials on the new law limiting city annexations.

William Olson, attorney for the League, will moderate a question-and-answer program, followed by a panel discussion featuring Mayor James McCrocklin of Kingsville, City Manager H. P. Clifton of Abilene, Planning Director William Anderson of Corpus Christi, and Steve Matthews, executive director of the League.

New law takes effect on Aug. 23. But a provision in the Act requires that annexations pending or initiated after March 15 must meet terms set out in the measure.

Furthermore these in the work annexations must be completed by Nov. 23 or become null and void.

RAPID ERADICATING — Few eradication programs have produced such prompt and effective results as the U. S. Department of Agriculture's screwworm eradication plan.

A year ago scientists and field workers started the "saturation" release of sterilized flies to conquer screwworm population explosion.

Texas Animal Health Commission reported only 28 screwworm cases confirmed in a 5-day period—as opposed to nearly 3,000 cases recorded during a comparable period in 1962.

As further encouragement, the Commission noted that of last week's 28 reported cases, only five were in areas where the program's "controls" were in full effect.

HOW TO BE A COMMISSIONER — Frank Miskell, Texas' first Regulatory Loan Commissioner, is faced with the massive task of creating the agency.

Since state office buildings are filled his first job is finding office space.

Another immediate problem concerns selection of a deputy commissioner. He will assume law governing the licensing and involved in establishing a budget and an organizational plan, setting salaries for employees, hiring employees from the third-ranking executive down to the secretarial pools and file clerks, purchasing office equipment and furnishings, and so on.

Miskell still hopes to have the agency set up by Aug. 23. That is the effective date of the new law governing the licensing and practices of lending firms who charge more than 10 per cent interest.

A flood of applications is expected from Texas loan companies seeking licenses and inquiring about specific provisions in the new lending regulations.

PROSPERITY, OR WHATEVER IT IS — Texas merchants continue to operate at a high level of retail sales volume.

Total retail sales show no dramatic increases. But the level for the first six months of this year is about two per cent over the 1962 January to June period.

According to the UT Bureau of Business Research Fort Worth and Austin are in the lead with increases of six per cent. Dallas is next with three per cent improvement, followed by San Antonio with plus one per cent.

Our God is a wonderful companion to all who fear Him and keep His precepts. He is always with us, we are never alone. He is our guide, the one who comforts, and He never leaves us alone. Remember when the going is hard and the way seems impossible, even fearful, He is always with you.

He said to Joshua, "As I was with Moses, so will I be with thee: I will not fail thee. Be strong and of a good courage." He is Lord of Lords, and King of Kings. He is your God, he is God in the heavens above and in the earth beneath. When you study the Word of God you find that His hand is mighty and that you should fear the Lord Thy God forever. Keep your heart open unto Him and His presence will make you strong and courageous.

Arctic survival expert puts his money on the nation he helps guard

DEW Line worker buys Bonds every month on Payroll Savings

Investing in the nation that invests in him is just common sense to Walton I. Ahmaogak of Barrow, Alaska.

When the Dew Line was being constructed, it was Mr. Ahmaogak who led the tractor "trains" to the sites. When the construction crews found it difficult to work in the exacting climate, Mr. Ahmaogak taught the men to live with the world's most demanding conditions.

When the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds through Payroll Savings was suggested to employees of Federal Electric, International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation's service associate which operates and maintains the Dew Line for the U. S. Air Force, Mr. Ahmaogak was among the first to sign up.

"I think it's a good investment and good for the country," he says.

Mr. Ahmaogak puts $50 a month into Payroll Savings. He's been doing it for over six years. And, he says he's going to keep right on doing it.

Buying Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan is an excellent investment in our country, and a wonderful way to save.

For every $18.75 you put away, you know you'll get back $25 when the Bonds mature.

Look into the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. It's safe, completely automatic, and gives you a big bonus of freedom.

"Join up now," says ITT President Harold S. Geneen, Chairman of the U. S. Industrial Payroll Savings Committee.

"Walton Ahmaogak may be the northernmost buyer of Savings Bonds, but there are eight million Americans like him who regularly invest in America through the Payroll Savings Plan," says Chairman Harold S. Geneen. "Join up now. You save for your country at the same time you save for yourself. And your savings in Bonds speak for freedom around the world."
