COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT

The Livestock Subcommittee of the Program Building Committee, Jack Idol, chairman, met last week and made final plans for the Beef Cattle Short course. This educational effort will be held at the City Cafe in Knox City, Feb. 17, 18, 19, and 20, at 7:30 p.m.

Speakers on Monday night, Feb. 17, are Dr. C. M. Patterson, Extension Veterinarian and Lloyd Bergsma, Director of the Cattle Feeders Division, Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, Fort Worth.

They will cover health problems of beef cattle and beef cattle outlook for 1964.

Speakers for Tuesday night, Feb. 18 are Garlyn O. Hoffman, Extension Ranch Specialist and Dr. William J. "Dub" Waldrip, head of the Throckmorton Ranch Research Station. These men will cover Brush Control, range management and other research work along this line.

The subject for the third night will be Coastal Bermuda. The speaker will be Dr. Dixon Hubbard, Extension Livestock Specialist. His talk will cover the management of beef cattle on Coastal for the most profit. There will also be a panel of four local men who have had several years experience with Coastal Bermuda.

The last night, Thursday, Feb. 20, will have L. A. Maddox Jr., Extension Specialist in Cow and Calf operation, presenting a program on his specialty.

Every livestock producer in the area is urged to attend these meetings.

Due to the many requests from fruit growers, I am planning a series of meetings to demonstrate good orchard management. We are living in an area well adapted for fruit trees.

The amount and quality of fruit produced depends on the care given an orchard. These meetings will be as follows: Monday; Wednesday, Feb. 12, at 5 p.m. Mr. Greenway's home, located just east of Massey Harris place. Goree; Thursday, Feb. 13, 5 p.m.—Barton Carl home. Knox City; Friday, Feb. 14, 5 p.m., Mrs. Inez Carver home, 307 East 5th.

Anyone wishing to learn more about pruning, insect and disease control, is invited to attend.

Plans are also being made to hold the Medical Self-Help Training Course in Knox County beginning the last week in February. This is a series of 11 lessons which takes 16 hours to complete. It is based on the fact that in a national disaster, doctors will be unavailable for the majority of people. This is excellent first aid treatment and is good to know whether we have a disaster or not.

The committee making plans for this decided to have meetings in Munday, Knox City, and rotate the meetings in Benjamin, Vera, Truscott and Gilliland.

Subjects to be covered are Radioactive Fallout and Shelter, Healthful Living in Emergencies, Artificial Respiration, Bleeding and Bandaging, Fractures and Splinting, Transportation of the Sick and Injured, Infant and Child Care, Emergency Childbirth.

A complete schedule will be published later. The goal is to have at least one member of every family attend each lesson. The course is open to everyone.

Benjamin official rainfall for 1963 was 20.46 inches. This compares with 26.35 inches for 1962 and a yearly average of 24.59.

Farmers Invited To Attend Special Meet

Garland Dalton, owner of Dalton's Best Maid Products, Inc., of Fort Worth and Sales Manager Otis Campsey were in Knox City Tuesday to speak with a group of farmers and other interested citizens on the feasibility of producing cucumbers in Knox City.

Bob Harrison, owner of Bob's Super Save Market, invited the men to Knox City in an effort to promote the farming industry to a greater degree.

A meeting has been planned for Tuesday at 7 p.m. at City

Cafe for all area farmers.

Mr. Dalton and Mr. Campsey are in the process of filling contracts now for this year's season and will answer any question concerning this plant at the meeting Tuesday night.

Dalton said it took between three and four pounds of seed per acre to plant cucumbers; it is planted on 40-inch rows; the planting date is in May, and a farmer can expect to gather his crop around June 20 and it takes eight weeks to complete the harvesting.

Average production is 535 bu. per acre and a bushel weighs 50 pounds. He said it was a common practice for the farmer to make $500. per acre.

He recommends planting a minimum of ten acres and a maximum of 25 acres, unless the farmer has special capacity and facilities, then he may be able to plant up to 100, he said. Mr. Dalton is signing contracts now with a guaranteed price—The above is a capsule comment on the meeting and everyone is invited to attend the meeting if they think they would be interested in raising this crop.

Paul Clayton New Council Member

Knox City's City Council held a regular meeting Monday and the first order of business was to appoint Paul Clayton to serve the unexpired term of Vaughn Gruben, who resigned and moved from Knox City last week.

They recommended that anyone desiring to dump anything at the city grounds should call city hall for permission. The city said the grounds were a health problem and they are making arrangements now to "clean it up."

City Secretary John Robinson read the financial condition of the city as follows:

Water	3,101.67
General	$13,480.25
Delinquent taxes	2,036.91
Regular taxes	$22,000.00

Robinson told the council $9,000 would be added to the Sinking Fund as required by law. The city has collected $42.00 in fines he said, with Constable LeRoy Davis turning in two, the Highway Patrol three and Chief of Police J. J. Hester, two.

Motion was made by Kenneth Crownover and seconded by Paul Clayton, to reimburse J. J. Hester $10. on expenses incurred on a trip to Odessa.

Hats off to all adults locally who are making it possible for boys to have Scouting available and to follow the theme for '64: "Strengthen America, Scouting can make the Difference."

Was talking with Bob Harrison the other day about Knox Citizens trying to get some sort of industry or a way to utilize the land to a better degree and he came upon the idea of raising cucumbers.

One thing led to another and Bob called Mr. Son Dalton of Best Maid Food Co., in Fort Worth and asked him about the prospects.

Mr. Dalton was optimistic and said he would come down to talk with local farmers and anyone interested in raising cucumbers.

Knox County is blessed with a growing season most beneficial to a number of edibles, including cucumbers.

A personal friend of ours asked us the other day if we had a friend in politics.

As regular readers know we have, for the past five years, harped and advocated the need, necessity, and privilege of voting, and have done everything in our power to get the people to vote.

Just for the record we DO have a lot of friends in politics.

PREDICTION — Regardless of who runs on the Republican ticket, President Lyndon Johnson will be re-elected by the biggest vote since the Roosevelt era. Although Nixon, in our opinion is the least likely to succeed, he will more than likely get the nod.

Personally, we'd like to see a real race between either Goldwater or Rockefeller, two really outstanding Republicans.

Hope Mr. Goldwater and Mr. Rockefeller can keep plugging for at least four more years, maybe they will have a run for their money then!

Faye Graham ran across the following bit in one of her magazines the other day and passed it on to us:

"Insanity is hereditary—parents get it from their children."

Area farmers and ranchers have smiled the past week even when they got their trucks bogged down and waded mud knee deep . . . our long dry season is over and every drop of moisture has soaked in the ground.

IMPORTANT MEETINGS for our area farmers will be held in O'Brien, Monday, Feb. 4 for the purpose of acquainting the men on "What's New With Fertilizers" Featured speakers are well known specialists on the subject and it should prove most beneficial.

An added attraction is a ham supper to be served at the high school auditorium at 6:30.

And of course, Tuesday at 7:30 the farmer will be asked to attend a meeting here in KC at the City Cafe to discuss cucumber raising. We listed a number of items they brought up but make up your own list of questions—Mr. Dalton and his aide seem most helpful and would like to get land closer to Fort Worth and their pickle-packin' plant.

Mr. Dalton said there were more pickles canned or packed than any other edible item, including beans and corn!

STUDY CLUB TO MEET

The Knox City Study Club will meet Thursday at 4 p.m. for a program on "Safety for Our Community." Mrs. Myrtle White is the leader and a guest speaker will be from the West Texas Utilities Co., of Abilene.

Streams In Desert Places

Ozelle Stephens

"And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north and from the south, and sit down in the kingdom of God." (Lu. 13:29).

The kingdom of God is universal including all peoples who are in the will of God and seeking His righteousness. He has never turned one away. He is concerned about all the things that life might bring. When the mysteries of life wind themselves around you and the burdens become heavier than you can bear, find a place near to the heart of God and listen to the small still voice giving you the answers to all of life's problems.

First you may hear him say, "Come unto me, all ye who are heavy laden and I will give you rest . . . For lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world . . . Come unto the waters of life and drink the everlasting strength. They are more than the great oceans around the world. Don't bring a themble to get a little, as in the parable of the poor man. But launch out and ride upon the great waves of His power. It is yours for the taking by faith. He is waiting for your cry.

VETERANS

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—Are "peacetime" veterans entitled to hospital care?

A—Yes, but only if they were discharged for a line-of-duty disability or if they are receiving compensation for a service-connected disability.

Q— My service-connected disability is rated at 30 per cent. Can I be entitled to extra compensation because of my dependents?

A—No. Only veterans whose service-connected disabilities are rated at 50 per cent or more are entitled to additional compensation for dependents.

Q—As an eligible War Orphan I have educational rights but I wish to continue working, too. May I attend school for less than half time under the War Orphans Educational program?

A—No. Regulations require that a student must attend school at least half time to be eligible for the War Orphan program payments.

Q — I have just had a son and a Korean Conflict veteran with a 50 percent service-connected disability, I believe I'm now entitled to additional compensation. I have not yet reported the birth to the VA. Will the date of my son's birth be the effective date of the increased payment?

A — The effective date will be the day the VA receives the evidence you will submit to establish your entitlement to the additional money.

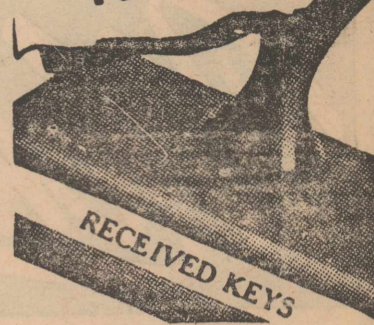

Q — My son, determined by the VA to be helpless, is being furnished training under the War Orphans program. This is the first month he has attended school and we have received checks both for the schooling and the regular $77 a month compensation. Shouldn't one of these checks be returned to the VA?

A — No. In the case of a helpless child both the Dependency Indemnity Compensation and the War Orphans Act benefits are paid simultaneously.

Q — My husband is quite in debt. I am afraid that in the event of his death his creditors may seize his GI insurance policy which I am depending on. Can they do this?

A — No. Proceeds of a GI insurance policy are exempted by law from the claims of creditors. The proceeds may not be seized or attached to pay your husband's debts.

IT'S THE LAW

IN TEXAS

The signing of a contract of sale is an extremely important step in the purchase of a home. Once buyer and seller have signed, they are bound by the provisions of the contract. Their respective legal rights in the transaction are thereby set and determined. If the contract is poorly and haphazardly drawn, a harvest of regret may be reaped at a later date.

Sales contracts are often called by other names, such as earnest money contracts, binders, receipts, etc. All of them are for the same purpose and almost without exception involve the deposit of money by the buyer.

Some require the seller to put up a good faith deposit. The fact that such deposited sums are usually to be forfeited in event the depositor later fails to go through with his specified contractual obligations lends additional weight to the oft-stated admonition that no contract should be signed without complete understanding as to its terms.

But many home purchasers (and sellers) rush to sign a hastily-prepared contract with very little knowledge of its contents. The pressure of time, the informality of the occasion, the casual appearance of the contract, and perhaps the fact that a partially-printed form is used may contribute in causing the true importance of the act to be overlooked. At any rate, many are lulled into a lapse of good business judgment.

Every significant detail of the bargain should be crystallized in unmistakable terms in the contract of sale. Land and fixtures being sold should be clearly described. A complete description of the property by lot and block or by metes and bounds, is a must, the street number being inadequate by itself.

Articles and fixtures included in the sale but not always sold with houses generally should be specifically listed. Included in this category are such items as venetian blinds, removable floor coverings, draperies, air conditioning units and others. In purchasing property under construction, complete plans and specifications form an essential part of the agreement.

The price to be paid must, of course, be specified, along with method and terms of payment. If a certain-sized loan is a prerequisite to the buyer's ability to complete the purchase, this fact should be noted. Sad indeed is the prospective purchaser who loses earnest money when a contemplated loan transaction falls through, his contract requiring payment of the entire consideration in cash.

The sales contract should also state the quality of the title to be conveyed to the buyer and the type of title evidence to be furnished.

The buyer's individual circumstances and desires may require that various matters not mentioned above be provided for in the contract. All too often people try to squeeze a sales contract to fit the type of printed form on hand, omitting or leaving to easily misconstrued or forgotten oral agreement many vital provisions. Do not fall into the "pitfall of the printed form." Too many unfortunate entanglements have been announced by clients to lawyers with the words, "I have just signed a receipt for a house on Blank St.

Will you take over now and see that everything is O.K.?" (This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise.
