Due to considerable concern of parents of youngsters riding bicycles to school as well as the tiny tots who walk, we along with every thinking person, will point out that you can't be too careful where these youngsters are concerned.

Before school was out last year we got a big kick out of having to park our car in the middle of the road so some of these youngsters could pass on their bicycles, but we wondered at the time if everyone was aware of the dangerous intersections they cross going to school and look out for the little ones.

Local law enforcement personnel have been aware of this tyke-hazard for some time and we noticed with interest that the city council had this listed near the top of their list as one of the most important projects for the new police chief.

Lets try (we will too) to hold our speed to a minimum between 7:45 and 8:30 each morning as well as 2:45 to 3:45 each afternoon.

And, of course, older kids who drive to school should delay racing until they get out of the school limits, and city too, for that matter.

Being realistic, we know no one is crazy enough to buy a 300-plus horsepower crate to creep along at 30 or even 70 mph but lets turn over a new leaf and confine it to the wide open spaces, not in Knox City, OK? We'll be first . . . or no, last to get to the city limits!

SECRET AMBITION — We doubt seriously if there is a boy or man anywhere who likes to work on and drive hot cars any more than we do. And to top all this we have always wanted to be a car salesman!

Paul Clayton confided that he had always been fascinated by law enforcement . . . and our other mortician friend E. Hob Smith, was always fascinated by Southern Planters . . .

In a way we all get to have our ways . . . We get to write about cars and to some extent, we hope, sell them . . . Paul, occasionally, gets to pick up the remains of police escapades and of course Hob . . .

A Rochester subscriber asked if we had been "struck by lightning"—when we wrote the story about the horses being struck by lightning a few weeks ago.

The story was correct and we are happy to report that one of Jim Rea's mares is recovered from her experience and the other one is still lame.

J. D. Smith of the Big 4 Ranch stopped by to look at them and he was in hopes Jim could get someone from Texas A&M to check them.

The account was true and accurate, and we didn't get struck this particular time.

Mama just dropped us when we were little!

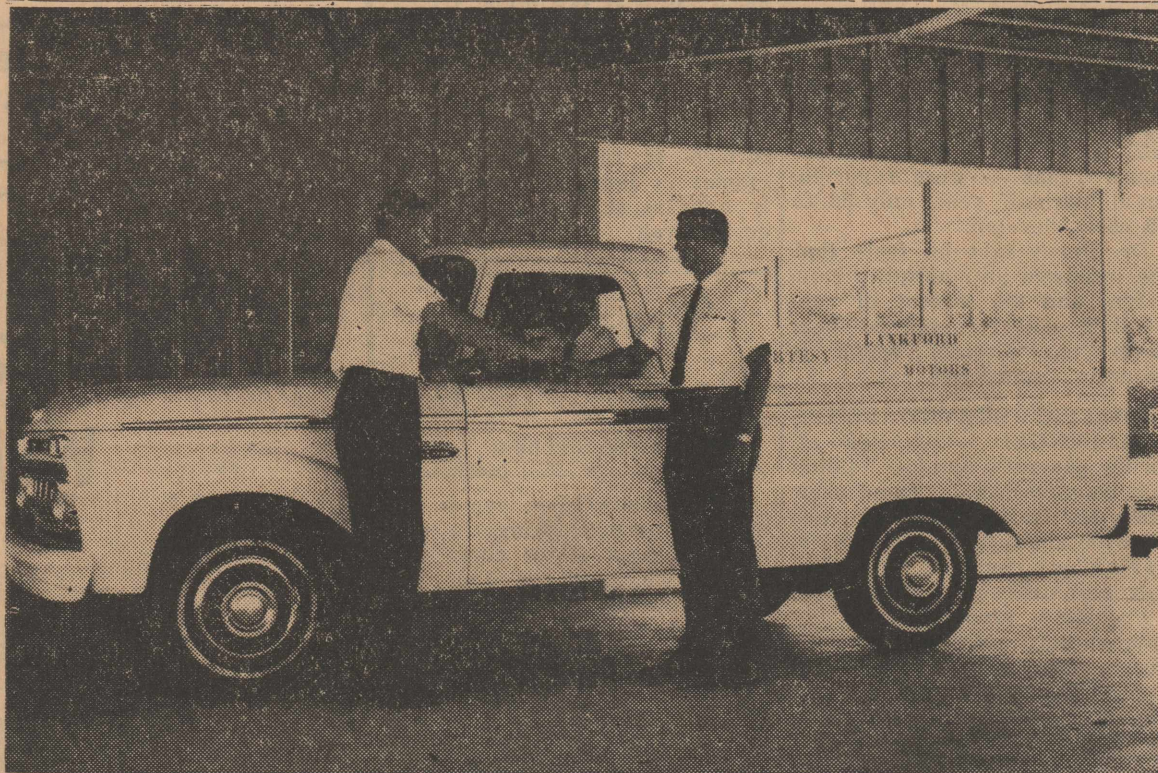

Jack Land requested that we publicly "thank the city council for the new truck they got us last week."

City employees have wanted and needed a truck for the past three years . . . Last week the old heap finally died, and will be laid to rest with many other tons of junk.

BUY IT IN KNOX CITY — has been a Chamber of Commerce theme for some few years now, and we like to point out that this is a job everyone in town can abide by. Those who could help the town the most, though, spend money out-of-town. Poor folks like us, have to spend here, for we can't go any place else to charge things.

Although there are some items you can't get here, admittedly, on a spur of the moment, we also notice that you can get anything here you can anywhere else if you wait for it.

Give our local yokels a fair chance to meet competition of the city . . . Believe it or not you can buy a new Cadillac in Knox City cheaper than you can in the city. On top of that if you can't drive a local dealers offering, give him a chance to make a few bucks on his competition's model. This is just a figure of speech and is applicable to every business you can think of.

NEW PICKUP — Charles Lankford of Lankford Motors hands the keys to a new 1965 Ford pickup to Leon Burkham, Vocational Agriculture teacher at Knox City High School. Supt. Erwin Youngblood is already in the drivers seat for first turn at the wheel. The truck is the courtesy of Lankford Motors.

Services Held For Former Marshall, G. T. Hardberger

Funeral services for George T. Hardberger, former Knox City resident, who died in a Fort Worth hospital Thursday, were held at the Knox City Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Burial was in Knox City Cemetery under direction of Smith Funeral Home.

Mr. Hardberger was a native of Parker County and married Miss Pearl Graves in Venus, Texas, Feb. 1, 1905.

They moved to Knox City in 1906, and lived here until about five years ago when they moved to Fort Worth.

He was a former city marshal here and a deputy sheriff. He also had farming and ranching interests.

Survivors are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. John H. Barnell of Fort Worth and two grandchildren.

F. A. Robinette Speaks To Lions Club Wednesday

F. A. Robinette, district manager of General Telephone Co., Seymour, was featured speaker on the program at Knox City's Lions Club Wednesday.

Mr. Robinette was introduced by Sam E. Clonts who with E. A. Youngblood were program committeemen this week.

Mr. Robinette began his program with a discussion of the North American Defense Command (NOMAD) and presented a number of color slides to enhance his description of the commentary.

At the conclusion of his color slides Mr. Robinette dialed Colorado Springs, Colo., home of Nomad and the phone was connected to a loud speaker in order that the club could hear both Mr. Robinette and Lt. Jenks at the base in Colorado Springs.

Lt. Jenks explained the functions of North American Defense Command and said it was made up of all the United States services as well as the Canadian Air Force. Lt. Jenks was a Canadian, he said.

It is designed to alert North America to anything that might endanger her well being. "It is to defend North America from air attacks," he said.

There are over 800 installations all over the country he said.

Mr. Robinette asked him to report on their work in the past 24 hours and Lt. Jenks said they had encountered four aircraft, which after investigation proved to be friendly. Also they had noted that in outer space there were 120 objects in orbit plus 342 that were expended fuel tanks and rockets from tests in the past. Every object is recorded and watched.

Members of the club asked questions at random and the Lieutenant answered them.

When asked where they got their personnel he answered that all services furnished men and that Canadians came from the air force.

Defense seemed weaker on the south than other parts of the country, he was asked why.

Little trouble was expected from the south he said and as far as Cuba was concerned we had enough installations in Florida to take care of that.

Next he was asked about submarine attacks.

This he said, was a problem at this time for they could not detect a sub. Work was progressing in this line, however.

Mr. Robinette and his company were thanked for their efforts in explaining North American Defense Command to the club.

FEW SEATS REMAIN

Supt. Youngblood said he still had a few reserved seat tickets left for those who want to be sure and have a seat at the season's football games.

Averitt recently enlisted in the Navy and is in boot camp in San Diego, Calif.

He was chosen for this honor after an interview and by making a high grade on his tests.

He will be a regimental flag bearer and will complete his basic training in three more weeks.

KNOX CITY ROMPS OVER WYLIE, 36-0

Between five and six hundred avid Greyhound fans journeyed to Wylie last Friday night to see Knox City win their first game of the season by defeating the Wylie Bulldogs, 36-0.

Knox City made their first touchdown in the first few minutes of play, on the third down, Fullback Phil Williams made a 37 yard dash to the end zone. The run for the extra points made the score 8-0.

The second TD came after Tackle Larry White recovered a Bulldog fumble on the Wylie 43 yard line. Doug Logsdon carried the ball over for his first score of the night, five plays later. The pass for extra points failed and the score was 14-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Ronnie Worley carried the ball for what seemed to be another score in the second period, but the officials ruled his knee touched the ground at the five yard line. Worley went across the stripe again but this was called back.

Phil Williams carried the pigskin over two plays later, but the try for extra points failed and the score was 20-0.

On the next Knox City score,

Ben Smith passed to End Ray Penman, who was alone on the right side, and he went over for the fourth touchdown. Worley's run for the extra points made the score 28-0.

In the third quarter KC scored the first time it had the ball. Logsdon, Rodriguez and Williams ran the ball up to their own 48, where Shaver then pass-

Acreage Survey Being Conducted

Postmaster Jeff Graham announced today that Rural Mail Carriers will begin distributing 1964 Acreage Survey Cards to patrons on their respective routes about Sept. 12.

The Post Office Department assists U.S.D.A. in making this survey each year. These reports, directly from farmers, are the basis for official estimates for Texas acreage of all crops harvested in 1964.

To be sure this community is well represented in the survey, Postmaster Graham urges each patron receiving a card to fill it out and return it to his mailbox.

Chad Wilson will be the rural carrier for Knox City distributing the cards.

Mrs. Floyd Bailey, Mrs. Berntha Speck and children are visiting Mrs. Bernice Bivins in Odessa this week.

ed over the middle to Logsdon who went the distance for the 52-yard pass-and-run tally.

Williams' two-point run ended the Knox City scoring for the night at 36-0.

Williams was the game's leading rusher with 98 yards on 11 carries. Next was Doug Logsdon with 76 yards in seven tries and Worley was third with 32 yards on six carries.

On the film grading of the game, Coach Darland reported Ray Penman did an outstanding job on offense and Larry White was the star on defense.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

"Interbasin diversions," the process of moving water from where it is to where it is needed, is being talked about more and more in Texas where half of the state's water supply is centered in the eastern one-seventh of the state.

It will be the topic of three speakers at the Association of Western State Engineers in Austin on Sept. 21.

Speakers are Frank Raab of Oklahoma, David Hale of New Mexico and William Warne of California. All three are water officials in states which have turned to interbasin diversions to solve some water problems.

Some moving already has taken place in Texas. In the Trinity watershed, for instance, Dallas is completing a pipeline and treatment plant for moving Sabine River water from Lake Tawakoni to Dallas. Also Houston has signed a contract with the Trinity River Authority to move Trinity water to Houston.

Interbasin diversion will become the subject of more conversations for Texans when the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation releases its pending report. It proposes a 400-mile canal to move surplus water from the Sabine and Neches basins, southward to link all major rivers in Texas and meet the needs of the Gulf Coast to a point below Corpus Christi.

Gov. John Connally has asked the Texas Water Commission to speed up water planning to seek alternatives to the Bureau of Reclamation's forthcoming proposal. But the commission is strapped by the hands of a budget inadequate for such a study, unless the 1965 Legislature increases its funds.

INSURANCE INTEREST CHARGE UPHELD — An effort by the Allstate Insurance Company to knock out the State Board of Insurance order requiring a minimum charge of six per cent interest on insurance premiums paid by installments has failed.

Board said it found nothing in the hearing to change its mind. It reported that abuses of Texas laws, prohibiting inducements to prospective policyholders and prohibiting discrimination between policyholders, were taking place under deferred payment plans.

"Net costs handling premium payments financed by insurance companies at cut-rate interest, or no interest, will ultimately be paid by all insureds," said Board Chairman Hunter McLean.

"Those electing deferred payment plans should bear such costs . . ."

A spokesman for one company charged that criticism of ruling by the National Association of Independent Insurers laid the groundwork for "an attack on the Texas rating system and policy control." N.A.I.I. claimed the order discriminates against Texas policyholders, and that the board had no authority to adopt it.

OUT OF THE RED — State government ended its 1963-64 fiscal year on August 31, with a fat general revenue fund balance of $73,000,000.

It was the brightest year-end figure since 1949.

"It looks better than it has for a long time," beamed State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert. Five years of deficits still are fresh in his memory. One year the state ran $110,000,000 in the red. Calvert declined to speculate on the amount of surplus which will be available for legislative appropriation.

Gov. Connally predicted earlier that the general revenue surplus may reach $80,000,000 next year. Despite the abundance of money, the Governor said the Legislature likely will have to pass a new tax bill or amend the existing rates in 1965. This because of demands for more spending in education and other areas.

Calvert noted three factors close-out; a $24,000,000 increase this year over 1963 in general sales tax revenues; an $8 million jump in the auto sales tax; and a $3 million crude oil tax increase.

Comptroller's report showed state collections during 1964 were more than $1,600,000,000, compared with $1,500,000,000 in 1963. Expenditures totalled $1,500,000,000, compared with $1,400,000,000 the previous year.

General economic growth of the state; the federal income tax reduction designed to prime spending; and removal of the $10 clothing exemption from the state sales tax were seen as largely responsible for the bigger yield from that levy.

CABINET MEETINGS RESUMED — Governor Connally has resumed his schedule of unofficial "cabinet" meetings with top state agency heads.

He started the sessions last October, but had to discontinue them when he was wounded by the same assassin who killed President Kennedy.

Last week's meeting was held in the offices of the Texas Education Agency. Emphasized was overall operations and financing of public schools. A general discussion of agency problems with the governor followed.

HIGHWAY HURRY-UPS ASKED — Citizens from San Antonio, Corpus Christi and the counties which connect them asked the State Highway Commission to "hurry up" and schedule work on a proposed Interstate Highway between the two cities so that construction will be completed by 1968.

That is the year when San Antonio will produce the Hemis Fair; Padre Island National Seashore will be in full-scale operation and Mexico City will host the World Olympics. Nueces County Judge Noah Kennedy Jr., said, "We would just like to be in a position to swap tourists with the city of San Antonio."

"Hurry-up" urgings also were heard from Valley leaders who pleaded with the Highway Commission to hasten construction of the Valley Expressway (US 83) because the current system of routing traffic on access roads is hazardous.

Lawyer Rio Grande vice president Jack H. Drake of Weslaco told commissioners the Valley death rate has risen 40 per cent this year — compared to a statewide rise of 13 per cent — because of accidents on the access roads adjacent to the expressway route.

Commission immediately authorized construction of a 1.7-mile section of the expressway within the city limits of Mercedes.

ANTI-MOSQUITO CAMPAIGN — Spurred by the spread of encephalitis, state, county and city officials all over Texas are conducting a vast campaign against mosquitoes, according to State Health Commissioner J. E. Peavy.

Although much of the war against the disease carriers is waged constantly in areas which have tax-supported districts to combat disease-bearing insects, extra measures are being taken in many places, including Houston where 75 two-man spraying crews are at work.

Dr. Peavy said that as of September 1, a total of 474 cases of encephalitis and 19 deaths had been reported from Houston; 61 cases and five deaths in the Upper Plains region; and a smattering of suspected infections in other counties.

He said the 1964 epidemic has been the worst since 1954, when close to 1,000 cases — most in

Air Force Pipe Band To Play At Abilene Fair

The United States Air Force Pipe Band, a unit of the United States Air Force Band, will appear in Abilene at the West Texas Fair on September 17, 18 and 19, President Jimmy Lauderdale said today.

Lauderdale said that Fair officials were indeed indebted to the 56th Strategic Aerospace Wing for providing this outstanding attraction for the fair.

The Bag Pipe Band is the most colorful and unique musical unit in the Armed Forces today. Resplendently attired in South Texas — were reported. In a "normal" year, only 50 to 75 cases develop.

Dr. Peavy said he feels that the intensive anti-mosquito campaign, and the advent of cool weather will combine to beat down the disease, which is dwindling somewhat.

TRAFFIC SURVEY FUNDS CHALLENGED — A new attorney general's opinion holding that counties cannot spend their funds for traffic surveys required to obtain future federal highway aid has confused state highway administrators.

Problems presented by the opinion were outlined to the Attorney General's office. But a revision of the opinion was not officially requested, according to Carr's aides.

Thirteen counties now are participating in the financing of detailed traffic surveys on a 15 per cent local share basis. They are Cameron, Dallas, El Paso, Galveston, Harris, Jefferson, Lubbock, Orange, Potter, Randall, Smith, Tarrant and Webb.

Although cost of the studies is relatively minor, they are important to Texas' 22 metropolitan areas. They must be under way by next July if federal aid to the urban centers is to continue.

Cities in nearly half the areas are picking up the local bill, without help from counties. If the opinion stands up, city governments may have to take over in the other 13 counties.

authentic kilts of the Mitchell Tartan (chosen in honor of General Billy Mitchell), this unusual organization creates a sensation wherever it appears.

The uniforms of the United States Air Force Band's Pipe Band were authorized by General Curtis LeMay and were made in Scotland. They were received by the members of the Air Force Pipe Band in June, 1960, at Bovington Royal Air Force Station near London, England, while the Air Force Pipe Band were appearing in Great Britain.

The Air Force Pipe Band appears often at the White House and at various Air Force and government functions throughout the Washington area. In addition, it has appeared numerous times in New York City, performed at Independence ceremonies in Jamaica, and annually appears at Bermuda's Flower Festival.

The ministry of prayer is the most important thing in our lives. Without it we could not go on; we could not have joy and happiness. Remember the devil never rests from his fighting God's children. "Our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the powers, against the world ruler of darkness, against the spiritual host of wickedness in heavenly places . . . wherefore take up the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

To be overcomers we must pray constant, untiring prayers. Pray in the spirit the prayer of faith. Keep constant fellowship with the wonderful Lord who is our only hope.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

LEGAL RESEARCH

Much of the work a lawyer does has the effect of preventing law suits. By foreseeing a situation which may go bad, a lawyer can protect his client. All of this means great emphasis upon legal research.

Much of our lawyer's time goes into looking up the law. He must check statutes, codes, reports of decisions, commentaries, and often technical books outside the law. He can then advise his client what to do and to keep his client from getting into situations that may lead to litigation. This stress on prevention is relatively new, as compared with the lawyer's traditional role as trial advocate.

In general the longer a rule of law based on precedent has been used, the more persuasive a court is likely to find it. Following precedent is called the doctrine of stare decisis ("the decision stands"). Because of "stare decisis", lawyers are able to count upon the law's stability in helping their clients to plan their estate, personal, or business affairs.

But law also changes as conditions and attitudes change. And these are days of change. Lawyers want to predict legal results reliably for their clients. Some law changes little, for example, in the fields of property, contracts, wills, and trusts. But in other fields such as civil rights and labor law, for example, the law changes rapidly these days.

In order to keep up with change, for example, Texas lawyers have pooled their research and talents to conduct a program of Continuing Legal Education.

During the past year there were more than 2,000 registrants in the program. They have kept up to date through hundreds of lectures and the publication of several new volumes of law books.

The program is a project of the State Bar of Texas begun in 1948. It is fully financed by Texas lawyers and judges at a cost of several thousand dollars a year. The various law schools of Texas also conduct a number of post graduate seminars each year. The various law schools of Texas also conduct a number of post graduate seminars each year, attended by hundreds of members of the profession.

Also monthly and weekly publications of the State Bar covering late developments in the law go to each of the 15,000 lawyers belonging to the organization.

KAY'S KOLUMN

by Kay Reeves
(Editor's note . . . Kay Reeves, the Knox County Herald's newest reporter, asks that all students in Knox City Schools with news for the Herald please contact her either at school or call 658-3792.)

School has started! The Reeves family along with several other families in Knox City are realizing that fact. Maybe I should say the check book realizes it even more, what with one child in college, one in high school and one in grade school.

Everyone is about to get back into the swing of school. For a few days last week it seemed a smooth running schedule was just one of a few impossibilities of high school. However now to the usual—wait a minute—I was about to say the usual dull routine of high school. There is never any dull routine of high school because everyday has it's very own commotion.

School has been in progress only a week and it would take me days to think of everything Monday brought with it a new disease caught only by seniors. This illness causes seniors to be even more high handed. Yes, the disease is Senior-iritigitis.

The whole week seemed to be a preparation for Friday. The cheerleaders and twirlers had workouts with the same goal as the football boys and that was to look good on Friday night.

Friday was an extremely big day. It began with class meetings. Each class elected officers and chose a class sponsor as follows.

The whole day had a strange feeling of excitement as everyone's thoughts seemed to be on that night's game. The day reached a climax at the pep rally!!

Everyone had been upset all week because word was that the band was not going to play the song "South." "South" is just next to the school song in importance. At the pep rally, everyone began to call for "South" to be played. Mr. Arnett explained that he didn't have that music passed around yet, but he would have it next week. As a wave of disappointment spread through the crowd, the band all of a sudden struck up—that's right—"South".

Smiles replaced frowns and shouts of joy replaced groans of disappointment. So speaking in behalf of the student body of K.C.H.S., I say "Thank you, Mr. Arnett." I think by now, everyone knows how Knox City's mighty Greyhounds beat Wylie, 36-0.

This has been a great week to start off a year. Another week has begun and it will be just as rewarding.

Cotton Farmers To Spend $2.6 On Promoting Cotton

Cotton farmers will spend $2.6 million for research and promotion in 1965 and estimate nearly twice that figure will be available for building markets and profits the following year.

A total of $1,792,274 was budgeted for cotton promotion and $867,000 for research during '65, according to Roy Davis, Lubbock, and Jack Funk, Harlingen, Texas trustees for the Cotton Producers Institute.

At a meeting of Institute trustees in Phoenix, Ariz., Tuesday, it was revealed estimates of grower-participation on the current cotton crop indicate funds for the 1966 program will be almost double the present budget. The Institute now is operating in 12 of 14 major cotton states, and further expansion is expected.

Aim of the promotion program approved by the trustees is to convince housewives and others to buy "comfortable, care-free cotton" products. Campaigns are scheduled for spring and fall during heavy textile buying months.

Cotton sales messages will be carried into millions of homes by consumer magazines, newspaper advertising in cooperation with local department stores and large chains, network television, and trade magazines.

Extensive merchandising work by leading garment manufacturers and Sears, Montgomery Ward and J. C. Penney will give cotton products a strong push at the retail level. This group will use posters, ad reprints, direct mail, ad mats for local stores and other materials featuring cotton.

Trustees budgeted $867,000 for 27 research projects. New projects deal with research on a boll weevil feeding stimulant, verticillium wilt tolerance, setting and altering creases in garments, improving wear life of easy care fabrics, and improving cotton rugs.

Twenty projects were renewed after trustees heard executive committee members report inspections show the work generally is making good progress. Continuing projects deal with systematics insecticides, fruiting and growth, verticillium wilt, men's cotton suits, fiber strength tests, biochemistry of cotton plant, chemical treatment and user of fabrics, chemical weed control, biological-chemical insect control, fabric development, adaption of plant to minimum temperature, and comparison of cotton's qualities with other fibers.

Aims of the program are to cut unit costs of producing cotton an average of 11 cents per pound and to develop better products which will enable cotton to expand its domestic market by 5.6 million bales.

Trustees, elected by growers participating on the 1963-64 crop, renamed Russell Giffen, Fresno, Calif., chairman, and J. Clyde Wilson, Buckeye, Ariz., vice chairman.

When Should Child Have Gun, Play, Or Drive Car?

When should your child have a gun—play football—or drive a car?

The decision, naturally, is up to you, the parent, but the Texas State Department of Health reminds you to bear some important factors in mind.

If your son is eager to have a gun for the coming hunting season, you will want to consider other things as well as age. Since all youngsters vary in maturity, age alone cannot determine a child's readiness to possess a gun. You must judge your youngster's degree of responsibility.

If, around the age of 12, he exhibits responsibility in other areas and has had gun training by an adult, he probably can be trusted with a gun.

The safest gun for a beginner probably is a .22 rimfire shot rifle.

But most important, be sure your child is trained in gun safety. Check with your local health department or gun dealer about organized gun instruction clubs.

Football is the roughest and most dangerous of boys' sports, not because of fatalities but because of injuries. Few players die in football—an average of 15 a year—but about one in 12 can expect to be injured. Most injuries are minor, but others cause permanent damage.

Boys want to play, and despite its ruggedness, football under the right conditions can be a safe sport. It's up to parents to see that conditions are right.

Before your boy plays on a team, be sure he passes a thorough physical examination, and wears good-fitting and adequate equipment and plays on a smooth, rock-free field against boys of comparable size.

So your teenager wants to drive a car. You will need to consider first, of course, whether or not he—or she—is of legal age and possesses a learner's permit or license. But once again, you must judge his responsibility and obedience.

Teenagers in general have the worst records on our highways. However, they can be excellent, responsible drivers. One question to ask yourself is: "Does my child in general respect the rights of others, and is he trustworthy in following instructions?" If so, he's likely to be courteous on the highway.

Highway Week Planned Oct. 4-10

With a theme of "Mobility: Your Fifth Freedom," Texans will observe Highway Week, October 4-10.

In an official proclamation designating Highway Week, Governor John Connally stated: "It may be fairly said that the growth and prosperity of Texas relates as much to the caliber of its highway system as does the highway system to the growth of Texas."

Sponsored by the Texas Good Roads Association, the Highway Week theme adds mobility to the celebrated Four Freedoms enunciated by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. His four freedoms were freedom of worship and expression and freedom from want and from fear.

The Governor's proclamation points out: "Texans need to be reminded of the excellence of their highways both as instruments for and products of their liberty."

"And although Texas builds highways faster, cheaper, and at greater length than any other state, there is need for vigilance to assure continuation of their expansion and improvement."

Harvest Time Is Migrant Time

Harvest time is synonymous with autumn in the minds of many people . . . particularly the migrant laborer.

Over 130,000 Texans will be harvesting the nation's crops from now until the cold bite of winter sends them to their homes in southernmost Texas.

They began their migration early last spring to labor in fields or orchards — wherever they could find work. Whole families pack a few things and travel in pickups, trucks or buses following their "crew leader" across the country.

This is the migrant way of life . . . with its many inherent problems.

For example, the typical migrant farm laborer is functionally illiterate—that is, he never attained more than a third-grade education. This problem is perpetuated by the younger generation as the children seldom attend school for more than a six-month period.

His home, where he lives less than six months a year, is normally a small structure with little or no plumbing. On the road, following the crops, he and his family live wherever they can.

The migrant way of life makes record keeping almost impossible, but those who have worked closely with these people make the following estimates:

The migrant's income averages about $900 a year. His diet, more often than not, consists of beans and tortillas.

Milk is an infrequent treat. The average migrant never sees a doctor during his lifetime. His life expectancy is about 30 years.

Obviously, health problems are a major concern of the migrant worker and the communities where he goes. Tuberculosis and other diseases may be prevalent and go undetected. Im-

FHA -- What It Is; What It Does

The Farmers Home Administration (FHA) is an agency of the USDA, serves eligible farmers with credit and needed technical help on farm and money management problems. Loans are made only to applicants unable to obtain adequate credit from other sources. The agency's purpose is to help farmers reach the point where they can go ahead with good farming using credit furnished by private or cooperative lenders.

FHA makes the following types of loans to help farm families:

1. OPERATING LOAN: Operating loans are made to help farmers make better use of their land and labor resources. Funds are loaned to pay for equipment, livestock, feed, seed, fertilizer and other farm and home operating expense.

2. FARM OWNERSHIP LOAN — Farm ownership loans are made to eligible farmers to enlarge, develop, and buy farms not larger than family farms.

3. SOIL & WATER LOANS — Soil and water loans are made to farmers and rural residents to develop water supply systems for irrigation, household use and livestock and to carry out soil conservation measures.

4. RURAL HOUSING LOANS — Rural housing loans are made to construct and repair needed homes and essential farm buildings in rural areas and in rural communities of not more than 2,500 population.

munization schedules—if any — are erratic, and infant mortality soars.

The Texas State Department of Health has underway a state wide project aimed at bettering health service for the migrants. Separate projects are being conducted by Laredo-Webb County, Southeast Texas Region, and Lubbock City-County and Plainview-Hale County health departments.

5. EMERGENCY LOANS — Emergency loans are made in designated areas where natural disasters such as floods and droughts have brought about a temporary need for credit not available from other sources.

The FHA program for the unit here, which consists of Baylor, Knox and Throckmorton counties, is supervised by Wilburn A. Satterwhite, County Supervisor, and Delbert A. Donelson, Assistant County Supervisor.

Credit to provide resources for the borrower is an important FHA service, but this alone will not make a successful farmer. The FHA supervised farm management program helps the farm family in making the best use of their land and other resources in order to receive maximum profit.
