NUMBER 1

NEW BUSINESS for Knox will be the opening of an FHA office here in short order. Mr. Satterwhite told us it will be the same type office as they have in Seymour, Haskell and other counties throughout the state.

Naturally it is a feather in our cap to have the Farmers Home Administration pick our town for a new location.

Mr. Satterwhite and his staff have always been most efficient and cooperative, and we are looking forward to having them as neighbors.

When we were very young, it wasn't at all uncommon for us to ask, and have our folks help us, with arithmetic, and other related school subjects. When our small fry started school we believed the custom should be continued. Due to the faster acceleration of education, we finally stopped that habit, when we helped our daughter once with her sixth grade division.

The next day she informed us we had failed to get even one right! After inquiry, we discovered we had worked them out to fractions instead of just remainders. In any event we have never made a zero again.

Kids are definitely smarter today than they were 20 or more years ago, and we still need to go a step or two farther in attaining a higher education.

We suppose most parents believe their youngsters very immature and adolescent especially in world affairs, etc. Since we have a number of friends in the "adolescent" stage we are just as amazed at the mature insight they have on practically all subjects.

Coach Bill Herrington's class of Juniors wrote speeches recently on "Democracy", and he gave us three of the ones he thought the most outstanding to run in the Herald. They are good and since we will be out of commission awhile we have decided to let the three youngsters use this column to explain their views.

They are good and no doubt we who are moms and dads can learn something from the "kids!"

DON'T FORGET — Santa is just around the corner and we will need our "Letters to Santa" pretty quick. Deadline will have to be Thursday, December 9, in order to get in our Christmas edition.

Although we will be unable to print our paper here this year —with your help it could and should be the best ever. Please help us make this so.

Another businessman, Doyle Graham, splintered his right foot last week and he had surgery on it Sunday. They, too, ask for your cooperation until the Graham Electric is back on its feet again.

Unfortunately we couldn't wait til after Christmas to have our work stoppages, cause then we never have much to do anyway.

LAST REMINDER—Although it will be impossible for us to do some phases of job work for a while, please don't pass us by for we have made arrangements with area printers to handle it for us, and not only will it be as cheap as ever, pricewise, we will keep you at home and we will both be happy, it says here!

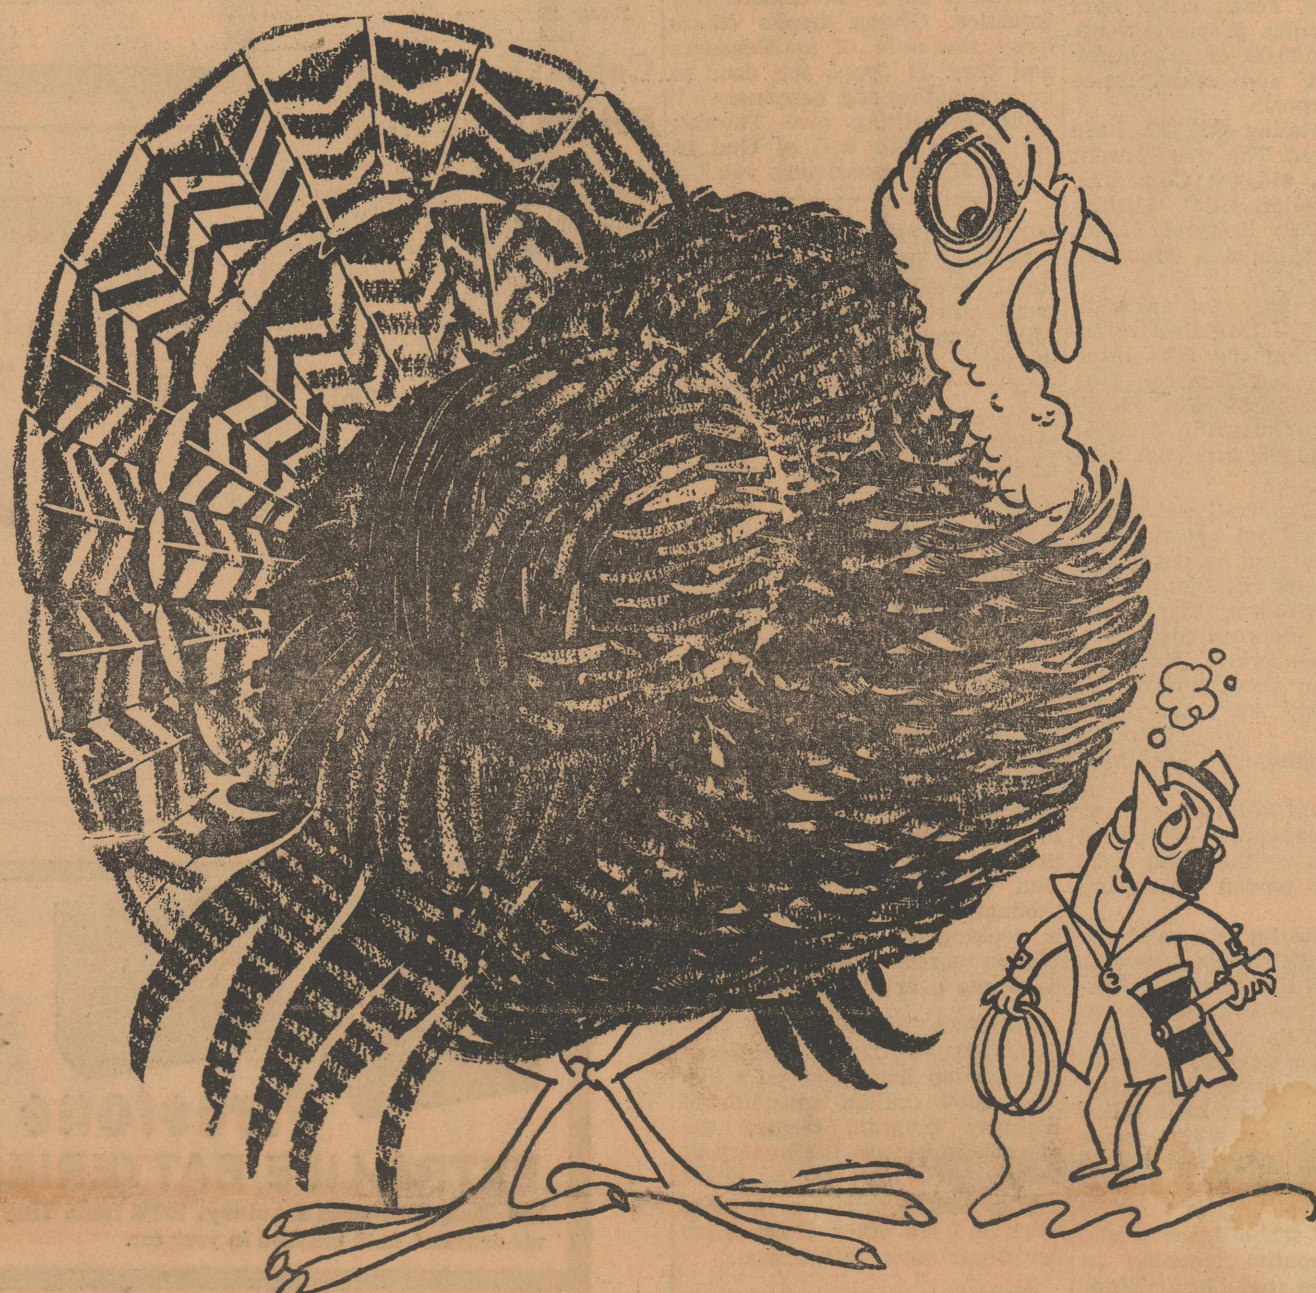

As you know, publishing the paper is only half of our business, so don't pass us by.

Next week time runs out on Tuesday for we have to have everything in and completed by Tuesday night so we can keep our date with St. Joseph's Hospital.

Sorry to bother you with this personal stuff again, but we do appreciate your cooperation and want you to understand why it is required. Hope this is the last time we inconvenience our readers.

DAUGHTER-IN-LAW ILL. Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Green were in Lubbock last Wednesday and Thursday at the bedside of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Otice Green who underwent emergency surgery Wednesday morning. She was recovering nicely when they left.

Wishing You A Safe And Happy ...

STUDENTS MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR SAFER AND BETTER DRIVING METHODS, TECHNIQUES

By NORMAN ARNETT

(This is the second in a series of discussions in Norman Arnett's Freshman English Class.)

"What kind of traffic violations have you noticed in Knox City lately?" I asked. The answers were many.

If there are as many kinds of traffic violations as the Freshmen mentioned—and I'm sure there are—then we are lucky that there aren't more accidents.

Running stop signs and red lights were mentioned. Speeding and dragging, improper "U" turns, and improper parking came under fire. Altogether, about fifteen different kinds of violations were brought up.

Apparently these infractions were not isolated cases, for they were mentioned again and again.

The next question was, "How do improper driving habits affect us?"

The answer, as given by the students — poor driving, on the part of anybody, endangers us all. And it does raise insurance rates.

Community Plans Thanksgiving Service at Church

The Community Thanksgiving service will be held Wednesday Nov. 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the First Methodist Church.

Rev. David Downing, minister of the First Christian Church, local ministers participating in will deliver the message. Other the service will be Rev. Floyd Bailey, Rev. Lee Roy Baker and Rev. Johnny Smith.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

ance rates. This is something we all notice these days.

"Who drives recklessly?" "Do we always assume that it's the other driver?"

"After a lengthy discussion with one of the Junior English Classes about the driving habits of our citizens, it became apparent that teenagers feel that everybody — not just teenagers—drives carelessly at times. Factual news and statistics prove them to be right.

"What can be done?" I asked. Next. These opinions from the Juniors—

"People are going to drive dangerously regardless of what is said or done." "You can't change people's driving habits," and "they're like the baby who has to touch the hot stove before he learns to leave it alone."

Others were not so pessimistic. Something could be done, they felt, and the need was great.

Teenagers as well as adults need constant reminding. Some were in favor of more law enforcement. Others felt that there were so many violations that something else was needed — an awareness not only of the dangers but also the need for more considerate, courteous, and thoughtful driving.

Frankly, the thoughtful ones were a little puzzled. They knew something needed to be done. But where does one start?

Who takes the initiative? We all agreed that safe driving starts with each individual driver. But how do you get every driver to think of the other fellow while driving?

No one knew for sure. Do you?

News Of Truett Hester Is Received

Word was received by the Herald this week that Truett Hester, who is in Baylor Hospital in Dallas, may be allowed to get up and sit in a chair by the end of the week.

They do not know as yet when surgery can be done. The coronary artery that needs repairing is 80 to 90 per cent closed and the other one is 50 per cent closed.

However, they have high hopes of being able to help him.

For those of you who might have missed his address in last week's Herald, it is Room 322, Baylor Hospital, Dallas, Texas.

KNOX COUNTY GETS $82,000 FOR HIGHWAY RESURFACING

The State Highway Commission on Nov. 16, 1965, approved the expenditure of $82,000 for the reconstruction and resurfacing of F. M. 267, from U. S. Highway 82 north 6.1 miles, in Knox County, as part of the 1967-68 Consolidated Highway Program announced District Engineer V. J. McGee of Childress.

This work will be under the supervision of George R. Wall Sr., Resident Engineer, of Munday.

Work authorized for this county is part of a two-year $350 million Consolidated Highway Program, described as one of the most important in the history of the Texas Department.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said the 1967-1968 program includes work on 9,469 miles of roads under the Department's jurisdiction and called it one of the "most meritorious programs ever formed by the Department."

He stressed the program's many safety features, the protection of investment previously made from highway used tax funds and the immediate benefits that will add to the safe and efficient movement of traffic over the Texas highway system.

The Commission approved projects to cost $337.9 million, with $12.7 million being held in reserve for future assignment. The ultimate program will approximate $350.6 million.

The program includes 1,809 miles of construction and reconstruction on highways that carry U. S.-and State-numbered highways at an estimated cost of $19.3 million.

Betterment work for the improvement of travel conditions and protection of investment on 3,143 miles of U. S.-and State-numbered highways is included in the program at an estimated cost of $24.1 million.

Also covered is betterment work on 3,930 miles of existing Farm and Ranch to Market Roads at an estimated cost of $31.6 million.

Considering all features and types of roads covered in the program, some 1,900 miles which will cost an estimated $174.7 million to complete, fall in the category of highway safety.

The safety work included in the program represents about 52 per cent of the total monies involved.

This covers widening of existing lanes, construction of additional lanes, upaving of shoulders, widening of structures, and grade separations, barrier fences and guard fences.

The safety projects included in the program take on added significance considering a recent report showing a decrease in traffic accidents and deaths on U. S. and State-numbered and Interstate highways.

Make A Tape For Boys Overseas!

The Knox County Chapter of the American Red Cross has made arrangements for anyone to send a tape recording to any overseas serviceman at no charge.

Mr. Jesse Smith, Knox Co. Red Cross Chairman, announced that a tape recorder would be available in Knox City at Hoge Pharmacy and in Munday at Eiland's Drug for the free use of anyone wishing to send a personal Christmas greeting to servicemen overseas.

Of course, anyone wishing to send a tape must have the complete military address of the serviceman. Due to the short time left before the Christmas holidays, Mr. Smith urged local citizens to prepare and mail the tape recordings promptly. The only cost the individual will be required to pay is the actual mailing expense (less than 25 cents in most cases.)

Tapes can be prepared by a group such as a class in school or Sunday School classes.

VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT NEEDS TOYS

The Knox City Volunteer Fire Department is making another plea for any toys that may be used for our needy families at Christmas. Toys may be new or used, just so they are repairable. If you have any to donate for this good cause, please leave them at the city hall, Wm. Cameron Lumber Co., or Holcomb's Garage.

There has been an increase in the number of 'Salt Water Cars' making their way inland into our immediate area from the coasts of Texas and Louisiana.

These are cars, some new, some used, that were soaked by Hurricane Betsy. These cars have been reconditioned by experts, and they appear to be in perfect condition. However, they will completely deteriorate in a short period of time . . .

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Texas' first major state government program for widespread coordination of public service activities is being activated.

Gov. John Connally soon will reveal his initial plans of the project that will "range across the entire spectrum" of governmental services.

PACT, the Planning Agency Council for Texas, was authorized by the 1965 Legislature — primarily to implement the statewide water program. However, Connally wants to broaden its scope into many areas.

Legislation authorizing a central state planning agency, cited the need to coordinate state efforts in the fields of water supply, recreation, transportation, highways and other programs financed with federal, state and local funds.

Eight major agencies — health highway, parks and wildlife departments, industrial commission soil conservation board, Texas employment commission, railroad commission and water development board — were designated by the Legislature as members of the initial PACT.

Connally's office was named administrative head of the planning agency and placed in charge of coordinating its activities. Growth of government and a steadily increasing number of federal programs requiring attention at state and local levels call for a "monumental endeavor" by public officials, Connally noted.

PRESS CONFERENCE — At a recent press conference Gov. Connally said:

● He may ask the 1967 Legislature to again submit to the voters a proposed constitutional amendment calling for four-year terms for certain elected officers but this time not at a special election.

● He would call an early special session of the Legislature if federal court orders require legal action in congressional and legislative reapportionment cases and the suit to repeal poll tax.

He felt called on to make a statewide pitch for Texas as the site of the $340 million atom smasher, because of the competition among Austin, Dallas-Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston, Amarillo, Lubbock and Odessa for the key scientific facility. He assured site-seekers from the Atomic Energy Commission that all of the state's resources would be available to support whichever Texas site might be chosen.

MORE ON REDISTRICTING — Next year Texans may be able to elect House members under the new redistricting law.

Attorney Gen. Waggoner Carr will urge a federal court at Houston to let voters elect the members, even though the court may believe flatorial districts are not constitutional.

This year's redistricting law includes 11 flatorial districts resulting in a situation where small counties share representatives with large counties.

Judges believe this discriminates against sparsely-populated counties.

Court could declare the entire law unconstitutional and a special session of the Legislature would be needed to pass a new law.

Except for the flatorial districts, Court indicates new law is constitutional.

AIRPORT AID — Texas Aeronautics Commission is urging cities on the lookout for airport equipment to let them do the looking as part of the government surplus property program that began 14 months ago.

Presently the Aeronautics Commission locates the surplus at military air bases and effects the transfer. Then the equipment is given to needy cities and towns free.

So far 41 Texas cities have received surplus property worth more than $120,000 for use in the development and maintenance of local airports.

Grants totaling $64,500 have been approved. This money went to Caldwell, $10,000; Comanche $12,000; Hallettsville $10,000; Hearne, $2,000; Kountze $7,500; Lampasas $8,000; and Pineland, $15,000.

Six others may get an additional $68,000 if they finalize acceptance during the next three months. They are Cameron $10,000; Clarksville $12,000; Floydada $12,000; Gatesville $12,000; Jacksboro $10,000; and Post, $12,000.

AG RULES — Trial and state's attorney fees in Justice of Peace courts are abolished by the new code of criminal procedure, but an offender may be assessed other incurred costs, says Attorney General Waggoner Carr. Opinion was requested by Goliad County Atty. Wayne B. Davis.

In other opinions, Carr held that:

● Law enforcement officers may seize unstamped cigarettes when they have the legal right to arrest a person possessing them.

● Cigarette tax is a valid use levy, and distributing agents must pay and fix stamps to packages before they leave warehouses except on those to be delivered to certain persons designated to sell unstamped cigarettes.

● Person cannot hold office of constable at same time he is deputy tax collector and truant officer of independent school district.

OIL ALLOWABLE HIKED — Texas oil production may hit a six-year high in 1965. This thanks to a jump in December allowable to 31.4 per cent of potential.

December production maximum is 3,084, 545 barrels daily. Railroad Commission increased the percentage factor from 30 percent of November. Firm markets and low inventories are given as the reasons for the increase.

COURTS SPEAK — Billie Sol Estes' swindling case landed back in the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals after the U.S. Supreme Court reversed the conviction. Court here is expected to send it to Tyler for retrial, without television coverage.

In a case involving student demonstrations against war in Vietnam, the Court of Criminal Appeals refused to say whether a district civil court can prevent

THE FAMILY LAWYER

TAILS HE'S GUILTY!
The hour was late and the jurors were weary of trying to decide whether the defendant had really committed the crime. Finally one exasperated juror proposed that they toss a coin.
"Tails he's guilty, heads he's innocent!"
Everyone agreed to abide by the toss. And, in obedience to the tails that turned up, they brought in a verdict of guilty. But when the facts came to the attention of the court, the verdict was set aside.
For the law does not recognize coin-tossing as a legitimate method of doing the job of a jury. Nor does it recognize cutting cards or drawing lots, which jurors have also been known to try. As one court put it:
"Nothing short of a free and deliberate finding, made upon a conscientious conviction of the judgments of all the jurors, will satisfy the law."
Another shortcut, sometimes resorted to by a jury in fixing the amount of damages, is known as the "quotient verdict." In this method each juror writes down how many dollars he recommends. Then the figures are added up and divided by 12 to get the final amount.
It is true that the quotient verdict is not as haphazard as the coin verdict. It is also true that such calculations could be a helpful step in the process of deliberating.
Nevertheless, courts generally frown on quotient verdicts. The

Mrs. Branton Is Honored With Party

Mrs. R. G. Vaughan and Mrs. Mabel Pyeatt were hostesses for a party Saturday night in the home of Mrs. Vaughan honoring Mrs. E. F. Branton, who is moving to Fort Worth.
Attending were Mrs. E. Q. Warren, Mrs. Philip Colehour, Mrs. Ulric Lea, Mrs. A. V. Kemletz, Mrs. Erwin King, Mrs. O'Neal Weaver, Mrs. Hazel Long, Mrs. Halbert, Miss Martha Neumann, Mrs. Fuller Shannon, Mrs. Jim Ross, Mrs. Curtis Casey, and Mrs. Kenneth Lankford.
The refreshment table was beautifully decorated with pink linen. Silver pheasants and candleabra were used as a centerpiece with pink tapers and glittered pink grapes. Sandwiches, cookies, pink punch, and coffee were served, and Mrs. Pyeatt and Mrs. Kemletz provided musical numbers at the piano. The honoree was presented a lovely bowl of antique cutglass.

main objectionable feature is the agreement, in advance, to be found by a mathematical result—no matter how high or how low. The juror who does that abdicates his responsibility, disdains his oath and cheats the opposing party of the "day in court" they are entitled to here.

Quite properly, jurors are reluctant to wind up deadlocked. (One jury, rather than admit defeat, brought in a verdict of "almost guilty".)

And quite properly jurors want to speed the wheels of justice.

But speed is not all important. Of what value is a quick verdict that makes a mockery of trial by jury? Better slow justice than no justice.

COLD WEATHER DRIVING EXPERT PREPARES FOR WINTER.

Why more motorists switch to the Tiger when it gets cold.

Many cars that ran just fine all summer get into trouble when ear-muff time rolls around—stalling at stoplights and coughing and chugging halfway into town.

That's when a lot of people switch to the Tiger. Winter-formula Enco Extra gasoline is blended to match the weather conditions in your area—including a special additive to help guard against icing. Result: easier starting, faster warm-up and a lot less worry about stalling.

You'll like the way new Enco Extra behaves on the open road, too. It's the High-energy gasoline with the: (1) cleaning power; (2) firing power; (3) octane power to help preserve the performance of new cars and restore lost power and mileage to many older cars.

Switch to the Tiger and get that nice warm feeling. Happy Motoring!

JOE W. DOBY
COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT

During the summer of 1965 four insect survey teams consisting of two men each, worked in the Rolling Plains area.

Funds for three of these teams were furnished by the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., and funds for one team were furnished by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The entomologists of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, supervised these teams and issued a weekly report on the cotton insect situation.

The objectives of this survey were rather general. They inport cards Wednesday. Also at 2:30 Wednesday, school will turn out for the Thanksgiving holidays to return Monday.

A member of the Senior Class, Delia Espinoza, came back from California. She is living at Knox City with her grandparents to finish school at O'Brien. The Junior and Senior Division of the F. F. A. boys went to Olney Saturday to give a demonstration on soldering. The Junior boys, Johnny Lewis, Butch Stephens, and Lanny Covey won first for the District, and the Senior Division David Ellis, Mike Hewitt, and Terry Hester won fourth. From there they will go to Stephenville.

involved obtaining such information as distribution of various insects, first appearance and build-ups, hot-spot areas and seasonal populations.

Each team covered a seven or eight county area with a total of 31 counties surveyed. The teams inspected a minimum of four fields per county at weekly intervals.

These fields were selected with the aid of county agricultural agents on the basis of past history and heavy insect populations. These fields were inspected for all insects and not limited strictly to boll weevils. Inspections began the first week of June and continued through August.

This year's survey showed that early season pests such as thrips, aphids, spider mites, cutworms, garden webworms and yellow-striped armyworms were rather widespread over the area. Almost every county reported these pests but the degree of infestation varied considerably. Grasshoppers were present early and caused considerable damage in some areas, particularly in Shackelford, Throckmorton and Foard counties. Fleahopper counts began to increase during the week of June 29th over the area as a whole. Activity continued over a rather widespread area; however, populations were generally light to moderate with counts varying considerably.

Bollworms were generally light; however, several areas reported heavy locally damaging infestations particularly in irrigated cotton. Irrigated cotton in Cottle, Hardeman, Baylor, Knox and Haskell counties received the heaviest damage.

Boll Weevils were first observed during the week of June 14 from early cotton in Knox County. By the week of June 21st, overwintered weevils were reported from 15 to 31 counties. Boll weevils were heavier in the northern and southern portions of the area, but there were heavy local populations in other areas.

The fields in Knox County that were surveyed by one of the two man teams were located on the farms of Carl Chafin, Knox City; Edward Smith, Munday; Bill Rutledge, just north of the Brazos near Hefner and Louis Baty, Gilliland.

As most farmers know, boll weevils emerged from hibernation in the largest numbers ever noted in the history of Knox County. Louis Baty did a good job in reducing the population to practically nothing.

Then the dry weather came and he quit poisoning. The survey team shows the result in their weekly count. The buildup continued through the dry hot weather until it reached an average of 3696 actual weevils per acre in mid-August.

Boll weevils were the worst in September that they have probably ever been, all over the county. This will mean that a large population will go into hibernation again this year.

Fleahoppers were present in small numbers when the survey began the first week in June. They were a continuous problem through the week of July 23 as reflected in the records.

Bollworms were never found in the cotton of Louis Baty during the survey. Some eggs were noted but never gave any trouble. The other fields surveyed were an entirely different matter, however. The battle was joined in mid-July and never let up until September.

The work of the insect survey teams has been of value to the control of cotton insects in that information about numbers buildups and distribution has been obtained. The more we can learn about our enemies the better chance we have in fighting them.

We here at the Herald want to express to each of our readers a HAPPY THANKSGIVING!
