HOBGOBLIN HOUSE--The junior class presented a three-act comedy here Thursday night to a large audience. Here is a scene from the play in which one of the characters is scared by some hobgoblins.

New Postal Law Protects Patrons From 'Smut' Mail

Mail patrons offended by pandering advertisements can now take steps to curb such mail, Postmaster Jewel Brooks said today in announcing plans for administering a new law which gives each family the right to decide that an ad is "erotically arousing or sexually provocative."

When an advertisement sent through the mails is offensive on these grounds, a postal patron can now ask the post office to direct the mailer to send no more mail to him and to remove immediately the patron's name from all mailing lists he owns, controls or rents.

To assist patrons, the Post Office Department has published a brief pamphlet --- HOW YOU CAN CURB PANDERING ADVERTISEMENTS--- which is now available at the Hart post office. In addition to explaining how the law works, the pocket-size leaflet contains a form letter one can use when sending his complaint to the post office.

The pamphlet explains that when a patron receives an ad-

David Nelson Earns Plaque

David Nelson has been awarded a plaque in recognition of his participation in the 1967 DeKalb Sorghum Masters Club.

Nelson was among 238 sorghum growers from throughout the sorghum belt who participated in the program.

A yield of 8733.98 pounds per acre with DeKalb Brand F-65 earned him the honor.

vertisement which is, in his opinion, pandering, he must send the ad, its envelope and the form letter, or one which includes its language, to his post office with the words, "Request for prohibitory order" on the face of the envelope.

Postmaster Brooks said: "This new law should give some protection to American families offended by advertisements they believe to be morally harmful, particularly to their children.

"Last year the Post Office Department received some 140,000 complaints from those offended by pandering advertisements. While in most cases the ads were not legally obscene and were therefore mailable, they are often offensive and are usually not the type of material one would want his children to read," the postmaster said.

She added that "because the law gives a mail patron the sole right to decide what is offensive, and does not deny others the right to receive the same mail, the Congress felt it does not violate Constitutional guarantees of freedom of speech."

While the patron's complaint will only be directed to the sender, Postmaster Brooks believes that one or two complaints will provide substantial protection because "the great bulk of this advertising comes from fewer than 20 so-called 'smut dealers' who are frequently swapping mailing lists."

If a mailer does not strike a complainant's name from his mailing list, and the patron receives a second mailing 30 days after the firm has received the prohibitory order, he may bring the matter to the attention of the postmaster issuing the initial order by writing him and enclosing the second pandering ad with its envelope. If the mailer still fails to respect the order, the Postmaster General may ask the Attorney General to apply for a Federal Court order directing compliance. Failure to observe the order may be punishable by a fine or imprisonment.

Four Accidents Reported On Rural Castro Highways

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Castro county during the month of March, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in an estimated property damage of $3,550.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first three months of 1968 shows a total of 16 accidents resulting in no persons killed, three persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $11,190.00.

The final entry in the 1967 Texas traffic records has been entered and closed. There were 3,367 persons killed, 205,308 persons injured and an estimated property loss of $793,094,000.00. This compares to the 1966 record of 3,406 persons killed, 208,310 persons injured, and an estimated property dam-

City Approves New Ordinance

The City Commission met in regular session, Tuesday, April 9th.

Jimmy Ross, Castro County attorney representing the school, and Russell Moran, city attorney met with the Commission.

Approval was given for the closing and abandoning of alley ways in blocks 151, 152, 157, 158 and 159. These are the property of the Hart Indepen-

Quit-claim deeds have been issued to the school for the property. Maintenance will be the responsibility of the school.

The Commission adopted ordinance No. 33, regulating traffic in the City of Hart during a fire.

Ordinance No. 33 prohibits the following of any fire apparatus traveling in response to a fire alarm closer than 500 feet.

Nor may a driver of a vehicle drive into or park such vehicle within the block where the fire apparatus has stopped to answer a fire alarm.

The ordinance also prohibits the driver of a vehicle from driving over an unprotected hose of a fire department when laid down on any street, private driveway or other place to be used at any fire or alarm of fire.

In addition, fire engines, fire apparatus and volunteer firemen shall have the right of way, with due regard to the safety of the public.

Any person violating any provision of the ordinance shall be subject to a fine.

In further action, the commission approved an ordinance renewing Pioneer Natural Gas Company's franchise in the city of Hart.

Proposed paving of 4th street was not acted upon by the commission.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them! with BANVEL®

HERBICIDE

Velsicol announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessweed (pigweed), sunflower, lambs-quarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray—all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots... for new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil moisture for its effectiveness, so its results are dependable. And it's a liquid that won't clog your sprayers; nor does Banvel need constant agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's excellent for use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley, oats and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide to get full potential from your valuable, high-yielding sorghum seed. See your dealer today. You'll be glad you did!

National Library Week

Friends are people, who are interested in promoting library progress.

Friends can:

Develop public understanding of today's library and the vital role it plays in today's living.

Provide channels for citizen opinion and support of the library.

Work for updating of library laws and expanded library legislation.

Campaign for cooperative agreements to establish systems of libraries by which the local public library would benefit through loans from Major Resource Centers.

Help acquire important materials beyond the confines of the operating budget.

Stimulate public interest through bequest, endowments, memorials and other gifts.

Play a leadership role in National Library Week (April 21-27).

Aid development of fine and rare book collections, also special book collections.

Encourage young people toward librarianship as a career through scholarship aid, training and recruitment programs.

Friends are civic minded men and women - the businessman, farmer, educator, scientist, student, minister, mechanic - who know that any community is a better place to live if that community has a good library. These Friends organize into a group or groups to bring together fellow citizens who are willing to work for excellent libraries and who will speak up for library service whenever and wherever their efforts are needed. They regard the library as a vital information agency, a cultural center and a major educational institution. They know that a library developed according to professional standards touches the lives of pre-schoolers to the senior citizens, the learning-to-read adult to the specialist in technical research.

Above all, Friends stand ready to volunteer their talents, funds and influence, when needed, in order to promote, improve and to expand library services.

Would you, Mr., Mrs., or Miss Citizen of Castro County, consider becoming a member of a "Friends of the Library" organization?

Your Public Library Needs Friends!

Enrollment Date Set For School Of Nursing

The enrollment date for students at Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing will be June 3, 1968. Students who have completed the prerequisite two semesters of college are eligible for enrollment. Applications should be made to the Director of the School of Nursing.

Recent announcement by officials of Northwest concerning change in the program has resulted in an increase of applicants wishing to enter school. One of the major changes is that the school is now on an academic-year basis and the other is that Chemistry will not be a prerequisite course at Northwest after this year.

Over one hundred applications are on file for the June class. These applicants are from some 40 cities in five states, including Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Missouri and California. Several of these applicants are men. The opportunities for men in nursing far surpass those offered in many other fields.

Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing is fully accredited by the National League for Nursing and the Texas Board of Nurse Examiners. Repeatedly, graduates from Northwest have ranked among the top in the State on licensing examinations. Greatly expanded facilities have enabled the enrollment to more than triple in the past five years. Salaries for nurses have more than doubled in the last 10 years with starting salaries of from $550 to $600 a month.

SHORT SNORTS-- J. Overby Smith has resigned as chairman of the State Industrial Accident Board, effective May 4, to become hearing examiner for the Social Security Administration in Dallas.

BACK FROM IRAN--Michelle and Roger Moore, children of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Moore, pose in front of their grandparent's home in Hart after returning from two years stay in Iran.

Hart Couple Tells Of Stay In Iran

Specialist 5 Steven Moore, his wife, Betty, and their two children, Roger, 6, and Michelle, 4, visited last week in the home of Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stone.

They also visited with her brother, Earl Stone, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Covington and Brenda.

The Moores recently returned from a two-year tour of duty in Iran. An airplane mechanic, Moore and his family lived in Tehran, the capital, in one of the plaster, mud and straw dwellings, similar to adobe, that are common to that country.

Their two-story, nine-room house had concrete floors and a marble stairway. Marble is much less expensive in Iran and is widely-used.

Most of the houses have tall brick fences completely surrounding them to keep out thieves.

Roger and Michelle were kept inside the enclosure because of the Iranians' reckless driving. According to Moore, there are about 250,000 cars in Tehran but their owners have had cars for only 10 or 15 years and are not really used to them.

Moore had to drive 15 miles to work. The drive was often interrupted by herds of sheep or goats or camel trains crossing the road.

The Iranian people have little obedience for traffic laws and often prefer to go to jail rather than pay a traffic ticket.

Tehran is approximately 200 miles from the Russian border. There are very few trees and little vegetation.

While it gets very cold in the winter and, at times, the snow gets quite deep, it gets very hot in the summer. The highest temperature while the Moores were living there was 135 degrees.

Dysentery is very prevalent and fruits and vegetables must be soaked in a chlorine bleach solution.

Water plumbed to many of the houses is unfit for drinking. Moore brought water from the Embassy for the family's drinking, cooking and bathing.

Six-year old Roger's reply to the type of clothes worn by Iranian children is "dirty". The poor people wash their clothes in the "jube" or gutter.

Although many of the women are westernized in their dress, about half of the women wear a "chadora" when they are out in public. The robe-like garment covers them entirely except for their eyes.

Labor is very cheap. A rug weaver gets the equivalent to 26 cents per day.

Rice and mutton are mainstays in the Iranian diet. Many Iranian foods feature grass.

Two of the native dishes that Moore said he liked is "chelokabob", which consists of kabobsheep served on rice with natural gravy and "abgoosh", a spicy stew on rice with grass.

Language did not prove to be much of a handicap. The Moores found that with a few words and signs they could be understood. Many of the people speak English.

The Moores attended the coronation of the Shan an Shah (king of kings) and his wife, Empress Farah last October. Betty has a silver coronation coin necklace commemorating the occasion.

Among the keepsakes or souvenirs of their life in Iran, the Moores have seven large and two small wooden camel saddles which may be used for seats or stools.

They also bought brass articles such as bowls, plaques, candlesticks and trays and colorful tapestries.

The Moores enjoyed their stay in Iran but are very happy to be back in the States. Moore will be stationed at Fort Sam Houston.

Dick Brown Serves In U.S. Naval Reserves

J. R. "Dick" Brown, candidate for United States Representative, 18th Congressional District, Texas, returned this past weekend from two weeks' active duty for training aboard the U.S.S. Haleakala in the San Francisco Bay area.

During Brown's tour of duty, the U.S.S. Haleakala (AE25) was undergoing pre-deployment inspection and exercises prior to reassignment to Vietnam. When Brown departed the ship, she was loading ammunition at Port Chicago, preparatory to leaving for Vietnam.

Brown is a Lieutenant in the U. S. Naval Reserve, attached to the Reserve center in Amarillo. He particularly noted the high morale and spirit of the officers and men, in regard to the Vietnam situation. He said that the results of high caliber training was evidenced by the efficiency, readiness and willing attitude of the officers and men of the ship. Brown added that there was general disgust with the "peacenik" demonstrators who paraded within view of the ship while it was docked.

KITCHEN KORNER

By Lela Gallion

So many have asked what I do all week that I say I don't get my painting done so thought I'd tell you my past week's activities.

Monday I worked at office all day, went to the school board meeting until 10:45.

Tuesday I worked at the office all day.

Wednesday morning I straightened the house, washed and ironed.

Wednesday afternoon I went and took pictures for the paper.

Thursday I worked at the office.

Friday I worked at the office and in the evening went to the Junior Play and took pictures.

Saturday I cleaned house and washed.

Sunday I collapsed.

I always go to the postoffice check all the paper mail and check it over every day.

So maybe this will explain why I'm hard to catch at home or in one place.

Hope you all had a nice Easter Sunday. I'm sure there are lots who did as there are so many out of town.

Here is an excellent way to use any left over ham from your Easter dinner.

HAM CROQUETTES

2 T. margarine
3 T. corn starch
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 c. milk
2 c. ground, cooked ham
1 1/2 T. chopped parsley
1 tsp. lemon juice
1/2 tsp. grated onion
1 egg
1 T. water
1 c. fine dry bread crumbs
Corn oil, for frying (about 1 qt.)
Mozzarella cheese strips (optional)

Funk's-G Buy 3 Get 1 FREE on 755, 788A, 92F and 115F.

HI PLAINS SEED, OLTON GRAIN COOP and TULOMA GAS PRODUCTS.

Melt margarine in saucepan. Blend in corn starch and pepper. Remove from heat. Gradually add milk, mixing until smooth. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens, comes to boil and boils 1 minute. Remove from heat. Mix in ham, parsley, lemon juice and onion. Chill. Shape mixture into 6 balls. Beat egg and water. Roll croquettes in bread crumbs, coat with egg mixture, then roll in bread crumbs.

Meanwhile, pour corn oil into sturdy, deep fryer or skillet filling utensil 1/3 full. Heat over medium heat to 375 degrees F. or until 1-inch cube of bread turns brown in 40 seconds or use electric frypan following manufacturer's directions. Fry croquettes in hot oil until golden brown, about 4 minutes. Drain on absorbent paper. If desired, top fried croquettes with strips of Mozzarella cheese and boil until cheese is melted. Makes 6 servings.

These Chiffon Cakes are a good summer cake as they are not a very heavy dessert which we try to avoid in warm weather.

MARBLE CHIFFON CAKE

1/4 c. boiling water
sugar
2 env. no-melt chocolate
2 1/4 c. sifted cake flour
2 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
1/2 c. vegetable oil
7 eggs, separated
3/4 c. cold water
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 tsp. cream of tartar
FLUFFY CHOCOLATE BUTTER FROSTING

2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted, cooled.

Blend boiling water, 2 tablespoons sugar and no-melt chocolate. Set aside. Sift flour, 1 1/2 cups sugar, the baking powder and salt. Make a well in center of dry ingredients and add oil, then egg yolks, cold water and vanilla. Beat until well blended and smooth. In large bowl, beat egg whites with cream of tartar until very stiff peaks form. Pour egg-yolk mixture in thin stream over entire surface of egg whites, gently folding to blend. Remove one third of batter to separate bowl and gently fold in reserved chocolate mixture.

Spoon half of light batter into ungreased 10" tube pan. Top with half the chocolate batter. Repeat layers with remaining batters. With narrow spatula, swirl gently through batters to form a marbled pattern. Bake in slow oven (325 deg. F.) 55 minutes. Raise temperature to 350 deg. F. and bake 10 minutes, or until done. Invert cake in pan on rack until cold. Remove from pan and spread top and sided with frosting. Dribble chocolate over top. NOTE Two kinds of chocolate are necessary in this recipe. However, melted chocolate on top of cake can be omitted.

FLUFFY CHOCOLATE BUTTER FROSTING

6 T. butter, softened
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla
1 lb. confectioners' sugar
2 egg whites
3 env. no-melt unsweetened chocolate or 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted, cooled
2 to 3 T. milk.

Cream butter, salt and vanilla. Add sugar alternately with egg whites, beating well after each addition. Add chocolate and enough milk to make frosting of spreading consistency.

COLLECTION OF BOTTLES is displayed here by Mr. and Mrs. Joe West, who recently returned from Australia. The Wests found many valuable items in the country "down under."

Adventures In Australia Yield Treasures For Couple

Digging for sapphires, hunting wild boar or turkey for their next meal or searching for treasure -- a rather unusual agenda for a Muleshoe farmer and his wife but part of the adventures of Joe and Fern West for the past year.

West has been on a year's leave from farm duty because of an automobile accident. The couple decided that the enforced vacation would be an excellent time to travel. They leased their farm and spent a year touring Australia.

The Wests arrived back in Los Angeles March 11. They are spending a few weeks with Mrs. West's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Landers.

"We went over to see what all this talk was about farming and ranching in Australia. There are a lot of American farmers there now, you know," West said.

It did not take long for the Muleshoe farmer to realize that they weren't interested in the type of farming there but they were interested in "prospecting" that the country offered -- gems, tin and bottles.

The Wests joined a couple from Tasmania and began their adventures as "sapphire prospectors."

They spent 15 days at the sapphire fields, digging up many precious and semi-precious stones. Among their finds are 18 good sapphires, including a star sapphire, and beautiful opals.

From the sapphire fields, the Wests traveled to tin country, where they spent five months. Tin country is along the Star River, in Queensland.

The couple made permanent camp along the Star River. They cooked over a campfire for almost two months until they got a wood stove. Later they were given a kerosene refrigerator -- a genuine luxury.

Mrs. West's birthday was also the occasion of her first fish catch -- an eight pound bream. The couple did most of their hunting and fishing as their larder grew empty -- usually on a day-to-day basis because of refrigeration.

They found some veins of tin along the Star River but the cost of mining was prohibitive. They did bring five pounds home. Scattered through the black sand-like substance are tiny rubies.

After five months in tin country, the Wests set out on their search for bottles. The search took them through camp sites, mining camps, ghost towns over old wagon trails and roads of their own making.

Their bottles -- 143 cartons of them -- are probably their most valuable treasure. They include:

* Turned bottles. These were all made before 1930, when glassmakers were still using manganese. Once clear glass, exposure to the hot Australian sun has turned them a violet shade.

* Decorative bottles that once contained vinegar, hot sauce, Schwepps bitters, or tomato sauce.

* Tavern bottles of clay and crockery.

* Porcelain bottles that once held Holloway's Ointment "for the cure of gout and rheumatism, inveterate ulcers, sore breasts, sore heads and sore legs -- manufactured only by the Proprietor, 533 Oxford St., London."

* A unique ginger ale bottle made with a pointed base so the user would have to lay it on its side to keep the cork wet.

* Bottles of all sizes and shapes for ink, chutney, pepper sauce, pop, vaseline, vinegar and aromatic schnapps.

"Australia would be pretty good," West said, "if it didn't get so hot and dry, and if there were a few billion less flies, and if they had some American food."

"The Australians are very friendly people," he added, "especially in the small towns in the outback. They don't have much, but anything they have they're glad to share with you. They're way behind us in farming and ranching, but they're coming up fast."

"700 acres of PIONEER® sorghum averaged 8,568 pounds for me."

Elvin Wilson, Friona, Texas

Many of last year's bumper yields came from small acreages. But Elvin Wilson had 735 acres—all Pioneer hybrid 820—that averaged 8,568 pounds per acre.

Good weather, good farming and good seed boosted Elvin's yields. He double rowed on a 40" bed, watered four times in addition to pre-watering, controlled weeds with Propazine, and put on 280 pounds of nitrogen.

Hybrid 820 makes the most of his good farming—shades the ground fast, produces big yields, stands right up to harvest. Isn't this the kind of sorghum you want, too? See me soon.

Moments Of Meditation

C. T. Cunningham, pastor of First Baptist Church

"GOD'S TILLED LAND"
1 Cor. 3:9 (Williams Translation)

The plowing and harrowing are painful processes. And surely the Divine Plowman is at work in the world as never before. He plows by His Spirit, by His Word, and by His providences. Though painful be the processes of cultivation, they are essential.

Could the earth speak, it would say, "I felt the hard plow today. I knew what was coming; when the plow-point first struck me I was full of pain and distress and I could cry out for very great agony for the point was sharp and driven through me with great energy; but now I think, this means the blade, the ear, the full corn in the ear, the golden harvest.

When the plow of God's providences first cuts up a man's life, what wonder if the man should exclaim a little; yes if he should give way to one hour of grief! But the man may come to himself, and say, "Plow on, Lord! I want my life to be plowed all over, that it may be sown all over, and that in every corner there may be the golden grain. Pity me that I exclaimed when I first felt the plowshare."

He does not use the plow and harrow without intention. Where God plows, He intends to sow. His plowing is a proof He is for and not against us.

"For behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown." (Ezekiel 36:9)

Let us never forget that the Husbandman is never so near the land as when He is plowing it, the very time when we are tempted to think He hath forsaken us. His plowing is a proof that He thinks you of value, and worth chastening; for He does not waste His plowing on the barren sand. He will not plow continually, but only for a time, and for a definite purpose. "Doth the plowman plow continually to sow? Doth he continually open and break the clods of His ground?" (Isaiah 28:24). We shall, through these painful processes and by His gentle showers of grace become His fruitful land. "The desolate land shall be tilled, and they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden." (Ezekiel 36:34)

Come Ill, come well, the cross, the crown,

The rainbow or the thunder-
I fling my soul and body down
For God to plow them under.

Frank Ford, Republican candidate for the Texas Legislature from the 72nd District, announced this week that he will hold a series of "Legislative Forums" throughout the district.

"These meetings, which will be scheduled between the June run-off primary and the general election in November," said Ford, "Will be for the purpose of asking the people how they feel about statewide issues such as water resources planning, educational needs, crime, and daylight savings time."

"It is my belief," he continued "That both our state and national government would be better if lawmakers would listen more to the vast majority of citizens of every race who go quietly about their work, pay their taxes, help their neighbors, and support their communities."

"At least one of these informal, discussion type meetings will be held in every community in the district", stated Ford, "And everyone will be invited to attend."

The 72nd State Representative District is composed of Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Lamb and Parmer Counties.

Pioneer Gas Co. Has Annual Meet In Amarillo

The stockholders of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, at the annual meeting held April 16 at the general offices in Amarillo, re-elected the eight present directors and added an additional director to the Board. Eight directors returned to the Board were A. F. Cox, George W. Dupree, J. Harvey Herd, M. E. Purnell, B. P. Smith, W. E. Walker, C. I. Wall and K. B. Watson. New director elected was Laurence R.
