Texas Rural Hero Entries Being Sought

Texas is looking for a rural hero!

This person will receive the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council's Rural Heroism Award during the Texas Safety Association meeting, March 31, in Houston. The award is presented annually to a deserving person, living in a rural community of 2,500 or less, who has risked personal life or injury in performing a heroic act.

While it specifically honors one individual for exceptional bravery at a time of crisis or disaster, the safety program points up this highly important objective: the continuing need for improved safety conditions in our rural areas -- at work, at home and at play.

The award may go to a person credited with pulling another from a flaming building, saving a drowning person or any other such feat of heroism. Anyone knowing of the performance of such an act during the past twelve months is urged to submit a nomination for this important award.

Nominations should include a narrative of the heroic incident, giving complete details. It should include the names of all persons involved, and should be accompanied by clippings and pictures if they are available. The award recipient will be chosen by a panel of judges, based on the material submitted by the nominee.

Deadline for entries is March 1. They should be mailed to: Rural Heroism Awards Committee, Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, P. O. Box 489, Waco, Texas 76703.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes Predicts Defeat Of Bill

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes predicted defeat of the proposed compulsory consolidation of school districts in Texas.

"The Governor's Committee on Public School Education has made many constructive recommendations, I feel that the Texas Senate will pass many of them," Barnes said in a statement released this week.

"However, I feel that the Texas Senate will not pass compulsory consolidation," the new lieutenant governor said.

Barnes added that the recommendation to consolidate school districts with less than 2,600 students will probably fall on deaf ears.

"The Texas Senate and this Legislature will probably write an attractive financial incentive program to encourage voluntary consolidation but will not adopt laws making consolidation compulsory in Texas this year," Barnes said.

Compulsory consolidation and other recommendations of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education are included in Senate Bill No. 2 which was introduced last week by Senator Oscar Mauzy of Dallas. The bill has been referred to the Senate Education Committee.

Moments Of Meditation

C. T. Cunningham, pastor of First Baptist Church

Some time ago I ran across this in a church bulletin. As far as I can find tut the author is unknown. Sometimes a poet can say something that has a deeper meaning and is the expression of our own heart. So I share this poem with you entitled "What Then?"

WHAT THEN
 "When the great, busy plants of our cities
 Shall have turned out their last finished work,
 When the merchants have sold their last order
 And dismissed every last clerk,
 When our banks have made their last dollar
 And paid out their last dividend,
 When the Judge of the earth wants a hearing,
 And ask for a balance - WHAT THEN?"

"When the choir has sung its last anthem,
 And the preacher has voiced his last prayer,
 And the people have heard their last sermon,
 And the sound has died out in the air,
 When the Bible lies closed on the altar,
 And the pews are all empty of men,
 When each one stand facing his record,
 And the great book is opened . . . WHAT THEN?"

"When the actors have played the last drama,
 And the mimic has played his last fun,
 The movie has flashed its last picture,
 And the billboard displayed its last run,
 When the crown seeking pleasure has vanished,
 And gone out in darkness again,
 When the trumpet of the ages has sounded,
 And we stand before Him . . .WHAT THEN?"

"When the bugle call sinks into silence,
 And the long columns stand still,
 When the captain repeats his last order;
 And they've captured the last fort and hill;
 When the flag has been hauled from the masthead,
 And all the wounded afield have checked in,
 And the world that rejected its Saviour,
 Is asked fo a reason . . . WHAT THEN?"

"And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." (Revelation 20:15)

KITCHEN KORNER

By Lela Gallion

Would you like to know when you really realize how old you are?

Well, take five grandchildren from eight years down to eight months and keep them over the weekend and I'll agree with a friend who said it seems as though you just don't have the things in your home arranged to suit them because they change everything around for you.

I sometimes forget how fast they travel but aren't they the most precious things we have. They can look at me out of those big eyes and smile and I just melt.

QUICK CHICKEN DINNER

1/4 c. fat
 6 chicken legs and thigh quarters
 1 16-oz. can whole potatoes
 1 16-oz. can English peas
 2 c. heavy cream
 1 3-oz. can whole mushrooms
 1/2 c. stuffed olives, sliced
 1/8 tsp. celery salt
 1/4 tsp. thyme
 Pepper to taste (opt.)

Melt fat in shallow baking dish in 400 degree oven. Dip chicken in seasoned flour. Place in single layer, skin-side down, in dish. Bake 30 minutes. Turn skin-side up; top with mixture of remaining ingredients. Cover; continue baking for 1 hour and 30 minutes.

PUMPKIN MUF FINS

1 1/2 c. flour
 2 tsp. baking powder
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1/2 c. plus 1 T. sugar
 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
 1/2 tsp. nutmeg

1/4 c. butter or margarine
 1 egg, beaten
 1/2 c. seedless raisins
 1/2 c. canned pumpkin
 1/2 c. milk

Sift dry ingredients together. Cut in butter; add raisins. Combine egg with pumpkin and milk; add to flour mixture. Mix only to combine. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full. Sprinkle 1/4 teaspoon of sugar over each muffin. Bake in 400 degree oven for 18 to 20 minutes. Serve hot. Yield: 12 muffins.
