Moguls fall to Cowboys, start District play Friday

The Munday Moguls fell to the undefeated Bryson Cowboys last Friday night 28 to 6. Despite the loss, Munday had several younger players get some good experience before district action starts.

Bryson took the opening kick-off at their own 36. The Mogul defense slowed the Cowboys but it wasn't enough. After a drive that took 5:20 off the clock, Bryson scored on a 15 yard pass. The extra point was good and Bryson was on top 7 to 0.

The remainder of the first quarter was scoreless with Munday being stopped on a fake punt and forcing the Cowboys to punt.

Late in the second Bryson returned a punt to the Mogul 27. Three plays later Donny Browning intercepted a Cowboy pass at the 9 yard line which seemed to stop the threat. On first down Munday fumbled the ball and Bryson recovered at the 13. The Cowboys then ran the ball in with 9 seconds left in the half. Bryson led 14 to 0 at the half.

Munday received the third quarter kick-off. Bryson quickly got the ball on a fumble at the Munday 36. Bryson turned another Mogul fumble into a touchdown with 10:17 left in the third.

The Cowboys found their last touchdown after a nine play drive with 3:46 left in the third increasing their lead 28 to 0.

The game seemed to be over but someone forgot to tell the Moguls.

Flu season is just weeks away

It comes every year, as dependable as the changing seasons. With the onset of winter, people of all ages will begin to suffer the familiar symptoms: chills, fever, headache, muscle aches, loss of appetite, and fatigue. The flu season will bring misery to thousands of people of all ages across the country before springtime puts an end to the outbreak.

Those who want to avoid this seasonal visitor can take several precautions. Flu shots will help prevent the disease. It is recommended that older people and those who suffer from a respiratory or circulatory disease should be vaccinated. Flu shots must be repeated every year, because they don't last very long.

If there is an outbreak of flu in our community, another good preventative is for people to avoid crowds. Usually, an outbreak will occur in a school or institution for the elderly because of the large number of people who are together for a prolonged period of time. Simple precautions, such as using a handkerchief when you sneeze and washing hands frequently, can do a great deal to keep you from catching or spreading the infection.

Influenza is actually a viral infection of the respiratory tract. It is spread by virus-infected droplets that are coughed or sneezed into the air. Most types of the flu are relatively mild, and patients will recover in a few days. However, patients with other health problems or those who are generally in a weakened condition can become seriously ill with the flu. Flu shots can be obtained from the Munday or Knox City Clinics.

First Baptist Church Revival starts Sunday

The First Baptist Church in Munday will be holding a fall revival October 9-12. Services will be held at 11:00 on Sunday morning, and at 7:00 Sunday through Wednesday evenings. There will be noon services, with pot luck lunch, on Monday through Wednesday.

Dr. Claude Cone will be preaching, and Mike Anderson will lead the music.

Several special events will take place in conjunction with the revival meetings. On Sunday at 6 p.m. the teenagers of the community, grades 7-12, are invited to the church for free all-you-can-eat pizza. There will be a special program for them, followed by the revival service.

On Monday evening children grades 1-6 are invited to the church at 6:00 for a children's event including a free hotdog supper.

The Tuesday evening service will emphasize music. In addition to the large revival choir, which will sing each evening, Tommy Brinkley will be in the service playing the organ. Mr. Brinkley is the organist of First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls, and is much in demand as an organist for Southern Baptist Convention events. There will be an organ mini-concert after the revival service on Tuesday.

Dr. Claude Cone, guest preacher, is the Executive Director of the Baptist Convention of New Mexico. Dr. Cone is a graduate of Wayland Baptist University in Plainview and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He pastored several Texas Baptist churches, including First Baptist Church in Pampa from 1972 to 1985, before accepting the New Mexico position. His preaching is direct, motivational, and brings comfort from the Bible.

Mike Anderson, guest music director, is the Minister of Music at First Baptist Church in Anson, a position he has held since 1991. Mike is a graduate of the University of Texas, with a masters degree in voice performance. He received a Bachelor of Music degree from Howard Payne University in Brownwood. The church is expecting an overflow choir each service.

The community is invited to each of these revival services. Anyone needing transportation should call 422-4559.

The theme for the services is "Mighty Things". Mighty things have been happening at First Baptist Church. In the recently completed church year, the Sunday School was at its highest point in over 20 years, with 199 in average attendance. The church also baptized more people during this church year than in any other year since 1969.

"On A Wizer Note"

by Paul Welser
Knox County Extension Agent - Ag.

This summer has been hot and dry. These conditions make farming very difficult. It can also hurt a lawn or garden quite easily.

While driving around, notice all of the trees that are dying or just losing their leaves. Many questions have been asked lately due to these problems. Most of the problems were simple - too hot and dry. This was not always the situation.

Take a careful look at the hackberry trees in and around Knox County. Many have died and several have fallen. Cotton root rot was suggested to be the problem do to the suddenness. Further studies proved this theory wrong.

A sample of root was collected from one of the fallen trees. These roots were analyzed by the plant disease diagnostic lab at Texas A&M University. They found no signs of cotton root rot. They also noted that the mistletoe was not the main problem.

The problem occurred in April and May. Remember now many of the farmers were not able to plant cotton due to wet conditions in these two months? Remember also how it was too dry to plant in June. This over-amount of moisture followed by drought conditions killed the hackberries and is causing some trees to loose their leaves early.

When excessive moisture is present for an extended period of time, trees not requiring this condition will begin to have roots die. When the conditions turn hot and dry suddenly the tree will die due to the lack of moisture caused by the depleted root system.

Some trees were able to withstand the wet conditions and thus look better now. Other varieties, like the hackberry, did not fair so well.

If there are any questions please call the Knox County Extension office at 817-454-2651.

4-H... More than you ever imagined

National 4-H Week celebrates the accomplishments of 4-H youth during the week of October 2-8. The theme for 1994, "4-H... more than you ever imagined" reflects the variety of 4-H programming and the diversity of the lives and backgrounds of 4-H youth throughout our country.

Diverse groups of youth from across our country participate in 4-H activities. Young people from ages 9-19 develop leadership, citizenship, and interpersonal skills in a wide variety of 4-H programs.

4-H began as a simultaneous response to needs throughout the country, rather than as the idea of one individual. The basis for this activity was to offer agricultural education to rural youth by organizing boys and girls clubs and through "learning by doing". Youth participating in 4-H activities have opportunities to offer positive contributions to our diverse and changing society.

4-H uses the far-reaching Extension System network to offer youth programs and activities to diverse groups of young people in all 3,150 counties across our nation.

For more information about 4-H, contact the Knox County Texas Agricultural Extension Service located at the courthouse in Benjamin, 817-454-2651.

HAVE A NICE DAY!

Pathways

First Baptist Church

Do you ever wonder if you are living up to the standards of Christian life?

The Bible presents the ideal in 1 John 2:1 when it says "...I am writing these things to you that you my not sin." To be really Christian is to strive to live right.

It is possible to live pure lives. It is impossible to be completely free from temptation, but through God's strength, we can say no to sin. "The devil made me do it" is no excuse. When we sin, it is nobody's fault but our own. We have no one else to blame.

Fortunately, there is a remedy when we fall short of the Biblical ideal. The Bible says "We have an Advocate" who is Jesus Christ. An advocate is One called alongside to help us. When we sin, the Righteous One stands beside us to represent us. HE is the satisfaction for our sins—the one who remedies the problem.

Would you put your Christian life to the test? The Bible says we can be sure of our relationship with Him if we seek to obey His commandments. When we discover His will, we don't argue with Him and don't excuse ourselves, but we desire to obey.

In fact, one who calls themselves "Christian" yet does not seek to obey God's commandments, ought to question their Christianity. Is He really Lord if we do not do what He says? Do we really love Him if we do not seek to worship and serve Him through the Church that He loves so dearly? The Bible says "The one who says, 'I have come to know Him,' and does not keep His commandments, is a liar..." (1 John 2:4). This is saying that there is room for serious doubt if we call ourselves Christian yet do not live pure lives.

How does your Christian life measure up to Biblical standards? Make an effort today to improve your lifestyle and your service to God.

"Lord, I want to live a pure and healthy Christian life because of Your love for me and my love for You. Amen."

KNOX COUNTY KONNECTIONS

By Jane Rowan, County Extension Agent

This is the last in our series dealing with "farm safety". This week we will look at our senior farmers.

Senior Farmers at Risk on the Farm

Older farmers and ranchers must deal with the effects of aging just like everyone else. However, the already dangerous work of farming can become more hazardous as farmers age. The quick onset of fatigue, reduced vision and slower reaction time that are part of the normal aging process can increase risk among older agricultural workers. Also, many suffer from permanent hearing loss and arthritis which can seriously impact safe job performance.

All these factors combine to increase risk among older farmers and ranchers. Research by the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health has demonstrated that tractor drivers 65 years and older may be two to three times more likely to die in tractor accidents than persons in other age groups. A study conducted by Purdue University farm safety specialists revealed an increased risk for older farm machinery operators because of arthritis. Arthritis limits the mobility of farmers and ranchers during many farm tasks.

The National Safety Council recommends that older farmers and ranchers compensate for the normal aging process:

- * Have your vision checked by a doctor regularly. The aging process also can decrease peripheral vision which may affect driving performance.

- * Remember that vision is hampered the most at dawn and dusk; avoid riding tractors at these times. Be aware that older drivers' eyes need more light to see well but also are more sensitive to glare.

- * Get plenty of rest during planting, harvest and long work periods. Take frequent breaks to protect against fatigue and physical stress. Drink plenty of liquids and keep them available in your work area. Accidents are more likely to occur after fatigue has set in.

- * Use extreme caution when operating equipment. Be familiar with any medication you take and its effect on reaction time. Even over-the-counter medications can hamper reflexes and diminish alertness, limiting your ability to operate farm tractors and machinery.

- * Make sure that a family member or fellow worker knows where you will be working.

- * Know your limitations. Don't push your mind and body past their safe and healthy limits.

We hope you have enjoyed this three part series. If you have questions or would like more information regarding farm safety, please contact the Knox County extension office at 817-454-2651.

Truscott-Gilliland News

By Mrs. Clara Brown

LAST WEEK'S NEWS)

Just about everyone with a wheat field is out there sowing wheat this week. Those who sowed earlier are watching their fields become stitched with green and those sowing now are hoping to get the heat up before predicted showers later in the week.

Big cat hunters on the north end of China Creek had some trouble the past week. Their dogs found many coons the dogs' owners couldn't get them interested in cat hunting. The big one is apparently still around though, as one man found a calf apparently killed by a cougar.

No news calls were made last Sunday afternoon due to this writer being in a wheat field at Antelope flat at that time.

If any of you have had special visitors or special family news that was missed, please let me know. News is never old in this column. Late, yes, but not old as neighbors are always ready to talk about you and yours.

Truscott grandmas are planning dinner at the Community Center this Sunday, October 9.

Paul and Ila Mae Bullion were at Crosbyton on Monday to attend the funeral of her mother's first cousin, Una Bell.

Frances Cook went to Lubbock last week for the state FCE meeting (Home Demonstration). Also attending from Knox County were Ileen Rollo and Ramona Helms. The Gilliland FCE Club met last week for a program on recycling by the agent Jane Rowan.

Vula Hord visited John and Zelma Campbell at Crowell last Sunday.

Marion Hord had knee surgery in Altus, Oklahoma last Wednesday.

Andrew Grey of Vernon helped his grandfather, Newell Looney, sow wheat Saturday and Sunday. Audra Roberson and Emily Grey came over with him on Sunday.

Kay Hays and her daughter, Jere, both of Abilene, visited Friday night and all day Saturday with their mother and grandmother, Jodie Miller.

Shirley and Ruth Moore returned home Saturday, September 18, after spending a week in Amarillo visiting their children.

A call was received last week from a man in the state of Washington who was inquiring about some Banks relatives who once lived in Munday. Such calls and letters are getting more frequent.

He was not related to the Jim Banks family which once lived at Gilliland. Jim Banks was married to a Lowry of the Lowry family that once lived at Gilliland. There is no family story about either the Jim Banks family or the Lowry family in Between the Wichitas.

If any reader has contact with either family, please let them know that the history committee would like to have their family information for the family files.

Family plays major role in children's education

by Richard W. Riley
U.S. Secretary of Education

Very few things are more important to our children's future or to America's future than the quality education of our children. We believe that the concerted efforts of entire communities to create and sustain disciplined learning environments, where our children can be challenged to meet high academic and occupational skill standards, are what will provide our children - and America - with a strong future.

All across America, there are communities which are pulling together to strengthen education. Parents, teachers, community leaders, business leaders, and educators in every part of our country are starting to work together to improve teaching and learning and to improve student achievement.

With passage last spring of the Goals 2000: Educate America Act (by a strong bipartisan vote in Congress), new opportunities have been created for schools and neighborhoods, themselves, to accelerate local and state improvement efforts. But these opportunities for educational excellence can only be taken advantage of through greater family involvement in children's education - both at school and at home.

I believe that all parents, regardless of income or occupation, have the capacity and the obligation to teach their children not only a love of learning, but also other critical American values such as responsibility, respect and hard work. Research shows that all families, whatever their income or education level, can take concrete steps that significantly help children learn. And yet families are often the missing link in American education.

Many parent, education, community and religious organizations are coming together to promote greater family involvement in learning, and I, as the U.S. Secretary of Education, encourage such efforts right at home - in every neighborhood and community. As we work to increase strong family-school partnerships, we all need to be mindful of the pressures parents face and the escalating demands on their time. But I believe we, as a nation, must recognize something else as well:

parents, when they can, need to slow down their lives and help their children grow.

As I travel around the country, I meet many parents who are trying hard to do the right thing by their children. Yet, some 40% of parents themselves believe they are not devoting enough time to their children's education. Almost three-quarters of students between the ages of 10 and 13 say they would

Carriker taking rural health access plan before legislature

State Senator Steve Carriker recently unveiled a platform of health care initiatives designed to address access to care problems in rural Texas. Hospital closures, inadequate trauma care and medical lawsuit abuses are all problems plaguing rural Texas communities, the District 30 incumbent said.

"These are life-threatening issues haunting Texans who live in rural communities," said Carriker. "My mission when the Texas Legislature convenes in January is finding cures to these problems."

Sen Carriker believes future closures of rural hospitals will severely damage both patient access to health care and local economies. During the past 10 years more than 50 rural hospitals have closed in the state. "Hospitals are vital in retaining and attracting health care professionals," said Sen. Carriker.

The plan encourages family practice residency programs in or near rural communities and promotion of the benefits of rural health clinics. The senator's plan also calls for a fully-funded trauma network.

"The current trauma system is fragmented," said Sen. Carriker. "The lack of a fully funded and coordinated trauma network imposes significant losses in terms of lives and money."

The Christian Life

Jeff Christian - Minister

Munday Church of Christ

If you want to learn how to do something, sometimes you just have to get out and do it. A person can read volumes on how to properly drive a car, but unless he or she gets in the car and drives, very little (if anything) will be accomplished other than a useless knowledge about driving.

For many, this is what Christianity has become: useless knowledge. Some people think that going to church and reading the Bible is what Christianity is all about. However, this misses the point. James said, "Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says." (James 1:22) It is downright silly to think that we can read the Bible, and leave it at that. In fact, James says that if we only read the Bible, we fool ourselves! There must be more. Sure, reading the Bible is good. In fact, it is necessary. James never said, "Don't read your Bible." On the contrary, James said do read it, but take it a step further! Don't let the word of God sit drearily in your head without ever letting it pervade your life.

For if we merely read about driving without ever getting in a car, driving becomes nothing more than a mental experience, rather than an activity that can be useful to you and others.

The 1848 presidential election was the first to be held at the same time in all the states.

Ninety attend "Breast Cancer Awareness Month" Goree school focus is on early detection aspect celebration

There was a great turn-out for the Goree church's school employee Appreciation Supper and service. The event was sponsored by the churches of Goree to show their appreciation and support of all the employees of Goree I.S.D. Plenty of homecooked food was provided by those attending.

Superintendent E.B. Hosea, Principal Robert Dillard and all other staff members were presented with custom "Wildcat" coffee mugs as a symbol of gratitude.

Peggy Myers accompanied the singing during the services. Rev. Darrel Dossey of First Baptist of Goree, Pastor Don Whetsell of First United Methodist Church of Goree, and Father George Foley, St. Joseph's Catholic Church, organized and participated in the service.

Thanks to all who attended for supporting the Goree I.S.D.

Citrus fruits are actually a type of berry.

According to the American Cancer Society, in 1994 about 182,000 women will be diagnosed with breast cancer, making it the most common form of cancer in women. An estimated 46,000 women will die from breast cancer in 1994, making it the second major cause of death among women, after lung cancer. October has been designated as "Breast Cancer Awareness Month" in an effort to educate the public about breast cancer.

"All women are at risk for breast cancer and as women get older, their risk of developing the disease increases," states Eileen Rolo, Public Education Chairman for the Knox Unit of the American Cancer Society. "Early detection has emerged as the most successful and hopeful aspect of breast cancer control."

The American Cancer Society currently recommends the following guidelines for screening women at normal risk for developing breast cancer:

1. Breast Self Examination -- monthly for all women 20 and above.
2. Clinical Breast Exam by a health professional -- every three years for women 20-39 and yearly for all women age 40 and above.
3. Mammography -- first exam by age 40, then yearly for women age 50 and above.

"Individuals at increased risk due to family or personal history of cancer or other factors may require earlier or more frequent screenings at the discretion of their personal physician," according to Rolo. "Research shows that breast cancer mortality could be reduced by at least 30 percent if women followed the recommended guidelines."

For a free brochure with answers to your questions about breast cancer and mammography, call 1-800-ACS-2345. The American Cancer Society urges all Knox County women to be aware that they are at risk and to make a commitment to get a mammogram during the month of October.

Munday youth seeking funds for fellow classmate

Munday youth are joining to help a fellow classmate, Robert Thomas, Jr.

Robert has been having cardiovascular problems, and will be going to Lubbock and Amarillo this month for medical tests. Containers will be placed at area businesses for donations to help defray expenses for these high cost tests.

An eighth grader at Munday High School, Robert is the 14 year old son of Dolly Ann Watkins and Robert Thomas.

The oldest warship still afloat is the Constitution, built in 1797.

Weinert Exes gather for Homecoming '94

The 1994 Weinert Homecoming "Good Ole Daze" was a huge success. Former teachers and students gathered at the old school building, with 450 registering.

The Homecoming parade was a real treat. Judges chose the following as their favorite: 1st place, Remember Your Senior Trip, Class of '58; 2nd place, Lookin' For Weinert, Weinert Gin; and 3rd place, 1950 to 1994 and Still Going, Class of '50. The Most Original award went to the Class of 1980 for their rendition of M.A.S.H. Receiving the Judges Award were the Women of Weinert; and the Classic Car was a 1940 model Ford owned by Jacky Sanders.

The children's float winners were Heath Guess, 1st place, True to the Blue, and Lane Murphy won 2nd.

The oldest graduate at the reunion was Eunice Raynes, age 90, of Munday. Mary Yates Murphy of Weinert was the winner of the homemade quilt.

The talent contest was also a big hit with the crowd. In the adult division, Cherie Hutchinson won 1st place, Cindy Guess 2nd, and Karen Harlan 3rd. Heather Guess won the youth division.

New officers were elected for the 1996 Homecoming. They include Sandra Mathison Earle and Anita Kay Edwards Watkins, Co-President; Patsy Lee Raynes Shawver, Vice President; and Eunice Hutchinson Cox, Secretary.

Frank Dutton of Munday and Mary Yates Murphy of Weinert were named Homecoming King and Queen.

The Outstanding Citizens Service Award went to Toby Yates, Kathi Hutchinson, H.L. Guess and Sarah Guess. The farthest traveler attending the reunion was W. J. Johnson of California.

Homecoming '94 is now just a memory, but one that will last for years to come.

Emergency loans available for Knox County farmers

In response to a request from Governor Ann Richards, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has declared Foard County as a natural disaster area and has designated six contiguous disaster counties.

Gov. Richards' request came on the heels of drought and high temperatures which affected the area from June 25-30. The contiguous counties are Baylor, Cottle, Hardeman, King, Knox and Wilbarger.

The declaration allows family farmers to qualify for Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) emergency loans for damages and losses caused by the drought conditions. Emergency loan applications will be received through May 1, 1995, for physical and production losses. The FmHA office in Knox City can provide affected farmers with further information and assist them in completing applications for assistance.

Governor proclaims October as Fire Prevention Month

Official Memorandum
State of Texas
Office of the Governor

In Texas, fire deaths from smoke inhalation outnumber fire deaths due to burns by almost two to one. Yet, the Texas Fire Incident Reporting System shows that less than one in four homes where fires occur have working smoke alarms.

In Texas, citizens need to continue learning about how to prevent fires and protect themselves from the hazards of fire because these statistics have been a trend for at least the past 10 years, as long as detailed statewide fire records have been kept.

Texas fire departments, schools and civic organizations have increased their efforts to teach the public how to prevent fires and avoid injuries and deaths caused by fires. The Texas Fire Chiefs' Association, Texas Fire Marshals' Association, Texas State Association of Fire Fighters, State Firemen's and Fire Marshal's Association, Texas Chapter of the International Association of Arson Investigators and Texas Advisory Council on Arson have joined with the Texas Commission on Fire Protection to bring fire safety messages to the public.

The month of October has been designated by the Texas Commission on Fire Protection as Fire Prevention Month to mark the 123rd anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire, which occurred on October 9, 1871, and first focused attention on the importance of fire prevention. During this month, Texans are urged to change the batteries in their smoke alarms, to begin monthly smoke alarm tests and to check their homes for common fire hazards.

Therefore, I, Ann W. Richards, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim the month of October, 1994, as:

FIRE PREVENTION MONTH

METER TAMPERING NOW A FELONY

The State of Texas has recently adopted an amendment to the State Penal Code making meter tampering a third degree felony. A third degree felony comes with a punishment of confinement in the Texas Department of Corrections for a term of not more than 10 or less than 2 years. In addition to imprisonment, an individual adjudged guilty of a third degree felony may be punished by a fine not to exceed $5,000.

Before the amendment of the new law, it was a class A misdemeanor for meter tampering unless the loss of service was more than $200. Under the new law, any meter tampering regardless of the amount of loss is now a felony of the third degree.

Meter tampering consists of, but is not limited to:
(1) Diverting electricity from passing through a meter device
(2) Preventing electric service from being correctly registered by a meter device
(3) Unauthorized activation of electric service.

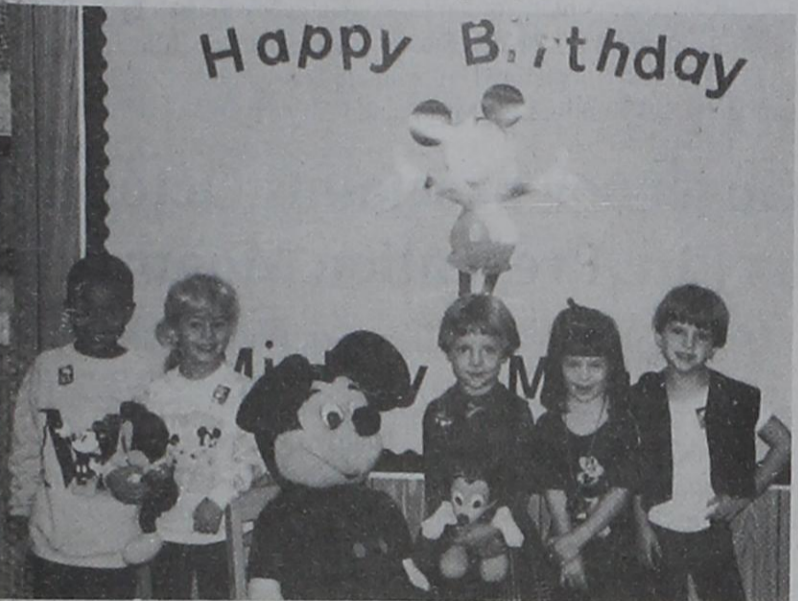

As a special note to our members, it will also be considered meter tampering if a meter is reset and electrical service is restored by anyone other than a Cooperative employee.

All Cooperative meters are sealed. This seal should not be cut or broken without special authorization. In cases where the seal must be cut for emergencies, the Cooperative should be notified as soon as possible so that the meter can be resealed.
