Senator Moffett Gives Highlights Of Legislature

Austin — The Legislature has added $300,000 monthly to the old age assistance fund, thus making possible the full payment of the monthly grants to those eligible for old age assistance, and discontinuing the monthly deductions of $1.25 to $2.50 that have heretofore been made from each check. This increase will become effective beginning with the April checks.

It is now legal for the Public Safety Department to grant drivers licenses to those physically handicapped by defective eyesight, or hearing, or by loss of limb, or for some other reason, so that they may drive in a limited area where traffic is not heavy. This bill has just been signed by the Governor. It has heretofore been illegal to issue such a "limited area" license, thus depriving those physically handicapped of the privilege of driving a car altogether, even though they might be safe, cautious drivers in areas of light traffic. I happen to be the author of this bill and am proud of it.

I would like to hear from the people concerning bills now pending before the Legislature. That is generally the best guide as to what should be done. For instance, a bill has been introduced to permit the Game Commission to fix the dates for open and closed seasons on taking game, instead of fixing the seasons by the passage of a law, which has been the accepted way for many years. The argument in favor of the bill is that when the game is plentiful, the Game Commission could extend the open season, and when game is scarce, they could restrict it. I would like to have the opinion of those interested in this matter, as well as other matters.

The Legislature will probably adjourn around the middle of May, and the Governor has said that no special session is contemplated.

HOME ON VISIT

Pvt. Wanda Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Butler of route two, is home on furlough. She is stationed in Cleveland, Ohio, where she is serving as a nurse's aid. She returns to her post of duty next Friday.

E Bond Quota In 7th War Loan Is Largest Ever

W. E. Braly, county war bond chairman, has been informed that the Series E Bond quota for Knox county for the Seventh War Loan will be the largest ever assigned the county. The tabulation periods for the Seventh War Loan will begin on April 9, and close June 30.

Nathan Adams of Dallas gives the county and state quota in the following paragraphs from a letter to Mr. Braly:

"Texas has been assigned an E Bond quota of $168 million for the Seventh War Loan. This compares to a $105 million E Bond quota in the Sixth War Loan.

"The E Bond quota for your county is $270,000.

"This is the largest E Bond quota ever assigned to us, and while it is a tremendous job, we will have three months to attain it.

"Our Over-All quota in Texas amounts to $430 million; about the same as we had in the Sixth War Loan. By the time of the general drive on May 14 we will give you the Over-All quota for your county. At present we intend to direct all statewide publicity against our Series E quota and suggest that you do likewise, thereby focusing all attention against our major undertaking in this drive."

Farmers To Grow New Sweet Sudan

A large number of Knox county farmers who will grow sweet sudan this year for the first time, obtained small amounts (from 2 to 5 pounds), from Frank Cerveney, of Rhineland, who received a 4-oz. package of seed from the Agricultural Experiment Station, at Chillicothe, in 1944 and in one year's time the supply in Knox county has increased by many thousand fold.

The outstanding feature is that it produces more forage and is better liked by cattle when used for grazing. Sweet sudan is a cross between common sudan and leota cane.

STATISTICS DON'T TELL ALL

A lengthy article in Collier's recently pointed out in support of a state-controlled medical system that at age sixty the life expectancy of the average American ranks below eleven other countries (pre-war statistics.) The countries which ranked ahead of the United States on the particular vital statistic in question, included Norway, Sweden, Denmark, The Netherlands and several other European nations. This was taken as a sad reflection on American medical progress.

Yet, it is the American doctors' fault that beyond the age of sixty our life expectancy is more precarious than in some other countries? No comparison was made between living and working habits. A Norwegian fisherman who leads a rugged, slow tempo existence, is classed in the same category as the New York business man who eats lunch in ten minutes, labors under abnormal conditions, and has the prospect of dropping dead at age 45 to 50.

American doctors have worked miracles in controlling disease. But pitted against them has been our mode of living which even in normal times is paralleled by no other nation from the standpoint of speed and tenseness. For example, a late press report states that deaths from heart disease rose 8 per cent in 1943. Nearly 30 per cent of all deaths in the country in 1943 were caused by heart failure, in spite of striking gains by the medical profession in treating heart disease. It would be interesting to compare this record with that of a Scandinavian country where the people lead a more leisurely life.

DELIVER THE GOODS—INTACT

During 1944, $60,000,000 worth of freight was lost or damaged in transit in this country—a third more than in the year 1943. Consequently, shippers and transport agencies are preparing to put more drive than ever before into the ninth annual "perfect shipping" campaign to be conducted during the month of April. Every shipping agency, shipping employe and the public will be reminded of the tragic waste of wartime effort which results from poor packing and improper handling of freight. This year, the campaign will also have the additional objective of improving packaging technique in the preparation of shipments in the postwar period.

The responsibility for coming within measurable distance of the goal in the perfect shipping campaign finally falls on the shoulders of the unknown individual. No matter how excellent the promotional work and the organizing ability of those who are spark-plugging the drive, they cannot succeed unless the public, especially those whose jobs are directly involved in some phase of shipping, cooperate to the greatest possible extent.

Failure to package shipments properly today very often sifts right through to the fighting fronts where some boy loses out. Perhaps it will only bring him disappointment in the form of a broken gift. It may cost him his life.

The perfect shipping campaign has a deep significance to all of us in these grim war years. It is to the credit of shipping men, railroad men and other transportation agencies that this April will see an intensified effort to deliver the goods—intact. The impetus of the April campaign should carry on through the year.

TAXATION BY FEUDAL OVERLORDS

Following the lead of Mr. Petrillo, head of the musicians' union, who successfully defied the government in his demand to levy a tax on every phonograph record, to the tune of some $4,000,000 a year, Mr. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, now demands a union tax of 10 cents on each ton of coal mined, to enable the union to provide "economic protection" for the workers. As the coal mines produced over 600,000,000 tons of coal in 1944, the public would have to dig up some $60,000,000 a year for Mr. Lewis' tax.

If this policy of permitting unions to tax production, goes unchecked, the people will be paying special taxes for a privileged few, as they did to feudal overlords who were more powerful than governments in ancient times. Why should the tax be limited to a phonograph record or a ton of coal? Why shouldn't it be applied to a suit of clothes, a gallon of gasoline, an automobile, or any commodity, the production of which is under union control?

This is not a union or non-union issue—it boils down to a question of whether powerful private agencies are to be allowed to tax the public for the exclusive profit of those agencies and their members. The issue is going to be right up to the people before long because the unions are proving every day that they are beyond the reach of present laws and regulatory measures that apply to all other business and individuals.

A CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAM

There is one type of public construction that does not put government into competition with private enterprise—roadbuilding, which all the people can use. Those who think they have no interest in an adequate highway system because they do not use it extensively, should revise their opinion. Even in peacetime, good roads are an essential part of the transportation machinery that keeps the country going.

According to the American Roadbuilders Association, 75,000 miles of the nation's 415,000 miles of main state highways, are worn out roads of 20 or more years of service, which must be rebuilt. Another 47,000 miles should be widened for safety's sake and to eliminate congestion. Highways that should be relocated to save time and distance, total 37,000 miles. Nearly 160,000 miles, or more than one-third of the main state highways, require major improvement. Some 30,000 unsafe bridges must be rebuilt or widened.

In addition, several hundred thousand miles of the more than 2,400,000 miles of county and farm-to-market roads require improvement, grading and drainage or light surfacing. Thousands of miles of city streets need reconstruction or new surfacing.

All of this work should be done by competitive bidding by private contractors. In this way, it would be done at minimum cost, while at the same time stimulating employment and the expansion of private business both directly and indirectly.

An intelligent road construction program is an activity in which the Federal government can cooperate with states without competing with its own citizens in business.

WANTS NO MORE BUTTER

"We note," says the Syracuse, New York, Post-Standard, "that an economist in the department of agriculture has recommended that Americans find another spread for their bread other than butter, and use milk for its food value and not for its butter."

"The butter market, along with the cheese market, has been a lifesaver for the dairy industry. More milk is produced in one season of a year than another, so that in surplus periods extra milk is made up into foods that can be stored and kept. Dairymen produce enough milk in times of lean production to furnish all the fresh milk the market will absorb. When surplus periods come, more milk is available than can be used in the fluid market."

Maybe some bureaucrat can figure out how to make cows produce at a constant rate.

BLIND JUSTICE

A critic of American business says that the War Labor Board must control Montgomery Ward or go out of business, at great peril to the winning of the war.

The musicians' union defied the War Labor Board and the President of the United States. It was rewarded financially instead of penalized, and the War Labor Board did not go out of business. The musicians' union and Montgomery Ward could be wiped out and not a ripple made in the war activity.

It is difficult to understand why such procedure is countenanced in a land where all men are supposed to be equal in the eyes of the law. But the pressure increases each day for the passage of laws and their interpretation based on class privilege, rather than equal justice for all.

WORDS OF WISDOM

"Whatever will be possible centuries ahead, it is not at this stage in our social evolution that we can dispense with the incentive of private enterprise. If we believe in the preservation of the freedoms as the inspiration of our fighting, we can only say that, in the broadest sense, freedom of private enterprise is the basis of all the other freedoms."—G. L. Wood, dean of the faculty of commerce, University of Melbourne, Australia.

ROCKIES PLAY ROLE IN WAR AND PEACE

MANY a Canadian soldier who is fighting in the snow drifts of northern France received some of his training on the glacial slopes of the Canadian Rockies, which Americans made their summer playground in pre-war days.

It is interesting to note that Canada stands high in the list of countries that Americans want to visit after the war. Before hostilities when motor traffic was permissible, a large part of the traffic from the U. S. went by motor. The curtailment in the use of automobiles in recent years, has had the effect of reducing the volume of international expenditures.

The effects of the decline in motor traffic first became pronounced in 1942 when the expenditures of United States motorists in Canada were $26,000,000 compared with $54,000,000 in 1941. Total United States expenditures in Canada in 1942 are estimated at $79,000,000 compared with $107,000,000 in 1941. In 1943 there were further contractions in the expenditures of motorists but these were more than offset by much heavier expenditures by persons travelling by rail than in former years. United States expenditures in Canada in 1943 totalled $87,000,000.

During the war some 10,000 United States engineers and 2,000 civilians entered Canada to aid in the construction of the 1600-mile Alaskan Highway from Fort St. John, British Columbia, through Whitehorse to Fairbanks, Alaska.

Many of these men have announced their eagerness to return to the Dominion after the war, and it is likely that they will return to their homes as enthusiastic boosters of Canada as a tourist country.

The above pictures show a typical scene in the Canadian Rockies and soldiers of this war on manoeuvres over their slopes.

Texas Legislative News

(By Rep. Claude Callaway, 114th Dist., Crowell)

AUSTIN — One of the major pieces of legislation took place in the capitol this week when the Senate passed out the Old Age Assistance bill, making an additional monthly appropriation of $300,000. This was the same amount that was passed by the House six weeks ago—the exact number of dollars put in the Pigg bill in the appropriation room under my substitute amendment in January.

This makes an amount of $2,200,000 per month to be matched by Federal money, making $4,400,000 per month which will be spent for old age assistance.

In a conversation with Johnny Winters, head of the department of public welfare this morning, he assured me that by the time papers went to the press next week if the Governor had signed the bill, he would be making out the checks for April, which would only restore the $1.25 cut for each recipient, but in May he said there will be a general adjustment on account of the increase in the price of food and other items. In the May checks the recipients of assistance will receive the full benefit of the emergency appropriation.

Mr. Winters estimates that 56,000, or one-third of the number on the rolls will receive the maximum of $30 per month. The increase in other pensions will be adjusted from $2 to $5. In fact, he said that this is actually the first time the Legislature has appropriated enough money to actually meet the needs of the old people, according to the amount that could be spent under the Federal law. He emphasized the fact that no one on the rolls would need write the department or be interviewed to receive the May adjustment, and only the unusual cases would have to be investigated.

On Wednesday night of this week we had in the House our local and Uncontested Bill calendar. That is, all bills of an uncontested nature were put on the calendar, and in a four-hour session we made laws by passing 53 bills to final passage.

In the appropriation room this week the sub-committee that had written the appropriation bill for the eleemosynary budget for the next two years reported back to the main committee and the eleemosynary budget was voted out by the main committee.

An appropriation of $8,000,000 per year for each year of the biennium was recommended—this is an increase of approximately 15 per cent over the budget for the past two years. I feel sure this bill will be passed out of the House by the time you are reading this article. This is the first major appropriation. Next will be the judiciary budget for all courts in Texas, then the education budget which will take care of all the colleges and junior colleges, then the department budget, setting up a salary schedule and appropriation for every state employee in all departments.

Last, but not least, is the rural school budget, which will probably be passed in the next two weeks. It will carry an appropriation of $28,000,000, which will be $14,000,000 for each year of the biennium.

Just one more word about the eleemosynary bill. This takes care of all our state institutions for the in-

Gems Of Thought

APOTHEGMS

Apophthegms to thinking minds are the seeds from which spring vast fields of new thought, that may be further cultivated, beautified, and enlarged.—Ramsay.

He is a benefactor of mankind who contracts the great rules of life into short sentences, that may be easily impressed on the memory, and so recur habitually to the mind.—Johnson.

The short sayings of wise and good men are of great value, like the dust of gold, or the sparks of diamonds.—Tillotson.

If you hear a wise sentence or an apt phrase, commit it to your memory.—Sir Henry Sidney.

The benefits of proverbs, or maxims is that they separate those who act on principle from those who act on impulse; and they lead to promptness and decision in acting.—Tyron Edwards.

The poet's line, "Order is heaven's first law," is so eternally true, so axiomatic, that it has become a truism; and its wisdom is as obvious in religion and scholarship as in astronomy or mathematics.

eane, feeble-minded, deaf and dumb, blind, and others, making a total of 28 institutions in the State of Texas.

I was on the sub-committee of five men who wrote this bill, and it has been very interesting to be brought closer to our eleemosynary institutions, and to realize the great work that is being done for the thousands who are taken care of. I was caused to wonder if our American population would not look quite different if these thousands of people were in our homes and among society, instead of being taken care of and separated from people.

It would do any of us good and make us appreciate more fully the fine work that is being done by eleemosynary institutions if each of us had the opportunity of visiting them. I find that Judge Weaver Baker, who is chairman of the Board of Control, has done one of the most wonderful pieces of work ever done in the history of the institutions, in the direct supervision and management. He has saved us more than a million dollars in operational cost, has increased the efficiency in management, and it is indeed a pity that the people of Texas are not in a position to know how much difference it has made to a man who is an outstanding business manager, with the interest of the people at heart, and who works long hours every day to bring about this wonderful improvement.

Today is a summer day in Austin. I don't think I have ever seen the capital grounds when they were more beautiful. Every tree is in full foliage. Most of the flowers—especially roses—are in full bloom. Summer is here!

HOME-MADE CHEESE FOR GIFTS

High quality cooked cheese is solving gifts problems for Mrs. Jimmy Gibson member of the Petrolia Home Demonstration Club in Clay County. She molds the cheese in refrigerator dishes, puts on the lid and ties the container with a colorful bow of ribbon. Since she learned from her county home demonstration agent, Jessie Earl Condon, how to make the cheese, she has taught the method to at least 16 other women.

The Clark Orchard Home Demonstration Club in Willacy County has grown so large that meetings in the homes of members is not practical. R. R. Clark of that community has offered land for a club house to be built this year.

TOWN and FARM in WARTIME

Prepared by OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION

Civilians At War

The Government needs and asks its citizens in this 173rd week of the war to:

1. Play fair with the available supply of meat by paying ration points in full, and by paying no more than ceiling prices.
2. Give two special Easter gifts to our men on the fighting fronts a pint of blood and an extra dollar to the Red Cross War Fund.
3. Search closets for clothing, shoes and bedding to send to millions of war-impooverished people through the United National Clothing Collection Committee Drive, which starts April 1.

No Need For Pessimism About Food Supply, Says Marvin Jones

"I hope no one will be misled about the food situation," says War Food Administrator Marvin Jones. "No one has gone hungry in this country. No one is going hungry. In 1943 the American farmers produced 32 per cent more food than this or any other nation ever produced before the war. In 1944 they upped this by 5 per cent, making a record increase of 37 percent above prewar production. This record was made in spite of the handicaps of war. This year the farmers themselves set goals that call for an even greater crop acreage. Our armed forces will continue to be well-fed. We will continue to help our fighting allies. Our own people will continue to have plenty of good, wholesome food, and we will contribute our share to the relief of starving people, even if it means a new hitch in our belts. This is a practical matter and a part of the war itself. Anyone who sells the American Farmer short makes a mistake."

New Chemical Treatment For Poles And Posts Announced

Scientists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture have developed a method by which farmers and other users of wood-lot trees can introduce chemicals into the sap stream of wood to increase the length of service of fence posts, bean poles, garden stakes and other utility poles. The fresh-cut saplings are simply allowed to stand in a wooden tub or trough containing the right amount of chemical in solution for a period of about six hours or until they have taken up the required amount of chemical. Chemicals recommended include chromated zinc chloride, zinc chloride, and copper sulfate (bluestone), of which the chromated zinc chloride is the best. The chromated zinc chloride is twice as expensive as zinc chloride or copper sulfate, but it protects the wood longer and is also less corrosive to wire staples than copper sulfate. One pound of either of the chemicals dissolved in a half gallon of water will treat one cubic foot of wood, or the equivalent of a sapling which measures about four inches at the base and is about 30 feet tall. All of the recommended chemicals are poisonous and should be kept out of the reach of children, pets and livestock. None of them should be stored in metal containers. Because copper sulfate is corrosive, it must not be used in metal tubs or troughs.

Program To Provide Longer Wear For Shoes

WPB announces an intensified program for the conservation of shoe leather and for sole leather treatment to provide longer wear.

The shoe treatment program, which has received wide support from the shoe manufacturers, will be extended to retailers and consumers in order to assure their understanding and cooperation. Shoe retailers and salesmen, as well as the public, will be informed of the extra value of shoes with soles treated with oil, wax or equivalent materials. Tests have shown that such treatment prolongs the life of shoe soles substantially. The program will cover all types of shoes adaptable to sole leather treatment, since stress previously had been placed largely on men's work and dress shoes. Methods of treatment of women's shoe soles for use in the cemented type of women's shoes are the subject of research in the conservation program, and important results are expected, WPB said.

Policy On Church Meetings And Religious Gatherings Announced

The policy of the War Committee on conventions on Church meetings and religious gatherings is explained in a letter from the committee to the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Office of Defense Transportation announced. No permit is required for the holding of any meeting for religious worship or for ecclesiastical ceremony, the committee stated. No permit is required for any conference or meeting attended by not more than 50 persons from beyond the local conference zone, or, in the case of rural communities, from beyond the normal trading area of the locality in which the meeting is held. The committee said application must be made for permission to hold other types of church meetings.

Meetings of Auxiliary Groups Such As Women's Organizations, Youth Groups and Missionary Societies Held Concurrently With Church Legislative Conference Require Separate Applications for a Permit

Meetings of denominations that have no central governing body are not eligible for permits as church legislative meetings. Permits are required for meetings of missionary societies, organizations of laymen, and for ministers' conferences, youth group meetings and various other church auxiliary bodies. The policy of the committee is to deny such permits.

Church Camp and Summer Assemblies Following the Normal Vacation Pattern Do Not Require a Permit

But any convention or meeting held at a camp or summer assembly ground does require a permit.

New Ruling On Seed Potatoes Announced

Because of changes in the definitions of certified seed potatoes and "war approved" seed potatoes, each potato sold for table use must be sold as "tablestock" potatoes, as or below the ceiling prices established for table stock potatoes, OPA said. It has never been intended, OPA said that seed potatoes sold for table use should be sold at seed potato ceiling prices at any level of distribution. This action, which became effective March 24, 1945, is necessary because information received by OPA indicates that farmer-producers and carlot distributors of potatoes have been selling certified and "war approved" seed potatoes for table use at seed potato ceiling prices that are higher than the ceiling prices for table stock potatoes. Wholesalers and retailers have also been prohibited from selling certified or "war approved" seed potatoes at seed potato ceiling prices if the seed potatoes were diverted for ultimate table use.

Iron Castings Up-Rated To Aid Farm Machinery Production

To insure delivery of essential farm equipment, a limited volume of malleable iron castings need in the production of farm machinery and equipment will be up-rated to

AA-1, WPB Announced. Production of Farm Equipment (Exclusive of Repair Parts) is at Present About 20 Percent Behind Schedule, and Shortage of Malleable Iron Castings is One of the Chief Factors Retarding Production, WPB Said.

The up-rating to AA-1 is expected to result in a considerable improvement in meeting production schedules for the year July 1, 1944, to June 30, 1945.

Disabled Veterans Urged To Use Inter-Regional Recruitment Facilities

Disabled veterans are urged by WMC to take advantage of the inter-regional recruitment facilities offered by the U. S. Employment Service, thereby avoiding traveling great distances to find work only to learn that no suitable jobs are available in a given locality. Reports reaching the Veterans Employment Service of USES have shown that veterans attracted by "help wanted" advertisements in other localities have discovered that the work is not permanent or is only for a few days a week. WMC also pointed out that in a number of cases no housing has been available, and veterans have been forced to leave their families behind. Although veterans are not subject to job controls, USES is concerned about their future jobs and has provided a job counseling program and a system of selective placement, in addition to which the regular inter-regional recruitment program provides material assistance, officials stated. When a community is overcrowded and work prospects are poor, USES can suggest alternative places to which veterans may go and be certain of maximum employment opportunities, WMC said. Transportation of 1945 Crops Calls

For Truck Mileage Reduction

Transportation of 1945 crops and farm products, says ODT, poses serious difficulties for the nation's farmers and agricultural haulers unless further efforts are made to reduce and conserve trucking mileage. Manpower, equipment and tire shortages will be increasingly felt because of inductions into the armed forces, the steadily advancing age and deterioration of trucks and trailers and the tread-worn condition of large numbers of heavy duty tires. Less manpower and a reduced number of older trucks, ODT emphasized, will be available to haul approximately the same, and in some products, larger tonnages than were hauled in 1944. The WFA 1945 production goals call for the planting and harvesting of 300,000,000 acres of cultivated crops and 64,000,000 acres of hay. It is also expected that 135,000,000 head of livestock will be slaughtered. During 1944, ODT said, the greatest harvest of agricultural products ever produced by the American farmer: Livestock, poultry, milk, fruit, vegetables, grains, etc., was successfully moved from producing areas without any loss due to lack of trucking transportation.

They Don't Know Where To Go For This Wedding!

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haymes have received an invitation to a wedding on April 14th, but they don't know where to go for the event. The censor saw to that! The invitation read:

"The honor of your presence is requested at the wedding of Cpl. Emily George Greer, U. S. M. C. M. R., to Sgt. Norman Sidney Stogner, U. S. M. C., on Saturday, April 14th, nineteen hundred and forty-five at 1100, Post Chapel, Marine Barracks..." and there the censor went to work.

The wedding is to be followed by a reception at the Sergeant's Club—wherever that is.

Cpl. Greer is a former Munday girl and was known here as Betsy Greer. She is serving with the Marine Corps somewhere in the Pacific.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

Washington, D. C., March 23.—Among bills passed by the House of Representatives this week was one extending selective service, and another making annual appropriations to the Department of Agriculture.

Selective Service was extended until July, 1946, unless sooner terminated by Presidential proclamation or by an act of Congress. The draft extension bill as presented to the House was not subject to amendment. There is one provision of the draft law in particular with which some of us have been greatly displeased. Under selective service, deferments are subtracted, and state quotas fixed on the number of remaining eligibles. This has required numerically greater contributions from states having the fewest deferments.

The Agriculture appropriation bill has grown into a voluminous document. More than 1800 pages of testimony were presented to the House. Although the bill as passed by the House reduces the budget estimate 141 million dollars, it still appropriates the enormous sum of 975 million dollars to run the Department of Agriculture for the next fiscal year.

Some 30 Baptist churches in the City of Washington are now engaged in evangelistic campaigns. On Sunday night Baptist members were especially invited to hear Major William C. Taggart, Chaplain, at the Luther Rice Memorial Baptist church. Congressmen Beckwith, Summers, and I attended the service, and it was my pleasure to have Chaplain Taggart as a luncheon guest in the capitol on Monday, following his delivery of the invocation on the opening of the Senate. Incidentally, Bill Taggart calls Wichita Falls home, and was pastor of a small church there when he entered the Army Chaplain Corps. Taggart served in Java, and credits the Lost Battalion with saving the lives of himself and others who escaped Java to Australia. He ministered to the famous 19th Bombardment Squadron in the early days of the war. He has been decorated for bravery, and at one time saved a 75-vehicle convoy from falling into Jap hands. He is best known as author of the book, "My Fighting Congregation."

Speaking of religion, the 23 members of the Texas delegation, 21 representatives and two senators, have various religious faiths. Seven are Baptists, seven Methodists, three belong to the Christian church, two are Presbyterians, one Episcopalian, one Catholic, and one Universalist. In Capitol cloakrooms one frequently hears debates on what should be done with leading war criminals. This week's statement of a famous English cleric that Hitler should be hanged without trial has provoked some discussion. That Hitler should be hanged seems to be a matter on which most agree. The nature and extent of the trial which should be afforded him is a matter of debate. Personally, I favor a method attributed to the Chinese in a particular case. A

Gen. Eisenhower Medal for Boy Scouts

As waste paper continues to be one of the nation's critical shortages, the War Production Board, through its chairman, J. A. Krug, has called upon the nation's 1,866,356 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and their leaders to collect 150,000 tons of waste paper during March and April. Last year when asked to collect 100,000 tons, the Boy Scouts of America collected 117,000 tons.

Every member who collects 1,000 pounds of waste paper (wastebasket scraps, brown bags, wrapping paper, corrugated and cardboard boxes and cartons, magazines, books and newspapers) will receive the Boy Scout-General Eisenhower Waste Paper Campaign Medal shown above. The medal, in bronze, is suspended from a red and white ribbon.

Every Cub Pack, Boy Scout Troop or Senior Scout Unit which collects waste paper equivalent to 1,000 pounds per boy member, will receive a genuine shell case returned from a European battlefield after use which will contain a printed citation by Gen. Eisenhower. The paper used in these 75-mm. shell containers or larger, has been specially processed and cannot be used again.

morning newspaper said, "San Lung will be tried for treason at 10 o'clock; the execution will be at two."

On Hirohito there is more disagreement. Under Secretary of State Grew, ex-ambassador to Japan, reported on his return to Washington that Hirohito was opposed to the war and tried to prevent it. Some point out that to the Japanese Hirohito is a god and the head of their religion, and would, therefore, be worth more to us alive on a hollow throne than martyred on a scaffold. We hope time will quickly settle these problems for us.

On of the oldest defense institutions in America, and one about which little is generally known, is the Coast Guard. The United States Coast Guard Academy, maintained at New London, Connecticut, is very similar to the Army's West Point and the Navy's Annapolis, except that admission is on the basis of competitive examination. In peacetime the Coast Guard has such duties as the international ice patrol, the weather patrol, enforcement of maritime laws such as preventing smuggling, rescues at sea, etc. Graduates of the Academy are given degrees of Bachelor of Science, and are usually commissioned as Ensigns with the same rank and pay as Ensigns in the Navy and Second Lieutenants in the Army.

My secretary, Zeno Phillips, has been on active service with the Seabees for more than two years. In his absence Mrs. Ruth Pool, whose husband, Lt. Col. S. M. Pool, Jr., is on duty with the Army Air Force in Italy, has been acting as Congressional secretary. She and three other young ladies now do the clerical work in this office. While I am at home for Easter she will write this column from notes which I will leave or will send her. Having at one time been news editor of a small daily paper, she ought to be able to "pinch hit" in my absence.

BOYS TRY HYBRID SWEET CORN

Production, adaptability, and maturity dates of two rows of hybrid sweet corn are being checked this spring by 4-H Club boys in Callahan County. The corn will be canned for home use.

Aristogold Bantam No. 1 and Bantam Evergreen are the varieties being planted. County Agricultural Agent W. M. Meador says a plot of each was planted on similar ground March 1, and additional plots of each will be seeded April. Two weeks after the corn is up it is being fertilized with 4-12-4 fertilizer at the rate of one pound for every 100 feet of row.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caughran spent the week end in Lubbock, visiting with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. M. H. Caughran, and with other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tooley and son of Haskell were visitors in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Don R. Davidson over the week end.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

by BOYCE HOUSE

You can have adventure as an editor of a small-town weekly. Like the time an airplane made a forced landing in a field a short distance from our town, a long time ago. I walked out there and, after getting the story, had started away when a tall, middle-aged man asked, "Would you like to ride back to town?" Then he added, "It ain't much," so I suppose he had a wagon but it turned out to be a mare hitched to a sulky. Have you ever climbed into one of those things? They look alright just to look at, but the seat is narrow with no back and there's nothing much between your legs and the ground.

"Giddap," said the driver and the animal started at a brisk pace. "Git along," he said, and the mare increased her speed. "Let's travel," he commanded, touching her with the whip and we passed all the flivvers on the gravel road. It was more breath-taking than a ride in an open plane or on the back-step of a racing police patrol.

"Just let me out anywhere, I gasped as we reached the business section. Afterward I learned that mare was a consistent winner in all the county fairs thereabouts, being able to trot a mile in a shade over two minutes. And you just try going at a 30-mile an hour trot sometime in a steel spider-web kind of contraption like that.

Being young, I took my duties as editor with great solemnity and dignity. The Banner got in a controversy with the Post in our rival city and the Post said, "The young editor of our neighborhood town needs a few doses of grandmother's soothing syrup." To which drew the retort, "We rejoice that there is nothing more serious the matter with us but what can be healed by a simple, household remedy, whereas until science discovers a cure for lunacy, our contemporary must remain in his present hopeless and helpless condition."

Of the paper's community correspondents, easily the outstanding one was a storekeeper-philosopher who would write such an item as "Sam Smithers is keeping company with a beautiful Chinese lady in a neighboring city, object matrimony. It is believed this will aid the League of Nations."

Or: "Hiram Queak refused to chop wood for the cook-stove and bases his refusal on Scripture, 'What God hath joined together let no man put asunder.'"

Mrs. J. C. Walling, the former Miss Louise Moore, who has returned to Munday to make her home with her mother, Mrs. Amy Moore, while her husband is serving with the armed forces overseas, is undergoing medical treatment at the Knox county hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jetton had as their guests last week their daughter-in-law, Jean, and grandson, Roger Dean Jetton, of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Hal Pendleton and little daughter spent several days last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sanders of Haskell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore and Mrs. A. H. Mitchell were business visitors in Wichita Falls last Thursday.

Gen. Eisenhower To Give Awards For Paper Drive

Boy Scouts of Munday are joining with other Scouts and Leaders throughout the United States in an effort to collect 150,000 tons of waste paper during March and April.

Recognizing that waste paper continues to be one of the nation's critical shortages, the War Production Board, through its chairman, J. A. Krug, called upon the Boy Scouts of America to collect wastebasket scraps, brown bags, wrapping paper, corrugated and cardboard boxes and cartons, magazines, books and newspapers.

The campaign is sponsored by General Dwight D. Eisenhower because he knows personally of the great need for waste paper in the war effort.

A General Eisenhower-Boy Scout Waste Paper Campaign Medal will be given to each Cub Scout or Boy Scout who collects 1,000 pounds of waste paper during the two months. The medal, suspended from a red and white ribbon, bears a likeness of General Eisenhower with the inscription "War Service 1945" and "Boy Scout-General Eisenhower Waste Paper Campaign." On the reverse of the medal is the inscription, "Awarded for extraordinary patriotic achievement in the Boy Scout Gen. Eisenhower Campaign, March-April, 1945.

A genuine shell case that carried a 75mm. shell or larger and that has been returned from a European battlefield after use will be awarded Prisoners and forced to be a shield for about 75 Germans. By a ruse and lost as a, Miller and his buddy reversed the process and, four hours later, went into camp with 15 of their captors as prisoners.

Lt. Edgar L. Murff, Jr., of Norman added the DFC to his air medal and six clusters the hard way. His liberator plane was so badly shot up in a mission over the Siegfried Line that it appeared almost impossible to fly. All his radio equipment was shot away. Yet, flying on little more than "a wing and a prayer", Lt. Murff took his plane back home. He had two similar experiences over Hamburg and Cologne.

And now with American troops on the move up through Germany, the USO—to which Texans contributed through their record subscription to the United War Chest last fall—is following the combat units with entertainment to relieve the strain when the men have rest periods. USO-Camps Show units often give performances within sound of the guns.

A Llano marine, Pfc. William G. Kurn, had the honor of firing the first shell on the island of Iwo Jima. He was a member of the gun crew which not only fired the shell, but which braved Jap fire to drag the gun ashore.

Another Texan, Lt. Kenneth L. Caskey, Weatherford, won distinction on Iwo Jima as commander of a company of "bang-happy" engineers who were largely instrumental in capturing Mount Suribachi.

Again, Texans decorated are too numerous to be listed in a short column. But a few who have won medals for valor include: T/Sgt. Eugene Q. Robinson, Plano; Sgt. Loda D. Herring, Bonham; S/Sgt. Joe H. Harriet, Kilgore; Maj. Joe B. Smartt, Rockwall.

Cowboy Reunion At Stamford To Open July 2nd

W. G. Swenson, president of the Texas Cowboy Reunion, Inc., announced the dates for the 1945 rodeo as the 2nd, 3rd, & 4th of July, after a directors meeting held in the office of the Stamford Chamber of Commerce.

The directors announced that none of the usual activities of the rodeo would be dropped and that they were expecting the 1945 performance to exceed all previous years in scope and color.

The gala parade will be held on the opening day only, beginning around 11 o'clock a. m. Mounted cowboys, cowgirl sponsors, bands, chuckwagons and colorful floats compose the parade.

The various committees are being appointed to work out the details of each activity, all of which will be given wide advanced publicity in order that all may make plans to participate in Texas' most unique show.

This year will mark the 15th annual holding of the Texas Cowboy Reunion Rodeo. The rodeo did not operate in 1943, but came back last year with a two day show instead of the usual three days and equaling the attendance and entry records of the best of previous years. This year's three day show is expected to break all records, both in entries and attendance.

The American Quarter Horse Show is again being invited as well as the popular Cowgirl Sponsor Contest and the Old Time Fiddlers.

Work or school shoes may be preserved by sparing use of floor wax, warm tallow, wool grease, or castor oil, according to home economics research of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Weekly Health LETTER

Issued by Dr. Geo. W. Cox M. D., State Health Officer of Texas

Austin — Additional full-time research is necessary if health work in Texas is to meet the requirements demanded of it, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

Texas is expanding industrially, and new problems are constantly arising regarding water, sewage disposal, transmission of disease, and many other problems. New developments of ideas and processes in treatment devices in water, sewage, milk, and food are needed.

New diseases of foreign origin, especially tropical diseases, will be present in the post-war era, and the State Department of Health must be in a position to combat them. It will be necessary to train returning waterworks and sewage personnel and sanitarians, who have physical impairments, as technicians in their field of work.

Much can be done to prevent future illness and prevent loss of man days in labor if activities are started immediately so that knowledge of their control can be given to all citizens of the state.
