Look To The East

By AARON EDGAR

We received a blow to our lifestyle recently.

And that's where a blow hurts the most!

You see, lifestyles are not formed instantly. They are a result of constantly practicing a habit—or we think so.

The particular lifestyle we are referring to came as a result of doing the same thing, day in and day out, over a period of many years. After so long, a habit fails to be a habit, but becomes a lifestyle!

Earlier in life, we formed the habit of going after the mail first thing after breakfast every morning. There was rarely an alteration, except maybe when we were sick abed. If possible, we had someone perform this chore for us in such instances.

This has gone on for many years. Finally, better than a half-century of this practice, we didn't regard such foolishness as a habit. It was a lifestyle.

Sometimes we found our post office box empty, but this was an exception rather than the rule. Not that we were so popular as to receive daily letters or correspondence of some sort, but there was always the daily paper.

Well, it isn't going to happen any more!

It will be stopped, and there will be no need to go to the post office, unless our lifestyle returns to becoming a habit! On certain days, our post office box will be as empty as last year's bird nest!

The blow that came was in the realization that our lifestyle will have to be changed. City dwellers usually don't form such a lifestyle. You see, they receive their mail by home delivery. All they have to do is sit on the porch and watch. If the mailman doesn't stop, it's almost a certainty there was no mail.

One morning recently, we opened our mail box and found a little slip of paper some 8½ inches in length and 1½ inches wide. On it was typed the short, but explosive message:

"Effective July 1, 1982, mail will no longer be boxed on Sundays and holidays." This was followed by the word, "Postmaster."

"We certainly didn't like that little message you put in our mailbox," we said to Dolores Lambeth after having a day or two to get over the shock.

"We didn't like it, either," she replied, "but there is nothing we can do about it." She then went on to explain the reason:

The time has come for renewing the truckers' contracts, and they indicated there would be no contract unless the postal service eliminated Sunday delivery to post offices. This involves every Sunday, and the holidays named are: July 4, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years.

She went on to explain that we are among the last to be dealt such a blow. Other towns had not received post office service on Sunday for some time.

She explained, too, that such a deviation from normal mail service to us had to be okayed by higher-ups, and the problem was not with the local post office employees.

It seems that labor just made a mandate: No trucking on Sundays and holidays, or no contract!

It was just a matter of "if you can't whip 'em, join 'em."

The woman of our house didn't become nearly as upset as we were—and she's the one who thinks it isn't Sunday unless she received the Dallas paper!

She remarked that we'll just have to get used to it. "Yeah," we says, "just like we get used to daylight saving time." Our annual beef is that when the "spring forward" time arrives, we have to run our timepieces ahead one hour.

We may not do much reading on Sundays, but we'll still get some news via radio and television. It may be inconvenient to read Sunday's papers on Monday, if we find the time to do so; but, what the heck?

We've never been promised a rose garden, you know!

In the 1600's, the average American wife had 13 children.

Roberson Elected To Commissioner's Post

The only local contest to hold interest for Knox County voters in last Saturday's Democratic run-off primary was for Commissioner of Precinct Two in Knox County.

Wayne Sutton earned a spot on the ballot for this runoff post in the Democratic Primary on Saturday, May 1, and faced incumbent Bobby Roberson, who was seeking re-election.

Roberson was victorious over Sutton in last Saturday's runoff by the narrow margin of 13 votes, according to county-wide returns furnished The Courier by the County Clerk's office in Benjamin.

The sale will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 17-18-19, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Smith building, 120 Main St.

Quite a bit of interest is being shown in the donation of items for this sale. Heading the list will be various items of furniture formerly used by the First National Bank in Munday. Other items needed include men's and women's clothing, old furniture, radios, small electrical appliances, wall pictures, etc. Donors are asked to please bring hangers for suits, dresses, and such items.

Barbara Ratliff, sale co-ordinator, reports good response from those asked to help out, and that a group will be on hand Tuesday to receive the items. Mrs. Howard (Scooter) Cook of Quannah will assist in arranging and pricing the various sale items.

People are urged to make plans to attend the sale. You may find something you can't do without!

"Space Capers" Summer Reading Program Theme

"Space Capers" has been chosen by the Texas Reading Club for the theme of the children's summer reading program. The City-County Library in Munday has several new space books to add to the interest of summer readers. A large selection of other new books has also been received.

A reading certificate will be awarded to each child completing ten books. Preschool children can also participate with the cooperation of their parents. The pre-school child gets credit for any book read to him/her.

Mrs. Edith Hobert, librarian, stated, "As an added feature, each child, after reading ten books on their reading level, can choose their favorite and draw a poster depicting the particular book. The posters will be displayed on the wall in the hallway of the library. We invite the youngsters of this area to join in the reading program this summer."

The Texas Reading Club has, for over twenty years, been reaching out to communities all over the state, bringing books and libraries to a growing number of children. Knox County citizens are privileged to have a very well stocked library located in Munday for their use and are welcome to visit it Monday through Friday in the mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and in the afternoons from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. The telephone number is 422-4877.

Cabbage, Onion Harvest Begins

Harvesting of both cabbage and onions being grown in the Munday area was started this week.

Crews began harvesting cabbage on the C. H. Herring place at Rhineland, which is a portion of some 60 acres being grown near Munday.

Dr. A. Dale Selzer, who owns the old D. A. Melton place midway between Munday and Goree, said Ray and Glenn Herring have about 30 acres in cabbage, and will begin harvesting this crop next week.

Onions are being grown principally by James Smith and Herb Partridge; however, it was reported that Joe Lynn Phillips has acreage in both these vegetables growing on his place.

Knox County Hospital Now Providing Physical Therapy

David Morton, licensed physical therapist assistant, reported for duty at Knox County Hospital on June 3 and immediately began seeing patients.

Mr. Morton is with Tinsley Physical Therapy Incorporated based in Houston. This firm will be providing physical therapy needs for out-patients as well as patients confined to the hospital on physician referral.

Presently Mr. Morton is working from a temporary area in the hospital, but in approximately two weeks, pending the arrival of equipment, the physical therapy department will be housed in the newly constructed area in the east wing of the hospital.

A whirlpool for burn patients and others in need will be a part of the up-to-date equipment available. Treatment will be provided for fractured hips and other broken bones, gait training and exercise for stroke victims, and treatment for lower back problems, to name a few of the types of problems which will benefit from the therapy.

Mr. Morton stated, "We will be employing an aide to assist me in the physical therapy department. We will work with a patient twice daily, seven days a week, and we will have a very well equipped department - one the people in this area will be pleased with."

This is the first time physical therapy has been available to patients in the Knox County Hospital and in this area through the hospital. It is a definite advantage to have this type treatment available, as it has proven to be beneficial to so many types of patient problems. The hours for the PT department will be 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Mr. Morton and his wife, Sherri, and their two children have moved to Knox City.

Attend Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Matthews visited her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Groves on Thursday of last week and traveled on to Katy in the Houston area to the home of Hank's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Alexander.

The Matthews family together was held in the Alexander home this year, with nine of the eleven brothers and sisters present.

Hit And Run Victims Befriended

A couple from Eunice, New Mexico, was traveling south through Munday shortly before 10 p.m. on Monday night in their late model Dodge pickup when the driver of a truck turned north at the City Hall intersection and crossed over into the pickup's lane, causing the truck to collide with the pickup. The driver of the truck, according to witnesses, got out momentarily, then returned to the truck and drove off.

Munday Ambulance service transported the woman to Haskell Memorial Hospital where she was examined and released. With their pickup undrivable and Knox City and Munday motels filled, the couple spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Brown. Their son came for them on Tuesday.

The incident was investigated by Melvin Cypert of the Munday Police Department, who stated, "It is going to be difficult for us to find the truck as witnesses did not agree on the description. However, we do have everyone on the look-out for the truck in Knox and surrounding counties, so it is possible we will come up with surrounding counties, so it was copied down but apparently was in error as it did not check out."

Charles Kirschner of Austin spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kirschner, and with his sister, Mrs. Bill Fitzgerald and children.

Hightower Urges Complete Reform

Congressman Jack Hightower is urging immediate reform of the Federal Crop Insurance Program, saying "what we need is a program that protects the farmers from events over which they have no control, with as little cost to the taxpayer as possible." Hightower was

Local Men's Softball Results

In the men's league it has been difficult to always have enough players on the teams as it is such a busy time of the year for many. When this happens the team that is short of players forfeits with a standing 1-0 score on the books.

On Friday, June 4, the Weevils forfeited to the Raiders; Weinert beat out Knox Prairie 19-7; and the First National team won over the Desperados 11-1.

Monday night of this week, Weinert was forced to forfeit to First National; Knox Prairie won by a forfeit from the Weevils; and the Raiders beat the Desperados 23-6.

These games are played on the Munday field west of Munday High School each Monday and Friday night beginning at 8 p.m.

Senior League Active

The boys Senior League baseball team in Munday had two games last week. They beat Knox City on Tuesday night, June 1, 22-3, and then traveled to Stamford for a 16-8 win on Saturday night. They played the Rule/Rochester team in Munday on Tuesday evening, too late for press this week. Local people can see these boys play in Munday at 8 p.m. this Friday when they again oppose Knox City.

The boys are being coached this year by Freddie Caram and Tony Shawver. Players are Terry Shields, Jerry Shields, Ronnie Lowrance, Neil Waggoner, Todd Thompson, Dent Offutt, Scotty Jackson, Russell Smith, Frankie Stinnett, Kregg Sanders, Shannon Forehand, J. B. Jones, Tim Collier and Louis Perez. Sanders, Forehand and Perez are from Weinert.

Local Ladies Softball Team In Tourney

Even though the Munday ladies have only been able to practice their softball techniques very little this far this year, they entered the Sager-ton tournament last weekend and placed second. Due to a wet field at Sager-ton, the tournament was played at Rule. The Mean Greens from Haskell placed first, and third place went to the James Wade Implement team of Stamford.

Other teams entered were Rochester, Haskell Pinks, Sager-ton and Aspermont.

Jessie Andrade is again coaching the ladies team. It is the group of ladies called the Lady Bug team last year, but they have not decided on a definite name as of yet. In fact, they are still in the process of organizing. The ladies who were available for the tournament will not all be able to play the complete season.

Players in the weekend tournament included Delores Stewart, Laura Myers, Kelli Smith, Pam Caram, Janet Yates, Judy Andrade and her sister, Lena, Holly Hutchinson, Cindy Reynolds, Linda Yates, Yolanda Esquivel and Darla Myers. Kristi Smith does plan to be a part of the team but was unable to play at Rule.

A spokesman for the team said, "We were short a player on Saturday and a Rule lady came to our rescue. We are not really organized as of yet, but we love to play and we will definitely have a team."

testifying before the Senate Subcommittee on Agriculture Production, Marketing and Stabilization of Prices. The subcommittee was chaired by Senator Thad Cochran (R-Miss.) who was conducting oversight hearings on the nationwide program.

Hightower has long been critical of both the administration of the program and of misleading advertisements urging farmers to "expand your operation, borrow more money and sign up for federal crop insurance" during a time of extreme hardship for American agriculture.

Hightower and other key witnesses said that the present crop insurance program is wrongly administered and imposes additional economic hardships on the farmer when it ought to be helping him. Hightower has pointed out that the program, for example, collects premiums, not at harvest time, but early in the year before a crop is in, and that high interest of 18 percent is charged for overdue premiums. Hightower says these are just two of the things that make it extremely difficult for farmers to utilize the program effectively.

The Texas congressman has also pointed out that farmers tell him some insurance appraisers underestimate frequently the extent of crop losses and the farmer is again the loser.

"I felt that the disaster program would be better for the farmer than the expanded crop insurance program, but that's history," Hightower told the committee.

"The farmer must have a way to protect himself from the extremes of Mother Nature, and the Crop Insurance program is the only game in town at this time. I think it can, and it must, be administered in a proper way so as to protect both the farmer and the taxpayer," Hightower said.

Hightower went on to warn that "the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation should not forget that it is publicly chartered and has a responsibility that is far greater than that of a private company." Because of widespread disenchantment with the current program among farmers, some experts have estimated that the Texas participation rate is as low as 9 percent statewide. Over the past several months, Hightower has met with farmers, farm groups and crop insurance officials to press for specific improvements in the program.

Parsonage Family Arrives Wednesday

Members of the congregations of the Munday-Goree Methodist Churches were ready to receive their new "parsonage family", Rev. and Mrs. Don Travis, when they arrived late Wednesday afternoon.

YOUR TELEPHONE SERVICE - A REAL BARGAIN

All things considered, talking is a real bargain. The chart below shows how your telephone costs compare against other goods and services you use daily.

* Away from home
 Basic local service in GTSW's Texas exchanges

Frequently, the convenience of the telephone is taken for granted. For instance, a few things you use your phone for:

1. Shop ahead, save gas.
2. Make appointments (doctor, sales calls, lawyer, preacher)
3. Emergencies (police, fire, ambulance)
4. Talking with loved ones in other towns
5. Conducting business via long-distance, save on travel cost
6. Calling scout troop, civic club, little league team, etc.
7. Visit with a friend across town.

Talk is cheap and also a real bargain. For a true picture, divide your basic local service rate by the days in the month. For just pennies a day, excluding long distance and special services, you have your town at your fingertips.

Home Canning Equipment
(1st in Series)

A few dollars spent now for canning equipment will enable you to enjoy garden-fresh fruits and vegetables next winter. Proper equipment for home canning is an absolute necessity. One of the major reasons for spoilage of home-canned foods is faulty or improper equipment.

JARS
Use only standard jars imprinted with the manufacturer's name. Canning jars are available in half-pint, pint and quart sizes and with narrow or wide mouth openings.

Check tops of jars for cracks, chips and dents. Discard those with defects that would prevent an airtight seal.

DANGER: Do not use mayonnaise, peanut butter or other commercial jars. These are not tempered to withstand the heat treatment and may not properly seal.

LIDS
A two-piece, self-seal lid is the most commonly used lid. It has a metal disk and a metal ring and is self-sealing as the jar cools after processing. The top of the jar must have a smooth edge to make a seal. The metal disk can be used only once, but the ring may be used more than one time.

REMINDER: New types of lids manufactured by companies new to the business have entered the market. Lids should meet home canning requirements for sealing properly and holding a seal in handling and storage. Follow manufacturer's instructions to insure proper seal.

Cracks in lid seals and mildew on lids may result from improper storage. For mildew, wash lids in soapy water and boil 5 minutes. Lids with cracked sealing compound should be returned to the manufacturer.

Home Canning Equipment

Water bath canner - any large kettle with straight sides, a tight fitting lid and a rack to keep the jars off the bottom of the kettle can be used for a water bath canner. It should be deep enough to hold the jars upright and permit the water to boil gently one to two inches over the top of them.

The boiling water bath is recommended for canning fruits, fruit juices, tomatoes, tomato juice, rhubarb and pickled vegetables.

Pressure Canner - the pressure canner method is necessary for processing all non-acid vegetables and other non-acid foods in order to prevent possible spoilage and/or botulism.

Pressure canners are equipped with a dial or weighted gauge. Dial gauges should be tested at least once a year. Petcocks and safety valves control the escape of steam from a pressure canner.

Pressure canners should also be tested to be sure they are airtight to prevent loss of pressure and steam. Gaskets that have hardened may need to be replaced.

Pressure saucepans of adequate size with an indicator or gauge which operates accurately at 10 pounds pressure may be used for canning small amounts of vegetables.

DANGER: Do not use the following canning methods for fruit and vegetables. These methods do not insure complete destruction of spoilage organisms and some additives may not be safe for human consumption:

Open kettle, oven canning, microwave canning, some acidification methods of low-acid vegetables, canning powders, compounds or antibiotics.

For more information on canning, contact your county Extension office. We have various publications on canning and would be glad to share them with you.

Farm And Ranch Report

Cattle Crossbreeding Discussed

Cattlemen should plan a crossbreeding program with a specific purpose in mind.

Crossbreeding can be used to provide increased vigor or capacity for growth. Breed characteristics can be matched and combined for your specific market, feed supply and other resources distinct to your operation.

The germplasm base for beef cattle production in the U. S. has been expanded considerably in the last ten years. This increase has resulted primarily from development of appropriate quarantine facilities and procedures in Canada.

The use of European breeds in a crossbreeding program has resulted in a substantial increase in weaning weights. These increases are due to the advantages of hybrid vigor on survival and growth of F1 calves and advantages of maternal heterosis on reproduction and maternal ability of crossbred cows.

The crossbred cows contribute more than 50% to the increase in performance. The use of Zebu and European breeds result in ever higher levels of hybrid vigor.

However, faster gaining breed groups generally have heavier birth weights and higher levels of calving difficulty. Incidence of calving difficulty can be a serious problem in cows calving at two and three years of age. If efforts are made to avoid using bulls with excessive birth weights, the calving difficulty is not a serious problem in the younger cows.

Breed groups reaching the small degree of marbling in the fewest days tended to be the most efficient to the grade and point of USDA choice. Evaluation to a grade and point of USDA choice assumes that feeding to a small degree of marbling is justified in terms of improving eating quality, an assumption not documented in evaluation of flavor, juiciness and tenderness by trained sensory panels.

Difference among breed groups are large for marbling scores had higher fat trim and lower retail product percentages. Research has indicated there is limited opportunity through breeding to increase marbling without reducing yield of retail product.

Research has shown that steers from fatter gaining breed groups use feed more efficiently from weaning to slaughter and produce carcasses with a higher percentage of retail product when compared at the same weight or age end points.

To maximize your beef production, it is important to match the crossbreeding system and the breed characteristics with the feed resources available in Knox County.

High Protein Grass Is Not An Accident

Which grass has the best protein content for use in Knox County?

Actually, protein content of a grass is influenced mainly by two factors: amount of fertilizer it receives and stage of maturity.

Fertilizer increases protein content. Nitrogen has been recognized for a long time to be important. The more nitrogen applied, the higher the protein content. Phosphorus, potassium, sulfur and other nutrients are also important for improving protein content in grass.

All soils in Knox County are inherently low in nitrogen, and many also are tices influence growth rate on all grasses.

Numerous forage demonstrations have been conducted in recent years and results of these are available at the county Extension office.

Highway Improvements Include Knox

Work in Knox County is included in a major highway rehabilitation and safety program approved by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission.

District Engineer Lewis H. White said the work in this area is part of a continuing effort to modernize and increase the safety characteristics of roads and highways which are worn out or inadequate for today's traffic.

Area projects include U. S. 82 in Benjamin, south to Haskell county line.

The 1983 State Highway Safety and Betterment and Farm to Market Road Improvement program will provide improvements to 3,908 miles of highways.

The program included 656 projects in 198 counties in the state.

Gray Family Reunion Held At Ballinger

On June 5 and 6, members of the Gray clan found themselves heading for Ballinger City Park, where for five years their reunion has been held since the Cisco Park was disbanded.

This was the 30th year that family members have met, coming from long distances to enjoy the company of each other. Games and just plain talk were enjoyed as cameras clicked on every corner for pictures which will be filed away to be remembered in years to come.

Many did not get to attend, due to sickness, and these were deeply missed. A good time was enjoyed by the following members:

Melvin and Betty Gray, Randy and Jamie Gray, Tigard, Ore.; Debra Jo, Kenn, Megan Rose and Tawnya Baker, Sherwood, Ore.; Derald and Elma Gray, Hale Center; Eloise and Bob Buschman, Timothy and Celeste Byrd, Lufkin; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Gray, Munday;

Also Lynn, Sheree, Amanda and Crystal Gray, Granbury; Gregory Gene, Andrea and Geoffrey Gray, Electra; Ora Ella Carr, Clifton; Jeffrey Carr, Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Henderson, Ft. Worth; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cook, Dallas; Loyd Zack, Evelyn and Tammie, Weatherford; Betty Jo, Bobby and children, Mesquite; Mr. and Mrs. Mac McMahan, Phyllis and Tiphonie Jone, Big Spring.

YARD OF THE WEEK selection of the Munday Garden Club judges goes to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Moorhouse. The lovely hydrangea in full bloom and a beautiful lily filled with blossoms were the determining factors. The overall neatness of the yard is always pleasant to the eye. The Moorhouse residence is located at 530 West Main.

Senior Citizens Meet

by Virginia Cary, reporter

The Munday Senior Citizens held their monthly meeting June 3, 1982, in the Community Center with D. E. Whitworth, president, presiding.

Opening prayer was voiced by Leona Blankenship, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance given in unison.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given with 22 members registered.

Motion was made by Leona Blankenship and seconded by Virginia Cary to elect three members to form a program committee. Those elected were Ruby Roden, Ella Gresham and Frankie Ponder. They were elected by acclamation.

Bera Spann showed a picture of herself holding a large fish she had caught, stating she wanted to show what a senior citizen could do. Ella Gresham read several jokes that all enjoyed.

Game nights will be June 10 and 17, and the 24 will be for singing.

Due to a short business meeting, the remainder of the morning was spent singing from our song books, with Eunice Raynes at the piano and Bera Spann leading the songs.

Grace for the noon meal was voiced by Eunice Raynes. A delicious covered dish meal was enjoyed, followed by a period of fellowship.

The meeting adjourned to meet again July 1, 1982, at 10:30 a.m. Any senior citizen is invited to attend and will be welcomed.

Relatives began arriving Friday to attend the annual Rodgers reunion, which was held at the Munday Community Center on Sunday, June 6.

A catered lunch with an abundance of delicious food was served at the noon hour, and the remainder of the time was spent in visiting, recalling old times, picture making and learning of happenings in the family during the past year.

Gill and Ina Wyatt were honored guests at the reunion, as they were the oldest family members present. They were in the hospital several days last week, but were dismissed on Saturday and were able to attend the get-together for a while.

Another Munday resident, Claudia Harrell, also enjoyed the reunion, even though she was only an in-law!

About 40 relatives assembled for this enjoyable event, coming from Lubbock, Houston, Gatesville, Dallas, Fort Worth, Corpus Christi and other places.

Plans Complete For 52nd Texas Cowboy Reunion

Eugene C. Swenson, president of Texas Cowboy Reunion, Inc., announced that the Otwell twins, Merle Travis and Dawn Glass and a special Bob Wills revue will highlight the entertainment portion of the 52nd annual Texas Cowboy Reunion in Stamford, June 30-July 3, 1982.

July 1 area entertainment will be a special Bob Wills salute featuring Leon Rausch and Bill Mounce and the popular Texas Panthers. Rausch and Mounce were longtime members of the original Bob Wills' Texas Playboys, and have carefully preserved the traditional Bob Wills sound that delighted the nation for decades.

The Otwell twins from Tullia have been seen by more than 50 million viewers each week as regulars for the past five years on the Lawrence Welk show. The Otwells have also been featured on the annual Rehab telecast for the West Texas Rehabilitation Center for the past three years. They will perform during the rodeo performance Friday, July 2.

The final night of the rodeo, July 3, will team Country Music Hall of Famer Merle Travis with fast-rising recording artist Dawn Glass. Merle Travis is known around the world for the clever, lilting lyrics he has put to over three thousand of his compositions such as "Divorce Me C.O.D.", "So Round, So Firm, So Fully Packed", "Fat Gal"

"Double Talking Baby", and the block busting "Smoke, Smoke Smoke That Cigarette" and "Sixteen Tons". Dawn Glass works Las Vegas three times a year, but spends much of her time playing dates in Texas and Louisiana. Her latest album, "Sunshine and Lollypops" on RCA records, showcases her considerable talent with music.

In addition to performing in the arena, Leon Rausch and the Texas Panthers will play the rodeo dance following each rodeo performance June 30-July 3. The Texas Panthers will also back the Otwell twins, Merle Travis and Dawn Glass for their performances and the rodeo dance.

A host of activities are set for the eve of the 52nd annual Texas Cowboy Reunion. On Tuesday, June 29, the works of thirty-six of the top western artists in the nation will be unveiled during the ninth annual Stamford Art Foundation Collectors Preview in the John Selmon Memorial Gallery. All proceeds from the preview and sales of art benefit the West Texas Rehabilitation Center. Earlier in the day the annual Rehab Quarter Horse Sale will be held on the Reunion grounds.

As always, the Texas Cowboy Reunion Tradition includes the world's largest amateur rodeo, as well as a variety of activities such as rodeo events for old timers, a fiddlers contest and the traditional parade.

Bloodmobile Receives 40 Donors On Monday

The emergency bloodmobile in Munday this week received 40 donors. Co-chairmen Margaret Moore and Latrece Lane were very complimentary of the area people as the equipment unit was late arriving in Munday. It was 4:15 p.m. when registering began, as opposed to the scheduled time of 2:45. Workers completed their task about 7 p.m. Forty-two prospective donors actually registered, with two unable to give.

Curtis Taylor, Rickie Taylor and Robert Hunter of local Boy Scout Troop 71, under the leadership of Charlie Cooks, unloaded equipment. Marshall Jeffcoat, Floyd Reed Sr., Frank Dutton and Leland Floyd, who were waiting to be donors, assisted the scouts.

Canteen workers included Ernestine Dickerson, Elaine Gulley and Margaret Moore. Jean Allen and Paula Schur handled registration. Brenda Smith worked the bags and Charlotte Jackson worked with the cards.

Licensed volunteers for the day were Rene Reed, R.N., and Theda Jackson and Beth Nickerson, both L.V.N.'s, from Goree.

First time donors were Nancy Alexander, Frances Brown, Leona Elliott and Monty Booe.

Food donors were Mmes. Rita Hughes, Irene Earle, Ruth Ishmael, Linda Beth Jackson, Dimple Jetton of Goree, Leon Johnson, June Kane, Bobbie Kegley, Carla Key, Marjorie Key, Vera Killian, Jerry King, Marjorie

Kirschner, Danny Kiser, Alta McGuire, Miss Patsy King, and Mr. J. L. Baker. Mr. Baker wasn't called but contributed his cooking, and it was very much appreciated.

Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Lane have worked with the bloodmobile faithfully, but they do not dwell on this fact; instead, they continue to praise everyone for their wonderful cooperation, both donors and workers. In fact, many times workers and donors are one and the same.

It just so happens that Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Lane are both physically unable to be blood donors. These co-chairmen of the Munday bloodmobile together made this statement, "We thank each of you for your blood donation, and thanks to all of you who helped make the emergency bloodmobile a success. We cannot give blood, and someone else will have to give if we need blood. Because all blood must come from someone, somewhere, to each hospital, the ones who donate can know they did their part in saving a life."

Kinnibrugh Earns Degree, Listed On Honor Roll

Randal W. Kinnibrugh has recently received a bachelor in animal science degree from West Texas University in Canyon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Kinnibrugh of Vera.

Kinnibrugh was listed on the president's honor roll for the 1982 spring semester. This honor list included 124 students whose grade point averages ranged from 3.85 to the perfect 4.0. Students receiving this honor had to be enrolled in at least 12 semester credit hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Searcey of Grand Prairie visited Mrs. Eugenia Searcey and Richard and other friends and relatives in Munday.

Farm Operations Gaining Impetus

With only .03 of an inch of moisture reported officially during the past week, and several days of drying weather, farmers of the Munday area have shifted into high gear in their operations.

All phases of farm activity—from planting cotton, to combining wheat, to digging spuds, etc., have been going on at rapid rates during the past few days. Wheat began coming in to local elevators more rapidly on Saturday night, and activities have picked up since then.

Potato processing sheds are beehives of activity, with field operations gaining impetus.

Cotton planting, getting off to a slow start later than the May 24 uniform planting date, will be rushed to completion in the future. Many farmers west and northwest of Munday are planning other crops to replace those wiped out by hail recently.

Mail Theft Prevention

Theft of mail is a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1708, which carries a maximum penalty of five years imprisonment and/or a $2000 fine. Unfortunately, criminals pay little attention to the consequences of their immediate actions.

The Postal Inspection Service is attempting to prevent theft of mail from all sources by informing and educating as many elements of society as possible. The United States Postal Service is a principal victim but the ultimate victim is a business or individual who depends on mail for their livelihood and existence. The loss of a social security or retirement check addressed to an elderly or retired person can have devastating emotional and financial significance.

Mail is most vulnerable at the point of delivery. An extra effort should be made by mail recipients to know their carrier's schedule and make every effort to be at home to personally accept delivery of valuable mail. Retirement and social security checks are delivered on a fixed schedule which is known by the addressee and criminals as well. Have a neighbor retrieve your mail if you cannot be available and do the same for your neighbor. Also, deposit your mail for collection at a post office or collection box. If this is inconvenient, place letters on your house letter-box for collection shortly before your carrier arrives. Your personal mail can be used most effectively to defraud your bank, consequently creating a very inconvenient situation. Make every effort to protect your incoming as well as outgoing mail by using these common sense suggestions.

Crime prevention can be a community effort. Everyone receives mail almost on a daily basis. This provides common grounds for neighbors to become better acquainted and watch out for each other's mail and mailbox. If a concentrated effort is made to protect your mail, potential mail thieves will not be given the opportunity to make you a victim.

If you have information regarding theft of mail, contact your local Postal Inspector or Postmaster.

Good Idea To Soap Your Apple

You could be mistaken if you think you can protect your family against toxic chemicals sprayed on fresh fruits and vegetables simply by washing them. Plain water will not effectively remove pesticide residue, says a spokesman for the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency.

Liquid kitchen detergent is more effective, but always be sure to remove the detergent with a second washing in clear water. Discarding the outer leaves of leafy vegetables also reduces consumption of pesticide residue, say authorities.

YOU can control your use of electricity and your bill by using energy wisely.

Higher fuel prices and inflation have pushed electric costs higher in recent years.

But YOU still are a key factor in determining the size of your electric bill. Because only you can control the amount of electricity you use, a large part of the control over your bill is in your hands.

We offer these wise-use suggestions as a guide for getting the most out of every dollar you spend for electricity:

- Make sure your house has insulation equal to at least an R-19 rating in the ceiling and R-11 in the walls. Insulation pays for itself within a few years in reduced heating and cooling costs.
- Weatherstrip windows and doors, then keep them closed.
- Eliminate excess heat with draperies, storm windows, reflective films, window shades and overhangs.
- Set air conditioning thermostat at the highest comfortable setting, around 78 degrees.
- Clean or replace air conditioner filters every month or—even better—every two weeks.
- Have leaky hot water faucets repaired immediately; they waste both water and the energy used to heat it.

- Check the temperature control on your water heater. For most needs, the correct setting is 135 degrees; water heaters used for baths only may be set at 110 to 120 degrees.

By following these tips, you should be able to control your use of electricity—and the size of your bill.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy—but only YOU can use it wisely!

Rhineland Co-op Gin Holds Annual Stockholders Meeting

On Thursday evening, June 3, at 7:30 p.m. over 100 people attended the annual stockholders meeting of Rhineland Co-op Gin held at Columbus Hall in Rhineland. Cotton planting weather prevailed, keeping a number of farmers from attending. Elvis Blake, president of the board of directors, welcomed those present. Among guests recognized were Bob McWhorter and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Schur. Rev. Brendan McGuire worded the invocation.

Mr. Blake introduced James M. Castagna of Seymour, auditor for the Rhineland Co-op Gin, who reviewed the previous year's business. The amount of $65,000 has been set aside for future repairs. Dividends were paid to stockholders on a 500 pound basis at $12.50 cash per bale.

Terms of directors Julius Pennartz and Carl Coulston expired. These men were eligible to serve three years more, and were elected by acclamation to do so. Other directors remaining on the board are Kenneth Baker, Clarence Brown and Elvis Blake. Officers for the coming year will be elected in the near future. A manager has not been named since the death of manager Tommy Decker.

Dairyland of Jacksboro catered a delicious meal of barbecue brisket, sausage, slaw, potato salad, pinto beans, Italian green beans, pickles, onions, bread and iced tea.

Door prizes were furnished by Zeissel Bros., First National Bank and Rhineland Co-op Gin. Appreciation was expressed by Mr. Blake to Jim Reid, owner of Reid's Hardware, for the discounts given on door prizes purchased by the gin.

National Bank. Other prize winners included Irma Albus, Geneva Fetsch, Mary Myers, Mrs. M. C. Kuehler, Eustacio Ramires, J. J. Farabee Proposes Amendment

Senator Ray Farabee of Wichita Falls has requested the Governor to include in his call for the Special Session a constitutional amendment that Farabee filed recently to allow almost $220 million worth of state water development bonds to be sold at current market interest rates.

The bonds were authorized to be issued several years ago, but have not been sold because the market rate for bonds of this type has been higher than the bond rate authorized by the Texas Constitution.

Lt. Governor Bill Hobby joined Farabee in requesting inclusion of the measure, stating "this will be of immediate help to small and medium size communities of the State. It will enable them to finance projects at lower interest rates than they could obtain without State involvement."

Proceeds from the bond sale will be used not only to increase the quantity of water available to Texans, but the quality of our water as well," Farabee pointed out. "Communities downstream from water quality projects will benefit from cleaner water requiring less treatment for their use."

If passed by the Legislature, the amendment will be submitted to the voters in the general election on November 2, 1982.

"This may not be the complete solution to the water problem," said Farabee, "but it is a start and it can be done immediately. I hope that the Governor, Legislature and citizens of the State will join me in beginning to take action to meet the pressing water problems facing Texas."

Athletes Should Examine Myths

The extra edge. Serious athletes run hundreds of miles, swim thousands of laps, push tons of iron and practice plays, moves and routines day after day, month after month, year after year to get it.

But getting the extra edge takes more than hard work. It also takes fuel. And not just any fuel, either. It takes high-octane stuff - the kind that comes from a well-balanced diet. Quite simply, if you're an athlete, you must eat to compete.

Most athletes realize this fact. But many of them, unfortunately, forego balanced nutrition in favor of fad diets. These diets, ironically, can sometimes harm an athlete's performance. Usually, there's a myth at the core of a fad athletic diet. Let's examine some of these myths.

Myth #1: Protein builds muscle tissue. Therefore, the more protein an athlete eats, the more muscle tissue an athlete will have.

Protein carries out many important functions in your body. One function is maintaining and repairing tissue. Athletes, however, don't need any more protein in their diet than non-athletes. You can eat steaks from dawn until dusk, but your biceps won't be any bigger for it. In fact, you only need two servings of meat - or equivalent foods from the meat group - per day.

Myth #2: Athletes need extra vitamins for energy.

Like protein, vitamins take on many tasks. One task is to regulate the release of energy in your body. Vitamins, however, don't provide you with energy. In fact, taking massive doses of vitamins can cause fatigue and dizziness. Megadoses of some vitamins - such as A and D - can even put you in the hospital.

Myth #3: To replace the salt lost through sweating, athletes should take salt tablets.

When an athlete is dehydrated, gobbling salt tablets isn't a smart move. It can cause gastric problems and nausea. Furthermore, you don't need salt tablets. You can get all the salt your body requires simply by eating normally salted meals.

Basically, nutrition for the athlete doesn't differ much from nutrition for the non-athlete. Both need water, protein, fat, carbohydrate, vitamins and minerals in their diets. And both should get these nutrients by eating a variety of foods from the four food groups - milk, meat, fruits and vegetables, and grains.

Athletes, however, need extra calories in their diet for extra energy. These extra calories should come primarily from carbohydrate. That's because your body utilizes the energy from carbohydrate more efficiently than from fat or protein. Complex carbohydrate (bread, pasta, potatoes, etc.) is better than simple carbohydrate (sugar, honey, etc.) because it also contains vitamins and minerals.

Athletes also need to constantly replace water lost through sweating. It's important to drink lots of water before, during and after workouts or competition. Otherwise, your performance may be impaired.
