Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

Making a new era in Texas industry, the multi-million dollar Loan Star Steel plant near Daingerfield, completed near the end of World War II, rumbled into continuous pig iron production last week under privately managed, independent operation.

At ceremonies commemorating start of production, Romert M. Littlejohn, administrator of War Assets Administration, hailed the operation as particularly gratifying since pig iron is in such short supply throughout the country. The company holds a three-year lease with option to buy the plant from WAA. All of the first iron output of the plant is destined for the Federal Housing Authority and will go into new housing throughout the country, according to E. B. Germany, company president.

Simple sales procedure will mark the sale of 132 surplus buildings at the Blackland Army Airfield near Waco, November 13. The public is invited to buy structures ranging in size from 20 by 160 feet, including storage type buildings, lavatories, quartermaster warehouses, squadron operations, lumber storage shed, administration, post exchange, barracks and various other types. It is announced by War Assets Administration as a streamlined sale wherein would-be purchasers have to be at the sale, bid, pay and receive title "then and there." Buyers may remove buildings the day of the sale and shall remove them within 60 days. Inspection continues until November 12 between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. Saturdays and Sundays excepted.

War Assets Administration is preparing to clear airfields throughout the country of 405 surplus aircraft, including 29 Stearman trainers at the Dallas Naval Air Station, by means of a fixed price sale to veterans and other buyers opening November 12. Veterans may buy from November 12 through December 3. Remaining planes will be offered to other priority groups until December 11, when the residue will go on sale to the general public. Public inspection of planes at all locations has been scheduled for November 10 and 11. The WAA has lowered prices on virtually all of the surplus craft in order to speed their transfer to private owners. All of the aircraft are divided into two categories, set-aside planes which may be purchased for personal use by anyone possessing honorable discharge papers from World War II, and non-set-aside planes which may be purchased by veterans who have been issued WAA aircraft purchase certificates.

Seven buildings from the Dalhart Army Airfield and two auxiliary fields were recently purchased by West Texas and Panhandle public schools and cities in a recent priority sale of structures. The sale was held by WAA's office of real property disposal. Schools purchasing were Cotton Center in Hale County, Stratford high school, and Dalhart public schools. Cities purchasing were Dumas and Sunray.

At a later date, the remaining buildings will be advertised for public bidding and sale for off-site use.

Experts believe that if the Marshall plan is voted and surpluses are shipped to Europe there can be no danger of a recession for the next four years at least. Europe can use all the surplus we produce, and, as long as it is purchased by federal funds and given outright, business is going to be good and employment will be good. The only thing that can change the picture is a more rapid recovery in Europe than is now anticipated.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

A widespread campaign by the Communists is predicted in this country. Communists will begin by agitating against the Marshall plan. By drawing in well known non-Communists they will give respectability to their cause. Communist dominated unions will join up with this group. Everything possible will be employed to create dissatisfaction with the government. High prices will be used to win converts, scarcities and every inconvenience that the condition of the times brings will be magnified to create dissatisfaction. The Communists will use every means to worm their way into non-Communist groups in an effort to gain wider acceptance of their cause. All over the world Communists are aggressively on the move and nothing will be spared to gain converts to the Communist cause.

It might be surprising how many of our problems of high cost of living and high cost of merchandise could be solved by everyone working a little harder. Instead, the disposition seems to be to adopt slow down practices and indefensible "feather bedding" in industry. All of these things add to the cost without adding to the value of merchandise, furniture, clothes, transportation and implements. Every time a new slow down practice is invoked or a new scheme of "feather bedding" is employed, costs go up and merchandise goes up, and the cost of living goes up. This in turn is followed by a demand for more wages, more slow downs and more "feather bedding," and more inflation. Everything has been tried but work. More work and more production is going, in the end, to be the thing that will bring down the cost of living and reduce inflation.

Our management of things must be bad. Not long ago we heard a lot about destroying surplus potatoes. Now we are told that the need for food in Europe is so imperative that we are going to have to sharply reduce consumption in this country if there is going to be anything left with which to feed the people of Europe. It appears as lack of management that under such a condition any food should be destroyed. Is this thing impossible or are we merely inept?

IN THE NEWS
30 YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the issue of the Foard County News of Nov. 9, 1917:

Tom Reeder, Will McCormick, A. C. Gaines, Geo. Hinds and Tully Klepper attended the Vernon Commandery Tuesday evening of this week as candidates for the degrees.

C. B. Williams went to Vernon yesterday to meet his grandfather, A. T. Fowler, of Cabot, Ark. He was accompanied by C. P. Sandifer.

Rev. M. W. Rogers, who has served as pastor of the Methodist Church here for two years, goes to Hemphill County where he and Mrs. Rogers will reside on their 640-acre farm indefinitely.

Alonso Bain and Lawrence Kinsey left last Friday for Dallas where they expect to enter school.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cook's home was brightened this week by the arrival of a new girl.

J. D. Greening and family of Joy are visiting relatives here.

W. L. Smith was here from Margaret Wednesday and says he is not so fortunate as some of the Foard County farmers this year in growing cotton as he is on the tight land.

Jack Meason is here from Roaring Springs attending to business and greeting his many old friends.

Miss Minnie Logan left last week for Stonehill County where she will teach near Aspermont.

Roger Adams was here from Dallas this week.

Merkel Gerald Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Adams, died at the home of his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Adams, on Nov. 1, being five years, five months and fifteen days old.

Monroe Davis has sold his farm near Rayland to W. A. Walker for $70.00 per acre.

When we look at the shoes worn by the young women today without toes or heels or anything else it is difficult to imagine that it isn't too long ago that the savage wore button shoes that reached half way to the knee. It was a household tragedy in those days when the button hook became lost.

What We Think
(By Frank Dixon)

This country has witnessed, and will continue to witness for some time to come, increasing prices in the cost of living and in every manufactured product.

Each of these increases will be followed by a demand for higher wages and in turn each wage boost will be followed by another increase in prices.

We are witnessing this every day. The railroads recently granted an increase to railroad workers and the grant was followed by a request to the Commerce Commission to increase railroad freight, express and passenger rates.

Each increase on one side is followed by an increase on the other, and each increase on the one side defeats the purpose of the increase on the other. About the only thing that is being accomplished is inflation. True, the worker receives more for a day's work but he also pays correspondingly more for everything he buys. It takes just as many days' work to buy a home as it once did when wages were lower and the cost of homes were lower and it takes just as many days' work to buy a car as it did when the prices of cars was lower and the daily wage was lower.

Since this is true it is difficult to discover what the benefit has been and who has benefited from increasing wages and increasing prices.

Talk to a merchant and he will tell you that he has to have a higher price because merchandise costs more, help costs more, and all the expenses incident to running a business cost more. Talk to a worker and he will say that he has to have more because everything he buys costs more and he has to have more to maintain even his normal scale of living.

If both sides are telling the truth, and it must be conceded they are, then the conclusion is no one has benefited by the price raises. They have not been good for either side.

The conclusion then is that the situation cannot be corrected under the plan now being used. The thought suggests that some other plan be used. The other alternative is that more goods be produced by workers, that there be less slowdown effort, less "feather bedding," less effort to restrict production to a minimum, and a more co-operative effort to produce more goods.

Everyone is familiar with the slow down practices used by workers organizations in industry. Should a young and energetic worker attempt to let himself out he is tapped on the shoulder and told that he is working too fast and must slow down. This sort of thing permeates every department of industry with the result that much less than is easily possible is being produced. Everyone is also familiar with the practice of "feather bedding" which requires more help to be employed than is needed, thus running up, unnecessarily, the cost of production, and the cost of manufactured goods.

These facts are known and it is admitted that they do increase the cost of manufactured goods without adding a dime to their value.

It appears singular that with all the uproar about increasing prices and the high cost of living no one has thought it worth while to try to work a little harder and to produce a little more. Instead the effort and the pressure is to produce less. There is little wonder that prices are high and will continue to get higher and inflation will continue to grow. The real remedy has not yet been applied—more work.

Lest you forget Thanksgiving is just around the corner and after that there isn't many shopping days before Christmas and then comes time to figure up income taxes.

The easier and more accurate financial help becomes, the self-reliant people become, never easy to dig in and work own way. It requires strength, self-reliance and a willingness to work to get it done.

"If I Could Remember What I Spent"

Do you find it difficult to keep track of payments and expenditures you make? If so, you need a checking account. With your stub and cancelled check as a permanent receipt for each item, there will never again be any question of when, where, or what you paid.

This feature of a checking account is an invaluable budget aid. Then, too, it is much safer to have your check book handy than to carry a large sum of money with you or to leave it in a hideaway at home.

You will like the convenience of an account serviced at our bank.

HISTORY

THANKSGIVING DAY, NOVEMBER 27: This year Thanksgiving Day will be celebrated throughout the country on Thursday, November 27, the last Thursday in November. Some years back, President Roosevelt at the insistence of a number of big business men, who felt that there was not enough time between Thanksgiving and Christmas, moved the observance of the day up one week. The action was followed by a storm of protest. Some states observed the old date and some the new. It upset the calendar manufacturers whose plans are made a year ahead and muddled up the football schedules which also are made months ahead. When the storm broke the business men deserted the cause and left President Roosevelt to face the music alone. When the unpopularity of the move was seen the old date was restored. There are some holidays to the changing of which little or no protest would be made, but not so with Thanksgiving, custom is too strong and the last Thursday in November has been so long established that changing it is too revolutionary even for a President to undertake. The first New England day of thanks occurred in the autumn of 1621 under orders from Governor Bradford. The Colonists went out into the timber and the fields and shot turkeys and brought them in for the feast. The Indians hearing of the celebration brought in deer. Twenty-three years later the governor of the Dutch Colony of New York issued a Thanksgiving proclamation. During the Revolutionary War a day of Thanksgiving was annually recommended by Congress. After the war the practice ceased. In 1789 President Washington ordered a day of Thanksgiving for the adoption of the Constitution. This was the first Thanksgiving proclamation issued by any President.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thompson of Fort Worth visited over the week-end in the home of her mother, Mrs. R. J. Thomas, and family. They came to attend the wedding of Mrs. Thompson's sister, Miss De Alva Thomas, and J. H. Gillespie.

The birth of a baby boy to a 22-year-old woman under hypnosis has been confirmed by John Hopkins officials, who said it was the first planned clinical use of hypnosis in an obstetrical case at Hopkins. The woman, a graduate of the John Hopkins nursing school, gave birth to a five-pound 10-ounce boy after being hypnotized by Dr. Harold Rosen, Hopkins psychiatrist. Hypnosis, Rosen said, should be limited to suitable cases.

"The Homestretch" Entertainment Hit

"The Homestretch," opening at the Rialto Theatre on Nov. 9, with Cornel Wilde and Maureen O'Hara in starring roles, Twentieth Century-Fox has turned its technical cameras on the sport of kings and has come up with a wonderfully entertaining motion picture that combines all of the drama and color of the turf with a truly exciting love story. The picture parlays thrill upon thrill to emerge as a sure-shot winner in this season's entertainment. Mr. Wilde and Miss O'Hara, two of Hollywood's outstanding players, have been assigned unusual roles that provide them with a grand opportunity to display their top talents.

RISE AND SHINE

When Irving Berlin wrote "Oh, how I hate to get up in the morning," he expressed my feeling to a "T." If that's the way you feel, just try for one week getting to bed at nine and up at six.

There is so much peace in the morning. Everything is quiet, and it is really the best time to study while you think clearly.

God gave the animals enough sense to stay awake when it is light and sleep when it gets dark. Is it not normal for man to lose the still hours of the day? They are ours to use. Why waste them?

MYERS PRESENTS V. A. CLASS IN ASSEMBLY

On Tuesday, Oct. 28, Mr. Marvin Myers' V. A. boys presented their assembly program. The first skit was a hill billy wedding. Billie Johnson and Leon McBeath led the bridal procession down the aisle for the wedding of Grover Yocham, the bride, and E. W. Kidd, the groom. All the boys were dressed as hill billys and made the wedding very realistic. Kenneth Ownbey, the bride's father, had to keep pointing his shot gun at the groom, E. W., to keep him from running out on his bride.

Julia Johnson and Maggie Faye Eavenson presented a humorous reading "Babies." Representing ladies from high class society who couldn't imagine why some ladies talked of their children all the time, talking of their pet poodles. Julia was going to knit her pup a sweater for the fall weather.

Last and most exciting was a sewing contest. Mary Jo and Marvin Brisco won the prize. It was a box of chocolate candy. Joline Lanier, J. C. Autry, Rouse Todd, Tommie Mason, Betty Brock and Dalton Biggerstaff, all were contestants.

BLACK MAGIC AND HYPNOTISM

Although his feats appear to be black magic, Fayssoux, the hypnotist, gave a very interesting performance to the school body November 3. He not only hypnotized a large group of the volunteer student body, and made them change shoes, ward off bees, fall backward, and gather strawberries, but he performed many interesting figure and card tricks.

JUNIOR "SPOOK" PARTY

It all took place Wednesday night at 7 o'clock at John Pott's home. Every one was welcomed with a scare of a ghost, you should have seen Julia.

We then journeyed into the house to explore the attic of "Spook Land." Up the stairs and with "a big yell," we tramped into the house of horror. Everyone was tackled by an "ole" bed spring and then after everyone had settled down, a ring was formed. Before the human eye was a dead man "hanging." The story of his life was told and we were given the pleasure of feeling of his brain, eyes, hand, ear and blood veins. Then we all got the pleasure of riding in an airplane driven by spooks. Next we had our fortunes told by "Madame Mes Scarie-O." Hot dogs, Cokes, doughnuts and shiny red apples were served as refreshments.

The adventurers of "Spook Land" were: Patsy Fox, Mona Gamble, Norma Gamble, Juanita Hammonds, Faye Jones, Dorothy James, Mary Johnson, Dorothy Thompson, Julia Johnson, Maggie Eavenson, Peggy Pittillo, Baxter Gentry, Dalton Biggerstaff, J. P. Bartley, Billy Bond, Bobby Cato, Floyd Borchardt, the Junior sponsor, Marvin Myers, and host, John Potts.

We really had a swell time and thank our room mothers: Mrs. L. D. Fox Jr., Mrs. Geneva Potts, Mrs. Bill Bond, Mrs. Herman Biggerstaff, Mrs. Floyd Borchardt and sponsor, Marvin Myers, for preparing a pleasant evening for us.

FRESHMAN GOBLINS FROLIC

If you were enjoying a quiet evening at home last Tuesday, when suddenly you heard loud laughter and noise, you knew that it was 7:30 and the Freshman party was just beginning. The basement of Mrs. Thomson's house, brightly decorated with the Halloween colors, made a delightful place for the "get together." In case you don't know what caused the noise, it was the screaming girls when they saw two ghosts appear from the basement closet. Games were played, and delicious refreshments of Cokes and sandwiches followed. The finishing touch was put on by the seniors who took the little "Fish" for a "free ride." The party was enjoyed by everyone, and we wish to thank the Freshman class mothers: Mrs. H. E. Thomson, Mrs. J. B. Rasberry, Mrs. J. T. Cates, Mrs. Roy Barker, Mrs. Leo Owens and Mrs. Gordon Bell, for a very wonderful time.

RIALTO

The Rialto Theatre invites J. C. Thompson and Bob Edwards to attend "Home Stretch" with Cornet Wilde and Maureen O'Hara, Sunday or Monday, November 9 and 10.

Wondered what to put in this column?

Tried to skip class and found a fool-proof method? (If so, please notify the author of this column.)

Wanted to know where everyone was Saturday night? (You might have looked in the teen canteen because a crowd was there.)

Noticed Marion Bailey's hair?

Wondered who is the scandal editor?

Thought Betty and Grover should be the couple of the week?

Journeyed to the graveyard Halloween night?

Wanted an "A" in geometry? (Mr. Graves, please notice.)

Thought our football stars deserved mention here even though they haven't carried off top honors?

Wondered who writes Anna Jo Lankford such interesting letters from Tech?

Thought Mr. Myers' program was super?

Thought you would commit suicide after reading this column?

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

A boy with lots of ability, five feet, ten inches of grown eyes is none other than Ray Black, left guard of the Wildcat team.

To give you a well rounded picture of Ray, here are a few of his favorites. Of course, his favorite sport is football and his favorite thrill is Martha Johnson. His favorite weakness is women and his best loved food is fried chicken.

A few facts about Ray and his Wildcat career: being seventeen years of age and weighing one hundred and seventy pounds, Ray journeys to CHS from Trusecott on his motorcycle. Back in '45 Ray went out for football in the half back position. Last year he occupied the tackle position changing again in '47 to left guard. Curley black haired Ray Black may be seen Friday night wearing jersey number 29. Here's wishing you all the luck, you deserve it, Ray!

WILDCAT TELLS OFF

V. Bond, what's this we hear about your wanting a date with Laverne Owens (P. S. The feeling is mutual.)

Seen at the horse opera Saturday night were Dorothy Thompson and J. P. Bartley, Mary Johnson and Harry Yocham.

Seen having a good time at the "Vernon-Childress" football game Friday night were: Faye Jones, Norma Gamble, Dorothy Gamble, Joyce Smith and Violet Rummel.

Bobby Cato and Laverne Farrar were seen together Friday night.

We nominate Juanita James-Ralph Hudgens, and Jimmie Swan-Le Roy Lindsey as couples of the week.

Has anyone else heard Mona Hammonds talk how cute Rouse Todd is? We all agree with you, Mona!

Something old: Baxter Gentry and Mary Johnson.

Something new: Elizabeth Joy and Mike Hudgens.

Joline Lanier was with J. C. Autry Thursday and Saturday night. Who was it Friday night, Joline?

A lasting friendship is arising between Jack Henderson and Virginia Bell.

A steady twosome are "Rusty" McNeese and Marj Rader.

True to his schedule, Haskell Norman gets a broken heart every week.

Four people still going strong are Grover Yocham-Betty Barker and Billy Joe Halenak-Sweetpea Owens.

Since the F. F. A. rings have come in, the girls are surely flashing the jewelry (mostly rings).

What's this we hear about "Jackie" Wesley and Lloyd Shultz? Could it be love?

Mary Crowning, would you know anything about Mutt and Jeff or Tillie and Mac?

Another couple we like to see together are Betty Smith and Marion Hord. Lots of luck, kids.

What do we hear about Pat Owens and Vernon Jones?

We wonder who Bobby Acres is making eyes at in General Business.

Say, where is Bertharene's heart? Maybe it could be somewhere around Truscott.

Who are the letters from, Helen? We see you reading them in American History class.

Bye now, till next week.

Wildcat Tailin Off.

P. S.: Let's cut out the "catty" remarks in Locker 29, kids. After all they won't be printed.

SIDE SPLITTERS

Bobby Railsback: Did you say that Mrs. Davis was a magician? Leon McBeath: Yea, she turned me into Mr. Graves yesterday.

Mrs. Davenport: I will dismiss class ten minutes early today, so please be quiet when you go out, so that you will not wake up the other classes.

Coach: Every time you fail to get a lesson I put a cross after your name.

Porkey Hunter: Gosh mine must look like a grave yard.

Mrs. Davis: When shall we have our next examination?

Garland: It makes no difference. I can be sick any time.

ATTENTION, CANTEN MEMBERS

The Wildcat Canteen will be open at 7 p. m. Saturday, November 8th, in the building formerly occupied by Edwards Hardware.

You are asked to be prepared to pay your dues and be thinking of whom you would like to elect as a student council for the Canteen. Invite your parents to come for tea.

Open House during Canteen hours. If you have extra chairs that you will give to the Canteen please bring them.

Two Minute Sermon (By Thomas Hartwell)

Giving Back the Tricycle: Two children, neighbors of mine, got into difficulty the other day and their disturbance attracted the attention of the neighborhood. It seems that one of the boys had taken the other boy's tricycle and refused to give it up. The wails of the bereaved youngster brought the parents of both parties on to the scene. "Jackie," the boy's mother said, "you must tell Bobbie you are sorry you took his tricycle." Jackie readily did as he was told and informed Bobbie that he was sorry he had taken his tricycle, but he made no move to return the tricycle. Jackie's mother calling his attention to it told him that he must also return to Bobbie his tricycle, in addition to telling him he was sorry. At this Jackie demurred. He was not averse to telling his little friend he was sorry that he took the tricycle, but he balked on giving it back. Sounds like a simple childish logic, but wherein, I wonder, is it different from the actions of wise, mature adults who take from their neighbors unjustly and ask the Lord to forgive their wrongs but fail to make restitution. Can the logic be wrong when applied to the child, but right when applied to an adult? Adults also should return the unjustly taken tricycles.

Miss De Alva Thomas Weds J. H. Gillespie in Pretty Ceremony at Home of Bride's Mother Saturday Evening at 8 o'Clock

The marriage of Miss De Alva Thomas, daughter of Mrs. R. J. Thomas, and J. H. Gillespie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hub Gillespie, of Truscott, was solemnized at eight o'clock Saturday evening, November 1, at the home of the bride's mother in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

Rev. Claude H. Harris, pastor of the Truscott Baptist Church, officiated with the impressive single ring ceremony. The music was provided by Miss Gaye Nell Chilcoat of Truscott, who sang, "Always." She was accompanied by Mrs. T. S. Haney, who also played the traditional wedding march for the entrance of the bridal party.

The living room of the home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with the marriage altar being arranged before the fireplace, which was a solid mass of greenery. On the mantle, an oblong arrangement of large and small mums was the central attraction, with greenery and flowers interspersing the length. Tall baskets of white gladioli were placed at each side, also graduated iron candleabra with lighted tapers. A similar arrangement of white mums as that on the mantle graced the piano. The flowers throughout the entire house were all white.

The bride and groom left immediately for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Truscott.

Mrs. Gillespie has been reared here, was graduated from Crowell High School and attended Hardin College in Wichita Falls. Mr. Gillespie also graduated from Crowell High School. He served in the U. S. Army in the E. T. O. He is now engaged in farming near Truscott.

Bridal Shower Given for Miss Emma Mae Crisp in Thalia

On Thursday afternoon, Oct. 30, a bridal shower was given in the basement of the Methodist Church in Thalia as a compliment to Miss Emma Mae Crisp, who was married to Beverly Gray Saturday evening. The members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, together with Mrs. Walter Johnson and Mrs. Homer Matthews were hostesses for the shower.

Mrs. M. C. Adkins was in charge of the program which included accordion selections by Mrs. Loyd Gray and a solo "Always" by Mrs. L. B. Taylor. Mrs. Gray played her accompaniment.

Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Carroll Lindsey and Mrs. Chas. Wood served at the punch table which was covered with a lace cloth and had ferns for decoration and long satin streamers with the words, "Be-Emma" written across. The punch was served with dainty cookies.

Mrs. Dick Swan and Mrs. Homer McBeath were in charge of the gift display and Mrs. Matthews secured the guest's signatures in the bride's book. Many pretty gifts were received by the honoree.

Date of Daughter's Marriage Announced by Mrs. Leo Owens

Mrs. Leo Owens entertained with an informal tea at her home on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 5, when the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Valeria May, to J. W. Solis was announced.

Mrs. Grady Magee greeted the guests at the door and they were informally entertained in the living room before being directed by Mrs. Ray Hysinger into the dining room where Mrs. Pat McDaniel poured tea.

The table, laid with a white cut-work cloth, was lovely with a color scheme of yellow and white. Yellow candles in white pottery holders enhanced one corner of the table and before them was placed an oblong white pottery bowl filled with yellow chrysanthemums. Tea was poured from a china tea service which followed the color scheme. Yellow mums and marigolds were used on the buffet.

Mrs. Bob Gobin assisted in the dining room, serving the tea and placing a tiny scroll which was tied with yellow ribbon on each plate. The scroll revealed the announcement "Sister-J. W., November 28, 1947." The tiny yellow napkins also carried the names of the betrothed couple.

From the dining room, the guests repaired to the living room and were seated for the refreshments of dainty sand tarts, candies, mints and nuts with the tea. Bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums and marigolds were advantageously placed in the receiving rooms of the home.

Upon leaving, the guests were asked to register in the bride's book.

Truscott Bride-Elect Honored with Party Given in Dumas

On Sunday morning, October 16, Miss Joyce Jones of Truscott, bride-elect of T. D. Williams, was named honoree at a delightful breakfast given in the home of Mrs. H. D. Lewis, with Mrs. Geo. Martin Griffin and Miss Martha Lewis as joint hostesses, all being of Dumas.

Miss Mary Jane Hamilton of Plainview played soft piano music while the guests were assembling. After presenting the honor guest with many lovely gifts, the hostesses directed the guests into the dining room where they were seated at quartet tables. A nosegay of red glads marked Miss Jones' place while pink mums were placed at her mother's place.

Following the delicious breakfast, Mrs. George Griffin registered the guests in the white leather bride's book. Truscott guests present were Mrs. E. J. Jones, Miss Joyce Jones, honoree, and Misses Clara Jones and Norma Jones, her sisters.

Adelphian Sub-Junior Club Holds Meeting

The Sub-Junior Adelphian Club held its regular meeting on October 22 at the Adelphian Club House with Jane Bruce as hostess. In the absence of the president, the vice president occupied the chair. An inspiring talk was given by Mary Norman on the subject, "Being a Real Person." A violin solo was played by Rodyn Self. She was accompanied by Bobby Abston.

A delightful refreshment plate was served which emphasized the Hallowe'en season.

The annual Husband's evening was enjoyed on Thursday evening, October 30, by the members of the Columbian Club and their escorts, when Mrs. Grady Magee, Mrs. Charley Wishon, Mrs. Pearl Carter and Miss Elizabeth Elliott were hostesses in the large dining room of the Premier Hotel. A delicious covered dish dinner was served, buffet style, on quartet tables which were laid with Hallowe'en cloths and napkins. Before the meal commenced, the guests were asked to don tiny orange Hallowe'en caps which furnished much merriment. Following the meal, the tables were made ready for games of 42 at the close of which Charlie Thompson was awarded the prize for the men. Mrs. S. T. Crews for the women. A floating prize which changed hands at each completed

84 bid, was presented to Kennel Halbert. Guests aside from the club members were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ma gen, Mrs. A. S. Hart, Mrs. T. M. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Mae Steele, George Carter of Quanah and T. Carter of Abilene.
