Street Markers Being Erected in Crowell This Week

The street markers are being erected in Crowell. On Monday the residents of the ten blocks of North 1st, saw the new street markers being placed in two feet of cement at each corner.

The fine community and cooperative spirit manifested by E. Swain is responsible for the beginning of this work. He organized the property owners on the blocks of North 1st where he lives and with their cooperation dug the holes at each corner and watered them in preparation for the posts. With such cooperation the work of digging the holes was done in a short time.

The City of Crowell and the Chamber of Commerce extends their thanks to Mr. Swain for the generous work he did, and to all property owners along North 1st Street who helped with the digging of the holes.

If the people of each section of blocks will organize in this way the street markers will soon be erected. Those who care to help in this way can get in touch with the chamber of commerce so as to know the exact procedure.

So far there are a number of places, both business and residences, that have not attended to buying their numbers. To help defray all expenses, the Business and Professional Women's Club has contributed $50.00 and the Chamber of Commerce $85.00. The project cannot be a financial success until all have done their part in this community project.

Soil Conservation News of District

Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District, Lower Pease River District Board: W. C. Howard, Grady Halbert, S. Z. Bailey, I. H. Brannon, Claude Orr.

Grass cover and the protective surface litter which it produces are effective in conserving limited rainfall and increasing forage growth on range lands. This proper management of plant cover not only provides permanent production of forage but also controls sheet and gully erosion, which are nearly always the result of excessive runoff. Most bare soils, except where the surface is very sandy, tend to seal over and take in water much less readily than do soils protected by grass and mulch. Thus, when a range is on the downgrade and soil cover is decreasing, the effect of dry years becomes increasingly severe.

If the grass is used so that part of each year's volume growth is left for reserve feed and soil protection, a gradual buildup of surface litter and good penetration of water are assured. This means that more moisture is available for plant growth and establishment of new seedlings. It also means more effective utilization of rainfall, especially during dry years when a difference of two or three inches of rainfall soaking into the soil rather than running off, will result in the production of forage rather than little or no new growth. It is the real basis for soil and water conservation and permanent forage production.

If the range is properly stocked, there will be enough of the grasses left on the ground to furnish the litter or ground cover to aid in holding more moisture on the ground where it falls and will insure more grass the following years. Also, the grasses will green up earlier in the spring.

Check your range. Are you leaving enough of the grass on the ground to give the protection needed. Are you protecting your grass land from erosion. If you are interested in learning more about the grasses on your range and what can be done to improve the range, contact your District Supervisor or personnel of the Soil Conservation Service.

Seymour Panthers Will Meet the Wildcats on the Home Gridiron for Fourth Conference Game Friday Night

The Seymour Panthers and the Crowell Wildcats play football here tomorrow night in a contest which is the 4th conference game of the season for both clubs. These teams have almost identical records for the season. Seymour has dropped only one game to the Archer City team; while the Wildcats lost one to Holliday. Seymour has victories over Munday, Chillicothe, and Burkburnett. Crowell has defeated Munday, Paducah, Iowa Park and Valley View. The only direct comparative scores for these clubs are the games against Munday. Crowell defeated that team by two touchdowns and Seymour won from Munday by three touchdowns. The loser Friday night will be practically eliminated from the district race. You can count on this being one of the hardest-fought games that will be played here this season. Seymour has come from behind in the last minute of the game to defeat Crowell here on two different occasions within the last few years. Both of these clubs had very little trouble winning their games last week-end; Seymour defeated Burkburnett 20 to 0, and Crowell dropped Valley View by a 31 to 0 count.

An "Achievement Award" in the form of a certificate was awarded to approximately 1400 eligible families in recognizing the accomplishment of the individual families who used improved agricultural practices to produce income to repay the loan advanced through the Farmers Home Administration.

The certificate is signed by R. L. Thornton, president of the State Fair of Texas, and L. J. Cappelman, State director of the Farmers Home Administration, complimenting the farmer on assuming a place in the ranks of successful Texas farm families who own their homes free of debt.

Chief speaker for the program, which was rendered in the Hall of State on the State Fair grounds at 3:30 p. m., Oct. 13, was Judge Marvin Jones, Chief Justice of the Court of Claims, Washington, co-author with Senator John H. Bankhead of Alabama of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Purchase Act of 1938.

Other features of the program rendered include recognition of farm ownership county delegations and families and an address by Walter Cardwell, manager, Luling Foundation Farms, and chairman of the State Advisory Committee of FFA.

Wildcats Win from Valley View by 31-0 Decision

(Taken from the Wildcat)

The Crowell Wildcat football team won its second district game over the Valley View Warriors to a 31-0 decision, at Valley View Friday night.

It took the Wildcats up until almost the last of the first quarter to catch fire, when Rouse Todd intercepted Bob White's pass and raced 65 yards for the first Wildcat tally. Yocham added the extra point from placement.

Crowell kicked off to Valley View. J. C. Young, a great threat for the Warriors, fumbled on his own 40-yard line where Harold Ribble, left guard for the Wildcats, recovered. Biggerstaff took a handoff from Ballard to go 25 yards. On the next play Biggerstaff moved the ball to the eight-yard line. Yocham plunged over the remaining yardage for the Wildcat's second touchdown. The try for extra point went low.

Jerry Culbertson scored the Wildcat's third touchdown on a 67-yard gallop which was one of the best runs of the evening. Yocham's try for the extra point failed again.

Late in the fourth period Halenack skirted left end for the fifth and last tally. The Warriors never got inside the Wildcat 20 yard line.

Veterans assigned "C" (claims) numbers by Veterans Administration are urged to memorize them, so they can use the numbers readily when they write or call VA about their benefits.
Use of "C" numbers speeds up service to veterans, VA said.
A number is issued to each veteran applying for compensation, pension, schooling, on-the-job training or other VA-administered benefits. The number, appearing on his case folder, will identify him in VA records the rest of his life, and may be used by dependents after his death.
With some 24,000,000 veterans' names in VA's files, "C" numbers often are the final means by which VA can distinguish one veteran from another.

Second Meeting of 4-H Club Girls Held on Sept. 27

The Foard County Girls 4-H Clubs had their second meeting on Monday and Tuesday, September 27 and 28, with a total of 134 members present.

The Riverside Club had every member present. Loretta Matus was elected recreational leader for the club. The girls had been studying correct parliamentary procedure. They made plans for a winter roast during their club program. Motions were made and carried out according to instructions the members had received.

The Thalia Club had one member absent and one new member, Miss Alicia Kuba. They now have 15 members enrolled. Mary Alice Werley was elected recreational leader for the Thalia Club. She led the club in some group singing for recreational activities.

The Crowell 4th grade had its second club meeting for the year and also for all time. Two members were absent, and they also had a new member, Wanda Lee Akers. This club now has 17 enrolled. After a brief business session and program, the recreational leader, Janis Crowell, took the members outside where they played "Drop the handkerchief." Mrs. Welch taught them to sing and play "The Paw Paw Patch."

The Crowell Fifth Grade 4-H

Club had three members absent but enrolled two new ones, Oleta Lankford and Francine Coffey, making an enrollment of 27. The following women were elected 5th Grade 4-H Club mothers: Mesdames Knox, Norris, Raspberry and Borchardt. The little girls are going to ask their mothers to help them plan a Christmas party for their club.

Seven of the eighteen Sixth Grade 4-H Club members were absent at this meeting. Nancy Hallmark enrolled as a new member. This group chose Mrs. Kincaid and Mrs. Bell for club mothers.

The Crowell 7-A Club had several changes made in their membership enrollment which made it necessary to elect new officers. The following were elected: Carolyn Bell, president; Norma Kelly, vice president; Blanche Jones, reporter; Nina Williamson enrolled as a new member.

The 7-B Club now has an enrollment of twelve members, five of which were absent at this meeting. Carla Manning, the recreational leader, had planned an interesting quiz game. The questions were asked about the states and capitals. The girls enjoyed the contest.

Lois Everson enrolled in the Eighth Grade 4-H Club bringing the membership up to 25. Only two members were absent at this meeting. Recreational leader, Margaret Thompson, led group singing, while Betty Guthrie played the piano. Each 4-H Club member in the county received a year book, and time was taken to go over plans for the year. Parliamentary procedure was studied in each club. All club members plan to make a Christmas gift for some foreign child. These gifts will be started at the next club meeting.

Variety of Wheat to Plant, Decision for Farmers to Make

What's ahead for wheat, asks Texas farmers. Here's the answer. Facts and figures in the government wheat outlook sound a note of caution. Now that fall seeding is under way, here are the facts as they are seen by E. A. Miller, extension agronomist, and C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist of Texas A & M College, according to Joe Burkett, County Agent.

Here's what the wheat growers like. The continued strong demand here in this country should take up 750 million bushels of this year's big crop. This would mean only 20 million bushels less than what we used last year. The European Recovery Program will use around 450 million bushels. The wheat price support for the 1949 crop is 90 per cent of parity through loan and purchase agreements.

And here are a few gloomy facts. The carry-over of wheat stocks next July 1, is expected to be up nearly one-fifth above the prewar level. European wheat production has improved, and will approach the yields they had before the war, if they don't get a stack of bad weather. The United States acreage goal has been set 8 per cent below last year's goal, and Texas' recommended seeding goal is down 10 per cent. The storage bins are heavily loaded with this year's big wheat, grain sorghum and corn crops. All in all, it looks like the United States and world supplies have improved quite a bit. Next year's carry-over certainly will be up, and the situation could look a little tough if average yields are had from the acreage goal. The 1949 average goal yields are 7.5 million from the U. S., and 6.5 million for Texas. And another bumper wheat crop in 1949 would probably require marketing quotas for all growers in 1950.

So, it looks like good business to face the facts, says Bates and Miller. If some marginal acres have been in crops that should be returned to pastures, better plan to begin re-sodding now. Increase your summer fallowing and erosion control practices, say the extension specialists, and plant soil-building legumes wherever they are needed.

Plan ahead, plant wisely, and give your soil a break.

"Gone with the Wind" at Rialto

"Gone with the Wind," brought back to the Rialto next Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 20 and 21, as an MGM masterpiece release, remains without qualification one of the greatest motion pictures ever made.

Its tumultuous story of the old South, transcribed faithfully from the pages of Margaret Mitchell's memorable novel and filmed in brilliant technicolor pageantry, roars and sweeps its way across the screen with the force of a mighty avalanche.

Many pictures have been made since "Gone with the Wind" was first released but none has eclipsed the surge and power of this magnificent love story laid against Civil War days, with its tremendous panorama of marching armies, burning cities and dramatic emotional conflicts.

Seldom has a production been more perfectly cast. Every character lives as Miss Mitchell made him or her live in the book. Clark Gable's brilliant performance as Rhett Butler is the forerunner of the subsequent roles which made him the No. 1 box-office attraction on the American screen. Lovely Vivian Leigh is another who made a name for herself as a result of her unforgettable portrait of tempestuous Scarlett O'Hara. Olivia de Havilland reveals her distinguished talents in "Gone with the Wind," as the gentle Melanie, with the late Leslie Howard completing the story's quartet of stars with a glowing portrait of Ashley.

The government printing office will get out 1000 copies of a two page speech for a Congressman who wishes to mail them to his constituents for $25. In as much as the government printing office has to set the type for the Congressional record it is a pickup for the order for extra copies. Most printers would consider $25 for such a job very good. It is evident the government printing office is not losing any money for the taxpayer when it comes to doing printing for the members of Congress.

The new law will allow 19,700 women in the U. S. armed services. This includes 6000 for the WAC, 4300 for the WAF and 2200 for the Marines. No provision was made for the SPARS. Applicants must be 20 to 31 years old, high school graduates, and citizens of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brooks and daughter, Nelda Kay, and Mrs. Ennis Setliff and son, Jerry, left Wednesday for Trinidad, Colo., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brooks.

Methodists to Observe Oct. 17 as College Day

Dallas, Texas — Members of Methodist churches in five of the state's church conferences will unite Sunday in support of Methodist-owned colleges and universities in Texas.

Churches in the Texas, Southwest Texas, North Texas, Central Texas and Rio Grande Conferences will observe October 17 as Texas Methodist College Day.

Members of churches in the Northwest Texas Conference will hold their College Day observance on November 14.

Bishop A. Frank Smith of Houston listed a three-fold purpose of the observance: to unite Texas Methodism in support of all Methodist higher educational institutions in the state; to inform Methodists of the importance of the church-related college; and to receive a free-will offering toward support of Methodist colleges in Texas.

"There is more to this movement and to this particular occasion than the taking of a collection or the welfare of denominational institutions," Bishop Smith said. "Paramount emphasis in this observance will be upon the right and duty of the Christian Church to remain in the field

Note of Caution Sounded for Wheat Situation in U. S.

Used to be, Texas farmers had this choice—they could grow wheat that gave high yields, or they could grow wheat that had good baking quality.

Now they have a different choice. It's a choice between several varieties, all of which have both yields and good baking qualities.

In past years, Texas had a good reputation for growing fine quality wheat that was in demand because it was nearly all of good baking qualities.

But Texas wheat growers want it the other way around so they can make the money—not the northern mills. And it looks like this is what's going to happen according to a recent wheat survey.

In the main wheat areas of Texas, Westar and Comanche are recommended for the bakers, and Wichita and Triumph for family trade flour.

AREN'T YOU GLAD YOU'RE YOU

Isn't you glad you're you? You should be! Life is a pleasure if you're but willing.

The old philosophy of living each day as if it were your last is still a good one to follow. See what a change it makes to cram as much good will as possible into today.

Some people walk around in a constant cloud of gloominess. Then again, there are those who seem to let anything get them down—like the girl who can smile when told she must stay home with her younger brother, when she had other plans; or like the boy who patiently waits in the train for a bus.

Your lifetime is limited, so why waste any of it scowling at the world? Perk up that disposition and see how good it feels.

A recent magazine described life as a mirror. When you smile, it smiles back; when you frown, it frowns back. Make your mirror. Is yours a happy reflection?

POULTRY JUDGING TEAM REPRESENTS CROWELL FFA IN NATIONAL CONTEST

The Crowell High FFA Poultry Judging team including Donald Reynolds, Glen Jones, James Rice, alternate H. L. Ayers and the instructor, Marvin Myers, left Crowell Sat., Oct. 2 to represent Texas in the National Poultry Judging Contest held at Waterloo, Iowa.

The first stop was Norman, Okla., where we saw Texas A & M play Oklahoma University in a runaway football game, the score A & M 14, O. U. 42.

From Norman we journeyed by way of Oklahoma City, where we visited the capitol building. Later we also saw the capitol buildings at Topeka, Kansas and Des Moines, Iowa. While traveling through the Ozarks, the group saw some beautiful scenery, especially the Lake of the Ozarks. When passing thru Jefferson City, Mo., we noticed luxuriant corn fields (some fields will average 100 bushels or more).

Arriving in Waterloo after a three-day journey, we visited the National Poultry Congress. After registering, we were assigned beds in a gymnasium. Everyone laughed at our Texas brogue and considered some of our expressions very peculiar.

Since the next day (Wed.) was the day of the contest, we got up at 5 a. m. and went fifty miles to Iowa Falls, where the contest was held. Returning to Waterloo, we attended a luncheon given by the John Deere Co. and then made a tour of the John Deere tractor plant, the largest single tractor plant in the world.

The next morning we were appointed to hold four cows for the Dairy judges to judge. As a result we got wet in the cold Iowa rain, almost froze to death, and took colds.

That night we were guests at the Tavern on the Green, a very attractive night club in northern Waterloo. The Craft Cheese Company made this possible and we spent a very enjoyable three hours. The chief entertainers were a Swiss yodeling family including the father, two daughters and a son. They were not only excellent singers but also were very humorous.

After this entertainment, results of the contest were announced. We learned that we had placed in the Bronze Emblem winners. (The five divisions were the gold, silver, bronze, honorable mention, and participants.)

Leaving for home Friday morning, we came back through Des Moines, Iowa, Independence, Mo., (where we saw President Truman's home), Kansas City, Mo., Kansas City, Kan., and through central Oklahoma, arriving home at 10:40 Saturday night.

The trip was wonderful. Although we did not place in the Gold Emblem as we had hoped, we were glad to place in the Bronze Emblem, considering so much competition.

FOOTBALL EASY TO UNDERSTAND!!!

Sometime during a busy Friday a bell rings three times. You grab your books and rush down the hall to a pep meeting. You are thrilled and feeling top full of school spirit when you pass your favorite football hero and he gives you a big smile.

Tripping home at four o'clock you don your black and gold pep uniform, eat a snack and with some friends, rush back to school to meet Miss Close and board the bus for Holliday. Just one thing worries you. You never understand football, which is a very fast moving game. Dad had tried to tell you what was going on, and your friend has two brothers who explained the tactics to you. But at the time you were so proud of their two touchdowns that you only heard bits of the conversation.

Fellows expect the modern girls to know what's up. It isn't proper to keep asking all about the game when your friends are so interested in every move of the players. What to do? Write down all the terms which are most common and proceed something like this:

Penalties, two types: Minor offenses and more grave errors are penalized by submission of yardage. For instance, a 15-yard penalty is imposed for unnecessary roughness, holding, etc. The offended team may decline a penalty if it so desires, that is keep its gain and disregard the error of the other team.

Touch-back: Ball is in possession of the defensive team behind its own goal and was put there by the offensive team.

Block kick: Opposing team rushes behind the line and blocks ball before it gets to line of scrimmage.

Line of scrimmage: The battle line between the two teams. (The team with the ball must have seven players on the line.)

Here you pause for a few minutes to think over the things you have just read. Now it is beginning to make sense. Why didn't you try this before?

Off-side: The instance of a player being across the line before the ball is put in play.

Safety: The offensive team is tackled behind their own goal line. Punt: The offensive is transferred to other side by member of backfield kicking the ball down field to defensive side. Lateral pass: Any backward pass.

Fumble: Offensive player drops ball in process of play, either team eligible for recovery, but the defensive team may not advance the ball unless it is recovered in the air.

Scoring is handled in the following manner: Touchdown, six points; conversion, one point; safety, two points; and field goal, three points.

Conversion for the extra point is obtained by: (1) drop kick or place kick over the posts; (2) running or passing across the goal line (like touchdown). For the kick, the line, and the ball must be kicked over the goal posts which are ten yards beyond the goal line in order to score the extra point.

Once again you start to the game, and this time proud of your knowledge of the game you are about to see; you leave smiling because you are certain to have a good time.

A SLUMBER PARTY

On a cold autumnal night what's more fun than a slumber party? Long, lazy hours of listening to stacks of records, playing gin rummy, discussing what to wear to the Hallow'en dance and ending up in the kitchen for a midnight snack. And at last, in the wee small hours falling into bed. After you get yourself separated from everyone else, you sleep soundly for about an hour or two, then burr goes the alarm clock. Every one drags out of bed and somehow manages to get dressed and catch the school bus on time.

At school you tell what a wonderful time you had, but you always seem to manage to get to bed early the next night. After a good night's sleep you feel full of pep and vim again, ready for another all-night party!

WILDCAT FULLBACK, JERRY CULBERTSON

Here's a "verbal" loving cup to a Wildcat that consistently plays a good game!

Jerry Culbertson could easily be called the player of the week. His teammates would be the first to agree. He is a sophomore, and this is his last year of eligibility. He came here from Ft. Worth, where he played football for Stripling Junior High School.

In the game against Valley View last Friday Jerry made two runs for two touchdowns, one for 15 yards and one for 85 yards, the longest run thus far this season. Jerry, "The Foot," as he is lovedly called by his teammates will be ready for Seymour Friday Night.

Here's a salute to one swell player!!!!

PICKINS

Gazing into my crystal ball, I, your mysterious Mr. X for the first time in my life, am trying to guess a few games played in this district tomorrow night.

First off I see Archer City being scored on for the first time this year but winning from a strong Jacksboro team 13-7. I also see Holliday coming in on the short end of the score for the first time, losing to Iowa Park 13-6. I firmly believe that Chillicothe will beat Burk Burnett 19-0. Olney will be seeking her second victory this year when they beat Valley View about 30-0. Now for the one that broke my crystal ball. It just blew into millions of pieces when I asked what the score between Crowell and Seymour will be. Nevertheless nervously I say Crowell 13 and Seymour 0.

Please don't rub it in too hard if I miss very many. But you can never tell about a football game.

The district standings are as follows:

Team	W	L	T
Archer City	3	0	0
Holliday	2	0	0
Seymour	2	1	0
Crowell	1	1	0
Olney	1	2	0
Iowa Park	1	2	0
Burk Burnett	0	3	0
Valley View	0	3	0
Chilli-cothe	0	2	0

Common Colds Are Widespread During Fall Months

Austin, Texas. Sudden seasonal changes in the weather result in the fall months often result in chilling which in turn is usually followed by wide-spread in-disease always spreads rapidly be-people can live isolated lives and in any group or crowd of people, coughing, sneezing and spitting will scatter millions of cold germs among susceptible persons.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
By DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Life and Law
Lesson for October 17, 1948

YOU, friend reader, probably know less about what is in the books of Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy than any other part of the Bible. These are the sections mostly filled with laws—
"Thou shalt . . .
Thou shalt not."
You either skip these entirely or you say to yourself,
"well, that has nothing to do with me." If so, you
Dr. Foreman
have been missing
one of the most interesting sections of the Bible.

Some of these old laws are dead;
but even a mummy can be interesting. Call them dead if you like; you still can learn a great deal about the times and the minds and the customs of those far-off days by reading the laws which governed people's daily lives.

But it is hardly fair to call them dead. Rather, they have been honorably retired. That is to say, they were admirable laws in their time and place, and God's will was learned through them.

THE LIVING SOUL OF LAW
There are two ways of looking at any law, or you might say, there are two sides of every law, the inside and the outside, the soul and the body as it were. The body, the outside, is the letter of the law; the inside, or soul of the law is the spirit or principle of the law.

The body of the law, like the body of a man, dies; it is not intended to live on and on. But the soul of the law (if it has one, some don't) lives forever.

Take, for instance, that law in Lev. 19:10. The body of it, the letter, says: Do not be efficient in getting in your crops. Leave some wheat in the field. Leave some grapes on the vine.

Today that sounds rather stupid, on the face of it, and no good farmer would pay attention to it.
But look at the spirit of that law;
the wheat and the grapes were to be left for "the poor and the stranger." There was then no Red Cross, no bureau of displaced persons, no traveler's aid, no family service, no social security, none of our many modern agencies for the underprivileged. Those who had property were hidden to have a care for those who had none.

The duty of society to see that no one starves, the duty of all to help those in need, that is the living soul of this law, and it still breathes in laws of the 20th century—laws of old age assistance, maternity assistance, pension plans and so forth.

The living soul of the Old Testament laws can be expressed this way: The love of justice and the justice of love. The best and wisest laws today are those which give this same spirit its fullest and most practical form.

JESUS' LAST WORD
The Jews figured out that there were in all 613 separate commandments in all the laws combined.
They used to have interesting debates as to which of all the 613 commandments was the most important.

They came to Jesus with that well-worn question, Jesus quoted only two laws, one from Deut.
6:5 and the other from Lev. 19:
18. Love God, love your neighbor, he said. All the other laws depend on these two.

To this day, Christian thinkers are not entirely agreed as to just how far Old Testament laws may be binding on Christians. But all are agreed on two points: The basic principle of these laws is always good, and that fundamental principle is love.

LOVE IS NOT REPEALED
This is what Christians mean when they say that the laws of God are eternal. We do not mean that every law between the covers of the Bible can and should be used as the law of our land today.

Butch (graduating): Goodbye,
I am indebted to you for all I

Coach: Don't mention such a trifle.

Two frogs sat in a restaurant.
One ordered, but the other sat saying nothing. Finally his friend asked him why he didn't order.

"I can't," whispered the other frog. "I have a man in my throat."

Judy: Who was Hamlet?
Miss Close: I'm amazed at your ignorance. Bring me a Bible and I'll show you.

A jeep rounded a corner on two wheels, knocked down a policeman and four pedestrians, overturned a fruit cart, and finally wrapped itself around a telephone pole. A sweet young thing got out. "Yippee," she cried. "That's what I call a kiss."

Peggy: Would you scold me for something I didn't do?
Mr. Graves: Of course not, that wouldn't be fair.

Peggy E.: Well, I didn't do my homework.
Mrs. Davis: Order, please.
Voice from back of room: Dumb-ble chocolate malted.

Miss Rachel Hickman Becomes Bride of Walter Carl Taylor

Miss Rachel Joyce Hickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guynn Hickman of Truscott became the bride of Walter Carl Taylor on Sunday, October 10, at 8 o'clock in the morning at the Truscott Methodist Church.

Mrs. Curtis Casey, pianist, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. For the entrance of the bride, on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, Mrs. Casey played the Bridal theme from Lohengrin. Debussy's Clair de Lune provided an ethereal atmosphere for the exchange of vows. Pink gladioli, white mums and fern formed the background for the ceremony. Bouquets of pink gladioli marked the family pews. Rev. J. V. Patterson read the double ring ceremony.

Miss Clara Jones of Truscott was the only attendant of the bride. She wore a dove-grey frock with a corsage of red rose buds. Felix Taylor, brother of the groom, was best man and groomsmen were Charley Guynn Hickman and Walter Grantham.

The bride was attired in a grey suit with grey accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias. As something old she wore an heirloom locket.

For the reception held at the home of Mrs. D. S. Ellis, pink asters and white mums were used in decoration. The triple tiered cake was topped by a miniature bell with a tiny bride and groom within. The house guests included Mrs. Jack Hickman, Misses Winnie Sue Turner, Ann Haynie, Camille Todd and Elba Joyce Cadwell.

Approximately thirty-five guests of Truscott registered at the reception besides the wedding party. Immediately following the reception the bride and groom left for a trip to New Mexico. Upon their return the couple will live at Decatur.

The bride is a graduate of Benjamin High School and attended Texas Tech at Lubbock. The groom is a graduate of Benjamin High School and attended Texas A & M and Texas Tech. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Taylor of Truscott.

The guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Roquemore of Meridian, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Williams of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Grantham of Decatur, grandparents of the groom. Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Grantham of Fort Worth and Mrs. Leroy Melton and Mrs. Bol-den Moorhouse of Benjamin.

Harold W. Banister Is Married to Miss Soehner on October 1

On October 1st, Miss Marie Soehner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Soehner of Arnel, Colo., became the bride of Harold W. Banister, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Banister of Thalia in an evening candlelight ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Burkhardt of Houston.

A chorus made up of friends first sang "I Love You Truly" and hummed it softly while Herman Sergeant, minister of the Bay City Church of Christ, recited the poem "How Do I Love Thee" by Elizabeth Barrett Browning. Mrs. Clayton Tuggle, with the soft Aeopella background, sang the traditional Lohengrin's Wedding March.

Miss Soehner was given in marriage by Delbert Burkhardt and John H. Banister, brother of the groom and minister of the Sears and Summitt Streets Church of Christ in Dallas, performed the single ring ceremony before a background of palms and lighted candles in tall candelabra. Only friends and immediate relatives attended the marriage.

The bride, wearing a street length dress of vintage purple and a cymidium orchid corsage with a matching arrangement in her hair, was attended by Miss Elouise Crew of Houston who wore a street length dress of silver crepe trimmed in gray satin and her corsage was of guernsey lilies.

The groom was attended by his brother, Bryan H. Banister as best man.

Following the wedding reception the couple left for a honeymoon trip which will take them through West Texas and Colorado, after which they will make their home in San Francisco, Calif.

From 1939 until March of this year, when she began work in Austin, the bride lived in San Francisco where she attended college and was employed. Mrs. D. S. Ellis and Mrs. Jack Hickman directed the guests into the dining room where the table was decorated to carry out the bridal theme. A lace cloth furnished a beautiful background for a centerpiece made of a white satin pedestal, on top of which were a miniature bride and groom. An outline of white chrysanthemums and henlock were reflected in the mirror at the base of the arrangement and the whole was flanked by tall tapers in crystal holders.

Miss Bonita Snailum of Benjamin was at the silver tea service while Mrs. J. E. Stover and Mrs. Tom Masterson Jr. assisted in the dining room.
