NEW POLITICAL SCANDAL
The New York Herald Tribune, in a copyrighted story from Washington, said that "a major political scandal will explode momentarily in Washington over the firing of a top career official in the Internal Revenue Service, who charges that he was dismissed for refusing to conduct a white-wash investigation of a political appointee. Involved in case, according to the newspaper, are Edgar E. Hoppe of Dallas, Tex., attorney, who was fired from his post as Chief of Department's Inspection Service (shown above). Others are said to be Internal Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews and Deputy Commissioner O. Gordon Delk Jr., who allegedly brought the "white-wash" report and fired Hoppe for refusing to conduct a white-wash investigation of a political appointee. Dear Editor:

Apologies are due our custodians for the article the Wildcat News carried last week about the work done on the campus by the V. A. boys. Instead of saying we built the new football stadium, sidewalks on the campus, etc., the article should have stated that the VA boys helped on these projects. Allen Taylor, Carl Cox, Elmer Brisco and J. D. Husley did the major portion of this work, and the VA boys merely helped. We are proud of the fact that we had a part in these worthy projects. However, the article should have stated that this work was always done on a voluntary basis, and Mr. Myers, our advisor, has always given us an opportunity of going to the study hall instead of working.

We owe much credit to Allen Taylor, who has supervised these projects. This work has been beyond his duty, and he deserves as much if not more credit than any other individual.

We also want to admit that the Homemaking girls have helped out in some very worthy projects, too. They have served meals to the School Board and other organizations of the school, they furnish waitresses for the various school banquets, and have mended the football equipment on various occasions. In fact, we have a good school because all departments pledge their talents for those things that they are called on to carry out.

Signed: Ex-V. A. Boy.

WHY I WOULD LIKE TO BE POPULAR

The main reason I would like to be popular is that I like people and want them to like me. I want to be included in social events. Not just parties that only a few chosen ones can attend, but to parties where large crowds gather. I don't want just one intimate friend. I would rather have many friends, but none close. I feel like I am owned if I have just one friend. I also feel mean and hateful if I go with someone else and the close friend is not there. As far as an intimate friend to tell your secrets to, a dog or any other animal will do. An animal can't tell your secrets to anyone else. They are safe. Usually when you tell your friend something secret, it is because you want to talk.

BRO. ALY ADDRESSES STUDENT BODY

On Tuesday, Sept. 13, an assembly was held in the auditorium. Senior class president, Ray Gibson, introduced the cheer leaders, who led the students in the school song. Ray then introduced Rev. C. T. Aly, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Crowell.

Using as his text, Psalms 16-11, "Thou wilt shew me the path of life; in thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore." Bro. Aly gave an inspiring talk, bringing out the points: find your place and prepare yourselves for it.

NEWS, VIEWS AND INFO

In the last issue of the student newspaper, "The Prairie" of West Texas State College, we noticed the picture of Joe Walden, who is halfback for the Buffs. Joe's mother, the former Miss Ellis, taught in the Crowell Elementary School for several years.

Since our scientists have predicted as many changes in the next fifty years as there have been in the past fifty years with new uses of atomic energy, President Eisenhower advocates a five year high school course and a five year college course. He believes that working hours will be greatly shortened; consequently, Americans will need to learn more in school in order to spend their leisure time in a worthwhile manner—reading, painting, carpentering, acting, and others.

According to a recent report, Russia has a jet bomber that far outstrips anything yet produced by the United States. This bomber was shown at a recent air show in Moscow. It can travel a round trip without refueling, to the heart of the United States. Although we own many bases, our planes could be knocked out while they were refueling like so many decoys. It is believed that we should no longer keep the truth from the people; it is the truth that will inspire Americans to work harder to bring our air force into first place again.

Salt Lake City, the center of the Mormon religion, boasts that it has the world's biggest basketball league. Police say that juvenile delinquency is practically nonexistent. From the toddler stage upward, the church (Mormon) provides a year of activities and programs. Each age group has a specific program worked out. A total of 130 facilities are operated such as ballet, opera, painting, ceramics, as well as the basketball teams.

Historian Arthur Bester, University of Illinois, caused more heart breaks on apoplexy with his book, "Educational Wastelands." The solution is simple: merely restore to public education from high school up for every student regardless of vocation, ambition or fortune, a basic education—math, history, physical sciences, literature, foreign language, and religion. Perhaps if Dr. Bester is right, there is an advantage in going to a small school since they stress these subjects.

The Parade of Homes Week, which was observed in Dallas, Ft. Worth, Wichita Falls and many other cities, ended Sept. 18. Dallas had open house at 75 homes. Wichita Falls had 16. Some were completely furnished by different furniture stores. It is a good way for future home builders to get ideas. Some youngsters get ideas, too; a certain youngster in CHS, in speaking of the intercom system in an expensive house, said, "Oh, my goodness, what if the daughter's best friend were spending the night and the mother turned in on their conversation?"

According to Henry A. Holle, commissioner of health in Texas, the healing value of dirt containing small amounts of uranium, "isn't worth the time it takes a man to cover his aching feet." A check of one uranium health center showed cards from eight different states. Between 200 and 300 patrons visited the center daily. The advantages received by patrons are probably only temporary physiological relief.

ROOF MISSING!

Flash! Attention, everyone, please, for this announcement. Has anyone seen the roof of CHS? It has been reported missing since Friday afternoon after the report of senior class rings coming. The rings are believed to be the suspect in the mysterious disappearance. When the rings came, much shouting and crying was heard all around. After this excitement, the roof was reported missing. The description of the suspect is as follows: two small wildcats on each side of the ruby red set in the center, around the set are the words Crowell High School in gold letters with a black background; under each wildcat is the year divided, nineteen on one side and 56 on the other. The rings are very beautiful, and everyone was too engrossed in seeing the rings and proudly showing them off to notice the disappearance of the roof. If this roof is seen around, please report it to the office of CHS.

CROWELL STOMPS MEMPHIS 34-14

Crowell journeyed to Memphis to play the Cyclones. The Wildcats kicked off to the Cyclones and held them on the first four downs. The Wildcats then took the pigskin and marched for the first touchdown in the first few minutes of the ball game. Good running was shown by fullback Ray Gibson. Excellent blocking was shown by McDaniel and Boren and by that great touchdown player, McBeath. Crowell won by a small margin, 34-14. Good work was shown by the managers.

Enlistment of "Buddy Teams" Now Being Accepted by Army

Enlistment of "buddy teams" of two or more friends are being accepted by the U. S. Army with buddies to serve together at least through basic training.

Notation of the buddy enlistment is made on each man's file, and the friends are kept together as long as possible within the available vacancies of the service.

Men enlisting for specific units, such as the Airborne Divisions, quite often find it possible to spend their three-year enlistment together. Those enlisting under one of the Army's unit rotation plans are assured of staying in the same division for a three year period.

Information on the "buddy" enlistment system and on career possibilities within the Army is available at the U. S. Army Recruiting Station at the court house in Vernon.

Chillicothe Farmer Honored by Many Groups in This Area

by Henry Ashford

E. A. Kennedy has been an inspiration to farmers in the Chillicothe area of the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District with the outstanding success he has derived with the complete water and soil conservation programs he has carried out on his land since becoming a district co-operator in April, 1948.

So outstanding has Kennedy been with his practices that he was named the "Outstanding Soil Conservation Farmer" of the district this year and was presented a plaque by the Quannah Junior Chamber of Commerce. He will be presented a plaque for the same honor by the Crowell Lions Club as soon as he recovers sufficiently from a broken leg suffered several months ago.

During the years Kennedy has been a co-operator he has become an authority on soil conservation and many farmers of the area seek his advice in establishing many practices.

Kennedy owns 820 acres of land and rents an additional 1,400 acres. Of this 500 acres are in cultivation and 400 are in pasture. A complete conservation program, including terracing, contour farming, waterways, stubble mulching and different soil building legumes, are on the 820 acres he owns. All needed conservation practices are being established on the rented land as fast as possible.

Kennedy is especially interested in mung beans and guar. He reports that he obtains a 25 per cent increase in yields on cotton or wheat where it is planted after mung beans and guar. During the winter, in rotation with wheat, he likes to plant Austrian winter peas, which are turned under in May and then the land fallowed the remainder of the year until wheat planting time in the fall. This practice sometimes doubles his yield. A neighbor, W. W. Walser, stated that this same practice doubled his wheat yield during

Don Brown left Sunday for Houston where he will enter Rice Institute for the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bates have recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Mann Tackett in Seymour.

L. A. Haynie is in the Knox County Hospital at the time of this writing.

Winnie Sue Turner of Amarillo spent awhile Saturday visiting friends here.

Rev. A. G. Abbott of Electra will preach at the First Christian Church Sunday, Sept. 25. Morning service is at 11 and evening service at 7.

RECORD MILO MAIZE CROP

Forecasts of a record crop of milo maize are being proven true as harvest of the crop spreads north in Texas.

Yields of 3,000 to 5,000 pounds of grain per acre are common. Much of the maize was planted on land taken out of cotton under the government support price program and the bulk of it apparently will go into storage.

Livestock specialists are advising that it would be a good bet for farmers to use some of this grain to feed out cattle and hogs. Maize has just about the same feeding value as corn and will be selling at a favorable price.

Scouting Makes Great Progress in Northwest Texas Council

Scouting in the Northwest Texas Council has grown by leaps and bounds in the last five years. Mike Bird, Foard County Scout executive, said this week.

"We are looking forward to a record year in 1956," Mr. Bird added. "In 1950 we had 4549 boys in Scouting in this Council, and this year the average number has been 5017."

This healthy growth in Scouting was achieved through the fine work of many volunteer workers in churches and other organizations sponsoring Scout units, the Scout executive said.

At the present time there are 165,000 members in the Scouting movement in Texas. Statistically, this amounts to one of every 4.7 boys of Scouting age, Boy Scout figures show.

In 1956, the Boy Scouts hope to reach more youngsters in Texas. "Every Texas boy wanting to become a Scout must be enabled to do so, our whole effort must be vastly expanded. We must give more help to churches and other sponsors of units. Likewise, our camping facilities must be expanded. It is always good to remember that all these young Texans are helping themselves develop physical fitness, skill, self reliance, courage and high ideals of service to God and country," Mr. Bird said. "Your contributions to the Boy Scout independent campaign will help us reach our goal."

Some of the budget raised in the thirteen counties will go toward the upkeep of Camp Perkins, where hundreds of youngsters enjoy summer camp each year. Last year more than 780 camper weeks were spent there by youngsters getting the thrills of their lives.

Camp Perkins is well developed and has facilities to take care of most outdoor activities. At a reasonable cost, youngsters can enjoy swimming, boating, canoeing, handicraft and camping, all under the guidance of experts.

"Scouting is not for any select group. It takes in all future Texans. It is for boys of every race, religion and economic background. Contributions to your local finance campaign will help this fine program move ahead," Mr. Bird concluded.

BEST SELLING GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS

Each year the Government Printing Office sells carloads of pamphlets and booklets on practically every subject. One publication has been so popular that sales have reached the 10,000,000 mark and others have sold well into the millions. The best sellers include such varied titles as "Prospecting for Uranium," "Infant Care," "Pointers on Making Good Lawns," and "Photography." — Changing Times.

Austin, Tex.—Granite in the capitol building is more radioactive than the dirt being used by Texas' mushrooming "uranium dirt-sitting" businesses. So say state health department officials.

Landowners near uranium strikes have erected benches and charge patrons $2 to $3 an hour to sit with their feet in the supposedly irradiated dirt. Hundreds of people seeking relief from arthritis and other aches have patronized the places.

After analyzing the dirt, Dr. Henry Holle, health commissioner, said that dirt-sitting does no actual harm—except that it may encourage an ill person to delay visiting a physician.

Farm Hearing Slated

Texas farmers can have their say on federal farm policy at a U. S. Senate committee hearing Nov. 5 in Fort Worth.

John C. White, state agriculture commissioner, is arranging the meeting at the request of the committee chairman.

Drought Aid Sought

Federal disaster aid is being sought for Texas' drought-stricken areas.

Gov. Allan Shivers asked President Eisenhower to designate as disaster areas counties to be specified by the U. S. Department of Agriculture state drought committee.

Crop Production Falls

Texas crops are falling below estimates, according to the USDA. Although above-normal amounts of rain fell in some areas, it did not come where and when it was needed most, said the report. Eastern and southeastern counties, where harvest already had begun, were soaked. But in the west and northwest, dryland cotton and sorghum fields languished.

Water Application Undecided

Still to be decided upon is the application for more Federal Reservoir water to irrigate U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson's Gillespie Coun-

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Foard City Church met on Monday, Sept. 19, with Mrs. Blake McDaniel presiding. The reading of scripture in unison opened the meeting, followed by a prayer.

An article from "To the End of the Earth" proved to be a self-examining document, giving each listener an opportunity to test her spiritual growth during recent months.

Since the new study will be of Korea and her problems, economic, political and religious, Mrs. McDaniel gave a brief history of the country, dealing especially with the war and post-war years.

The story of Professor Lloyd Schmoie and his personal rehabilitation work in Hiroshima and Korea was told by Mrs. Grady Halbert. She also gave additional instances of American volunteers who are not only helping finance and operate a multitude of projects in far-off lands to help others help themselves.

Mrs. W. L. Johnson brought the afternoon's devotional on "What is your chief concern each day?"

Mrs. F. A. Traweck dismissed the group with a prayer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Hammonds to eight.

URANIUM SITTING HOUSES OPENED IN KNOX COUNTY

Pete Vinson, a paint and body shop operator in Munday, has opened a "uranium sitting room" at his home in Munday, according to a news item in the Knox County Herald at Knox City.

The article states that the dirt in the room comes from Comanche County, Mr. Vinson's former home. He says it is just like the dirt in the "sitting houses" in the county, which recently received wide publicity.

Several other uranium houses are being opened in the area, including one at Rule.
