

Bears Trounce Greyhounds, 48-0 At Strawn Last Friday Night

The Baird Bears won their third District 8B game from the downtrodden Strawn Greyhounds last Friday night at Strawn by a score of 48 to 0. The Bears were complete masters of every situation in the game and especially the second half.

The Bears scored their first TD when Halfback Charles Brame slashed over from the one foot line in the first quarter. Kyle Meadows failed to convert and the Bears led, 6-0.

In the same period Jimmy Higgins dashed around his left end and squirmed and twisted his way for 14 yards and a tally. This time Meadows' conversion was through the uprights.

In the second period the Bears scored on a 21 yard run by Fullback J. E. Bullock. The extra point was added by Meadows and the scoring was ended for the half.

The Bears surged back after the half to score two TD's in the third period and two in the fourth.

Cleo Ivy, Bear halfback, added the first tally in the third quarter on a drive from the 6 yard line. Meadows converted.

The next score came on a brilliantly executed play on which Quarterback Paul Jones ran around right end, got into the secondary, and then just ran off and left all Greyhound defenders and went all the way for a TD. The play covered 73 yards. Meadows again converted and at the end of the third quarter the Bears led, 34-0.

In the fourth period Sophomore Arvid Harris plunged over from the one yard marker. Meadows' conversion attempt was good.

The final scoring was made on a 20 yard dash by Lonnie Lawrence, a newcomer to the Bear backfield. Meadows again converted to make it 6 out of 7 attempts.

DICK RUSSELL BACKS ADLA!

RUSSELL IS THE GEORGIA SENATOR FOR WHOM GOVERNOR SHIVERS AND TEXAS DELEGATION VOTED UNANIMOUSLY ON ALL BALLOTS AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION IN CHICAGO

Senator Dick Russell of Georgia, the man the Texas Delegation headed by Gov. Allan Shivers supported on all ballots at the national Democratic convention in Chicago, predicted last week that Adlai Stevenson and John J. Sparkman will be elected by one of the largest majorities given a national ticket in recent years.

Senator Russell, who is chairman of the senate armed services committee and of the senate subcommittee on agriculture, said: "General Eisenhower's evident confusion in his efforts to grapple with vital political issues has clearly demonstrated to the American people the grave danger of placing our government in the hands of a military man. . . . No military career, however great, can be a substitute for familiarity with the operation of a government which traditionally and by law is dependent on civilian control. . . ."

"As one who has admired General Eisenhower as a military leader, I have been bewildered by the endless contradictions of his political pronouncements. It would require a book to catalog them."

"Shortly after stating that he did not understand the term 'Farm Party,' he assured the American farmer of 100% parity for all the products of his toil. As one who has devoted a large part of his legislative service to overcoming Republican opposition to fair farm legislation I have vainly awaited an endorsement of this last farm statement from General Eisenhower's Republican congressional supporters. I have failed to see where one of them has disclaimed his record of opposition to the soil conservation program and to the laws which enabled these farmers to have some idea when they plant their crops what they will receive from their harvest."

"The American voters are thinking for themselves in 1952. Neither the bedlam of this campaign nor the military glamor of the Republican candidate will confuse them. They will go to the polls in the greatest number in our history on November 4 to maintain in power the party of the people."

"Governor Stevenson has the potentialities which can make him one of the greatest presidents who has ever served our country. With the support and prayers of the American people and the aid of the Almighty he devoutly wishes, he will see this nation safely through the dangers of today's world."

(Pol. Adv.—Paid for by Stevenson-Sparkman Committee, Sam, Rayburn, Chairman.)

What the Submerged Lands of Texas Or the So-called "Tidelands Case" Means to Texas

A confusion has been established in the minds of people not only by the erroneous use of the term "tidelands" but also by an attempt to establish these offshore submerged lands to be of no economic importance to the State of Texas.

The offshore submerged lands of Texas and Louisiana are but a continuation of the Gulf Coast Embayment, part of which is located on land, part of which is covered by water. This structural province covers the entire Gulf of Mexico, including the shore areas immediately surrounding it.

This geological province is a very large basin into which rivers, during millions of years, have deposited sediments many thousands of feet thick. Folding, faulting, and uplifting through earth structural changes and piercement by salt masses have resulted in the formation of reservoirs favorable for the accumulation of gas, oil, and sulphur.

The oil fields located along the Gulf Coast of Old Mexico, Texas, and Louisiana are on the landward parts of this basin. The early discovery of these fields was due to the fact that these areas were above sea level where it was cheaper and easier to drill and not because the structures, traps, and salt domes do not occur where the land is below sea level. Sea level has nothing to do with the occurrence of these traps and structures.

With the increase in the demand for oil, gas, and sulphur and improved methods for exploration and drilling, development of the submerged lands became economically feasible and resulted in the discovery of numerous structures and fields offshore. These operations were successfully conducted on the submerged lands of Louisiana and Texas until the title to these offshore submerged lands was questioned by the Federal Government in Washington after which, all drilling was terminated on the submerged lands of Texas.

These undeveloped lands of Texas occur along the same structural trend and at similar depths to the large number of oil and gas fields and sulphur domes that are presently being produced in southern Louisiana on submerged areas raised above sea level by the great delta of the Mississippi River and its distributaries. (Refer Map Exhibit).

If, by Geological happenstance, the Mississippi River had been diverted westward into Texas, at an earlier time, the reverse of the existing status would no doubt exist. The Texas structures and traps would have already been discovered and developed.

The vastness of the oil, gas, condensate, and sulphur potentialities in this submerged land area is indicated by the discoveries made on the landward portion of this basin. As of January 1, 1952 there were 1,085 oil and gas fields producing in Railroad Commission District 2, 3, and 4, within a 100 mile belt along the Gulf Coast line of Texas alone. From these fields, as of the same date 11.9 trillion cubic feet of gas, 5,046 billion barrels of oil and condensate, and 70.9 million long tons of sulphur had already been produced. As of the same date, there still remains a future estimated reserve, already discovered, to be produced, of 50 trillion cubic feet of gas, 5,965 billion barrels of oil and condensate and 50 million long tons of sulphur.

The total gas, oil, condensate, and sulphur discovered in the coastal belt of Texas as of January 1, 1952 was, therefore, 61,940 trillion cubic feet of gas, 11,011 billion barrels of oil and condensate and 120.9 million long tons of sulphur. These total ultimate future recovery estimates are very conservative in that they do not include the fields discovered since the first of the year nor those yet to be discovered in the same land area. 70 new fields have already been discovered this year.

The Texas submerged land areas, immediately adjacent to the Gulf Coastal belt of Railroad Commission Districts 2, 3, and 4 extending for over 400 miles along the coast line having the same geological and structural features have a potentiality for the production of oil, gas, condensate, and sulphur greatly in excess of these totals because of its greater area, better reservoir conditions, and the full use of modern methods of recovery.

However, if the potentialities be assumed to be limited to the equivalent of the ultimate recoveries as set forth above, then the gross ultimate income from the gas at 15c per 1,000 cubic feet would amount to $9,291,000,000. The oil and condensate at an average of $2.65 per barrel $29,179,150,000, and the sulphur at a value of $25.00 per long ton $3,022,500,000 or a total of $41,492,650,000. A more realistic forecast of the possible gross ultimate income would probably be twice the above figure, or say $80 billion.

A royalty of 1/8 accruing to the public school fund would amount to, say $5,000,000,000 on the minimum estimate or $10,000,000,000 on that of the more realistic figure, not including the amounts that would accrue as a bonus for leasing the lands or the rentals received therefrom. It also would not include any ad valorem taxes or a 5% gross production and pipe line tax, the latter alone would amount to $2,000,000,000 or $4,000,000,000, respectively.

If the ownership to these potential oil, gas, and sulphur reserves are seized and nationalized by the Government in Washington, it not only means the loss of this future income to the State School Fund that will have to be replaced by taxes, but will also remove these taxable values as a source of future ad valorem income required to offset the declining oil and gas values of the existing fields located on the adjacent onshore un-submerged land areas.

This brief review of what the Submerged Lands of Texas or the so-called "Tidelands Case" means to Texas and Texans has been evaluated as a public service to the People of Texas by Texas Geologists and Registered Engineers functioning solely as Texas citizens.

THIS NEWSPAPER To Publish Pictures of LOCAL CHILDREN

● Pictures of the children of this community are to be published in this newspaper as a special tribute to our Young Citizens of Tomorrow. Soon the responsibility for world destiny will rest heavily upon their shoulders. As Americans, they will meet those responsibilities without faltering. Among them, in the years to come will be many with fame and fortune. But, just as they are right now... with the dawn of a greater tomorrow in their fresh young faces... this newspaper wants a picture of these future professional men and women, and, who knows, perhaps a future president of our country. These pictures will be published in a forthcoming special feature. So, Mother and Dad, your cooperation will be needed to help make this event a colorful and inspiring exhibit!

● Arrangements have been made with The Woltz Studios, nationally known children's photographers for newspapers, to take the pictures at the time and place given below. ## GOOD BUY

It goes without saying that farm machinery has caused a quiet but thorough agricultural revolution over the last few decades. Once it took 85 per cent of our working force just to produce our food and fiber—today the figure is about 15 per cent. Mechanization—the application of all manner of machines to tasks that were once done slowly and laboriously by muscle-power—is largely responsible. And, as an added dividend, the machine has eliminated endless drudgery and brought far higher living standards to the farm family.

Moreover—and despite widely-held misconceptions to the contrary—the cost of those machines to the farmer who buys them has risen very moderately in the light of the changes that have taken place in other costs and prices.

As of a recent date, for instance, farm wages were 232.5 per cent higher than in 1939. The value of farm products was 217.4 per cent higher. The price of all commodities in general—the many things the farmer and the rest of us buy—was a trifle more than 137 per cent higher. But farm machinery cost only 70 per cent more than in 1939—and the machinery of today is better and faster than that of the past.

That fact brings up some other interesting comparisons. The farm machinery maker gets 70 per cent more for what he sells. At the same time, wages in tractor factories have gone up almost twice as much—138.6 per cent. And in the comparable period, the Federal income taxes paid by a group of leading farm machinery companies showed a sky-high jump of more than 2,000 per cent.

The machine is the key to modern farming. And, on top of that, it's one of the best buys open to the farmer.

WHERE YOU SPEND $1648

Do you know what happened to $1648 of your money last year? If your family is an average one, with four members, that much of its income went for taxes, Federal, state and local, according to Commerce Department figures. And things are getting worse instead of better. The total tax take of government in 1951 was $63,600,000,000. This year the combined total will be around $80,000,000,000.

Taxes now account for at least 30 per cent of the whole national income—which means that one-third of our working time is spent to support government, not ourselves and our families. A very large part of the cost of everything we buy—from so small an item as a loaf of bread to so large a one as a new car—is represented by taxes. It's literally true that you can't walk a block without kicking in to the tax collector—at the least, you'll cause some wear on your shoes and when you have to replace them taxes will enter in to what you must pay for the new pair!

The theory that taxes needn't worry most of us, for the reason that the bill can be paid by the rich, was blown sky-high long ago. The rich are taxed to the point of confiscation now; and if we took a cool 100 per cent of their earnings it wouldn't carry government for more than a few weeks out of the year. The people of small and moderate means must do the great bulk of the paying.

These are facts—not theories. Do you think it is in your interest to take the waste and corruption out of government—and cut taxes?

HOW TO PUT WINGS ON A PIG

Texas is doing it again. The Christian Rural Overseas Program, popularly known as CROP, is working with Church, farm and civic leaders of the Lubbock area on an unusual operation—a "PIGLIFT." The "Good Neighbor Policy" is getting a practical workout. Christian workers in San Salvador and Costa Rica, Central America, have made an appeal for 200 high-grade breeding stock pigs. These are to be put into the hands of the 48 boys of those countries. Under the direction Missionaries and agricultural experts which have been loaned for the purpose, a long range agricultural improvement program is underway there. We are seeking to help them lift their general economic level through improved farm methods. Seed stock help is being given. In the operation of "Pigliff" these little undeveloped Central American countries will furnish the boys if we furnish the pigs. Texas leaders have promised to set the plan in motion here. Donors are responding daily, among them many farm boys.

November 6, 7, and 8, have been set as the dates when the pigs will be received at the Texas Tech farm near Lubbock. Any individual or group wishing to participate may do so. Walter Wells, Stanley Anderson, O. T. Hackney, L. M. Hargrove and John H. Key of Lubbock are some of the outstanding local men who are helping the "Pigliff" to a successful conclusion. On November 17, the pigs will be loaded at the Tech farm for immediate delivery to the boys who will receive them in Central America. There will be no cost to the recipients.

A. H. Leuders, an international figure, will be the speaker at the dedication on the 17th of November. Church World Service and the National Lutheran Council have brought Mr. Leuders from his home in Germany for a ten weeks speaking tour of the U.S.A. Born in London, educated in England and Germany, Mr. Leuders further broadened his views of international affairs by twenty years of buying and exporting in the international Tea Market at Shanghai and Foo Chow, China. Since 1947, Mr. Leuders has served with Helfswerk in Germany and Austria. Helfswerk is an indigenous organization of the German Protestant Churches through which they seek to care for the needy and displaced persons within their own borders. They join with international aid organizations such as CROP to feed and clothe the refugees which still stream across the borders to freedom and to escape the rigors of a totalitarian country. Just before coming to the United States, Mr. Leuders

SCHOOLS PUSH CONSERVATION

AUSTIN — As adult Texans surge ahead with the fall game harvest, the state's youngsters are probing into wildlife and its part in modern civilization for the answers to the need for wildlife conservation.

The eagerness for information and understanding in this field, according to the Director of Conservation Education and Departmental Publications for the Game and Fish Commission, is being expressed through the great number of requests for literature each month and the demand for consultants to interpret technical information to the classroom.

"Within another generation," he said, "at least a greater number of the persons sharing in the wildlife harvest will understand how wildlife populations are produced and maintained, and as a result will have a conservation attitude toward natural resources and practice desirable habits in relation to their use."

The Director said the trend toward recognizing the importance of conserving natural resources has been marked by a tremendous response by school administrators and teachers in all areas of learning and in all stages of curriculum development.

"We are producing and distributing wildlife literature and providing consultant services in the technical field of conservation education," he said. It is a constantly changing picture since there is yet a wide variety of opinions as to best procedures for educating the young in this important subject.

"But it is a universal effort. Approaches to this vital subject are being developed in many languages. The zeal with which the challenge is being accepted is much the same in other states, in Europe, in Africa, South America and Asia as it is in Texas. The human race is fast becoming cognizant of the continuous depletion of natural resources generally; all are aware of the problem posed by the uptrend in population and the difficulty of harmonizing social progress with production from the land and the other natural resources."

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hughes and family were guests of Mrs. Hughes' sister, Mrs. Brooks Hill and Mr. Hill in San Angelo, last weekend.

ON THE BAIRD CAMPUS

With Atreil

The second six weeks of work is well under way at the Baird Elementary School, and even the tiny first graders feel like old veterans at this business of the three R's.

And speaking of first graders, Miss Sibil Myers' beginners are mastering phonics in quick easy strides. The vowels are past history now, and the consonants are coming up. First Graders are writing in their practice books now, too, and making numbers to 100. Second Primers, "We Work and Play" have been issued. There is great improvement in crayola work and if you've ever been tempted to count "coloring" as just so much entertainment, then you've overlooked the "vitamin content" of this school activity—think of it in terms of practice in coordination and you'll see that this work is also doing a great deal for your child.

The Second Graders are ready for Halloween—as you can readily see when you step inside their attractive room. Jack-O-Lanterns, splendid in sparkling frost, beam at you from every angle, and there is an Autumn scene in miniature, complete with raggedy Scare-Crow, pumpkins, Autumn foliage, and even a sassy crow, built in the library section of the room. Second Graders are progressing rapidly in studies, too. "real writing letters" are being mastered and that is a big step for any seven year old. Second Grade readers will be issued soon and the youngsters are now old hands at telling time, writing the days of the week and month. Spelling is a new subject for second graders, but marks are high in this class. Special lessons in Phonics are under way and I don't think you will find a more advanced or a more thorough course anywhere than the one Mrs. Bowler gives her children.

Mrs. Hubert Ross' Third Grade is a pleasant class to visit—the room is gay with Halloween decorations—and you can easily see Mrs. Ross' original and artistic touch—goblin faces on paper-plates, and cute cut-outs of Casper, the friendly ghost, march about the room. Bulletin boards show booklets on Science work which the class has completed—this particular lesson was on the source of our food supplies—animal and plant. Resourceful Mrs. Ross has started a library game with her class which has increased reading experience and vocabulary study just about 100 per cent—reading certificates are issued for every fifteen books read and reported on—stars are added for additional books read. It's a splendid idea to start children on adventures into bookland.

Mrs. Grimes' Fourth Grade and Mrs. Hall's Fifth Grade are having special courses this week in Creative Arts. An art room has been supplied for the work and children are receiving training that you probably can't equal in schools twice the size of this one. Both teachers are highly interested in bringing the value of creative art to their children and are doing a splendid job of it. This particular work is in sculpturing with papier mache, and the results are unusually good.

Mrs. Webster's Sixth Grade is convinced by now that "learning can be fun." Skits in English teach children to give directions clearly and concisely, which is a course most adults could brush up on, too. Health charts have been completed, this one on "Teeth, their work and their care," and the child with the best chart, by popular acclaim of the students, is Norma Jean Weed. Geography lessons this week have been on "Norway—Land of the Midnight Sun" and the children love the way their teacher makes the lessons like a highly interesting story. Sixth graders welcomed Joe Lynn Ault to their room this week and are happy to have him in their school once more.

Mrs. Lee Ivey's Seventh graders are deep in the study of Texas History—the Texas Revolution occupies the spotlight now, and youngsters are learning more and more about Texas heroes, famous battles, and are steadily appreciating more and more the rich history of their state. Seventh Graders are working on their Fire Prevention and Halloween plays which will be ready for a grand presentation this week.

Couldn't close without telling you to be sure and attend the School Carnival and help your youngsters while you celebrate this holiday in a good old fashion way.

The Good? Old Days

UNDER REPUBLICAN RULE

I am an 80-year-old business-managed cotton farmer. I have been around for a long time. I can remember some 30 years ago when Republican rule was evidence. I remember Harding, Coolidge and Hoover especially well.

When cotton was selling for 5c a pound.

When potatoes were 75c a sack.

When red beans were $1.00 a sack.

When wheat was selling for 20c a bushel.

When corn brought only 10c a bushel.

When livestock was selling for 5c a pound, and

When a bank went broke, brother, you were broke.

When no farmer had rural electric service.

When bankers and Chamber of Commerce were fighting these benefits.

When Social Security was unheard of.

When the Valley had thousands of visitors. But they came on freight trains

... hunting jobs.

When you could get a room at any hotel for 50c a night. But no one had 50c.

When we were told to sell apples—but we had no apples.

When Chicken dinners were 20c. But no one had 20c.

When we were promised a chicken in every pot. But we didn't even have a pot to put it in.

When we were promised a car in every garage but we didn't even have a garage.

When prosperity was "just around the corner". —(How did he know the Democrats would win in 32?)

When farmers didn't have 90 per cent parity for crops.

When Jack rabbits were known as Hoover Hogs.

When they told us "prohibition was a noble experiment". It was.

Don't Let Them Take It Away

Don't be a sucker. I hear a lot of you complaining you want a change. If a Republican is elected, you'll get a change but you won't have any change in your pocket.

Again, they are promising you anything you want to vote Republican.

You can't live on promises; we tried it.

Don't let them change our production lines to soup lines.

Don't let them force you to change that farm tractor for an Ox team.

Don't let them make you change that Cadillac for a one-horse shay.

Don't let them make you change that TV set for a magic lantern.

Don't let the Mortgage Bankers take your home and farm again.

Don't let them hide Tea Pot Dome behind a Mink coat.

Don't let them put another DULLES in Our State Department.

Don't let them turn your Bank Account into Bank-RUPTCY.

Don't let them turn the clock of progress back a half Century.

Don't let them tell you that a cheap dollar won't buy more than no $$$.

Don't let them make you believe that it is immoral for the farmer and laboring man to have a decent standard of living.

Don't be deceived by Republican propaganda, they even accused "Ikey" of being a Communist before the Convention.

Rayburn Says Demo Victory a Cinch

House Speaker Sam Rayburn, chairman of the Stevenson-Sparkman Committee, predicted this week that Adlai Stevenson and John J. Sparkman, Democratic nominees for President and vice-president, will win a solid victory in Texas in next Tuesday's election.

"All indications point to the greatest vote in Texas history," Mr. Rayburn said. "That is good for our side. There are simply more Democrats than non-Democrats in Texas. So, if the true Democrats go to the polls—and they are so aroused they will go—Texas will remain Democratic."

Mr. Rayburn has been highly critical of misrepresentations in which he says the so-called Democrats for Eisenhower have engaged in the campaign. He predicted that the majority of the people in Texas will administer a stinging rebuke to them in Tuesday's election.

"Texans remember how things were in 1932 after 12 years of Republican rule," he declared. "Texans know how things are with them today after 20 years of progressive Democratic leadership. Texans don't want to go back—Texans want to go forward. They will continue to go forward with the Democratic party."

FORT WORTH—Heavy movement of cattle and calves continued this week. However, a stronger stocker and feeder market and broader demand for replacement cattle and calves helped prices away to a better start at Fort Worth Monday. Fat calves shared the stronger market. Many sales of stockers and fat calves were $1 or more above a week ago at Fort Worth. First interest in many weeks in light-weight stocker calves this week resulted in some calf sales sharply higher for their kind. Typical was a lot of 42 calves at 216 pounds at $24.50. Hugh Rogers, Knox County, had 32 stocker steer yearlings at 521 lbs. at $22.50, with 31 heifers at 493 lbs. at $18. G. R. White, Brady, had cows at $14.50 and $15.50. Curtis Martin, Motley County, sold cows at $14 and $16 at Fort Worth Monday. Mrs. Jessie Mae Williams, Midland, had three loads of 961-lb. cows at $12.50. C. F. Mock, Oklahoma, had two loads of 1,152-lb. steers at $29.

Lambs were strong to 50 cents higher at Fort Worth Monday, and ewes were mostly 50 cents up. Feeders and yearlings ruled steady.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings drew $23 to $31, and plain and medium sorts sold from $14 to $21, with cutter grades from $10 to $13. Fat cows cashed at $13 to $16, a few heiferettes to $18. Canners and cutters cleared at $7 to $13. Bulls sold from $16 to $13.50.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold for $18 to $23, with fancy heavyweights of 500 to 600 pounds at $23 to $26. Plain and medium butcher sorts cashed at $14 to $17, with cull sorts from $10 to $13.

Hogs topped at $18, lowest since April, 1952. Sows drew $14 to $16.50.

Good and choice stocker calves ranged from $17 to $24.50, some mixed steer and heifer calves averaging 216 pounds at $24.50, and some plain and medium kinds sold from $13 to $17. Stocker steer yearlings cashed at $14 to $22.50. Stocker cows drew $11 to $18. Several sizable shipments of feeder steers and heifers sold in the $16 to $19 bracket.

Medium, good and choice slaughter lambs sold from $18 to $23, and stocker and feeder lambs sold from $18 to $15. Cull lambs and yearlings, as well as some cull two's, sold from $6 to $8. Aged wethers sold from $4 to $8, and slaughter ewes drew $3.50 to $5. Old bucks sold from $3 to $4. Slaughter yearlings drew $8 to $15.

WIVES PICKET UNION

RICHMOND, Va.—Never underestimate the power of a woman, the advertisements say, and wives of bakery union members here put the saying to the test.

They went on strike against a strike. Sick of payless pay-days, the ladies picketed union headquarters. They carried signs reading "We Wives Demand Union Sign Contract, Our Children Must Eat," and "We Demand You Let Our Husbands Work."

That proved a tough picket line to ignore. Within a few days, Local 592, Truck Drivers and Helpers Union settled negotiations with four bakeries which had dragged on for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Walls had as their guests last weekend, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis and son of Sweetwater, and Mr. and Mrs. James Walls of Hobbs, New Mexico.

ORDERLY COTTON MARKETING

A marketing problem may develop in Texas this fall which should attract the attention of every crop producer.

The commodity to watch, primarily, is cotton but all crops can be similarly affected when unexpected surpluses develop. At present, there is no big surplus in cotton, but here is the situation:

Cotton prices declined slightly following the United States Department of Agriculture's production report in early October. The report showed an increase of 524,000 bales above the previously expected total.

Growers of cotton immediately expressed the fear that this decline would continue if the true facts of the cotton situation were not clearly understood.

There should be no alarm at all about this modest increase in 1952 prospects. This added production will be needed. The higher figure is still well below the 1952 production goal and is just about the same as the expected domestic and export demand for cotton during the marketing year.

Since this is the case, the farmer would do well to hold a part of his cotton for this year in anticipation of a good market a few months from now. Every grower knows prices drop when the market is flooded to quickly.

If the present indications for production and disappearance are borne out, we will hold our own in the cotton situation and possibly add a few hundred thousand bales to the comparatively low carryover reserves of the last two years.

Cotton producers themselves can do a great deal to avoid the danger of temporary declines in prices by spreading out their marketing in an orderly way. Gathering has been proceeding rapidly. If the crop is dumped immediately after the harvest, prices might dip temporarily to low levels justified by the overall situation.

Farmers are urged to market in an orderly manner, taking advantage of the price-support loan program to make this possible. By following this course, they can protect the values of the 1952 crop as they have done in previous years.

If the crop is marketed properly, there will be no apparent reason for any material drop in prices.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

Texas Poll Tax Requirements Outlined

During the past few months, citizens all over the United States have been exhorted by printed, radio or movie advertisements to be sure to "Register" in order to be eligible to vote in the November 4 election. To many Texans these ads have been confusing, some of them wondering whether the new Election Code passed by the last session of the Legislature may have contained some requirements regarding registration.

This confusing situation has arisen because in a large number of states registration has replaced the poll tax. National get-out-the-vote campaigns were planned with the requirements of the "registration states" in mind, and campaign advertisements circulated in "poll tax states" along with the others.

Registration is not required by the Texas Election Code. Unless you fall within specified statutory exceptions, you must still have a poll tax receipt in order to vote. In some but not all cases persons exempt from payment of the poll tax must obtain exemption certificates from their County Tax Collector.

Under Texas law a poll tax is not just a license to vote, even though it is a requirement of voting. It is a tax which the statutes say shall be collected from every person between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, who reside in this State on the first day of January preceding the levy of the tax.

Indians are not taxed, nor persons insane, blind, deaf or dumb. Those who have lost a hand or foot, those permanently disabled, and all disabled veterans of foreign wars (where such disability is forty per cent, or more) are exempt from the payment of a poll tax.

Those who are exempt from the payment of a polltax, and who reside in a city of ten thousand inhabitants or more, must secure a certificate from the Tax Collector of their County of residence before the first day of February of the year when such taxpayer shall become entitled to said exemption.

This exemption is good for one year. A new exemption must be secured for each year. Certificates of exemption are issued without cost to the person entitled to receive the same.

Those who reside in cities of less than ten thousand inhabitants are not required to secure this certificate of exemption before voting. These may make proof of their exemption at the time of voting to the presiding judge of the election where they are qualified to reside to vote.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Wardens Keyed To Aid Hunters

AUSTIN.—The Director of Law Enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission, in issuing the monthly arrest report, called attention to game wardens' instructions to counsel hunters whenever possible.

"As the fall hunting season approaches maximum effort, it seems appropriate to call attention to the fact that game wardens have standing instructions to cooperate with hunters," he said.

"The routine of the modern warden is predicated on the fact that at least a good part of the hunters mean to obey the law. The wardens of course realize that a certain percentage of persons are just as irresponsible in the field as they are in their normal pursuits.

"Thus, it is necessary to check game bags and watch out for cheating on hunting hours and on regulations generally. This is something that is written into the state laws, and the wardens have no alternative.

But there are many times when wardens' counsel is helpful on places to hunt and on places not to hunt. The public will find that the wardens do make a studied effort to be helpful."

The need for law enforcement, even in an age of cooperation by hunters, is reflected in the monthly arrest report. It shows 390 cases for total fines and court costs of $10,786.90, compared to 303 cases and $9,703.95 for the same month last year, and compared to 201 cases and $5,691.91 for the preceding month this year.

Prosecutions covered out-of-season shooting of deer, antelope, quail, ducks, doves and squirrels.

Good Eyesight Is Must For School

Poor eyesight can make a child "slow" in school. Uncorrected visual defects can cause a normally bright youngster to dislike school, fall behind in his class and become self-conscious about playing sports and games, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

A child will rarely complain about poor vision. It may be blurred, he may see double, yet in three cases out of four, he will not tell anyone because he does not know how well he should see. That is why it is so important for parents and teachers to know the symptoms of eye trouble. An intelligent child may be victimized by poor vision both at school and with his playmates.

Too often a youngsters' eyes are neglected because no one knows that they will need care, Dr. Cox points out. For this reason, visual tests should be continued throughout the child's school career.

Some of the symptoms which may mean that a youngster has eye trouble are:

1. Rubs eye often, attempts to brush away blur.
2. Becomes irritable when doing close work.
3. Blinks more than usual, stumbles or trips over small objects.

"Advance forces of United Nations troops in Korea have recaptured Hill 704 in the face of stiff enemy resistance. American casualties were..."

He would have been 21 years old this Tuesday, November 4th... just old enough to vote. Now—nobody can presume to speak for this young man. Nobody can say for sure that he would have voted for this candidate or that—for one party or another. But this we do know

... with his life he has cast his vote against a monstrous opponent—one that seeks to control the minds and souls of all mankind... that opponent who says: "The state is everything—the individual, nothing."

That young man might have been standing in the line next to any one of us next Tuesday—waiting to cast his first vote.

But—he will not be there.

Will you be sure to cast your vote this coming Tuesday? Go to the polls and vote according to your conscience and convictions... but, above all
