Loving's Cattle Plan.

Kansas City, Mo., December 7.—George B. Loving of Fort Worth, who is promoting the Texas cattle syndicate, left to night for home after spending ten days here furthering his plans. He met representatives of both sides of the proposed corporation, the ranchmen and the money men. J. H. Stevens of Kansas City, Charles Goodnight of the Panhandle and J. W. Light of Chickasha, I. T., have been appointed to inspect and report on the ranches in the combination said Mr. Loving this afternoon.

"They will begin work in a few days and if they and the ranchmen can agree on values the success of the deal is practically assured. They will require the remainder of the month for their labors and their appraisements will be in I believe in time to finish up the consolidation the last half of January.

"It is the combination's purpose to make Kansas City its headquarters and ship its cattle here. There are 1,000,000 head of cattle, 20,000,000 acres of ranch land, one-half held in fee simple and one-half leased land, and a capital of $50,000,000. These figures may be increased by the addition of new ranches or decreased if the ranchmen fail to agree in some instances with the appraisers. Some now in may pull out, but nearly all will accept the figures of Mr. Stevens, Mr. Goodnight and Mr. Light. There are fifty ranches now in these transactions. It is safe to say that they include over one-half of the big ranches of both Texas and New Mexico, not one-half of all the ranches, mind you, only the largest."

"How about the report, that the combination was in conflict with the Texas anti-trust law and would fail of organization?"

"I have a letter from the attorney-general of Texas saying the law in no way interferes with it. It should settle that point. That report was a fake."

"Are you confident of forming this great company?"

"Yes; there are only two things that can prevent it. One of them is that the appraisers and the ranchmen cannot agree, and that is scarcely probable. The other is this hard money market. If money should be as hard in January or February as it was in October it would be pretty hard to raise $50,000,000 in New York, but it will not take nearly that much, for all the ranchmen are taking stock. Some will take half their pay in the stock of the combination.

London, December 8.—Both the British and Boer armies remain in the same positions they have held for the past week on the western border. It is expected that a battle will shortly ensue, and it is certain to be the greatest yet fought.

Manila, Dec. 7, 10:50 p. m.—The expectation of catching Aguinaldo in the north has been practically abandoned and the probability now is that he will turn southward if he is not already there, with his destination Cavite province, his home, where the insurrection began, and where it still has its greatest strength.

The Filipino soldiers in that province have recently been showing increased enthusiasm and boldness, and captured insurgents say that Aguinaldo is coming to join them with a large army. The same belief prevails among the natives at Manila and elsewhere that Aguinaldo intends to make his head-quarters in Cavite province.

There are 3000 insurgents before Imus and Bacoor, keeping the Americans sleeping on their arms and nightly awaiting attack. The Filipinos have several cannon.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The first skirmish along the line of monetary legislation came up in the house to-day. The consideration of the bill, will be next Monday and every day thereafter until Thursday or Friday.

Every republican will vote for it and several democrats.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 7.—The decision of the state board of election commissioners covering the gubernatorial contest will be handed down on Saturday morning. The strong probability is that certificates of election will be given to William S. Taylor, the republican candidate for governor, and to the republican candidates for the other offices on the state ticket. The vote will probably be two for the republican and one for the democratic state ticket.

Do You Advertise.

Will it pay to advertise in the Evening News? Let us see. Your ad, say, goes in for a month, to-wit: Every day for 22 days, that multiplied by an average of 300 copies, equals 6,600 copies; and in 4 weeklies, multiplied by 400 copies makes 1600-added together makes 8,200. 8,200 copies circulated a month. And remember every visitor and every citizen reads the daily when he would not look at a stale weekly. Will it pay to advertise in it? Call for terms and you will answer in the affirmative. Remember, too, our subscription is constantly increasing; and remember also, that your ad in the daily also goes in the weekly.

Commencing today through sleeping car service is to be established between Hereford Texas, via P. & N. E., Southern Kansas of Texas, and the A. T. & S F., to Woodward, Okla., connecting with through train to all eastern points. Passengers can enter sleeping car at Amarillo at 9:20 p. m. DECEMBER 9, 1899

Washington, D. C. Dec. 9 —Fair tonight and tomorrow.

Temperature at Amarillo 7 o'clock this morning, 33.

Mr. B. Tol. Wade came in from Kansas City last night. He thinks the Loving Cattle Syndicate will prove a good thing for Texas.

Mr. Morgan, the Santa Fe Live stock agent, is in town.

Messrs. E. M. and J. R. Roberts, large cattle owners of the Abeline county, are in the city.

Mr. Stansberry, Master Mechanic of the P. V. is in for the present, looking after things in Amarillo.

The Presiding Elder of the Methodist church, is in the city, and will hold quarterly conference tonight and preach tomorrow.

The Sisters of Incarnate Word have signified their willingness to take charge of the Sanatorium at Amarillo. It remains to be seen how Amarillo is going to conduct herself. That $5000 ought to be subscribed readily, when the time comes. If Amarillo is to be a town, nothing would contribute more to its advancement than a Sanatorium—to make it a health retreat.

Married.

In Clarendon, Wednesday night, Mr Leslie M. Price; of Washburn, and Miss Bertie Noland were married by Rev. J. R. Henson. The News congratulates the groom on the prize he has won. Miss Bertie was for several years a resident of Amarillo, and has a great many friends here. Mr. Price, too, is said to be a worthy young man, a stockman, and a pretty fair oatch. Our best wishes go with them.

Mr. J. E. Wilson, a brakeman on the P. V. recently married in Roswell, has brought his bride to Amarillo. The boys speak well of Mr. W, and why not? A man bold enough to commit matrimony these days is sure enough "grit."

John, the baker, has his shop all nicely papered and everything in literal "apple pie" order.

Mrs. Jeff Kersey is back from Roswell, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Williamson, for a few days.

$100, Reward

The Colorado Dispensary will pay $100 for any case of stricture, piles or cancer, it cannot cure. Located in Amarillo Hotel, Annex.

It is the opinion of a majority of the cattlemen that the recent rains will not seriously injure the grass, and that in the past cattle have wintered better when there has been a great deal of rain in the winter which is usually followed by an early spring.

Judge Plemons, when asked his opinion of the proposed Cattle Syndicate, replied, that it seemed to him what the country needed, was an aggregation of small stock owners throughout the Panhandle, rather than an aggregation of big money and large holdings. An increase of the citizenship instead of a decrement was certainly what the Panhandle needed.

Now, don't, for goodness sake, don't think it modest, wise, or good to purposely know nothing when the reporter is looking for news. Remember you like to read the news, and this news is obtained from others, mostly. Now, be generous enough to reciprocate, and give out what you know for the benefit of those who give out for you.

Judge H. H. Wallace is back from the upper counties, preparatory to opening his district court in Amarillo Monday morning.

As regards the cattle syndicate being formed by Loving of Ft. Worth, there is diverse opinions. Some think it a good move; some that it is a bad move, and others will not express themselves, while the many do not know what to think.

One thing certain, the cattle syndicate, if organized, will afford a good opportunity, for those wanting to get out, to unload.

Father Lenert, of Clarendon will be here Sunday. Mass will be said at 9.30 a m in the usual place.

Rain and mud is, not again, but yet, with us.

Like the toper, not drunk again but drunk yet, is our streets, not muddy again but muddy yet; and the people not blue again but blue yet.

Frank Page the cheerful Clarendon cattleman is again with us. When asked for the news he always responds with a tender of a disc from his pocket; and this time remarking that the Amarillo News was one of the few papers not afraid of its shadow. Really is it a fact that there are too many papers waiting to see how the cat is going to jump before coming to conclusions on public questions? It is the News' policy to be afraid of its shadow only when attacking a man's private character, personal weaknesses and dirty traits—things that have no business in print.
