Crowell Wildcats Defeat Quanah Indians 13 to 12 Last Friday Night

The Crowell High School football team did it again. That is, the team defeated the Quanah Indians by one point for the third straight year. The 13 to 12 victory was not a fluke as the first downs were 15 to 8 in Crowell's favor and the difference in total yardage was 315 to 258. Crowell's offense, which was supposed to be weak, looked fairly good throughout the contest, especially in the running plays.

The feature of this drive was the blocking of Crowell's line. The front boys opened holes for the Crowell backs in a grand fashion. The first downs were eight to one for the Wildcats at halftime.

Third Quarter Scoreless
The third quarter was scoreless with the ball remaining near the middle of the field most of the time. Quanah's only threat was stopped on Crowell's twenty-five yard line when Whitmire fumbled the ball and Floyd Bice, alert left end for the Wildcats, recovered.

Last Quarter Full of Thrills
The last quarter was packed full of thrills with the crowd standing most of the time. Jimmy Thaxton, following excellent blocking from Crowell's line, plus key blocks downfield by C. T. McDaniel and Roy Don Payne, went 75 yards around his own right end for the TD. The all-important extra point was plunged over by Gibson behind McDaniel, Boren and Lindell McBeath in the line. Quanah opened up with a passing attack that was not to be denied. With Whitmire doing the passing, they completed 3 of 5 passes for 8, 39 and 24 yards that scored Johnnie Wade, right halfback, four minutes before the game was over. The extra-point try was wide to leave the final score 13 to 12 in favor of Crowell.

Outstanding Players
Keith Hodo, 187-pound left end, and Joe Carroll, 191-pound right tackle for Quanah, stood out on defense. Crowell's entire team looked much improved on defense. McDaniel, guard; McBeath, tackle, and Boren, end, probably looked the best. All of the Crowell boys who saw service in this contest deserve mentioning. They are Harvey Smith, center; McDaniel and Ray Thomson, guards; McBeath, Jerry Pittillo and James Doyal, tackles; Louis Rettig, Boren, Floyd Bice and David Carpenter, ends; Printiss Gidney, Payne, Thaxton, Gibson, Billy Everson, and Melvin Washburn, backs. Printiss Gidney, Wildcat quarterback, did a splendid job faking the ball to set up line plays.

Play First Home Game Friday
Crowell plays its first home game of the season tomorrow night (Friday) when the Matador Bulldogs come here. Matador has won two of three games played thus far this season. The Matadors were regional champions last year and have been picked to win their class B district again. However, Crowell should be favorites to win this contest.

Wildcats Picked to Win
Coaches Thayne Amoneff and Gordon Erwin's Wildcats, with two victories behind them, will be expected to take this game. It should be a high scoring affair for both clubs as neither team boasts a defense to equal its

We Pledge to Improve Ourselves

By now the Department of Commerce lists at least 258 special days, weeks, or months during the year. Among them are colorless Decoration Week, National Turn to Tea Week, Pancake Day, Child Foot Health Month, and Save the Horse Week. The House Judiciary Committee, which considers whether to recognize these observances formally, constantly gets new suggestions. Two recent ones are National Holstein-Friesian Day and Cleaner Air Week.

Small wonder that newspapers spoof these special observances. It is different, though, when National Newspaper Week comes along. Then the newspapers beat their breast, shout "Freedom of the Press!" three times, and thank God that they are not as others are. They assure the public that it is pretty lucky to be served by so noble an institution as the American press.

Perhaps for once, then, it would be a good idea if newspapers used Newspaper Week, which this year runs from October 1 to 8, to dwell not on their virtues but their shortcomings.

Freedom of the press is of course priceless. It doesn't mean that a newspaper is free to do what it pleases, but that no government or other authority shall control the news. Only if this is so does the public have a chance to get an accurate picture of what is going on. Freedom of the press, then, is a right of the people rather than of the press.

Freedom of information—well described by its other name of the people's right to know—is the same light in modern dress. This is a battle that has constantly to be fought harder, as government grows more complicated. For it is an occupational disease of those in government—local, state, or federal—to feel they can do their jobs best if they are the ones who decide what shall be made public and what not.

If these and other freedoms are threatened, the American people will fight for them. That was, at bottom, the reason for our going into World War I and World War II and it is a basic reason for the cold war and the cautiousness of co-existence now. But within this country the people take press freedom in their stride. They are not particularly impressed when, in and out of Newspaper Week, the papers repeat the historic battle cries of the fight for freedom in the 17th and 18th centuries.

So it might be a good idea if today all our newspapers resolved to try, during the coming year, to make a better use than before of their freedom. And that includes the Foard County News.

MARCIANO RETAINS TITLE

World heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano delivers a hard and telling right to the body of lightweight champion Archie Moore during their scheduled 15-round match at Yankee Stadium in New York. Marciano won the fight in one minute, 19 seconds of the ninth round. Strong rumors persist that Marciano may retire from his active ring career.

Rain Again Saturday

The rain Saturday was preceded by a light norther Friday morning and colder wind from the north hit here about 5:30 Sunday afternoon, dropping the temperature into the sixties, with continued cloudy weather prevailing Monday.

Although the abundance of moisture came too late to be of any great benefit to the cotton crop, it will help the growth of alfalfa and late feed, and also winter legumes.

Early Wheat Planting Probable

The prospects for early planting of wheat and winter pasturage for livestock are probably better than Foard County has had in several years. Some farmers had already planted wheat before the rains came.

The moisture will be a real benefit in bringing up the volunteer wheat and wild rye so that it can be destroyed before planting.

THE PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

On the first day of school a small freshman girl came to a new school. She was not very rich, and she didn't have the type of clothes that all the other girls wore. She had a very wonderful personality, but no one gave her a chance to prove herself.

The seniors looked upon her as a cast-out, and they made her do all of their hard work. The juniors were also very hard on this freshman girl, and they never made a move to make her a member of any clubs or organizations.

A certain outstanding sophomore girl saw this freshman girl and noticed how lonely she was and also let her down. She had felt the same way her first day as a freshman, so she thought that she should give the girl some encouragement.

The sophomore asked the freshman girl to attend an FHA meeting with her, so that she would know what the organization meant. The freshman girl attended the meeting and came away full of spirit because she wanted to become a well known and popular student.

When this girl was introduced to the FHA members and later became well acquainted with each of them, she knew then what she must do. The freshman girl was introduced to more students by the sophomore girl, and before a month, she was a very popular student of the new school, and she did her best to help all the other freshman girls know more about the school and its students.

WILDCATS INCH BY QUANAH

Crowell's fighting Wildcats edged by Quanah's Indians by one point for the third straight year. The score was 13-12. Quanah hit pay dirt first when Hughie Whitmire returned a punt 65 yards for a touchdown. The Indians failed to convert. From the first play to the last play, the Wildcats fought to a hard earned victory, led by hard running Ray Gibson.

Gibson scored for Crowell in the second period on a 6 yard scamper. The score at halftime was 6-6. The Cats went ahead in the third quarter when Jimmy Thaxton turned in a sparkling game-winning extra point to lead 13-6. Quanah scored once again on a pass, but they failed to convert to leave the score 12-12. Crowell's defense was headed by C. T. McDaniel, Lindell McBeath and Floyd Bice.

KNOTHOLE NEWS

Let's look through the knothole to see what we can see.

We hear by the grapevine that Edward Howard has a freshman admirer.

What's the matter with you boys? Sitting at home all alone Saturday night were Peggy Cates and Beverly Kelly. It seems as if all the Crowell Cats were seen at the Quanah Canteen Friday night after the ball game.

It looks as if Billy Everson and Jimmy New have taken a sudden interest in Knox City.

With Crowell and Quanah beating a steady path to Barbara's door, it seems as though she can't make up her mind.

Say, Ray Thomson, we hear there's a certain girl known as "Twich" that thinks you're different.

Latrelle was seen taking up most of her college boy's time while he was here. Say, do I hear a faint tinkle of wedding bells? Some think that the Sportatorium was rather lively Saturday night!

What happened to Elizabeth and Aldon Saturday night? Could the rear end have fallen out of Aldon's car?

Who's car could Gail have been driving Saturday afternoon? Surely it wasn't Dean Myers.

The Crowell Canteen will be open after the game Friday night. Let's all go and make it a real ball.

Francyne, did you make it home Saturday night?

Roma Jan thinks that Quanah has real cool dances.

Saturday night couples were Doris-R. C., Arieta-Joe Don, Zody-Billy Don, Ted-Barbara, Ray-Betty, Dan-Maxine, Billy John-Mary Ann, Jackie-Sandra, Davis-Carolyn.

Everybody go see Roma Jan in the hospital. She doesn't have her tonsils any more.

Larry seems to be having trouble with Jana. Wonder why? Bubba Monkers thinks that two girls a night are better than one.

Special friends of the State Highway Patrol are Jackie, J. M. and Bud.

Jackie's football jacket is just a fit for Sandra.

Doris, do you and your friends ever slip out of town? Your mother wants to know.

Until next week, be good because, remember, the Knothole sees and hears all.

GAYLON'S GIGGLES

Postmaster: This letter is very heavy. Why didn't you put more stamps on it?

 Bud: That would only make it heavier.

Mrs. Davis: Where is the Dead Sea?

Bill: Don't know.
 Mrs. Davis: Don't know where the Dead Sea is?
 Bill: No, mam, I didn't even know it was sick.

Traveler to cab driver: You carry luggage free of charge, don't you?
 Cabbie: Yes, sir.
 Traveler: Then you take the luggage. I'll walk.

Anything less is an old-fashioned truck!

Chevrolet Truck Work Styling is well illustrated in these four models ranging from the Cab Forward and Cameo Carrier at left to the pickup and tractor-trailer unit at right.

New Chevrolet Task-Force Trucks

They're the most modern trucks on the road. If you don't get all the advantages they offer, you stand to lose money on the job today . . . and again at trade-in-time!

Most modern power—V8 or 6

In most new Chevrolet truck models, you have your choice of V8* or 6. Chevrolet's new truck V8's have the shortest stroke of any V8 in any leading truck! That means less friction and wear per mile. The valve-in-head sixes are new editions of the engines that have long been famous as the "work horses" of the truck world! And all Chevrolet truck engines have a modern 12-valve electrical system for quicker starting, better ignition and a greater electrical reserve.

The truck driver's "dream cab"

That's the closest we can come to describing the new Flite-Ride De Luxe cab. What truck driver wouldn't go for features like these: panoramic windshield for wider, safer vision; concealed Safety Step that stays clear of snow, mud and ice; High-Level ventilation that provides a more constant supply of outside air in all kinds of weather.

Agent Gives Hints on Fall Care of Lawns

Lawn grasses will remain green longer in the fall and grow off earlier next spring if given an application of a complete fertilizer at least 30 days before the first expected hard freeze. Lawns should not be fertilized after Oct. 10, according to Joe Burkett, County Agent.

The agent recommends a fertilizer of the 2-1-1 or 1-1-1 ratio. Application should be made at a rate to supply two pounds of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn. This amount of nitrogen would be supplied by 20 pounds of 10-5-5 or 10-10-10 or 25 pounds of 8-8-8. He adds that some soils do not need potash but since the cost is small, it is good insurance and may give excellent results.

Burkett recommends dividing the fertilizer, i. e. apply half, then spread the remainder at right angles to the first application. This, he says, will help insure even distribution.

Give the lawn a good soaking after the fertilizer has been applied. The grass can't use the plant food without moisture.

URBAN POPULATION

Fewer and fewer farmers and ranchers are feeding an ever increasing urban population.

The Bureau of the Census has just released figures on this year's farm population study. It shows a drop as compared with last year but the big decrease is seen in figures for the past five years.

Since 1950, farm population has declined by three million people. Total farm population now is stated as 22,158,000 people.

LOTS OF LABOR

Handling livestock takes a lot of labor.

Labor investment in livestock management is about the biggest of all agricultural enterprises. For instance, it takes 61.7 man hours to produce milk worth $100. Similar high figures are shown for beef production.

SERVICE—SATISFACTION—SAFETY

1. We'd like to show you some of the things that make the Ford one of America's finest cars... though it's one of the lowest-priced. Let's start with these long, low lines. Looks like it hates to stand still, doesn't it?

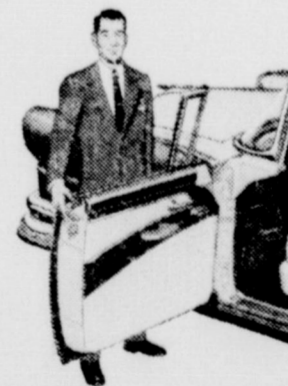

Let's take a walk around the NEW '56 FORD!

It's the fine car at half the fine car price!

3. Here's what you ride on. This frame has five cross-members including a special K-bar member up front. It can really take it! By the way, the control arms of Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension are angle-mounted to cushion out the head-on as well as the up-down shock of bumps.

6. This Lifeguard cushioning for instrument panel and sun visors is optional. It gives you extra protection when thrown forward in an accident. You may also have optional seat belts to help keep occupants securely in seats.

4. The new 202-h.p. Thunderbird Y-8 will give you a new lease on driving enjoyment. It's available in Fordomatic Fairlane and Station Wagon models. You can have the "GO"-packed 176-h.p. Y-8 in Fordomatic Mainline and Customline models, or Ford's new 137-h.p. Six is available in any model.

7. Here's Ford's new Lifeguard door latch. It is another member of Ford's new Lifeguard family. A double-grip locking engagement reduces the chance of doors springing open under unusual strain of impact. Chances of serious injury in accidents are less when passengers remain in the car.

5. Note the deep-center design of this new Lifeguard steering wheel. The wheel rim is over three inches above the post to help cushion the driver in case of an accident. It's a feature of new Lifeguard Design which Ford spent over two years developing... to give you added protection in case of an accident.

Well, that covers the important points. But there's a lot more. So we'd like to invite you to come in and see the new '56 Ford for yourself. Then you'll see the colorful new exteriors and interiors, the quality workmanship that is evident everywhere. Then you'll learn the full story. When you do, you'll know that Ford is the fine car at half the fine car price.

Unnecessary Federal Project Would Cost Texans $15,174,322

The public power brigade in Congress is trying to get a bill passed that would commit the federal government to build a high power dam at Hell's Canyon on the Snake River between Idaho and Oregon. Led by Senator Wayne Morse, they have raised the old familiar cry that it would be a "steal" if the government were to permit the Idaho Power Company, an investor-owned public utility, to build three small dams on the Snake River that would generate about the same amount of power.

Well, let's see who would be stealing from whom...

The estimated cost of the government dam, including transmission facilities and interest during construction, is $405,470,000.

How much of this would be collected from Texas taxpayers? The Council of State Chambers of Commerce has provided the answer — $15,174,322. This is based on the fact that Texans pay 3.26 per cent of the taxes collected by the federal government.

Does it make sense that Texans should be compelled to contribute over $15,000,000 to generate cheap electricity for the Northwest? We think not. On the contrary, taxpayers of Texas and the rest of the states would benefit if the private company were permitted to build the facilities and help ease the tax burden on everyone.

Navy Sets Dec. 10 for Annual NROTC Exam

The tenth annual competitive examination for high school seniors who desire to attend college and train for careers as Naval officers will be held throughout the nation on Dec. 10, it was announced this week by H. H. Deal, QM1, USN, Navy recruiter in Vernon. Applications for the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps are now available, but must be received by November 19, the announcement added.

Successful candidates will start their Naval careers in colleges and universities across the country in 1956, with substantial financial assistance from the government. After a normal college education, graduates will be commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps for active duty with the fleet throughout the world.

Applications are now available at all high schools, colleges, and the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station in the post office in Vernon.

Oil Progress Week

This year Oil Progress Week will be observed during the October 9-15 period. It will give the oilmen another concentrated opportunity to tell the story of their industry. And it's some story.

In this country oil is a free enterprise. It's also one of the most intensely competitive of enterprises—all the way from risky wildcatting operations in search of new oil supplies to the corner service station. We, the American people, enjoy the fruits of that competition. Since 1925, as everyone knows, the cost of living in general has soared. Yet the cost of gasoline, aside from the special taxes the industry can't do anything about, has risen only about seven per cent—and it's far better gasoline, that does far more work.

The average American, believe it or not, uses 739 gallons of oil products a year. The average Russian—in a country where the oil business is an arm of the government and there is no competition—uses a mere 76 gallons. Every American community has excellent service stations providing all manner of services in addition to selling its wares. But in Moscow, there are only five service stations. And at these the customer, when he buys inferior rationed gas, does the chores himself. All the attendant does is watch the meter and collect the rubles.

Oil progress and our national progress have gone hand in hand. That is the kernel of the story that will be told during the Week.

Texans Buy $133 Million Worth Savings Bonds During 1955

Texans bought more than $133 million worth of United States Savings Bonds during the first eight months of 1955, it was reported this week by Nathan Adams and Ed Gossett, co-chairmen of the Savings Bonds Advisory Committee for the state. Bond sales throughout Texas this year up to September 1 totaled $133,276,815, which was 21 per cent more than for the same period last year.

Purchases in August 1955 were $16,909,966, which was an increase of $2,149,560 over July. "We urge everyone to buy more Savings Bonds during the remaining months of 1955 to help attain Texas' proportionate share of this program, so important to the sound economy of each person, every community and our country," they said.

Trees and Shrubs Resistant to Root Rot

Many shrubs and trees are dying at this time of year as a result of cotton root rot. Where this occurs, it is not wise to replant the same kind of shrub or tree, according to Mrs. Mary D. Brown, County Home Demonstration Agent. Select varieties resistant to the disease.

Trees resistant to root rot include: liveoak, hackberry, sycamore, Osage orange or bois de-arc, hickory, mesquite, mountain cedar and red cedar, anacua, cedar elm, holly, wild black cherry, wild plum, retama and palms. Recent tests indicate that the silk tree or mimosa tree is also resistant, although observations on this are not yet complete.

Shrubs and hedge plants that survive in root-rot areas are: pomegranate, Pfitzer juniper, yau-

Want Ad Columns Tell Many Stories

No observance of National Newspaper Week would be complete without the recognition of one newspaper section that serves million of readers all over the world.

It's the Want Ad section and it serves those millions of readers very well—finding them places to live and places to work, furnishing economical transportation through the columns which offer second-hand motorcycles, bicycles and used cars for sale.

There are a multitude of human interest stories in the Want Ad pages, too. An advertisement seeks the return of a lost dog—"children's pet." It requires little imagination to build up a whole story; complete from the desolation of the home deprived of a family companion to a hoped-for happy ending of its return.

Tragedy lies behind another, a husband who has come to the parting of the ways with his wife, and advertises he will no longer be responsible for her debts.

Here are opportunities to travel, people driving here and there across this expansive continent, ready to take companions.

Small but fascinating speculation can be wound about requests for part-time work. Perhaps they're from eager, ambitious juniors, or older folks piecing out annuities or pensions.

Readers expect newspapers to present stories under headlines and in the ordered English of journalism. That's not the only way they are published. In a different form, they appear throughout the Want Ad columns.

Many Advances Made in Styling for '56 Ford

Styling advances in the Ford for '56 include a new grille with oblong parking lights at the outer ends, set in frames which wrap around the fender sides. Body side molding is re-styled for Fairlane, Station Wagon and Custom-line models. Newly designed tail lamps and deck lid handles, a larger hood ornament, and a completely new instrument panel are offered in all models.

For safer driving, all instruments are clustered under a glare-preventing hood directly in front of the driver. All controls are directly lighted for night driving.

In V-8 Fairlane cars, dual exhaust ports emerge at the sides of re-designed rear bumpers.

Ford stylists have introduced 13 exterior colors in the 1956 line—among them platinum grey and mandarin orange.

Upholstery and trim selections are matched to exterior colors, with as many as five different interior color combinations in Fairlane models. Up to 21 optional two-tone exterior color combinations are offered in the line, with choices varying according to model and series.

So Much for So Little... That's Legume Inoculants

The cost is small but the returns, in terms of increased yields and better quality legume crops, are great. Yet, says Joe Burkett, County Agent, farmers still plant legumes without spending the few cents an acre required to do the inoculating job.

He says 50 cents will buy the inoculant needed to take care of enough alfalfa or clover seed to plant up to five acres. Less than 25 cents an acre will inoculate winter peas or vetch. Burkett points out that different strains of bacteria are effective on different classes of legumes. Be sure and get the culture recommended for the crop to be planted.

The seed inoculants contain beneficial live bacteria. The bacteria attach themselves to the roots of leguminous plants where they absorb energy from the plant and in turn help the plant to take nitrogen from the air. They do this by a process known as "nitrogen fixing."

Both effective and ineffective bacteria may occur naturally in the soil but Burkett says why take a chance on lower yields and quality by not inoculating the seed.

He says seed inoculants can be obtained from seed dealers and that it is important to follow the directions on the container. The seed should be planted soon after it is treated.

Storms don't bother to knock!

Disasters rarely give a warning "knock" before they strike. The house above, which leveled the house above, is a first rate example. To the unprepared farmer the most unforeseen events can mean the end of a farm. That's why smart farmers today are putting their money into U. S. "Series E" Savings Bonds.

By putting part of your earnings into Bonds, you save systematically against such disasters as general farm improvement, the youngster's education, and eventual retirement. Remember—every $300 you put into Savings Bonds now will grow into $400 in nine years and eight months... and into $538.72 in ten years more!

National Newspaper Week
Could It Happen
in This Country?

Can the free press of America be destroyed?

It happened in Germany when Hitler banned "forbidden" books and seized the newspapers.

It happened in Italy, as Mussolini destroyed newspapers in his climb to power.

It happened in Argentina when a great, free press was wiped out because it dared to differ with a dictatorship.

It is happening all over the world today as newspapers are attacked from many sides.

Chile: A bomb wrecks an anti-Government newspaper office.

Cuba: An opposition newspaper is closed by the Government; two editors arrested.

Argentina: Another newspaper shut down by Government decree; the editor thrown in jail.

Greece: A newspaper ordered to stop publishing articles "causing public unrest."

India: Newspaper reporters will be prosecuted for articles attacking Government officials.

South Korea: A new law forbids newspapers to "disturb people's minds."

Bolivia: A newspaperman is jailed for writing "inaccurate news."

Austria: Soviet authorities confiscate a newspaper because of a critical editorial.

Colombia: All newspapers are censored before publication.

Brazil: Foreign newspapers subjected to new, strict import regulations.

Turkey: A publisher sentenced to prison for an "insulting" article about the Government.

Pakistan: Opposition newspaper refused supply of newsprint.

Great Britain: American newspapermen asked to "voluntarily" censor dispatches.

Spain: Twenty issues of an American newspaper banned from Spain by Government Censorship Bureau.

Russia: Everything is censored and controlled by the Government.

What About the U. S. A.?

The U. S. Constitution guarantees freedom of the press to the people.

The U. S. press is controlled by the people.

Newspapers are published for the people—not for the Government.

Yet attempts are being made to take freedom of the press away from the people.

From many sides come almost daily efforts to restrict, control, censor and water-down U. S. newspapers.

Many Survivors Have Failed to Claim Social Security Benefits

A considerable number of widows, young children, and aged parents of working people who died between June 1940 and September 1950 have failed to claim the monthly benefits payable to them under a 1954 change in the Social Security Law, announced Erton Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls Social Security office.

Those who do not apply for their benefits before October 1, he pointed out, will not be able to receive benefits for all the months believes military officials should decide whether information is "useful" or "interesting" before releasing it to the press. After protests from the press, it was said the "yardstick" for passing information was meant only for "intra-departmental preparation" of news releases.

Washington: A reporter's request for obituary material on a deceased general was held up until it had been reviewed and cleared by the Pentagon.

Washington: Many bills are introduced in Congress containing no provisions for making available to the public information about costs of projects, reports to be made, or accountings of funds.

Washington: The Army issues a special "guide" for evaluation of public information, permitting officers to use discretion as to whether or not news will ever be released.

Rochester, N. Y.: City Council bans reporters from hearings affecting the people in the community.

San Francisco, Calif.: News photographers are subjected to physical attacks, cameras are smashed, film destroyed.

West Point, N. Y.: Press barred from attending a conference between the Army and its civilian advisory group. Meeting was held to "find out matters of interest to the public."

New York, N. Y.: All newspapermen are barred from a vice trial. Later, on grounds that since press and the public were not permitted to attend the trial, defendant won a new trial to which the press was admitted.

San Francisco, Calif.: A judge orders jurors not to give interviews in a perjury trial after they had delivered their verdict and were dismissed.

Do the People Want a Free Press?

Does the man on the street want someone in Government to decide what information is "useful" or "interesting" enough for the public to know about?

Would Americans have faith in Government - controlled newspapers grinding out pre-censored, pre-condensed, pre-pulverized "news" in easy doses?

Are the people ready to accept cradle-to-grave control by a super-state without hearing both sides of an argument as presented in a free press?

Are the people ready to give up newspapers that fight for their right to know? The newspapers of America don't believe it.

Newspapers are of the people, by the people and for the people. Newspapers will continue to fight for the people's right to know.

Princely Portrait

This blue-blooded Angora goat is regally representative of purebred champions who will be entered in livestock shows during the 1955 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7-23. The fair will have classes for 28 breeds of beef and dairy cattle, horses and Shetland ponies, swine, sheep and goats.

back to September 1954, the effective date of the new provision in the law.

Under this provision, it is now possible to pay monthly social security benefits to the qualified survivors of workers who died between June 1940 and September 1950 if the deceased wage earner had credit for as little as a year and a half of work under social security. The families of many of these workers applied for benefits at the time of the family breadwinner's death, Mr. Tate said, but were told that they could not receive payments because under the law, as it then stood, the worker had not earned enough social security credit to provide survivors benefits for his family.

Where a claim for social security benefits is filed within twelve months of the time a beneficiary is first eligible, his payments can be made to him retroactively for the whole period, Mr. Tate pointed out. But if a claim is delayed for more than 12 months, benefits for some months will be lost. He therefore urges the survivors of workers who died between June 1940 and September 1950 to get in touch with the social security office as soon as possible.

Monthly benefits under this provision may be paid to the aged widows of such workers who at the time of death had worked on jobs under social security for at least a year and a half to surviving children under 18 years of age, and to their mothers. Where no widow or children survived the worker, payments can be made to his aged parents if he was providing their support.

Salvation Army Makes Appeal for Funds for Hurricane Victims

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 27—The hurricane which struck Tampico, Mexico, with such killing force last week, leaving hundreds dead and wrecking thousands of homes, also completely destroyed the Salvation Army building in that city, according to word received at Texas headquarters. However, in spite of the lack of a center from which to operate, Salvation Army officers were on the job from the beginning, giving whatever emergency disaster relief was possible.

Working without rest, the local Salvation Army officers helped in the evacuation of people from their homes as the water rose. They helped set up temporary shelters and gathered food and water. Clothing from other Salvation Army centers was flown in by air, and all available Salvation Army officers in Mexico braved high water to join in the rescue work inside the city.

Reports from Salvation Army personnel reveal that the total story of destruction from the hurricane may not be learned for months, since nearby villages were washed completely away and there are no records of how many survived.

Funds for emergency disaster relief in Mexico have been completely exhausted during the recent operations. The problem of continuing emergency aid to the homeless in addition to the need to rebuild Salvation Army installations is a grave one.

Lt. Col. John A. Morrison, Texas divisional commander, states that funds are being immediately sought in the United States to help our neighbor south of the border. He says, "The work of the Salvation Army in this disaster will be limited only by the funds available." Those desiring to contribute to this fund may send their contributions to Lt. Col. John A. Morrison, The Salvation Army, 509 North Exway, Dallas, Texas, and they will be forwarded immediately to Mexico for use there.

BIG YEAR FOR PIANOS

Not in 20 years has the piano business been so good. Piano manufacturers conservatively estimate that 125,000 of the instruments will be sold this year. The industry can thank the millions of young musicians mastering their sharp and flats. They can also thank the hundreds of school systems that now offer music lessons.—Changing Times.

Many Free Exhibits
to Be Offered at 1955
State Fair of Texas

A solar "battery" which converts sunlight into electrical energy.

Television in full color on a giant, movie-size screen.

An "automatic" kitchen which takes practically all the work out of fixing dinner.

This may sound like a dream of the distant future, but it'll all come true at the 1955 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7-23.

These and other wonders will be included in a world of free exhibits to demonstrate the marvels wrought by modern science.

Even the current "do-it-yourself" craze will be represented by equipment with which the Fairgoer can test rock samples to see if he's discovered uranium in his backyard.

Highlights of the thousands of exhibits at the Fair include:

The color television studios in the Agriculture Building, where daily live telecasts will take place and closed circuit shows which can be seen only on the fairgrounds will be produced.

The 39th Southwestern Automotive Exposition, featuring new 1956 models of many manufacturers. By way of contrast, the Antique Auto Show will also be housed in the colossal Automobile Building.

The International Center, where there will be exhibits by nine of the zone officers conference at Wichita Falls Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Belle Harris of Plainview visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Key.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lanford and girls, Diane and Susan, of Lubbock were week end guests of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Key.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Clawson of Frankland, La., visited over the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Clawson, and sister, Mrs. Roscoe Wiseman, and family.

Rayland got 2½ inches of rain Saturday night.

WTCC Organizes New Board of Directors

Organization of a new executive board of directors for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has been announced by Ray Grisham of Abilene, president of the 132-county regional chamber. Local directors of the WTCC, foreign countries—Japan, Egypt, India, Finland, Germany, Great Britain, Sweden, Belgium and France.

The Electric Show, with its "dream" kitchens in which electricity does virtually all the work for the homemaker.

The Agriculture Show, whose provocative theme, "Your Stake in Agricultural Research," points up its appeal to the housewife and consumer as well as those who earn their living from the soil.

The Food Show, where delectable free samples will be given away by exhibitors of many various types of victuals.

The Women's Building, crammed full as midday's handbag with glamorous exhibits of interest to the ladies from high fashions modeled in daily free style shows to prize-winning jams and jellies.

The always-popular array of farm implements and machinery, covering two acres of space on the fairgrounds, ranging from monstrous earth-moving equipment to the latest model tractors with power steering.

The model rooms — one decorated with furnishings from all over the world to show how they blend into a Texas setting, one an ultra-modern living room and dining terraces, and one a 17th Century colonial kitchen.
