Cross to Make Drive for Funds Today to Assist Tornado Victims

To the many disasters by tornadoes and floods that have plagued Texas for the past few weeks, the Red Cross is making a drive for funds to meet the needs of the people in the various disaster areas. The past several weeks, the State of Texas has had more from Red Cross aid than the people of the state have contributed in the annual fund drives. The turbulent weather conditions in the last few weeks over Texas and other states have caused many relief situations that have taxed the Red Cross and other organizations to the limit of their ability and they need more funds for relief purposes.

A special drive will be made in Foard County next Monday, May 27, to meet the quota. Only $69.00 is needed for this purpose, but it is the aim of those in charge to send all over that amount contributed by Foard County citizens to help the victims of the recent tornado in Silverton.

Those who have not been contacted will please send or leave their contribution with Clinton McLain, Glenn Goodwin or Miss Lennis Woods.

Those willing to help in this drive are asked to contact either one of the above named persons.

Whitfield Is Top Student at Azle

Whitfield, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Whitfield near Fort Worth, and son of J. A. Whitfield and Mrs. Whitfield of Crowell, was handicapped to graduate valedictorian of his class in the High School. His mother is the sister of Mrs. Ibb Middle and her late husband of Azle, former Margaret resident. The graduate's parents are in this community.

News story of the unusual achievement of this young man is reprinted below as it appeared in the Telegram last week:

High school graduation is the same—each is very special in its own way. School officials and the principal at Azle High this year's commencement will mean more than usual, because the valedictorian is a boy who overcame a handicap to make the highest grade in his class.

19-year-old Randall Whitfield lost the sight in one eye when he was five years old. Six years later, an accident blinded the other eye.

Although he is sightless, Whitfield graduated May 24 with an average, just a fraction below the salutatorian, 17-year-old Betty Emanuel.

Whitfield's mighty proud of both his achievement and that of Principal G. C. Holden.

Whitfield received his elementary training in the Texas School for the Blind at Austin. He was a sophomore, he entered Paschal High School, the best student to enter grades in a Fort Worth high school.

Next year, Whitfield decided to transfer to Azle, where his father and Mrs. Ben F. Whitfield live.

When Randall first came, we were a bit hesitant to take him, but we felt he might have something around the school," recalled.

In a short time, Whitfield memorized the school layout and that he goes from class to class with little difficulty.

In his various classes, he is read books aloud to aid him in his work, the principal said.

Whitfield ended up helping the principal as much as they could," Holden smiled.

When the principal said, Whitfield required very little supervision.

Whitfield's high grades have earned him a scholarship to Baylor University, where he plans to study electronic engineering. He has a "ham" radio operator for a hobby and he feels that what he has learned about radio will aid him in his engineering.

2.3 Inches Rain Fall in Crowell Last Friday Night

More rain fell in Foard County last Friday night, with further damage being done to the wheat and oat crop. The rain, which amounted to 2.3 inches in Crowell, was accompanied by high winds, a severe electrical storm and a small amount of hail. Some of the taller wheat was blown down by the rain and wind, but damage was considered light. As the rains have continued, the drowned-out spots in the fields are growing larger.

The heavy rains sent rivers and creeks on another rampage. Beaver Creek was spread out over a wide area southeast of town, and the Wichita River was flowing to the bottom of the bridge Saturday.

Pease River, which during the past month, has cut out several acres of land west of the river bridge, has changed its course since the Highway Department installed a long length of new jetties, and is now flowing farther north than previously. For a time, week before last, it looked as if the river would wash out the south approach to the bridge.

During the electrical storm Friday night, lightning split and set on fire an REA pole about one mile east of town. Lighting also disrupted service on the West Texas Utilities Co. telephone line for a time when it struck the line near Truscott.

Water from the rain crossed the highway east of town, and was also crossing the highway in two places west of town.

Skies were clear most of the time over the week end, and a sand storm Monday afternoon provided a change in pace for rain-wearry Foard County and West Texas.

Wheat Marketing Quota Referendum Set for June 20

Farmers have two issues to decide in the June 20 wheat referendum, according to Ray Hysinger, Chairman, Foard County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The first issue is whether marketing quotas will be in effect, carrying with them penalties on "excess" wheat from farms (with more than 15 acres of wheat harvested as grain) on which the allotment is exceeded. The second issue is the level of the available price support.

A two-thirds favorable vote is required to approve wheat marketing quotas. Once quotas are approved, penalties for production in excess of the farm's quota are in effect for all farms in commercial wheat states which harvest over 15 acres of wheat for grain. The farm quota is generally all the wheat produced on the acreage allotment. Under quotas, also, price support on the 1958 wheat crop will be available at a minimum national average of $1.78 per bushel—to those farmers who are in compliance with their farm allotments.

Mr. Hysinger explains that if more than one-third of the voters disapprove quotas, there will be no marketing quotas and no penalties for excess production. However, acreage allotments will remain in effect in the commercial area, and the price support will be available at 50 per cent of parity to those farmers who comply with their allotments.

Wheat marketing quotas and acreage allotments operate only in the 36 states designated as "commercial" wheat states, which includes Texas. States must have allotments of more than 25,000 acres of wheat to rate as a commercial wheat state.

TEEN-TORIAL

GOOD-BYE, AND THANK YOU

The senior class is leaving for good tomorrow, and when we go, all of us hope to leave with you happy memories of our twelve-year stay.

We too have happy memories of all those who have made possible for us the achieving of an education which we shall value always in the years to come. If we could live again those days which have constituted the twelve years of school, we might like to erase some of our mistakes, but we would leave most things just as they are, especially where others have been concerned, because, in looking back over all of it, we think it has just been wonderful. We want to thank our faithful readers, our helpful teachers, and all those who take interest in the success of our school even though they have no children attending.

Especially do we wish to thank our mothers, sponsors, and school board officials for their interest regarding our welfare and the many, many helpful and wonderful things that they have done.

Soon we shall be scattered, but when we think of home and when we wonder how things are going back there, we feel that there will be those who will be thinking of us, and for this, too, we thank you.

Fellow students, we too have enjoyed our association with you. We'll watch your progress as you continue through high school.

So, to all, please accept one fine "goodbye and good luck" from the Crowell High School Seniors of 1957.

ALL ABOARD—1945-1957

On tomorrow night, Friday, May 26, a long, exciting journey will come to an end for the 26 1957 graduating seniors of Crowell High School.

This trip began in 1945. On board from station "First Grade" at Crowell were fifteen. Mrs. Carrie Hart was the conductor of twelve of these: Janis Crowell, Marilyn Stone, DeAnna Ferguson, J. C. McCoy, Jimmy Williamson, Ruth Hinkle, Nelda Brooks, Johnny Wehba, Glenn Carroll, Edward Howard, Jack Wishon and Henry Pruitt. Under the guidance of Miss Thelma White were Marketta Painter, Aldon Garrett and Joe Calvin. At the station of Medicine Mounds, one passenger, Marilyn Stone, got off. After a rest of three months, the train pulled out from station "Second Grade" with two new passengers on board. From Cleburne came Sandra Choate, from Northside came Anna Marie Faske.

At the beginning of the fifth year of travel, LaVoy Rummel of Riverside and Edward Daniel of Four Corners joined the group of travelers.

In the seventh year, Roma Jan Spikes from Knox City boarded our then rapidly moving train. No new passengers were added until the ninth year when from Thalia came Johnny Kajs, Bill Shultz, Billy Short, Karen Hall, Nelson Abston, Lowell Page of San Angelo also arrived, and in the tenth year returned Marilyn Stone who had detoured from Medicine Mounds by way of Quanah to again join our happy group.

The next two years sped hastily by, and now the train is pulling in to its final resting place—graduation.

The journey has been a good one—one that will long be remembered by the members of our class—the class of 1957.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN?

DeAnna Ferguson took expression and gave readings before the class in the second and third grades.

Johnny Kajs was director of the Rhythm Band at Riverside in which LaVoy Rummel and Billy Doyle Shultz played.

Joe Calvin was extremely bashful and cried every time a teacher looked his way.

All the girls were fairies in a sixth grade play. (Can you imagine?)

Mrs. Field, Mrs. Whitaker and Miss Hunter (Mrs. Bounds) were our fourth grade teachers. (We were too mean for one teacher to teach a whole term!)

There were sixty-five in our room in the fifth grade. We participated in "Stunt Night" in the eighth grade. DeAnna was supposed to faint, and Ruth was to catch her. DeAnna fainted—but Ruth didn't catch her!

Billy Doyle and LaVoy were "Jack and Jill" at Riverside. Anna Marie told on a boy because he shot her with a water gun.

Aldon gave Pat and Janis each a box of candy for Valentine. J. C. gave about ten girls costume jewelry pins in the fifth grade.

Ruth got a whipping in the first grade because she lost her book marker. Nelda kissed a tree pretending it was Jack.

Butch got a whipping for smoking. Karen and Butch were in the rhythm band.

The boys put a snake in Mrs. Nichols' desk. The boys from Thalia put a snake in Mr. Jennings' desk.

We painted Miss Carter's car one Halloween. Mrs. Nichols' chair broke. Roma Jan got an "F" in music. The "wild times" we had in Mr. Sylvester's class. (They weren't quite so wild in Mr. Sallis' class though, were they?)

LaVoy got a scolding for drawing "pictures." Nelda and Janis would rush through lunch so that they could wait at the flagpole to watch Buster Laquey walk across the lawn. Marketta and Ruth fussed in the second grade. Karen and Billy Doyle were fighting over a knife. Billy now has a scar on his left hand.

The Thalia boys worked very hard moving an outbuilding to the front of a house, only to have to move it back again.

We elected Lowell our class president. Edward Howard threw Sylvia's shoe on top of the gym.

Henry Pruitt won the hand writing contest in the second grade. Glenn Carroll had a crush on Latrelle. (Seems he got over it.)

Aldon got his two front teeth broken. (Better watch these girls, Aldon.) Billy Short was short.

J. C. and Johnny got a whipping for stomping each others' toes. Johnny Kajs got a mouse in his boot.

Jimmy Williamson got "A" in writing. J. C. would wink at Anna Marie, and Janis would get mad.

All the football boys were in our class. Sandra put a tack in Mr. Black's chair.

Do you remember? We do.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER TEA

The senior girls gave the senior mothers a tea Friday afternoon, May 10, in the teachers' lounge. The mothers and teachers of the high school were greeted at the door by the seniors.

The colors green and white were artistically carried out in the decorations, in keeping with the graduation theme, a senior cap and a white rose were used as the table centerpiece. Diplomas with green ribbon and carrying names of the entire senior class were plate favors. Delicious punch, cookies, and nuts were served.

The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the attractive table appointments and in the room decorations. Delicious punch, cookies, and assorted nuts and mints were served by the hostesses: Mesdames King, Kenner, Davis, and Manard.

We, the seniors of 1957, wish to thank these teachers for their interest and effort in putting the perfect finishing touch to our baccalaureate service.

SENIOR GIRLS HAVE "HEN PARTY" Tuesday afternoon, May 14, in the home of Mrs. Moody Bursey.

"all eleven" senior girls were given a Coke party. We had a wonderful time eating "pigs in a blanket," sandwiches, nuts, and drinking delicious icy-cold punch. These refreshments were served from a table covered with pink and white. The clever centerpiece was made of styrofoam cut-outs of a boy and girl graduate.

After refreshments, we were led in interesting and enjoyable word games. Later we were presented date books and book marks as favors.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to Mrs. Bursey for helping to make these last days of school so pleasant!

METHODIST LADIES SERVE DINNER

Last Thursday, the ladies of the Crowell Methodist Church prepared an excellent dinner of fried chicken and other good things for us, the graduating class.

Upon entering the church basement, we beheld a lovely table centerpiece with a rose center and crepe paper streamers trailing out to the plates where "boy and girl" graduate place cards bore names of the various students. After the delicious feast, Spikes and Margaret Collins presented a tap dance to the "School Days" which they

OPPOSE LOAD INCREASE
A Texas cattlemen's association unanimously opposes a proposal to substantially increase truck load limits on Texas roads, on the grounds that the roads were designed primarily for use by private citizens and for bringing the products of farms and ranches to market. Heavy trucks, it adds, have done great damage to some highways.

Austin—Laws are fine so long as they have no teeth in them. Apparently that's the feeling of 74 members of the Texas House of Representatives. At least that's the way they voted as they came down the home stretch to final adjournment. House members had their best opportunity to express their opinions about putting teeth in Texas laws when Senate Bill 55 by Sen. Preston Smith came up for House consideration. Previously it had passed the Senate with flying colors; it was given a "do pass" recommendation by the House State Affairs Committee; and it carried Gov. Price Daniel's endorsement. SB-55 pertained to publication laws. But only to laws already on the statute books. Specifically only those laws ignored by those public officials who dislike to report their activities to the home folks. No new public notices were called for in the bill. All SB-55 did was strengthen existing laws. It merely pin-pointed who was responsible for printing public notices . . . so that the people might be informed. Present laws provide that any public official who flatly refuses to follow the requirements of existing laws shall be subject to a fine or removal from office. That's already on the statute books. But Texas laws fail to designate specifically who is responsible. The new bill was even more considerate than existing laws . . . for it even allowed for delays due to oversights or plain carelessness. Actually SB-55 applied only to those public officials who intentionally violated the law. It required numerous "warnings." It would therefore affect only those public officials whose attitude was "The public be damned. I'll spend their money as I please. I'll tell the people only what I want them to know." SB-55 was one of the Better Government bills proposed by the Texas Press Association. House sponsor was Rep. John R. Lee of Kermit, Texas. The vote was 74 against and 56 for the bill. We think the public is entitled to know the names of those who voted in their interest. Although in the minority these Representatives fought to open public records to public view. They made a sincere effort to tighten Texas laws against further secrecy in governmental operations. Here are the staunch advocates of Freedom of Information in the Texas House of Representatives: Louis H. Anderson of Midland; L. L. Armor of Sweetwater; Robert W. Baker of Houston; Charles L. Ballman of Borger; Raymond A. Bartram of New Braunfels; A. J. Bishop Jr. of Winters; H. J. (Doc) Blanchard of Lubbock; Robert L. White of El Paso; Joe Ed Winfree of Houston; W. N. (Bill) Woolsey of Corpus Christi; and J. C. (Zeke) Zbrank of Dainsetta. 55TH MILESTONE — These measures went on in the waning days of the session: General Appropriations: An all-time high budget of $2,090,000,000 for the next two years was approved. It included salary raises for state employees. Teacher Pay: Both the House and the Senate approved measures to raise teachers' salaries. Higher Pensions: Both houses okayed a proposed constitutional amendment upping the amount the state can spend on public welfare each year—to $47,000,000. If approved by the voters it will bring a $10 monthly increase in the old folks' checks. Congressional Redistricting: In a redistricting bill the legislators abolished the Congressman-at-Large post now occupied by Martin Dies and gave Harris County (Houston) a second congressman. They also juggled around eight other districts and divided Harris County into two districts. Urban Renewal: Approved was a slum-clearance bill which would allow cities to condemn blighted areas for redevelopment by private enterprise. Teen-Age Drivers: Two bills affecting the hot-rod crowd were given final okay. One makes girls under 18 and boys under 17 responsible for traffic violations. Other gives the Department of Public Safety the say-so as to whether youngsters under 16 can have drivers licenses. Previously, county judges had the authority. Another bill governed destruction of property by minors. It would make parents responsible, up to $300. 55TH GRAVESTONES — Apparently dead for this session are these issues: Law Enforcement Commission: Governor Daniel's plan for a "super grand jury" for investigating crime and official misconduct. Reform Bills: (1) Prohibiting lawmakers from appearing before state boards for a fee; and (2) eliminating the automatic delay of lawsuits when a legislator is hired as an attorney. Four-Year Colleges: Making senior colleges of Arlington State College at Arlington; Midwestern at Wichita Falls, and John Tarleton at Stephenville.

In The News . . . 30 YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the issue of the Foard County News of Friday, May 20, 1927:

The News is indebted to Mack Boswell, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, for the convention news of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce meeting in Wichita Falls. He was among those present and had this to say about Mike Mulligan and Patsy: "There could never be enough praise given Jimmie Ashford and Harvey Sikes whose voluntary impersonations of Patsy Dugan and Mike Mulligan, characters made famous on the comic page of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, an outstanding feature of the convention. Sikes in his checker-board suit and low crown derby with Crowell hat band resembled almost exactly the famous "Mike" and no less can be said of Jimmie Ashford, who, with his pink dress, lavender hose, ear puffs, etc., attracted as much attention as anyone at the convention." Crowell also had a beautifully decorated automobile in the parade carrying Mrs. T. B. Richmond, sponsor of Crowell, and her escort, Mr. Richmond. Geo. Self drove the attractive car.

Frank Greening died at his home here Sunday morning, May 15. Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, two brothers and one sister.

Tom Bell was elected to the board of directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at the convention in Wichita Falls.

Grady Halbert finished in the group of twelve best speakers in the "My Home Town" contest at the Chamber of Commerce convention in Wichita Falls.

The Elite Barber Shop, owned and operated by Jeff Bruce, was moved Monday to a newly prepared room just west of the old stand in the Bank of Crowell building.

Mrs. Gordie Gafford was here last week from Electra visiting her sister, Mrs. Edgar Womack.

Miss Minnie Ringgold left the latter part of last week for Grayson County to visit with relatives.

H. J. Crosnoe brought to town Saturday specimens of his wheat which indicated that a yield of something like 20 bushels may be expected. He has 500 acres like the sample and he has 200 acres that promises no yield at all. This year, it seems, the late wheat is the poorest.

Miss Ha' Lovelady and Edward Huffman have been elected by the Senior League of the Methodist Church to attend the Annual League Assembly at Clarendon commencing May 30 and continuing for a week.

H. Meisels and Miss Fannie Fisch were married in New York City about two weeks ago and left immediately for Crowell. They will have charge of the "Famous" dry goods store, which is opening up for business.

Best Wishes

We join the town in wishing you the best.

Santa Fe and Electronics

New electronic methods keep constant check on all freight cars moving over Santa Fe rails

New electronic wonders are contributing to precision railroading on the Santa Fe. Take freight car locating, for instance. With our Red Ball service, we can "put the finger" any time on any one of many thousands of freight cars moving over the 13,150 miles of Santa Fe rails every day. Information on these cars is recorded on cards which are fed into electronic machines. These "electronic brains" process the cards as fast as 2,000 per minute—and tell us within a few seconds where every car is, what it contains, where it is going. This information is immediately available for our customers. Shippers of produce may take advantage of any changing market conditions and divert their shipments while en route to other points where markets may be more favorable. With this advice, consignees know in advance the time of arrival of their shipments. This facilitates their plans for delivery of shipments or scheduling of production. This method of locating freight cars is only one of the many electronic tools now employed by Santa Fe. Some of the others are microwave, two-way radio, and supersonic rail detectors. Something new in the science of railroading is a daily objective on the Santa Fe—the railroad that's always on the move toward a better way.

 and that he would press for ex-

THE WILDCAT

Janie Bowers and Charlotte Sledge sang "Melody of Love" and "Ivory Palaces" accompanied by Patty McGinnis, and Judy Borchardt gave a duo-monologue of a comical nature regarding dentists and airplane rides.
 In conclusion, Mrs. Henry Borchardt addressed the group, and J. C. McCoy, class president, gave a response.
 We of the senior class wish to thank every one of the ladies and entertainers who cooperated to give us such an enjoyable occasion.

REYNOSA OR BUST

It was on last Friday, May 17, at 3:30 p. m. that we left on our long-awaited Senior Trip. With all the luggage and packed lunches, there was just enough room for the twenty-three of us, our sponsors, Mr. Black and Mr. Myers, and three mothers, Mrs. Marion Crowell, Mrs. J. T. Brooks, and Mrs. Willie Garrett, to board the gaily decorated Sunset stage commercial bus from Abilene.

Travelling all night with stops every two hours to rest our weary bodies, we arrived Saturday morning at McAllen. A highlight of the entire trip was the meeting with ex-Crowellites, Mr. and Mrs.
 T. V. Rascoe and Mr. and Mrs.
 Oscar Boman. They invited us to have refreshments at the Boman home in San Juan. That afternoon, they acted as our personal guides in a trip across the Rio Grande and on into the quaint city of Reynosa, Old Mexico. There we made the shopping centers—getting numerous trinkets and souvenirs. That evening we went to the famous Sam's Restaurant for a wild game dinner with all the trimmings. All good things must come to an end, so after stuffing ourselves, we loaded into "Old Faithful" and again arriving at McAllen, we bade our friends good bye and went to the Fairway Motor Hotel.

Sunday morning we were up early — headed for Port Isabel;
 there we enjoyed a delightful swim. After lunch we went to Corpus Christi, and boat riding, swimming and skating seemed to take the energy of all. That night those who wished attended church services before getting a few hours needed rest at the Catalina Motel.

Monday was filled with fishing in the Gulf. Many exciting things —too numerous to enumerate—took place during the fun-packed day.

Tuesday morning, we reloaded the bus and started for home. We stopped at intervals to view memorials, parks, etc. Tuesday evening we unloaded—sleepy seniors and luggage, souvenirs and chatter—at Crowell. But hark! Today is another school day!

Tuesday morning, we reloaded

Marie, just think what girls today would be.
 DeAnna Ferguson is really a big "brain." She even knows to come in out of the rain.
 Shortest girl of all—Karen Rose Hall.
 She used to be nicknamed "Mosquito," but her real name is Marketta.
 Last but not least, she's well known. She's the dark eyed Marilyn Stone.

Aldon returned home from school in a dither. "I don't know what to do, Pop," he complained.
 "The teacher says I have to write more legibly, but if I do, she'll find out that I can't spell!"

J. C. "I have a cold or something in my head."
 Mr. Black: "A cold, undoubtedly."
 Joe Calvin: Could I please have two balloons?
 Mrs. Hart: Well, usually I give just one balloon to each youngster. Do you have a brother at home?
 Joe: No, but my sister has, and I want it for him.

Johnny Wehba, roaming around the country, found a pile of empty condensed milk cans. "Hey, guys," he called excitedly, "come here quick! I've found a cow's nest."
 Mr. Pruitt came home to dinner after a game of golf. During the meal his wife said, "Early tells me he caddied for you this morning."
 "There now!" exclaimed Henry's father, "I thought I'd seen that lad before."

FOR FUTURE REFERENCE
 Just for future reference — when we may have almost forgotten the details of this "our high school graduation exercises," we might want to refer to the programs that brought our school days to a close. Therefore, we are printing a copy of the programs of the closing exercises.

LEST WE FORGET
 To our faculty we, the class of 1957, wish to say a special "thank you" for everything.
 Grady Graves, superintendent;
 Henry Black, principal, typing, Spanish, bookkeeping; Mrs. Lena
 Davis, geometry and algebra; Mrs.
 Ruth Kenner, homemaking; Mrs.
 Violet King, librarian; Mrs. Vera Manard, English; Eddie Rickard, band; Thayne Amontet, American history, civics and Texas history;
 James Welch, science; Marvin
 Myers, vocational agriculture;
 Mrs. Moody Bursey, play director;
 Gordon Erwin, mathematics.

SENIOR SMILES
 One morning as the children came in, the teacher noticed that Billy Short was crying. When she asked why, he held out two one-dollar bills and said, between sobs,
 "I can't remember which dollar is for my pictures and which one is for my lunch ticket."

POETIC AND PENSIVE
 No one ever quite knew such a fine annual chieftan as our Butch.
 As fine a fellow as we know is ever-present, friendly Joe.
 The finest of to-be-married men is our own blond, quiet Glenn.
 Good old Garrett. The best of men! If he'll be good, I wonder when?

Best wishes to old Edward (that great big Daniel worm!) No longer could he stand us, so he left us at mid-term.
 Not a happier girl lives than Roma, the day she gets that old diploma.
 Someone who is very glad: Edward Howard, '57 grad.
 The girl that always is the "goat" is red hair brained Saun-dra Choate.
 What can I say about him? Oh, gosh! Well, anyway, he's Johnny Kajs.
 He's in the army now. At last McCoy has escaped the plow.
 Janis Crowell is all the rage, with Lowell from the house of Page.
 Golfing? Early sure can do it.
 Early is Henry Earl Pruitt.
 Measure him against the wall.
 To be short he's awful tall.
 You never see his blood pressure boil. He's always calm, he's Billy Doyle.
 He could out-hop the Queen of Sheba: Of course, you know
 he's Johnny Wehba.
 When the saints go marching on. Guess who? Jack Wishon!
 A fellow by the name of Lowell captures interest from Janis Crowell.

A girl we like, to tell the truth, is our friendly, smiling Ruth.
 A prettier little girl each day,
 is that "convertible" Nelda Kay.
 What if she had been a boy?
 But she isn't; she's LA Voy.
 Everyone take my advice, Williams is really nice.
 If all the girls were like Anna

Elizabeth Davis and Noel Wilkins; invocation, C. T. Aly; duet,
 "Barcarolle," Lois Ann Painter and Charlotte Sledge, accompan-yed by Janie Bowers; address, Warren Pruitt; presentation of diplomas, Henry Black; benediction, Warren Everson; recessional, Elizabeth Davis and Noel Wilkins.

GAMBLEVILLE H. D. CLUB
 Roll call was answered with "a trick for good grooming" and the collect for club women was given as the opening exercise
 when the Gambleville H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. Fred Diggs May 17 for its regular meeting.
 The timely program, "Growing Annual Flowering Plants" was given by Mrs. Cecil Carroll. She spoke on where and when to plant annuals and what was expected of the different varieties of seeds that are on the market today. After a very informative discussion was held on the different plants each member had in their flower gardens, refreshments were served to 5 members and one visitor, Mrs. Harris. Club adjourned to meet June 7 in the home of Mrs.
 Milton Hunter.

Deserves our congratulations.

Seniors Honored with Dinner Last Thursday

On Thursday, May 16, the ladies of the Methodist Church honored the Senior Class, Henry Black, Marvin Myers and Supt. Grady Graves with a luncheon in the basement of the church.

The tables were centered with a May pole, using pink and white streamers leading to each place which was also marked with silhouettes of graduates. The base of the May pole was a mass of pink roses. After the invocation by Rev. Grady Adeock, a delicious meal of fried chicken, new potatoes with parsley, green beans, bing cherry salad, hot rolls and iced tea, concluded with angel cake, strawberries and whipped cream.

A short program followed with Vicki Spikes and Margaret Collins going a skit "School Days." Judy Borchardt gave a reading on "Teeth and Airplanes." Accompanied by Patty McGinnis, Charlotte Sledge and Jamie Bowers sang "Melody of Love" and "Ivory Palaces." J. C. McCoy, president of the class, expressed thanks to the ladies.

Mrs. Louie Le Beau Honored with Bridal Shower Saturday

Mrs. Louie LeBeau, the former Miss Gail Knox of Crowell, was honored Saturday afternoon at the Adelpian Club house with a miscellaneous bridal shower.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Viola Biggerstaff, who introduced them to the receiving line composed of the honoree; her mother, Mrs. Gerald Knox; the groom's mother, Mrs. Pete Butts of Nocona; her grandmothers, Mrs. S. T. Knox and Mrs. Tom Bursey.

Mrs. DuWayne Elliott presided at the guest register. Miss Bettie Linda Knox and Roxiann Adkins served frosted punch, cookies and nuts from the attractively-decorated dining table.

Mrs. Woodrow Lemons, cousin of the bride, played incidental piano music throughout the receiving hours. Mrs. G. L. Cole presided in the gift room.

The rooms were very artistically decorated throughout in white and yellow, the bride's chosen colors. Yellow roses were displayed in all the decorations.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames John Rader, Bill Bell, Glen Shook, John Borchardt, Chester Hord, Raymon Raspberry, Otis Gafford, Carl Wishon, DuWayne Elliott, J. B. Fairchild, Tom Russell, G. L. Cole, Goodloe Meason, Jack Spikes, Viola Biggerstaff, and Miss Dorothy Erwin.

Out of town guests present were Vonnie Guthrie of Nocona and Melissa Lowe of Electra.

BARBECUE HONORS C. H. S. GRADUATE AND GUESTS

As a pre-graduation compliment to Joe Calvin, a member of the Senior Class, Miss Mayme Lee Collins entertained a group of boys with a chicken barbecue in the backyard of her home on Friday, May 10. The tantalizing odor of the barbecue greeted the guests as they arrived and they did full justice to the meal, served buffet-style from a red-covered table, flanked by hurricane lamps.

Favorite recordings, singing and lively conversation added to the gaiety and card games completed the enjoyable affair.

The guest list included: Lowell Page, Aldon Garrett, J. C. McCoy, Johnny Wehba, Fredrick Youree, Jimmy Rader, Ray Thomson, Gordon Cates, Larry Sledge, David Carpenter and the honoree, Joe Calvin.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. A. B. Calvin.

Club reports were given. After the council meeting, Mrs. Clarence Garrett called a THDA meeting. Delegates and alternates to the State THDA meeting were elected as follows:

Delegates: Mrs. Sam Kuehn, Riverside Club; Mrs. Warren Haynie, Vivian Club; Mrs. Clarence Garrett, Gambleville Club.

Alternates: Mrs. Donald Norris, West Side Club; Mrs. W. F. Bradford, Margaret Club.

Next Tuesday, May 22, we will have a training meeting at 9:30 a. m. in my office on "Trash-Burners and Clotheslines." I have mailed letter to all the leaders about this meeting and I hope you will all make every effort to attend.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

With the installation of 1957-1958 officers service on May 29 at the home of Mrs. J. E. Stover, Truseott, with Mrs. Jack Whitaker as hostess, the Columbian Club of Crowell will conclude its current course of study on units of club Federation projects. Under the capable direction of Mrs. Karl ten Brink, president pro-tem, who took over that office by unanimous vote upon the resignation of Mrs. Jack Roberts Jr., the committee chairmen have carried out the program plans in a most capable manner.

Highlighting the calendar have been programs featuring Americanism, communications, conservation of natural resources, fine arts, international affairs and two excellent book reviews. The Columbian Club was awarded first place by the Seventh District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs for its programs dealing with conservation.

All club members are urged to be present for the installation service, at which time the names of Department Chairmen for the coming calendar year will be announced.
