Young burglar fires at patrolman and escapes

Surprised at Dodson's door

City Patrolman Jerry Jolly was fired upon by a youthful burglar he surprised trying to break into the back door of Dodson's store early this morning.

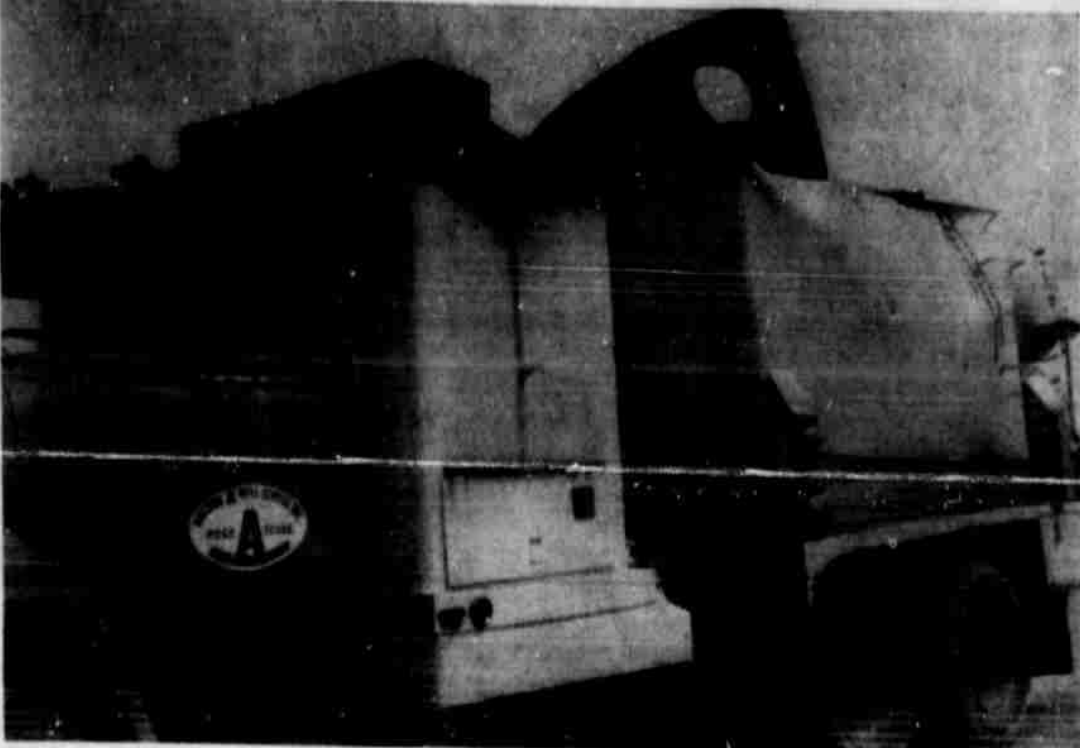

The shot, which Jolly described as either from a .22 or .32 caliber pistol, missed the law enforcement officer and the burglar escaped down the alley of the 200 block of East Main after Jolly drew his gun and fired twice at the fleeing gunman.

Babe Ruth League to meet Friday

A Babe Ruth League meeting for managers, coaches, league officers and all others interested in youth baseball is to be held at 7:30 p.m. this Friday at the Ben Owen Cabinet Shop, according to A. J. Howell Jr., league president. The players for four league teams were drafted at a meeting Tuesday night. The team rosters will appear on The Dispatch sports page next Thursday.

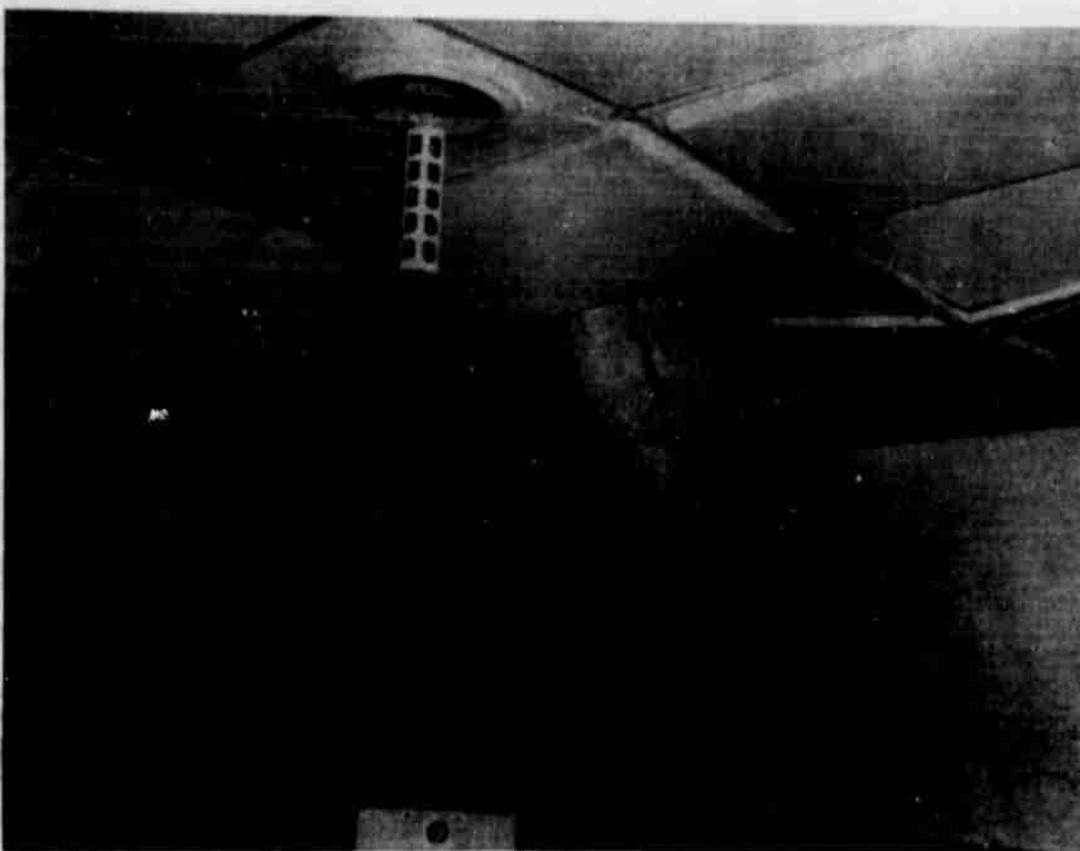

School not to renew contract

Post school trustees in a two-hour special meeting Tuesday night voted unanimously to rescind the authorization to Supt. Bill Shiver to negotiate an additional year's contract with Pat N. Walker as the school district's delinquent tax collector. The board also named a trustee committee consisting of A. C. Cash, Earl Chapman, and K. W. Kirkpatrick, to confer with Walker to determine the current status of all tax collection suits and those properties now held in trusteeship. School trustees at their last meeting had decided to continue with Walker's services for another year.

HEAVY DAMAGE TO TRUCK

Damage can be seen to the oil treater truck on which Hubert Yarbro was working when killed by an explosion early Sunday afternoon. The fin-like shape near the rear of the truck is the top of the tank, blown into that shape by the explosion. The hatch cover that went over the round hole in the cover was blown several hundred feet. Yarbro was working on the other side of the tank, standing between the heater just at the rear of the cab and the tank.

EXPLOSION WRECKS OFFICE

Ceiling tiles are hanging down in the office of manager J. C. Steel, which caught the brunt of the damage up front in the Racker "A" explosion. Steel's office is just north of the garage where the blast occurred. Two other offices north of Steel's were less heavily damaged.

Blast here Sunday kills worker, damages firm

The Racker "A" Well Service garage and offices just inside the east city limits on U. S. Hwy. 380 were ripped by an explosion at about 1:15 p.m. Sunday that fatally injured Hubert Alden Yarbro, 50, who was performing welding repairs on an oil treater truck that he regularly drove for the company. The explosion knocked Yarbro off the truck from where he was standing between the burner and the tank. He died about an hour after the accident in Garza Memorial Hospital where he was undergoing emergency treatment for a broken leg, abrasions and shock. An autopsy was ordered by the attending physician to determine the exact cause of death, but the results of the autopsy had not been reported late yesterday. The Dispatch was informed.

Fund established for injured man

The Mu Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi has established a fund at the First National Bank for 25-year-old Raul Salinas. Salinas was critically injured in a pickup accident and is presently in intensive care at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. Mrs. Raul Salinas is a member of the Mu Alpha chapter. The couple have two children and are expecting another. Any individual or group donations will be appreciated. The same may be made at the First National Bank to the Raul Salinas fund.

Area FFA is to honor Post man

Jim Jackson of Jackson Bros. Meat Packers here will be presented an honorary membership into the Future Farmers of America Association at the Area II FFA convention in Midland May 11-12. Jackson's name was submitted for the award by the teachers of vocational agriculture and the FFA members in the Post area. He is already an honorary member of the Post FFA chapter and has long been a supporter of the program. E. A. Howard Jr., a vocational agriculture teacher here for the last several years, said Jackson has supported junior livestock shows in the area, including the ones here and at Gail, in addition to other FFA activities. A few years ago, Jackson Bros. Meat Packers donated a camper to the FFA chapter. Jackson said today he plans to attend the convention, at which he will be presented with the Lone Star Farmer Degree at 9 a.m. Saturday, May 12.

alley behind Dodson's store and had circled back and was coming south on Avenue H when his spotlight picked up the youth at the back door of the jewelry and clothing store," Holleman said. "Jolly told the youth to stand still and was getting out of the police car when the youth whirled and fired at Jolly and then ran down the alley.

"Jolly, who had not taken out his gun, then drew it and fired twice at the fleeing figure in the darkness. "He made a quick search of the alley and the area without finding his assailant." The patrolman then radioed for Sheriff Holleman and together they made a thorough search of the area without finding the youth, the sheriff reported. "From now on, in such instances, officers will approach suspects with gun in hand," the sheriff said. Jolly said the burglar was a long-haired Mexican youth. The youth had pried open the screen door when Jolly surprised him attempting the break-in.

BY JOINT CITY-COUNTY COMMITTEE

Study of other towns' youth centers planned

The new city-county youth center study committee held its organizational meeting Sunday afternoon in the First Methodist Church and decided to canvass other area towns on the operations of their youth programs before attempting to establish one here.

Mrs. Patty Kirkpatrick was elected chairman of the committee. Mayor Giles C. McCrary, who met with the study committee, told The Dispatch this week that the city has agreed to pay its share for the employment of a youth director and has asked the committee to report on whatever other needs it may have to get into operation.

The county in February allocated some of its federal revenue sharing funds for the Chamber's proposed combined community-youth center program, and appointed two members to the present study committee. Mayor McCrary said the committee hopes to initiate some sort of youth program here during the summer, but with all the other planned activity for young people wants to be sure it has an interesting program to offer local and area young people before initiating it.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Linda Bouchier and family in Houston this week, was unavailable for comment on plans of the committee. Other committee members attending the Sunday session were Wayne Carpenter, Syd Wyatt, Arnold Sanderson and John Ward.

Driver killed in highway accident

Manuel Guitron Jr., 27, of the Canyon Valley community, Route 2, Post, was killed in a one-car turnover at 5 a.m. Monday on FM 651, 15 miles north of Post.

Highway Patrolman Gene Posey, who investigated, said the vehicle was headed northeast when the driver apparently lost control. The car overturned four times, throwing Guitron out. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace Racy Robinson of Post.

Guitron, born March 14, 1946, in Brownsville, had lived with his parents in Crosby County about six years. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Guitron; six brothers, Reynaldo, Oscar, Rafael, Elzar, Johnny and Jesse, all of the home; and four sisters, Lupe, Mary and Rosa Guitron, all of the home, and Mrs. Lydia Obregon of Canyon.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Holy Cross Catholic Church with the Rev. Timothy Schwertner officiating.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Hudson Funeral Home.

Southland okays $500,000 bonds

SOUTHLAND — Voters of the Southland Independent School District approved a maintenance tax and a $500,000 bond issue in a bond election Saturday.

The $500,000 bond issue will fund the building of 11 classrooms, a library a science laboratory, offices and a gymnasium. The complete unit will serve as both an elementary and high school.

Eighty-four of the property owners voted for the maintenance tax, and 88 voted against it. Non-property owners voting for the tax were 11, and six voted against it. Eighty-one property owners voted for the bond, and 65 voted against it. Thirteen non-property owners voted for the bond and four voted against it.

The bond election followed by a few weeks a school consolidation election in which Southland voters turned down a proposal to consolidate with the Slaton Independent School District.

Four new homes to cost $153,000

City building permits have been issued here for four new homes to cost an estimated $153,000.

J. W. Williford, Abernathy contractor, has been issued a permit to build three new residences in the Robinson Addition in the northwest part of the city to cost $25,000, $23,000 and $25,000 respectively.

Wayne Thrush received a permit to build a five-bedroom home for Dr. and Mrs. William C. Wilson at 304 Mohawk at an estimated cost of $70,000.

Rogers rites are conducted here

Funeral services for John W. Rogers, 64, who died of a heart attack at his home at 314 South Ave. H early Saturday afternoon, were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday in the First United Methodist Church here.

Rogers, a retired service station owner, was a native and lifelong resident of Garza County. He was born in the Graham Chapel community to pioneer residents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rogers.

He was a lifelong Methodist and after being christened in the Graham Methodist Church, was the first person baptized in the First Methodist Church of Post, according to a member of the family.

Survivors include his wife, Nonie; two sons, J. W. Jr. of Post and Harold Rogers of Borger; four daughters, Mrs. Dolen Dempsey of Seagraves, Mrs. Curtis Williams, Mrs. Joe McCowan and Mrs. John Kocurek, all of Post.

Pallbearers were Roy Brannon, Thurman Maddox, Ronnie Ticer, Charlie Lee, Clifford Williams, Wilbur Williams and Charlie Cooper.

New highway patrolman assumes duties in Post

Vernon Stach moved here recently as a replacement for Highway Patrolman Ken Gilbreath, who was transferred to Van Horn.

Stach, who is working here with Highway Patrolman Gene Posey, is on his first job assignment after completing his courses at the Department of Public Safety's recruit academy.

The new highway patrolman's hometown is Levelland. He and his wife, Billie, have a 15-month-old daughter, Tammy.

SHERIFF SHOT DOWN

MARFA — Presidio County Sheriff E. D. "Hank" Hamilton, 65, was shot to death last Friday and his deputy was wounded as the pair investigated a parked car 10 miles west of Marfa. Police said Hamilton was shot five times and Deputy William Maffey, 22, was wounded in the arm.

The average age of U. S. cars in use is nearly 5 1/2 years.

Tax refund recipients advised by CPAs—don't let it happen again

DALLAS — Millions of taxpayers are happily sharing billions of dollars of overwithheld income taxes which Uncle Sam is now distributing as refunds. Who would dream of advising those lucky beneficiaries to make sure it doesn't happen again? The Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants, that's who.

Jarmon Bass, president of the society, says the withholding rates that caused so many taxpayers to be overwithheld in 1972 still apply and that unless preventive steps are taken affected taxpayers will again receive windfall refund spring. "What's worse with that?" Well, says Bass, the refund isn't really a windfall. The money is the taxpayer's own, which could have been banked or invested to earn interest or dividends for 12 months or more. Also, the dumping of so much spendable cash into the economy in one short period could help fuel inflation.

The withholding rate causes overwithholding chiefly for persons who are single or, if married are the only wage earners in their families, and who have sizeable itemized deductions.

The Treasury Department has repeatedly urged such taxpayers to correct the overwithholding by filing with their employers an Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, which in effect lets them claim more exemptions than they have.

The reverse side of the certificate carries a guide to how many withholding allowances to take, based on expected salary and deductions.

Not enough taxpayers have been following this Treasury Dept. suggestion, apparently, for estimates of the refunds to 1972 taxpayers range as high as 22 billion dollars. With a booming economy in 1973, the CPAs predict the amount to be refunded next year could go even higher.

MISHAP KILLS TWO

MUNDAY — A tractor-trailer truck overturned early last Friday killing two persons. The dead were identified as Gary F. Gale, 22, of Morris, Okla., who was driving, and Freddie M. Carroll, 30, of McCombs, Tex.

Refunds to U. S. taxpayers will set new records

WASHINGTON — American taxpayers will collect $21 billion in tax refunds this year, an increase of $7 billion over last year, the Internal Revenue Service said Saturday.

The IRS said that through April 23 it had approved refunds totaling $15.5 billion for 41.8 million persons. The IRS said it expects to issue more than 10 million refunds by the time it has completed checking the automated 77 million individual tax returns this year.

It said individual refunds this year have averaged 24% compared with 23% last year.

The IRS said a large number of taxpayers mailed their returns close to the filing deadline of April 15, which has slowed processing refunds. It said it takes about 10 weeks to process returns and mail refund checks.

The IRS said many taxpayers are collecting larger refunds this year because of changed withholding procedures.

Facts and figures on oil industry are in new Mid-Continent leaflet

DALLAS — Current facts and figures on the Texas petroleum industry have been compiled by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn. in the latest edition of its annual leaflet, titled "73 Facts About Texas Oil and Gas," which is distributed free to the public.

The new leaflet covers statistical highlights of the petroleum industry's functions in Texas, featuring such categories as drilling, production, offshore activities, economics, employment, taxation and reclamation, processing. Historical references are included in the "general" category.

The new facts leaflet also includes a summary of the nation's energy situation, pointing out that oil and natural gas supply more than 75 per cent of U. S. energy needs; that billions of barrels of oil and quadrillions of cubic feet of gas probably remain undiscovered under the nation's land and sea areas; and that 10 billion barrels of oil have been discovered on Alaska's North Slope, but are unavailable until a pipeline is built.

On other current sources of energy, "73 Facts" notes that coal provides 20 per cent of U. S. energy needs (with 300-400 years of reserves); nuclear power about one per cent (possibly 11 per cent by 1985); and water power 4 per cent with little advancement expected.

The leaflet also notes that the future contributions of other possible energy sources — solar, geothermal, tidal, wind, etc. — are currently unpredictable and their development could be decades away.

Single copies of "73 Facts About Texas Oil and Gas" are free on request from the Association, 2920 Southland Center, Dallas 75201.

on patrol in the north part of town several blocks away, said he too heard the blast and thought it was a sonic boom.

Bagby arrived at the well service immediately after the explosion and a crowd of onlookers had already gathered, he said. Residents for several blocks in all directions reported hearing the blast from inside their homes.

There was no evidence of a fire following the explosion.

The large steel building received structural damage, mainly inside the 50 by 60-foot garage where the roof was blown off and the walls bulged out by the force of the explosion.

Roof tiles were hanging from the ceiling of the office of J. C. (Joyce) Steel, manager, just north of the garage, and debris was scattered over the floor in the main office and the office of W. Earl Chapman Jr., superintendent of the firm.

Chapman told The Dispatch Tuesday that the explosion damaged the truck to the extent of about $2,000, but that it would be "a while yet" before an estimate could be made on damage to the building.

Chapman said the damage was not extensive enough to halt operations at the firm, but that repairs are being made.

The hatch cover of the truck's tank door was blown several hundred feet away, into the yard of the Hill & Hill oil service firm, Chapman said.

The firm's superintendent said Yarbrow had been hauling water and soap in the truck's tank for two days before the blast, but that a small pocket of gas evidently had accumulated "somewhere."

Yarbrow, a unit operator, had been employed by Rocker "A" for about three years.

His funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Calvary Baptist Church, of which he was a member.

Officiating were the Rev. Graydon Howell of Flatonia, assisted by the Rev. Leon Smith, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under the direction of Humm Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Billy McKamie, Sam Bevers, James Dooley, Charles Huffman, Roy Brannon and Bill Criswell.

Yarbrow had lived in Post since 1934.

Survivors include his wife, Juanita, and one son, Daniel, both of

AN UNSUCCESSFUL SHAVING MACHINE WAS INVENTED BY GEORGE FIBBLETON OF NEW YORK CITY, IN 1833!

LIBRARY LISTENING POST

By GEORGE L. MILLER

Will you pardon a word of boasting?

A very nice thing happened last week. My first story appeared in print. I went to the post office and there it was, a very official looking envelope from Trends Magazine addressed personally to me. I knew, before I opened it what it was. It had been on my mind for several weeks. Much like a pregnant woman awaiting the birth of her child, I waited the appearance of my literary child. This brown envelope was just the right size for my baby.

To carry the analogy further, it had been very close to nine months ago that I first received word that Trends wanted to buy my story. I submitted my manuscript the first week of September, and then prepared to wait, knowing the issue would not appear until the end of April.

In December I heard they were planning to illustrate the story. That idea hadn't occurred to me. How would someone out in Oregon visualize characters thought up in the head of a preacher in Texas? I got curiouser and curiouser wondering what the pictures would look like.

Then in February another memo arrived. This time it was a promotional ad sent out to the churches of our denomination (Trends is a Presbyterian Magazine) describing the contents of the issue in which my story would appear. The ad mentioned my story first, giving it top billing I was wracked with suspense.

Last week the birth occurred. The magazine was in hand, a reality to be seen and felt. The cover—for those who are interested in such details!—is a bright orange. Not my favorite color, perhaps, but no matter, bright orange captures the eye.

The story—like the ad—is the first article. It has my name on it—spelled right, too—and all but 118 words of my story. (I edited out two paragraphs and an unnecessary word here and there. It improved the story so I didn't protest.)

I guess a writer always has a special fondness for his first child. But now what worries me is that it will be an only child. It's time to get back to work and see what I can do.

By the way, just in case any of my loyal readers would like to see this story, I donated a copy to the library. Happy reading!

Today I'm off to New Mexico. No column next week. See you on the 17th.

Don Smith gave an interesting talk to Post Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon in City Hall on the subject, "Business Trends in the 70's and into the 80's."

Despite a reduced U. S. birth rate he predicted a United States population of 230 million by 1980, foresaw no wars or depressions, and great growth opportunities for those who capitalized upon them.

The road to ruin turns out to be more toll road than freeway.

Farmers to get questionnaires on agriculture

During the last half of May, some 24,000 Texas farmers, including many in Garza County, will receive a crop acreage questionnaire from Charles E. Caudill, agricultural statistician in-charge of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Austin.

This information will be the basis for determining the planted acreage for the State of Texas and for each county.

There are 254 counties in Texas, and reports are needed from many farmers so that each county will be well represented. Accurate estimates are of great importance to farmers in planning production and marketings and in providing an unbiased picture of Texas agriculture.

Girls track team in good showing at meet

None of Post High School's regional qualifiers placed in the girls' regional track and field meet at Abilene Friday and Saturday, but they all made good showings, according to Coach Jay Wilson.

The 880-yard relay team placed eighth Saturday after qualifying in Friday's preliminaries. They had their best time of the year in the preliminaries — 1:51.8. Members of the relay team were Pam Feagin, Melanie King, Jenda Gilmore and Patricia Bilberry.

The 440-yard relay team of Cathy Howell, Patricia Bilberry, Pam Feagin and Becky Dalby did not qualify for the finals.

Dalby, who has had an injured foot the last two weeks, failed to place in the triple jump.

County commissioner suffers hand injury

Precinct 4 County Commissioner Herbert Walls, who injured the little finger on his left hand in an oil field accident April 19, still is not able to return to work following surgery on the hand at Lubbock's Methodist Hospital.

It was necessary for his finger to be amputated and part of his hand removed by "sloping" it down to the wrist.

Walls is in the journalism division of the literary events.

RECYCLING PROGRAM

Pearl Brewing Company Collection Center open

The Pearl Aluminum Can Collection Center at Posey Siding, U. S. Hwy. 84, is now in operation, according to Mike Mitchell, who heads the company's recycling program in Lubbock, Slaton and Post.

Mitchell, owner of the local Pearl Beer distributing company, said the facility will be in operation Tuesdays from 8 a.m. until 10 a.m. and from 3 p.m. until 5 p.m., and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"During these hours we will be purchasing recyclable aluminum cans for 10 cents a pound," Mitchell said. "That's approximately one-half cent a can."

The Lubbock-Slaton collection center is one of a statewide network of 81 such installations being established by Pearl Brewing Company. Cans collected here and throughout the state will be shipped to the brewery in San Antonio for processing and recycling back into the economy.

Mitchell said Pearl recently completed new facilities adjacent to the brewery to handle the recycling program.

"The recycling program will provide local clubs and organizations with a unique way to earn extra money for special fund drives and charities," Mitchell pointed out. "Or it will provide people with a new way to earn some extra pocket money."

"All they have to do is save the aluminum cans and bring them to us,"

Frank P. Horlock, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Pearl Brewing Company, has predicted that 50 million beverage cans will be removed from the Texas solid waste stream annually through the recycling program.

Horlock said his projection of 50 million cans is based on national statistics. In 1972, more than 1.4 billion aluminum beverage cans were redeemed for cash, he noted. Some $8.2 million was paid to the public for redeemed cans.

Lasso® for cotton . . . Convenient weed control.

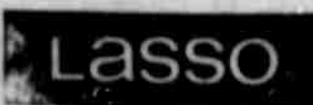

Cotton farmers are taking a good long look at Lasso, the preemergence herbicide by Monsanto.

Because Lasso is convenient to use.

First of all, you don't have to incorporate Lasso. You apply Lasso at planting. It's far less likely to blow away, then, and you've saved yourself an incorporation trip through the fields.

Lasso comes in easy to use liquid. You apply Lasso preemergence on the surface. Broadcast it, or for real economy, band it on. However you apply Lasso, you'll get effective control over Carelessweed, and almost a dozen other annual grasses and broadleaf weeds that compete with cotton.

And Lasso doesn't persist in the soil. So if you get hailed out, for example, you can come right back in with soybeans or corn with no carryover worries. Take a good, long look at Lasso. It's the herbicide that's convenient for you at planting.
