POST, TEXAS "OUT WHERE THE WEST IS THE WEST" THURSDAY, MARCH 25, 1943 "THE GATEWAY TO THE PLAINS" NUMBER 16

Insurance Line Set April 15

Insurance has been included all cotton in 110 percent of the allotment.

1942 program, initial cotton crop insurance, was limited to insurance production from the farm.

Insurance to include acreage follows Agriculture Wickard's plan that cotton grower allotments without a farm program pay-privileges.

Additional cotton acres, up to the allotments, to the same insurance as all other cotton planted on the farm, must be planted in accordance with good methods and usual practice on the farm.

Outstanding examples of insurance sales this year, Cochran, state crop supervisor, pointed to Loving counties. With farms, Reeves county cotton crop insurance, and Loving county, cotton farmers, showed participation.

Boyd, Secretary Garza, points out that out on farms only 6 cotton insurance applications have to date.

April 15th is the closing date for Garza County for application of this year. Farmers to contact the committee and review possibilities for their insurance.

The FCIC contract, either percent of the farm's normal hazards, such as rain, drouth, boll and other insects.

Local Women Are Interviewed Mon. By WAAC Lt. Smothers

Several local girls and women interested in joining the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps were interviewed here Monday by Lieut. Raymond Dees and Lieut. Rose Smothers, WAAC recruiting officers out of the district office in Lubbock. They were accompanied by Auxiliary Merita H. Mills, one of a group of WAAC auxiliaries recently assigned to the West Texas district to assist in the big March recruiting drive.

"Garza county has a quota of four WAACs by March 31, and we certainly hope to see that quota not only reached but doubled," stated Lieut. Smothers. "In Dallas Sunday Lieut. Col. F. W. Steffen, WAAC procurement officer, issued a statement to the effect that too many women are finding weak excuses for not enrolling in the corps. Before the WAAC was established he said, you could hardly turn around without hearing a woman say she wished there was some way for her to get into uniform. Then the corps was set up, and entirely too many of those talkers immediately found they had dependent uncles or some other weak excuse."

The WAAC officers also pointed out that authority is now being sought to increase the corps from 150,000 up to 375,000 by the summer of 1944, with strong indication that demands from army commanders and staffs may even double this figure.

"The war won't wait and can't wait," declared Lieut. Smothers. "The woman-power of America is needed desperately in our country's march toward total victory. The woman of America must heed that call before it is too late. If Secretary of War Stimson wants a corps of 375,000 WAACs, that means there are 375,000 soldiers who need to be released from non-combatant duties to shoulder arms and go to the fighting fronts."

Women between the ages of 21 and 44 who have no dependents or children under 14 years of age are eligible to join the WAAC. Those interested in further information may obtain it by contacting Mrs. B. J. Edwards, Garza county WAAC volunteer recruiting chairman, or Mrs. E. Warren at The Post Dispatch office.

Four new directors were elected in the Tuesday meeting of the Rotary club. They were Jack Martin, Dr. B. E. Young, Pat O'Connor and Dean Robinson.

Holdover directors are Roy Holland, Ashley Lawson, A. B. Haws and W. F. Presson. Roy Holland is president of the club. The new club year begins in July.

The attendance records for January of all the 57 clubs in the district show Post in 6th place with a percentage of 97.41. Perryton, with 14 members, was in first place with 100 percent. Shamrock brought up the rear, 57th place, with an attendance percentage of 76.85.

The U. S. Treasury Department has requested the service clubs of the nation to take the lead in the bond selling campaign for April.

Clint Herring was named chairman of the campaign for the club. Others on the committee are Alfred Stallings, T. R. Greenfield, W. F. Presson, O. D. Cardwell, and Roy Holland.

Nazarene Revival Is Increasing In Interest Each Day

Rev. Louis McMahon is considered by his Post friends as an outstanding preacher and reports are that he is bringing some interesting sermons during the meeting that is now in progress at the Church of the Nazarene. Crowds are increasing each service. The goal for Sunday is set for 150 persons in Sunday School at 10:00 o'clock.

The public is invited to take a part in the worship service at 11 o'clock a. m. and 8 o'clock p. m. each day. Rev. A. T. Moore is pastor of the church.

G. C. Custer left last Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bud Collins of Sidney. Mrs. Collins is a sister of Mr. Custer's.

Zone Meeting For Lions of Dist. 2-T Held In Post

Lions club members from Lamesa and Snyder joined club members from Post in a zone meeting held in Post Tuesday night with the Post club as host to the group. The meeting was combined with Ladies' night had a most enjoyable and successful session was held in Imogene's Dining room at 8:30 o'clock with Lion President Marvin Hudman in charge of the affair. Approximately 25 visitors attended in spite of the inclement weather. Fifty-six persons registered.

Preceding the banquet, a business meeting was held in Mason & Company firm with J. H. Norris of Lamesa, zone chairman, in charge. Reports on the fiscal year just closing were heard and plans for electing a dominating committee to select new officers were discussed. A splendid report on the increased membership of all clubs of the zone was given. Other matters pertaining to the regular business of District 2-T were discussed before the group adjourned to meet with the women in a very delightful banquet and program.

Following the remarks of the president, group singing of America and the invocation by R. D. Travis, Rex Everett was introduced as toastmaster. He presided over a grand program that featured two women as the main speakers, Mrs. John Cearley and Lt. Rose Smothers, WAAC recruiting officer from Lubbock.

Mrs. John Cearley gave in her own inimitable manner a brief review of the book "Big Spring," styling her review "A Prairie Town." Genuinely down to earth were her comments on the book that is taking the west by storm. Her own interpretation of some passages of the book were thoroughly appreciated by the attentive audience and many were the comments after the meeting concerning her part on the program.

In a more serious vein was the talk made by Lieut. Smothers. She declared that 150,000 WAACs were needed in the army by June of this year and stressed the importance of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps. "Leaders of our army are calling for women to take over clerical jobs. Army officials declare that women are more efficient in office work and the need in this field is urgent." She gave some interesting data on the procedure each recruit goes through when she enlists in the corps. As she closed her talk she turned the meeting over to Lieut. Raymond Dees, also from the Lubbock office. Lt. Dees made some very timely and relevant remarks about the place the Women's Army can and must fill in the war. He left his audience with some new avenues of thought on the situation.

One Hundred Is Goal For WAVES From South Plains Area

The Navy Recruiting Office at Lubbock wants one hundred women from the South Plains area to join the WAVES and SPARS, said H. W. Harris, Chief Recruiting Officer, when he was in Post on Monday. Applicants must be between the ages of twenty and forty-nine. Women in the service will hold responsible positions. Previous experience in any of the many different fields will be a valuable asset to the candidates, but it is not a must requirement.

The chief qualifications are alertness, integrity, leadership, and above all the urge to serve your country. This is a total war in which women must play their part as the men of the nation are doing. Prospective candidates who are accepted will be sent to a college for indoctrination, and those who are officer material will be appointed reserve midshipmen at the end of this month's training period. All officership candidates will receive their additional training at Smith College, Northampton, Mass., or at Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

Women everywhere are enlisting and carrying their responsibilities in true American fashion. Write or apply to the Navy Recruiting Office, 206 Post Office Building, Lubbock, Texas, or make an appointment to see Ensign Marguerite Stuart, a WAVE, who will be in Post on Friday, April 16 at The Post Dispatch office. Ensign Stuart will be here at 2 p. m.

All 17 year old boys who want to enlist in the Navy are urged to get in touch with the Recruiting officer immediately. Seventeen year olds will be enlisted for general service and will be sent to one of the 50 trade schools of the Navy. Youths interested may be enlisted by April 1.

Red Cross War Fund Drive Nets $2,905.15 To Date

The Garza County Red Cross drive went over the top last week with $2,905.15 contributed. The quota for the county was set for $2,700.00. Plans now are to continue the drive as there are many people in the county and city who have not contributed. "We hope to reach the $3,000.00 mark before the month is over," said Dean A. Robinson, county roll call chairman.

The county chairman, T. L. Jones, is calling attention to the fact, too, that many people have not contributed; some say they have not been solicited. "Do not wait until some volunteer worker comes to see you, this is a part of your job too and your money is needed now," the chairman said. "Ninety per cent of the money being contributed in this drive will be used for the boys in the armed forces. We cannot let them down," he continued.

All persons who have not contributed are asked to read the Red Cross Advertisement on page 4 of this issue of the Dispatch. It is your invitation to have a part in the greatest mercy organization in the world.

Incomplete returns from the various communities have been reported to the roll call chairman. Close City tops the list with $370.76. This fine record is due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Ray McNabb, Mrs. L. W. Dalby and Mrs. Boots Storie from that community. Graham community is second with an incomplete return of $175.70.

Southland reported an incomplete return of $239.50 and Justiceburg reported $152.53. Other communities reported as follows: Grassland, $140.00; Cross Roads, $29.50; Barnum Springs, $58.00; Verbena, $52.00; Garnolia, $40.50. All returns are incomplete and it is expected that by the end of the month a total record from each community, and from Southland, Justiceburg and Post can be published. Total from the communities so far is $1,258.40.

Post donated to date $1,646.75. Lee Bowen, city chairman, indicated that several more dollars would probably be added to the total amount as there are still some folks in the city who have not donated.

Contributions will be accepted from any of the volunteer workers, the chairman, or at the First National bank or The Post Dispatch. Do your part today, is the request of all those in charge of the drive.

Requirements Are Modified For The Women's Reserve

Senior women students in Texas Colleges and Universities will be accepted as officer candidates for the Navy and Coast Guard Women's Reserves under a modification of enlistment requirements announced today. Candidates applying to the Navy or Coast Guard must present an endorsement from a special faculty committee. They will not be called to active duty until after graduation.

This move has been made, it was explained, in order to enable the Navy to enlist outstanding college seniors who have talents and ability to contribute to the Naval Service despite a lack of professional experience. Previously the only non-college graduates accepted by the Women's Reserve as officers were those who had two years of college training plus two years of business experience.

Since enlisting women on college campuses is not authorized, a student must report to the nearest Office of Naval Officer Procurement. Texas offices are located in Houston and Dallas. A certificate from the dean of the college stating that the applicant will graduate on a certain date, and a full endorsement from a special faculty committee, must be presented upon application for enlistment.

No quotas have been set for the number of women to be enlisted under the new procedure.

Mrs. Allen Benton of Lubbock visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Dalby, early this week.

Housewives Will Find Shopping Easier With New Book

"Simplicity is the keynote of the new meats and fats rationing program just announced by the OPA," said Mrs. D. C. Williams, Chairman of the Garza Rationing Board.

"Housewives will have no difficulty at all in shopping with their red ration stamps in War Ration Book Two when the new program goes into effect on March 29." The busy housewife will only have to consult one table of point values to find out how many points rationed foods will cost.

This latest program requires no registration of any kind. One of the few differences between the use of the blue and the red stamps in War Ration Book Two, is the order in which stamps will be declared valid.

When rationing begins on March 29, the first set of red stamps, marked A—worth 16 points, will be valid. Beginning April 4, and then on each succeeding Sunday throughout April, an additional set of stamps will be validated. All these stamps, from A through E inclusive, will remain in use all month—making a total of 80 points per person for April.

Another difference in the use of the red stamps is that it permits retailers to make "change" in ration stamps when a customer finds it impossible to give the exact amount of valid red stamps when making a purchase. Only one-point red stamps of any series currently valid may be used for this purpose.

As red stamps are declared valid, they may be used with complete freedom of choice by the housewife to buy any one, or any combination, of the foods for which they must be surrendered.

Point values for the entire list of foods rationed in one store will be the same as in every retail store in the country—just as they are for canned goods. Point prices of different cuts of meat will be different—just as the point price of apricots and peas, for example, is different. However, there will be no difference in point price between different grades of the same cut of meat—nor between different grades of hard cheese, nor the same quantity of any kind of butter.

Although the new plan places no official restrictions on the use of any of these foods at the farmer's own table, the Government is requesting that farm families retain red stamps in their family ration books in an amount equal in point value to the foods produced and eaten at home.

When a farmer sells any of these home produced foods, he must collect ration stamps from his customers—even if they are neighbors—on the basis of official point prices, and turn these stamps in to the Office of Price Administration.

"Farmers in Garza county," said Mrs. Williams, "will be instructed later on just when and how to turn in these stamps."

City Election Set For April 6th

The names of Walter W. Hyde, mayor, and J. A. Stallings and T. R. Greenfield, commissioners, who are now serving their first terms and will offer on the ballots as candidates for re-election.

The election will be held in the City hall.

Easter Revival For Methodist Church Is Announced - April 18

April 18 was announced as the date for the Easter Revival for the Methodist church, according to the Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor. The meeting will continue through Easter Sunday and plans are being made for a week of real spiritual revival the pastor indicated.

Rev. Herring will do the preaching and music will be handled by the members of the church choir and local musicians.

The public is given an invitation to attend and to keep the dates of the meeting in mind.

Meat Dealers Must Have Permits By April First

John L. Wallace, Chairman Garza County USDA War Board is announcing a community meeting to be held at the Court House, Friday night, March 26, beginning at 8:00 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of explaining the provisions of and the reasons for Food Distribution Orders 26-27, and how they can comply.

The orders become effective at 12:00 o'clock midnight on March 31, 1943, as released by Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture. Under the provisions of Food Distribution Order 26, each person engaged in the handling of livestock as a dealer or as an agent is required to have a permit which will be issued by the local USDA War Board. This includes local butchers and meat packers in small towns. In fact all persons who slaughter and sell meat must have permits by April 1.

Object of the national meat program is to control black market operations, to obtain adequate supplies of meat for direct war needs, and to secure the necessary control over the supply of meat so that it can be fairly distributed through consumer rationing.

Pointing out how the program applies to farmers, Wallace said if animals were slaughtered for home use only that permits would not be required, but permits would be required if any of the meat were delivered to others. All slaughterers also must keep complete records of all livestock slaughtered.

Under the program, three orders have been issued:

- (1) All livestock slaughterers who sell meat, including farmers and local butchers, to operate under a slaughter permit system and, as an aid to enforcement, to stamp their permit number on at least one each wholesale cut.
- (2) All livestock dealers to obtain permits buy and sell livestock and to keep complete records of their operations. Farmers are not required to obtain dealer permits but they are asked to keep records of their purchases and sales.
- (3) All slaughterers who operate under federal inspection to set aside for war uses designated percentages of their production.

Under the dealer-permit plan, anyone who buys and sells cattle, hogs and sheep and keeps them for less than 3 days, is considered a dealer and is required to obtain a permit from his county USDA War Board.

It is also required to keep a complete record of his livestock purchases and sales, including the date he bought the animals, from whom he bought their weight, the price he paid for them, to whom he sold them, and the price received.

A similar record of sales also will be required of all producers who sell livestock, regardless of whether they are classified as dealers. A dealer in livestock receives no stamp of any kind nor are his operations restricted since he can sell to anybody he chooses.

"In connection with the new slaughterers' permit regulations, it was pointed out the OPA price control and grading regulation still will apply," Wallace said.

FACTS AT LAST

The Secretary of Agriculture has frankly said before the Senate Appropriations Committee: "Since I appeared before you a month ago, I have become increasingly alarmed about our inability to get enough farm labor to reach the goals we have established for farm production. I am more alarmed about our inability to get enough farm labor to reach the goals we have established for farm production. I am more alarmed today than I was yesterday."

"Economic planners" have largely taken farm crops for granted like air and water—something the Lord provides. They have considered almost everything else an "essential" industry ahead of farming. They have a farmer so tied up with red tape restrictions that the time required in complying with them is actually cutting down farm production.

We are not living in horse and buggy days. A minority of our people on farms are feeding a majority of our people in cities. They can't do it without manpower and machinery, nor can they do it on a price basis that ignores farm production costs as compared with industrial production costs.

It is as hard for a rich man to enter heaven as it is for a poor man to live on earth.

If men had no faith in one another all of us would have to live within our incomes.

NO ACT OF GOD

No tales of fuel shortage has been brought back from the fighting fronts. In spite of disruptions in the transport system and the loss of priceless oil fields to the enemy in various parts of the world, together with shattering changes in production methods, the oil industry has managed to produce the gas and lubricants needed by the armed forces. Not a single tank, plane, ship or truck has failed to move for lack of fuel. This fact should give comfort to every citizen, for oil is vital to victory. And the American oil industry has proven that it is equal to the demands of military necessity.

Increased output of 100 octane gasoline stirred Secretary of the Interior Ickes to remark: "I wish that I might make public, as a tribute to your industry, the present production of 100 octane, because it represents a near miracle, the proportions of which cannot, unfortunately, be appreciated by anyone who does not understand the intricacy of the refinery equipment which is necessary and the complications of process involved."

It was an act of God which gave our nation her vast oil reserves. But no act of God makes that oil available for our use. The latter was done solely through the efforts of men who dared to take risks, men who strove to build and to produce under the stimulant of possible profit. They were encouraged in their activities by a government and a people with boundless faith in the competence of individuals. The performance of the oil industry in time of national emergency has justified their faith. It was built by individuals.

ATTENTION TO GARDENERS

As fascinating as a crossword puzzle is the planning of a vegetable garden. There's a time and place for everything, if you use your wits. But the smaller the plot, the harder the scheming. Some crops, like radishes and lettuce, need space only early in the spring. Others, like potatoes and parsnips, squat leisurely in their territory all summer. There are slender-growing plants like carrots which need little space between rows, while fat subjects like cauliflower and tomatoes need room to expand. You may cleverly arrange late plantings to follow early ones. Squash and pumpkin, for instance, may climb the drying stalks of sweet corn. But it takes careful planning, on paper, in black and white (or color if it makes you happier!) Get out your pencil now. Make a list of the vegetables you'd like to grow. Draw a map of your garden plot to some scale as one-eighth inch equals one foot. Then start to juggle!

Arm for the love of America. Your scrap metal is needed now for more ships, guns, planes.

This Is Your Invitation To Help Boys In Service

Over 300 boys of Garza County are serving in the armed forces of the United States. They are depending on us on the Home Front to send help to them on the Battle Front. We can all do that by giving double to the greatest mercy organization in the world. Give today . . .

Garza County received $25,000.00 from the Red Cross in 1930-31; 90 percent of this amount went to the farmers for drought relief. The Red Cross gave us help when we needed it—now it is our turn. Fully 90% of the money you give to the Red Cross this year goes to the boys in the Armed Forces.

Any person can contribute to the Red Cross. If you have not been solicited by volunteer workers, make your contribution to the First National Bank, to Dean A. Robinson (roll call chairman), to The Post Dispatch or to any member of the War Fund Committee.

This is your job too . . . so don't forget your contribution today to the greatest MERCY ORGANIZATION in the World. Can you let it be said you didn't do your part? Read the printed matter below then let your conscience direct you in your gift.

Somewhere, on some distant battlefield, an American soldier will be wounded in action today. He may be your son. Or the laughing, tow-headed kid that only yesterday lived in a house down the street. Remember? Strong but tender hands will carry him back to an Army dressing station. A blood transfusion may be required to save his life—blood contributed to the American Red Cross by thousands of Americans back home. He will be brought to a base hospital where Army nurses, recruited by the American Red Cross, will dress his wounds. Sympathetic Red Cross workers will advise his family of his progress, and, as he convalesces, other Red Cross workers will help speed his recovery.

Somewhere tonight an American boy is longing for home. He may be in bomb-scarred London—in far-off Australia, in a Pacific island jungle, or on a North African desert. But his heart and his mind will be back in the States, at the home fireside. He will long to pat the head of that frisky pup; to laugh again with the girl who awaits his return: to live the life of a civilized man. If he can, he will go to the American Red Cross club. It won't be the home for which he longs. It will be only a substitute—an antidote for loneliness. But there he will find a warm welcome, an American style meal, a comfortable bed. He may sit down to write a letter to the folks back home. He will find entertainment to relieve his mind of the thoughts that pass through the minds of homesick men. He may be at some distant outpost, far removed from that Red Cross club. But tonight, or the next night, the Red Cross will come to him, bringing with it relief from the boredom and horror of war.

Somewhere, today, an American serviceman needs help. He may be at a distant domestic camp or base, on a ship at sea, in an unfriendly prison camp. He may be almost anywhere. Wherever he is, there also is the American Red Cross, offering him its many resources. Whether his problem is personal, physical, mental or financial, the Red Cross stands ready to assist him and his family. Even the barbed wire enclosures of prison camps are no barrier to the Red Cross. Through its affiliation with the International Red Cross Committee, it breaches all hatreds to bring food, articles of comfort, and to re-establish the line of communication between the military prisoner and his loved ones at home.

Somewhere, sometime, disaster will strike some community. It may be your town, ravaged by storm and flood—or enemy action. When that disaster strikes, the Red Cross—your Red Cross—the one to which you always have contributed—will be on the job. It will feed and shelter the suffering. If necessary, it will help to rebuild their town, their homes. The Red Cross will be there because it is part of the community, made up of people representative of the community. When the period of emergency ends, it will still be there—on the job.

Somewhere, every minute of the hour, every hour of the day, every day of the year, the Red Cross is helping someone. Won't you help, too?

Patricia Collins of Chicago illustrates how the new kind of "swing" girl—who must sleep daytimes because she works the swing shift in a war plant—helps the victory drive by pulling down window shades. This not only provides better sleeping conditions but conserves fuel. By keeping shades completely drawn at night and in unused rooms at all times, American families can save 9,000,000 tons of coal and 10,600,000 barrels of oil a year, according to figures compiled by the Armour Research Foundation.

By Office For Emergency Management

The importance of food as a weapon of war gained still greater emphasis during the last week as things to eat—especially meats—continued to hold first attention of city and rural folk alike.

While consumers learned about details of meat rationing which begins March 29, livestock slaughterers prepared to begin operations under the permit system to be handled in each community by the local USDA war board, beginning April 1.

For consumers who have become acquainted with point rationing under the processed foods program, the meat rationing procedure will be fairly simple. There are two major differences; the red stamps to be used in meat purchases become valid weekly, instead of monthly, and the one-point red stamps will be used by the retailer in making "change."

The red stamps will be used for any of the rationed items, including meat, cheese, butter, margarine, shortening, and other fats and oils. Point values will be on tion as it confronts us today.

E. O. Wedgeworth, song leader from Snyder, had charge of a fine group of songs. Miss Mae Weakley was accompanist.

During the banquet, Tail-Twister Macey Casey was actively engaged in seeing that law and order were obeyed. Numerous fines however, had to be assessed.

Informal talks were made by Lion Lyle Duffback of Snyder and Lion J. H. Norris of Lamesa.

Among the out of town guests who registered were: Messrs. and Mrs. L. C. Chapman, S. W. Williams, Gerald Gordon, E. O. Wedgeworth, all of Snyder; and Messrs. and Mrs. J. H. Norris, Tracy Campbell, M. E. Boren, all of Lamesa; Leonard Scott and L. E. Griffin of Lamesa, and Edgar Taylor of Snyder; Lt. Smothers and Lt. Dees of Lubbock.

A. C. Surman Member Of Honor Society

A. C. Surman Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Surman was admitted to the Phi Eta Sigma, honor society for Freshman men students according to a news release received by the Post Dispatch from the University of Texas where A. C. is a student.

Scholastic requirements for the society are high, as a student must make three "A's" and two "B's" in the first semester's work. A. C. was a member of the honor roll of the university. Inaugurations for the society are to be held this spring.

the pound basis. These will be shown on charts to be displayed in all retail stores.

With the advent of food rationing and current shortages, added impetus has been given to Victory Gardening. Additional thousands of farmers and city dwellers are being enlisted in the home food supply program and urged to raise all food possible for their own consumption.

To help gear the great majority of the country's farms to war food production, extended efforts are being made to relieve the farm labor shortage situation. In line with these efforts in the U. S. Crop Corps which is in process of organization and training. By the great efforts there will be enough labor for handling and processing this year's primary crops, but there'll be none to spare for less essential farm operations.

Gasoline for spring planting and cultivating and harvesting crops will be readily available to farmers this summer through rationing procedures streamlined for their convenience. Farmers may get ration coupons for a 6-month supply of gasoline. This eliminates the necessity of applying for renewal of rations every three months as was required until recently. However, any farmer whose needs may increase at any time during the six months' period may apply to his rationing board for additional rations to meet the emergency.
