Council Okays Maintainer Purchase

The Post City Council approved an emergency measure during Tuesday's regular monthly meeting to include stray cats in its bounty program.

Several citizen complaints have been received recently concerning stray cats, and under the bounty program people will receive a $5 bounty payment for stray cats and dogs.

They must be brought to the city pound on Avenue H behind the city warehouse.

The city will keep the stray animals for five working days.

The council also approved the purchase of a road and street maintainer to replace the old machine, which is frequently down for repairs.

A low rent housing project review was approved as the first step in the proposed project to be build on W. 15th and Ave. S.

In other action the council approved the inclusion of elected officials in the workers' compensation fund, approved an application with restrictions to Leon Gibbs for an office on Hwy. 380, approved specifications for the city warehouse and ambulance garages and changed personnel policies to comply with state law.

The council also adopted a resolution on the Community Development Block Grant, to begin application procedures by the consulting firm.

Attending the meeting were Mayor Giles McCrary, council members A. C. Cash, Jim Jackson, Maxine Earl, Bill Pool, Jr., and Jack Alexander; city manager Rebecca King, city secretary Wanda Wilkerson and city attorney Harvey Morton.

Childress, Post Open District

by Wes Burnett

One of the powerhouses in AAA football during the decade of the 1970s will get a chance to see one of the best AAA teams in the state of Texas this Friday as the Post Antelopes take off up north to Childress and the first of five district games.

Nursing a 2-2-1 record this season, the Bobcats operate from a Wing T offense, with 197 pound senior tackle Scott Dean anchoring the line.

Sophomore tailback Kenneth Sims (145 pounds) and senior quarterback Kevin Moore (155 pounds) will handle the running chores.

On defense the Bobcats use a 4-3 alignment with Dean at the linebacker spot.

"They run the ball fairly well and use sweeps and traps," Antelope coach David Thompson reports.

"They're going to try to stop our running game," he continues.

So far this year, opposing teams have found the air attack just as damaging as the running when the Antelopes mix up their offense.

It's a long drive to Childress, and those who do not have seats on the booster buses will miss the first part of the game if they look for an 8 p.m. kickoff...the district games open at 7:30 p.m.

See you on the sidelines at Childress.

FRIDAY NIGHT ROYALTY — These three young ladies were honored Friday night at the football game.

CHAMPION STEER ROPER — Guy Allen is presented a belt buckle for his winning the OS steer roping for another year.

Anyone interested in helping with the funds should call Rosemary Rogers at 495-2769.

Series E Bonds?

People holding Series E Bonds, issued in 1941, may be holding non-interest bearing paper, according to the Department of the Treasury.

The 1941 Series E bonds reached their maturity on the 40th anniversary month in 1981 and ceased earning interest at that time.

Persons holding these bonds should cash them, or transfer them to other interest-bearing savings.

School Out Early

In view of the distance to Childress, Oct. 8, 1982, school will be dismissed at 2:50 p.m. with buses running at 3 p.m. to allow travel to the football game.

The Way I See It . . .

By WES BURNETT

There's a good chance the U.S. Congress may...mind you I said may...come up with a simple, flat-tax on income...doing away with the absolutely unmanageable system we are now burdened with.

Almost everyone agrees that the current taxing system is unfair, unworkable and unimaginable in its complexity.

Literally no one, not even the most dedicated tax expert, can know all there is to know about the U.S. income tax law.

There are people who specialize in just one or two areas of the tax law...and even they have trouble keeping up with the nightmare of intricacies.

Ever since its inception in the 1930s, the federal income tax law has been expanded and toyed with until it has finally created a tax-payer revolt.

Congressmen and senators are hearing from all kinds of people, from farmers to laborers, about the need to revamp the tax structure.

The Way I See It we should scrap the entire thing and start over from scratch.

I like the idea of being taxed a flat rate or my total income...no deductions, no fancy loopholes...just as long as everyone is treated fairly...tax us all at the same rate...and the more we earn, the more we pay. Sounds fair enough to me.

I also believe we ought to establish some sort of minimum earning figure...so that people who are on the bottom of the wage pile won't have to carry more than they can afford.

If all corporations, businesses, individuals and profit making operations were to pay at the same percent of gross income...who knows, we might even be able to balance the budget.

Fat chance you say? What? You think congress will find more ways to spend our money?

Sadly, you're probably right. The federal government has historically found a way to spend more than it takes in.

That's one of the main reasons our economy is in the mess it's in now.

Few people realize it, but we're still paying for the Vietnam war...somehow we've got to get congress to shut down the spigot and figure a way to keep spending in line with revenues.

If we don't do something about it soon...the interest on our national debt will be more than the annual federal budget.

The deficit this year is already more than 100 billion dollars...folks, that's a lot of red ink.

The sad thing is that the deficit is so large, it's so massive, that we just can't imagine that much money...

But the federal government is in debt to the tune of more than 100 billion dollars...

That means that the Treasury Department has to borrow that much money this year...plus interest.

Where does it come from?

It comes from investors (folks who have extra money they want to put into interest bearing savings) who want a fairly secure and good return on their money.

That's okay...but when the money goes to the federal government, it is not being used by businesses to expand, by people to use for housing or new cars or appliances or other things people need.

As taxpayers and as consumers we ought to be as mad as Eddie Chiles about the double-dealing we're getting from our national leadership.

First, we pay out the nose in taxes.

Then they pass laws that cost more money than we have to give.

Then because of these spending laws, the government has to borrow money that we could be using for our own needs...so they take it away from us twice, once in taxes and then on the lending market.

It kinda makes me mad too, Eddie.

The Way I See It, we ought to be able to get folks elected to congress who are willing to use some common sense and make sure we only spend what we have.

Employers Hiring Veterans

Employers who are seeking or have hired Vietnam-era veterans who may have VA educational entitlement should contact the Veterans Administrations about approval of their training programs.

Having a VA-approved training program means that an eligible veteran can receive such education benefits while he or she is in training, advises the Director of the Waco VA Regional Office.

Interested employers should telephone the Waco VA Regional Office toll-free number listed in your telephone directory.

Woman's Culture Club sets Meeting

The Woman's Culture Club met Sept. 22 at the club house, with Mrs. Tom Bouchier and Nita Burress serving as hostesses.

Mrs. M. J. Malouf opened the meeting with a prayer, and expressed her appreciation to the club members and her special committies.

Mrs. Lewis Earl, program leader for the day, spoke on "Alternate Sources of Energy," as to the use of gasahol, solar, wind and coal. Mrs. Earl introduced Christy Waters from the Southwestern Public Service who showed a film, illustrating the ways and means of making our electricity.

The coal plants for making electricity are used, at this time, more than gas, as we have plenty of coal and it is not as expensive to use as gas. Miss Waters also explained the most economical way of using your electric heating and air-conditioning system. A question and answer period followed, that was most informative. Mrs. Earl expressed her appreciation, as well as the members, to Miss Waters.

Those attending the meeting were Mmes. Bouchier, Burress, Lee Davis, Sr., I.L. Duckworth, Earl, Hub Haire, Robert Craig, Adrian Cook, Willard Kirkpatrick, Malouf, Peggy Ellis, Lois Williams, J. F. Storie, J. W. Potts and guest Christy Waters.

The next meeting will be October 13, with Mrs. Potts program leader for the day, with "Conserving West Texas Soil and Water," as the topic.

Special speaker will be Mayor G. C. McCrary, member of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

What's Happening in Home Economics

By MRS. CHERYL WALKER
County Extension Agent - Home Economics

This week is National 4-H Week. The 4-H'ers in Garza County are part of the 140,000 Texas youth between the ages of 9 and 19 who are members of the action-oriented, "learning by doing" program called 4-H. 4-H is the youth share of the educational efforts of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, established in 1915 to diffuse among the people practical information relating to agriculture and home economics.

However, 4-H goes back farther than that. 4-H actually had its beginning in 1908 in Jack County when a boys corn club was organized to help grow better corn. Shortly thereafter, girls got involved as organized groups such as tomato clubs, canning clubs and poultry clubs.

4-H in Texas has grown from an organization of farm boys and girls to one that is quite diverse in its makeup. Girls now consistently outnumber boys in the program. Current figures show 72,129 girls to 67,653 boys. And about half of today's 4-H'ers - 68,783 - come from towns and cities larger than 60,000 people. More than 33,000 still live on farms and ranches while some 27,000 live in small towns and rural non-farm areas. Of these 4-H'ers, more than 66,000 are active in about 2,000 community 4-H clubs. The remaining 74,000 4-H'ers participate through a number of different programs.

Assisting county Extension agents and the Texas 4-H staff to carry out effective learning activities, and programs are some 15,000 volunteer leaders. Volunteer leaders organize many 4-H activities and conduct worthwhile learning experiences for 4-H boys and girls. They are a vital cog in the total program, from recruitment to providing expertise in teaching various subject areas. Any interested individuals are invited to join the ranks of the 4-H volunteer leaders.

4-H continues to be a vibrant organization that is leading the way in helping youth learn practical skills and gain a knowledge of their environment that will make them better citizens and leaders of tomorrow.

Roasted meats should be cooked for the shortest time possible, at the lowest temperature, to retain the maximum amount of thiamine. The one very important exception to this rule is, of course, roast pork, which always must be cooked until no pink meat remains.

Ancestry Search Hobby

Family tree research is one of the most interesting, pleasurable and gratifying hobbies you can turn to. Following the trails of your forebears can lead you to many exciting tales of successes, triumphs, failures, loves and - true life stories - as glamorous as any from Hollywood.

It can also take you to new lands and places, through study and writing, or in person, as you search for the records of your unknown progenitors. You will also broaden your knowledge of history, geography, laws, customs and life in general of the present and the dim past as you delve into records in new and ancient archives.

You will thrill time and time again as you find the accounts of your forefathers' endeavors - births, marriages, deaths, wills, land transfers, moves, etc. Sometimes you will run into puzzles as interesting and hard to explain as it is possible to imagine. You will solve some quickly, others may keep you in suspense for years.

How to get started is the big question with most people. What to do first? How to carry on? Where will I find the records of my people? How and what would I record when I do find them? These questions and many others will be answered or explained at the Everton Publisher's "Family Tree Climbing Can Be Fun Workshop", to be held in Jayton, Texas, Saturday, October 23, at the Kent County Community Center.

Registration will be from 9 to 9:45 a.m. with the program to begin at 10 a.m. and will conclude at 3:30 p.m. The workshop is being conducted by Floren and Phyllis Preece of Logan, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Preece have planned a unique lecture that will reach all those attending regardless of where their ancestors lived.

Each person attending will receive six issues of the "Genealogical Helper" with their $11 registration fee. This bi-monthly genealogical magazine reviews new publications and stories of various genealogical activities as well as other guides, helps and instructions for all family tree searchers.

The workshop is being sponsored locally by the Kent County Genealogical and Historical Society and they will be serving lunch that day for $3.50 (this of course is optional).

The society is asking for as many pre-registrations as possible, because of limited seating and planning for the noon meal.

For more information please write: Box 344, Jayton, Texas or call between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays, 806-237-3367 or 237-3751.

Discovery by partners

"...one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind."

Neil A. Armstrong, 1969

When U.S. Astronaut Neil Armstrong made the first footprint on the moon, he and his partners Buzz Aldrin and Mike Collins fulfilled a centuries-old dream for all mankind.

The success of the Apollo 11 mission was more than a triumph of three crew members working together. It was a triumph of a great network of partners that spanned generations, uniting the discoveries of the past with the skills, courage and imagination of thousands of scientists, engineers and others.

The Apollo 11 lunar mission, which rocketed mankind into the computer age, pioneered the way to a new era of people working together as partners managing technology.

Today, you and Southwestern Public Service Company are partners discovering new ways to manage electricity. For instance, when you install a high-efficiency add-on heat pump to your present furnace, you and SPS work together to help save money. Because the add-on heat pump is a difference worth discovering.

You and SPS, partners managing electricity, make the difference.

8th Grade Scores First on Tahoka

The Tahoka Bulldog 8th grade team came here last week, outscoring Post 26-8, after the host team scored first.

Tahoka fumbled the opening kickoff, which Post recovered on the 35 and drove the ball in for a touchdown on six plays, ending with Marvin Lee taking it outside for the final nine yards.

Eddie Moat went off

tackle for the two point conversion.

"We did not play well defensively as a team," coach Daryl Radle observes.

"Steve Pena intercepted a pass and made a good return and Rodney Guthrie also had an interception," he adds.

The 8th grade team travels to Brownfield Thursday, kickoff at 6:30 p.m.

Post 8th grade football players Randy Lewis (60), Derrick Dunn (44), Robbie Dean (50), Eddie Moat (33), Tony Angerer (71) and Ron Graves (62) scored first during last week's contest here with Tahoka.

Marvin Lee (20), 8th grade running back, zips around the Tahoka defense during the contest here last week.

8th grader Jay McCook carries the ball during the drive for a touchdown against Tahoka last week.

7th Grade Slips 6-0

The only score in last week's 7th grade contest with Tahoka here came on a short punt early in the game, as the visitors took the ball on the Post 20 yard line and scored, but failed on the point after attempt.

Although out-gaining Tahoka, the Post 7th graders were unable to overcome the 6-0 deficit.

The 'Lopes got close, late in the game. With a fourth and nine at the Tahoka 21, Augustine Soto ran around left end and was stopped short of the first down marker.

"We had one other chance after holding Tahoka," coach Fred Postell comments, "the Bulldogs had to punt, but a fumble on the reception stopped that possibility."

The coach also reports that the defense played well after the first four plays, holding Tahoka to a total of 44 yards in the entire game.

"Our youngsters played a much bigger team," he continues.

The 7th grade team travels to Brownfield Thursday, game time 5 p.m.

Doubts and Despair

Many in the church today can and do have times of doubt and despair. The apostle Paul in II Corinthians 1:8 tells us "despaired even of life." John Bunyan the 17th century England Puritan allegorized such troubles in his classic novel, the "Pilgrim's Progress." A castle called "Doubting Castle" is the place of affliction by its owner, "Giant Despair". The dark nasty dungeon without light, food, or drink, tormented those entrapped there. The prisoners through unadvised haste had trespassed on the castle property and brought their capture and confinement.

Those days of torment lasted Wednesday through Sunday, yet seemed like an eternity. On Thursday, the Christian sojourners, now prisoners, were beaten. Friday, "Giant Despair" suggested that they commit suicide. Saturday, he warned them that soon they would be dead.

Yet one prisoner, aptly named "Hopeful", reasoned thusly: The Lord is using this situation to chasten them, all they could do was trust and be patient. God had already seen them through many trials and would this one too.

Slowly time was passing as it came upon Saturday midnight. They began to pray (even as Paul and Silas prayed at midnight, Acts 16:25). Then a bit before day, Christian remembered the key in his bosom. This key, called Promise, opened the dungeon door and the iron gate that held the captives.

Doubt and despair were so very real. Yet they were no match for devoted prayer and the realization and application of the key called Promise within each bosom.

There are many times when we too need to believe the promises of God that His Word safekeeps with us. Doubt shadows over us and despair assails us too frequently. Yet the promises of God, when we believe, open prison doors to hope and new life.

Your time in heartfelt fervent prayer, the recall of God's assurances, the fellowship of your local church and minister may allow you to find your key. Some may never search for that victory. Others, as Christian and Hopeful may only at midnight begin that turn heavenward.

"We will be happy to provide programs of special interest upon request," Hillis said. "If no special program is requested, the planetarium will present a program of general interest."

Senior Citizen News

Senior Citizens of Garza County are having lots of fun at their center playing games and visiting one another each day. We have a good meal five days a week. There are lots of our people who stay down and play 88 or pool until late each day.

We will be electing four new officers and four new directors for the year of 1983, Nov. 10, 1982, so if you haven't registered for the Senior election, please, come by and register at the Algerita Center so you can vote.

Boone Evans is doing real good after suffering a heart attack during surgery on his eyes. Pete Pennell had surgery on his veins in his neck. We haven't heard how he is doing. Virginia Custer is in the hospital having a lot of tests made, so far everything has been real good.

Pearl Crisp is still in the hospital. Don't know how many more of our people are in the hospital, but our thoughts and prayers are with them each day.

Harold Voss is able to be back with us at the center the last few days after suffering a heart attack, still gets awful tired and doesn't get to stay so long, but eats lunch with us each day.

Jo Tracy is back home from the hospital doing pretty good. Mr. Julius Siewert had eye surgery and is home and doing alright. Remember all these people in your prayers through the week.

Thanks to the Westfalls from Southland we had fresh tomatoes this last week for lunch we sure appreciate the fresh vegetables the people have brought to us this summer.

We have started our new year here at the center.

We are hoping when David Newby gets back we will get our awning in front of our center, like that in the front of the old Algerita Hotel. With the help of some of our own people and the Green Thumbs. It sure will be nice if we can get it finished before winter to keep the ice and snow off our ramp and sidewalk.

When the city gets the signs made there is to be no parking on the east side of Avenue I which is the street the center is on. Also on Avenue H, it will be this way also, for one block only.

50th Family Member at TCU

When Henry and Sarah Black sent their five children off to college some 100 years ago, the couple probably gave no thought to beginning a family tradition. But that has been the case, and currently Kathryn Louise Kirkpatrick of Post is the 50th member of that family to attend Texas Christian University.

The 100-year plus relationship began with Kathy's great, great grandparents, who were close friends of preacher-teacher brothers Addison and Randolph Clark, who founded TCU's parent school. The Blacks sent sons Will, John and Jack and daughters Lula and Minnie to the fledgling school that opened as AddRan Male and Female College in 1873 in Thorp Spring.

Since then family members have continued to attend the institution — many of them in the quiet village of Thorp Spring, some 30 miles west of Fort Worth. Others enrolled while the school, known as AddRan Christian University in 1895-1902 and then as Texas Christian University, was located in Waco. And the relatives have continued to come since TCU became a part of Fort Worth in 1910.

The youngest of five children of K. W. and Patty Kirkpatrick of Post, Kathy is the only one of the five to come to TCU. Two of her cousins, Ryla and Blair Bouchier of Houston, are currently enrolled.

Familiar with TCU from the family stories she'd grown up hearing, Kathy had been a campus visitor in 1977 when her grandmother, Mrs. Ruby Stoker Kirkpatrick of Post, was awarded the honorary Doctor of Laws degree by TCU.

Although Kathy says none of her family tried to influence her decision on where to attend college, her grandmother's involvement with the University could hardly go unnoticed. A member of TCU's Class of 1927, Mrs. Kirkpatrick is a long-time supporter of TCU and Brite Divinity School. For the graduate seminary she has established three scholarships — the Henry and Sarah Black Ministerial Education Fund in honor of her great-grandparents, the K. and Lottie M. Stoker Memorial Scholarship in memory of her parents and the Willard and Ruby Stoker Kirkpatrick Ministerial Scholarship Fund.

More recently Mrs. Kirkpatrick has established the Ruby Stoker Kirkpatrick Scholarship to provide tuition assistance for members of the Christian Church who need financial help in order to attend their church-related university. In awarding the honorary degree to her, TCU cited her for her half century of leadership in the First Christian Church of Post as well as Disciples activities throughout the Hi-Plains area and for her work in industrial promotions, with the Post Chamber of Commerce and her term as the president of the first Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, and with senior citizens organizations and with Post's museum and historical society.

Kathy, whose father earned the B. S. degree from TCU in 1954, is particularly interested in TCU's program of fashion merchandising. Last year she worked at the World Trade Center in Dallas as part of a senior-year project at Hockaday School. Even with a busy schedule she finds opportunities for such hobby-time interests as needlepoint, cooking, church activities and family vacations.

Now living in TCU's Colby Hall dormitory, Kathy recently pledged Delta Delta Delta social sorority.

Other direct descendants of Henry and Sarah Black among the 49 that predeceased Kathy to TCU included their grandchildren — Ada Veale Robert, Frances Veale Russell, Sybil Black Trammell, Kathryn Black Fowler, Mildred Black Johnson, Billie Black Stoker Hall, Lewis J. Akers and Reg McFall.

Giddens Awarded

The superintendent of Post ISD announced today that the son of Principal Joe Giddens of Post High School is being commended in the 1983 National Merit Scholarship Program. A letter of commendation will be presented to Kyle Wade Giddens who placed among the top five percent of the participants in the twenty-eighth nationwide competition.

A spokesman for National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which conducts the Merit Program, stated, "To rank among the top 50,000 performers in a competition that includes over one million participants is an outstanding attainment, deserving of public recognition. We sincerely hope that the academically able young men and women who are commended in the Merit Program will diligently pursue their higher education opportunities and career goals. The nation will benefit by the full development of their talents."

The students being commended this month, who are now beginning their final year of high school, entered the 1983 Merit Scholarship competition by taking the qualifying test in 1981. Commended participants scored high, but slightly below students in their respective states who qualified as Merit Program Semifinalists. Only the 15,000 Semifinalists, who were announced in a national news release on September 16, will receive further consideration for about 5,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded next spring.

We are proud of this young man.

Re-elect Bill Hobby Lieutenant Governor

P.O. Box 567
Austin, Texas 78767
512-473-8781

Dear Citizens of GARZA COUNTY:

GARZA COUNTY, and Texas as a whole, are facing some difficult times. Recent layoffs in our oilfields and other major industries and the problems confronting our farmers, ranchers and older Texans must be addressed without delay.

These major problems, combined with federal budget cuts and the demands of our growing population, are affecting state spending and will require careful decision making on the part of your government leaders. In these times, you need leaders who have the strength and experience to make the difficult decisions and the compassion to guard your interests.

There are no instant solutions to the national recession, but I will help insure that we strengthen job opportunities by maintaining a healthy economic climate that encourages business development. This can be accomplished only by continued prudent state spending and keeping our tax burdens low.

Our educational system has advanced significantly in the past nine years, but there is still room for improvement. My efforts to improve the quality of public education for your children and grandchildren will begin in the classroom -- by improving teacher salaries and benefits and by giving more control to local school districts.

Our past approach to crime has won us many battles but now is the time for a new approach. For this reason, I will ask the 1983 Legislature to approve a comprehensive strategy that attacks crime on all fronts - police, courts and corrections.

It has been a privilege and an honor to have served you as Lieutenant Governor for the past nine years. I am asking for your support on November 2 so that I can use my experience and leadership to help face the important challenges confronting you and all other Texans.

Sincerely,

Bill Hobby

"So the Wind Won't Blow It All Away" is an American tragedy that takes place in a small town right after World War II. Richard Blautigan's short novel remembers a small group of people whose way of life was already doomed, even as they lived it. The first television antenna on an American home was their tombstone. "Murphy Must Have Been a Mother," argues Teresa Bloomingdale. With warm-hearted humor she describes the crazy things that happen in an average day to a woman raising ten children. Perhaps those same things happen to you, but you've lost your sense of humor. Bloomingdale's book may help.

Here's a quiz: guess the first name of the man whose life inspired a biography named "Reagan," by Washington correspondent Lou Cannon. Give up? Some hints: the man once broadcast imaginary football games to a broomstick "microphone," endured a painful divorce from Jane Wyman, survived his father's alcoholism, had a movie career, and then rose to become President of the United States. Said Reagan to Cannon, "What I'd really like is to go down in history as the man who made Americans believe in themselves again."

James Michener, author of "Centennial" and "Hawaii," chooses a short span of time and the vastness of space for his newest novel, "Space." Beginning in 1944, and looking into our near future, Michener chronicles American progress in space exploration, from Gemini, Apollo, the Viking landings on Mars, the Voyager probes to Jupiter and Saturn, artfully blending friction, history, and the realm of possibility.

The word, "hysterical" derives from the notion that women suffered hysteria when the "uterus loosened from its attachments, bumped around the pelvis, hitting everything in sight, causing aches, pains, and numerous other female complaints." Barbara Edelstein, M.D. offers a book for every woman who wants to know what life changes she can expect to encounter, and how to cope with them. She also details preventive measures against disease, weight gain, depression, and hormonal changes. She calls her book "The Woman Doctor's Medical Guide for Women."

"Max," by Howard Fast, is the story of Max Britsky, a tycoon who helped build the original movie industry in New York at the turn of the century. Fast tells about the woman Max married, and about love, hate, fraud, loyalty, and betrayal. Finally, still in the Presidential-biographical vein, Robert J. Conovan examines the second term of Harry Truman, calling 1949-1953 "The Tumultuous Years." Episodes include the first Soviet atomic blast, NATA, the Korean War, the firing of General MacArthur, and the Communist seizure of China.

Black Jack Pollock raised Lally, an illegitimate abandoned child in a turn-of-the-century English town. She grew up to become wife of a dashing military hero, the titled hostess of a London salon. Catherine Gaskin in "Promises" recalls Lally's promise, and the price she paid to keep it.

All of these books are new, and available, at your Post Public Library.

In Amarillo, an 89-year-old woman fell in the bathroom.

All the victims were aged. All died.

While falls can have severe consequences for everyone, the elderly seem to suffer the most. In Texas last year, there were 1,181 accidental deaths from all causes among persons 65 years of age and older. Falls accounted for 504 of these fatalities, reports the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the Texas Department of Health. In the entire Texas population, falls produced 729 deaths.

Accidents are an important statistic nationally for the aging. The National Safety Council reports that persons 65 years of age and older constitute about 11 percent of the population and suffer 23 percent of all accidental deaths. It reports that about 24,000 persons over age 65 die from all accidental injuries and at least 800,000 others sustain injuries severe enough to disable them for at least one day. There were 7,935 deaths in Texas last year from all accidents.

Hairstylist Attends Expo '82

Last weekend there was not a hair out of place as hair dressers from across the world attended Expo '82 — World's Fair of Cosmetic Arts and Science in San Antonio. Cynthia Morris was one of over 30,000 hairdressers attending.

There were many festivities in the main exhibit hall at the Convention Center. It was like a carnival on opening day at the Armstrong-McCall show. Instead of wearing clown suits, models were running around in rollers, perm rods and various other ways as preparing for the finished effect.

The audience sat transfixed as they watched several artists performing on the same platform. The work was done quickly and professionally and visiting stylists were left with no time void to fill.

The two day show was very educational with all the new fall fashions as the topic.

The hairstyles are shorter and becoming more casual. The fall colors in make-up are warm and natural earthtones.

Private classes were also taken to further educate the hairstylists. Of these, Cynthia attended the Redken, RK (Mens line in Redken), and La Maur classes.

Caterina vanella and Richard Asztaelos representing Redken, demonstrated new styles and cutting techniques for men and women. They also taught effective communication in the salon, with an emphasis on understanding the clients needs.

Kenneth Anders, brought five members of his LaMaur styling team with him to the San Antonio Hairstylist Convention. His design group consists of highly experienced professional hair dressers. What Kenneth and Company really strive for is a basic practical look that has a flair and each prescribed for the individual, themselves.

Sue Sherman and Lee Richardson represented RK. They demonstrated many techniques in men styling, beard and mustache trimming. The new styles and design prescription for individuality was the pin point here, too.

The event was very educational and professional, points all hair stylist strive for. Cynthia welcomes you and your family to visit her at Modern Beauty Salon, where she is presently employed. She will be happy to discuss any problems or answer questions concerning your hair care needs.

VA Hints

The Veterans Administration is reminding veterans and their families to safeguard important documents relating to their military service, marriage, life insurance and VA correspondence.

Discharge papers, marriage certificates or child custody evidence should be secured from fire, theft or loss, as well as government and commercial life insurance policies, any VA correspondence with identifying claim numbers, social security numbers, wills and — where applicable — naturalization papers.

The VA reminds potential beneficiaries that they should be aware of survivors' benefits which may include VA pensions, dependency and indemnity compensation for service-connected death, burial benefits and interment in a national cemetery for the veteran and his or her dependents.

The few minutes spent by the veteran in organizing and protecting his or her documents — and informing the family of their whereabouts — can do much to avoid needless anguish during times of emotional stress.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

VAN MOORE O. D.
 DOCTOR OF OPTOMETRY

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EYES

Your eyes are much more than a "window to the world". They can tell your eye doctor a lot about your general health.

When the optometrist examines your eyes for the first time, he'll ask for a medical history. He'll want to know what kind of diseases you've had or about any impaired physical condition. There are a lot of illness that affect your eyes. High blood pressure is one. Diabetes or any diseases of the blood are others.

Many diseases show telltale signs in an eye examination. They may change the color of the whites of your eyes or cause them to swell up or become inflamed. Discovered early enough, prompt treatment can cure many diseases or keep them under control.

The eye doctor will also want to know what kind of work you do at home or on the job, any kind of activity that makes seeing particularly important; also what kinds of sports you enjoy.

All of these things are important in determining exactly what type of glasses or contact lenses, if needed, are best for you. DR. ARMISTEAD, MOORE, & GIBSON

Community Blood Drive Set for Saturday, Oct. 16

By WES BURNETT

On Saturday, October 16 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., or later if necessary, a special blood drive will be conducted in Post to help the United Blood Services in Lubbock maintain its commitments to area hospitals.

Coordinated by the Post Ministerial Alliance, the blood drive is designed to give people in Garza County an opportunity to participate in a life-giving event.

"We have set a goal of 100 pints of blood for this drive," Rev. Tom Pass comments.

Serving as drive chairman, Reverend Pass and other alliance ministers are arranging for specific times for blood donors at the Community Center.

People needing transportation to the drive should let one of the alliance members know of the need and transportation will be provided.

"We believe there are at least 100 people in this community who are willing to share a vital life-support substance with others," Pass adds, "and we're out to show ourselves that we care enough to give one pint of our blood to help someone else."

Volunteers are also needed to help with registration and refreshments, those interested should call Pass at 495-2315.

Garza County 4-H'ers participate in a variety of projects and activities. Throughout the year they are busy learning new skills in their animal, foods and nutrition, clothing, and many other projects.

The 4-H year starts off in July. 4-H'ers submitted record books and project forms summarizing their project accomplishments in the previous year. Fifty-two 4-H'ers completed the forms and record books and will be recognized during the annual 4-H Achievement Banquet on October 9.

During the year, 4-H'ers are purchasing steers, pigs and sheep for livestock show entries. 4-H'ers from Garza County participate in a variety of shows in the state. Ninety-seven 4-H'ers participated in the livestock show last year. They learn how to select animals as well as feed and groom them for the show.

As the 4-H year moves on, 4-H'ers participate in Foods and Nutrition projects. Everyone has to eat so this project offers members the opportunity to learn to eat the food they need to stay healthy. 4-H'ers also learn how to cook. About twenty-five participated in the foods project last fall.

Clothing is another major home economics project. Around twenty 4-H'ers participated in this project in
