Thirtieth Year

2,000 'Whoop It Up' At Opening Rodeo Show

queen contestants were Shirley Heintz, Leslie Nichols, Jan Haynie, Louise Gerner, Jerry Beth Rains, Allane Norris, Kay Martin, Ruth Ann Long and Kelly Jo Myers.—(Staff Photo.)

Threatening weather cut the size of the crowd at last night's opening performance of the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo, but failed to dampen their enthusiasm. The efforts of more than 100 contestants taking part in the opening show were loudly cheered by the approximately 2,000 spectators. There'll be performances again tonight at 8 o'clock and at the same time on Friday and Saturday nights.

Two hours before the grand entry, a street parade had set the stage for the ninth annual rodeo, which is a 4-H Club benefit affair. Of the three competing riding groups in the parade, the Slaton Rangers won first, the Lynn County Sheriff's Posse second and the Crosby County Sheriff's Posse third. Trophies were awarded by young Don Richardson following the parade.

Winner of the $25 first prize in the float or decorated car contest was Tom Power Ford, Inc. Caprock Chevrolet, Inc. was second and Garza County 4-H Clubs third. Prizes totaled $50.

Natha Jo Mears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Mears, won a special award for being the most typically dressed "little cowgirl" in the parade.

Another parade attraction was petite Minnie Lee Mathis, this year's rodeo queen, who also added color to the show's grand entry.

Stock furnished by Morris Stephens of Silverton proved mean and tough and helped the cowboys and cowgirls put on an exciting show.

First go-round in the cutting horse contest was completed Wednesday morning, with Buck Deuce, owned and ridden by Darrell Rhodes of Abilene, the winner.

Following are first night winners: Bareback Riding: Sidney Johnson, Snyder; Don Workman, Olton; Mike Carronco, Carlsbad, N. M.; Eddie Stewart, Andrews.

Calf Roping: Bobby Goodspeed, Wetumka, Okla., 14.6; Bill Flowers, Aspermont, 18.7; Walter Arnold, Silverton, 24; Jerry Russell, Merkel, 29.5.

Goat Sacking: Steve and Daisy Pinkert, Lubbock Rt. 4; Tommy and Pleg Hart; Curtis Hudman and Argan Robinson.

1956 Rainfall Ahead Of One Year—1953

The 4.07 inches of rain measured here through July 31 is not the lightest ever recorded for the first seven months of a year, but it's right next to it.

The lowest mark measured here for the first seven months in the more than 45 years that records have been kept was in 1953, when rainfall through July 31 measured only 3.79 inches. That year, however, the total was 11.27 inches, with a whopping 4.99 being recorded in October.

In 1951, which was the driest year on record here, 4.59 inches had fallen through July 31. That was more than half the year's total of 8.82 inches.

Meanwhile, dryland cotton and feed continue to burn. The irrigated cotton, which is looking good now, will need considerable rain before harvest time to do its best.

Ballots Ready; Absentee Votes May Be Cast

Absentee voting for the second Democratic primary Aug. 25 is under way at the county clerk's office and will continue through Aug. 21.

Ballots for the second runoff primary were printed and delivered this week. Two state, two county and one precinct race are to be decided by Garza County voters. Also appearing on the ballot as unopposed is the name of Ben Ramsey for lieutenant governor. His runoff opponent, A. M. Alkin, has withdrawn.

State races are those for governor, between Price Daniel and Ralph Yarborough, and for attorney general, between Tom Moore and Will Wilson.

In the two contested county races, voters will choose between Carl Rains and Odean Cummings for sheriff and between Percy Printz and T. H. (Talmage) Tipton for tax assessor and collector.

Opponents in the Precinct 1 county commissioner's race are Racy Robinson and B. F. (Boone) Evans.

Eligible to vote absentee are persons who will be out of the county on election day, and those who cannot go to the polls because of physical disability.

Progress Reported On Mill Expansion

Construction of one new building and three building extensions in the expansion program under way at Postex Cotton Mills, Inc., is 80 per cent completed, R. J. (Rube) Jennings, mill president, said Tuesday.

Also under way at this time is installation of new carding machines. Twelve of 72 to be received here have already been installed, Jennings said. To be installed later are 120 looms and 30 spinning frames.

The building extensions on which work has been completed or is nearing completion are to the carding and spinning, weaving and clothing buildings. The new building is a 100 by 150-foot warehouse just southwest of the bleachery.

Just north of the mill, a 20-unit housing project is about 50 per cent completed, and all utilities have been extended to the new addition.

H. B. Zachry Construction Co. of San Antonio is general contractor on the mill expansion program. Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Co. has the contract on the housing addition.

"We expect to have the expansion program completed and be all ready to go with our stepped-up production by Dec. 1," Jennings said.

REX WEBSTER OF LUBBOCK TO SPEAK AT LUNCHEON TUESDAY

Rotarians To Host Governor

The Post Rotary Club will host next Tuesday to Rex Webster, governor of the 183rd District of Rotary International, who is making his annual official visit to each of the 40 Rotary clubs in West Texas. He will address the Post club at its noon luncheon and confer with President Harry A. Tubbs, Secretary Irby G. Metcalf Jr., and committee chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities.

Webster is vice president and public relations director of Great Plains Life Insurance Co. in Lubbock and is a member and past president of the Rotary Club of Lubbock. He was born in Gatesville, graduated from Texas Tech and has lived in Lubbock since 1934.

In 1941, he was made a member of the Lubbock Rotary Club and has been continuously active in that organization except for a period during World War II when he served as an officer on a destroyer in the U. S. Navy. Since acting as president in 1948, he served as secretary of the Lubbock club until assuming the district governorship. He was elected as district governor for the 1956-57 fiscal year at Rotary's 47th annual convention in Philadelphia last June. He is one of 248 district governors supervising the activities of more than 9,100 Rotary clubs which have a membership of 431,000 business and professional executives in 99 countries throughout the free world.

Where Rotary clubs are located, President Tubbs said in discussing the governor's visit to Post, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Post. He said they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

RECORD-BREAKING NUMBER OF ENTRIES EXPECTED

Horse Show To Be Saturday Event

Early entries indicate a record-breaking number of animals for the 8th annual Garza County Quarter Horse Show here Saturday afternoon, according to Don Long, secretary.

More than 80 horses were exhibited at each of the last two shows.

Judging is to get under way at 1 p. m. at the Post Stampede Rodeo arena, with Clyde R. Miller of Gail as the judge.

Trophies donated by the American Quarter Horse Association and 11 Post business firms will be awarded by Misses Ruth Ann Long and Kay Martin, trophy hostesses. Trophy buckles will be presented to the two first place winners in the reining class, and ribbons will be awarded through sixth place in each of the classes in both the halter and reining divisions. Winners in the get of sire and produce of dam classes will receive rosettes.

George (Scotty) Samson and J. Martin Basinger are superintendent and assistant superintendent, respectively, of this year's show.

Former Post Man Dies At Kermit

Alton R. Carr, 49, former Post resident, died at 12:45 p. m. Sunday in a Kermit hospital following a heart attack.

Mr. Carr resided in Post from 1946 to 1948 and was manager of Community Public Service, which sold its waterworks system to the City of Post in 1948. He moved to Kermit and was a meter repairman for Community Public Service there at the time of his death. He was also serving his second term as a Kermit city alderman.

Mr. Carr had suffered a heart attack in 1949 and had been in ill health since that time. He was born in Palo Pinto County, was a Methodist and a member of the American Legion.

Funeral services were conducted at 4 p. m. Tuesday in the First Methodist Church at Kermit, with the Rev. A. C. Douglas, pastor, and the Rev. Vernon Henderson, superintendent of the Brownfield Methodist District, officiating. The Rev. Mr. Henderson had also officiated at Mr. and Mrs. Carr's wedding. Burial was in the Kermit Cemetery.

Mr. Carr is survived by his wife, Melba; a 13-year-old daughter, Camilla; one brother and four sisters.

Mrs. B. E. Young and daughter Beverley of Post attended the funeral.

I. B. (Chalk) Brown Dies In California

Funeral rites for I. B. (Chalk) Brown, 70, were conducted at 10 a. m. Tuesday in El Centro, Calif., where he died Sunday. The former area resident had been ill since January. For many years he was associated with the 24 Ranch in Kent Co.

Survivors are his wife, Fannie; a daughter, Mrs. Sterling J. Gant also of El Centro, and two sisters, Mrs. Willie Wagner and Mrs. Clara Belle Harrington of Pecos.

Water Board Sets Hearing Sept. 10

Sept. 10 has been set by the State Board of Water Engineers as the date for a hearing on petitions for creation of the White River Control and Improvement District in Crosby, Dickens and Garza counties.

Notification of the hearing date was received here Tuesday. Papers sent here by the State Board of Water Engineers described the areas and boundaries of the cities of Post, Crosbyton, Spur and Ralls as being included in the proposed district.

The general nature of the proposed project is construction of a dam and reservoir on White River near Kalgary, construction and maintenance of a pumping and filtration system, pipe lines, and other work.

If organization of the district is approved by the state board at the Sept. 10 hearing, confirmation elections will be called in each of the four cities.

The White River Municipal Authority committee will meet in Crosbyton Thursday, Aug. 16, with city councils of the four cities.

Three New Water Wells Are Tested

Drilling of three city water wells was completed this week, with two of them showing up as "fairly good" small wells on pumping tests and the other not showing much promise.

The two good wells are on the line to the reservoir and can be tied in without too much expense, city officials said. One pumped at about 70 gallons a minute and the other at about 50 gallons. City Supt. Henry Tate said plans are to put a 40-gallon pump on the larger of the two wells and a 20 or 25-gallon pump on the smaller one.

Meanwhile, with dry weather continuing, the water problem remains serious. A new all-time record was set Tuesday when approximately 1,200,000 gallons were used.

Addition of the two new wells will bring to five—all small ones—the number of wells added this year to the waterworks system. If the doubtful well being tested Wednesday proves out, it also will be tied in, making six in all, Tate said.

Justiceburg To Build New School Cafeteria

Sealed bids on construction of a school lunchroom at Justiceburg will be received until 2 p. m. Aug. 17 in the office of County Supt. Dean A. Robinson.

The proposed new building will be a 28 by 28-foot structure, according to Tom W. Banchier, who prepared the plans and specifications.

Convention Holds Line For Johnson, Rayburn

A resolution including that "the Democrats of this county believe that the Democratic party belongs to all the Democrats and should never again become the property of one man or clique" was adopted at Saturday's Democratic convention in the district courtroom.

The resolution strongly endorsed the stand that Sam Rayburn and Lyndon Johnson have taken that only Democrats who will support the nominees of the party should be placed on the State Democratic Executive Committee, and that the nominee for governor, no matter who he might be, should be called upon "to support this democratic principle."

Prospect Indicates Pay In Ellenburger

A second pay, the Ellenburger, has been indicated in a Strawn prospect two and one-half miles southeast of Justiceburg and casing was to be run for completion attempt.

The prospect is Neville G. Penrose, Inc., Fort Worth, and R. S. Anderson, Midland, No. 1-X Miller, Section 29, Block 6, H&GN Survey.

The three and a half hour drill-test of the Ellenburger at 5,000 to 5,020 feet recovered 7,650 feet of gas, 30 feet of oil and gas-cut mud, 200 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud and 280 feet of very heavily oil and gas-cut mud.

Oil flowed on drillstem tests of the Strawn at 7,610 to 7,635 feet and 7,735 to 7,760 feet.

Grassland Nixes Merger Proposal

A majority of the voters in the Grassland Independent School District apparently do not believe that consolidation is the answer to their school problem.

A proposal to consolidate with the Tahoka Independent School District was defeated, 53 to 41, in an election Tuesday. Voters in the Tahoka district favored the consolidation by a vote of 57 for and three against.

On June 30, Grassland voters turned down a proposal for a five-district consolidation, and in 1955 defeated a proposal to consolidate with Tahoka by a decisive margin.

The Grassland School offers instruction through the eighth grade, with the district sending its high school students to Tahoka and Post. During the 1956-57 school year, the Tahoka school board will charge about $64 for each transfer student, and the Post school board has set a charge of $82.40 for transfers.

WEST TEXAS

Editorial Comment...

Much Closer

Sitting in on the White River Water meeting in Spur last Saturday, we observed a new feeling of cooperation and progress among the membership. The report that the first election could possibly be held in October and that actual construction could possibly begin within 12 months seemed to bring the project more down to earth and much closer to a reality.—"Whoa, Now!" in The Texas Spur.

Unusual Complaints

The City Police Department investigated a couple of unusual complaints last week. One person called the police reporting strange noises coming out of a car parked in the middle of the Jaycee baseball park. When police arrived at the scene a man was sitting in his car in the middle of the diamond, playing an accordion while his wife and children were sitting up in the stands listening. We don't know why—you figure it out.

The other was a complaint about the way a man's wife put out the lights. The man was about "three sheets in the wind" he admitted. He had asked his wife to turn off the light. She refused. So he promptly loaded old Betsy and shot out the light.—Monahans News.

A Real Scarcity

A fellow from Aspermont was telling about the visitor at the country place who had to sleep with the five-year-old son of the host. As they retired, Johnny knelt quietly at the bedside. Not to be outdone or set a bad example, the visitor did likewise. Instantly Johnny jumped up and, with a horrified expression on his face, yelled at the grown-up: "I'll tell my mania on you; there's only one and it's on my side!"—Popvale in The Hamlin Herald.

And So It Goes

Frequently tempted, I have tried to avoid all forms of envy. After a lifetime of frustration I continue to believe I can have anything within reason if I will work hard enough for it. I once worked hard for two years in an effort to acquire enough money to buy a Saxon roadster like one owned by an acquaintance. It was during a period of drouth and my work was lost, but the Saxon owner must have failed to find happiness. He shot a hole through his head one night—"Trail Dust" in Matador Tribune.

Step Maligning Youth

We say "amen" to a recent writer's statement that lurid publicity about a tiny minority of teen-age delinquents has blinded their elders to the solid achievements and the high ideals of the typical youngsters which constitute 95 per cent of American youth today. Ninety some odd per cent, right up close to 100 per cent, of our teen-agers have never been before the police or justice of the peace for even minor offenses. The youngsters are willing to work but are unable to find employment and as a result are not on hand when somebody does have something for them to do. More youngsters yearn for "something to do" that they feel will accomplish something than one would think from the youthful nonchalance you see exhibited at public places and about. They place a high value on education, most of them, and more than ever they are joining in numbers in church activities. They are taking part in community betterment projects. The fact is we believe that any kind of statistics are often misleading if you do not read understandingly, and the alarming figures which are played up in publicity gives the wrong impression. The activities of the kids themselves gives heartening evidence of the solid characters they are building—"Views and Comment" in The Floyd County Hesperian.

Texas Business Hits New High First Half

AUSTIN (Sp.)—Total business in Texas enjoyed the best six months ever recorded during the first half of 1956, despite some weak spots in the economy, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports in a release to the Dispatch.

The increase in business volume for this year, however, has not been as great as in some other years, the Bureau explains. Retail sales and some types of building decreased.

The largest decline was shown in building permits issued, but that decline was concentrated in the residential category. Nonresidential building, which includes industrial, commercial, institutional, public utility and public building, increased 23 per cent over the first half of 1955.

The only other component of the Bureau's index of business activity that declined between the first half of 1955 and the like period in 1956 was retail sales. Sales of non-durable goods, however, were 2 per cent higher.

Consumer income continued to rise during the first half of 1956. Industrial building increased 58 per cent; industrial electrical power consumption rose 19 per cent, and total electrical power consumption increased 16 per cent.

PCG Producer Fees Are 15 Cents Bale

George Pfeiffenberger, executive vice president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., announced Saturday that representatives of the Plains Ginners Association voted recently to act as a collecting agency for the financial organization of the PCG.

The newly appointed PCG official explained that the ginners will collect 15 cents a bale from producers, and ginners themselves will pay one cent per bale to underwrite the PCG organization.

Pfeiffenberger said producers paid only 10 cents per bale off the 1955 crop in order to get the PCG in operation. Directors recently voted to set the 15 cents per bale price for 1956 cotton and one cent per bale on gin members.

Membership fees for associated business firms are being worked out and will be announced shortly, Pfeiffenberger said.

Beef Cattle Tests Show Relationship Between High Weaning Weight, Grade

COLLEGE STATION (Sp.)—A fear expressed by some Texas cattlemen that selecting replacements for breeding herds on the basis of weaning weight would tend to lower the quality or grade of the herd has not proved true in initial reports from cooperating cattle producers.

On the contrary, Texas A&M College System Animal Husbandmen, L. D. Wythe, L. A. Maddox, Jr., and J. K. Riggs, report a definite relationship between high weaning weight and high grade among the 929 Hereford and Angus calves processed in the first studies. All calves grading Fancy had an average weaning weight of 442 pounds as compared with 413 pounds for all calves grading good.

They also found that heifer calves tended to grade higher than bull calves of the same age with 19.5 per cent of the heifers grading Fancy compared to 12.6 per cent for all bull calves graded.

Another finding was that cows 2 to 3 years of age and over 10 years at the time their calves were dropped, weaned lighter calves than cows 4 to 9 years of age. Also that in a herd where replacement heifers had been selected on the basis of weaning weight and yearling gain as well as grade since 1953, 20 calves from 2-year-old heifers sired by known high-gaining bulls weighed only 3 pounds less than those from cows in the same herd ranging in age from 4 to 8 years of age.

Calves from a herd participating in the Extension Service cattle improvement program for the first time in 1955 weighed 7 per cent less than those from cows of the same age in the herd which had been under the program since 1953.

The animal husbandmen say the early results are a strong indication that rapid progress can be made in both weaning weight and conformation grade when a program as outlined in Texas Bulletin 809 is put into practice.

The initial results of the beef cattle improvement program are carried in Progress Report 1500 released jointly by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Extension Service. It is available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

The world produced 788 million tons of petroleum in 1955.

Earlier Supplementary Feeding Is Made Necessary By Long Drouth

COLLEGE STATION (Spl.)—The lack of moisture in many areas of the state has stopped the growth of pasture plants and brought about a need for supplementary feeding of dairy herds. Farm management specialists of the Texas A&M College System point out as plants mature, their nutritive value declines, especially the percentage of protein.

As protein content of the roughage drops, the loss must be offset by increasing the protein in the concentrate ration if top milk production is to be maintained.

The specialists, C. H. Bates of the Texas Extension Service and A. C. Magee and B. H. Stone of the Experiment Station, offer to dairymen five suggestions for beating the usual summer slump in milk output. Hay or silage is suggested as a supplement for pastures; boost the protein content of the concentrate mixture in accordance with the quality of the roughage the cows are receiving; graze the herd early or late in the day and provide plenty of shade as a protection against extreme heat; provide an adequate supply of clean water at all times and plan for early seeding of fall grazing crops. Keep the land on which the crops will be planted clean and in condition to hold moisture and they suggest getting a soil test made now.

They also offer a tip on buying hay. The best buy, they say, is usually hay which was cut while the plants were young. Hay from such plants is higher in leafiness and protein content and is actually a better buy even at a higher price than is hay made from mature plants.

Local county agents, point out the specialists, can supply bulletins and advice on many of the summer time problems which confront agricultural producers. They suggest a visit with him.

Some Cotton Shed Is Partly Due To Harmful Insects

This week's Cotton Insect Situation release reports that most irrigated and some dryland cotton continued to fruit at a very satisfactory rate, with heavily fruited cotton often showing some shed of small bolls. In many cases such shed was natural or was caused by bacterial blight (angular leaf spot). In other instances the shed was at least partly due to insect damage. There has been a definite increase in insect activity, although infestations are not serious in a majority of fields.

Although fleahoppers were reported in fairly large numbers on cotton in scattered fields, the insects were rarely found seriously damaging the crop. Very late planted cotton would be damaged by heavy infestations.

Bollworms appeared in an increasing number of fields. Damaging infestations are not yet general, but some plantings in most areas have developed sufficient infestations to require control. Bollworm moths are appearing in fields in larger numbers than before, so all cotton should be checked at frequent intervals for eggs and small worms. Apply insecticides when damaging infestations develop. Delay allows excessive loss of forms, and large worms are hard to control.

Lygus bugs were present in most fields, and were reported in damaging infestations in many fields in Lamb County. Control was needed in a number of fields in Cochran, Lubbock and Lynn counties. Since these insects are rapid in their destruction of squares and small bolls, cotton should be closely watched for presence of the insects and their damage.

Cabbage loopers continued to rag leaves of cotton in many fields. In most fields diseased large loopers were observed. While the disease may kill a majority of the larger loopers, control may be necessary where populations are of small worms.

Spider mites also appeared in an increasing number of fields. Infestations required control in parts of a few fields in Crosby, Hockley and Lubbock counties.

Leafworms were found in small numbers in Crosby, Lamb, Lubbock and Lynn counties.

STATE TOTAL FOR YEAR IS $51,476,000

131 Farm Families In Garza, Scurry Counties Obtain $367,845 FHA Loans

One hundred and thirty-one farm families in Scurry and Garza counties obtained loans totaling $367,845 through the Farmers Home Administration during the year ending June 30, reports Joseph E. Box of Snyder, FHA supervisor for the two counties.

The state total for the same period was $51,476,000, according to Walter T. McKay, the agency's state director at Dallas. A total of 18,348 families were served by the agency during this period.

Credit was advanced to buy feed, seed, fertilizer, equipment, livestock and other farm operating items needed to place farms on an efficient operating basis and to buy and improve family-type farms. Funds were advanced also for soil and water conservation purposes and to meet emergency needs.

County Farmers Home Administration committees must approve each loan application before funds can be advanced. The committee determines all loan applicants' eligibility and certifies the value of farms to be purchased or improved. It also makes recommendations on loan approvals and servicing actions. Members of the county committee in Garza County are: Irby G. Metcalf Jr., George F. Carpenter, and Elmer L. Hitt.

Applicants are approved as eligible only if other lenders cannot adequately supply their credit needs and only if prospects are favorable for their being able to improve their farming and repay their loans. Families are expected to refinance their loans with other lenders as soon as they are in a position to do so.

Water Consumption Data On Cattle Released For Large-Herd Owners

COLLEGE STATION (Spl.)—Stockmen faced with the problem of carrying cattle through drouths with short water supplies may find information gathered by USDA scientists on water consumption by beef and dairy animals very helpful.

Two scientists, Dr. C. F. Winchester and M. J. Morris of the Agricultural Research Service consolidated all available published information and added data they recorded from experiments at Beltsville, Md.

They point out that feed and water intake are closely related. If consumption of one is curtailed, the other also is limited. Water intake per unit of dry matter is the same whether cattle are on full feed or on near-starvation rations. In a pinch, water consumption for a herd can be cut in half simply by halving the feed allowance. The scientists point out that this practice should never be used with lactating cows if it can be avoided. A production decline would result which might not be overcome during the lactation period.

A 1,000-pound animal on maintenance rations, not gaining or losing weight, will consume 6 gallons of water a day when air temperature is 70 degrees and 9 gallons at 90 degrees. A 1,000 steer or heifer gaining the normal pound a day on the range requires 16 gallons of water each day when the air temperature is 70 and 17 at 90 degrees.

Cutting feed allowances for steers on full fattening rations will decrease water consumption and may help a stockman through a short time water shortage, however, if feed allowances are sharply cut, considerable time may be required to get them back on full feed once the water shortage is relieved.

A 1,000 dairy cow gaining no weight but producing 35 pounds of 4 per cent milk daily requires 18 gallons of water daily when air temperature is 70 degrees. She can be expected to drop to 25 pounds of milk at 90 degrees and will consume 19 gallons of water daily.

Body and size influence water intake and the scientists found with other factors equal, a 500-pound animal drinks .6 as much as a 1,000 animal and a 100-pound animal drinks .2 as much as a 1,000-pound one.

Using figures from the Winchester-Morris tables it is possible for a stockman to estimate the probable daily water consumption of any large herd of cattle, and to plan an adequate water system for his farm or ranch. The data are not intended for use in determining requirements of individual animals or small herds because of wide variations in water intake of individuals.

The data tables are available from the Information Division, Agricultural Research Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, 25, D. C.

Don't cry, little man, don't cry...

This unhappy little fellow is learning an important lesson — tears do not solve problems.

Life brings many difficulties to the average person, often heavy burdens of responsibility, grief, and pain that must be met without compromise.

But there is a wise solution for all of us if we fortify ourselves with qualities that will give courage, faith, and hope in the face of all trouble.

In hours of stress and anxiety, the Christian religion is a rock of refuge. In the Church you will find spiritual strength, guidance, and enduring comfort. Go to God's House and put your trust in Him.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Teachers Hired, But Yet To Be Confirmed

Trustees of Post Independent School District are expected to confirm the employment of a number of teachers at their board meeting Monday night, according to Supt. R. K. Green.

Vacancies still existing on the high school faculty, some of which will be filled with the board's confirmation of new teachers, include homemaking instructor, teacher of Spanish, English teacher, and science teacher.

The vacancy in the science department was created by the resignation of Roy Morrison, who had taught at the high school for the last few years.

Requirements Listed For Beginning Pupils

Smallpox vaccinations and pre-school physical checkups will be required of children starting to school for the first time in September, it was announced this week by Mrs. Max Gordon, county school nurse.

Parents of six-year-olds will be required to furnish proof of vaccination and pre-school checkup before their child will be permitted to enroll, the nurse said.

Mrs. Gordon was recently employed as school health nurse by the county board of education. She replaces Mrs. Vernon Ray, who resigned at the end of the last term.

Jaycees Beat Lions In Contest Netting $125

In a closely-contested affair at Little League Park Tuesday evening, the Jaycees defeated the Lions, 3 to 2, in a donkey ball game.

A large crowd saw the game, which was played for the benefit of the Little League fund. Bill G. Humphrey, league president, said approximately $125 was received as the clubs' share and is more than enough to pay off outstanding indebtedness against the league, including park expenses.

Restrictions Are Off On Salk Polio Shots

Restrictions have been lifted on polio vaccine, which is now available to everyone, regardless of age. Until the restrictions were lifted the vaccine was given only to those under 19 and expectant mothers.

Physicians say that ample supplies of the vaccine are now on hand and indications are that more can be obtained when the present local supply is exhausted.

Post Firemen To Assist Blast Victims' Families

Members of the Post Volunteer Fire Department were to make a contribution at their meeting last night to families of the 15 Dumas and Sunray firemen who lost their lives in the recent explosion at Dumas.

Fire Chief Robert Cato has received the following letter from Olin Culberson, secretary-treasurer of the State Firemen's and Fire Marshals' Association of Texas:

"The terrible disaster near Dumas and Sunray, Texas, took the lives of fifteen firemen. All of these fellow firemen left families, wives and children. All were average workers like all of us and had very little if any protection for their loved ones. The need for assistance is urgent. That means NOW!

"President David Clabaugh, postmaster of Carthage, Texas, acting with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, has directed that this emergency letter soliciting funds from the firemen of Texas be sent out as an official action of the State Firemen's and Fire Marshals' Association. Contributions to the limit of every fireman's ability are urgently requested.

"Send your contributions to me in the name of your fire department. Send a check to cover the total contribution of your department.

"These are fellow firemen and buddies, and let us take care of their loved ones in a big way. The funds will be distributed on the basis of fifteen firemen and will be disbursed by a committee composed of the Chief, the Chaplain and the Mayor of each of the towns of Dumas and Sunray, respectively. This office will only assemble the total amount and send it to the above committees on the basis of the number of men lost in each department.

"Do this now and make it as big as possible."

Falling Rock Injures Youth In Hill Climb

Near tragedy marred a hill-climbing expedition of two teenage boys Sunday.

Taken to Mercy Hospital in Slaton suffering from a badly lacerated hand and loss of blood was 15-year-old Charles Harmon of Houston. His companion, 14-year-old Earl Robinson of Lubbock, escaped injury in a rock slide which showered down on them while they were climbing a hill about two miles east of U. S. Highway 380 near the Garza-Scurry County line.

The Robinson youth and other members of his family were en route to their home in Lubbock after attending a family reunion in the Houston vicinity. The Harmon youth was accompanying them home for a visit.

Sheriff Carl Rains said Mrs. Robinson told him that the boys persuaded her to stop the car and let them climb the hill, which appeared to them to be only about a quarter of a mile from the highway.

She said that was about 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and that three hours later her son came back to the car and told them the Harmon boy had been injured by a falling rock as they were climbing the hill. The sheriff said Mrs. Robinson told him that her son had run all the way from the hill to the car and that he fainted from exhaustion after telling of the accident.

Officers were notified and went to the spot where the accident occurred, but did not find the Harmon boy. It later developed that he had regained consciousness and had reached the highway at another point from where the Robinson car was parked. There, he was picked up by an unidentified truck driver who took him to the Slaton hospital.

In the meantime, the search for the injured youth was continuing, with a private plane from the airport here joining in the hunt. Sheriff Rains said the whereabouts of the Harmon boy was learned when the Slaton hospital had highway patrolmen get in touch with Mrs. Robinson for permission to amputate one of the fingers on the youth's injured hand and give him a blood transfusion.

The hill where the accident occurred is about 25 miles southeast of Post.
