Student Loan Fund Renders Genuine Service To Entire Community

The Community Student Loan Fund, organized in 1952 "for the purpose of aiding and encouraging youth of Post High School to higher learning and a better way of life", needs donations from the people of Garza County if it is to continue to accept an additional student each year, it was announced this week by the newly-elected board of directors.

Members of the board, elected at a meeting Monday afternoon, are: Glenn Whittenberg, president; Chant Lee, vice president; Mrs. B. E. Young, secretary-treasurer, and Irby G. Metcalf Jr., parliamentarian and co-signer of checks.

Any member of the board may be contacted for additional information on the student loan fund. Contributions to the fund are tax deductible.

In reviewing the history of the fund, a spokesman said this week that following organization in August, 1952, the first applicant was accepted and entered school in September of that year. Each year since that time new students have applied for and received financial aid up to a maximum of $1,600 over a four-year period. The amount of the loan, which is repaid after college graduation, carries 4 per cent interest. Applied interest and principal will make this a self-sustaining, revolving fund in a few year's time, it was pointed out.

Eligibility of students is based on high moral character, good scholastic rating and sincere desire for higher learning. The applicant must be a graduate of Post High School.

Students who have received aid from the fund are William Bullard, Ross Morrow, David Pennington, Bobby Dunlap and Gerald Bradley. David King has been accepted for the coming year.

"All members of the Community Student Loan Fund are very proud of the progress made by each of the students and feel that their efforts of financial and moral encouragement have been appreciated," the spokesman said.

The students themselves realize and appreciate the aid given them by the fund, as evidenced by their letters of appreciation addressed to the committee. Following are excerpts from these letters, printed with the knowledge and consent of each of the students:

"I would like to thank you for the help which you have given me. Without this help I might not have been able to stay in college... the most important thing in my life is to finish college, therefore you can see how much this has meant to me... in years to come, should it become possible, I would like to become a subscriber to the Loan Fund."

"I wish to thank the Student Loan Fund for allowing me the use of a loan during this school year. That loan has made it possible for me to remain in school this semester. Again, my thanks, and I want you to know that your group is extending a great service to financially unable students."

"I will try to list only a few of my own personal reasons for being always thankful for the help I have received. Initially, the financial assistance helped me choose the University—a choice I will never regret... the fact that I did not work any during my first semester enabled me to settle down in an entirely new environment better than if I had tried to carry a work load along with my school work. Then, too, the opportunity to look around for a job enabled me to find the job which I now have and which cannot be beaten for convenience or relative pay scale... I have learned that it is almost an impossibility to work while carrying a full school load and still do justice to my studies... although the financial aid is the outstanding attraction of the Loan Fund, it is by no means the only one. The fact that people are willing to part with their time and money to further my education makes me want to try just a little harder. Also the fact that I am indebted both financially and in ways that cannot be repaid, helps temper my decisions with a more mature attitude. It is a shame that most of the students helped by the Loan Fund will be lured away from Post by the lucrative offers of the larger companies and industries. Perhaps something could be done to attract the college graduates... back to their home towns."

"When a student is accepted by the committee for a maximum loan of $1,600 ($400 each year for four years)," the spokesman said, "See LOAN FUND, Page 5"

Thursday to Thursday

By CHARLES DIDWAY

YOU CAN TAKE it easy now . . . all three of this year's Friday the 13ths have come and gone.

THE EXTREMELY hot weather has boosted patronage of the city swimming pool, according to manager Jackie Hays. In fact, it has been so hot that some swimmers just can't seem to resist climbing the fence and going swimming after closing hours. And Sheriff Carl Rains says it's liable to get even hotter for these late-hour swimmers unless the practice is discontinued.

SPEAKING OF HOT weather, a reader of this column who says he's been listening to TV weather reports for the last three years wants to know if we can tell him why Presidio seems to have a corner on the high temperature mark. We've noticed that ourselves, but can't tell our reader why, unless maybe Presidio has an enterprising Chamber of Commerce which believes it's worthwhile to be consistently tops in something even if it's only the heat report.

JOE KELLY, Lubbock Avalanche-Journal sports editor, in his comments on the major league All-Star game, says that Walter Alston, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, bears a striking resemblance to Bing Bingham, ex-football coach at Post High School. Next time we see Joe we're going to tell him that the resemblance doesn't end there. Bing helped manage the pennant-winning Dodgers in Post's Little League.

IF THEY'RE GOING up to four cents on postage stamps, why not just make it five cents? That would increase by one the dwindling number of items that a nickel will buy.

FLOYD RANDOLPH of Sweetwater, district production foreman for Sinclair Oil & Gas Company, dropped in one day last week to pick up several copies of The Dispatch in which the picture of the company's "doubleheader" oil well appeared.

THE PRODUCTION FOREMAN said that we were right in reporting that the one well with two pump jacks was the only of its kind in this area. He said that there were four or five of the doubleheaders in Runnels County, but none any closer.

HE ALSO MADE The Dispatch staff feel pretty good by saying that a number of pictures had been made of such wells, but that the one we carried in the July 5 issue told the story better than any he'd seen.

SOME FOLKS TAKE a look at the green grass on the other side of the fence and do something about it. Others only sit and wish they had enough ambition to climb the fence.

IT'S PRETTY HARD for any of us to go through this world without either increasing or diminishing someone's happiness.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED in the reorganization of the Ground Observer Corps here, according to County Judge Pat N. Walker. Judge Walker said the goal for Post is a 24-hour operation, with one or two persons standing a two-hour shift. Men and women and boys and girls from 16 up are eligible to volunteer.

THE PLAN ALSO calls for GOC posts at Southland, Justiceburg and Pleasant Valley in the Garza County organization. Purpose of the GOC posts, Judge Walker said, is to aid in filling up the leaks in the nation's air defense system, which includes a radar net-

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week:

'Bigness' Gauges Neither A Community's Credit Nor Character Of An Individual

BARSON PARK, Mass.—Many people are disturbed over the way the stock market has acted during the past few weeks. In short, the Industrial Average dropped from a high of 521 to a low of 469. Those, however, who have read this column during the past months are not surprised.

People Are Too Selfish. Losses in the stock market are due primarily to selfishness. This applies to even the "conservative investor," so called. He tries to get a higher rate of return than his investment deserves, or else he tries to avoid paying income taxes by buying second-grade revenue bonds issued by "authorities" of turnpikes or of small communities, mostly in the South. Unless the investor supplies something along with his money, he is headed for trouble.

This is not a criticism of small towns and cities. I much prefer "full obligation" bonds of such small communities to the bonds of big cities. These latter usually both suffer from poor government and also would be vulnerable in case of World War III. "Bigness" is no more a good measure of a community's credit than of a man's character. There also are good revenue bonds; but I like to buy them after the electric, gas, or water plant has been installed, or after the pike has been built.

We Can't Cheat Natural Laws. Statistics show that the nation is increasing its wealth only about 3 1/2% a year. In order for an investor to get safely more than 4% he must render some real service. In addition, let me add that the small cities are growing more healthily than the big cities. I have noticed that most of the available graduates from college this June have insisted upon taking jobs in smaller cities. Such places are having the soundest growth, are the best in which to bring up a family, and should be the safest in case of World War III. The Bible tells us that the fruits we get out

LET'S KEEP GOING!

Few have denied that the proposed White River lake project appears Post's best bet for a surface water supply, with reliance on underground water in the years ahead virtually out of the question.

But the White River project is by no means a cut-and-dried proposition. Every meeting of the White River Municipal Authority committee brings up new problems, some of them knotty ones to say the least. The project still is in its early stages and these problems will get knottier and knottier as progress is made.

However, the four cities involved—Post, Spur, Crosbyton and Ralls—seem far enough along now on the project that the biggest hurdles ahead appear to be the confirmation election, which will be necessary after the State Board of Water Engineers create the district, and the bond election for construction of the dam, filtration plant and pipe lines.

An important point brought out at a recent meeting here of mayors, councilmen and other city officials from the four towns was that Crosbyton now holds the water rights on the stretch of White River running through Crosby County, but that if these rights expire without something definite having been done on the project, they might never be regained.

The reason, it was explained, is that too many other communities both up and down the stream are wanting the rights now held by cities not showing any inclination to do anything about them. The water situation is that bad and stands to get worse.

Of course, neither Crosbyton nor any of the other three cities can be accused of not trying to do something about the water rights Crosbyton holds. They have made a good start on the White River project. The only thing left to do now is to continue to look upon it as the most feasible solution to the four cities' water problems and to act accordingly.

work and other defenses. Training is needed to make the system effective in times of emergency.

PEOPLE WHO ARE interested in joining the local GOC post or those elsewhere in the county are urged to contact the judge for additional details.

PECOS IS ONE of the few cities anywhere whose telephone directory doesn't have more Smiths listed than any other surname. The Pecos Enterprise says the name Rodriguez is on top there with 37 listings. And the New York City telephone directory has more Cohens in it than any other name.

THE HEREFORD BRAND reports that school board officials there have decided that some of the frills must bow to progress. The board has ruled no more senior trips, and has voted to do away with the pep squad and have cheerleaders concentrate on drawing support from the "whole student body."

THERE ARE A lot more warmed-over ideas than hot ones.

A LOT OF PEOPLE never get interested in a thing until they find out that it's none of their business.

Getting Out On The Limb

SUDDEN THOUGHT: Many a live wire would be a dead one if it weren't for connections.

How many children have the incentive to study when they see adults miss a question and win a Cadillac?

BIG, AFFABLE Sam Bass, whose more sedate title was Master Sgt. W. A. Bass, U. S. Army Recruiting Service, has been transferred to Lafayette, La. I've just learned from his replacement, Sgt. A. F. Roy.

Sergeant Bass had been coming to Post every Tuesday for the last year or so in the interest of the Army's recruiting service, and usually found time to drop by The Dispatch office to leave a news release or just visit. Sam was the sort of boy most of us enjoy "ribbing," but it rolled off him like water off a duck's back.

Sam was like some preachers who know . . . let him find as many as three prons together and he'd consider it a golden opportunity to start singing the praises of Uncle Sam's Army and the advantages it has to offer the young man. Sometimes, though, Sam found bigger crowds to address, like the time he made a cracker-jack talk on the Army's guided missiles at a Rotary Club luncheon, or the two or three occasions on which he spoke to local high school graduates.

Sam's heart was as big as the rest of him, and it made quite an impression on me the time he adopted a stray dog which jumped in the back of the recruiter's pick-up truck and refused to leave. Sam took the canine home with him, and was back in Post the following week proudly displaying the dog, which he had cleaned up and sheared until it was a fairly respectable looking mutt.

Sergeant Roy, Sam's replacement, is a Yankee, as anyone can tell the minute he opens his mouth to say something, but he was at Amarillo for 14 months before being transferred to Lubbock, and most of it seems to be wearing off.

In olden times the building of a new building involved a ceremony known as raising the ridgepole. Today it involves a private ceremony known as raising the money.

JOE, A RABID roofer for the Yankees, took his new girl friend to the ball game out at Little League Park. She watched the game with only mild interest.

"Look!" Joe suddenly exclaimed. "We've got a man on every base!"

"So what?" she asked languidly. "So has the other team."

OVER AT TAHOKA the other day, Wynne Collins, formerly of Post, received quite a recognition for perfect Rotary Club attendance. Wynne has a perfect attendance mark of 24 years—20 years in Tahoka and four in Post. He's head and shoulders above the rest of Tahoka Rotarians as far as perfect attendance is concerned. The nearest one to him is Dr. Emil VOICES FROM the grass roots are listened to with respect and interest in Congress. During the first three months of this year, The American Press reports, editorials and articles from 69 weekly and semi-weekly newspapers were quoted in the Congressional Record. Papers from 28 states were thus represented. The quotations covered a great gamut of topics and problems—racial integration, the future of solar energy, flood control, the farm situation, government spending, foreign policy, and so on. The men and women of Congress want to know what local people are thinking—and the country paper tells them.

Cotton Continues To Set Fruit As 'Bug' Infestation Lightens

Cotton continued to set fruit at a rapid rate in a majority of fields during the past week, according to the Cotton Insect Situation report from the Extension Service. The crop is farther advanced than normal for this date. Weather conditions and a lack of serious insect outbreaks have favored the development of cotton.

Thrip infestations were reported as light in most fields. Numbers were not sufficiently large to require control in any locality.

Fleahoppers were found in sufficient numbers to warrant control in widely scattered fields. While control is recommended when as many as 15 fleahoppers are found per 100 terminal buds of cotton as plants reach the fruiting stage, older cotton may suffer little damage by this number of insects. Later insecticidal applications should be made not only on numbers, but also on damage observed.

Bollworms are generally reported in light infestations throughout the area. Medium to heavy infestations were found in some localities in Dawson, Howard, Terry and Yoakum counties. Occasional fields in several other areas had sufficient infestations to require control. Infestations often increase in seven to ten days after cotton is irrigated, so recently irrigated fields should be checked frequently for eggs and small worms.

Lycus bugs were present in most fields. While infestations were generally light, the insects occurred in damaging numbers on cotton in some fields in Cochran and Hale counties.

Cabbage loopers were found in light infestations throughout the area. Occasional fields had sufficient population to cause noticeable ragging of cotton leaves. In a few instances control has been necessary. Where the worms appear in numbers which indicate possible serious ragging of the leaves, control should be effected. This should be done while worms are small, as large worms are very difficult to control.

WEST TEXAS Editorial Comment...

Outstanding Qualification

To our way of thinking, integrity is the outstanding qualification any candidate could have. We'd prefer a man with ideas and a good mind, but above all we'd like to know that he was honest and could be depended upon to arrive at an honest solution of any sort of problem, and that he would not be guided by expediency.

Given integrity and a modicum of common sense an office holder can be counted on to find a just and right solution to any solvable problem.

For our part, we'd rather cast our lot, although we might disagree, with the man who has moral, intellectual and spiritual integrity. An official that has these requirements can be trusted to search for the truth and right and act upon it.—"Drifting Sands" in The Andrews County News.

No Great Dent

The do-it-yourself craze hasn't made a great dent yet in the field of thinking—"The Kermit Hermit" in The Winkler County News.

Now He Knows

Now I know... I've always wondered how it's possible for the federal government to spend so much money, and this week in reading one of those little "fillers" in the Herald-News, the truth dawned on me.

The filler said, "There are more women than men employed by the federal government."—"Twilight Zone" in The Hamilton Herald-News.

Not So Dumb

Then there was the mentally troubled dog who refused to go to a psychiatrist.

"You know quite well," the dog explained, "I'm not allowed on a couch."—"Popvalve" in The Hamlin Herald.

Defining "Petition"

News and Leader staffers went to the dictionary for help this week as the word "petition" dominated local news.

Exactly four petitions came to the fore in the news at once, and reporters were looking for other ways to say it.

So now we have the parking meter "prayer" the civic development "supplication," the highway "entreaty" and the water district "request."

So help us, that's what Roget's Thesaurus lists as synonyms. Guess we'd better stick to the word "petition." Some of those others just don't sound right—"Nearly News" in The Lamb County Leader.

Just Fast-Moving

Whatever became of the popular Davy Crockett, who just a few months ago was the favorite of members of the small fry? They're not fickle, we'll argue, just fast-moving—even when it comes to things they idolize.—The Slaton Slatonic.

Park Confusion

Every time we write a story about the city park in the east part of town where the swimming pool is located, we are faced with the problem of distinguishing it from the park in the center of the square. Sometimes it gets rather confusing to the public. There's a simple way to remedy the situation—just name both parks. We suggest the Jaycees, or some other organization, hold a contest or use some other method to name them.—"Trends" in The Crosbyton Review.

Dove Count Hints Good 1956 Shoot

AUSTIN (Spl.)—Preliminary observations of mourning dove census reports presage another good shoot in Texas this year, according to the assistant director of wildlife restoration for the Game and Fish Commission.

He said the data was obtained through 65 census lines established throughout Texas and that the analysis shortly will be available from the U. S. Fish & Wildlife Service which has final authority on hunting of doves since they are migratory birds.

The assistant director said that, while population estimates are favorable, the final statistics might not permit the extra five days allowed last fall when Texas had an extraordinary mourning dove hunt. Ordinarily, a 40-day season is allowed, with the state divided into a north and south zone. The shooting period for years has begun on Sept. 1 in the north zone, which comprises about three-fourths of the state.

Last year the south zone season was experimentally delayed, running from Oct. 15 through Nov. 28.

The established pattern calls for afternoon shooting only, with bag and possession limits both set at 10 birds.

"The drought in Texas has hurt our population somewhat," said the assistant director, "but because of the tremendous carryover from the record numbers of last year, we still have plenty of dove. Reports from north states, which provide many migrating birds later on, also are favorable."

REVIVAL UNDER WAY

The Rev. George E. Turrintine of Denver City is doing the preaching at the Grassland Methodist Church's annual summer revival, which began Monday and is to continue through Sunday. Services are being held at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. daily, according to the Rev. S. M. Bean, pastor. Mrs. A. L. Shepherd is directing the song services, and Miss Dixie Davis is the pianist.

The population of Argentina grew from 9,396,467 in 1914 to 18,928,536 in 1954.

Report Shortage Cotton Bale Ties

The Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., has joined cotton merchants and others across the nation in a united effort intended to alleviate an acute shortage of steel bale ties.

With the 1956 cotton crop at hand, the current steel strike has caught the entire Cotton Belt with a shortage of baling ties. Ginners report on hand only a "meager" supply.

George Pfeiffenberger, executive vice president of the PCG, said last week that he had written Texas representatives in Washington, seeking their help in this matter.

In an effort to help producers as well as ginners, the American Cotton Shippers Assn., an organization of cotton merchants, also is reported using all its facilities to locate every available used bale tie and buckle, and place them in the hands of ginners.

Communications to all cotton merchants from ACSA headquarters in Memphis are urging them to contact every textile mill with which they normally do business, find out if the mill owners have any used ties on hand, and report their findings to Memphis.

Steps will then be taken to get the bale ties into the ginners' hands prior to the 1956 harvest.

Pfeiffenberger estimated approximately 300,000 bundles of ties will be needed for an estimated 1,500,000-bale South Plains cotton crop this year.

Grassland, Tahoka May Consolidate

Petitions asking that an election be called on consolidation of the Grassland and Tahoka school districts were presented Lynn County Judge W. M. Mathis last week.

The Grassland board of trustees in a meeting July 10 voted unanimously in favor of an election on the consolidation issue. Members of the board are C. W. Roberts, Kelley Laws, Ted Aten, Ted Dockery, L. B. Burk, R. M. Thomas and Glenn Norman.

On June 30, Grassland voters turned down by 49 to 23 a proposal to consolidate its district with Graham, Close City, Southland and Garnolia to form a new district.

Grassland now teaches through the seventh grade, with most of the eighth grade and high school students attending the Tahoka schools as transfers.

Last year, the Tahoka board assessed the Grassland district $67 per student transfer, and this year estimates that it will have to charge $93 per transfer student.

Enrollment in the Grassland schools has dropped to about 26 pupils, the minimum for a two-teacher school.

HAMILTON DRUG Mail Orders Filled

In 1891 he left Weatherford, where he was born, and went to Beaumont to work for the Beaumont Lumber Company, a firm engaged in cutting and sawing Douglas pine in Southeast Texas. His first job was stacking lumber at 10 cents an hour. He soon became shipping clerk, superintendent of the planning mill, and by 1900, superintendent of the mills. He later remarked that if a young man would do twice as much work as was expected of him, he would go up.

Wood witnessed all the early attempts to find oil around Spindletop, and knew all the people involved. Discovery would have come much sooner, he said, if there had been any drilling equipment adequate for the job. The early rotary rigs had been designed for water drilling. They had been used successfully for oil in the shallow Corsicana field, but at Spindletop the Hammill brothers had to work out new techniques as they went.

This was in the days of steam power, and Wood sold slabs and sawdust from the lumber mill to fire the boilers of the drilling rigs. After the Lucas Gusher came in in January, 1901, the lumber business, like all other businesses, boomed. All mills ran at capacity but still could not satisfy the demand. Besides lumber for houses and derricks, Wood sold great quantities of three-by-eight decking used to line the underground storage tanks being built by the oil companies. Since there were no adequate pipeline facilities, only companies with storage could operate at a profit. At one time the Sun Oil Company bought over three million barrels of oil at three cents a barrel.

Although Wood was making what in those days was regarded as a big salary, he soon left the lumber company and went into the oil business, first as a drilling contractor in partnership with Walter Fondren at Sour Lake and Batson. He acquired considerable production, which he later sold to Ross Sterling, one of the organizers and first president of the Humble Company.

Wood later operated in various fields, including North and East Texas. He always remembered the first boom as the greatest and wildest. He recalled the great stacks of bags of money in the lobby of the First National Bank at Beaumont in 1901. Shipments for deposit began arriving soon after the well came in, and the clerical force got so far behind that the bank had to refuse further deposits until they caught up.

Sheriff Says Put Safety Atop List In Vacation Plans

"Put safety at the head of your list in planning that vacation trip!"

That was the advice given to motorists today by Sheriff Carl Rains in discussing the vacation safe driving program which the Texas Safety Association, the Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council are sponsoring this month.

"Too often vacation trips are planned without any thought for safety on the road, and often what starts out to be a pleasure trip ends up as another traffic calamity," he said.

He said that the best way to keep out of danger on the vacation trip is to plan certain basic safety measures, and to stick to them. These safety measures are (1) control of speed, (2) keeping the car safety-checked and in good condition at all times, (3) scheduling your driving for daytime hours and allowing for occasional breaks to minimize fatigue, and (4) obeying traffic signs and signals.

"If a driver starts out on the road fully determined to follow these common sense rules to protect himself and his family in high-traffic areas, there is little doubt that his vacation will be safe as well as fun," Sheriff Rains said. He said that the purpose of the vacation safety program being conducted this month was to reduce the high toll of traffic accidents during the vacation period by emphasizing the individual's responsibility for traffic safety.

"Safety is a give-and-take proposition," he said. "If you want the other fellow to do right by you on the road, you've got to do right by him."

Artists To Teach In Anton Schools

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Arthur, formerly of Post, have been employed to teach in the Anton Public Schools for the 1956-57 term.

Arthur is a former superintendent of the Post schools, having resigned June 1, 1955. Mrs. Arthur has taught in the schools here, and was principal one year at the Graham Rural School.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur were employed subject to assignment, according to an article in the July 13 issue of The Anton News. Mrs. Arthur, the article said, probably will teach a section of the fourth grade and Arthur very likely will teach in the seventh and eighth grades and first year algebra in high school.

TREASURY OFFERS FINE SERVICE TO BOND HOLDERS

Savings Bonds 'Safer Than Cash,' Says County Committee Chairman

The slogan "Safer Than Cash" long applied to U. S. Savings Bonds doesn't begin to tell the full story, according to T. R. Greenfield, Garza County Savings Bonds chairman.

"Not too many people know about the fine service the Treasury offers to bond holders," Greenfield declared. "This service is one of the outstanding features that makes savings bonds one of the best investments ever offered. A good many of us already know that we can get our lost, destroyed or stolen bonds replaced without cost. But this is just the beginning. The Bureau of the Public Dept., which is the branch of the Treasury that handles all bond records and redemptions, leaves no stone unturned to see that the original intent of the purchaser is carried out in the disposition of bonds."

Greenfield called special attention to the provision allowing for bonds to be issued to co-owners. He cited the example of the man who died suddenly without an adequate will. He had several thousand dollars in Series E savings bonds issued in his own name and that of his wife as co-owner. The estate seemed to be in for a long period of litigation. The widow, who needed funds badly, had been told that the savings bonds must become a part of the estate.

Upon advice of a friend, the widow wrote to the Treasury Department. She was quickly informed that the bonds were her property and could be cashed at her discretion. According to regulations, whenever a bond owner dies, the bond instantly becomes the sole property of the surviving co-owner.

"The Treasury has thousands of such cases in its files," Greenfield said, "proving once again that savings bonds not only make a wonderful nest egg for future security, but are an excellent means of providing for loved ones after death."

HOLD TIGHT!

Ever find yourself caught out in the middle of a storm with your umbrella blowing itself inside out?

There you are, clinging like mad to that frail bit of cloth and metal... and you realize that if the wind gets one whit stronger your "protection" is going to blow right out of your hands.

Fortunately, it doesn't hurt to get wet, so losing your umbrella wouldn't be much of a tragedy. But when you're caught in one of the other types of storms life deals out... a storm that buffets at your inner sense of security... or your idea of right or wrong... a storm that tries to undermine your marriage, or your career... or a storm of sickness or strife... then it's a very different matter.

How fortunate that in those more difficult moments you don't have to rely upon something as flimsy as an umbrella. How fortunate that you can turn to the Church and find in it solace, protection, courage, and the faith to keep going. You will find that the Church is a shelter that will always protect you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

All-Star Game Will Be Played Saturday

Post Little League's all-star game will be played at 8 o'clock Saturday night between teams of 11 and 12-year-old players from the four teams comprising the league.

Selections for the all-star game were made by a committee of five adults.

The all-star team to be known as the "Reds" will be managed by Walter B. Holland and Punk Peel, while J. P. Farnell and N. A. Lusby will manage the "Blues."

Players selected for the Reds' team roster and the club with which they played during the season are:

Yankees Outlast Tigers, 13 To 11, In League Game

With pitcher Jimmy Smith going the route for the winners, The Postex Mill's Yankees defeated the Civic Clubs' Tigers, 13 to 11, Saturday evening.

Smith also contributed two home runs to lead his team's batting attack against the Tigers.

The Tigers scored one run in the top half of the first inning, but fell behind early when the Yankees registered four tallies in the bottom half. The losers knotted the score by chasing three runs across in the top of the third, but the Yankees came roaring back with nine to chase starter Jimmy Ivie and sew up the games. Pat Cornell took over the mound duties for the Tigers and held the Yanks scoreless the rest of the way.

SECTION TWO The Post Dispatch THURSDAY, JULY 19, 1956

INDIVIDUAL PLAYER AWARDS MADE BETWEEN GAMES

Dodgers, Tigers Post Victories In Final Little League Contests

In the Post Little League's final regularly scheduled games Monday evening, the cellar-dwelling Tigers upset the Red Sox, 18 to 7, and the pennant-winning Dodgers came from behind to defeat the Yankees, 10 to 3.

In between-game ceremonies, a certificate of award was presented each player on the four teams, with Dodger managers Punk Peel and Bing Bingham receiving the traveling trophy for their team.

Oscar Garner, head of the umpiring staff, who made the awards, explained that the traveling trophy will remain in the possession of the team winning it two consecutive seasons.

Other team managers recognized were J. P. Farnell and Dan Rankin of the Yankees, Walter B. Holland and Edsel Cross of the Red Sox and N. A. Lusby and Louis Mills of the Tigers.

In the first game of the evening, the Yankees got off to a 3-0 lead in the second inning when catcher Charles O'Neal's double brought home three teammates who had been walked by Dodger pitcher John Valdez. That ended the scoring for the Yankees, however, with the Dodgers scoring a single run in the third, six in the fourth and three in the fifth.

Valdez went the distance for the Dodgers to chalk up his seventh victory against no defeats. He also hit a two-run homer in the fifth inning.

John Valdez Tops League Batters

Unless he's off form in the play-off game between his team and the Tigers this evening, John Valdez, Dodger shortstop and pitcher, has won this season's batting championship in Post's Little League.

Ranking third, behind Leslie Acker of the Red Sox and Bobby Beard of the Dodgers, through games of July 7, Valdez has upped his batting average 51 points in the last four games to take over the lead.

Valdez is also the league's leading pitcher with seven wins against no losses.

In second place in the batting averages with .620 is Acker, and Beard is third with .585.

Red Sox Defeat Dodgers, 13 To 11, In Slugfest At Little League Park

Brown Bros. Red Sox made it two in a row over the First National Bank's league-leading Dodgers Saturday by winning a 13 to 11 slugfest at Little League Park.

Manager Walter B. Holland's Sox got off to an early lead by scoring three runs in the first inning and two in the second while holding Manager Punk Peel's Dodgers scoreless in those two frames.

The Dodgers broke the ice in the top half of the third with two runs, then held the Red Sox scoreless in the bottom half of the inning.

Red Sox pitcher Reuben Valdez walked two men with two out in the Dodgers' half of the fourth, but came through the inning without a Dodger tally being marked up. Then, in their half of the fourth, the Sox scored five runs to increase their lead to 10-2.

Bobby Beard's home run, three others hits and two walks in the top of the fifth enabled the Dodgers to pull up to a 10-7 count, but the Red Sox came roaring back in the bottom half of the inning to score three more, the
