

Decisions made on new school

Several construction decisions were made for the high school building at a special session of the Consolidated Independent District trustees Monday afternoon.

The two and one-half hour session with Lubbock architects, Atchison and Atmar Atkinson, came to agreement on the type of floors, ceilings, and heating for the new building.

Partitions in the classrooms will be of face brick three feet up from the floor and of cement tile above.

No central heating is planned for the building, but instead several circulating heating units will be installed, each capable of heating three or four classrooms.

This type heating will enable some outside air to be brought in to the school in the heating process.

Trustees discussed ducting the new building in a heat system which could also be converted at some future time to air conditioning. But the board decided this was too expensive.

Architects explained a ducting heating system which would enable air conditioning to be added later would cost about $1.75 per square foot in building size.

The heating system decided upon will cost between $1 and $1.25 per square foot of building.

The trustees will hold their regular May session on Monday night, May 11, and hope to consult with architects at that time on more of the decisions which must be made on the new high school building.

First contracts in the school expansion program will be let within several weeks for converting the present high school auditorium into six additional classrooms and an assembly room, building new football bleachers, and construction of a fieldhouse for dressing rooms at the football stadium.

Storie wells hooked in to boost city's water supply virtually 50 per cent

Post's water supply has been boosted by approximately 50 per cent with the hooking in over last weekend of water pumped from a section of land owned by S. C. Sr. and others.

City Superintendent Henry Tate told The Dispatch yesterday that as of Wednesday Storie wells were pouring 225 gallons of water a minute into the city water system and that this figure would be upped to 300 gallons and above tomorrow when the water lease becomes effective.

The city has contracted to buy a minimum of 300 gallons a minute from Storie's wells at a cost of $1,500 monthly and additional water, if desired, at 12 cents per thousand gallons.

Four Storie wells were tied in Saturday and up to nine will be tied by tomorrow. Some new Storie wells have been dug and enough new water secured that he can furnish over the minimum amount of 300 gallons a minute agreed to in the contract.

Tate reported that the local water demand is running between 800,000 and 1,000,000 gallons daily.

Clint Herrings will celebrate

Clint and Lois Herring will celebrate the 21st birthday of Herring's department store for the next three days—Friday, Saturday, and Monday—with a "Coming of Age" party and a 21st Birthday sale.

Over 40 merchandise prizes will be given away during the three-day party. Their total retail value is well over $300.

A double-page ad containing all information on the prize drawings and the dozens and dozens of items from stock which will be included in the birthday sale will be found on page 10 and 11 of today's Dispatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Herring moved to Post 21 years ago in the spring of 1938 to open Herring's department store in its present location. They came to Post from Walters, Okla., where they had operated a department store for a short time while looking for the West Texas location they wanted.

When they came they brought their department store stock with them.

Both the Herrings were reared in Texas—Clint in Matador and Lois in Lubbock.

Clint has operated Herring's in its present location for its entire 21 year life. He rented the building on his arrival here and purchased it some five years later.

Herring's has been a department store from the beginning, but many new lines have been added through the years, as Clint

To signal twister

Bombs set

In case any tornado comes wandering toward Post this spring, the new tornado signal—a cluster of aerial bombs—is ready to alert the community to move into storm cellars.

John Lott, chairman of the Garza County disaster organization, said the aerial bombs—four or five of them in quick succession—should be loud enough to be heard over the roar of the storm.

The signal was installed here last year but has never been needed to date—so Post residents still don't know what the signal sounds like.

1,770 more in building permits

Building permits costing an estimated $1,770 have been issued at City Hall during the past week.

A permit was issued to Melzar Johnson to add a room to his present home, one street south of the school. Cost was estimated at $75.

A permit was issued to remodel the present residence of E. L. Lee, at 117 South Avenue M. Cost was estimated at $1,300.

Robert Cato was issued a permit to build a shadow box wood fence at 814 West 4th. The estimated cost was $240.

A permit to paint garage door, trim, etc., was issued to Tom Gilmore, at 421 North Avenue Q. Cost was estimated at $55.

B. C. Manis was issued a permit to refinish interior of his house at 508 West 7th. Cost was estimated at $100.

Six are booked in Justice Court

Three more drivers have been booked into justice of the peace court here on charges of having no state inspection stickers on their cars.

They are J. D. McLean, W. F. Brantley, and F. L. Morris. Morris has paid $16.50 in fine and costs.

Another trio was assessed $24.65 in fine and costs each for gambling following their arrest April 25 by Deputy J. W. Floyd.

They are Raymond Fuentes, Abelordo Rena, and De Letson.

Swimming pool is all 'prettied up'

Post and Garza folks are going to be mighty proud of the swimming pool when it opens around June 1.

In fact most swimmers won't even recognize it—it's so pretty.

Major off-season park improvements have been centered on improving the swimming pool and installing a sprinkling system for the 14 park acres on the north side of the lake.

Water was turned on via the sprinklers for the first time yesterday afternoon. The water is pumped from the lake—and is expected to drain back into the lake, so the beautification of the park will not be made at the expense of the city's limited water supply.

The pool and bathhouse have been painted in attractive colors and redwood and fiberglass fence built along the west side of the swimming pool.

The former parking lot to the west of the pool has been closed and will be planted to grass and trees to both beautify and keep sand and dirt from blowing into the pool from that former parking area.

All parking will now be in recessed paved parking spaces along the north side of the park.

Shelley Camp, city-county park board chairman, explains that a contract probably will be let by the board next week to build a four-foot-wide sidewalk from the bathhouse and pool entrance, north to the parking area and then along the new curb east to the east edge of the pool.

This is a safety measure so that youngsters will not walk in back of parked cars in going to and from the pool.

Sprinklers have been set all around the pool, including the former parking lot to the west, and a row of posts put into the ground bordering the highway.

No cars will be allowed in the park. Parking will be along the north side.

According to Chairman Camp, the park area north of the lake will be watered and disced to destroy a "couple of crops" of weeds before bermuda grass is planted next month.

A row of trees will be planted along the west side of the swimming pool this fall, according to board plans.

County's audit report presented

Garza County's financial accounts are in good shape, according to the 1958 audit presented to the commissioners' court at a special session Monday by Auditor Harold Wine of Ballinger.

Included in the audit are all county funds including those of T. H. Tipton's tax collector's office, the county clerk's office, county treasurer's office, Sheriff Carl Rains office and Justice of the Peace D. C. Roberts office.

The audit showed a total balance at the end of 1958 of $196,852.89 in all county funds and a bonded indebtedness for the county of $371,000.

James West, grade school principal, announced this week that pre-registration for children who will begin the first grade in September, will be held May 8.

Time for registration will be 9 a. m., at the grade school, with a complete schedule to be announced later.

Mrs. Kay Gene Payne is to be 1959 valedictorian

Mrs. Kay Gene Payne will be the valedictorian of Post High School's 1959 graduating class of 43 when commencement exercises are held Monday night, May 25, in the high school auditorium.

Frances Barron will be salutatorian and Victor Hudman will give the class history.

Principal Glenn Whittenberg this week announced the selections based upon grade averages over the high school careers.

The top ten students of the class, in order, are Kay Gene Payne, Jimmy Short, Frances Barron, Kay Martin, Victor Hudman, Don Davies, Janet Stephens, Ruth Ann Long, Linda Bartlett and Barbara Shytles.

To qualify for the top class honors, seniors must carry five solids during their junior years and four during their senior years. Jimmy Short and Kay Martin were disqualified for top class honors due to failure to meet the requirements on the number of solids.

With just three more weeks to go in the spring school term, 43 seniors are looking ahead to receiving their diplomas at the commencement exercises, although final exams still could bar a few from May 25 graduation.

Baccalaureate services for the class will be held Sunday evening, May 24, at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium with the Rev. Bill Hogue, First Baptist Church pastor, bringing the baccalaureate message. He will be assisted by...

Scholastic achievement so important

Congratulations, Mrs. Kay Gene Payne and Frances Barron for winning valedictorian and salutatorian honors respectively of the 1959 high school graduating class.

Scholastic achievement has always been tremendously important, but in this new age of science it is really coming into its own and today is attaining public popularity it never enjoyed before.

What competition has done for the body contact sport of football, competition is today beginning to do in the scholastic realm.

Tomorrow may see scholastic competition on a "grand scale."

In the last few years, America has seen great corporations pool large sums of money to offer college scholarships "no strings attached" to deserving and highly intelligent young people.

Thousands upon thousands win college educations today by their ability to think and reason—rather than because they excel at football or some other sport in spectator demand.

TV, even, with its quiz shows threw the spotlight upon intellect and the ability to retain knowledge.

In some colleges today, teams of young people match their brains in contests. That idea of intellectual competition is going to spread throughout the school systems because Americans excel best when in competition.

On an international scale, America is locked in what may be deadly competition with the Soviet world in the field of scientific development based on brains. Both nations are turning to their schools and to their young people to provide the resources for the struggle.

Man poses on the very brink of space. In today's world, a crackerjack education and brains are more important than ever before. For the first time there is a competitive race in the business world to hire young people with intelligence.

That is why scholastic achievement can't be over-emphasized in today's classroom—whether that classroom be one for second graders or college seniors.

Building a scholastic record in school means much today—with colleges now becoming more and more selective in what students they will admit, because of the great demand and the limited college facilities.

It used to be that just about any boy or girl could go to college, poor or not, if he or she had the desire to do so. No more. These days you have to have a classroom record in high school to justify your college opportunity.

It's important to get busy early and work hard these days in the classroom. Taking things easy in the classroom isn't "smart" any more—not if you have any real ambitions.

That's why in congratulating Kay Gene and Frances for their scholastic achievement we want to emphasize how important it is to study hard and do your best and make the best grades you are capable of making. Each student is writing a scholastic record which is going to count heavily against him or well in his favor.—JC

Driving responsibility must be taught

Parents these days can give some serious thought to the problem of youngsters' driving and the family car.

In exuberant hands, an automobile is a deadly weapon to those behind the wheel, inside the car, and out ahead on street or highway.

Sunday afternoon driving—a normal community pastime for young people—almost turned into a tragedy here last Sunday afternoon when a pickup truck containing four boys narrowly missed a carload of ten girls and went rolling down the right-of-way.

This is just one example, but one which should be close to home for most of us.

The teen-ager today has adopted the automobile. Very often he can tear it down, put it back together again, or maybe even build one from spare parts. Naturally he is interested too in what that piece of machinery can do on the highway. He is a lot more familiar with a car than were the fathers of today when they were youngsters.

But the risk is greater for teen-age male drivers. You have only to examine your insurance rates to see that. Whoever buys the insurance on his car has to pay through the nose for it.

There is no easy answer to the problem of teen-agers and cars. The community or state can't handle the problem for the parents. It must

The schools do a good job of teaching driver education to boys and girls. None of us want to see young people as a group held back from any normal development—and the use of cars certainly is a normal development. We don't want to see these young people hurt and killed either, nor others hurt or killed by them.

In the end, the rearing of our youth comes back to the primary responsibility of the parents. In this case young people need to feel the responsibility that is theirs every time they climb behind the wheel of a high-powered automobile.

Law enforcement, the courts, the schools, youth organizations, public sentiment—all can help bring this responsibility home to youth. But primarily the assignment rests in final analysis upon the parents.

And we parents must remember that not all adults are responsible either behind the wheel of an automobile. A lot of us are pretty lousy—and dangerous drivers. We do not want to point the finger at our young folks as a group, because many of them are excellent drivers.

But the fact remains that in growing up learning to be responsible for things is something which has to be learned—and taught. And some boys and girls learn their lessons easily and more quickly than others.—JC

Aerial bomb is twister signal

The spring season usually means turbulent weather all along "tornado alley" from West Texas and New Mexico northeast into Illinois and Ohio.

So it's a good thing about now to remind folks that Post this spring has a "tornado-sighted danger" signal ready to be fired at any moment of the day or night.

It's an aerial bomb, rigged to set off five jarring blasts high in the sky. But it might only be four if one of the five didn't "go."

Citizens of the community haven't had the opportunity for a test run on the signal because of the expense involved. Setting off the signal costs $25 or so for the explosives.

The Garza County Disaster organization, which was formed last spring, stands ready to spring into operation again under the direction of Chairman John Lott. By the end of the current "spring season," Lott hopes to complete a disaster manual for the organization he is writing from the plans made by the various committee chairmen in the disaster organization.

More storm cellars are being dug in the current construction boom here.

This spring there shouldn't be as long a caravan heading up on top the "cap" in dangerous weather. Folks will merely hop out the back door and go underground.

If you don't have your own cellar, check the neighborhood and you'll probably find one close by into which your family would be welcomed in an emergency.

Then you'll be ready for the "spring season" and our new aerial bomb signal to take cover.—JC

Being a parent ourselves, we are happy to pass on to others in the same boat the following "Ten Commandments for Parents," Sam Levenson's home remedies for juvenile delinquency:

1. Thou shalt guard thy children in the home and on the street.
2. Thou shalt make thy home a sanctuary of love and devotion.
3. Thou shalt honor the teachers of thy children and teach thy children to honor them.
4. Thou shalt not condone the faults of thy children through a misguided sense of loyalty.
5. Thou shalt teach thy children respect for the law and keep them from the companionship of children who indicate disrespect for the law.
6. Thou shalt not lead thy child into temptation by providing him with the means thereof, to wit, too much money, a car, and adult privileges.
7. Thou shalt enforce decency in the dress of thy daughters and dignity in the dress of thy sons.
8. Thou shalt protect the morals of thy children from the indiscretions of youthful ardor and inexperience.
9. Thou shalt conduct thine own affairs in such a manner as to set an example worthy of imitation by thy children.
10. Thou shalt not permit thy children to bear arms except in the service of thy country.

AN ARTICLE by Chris (who observed her 14th birthday Saturday) and her picture fills most of page 5 in the magazine. The article tells all about her "trials and tribulations" in writing the column about doings of the junior high set.

One paragraph in Chris' article convinces us that she has what it takes to make a good newspaper woman. It's the paragraph in which she writes: "Daddy told me I should spend all week getting the news for it but after I had written one column it kinda slipped my mind for a week and I usually ended up waiting until I had one or two days to do it and then go like mad."

THAT'S WHAT it takes to be a good newspaper woman or man, Chris! Those people who do everything on schedule without having to go like mad to meet a deadline are misfits in the grand old game of newspapering!

We've been in Post going on seven years, and we know that in that time no man has held the post of P-TA president. Of course, the P-TA was doing its good work for years and years before we arrived on the scene, and it might be that it has had a man as president before. Who can tell us?

Bible Thoughts

"The Unity of the Bible"

by RONNIE PARKER

Another reason we believe the Bible is because of its unity. The wonderful unity of the Bible implies oneness of authorship. We speak of the Bible as a book and in a real sense it is; but it is a collection of sixty-six books, written on one grand theme—man's relation to God.

The Bible is a great library that was in the process of making for over 1500 years. These books were written by at least forty different human authors. They were written by men upon almost every level of political and social life, from the king on his throne down to the herdsmen, the shepherd, the fisherman and the taxgatherer.

This book contains law, history, hymns, prayers, biographies, sermons and letters. Yet all the writers unite in presenting one grand theme.

This unity is so remarkable that an accidental authorship is out of the question. How are we to account for this unity? There is only one rational way of accounting for it—that back of the forty or more human authors, there was divine guidance. There was the one all-guiding, all-controlling, all-superintending mind of God, for truly the "Holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit." (II Pet. 1:21).

The students of Post High School have participated in wide research work in the library through the various classes during the school year. They are pleased to share their accomplishments in research papers with others.

A large number of these papers on various subjects are being read to classes in junior and senior high school.

The following subjects will be interesting to pupils in grades six through twelve: Ancient Indians of Mexico, History of Texas, Bullfighting, History of Mexico, Post City, Texas, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Abraham Lincoln, Edgar Allan Poe, O'Henry, Queen Elizabeth, Travel in Mexico, Botany of Mexico, Cities of Mexico, Government of Mexico, Joseph Smith (Mormans), Spanish American War, Rubber, Physiology, Political Parties, The U. S. Constitution.

Mentioned above are only a few of the subjects used as research papers in the junior and senior English classes, science and Spanish classes.

Gen. Wedemeyer banquet speaker

CANYON — Speaker for the banquet climaxing the annual meeting of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society May 8 will be General Albert C. Wedemeyer, author of the famed "Wedemeyer Reports."

Gen. Wedemeyer will speak at the 7 p. m. banquet, to be held in the West Texas State College cafeteria. A meeting of the society's executive committee will be held at 2 p. m., and a general annual business meeting of members and the board of directors will be held at 3 p. m. At the latter meeting new officers of the society will be elected.

C. Boone McClure, director of the museum, said that 200 copies of the "Wedemeyer Reports", a current best seller in non-fiction, have been ordered and that an autograph party will be held for the general.

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mrs. and Mrs. Bryon Taylor and children of Lubbock were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Taylor.

SATURDAY IN LUBBOCK

Mrs. W. C. Sullivan and Jerry Don and Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Dodson spent Saturday in Lubbock.

AUSTIN — Most people in or connected with the 56th Legislature are comforting themselves with the knowledge that air conditioning was installed in House and Senate chambers last year.

It may be pretty hot, they say, before a majority of both houses come to agreement on new taxes.

House members systematically cut to pieces the big omnibus tax bill (HB 727). As originally proposed, it would have raised $300,000,000, mostly from scores of new selective sales taxes on items ranging from face paint to house paint.

After members got through cutting out the things that brought the loudest howls, it was down to less than one-fourth its starting size.

It was then given preliminary approval (second reading) by the narrowest of votes, 74-to-72, counting Speaker Waggoner Carr's "yes" vote. Carr stepped down from the speaker's rostrum to plead with members to pass the bill, even though it had been stripped to practically nothing, so as to "get something to the Senate."

Senate cannot consider a tax bill until it has been passed by the House. But for the Senate, getting the shattered fragments of HB 727 is like getting four wheels and some broken glass with the invitation to make an automobile.

TASK AHEAD — In the days that remain until May 12, or in special sessions thereafter, the Legislature faces these decisions:

1. Appropriations — House has passed a bill calling for $322,000,000 in general revenue; Senate, a bill for $302,000,000. Differences must be adjusted in conference committee, which neither presiding officer seemed in a hurry to appoint. This could mean some sort of agreement that there would be no final decision on the appropriations bill until a tax program emerges.

2. Taxes — Either house's spending bill, with the deficit added in, would require something around $200,000,000 in new tax money. This much, it seems certain, must be found, somewhere.

3. School improvement — Backers of the Hale-Aikin Committee program will push for adoption of at least part of that program. It would add some $100,000,000 a year to state expenses.

ABANDONED PROPERTY — Abandoned in a vote that surprised many, the House killed the abandoned property bill, 80-to-67.

Proposed measure would have allowed the state to take over dormant bank accounts and property held by insurance companies, utilities and oil and gas companies if it had gone unclaimed seven years.

Some felt that Gov. Price Daniel, who had fought strenuously for the bill, might regard its defeat as third term fodder. He said at one time its passage meant more to him than anything since the tides.

Afterward, the governor said "the fight has just begun." He was critical of Speaker Carr for having allowed the measure to come to a vote when it did.

"COW BILLS" PASS — Senate has given final approval to three bills affecting ranchers and dairymen.

A milk bill, sponsored by Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, would prohibit bringing in milk from other states unless it could be established that the milk was produced under the health and sanitation standards placed on Texas producers.

Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney pushed through a bill that would provide a penalty for allowing cattle to roam on state and national highways and relieve motorists of liability for hitting stock.

A bill tightening licensing regulations of veterinarians also was passed by the Senate. Sen. Andy Rogers of Childress, sponsor, noted that there is no present law to suspend licenses of veterinarians guilty of malpractice.

WHAT'S THE USE — Senators refused, 16-to-15, to take up Sen. A. M. Aikin's bill to improve schools and raise teacher pay.

Those who opposed said passing the bill before tax money is found wouldn't bring a "crying dime" to the teachers.

Hopeful teachers could take some comfort from the fact that some who voted against considering the bill said they would favor it when money is on hand.

LOAN SHARK CURB PASSED — Texans will probably have an opportunity to vote in November, 1960, on whether to adopt a new approach for regulating lending practices.

Both House and Senate have approved a proposed constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to regulate the amount of interest that could be charged. Present 10 per cent ceiling on interest, set in the Constitution, would be abolished.

A constitutional amendment must be approved by the voters before it is approved by the voters at a general election after it has been passed by the Legislature and signed by the governor.

Backers of the change say it will pave the way for driving loan sharks out of Texas. Such a measure has been sought for a number of years and has the backing of Texas Legislative Council.

MORE COLLEGES OKAYED — Texas is on the way to having a new medical school and three new

J. B. Baldree moves to Wallace Ranch

J. B. Baldree, who has been assistant manager at Dunlap's, has resigned his position here and moved to Grady Wallace's Ranch in Kent County which he will operate for Wallace.

state-supported four-year colleges.

Senate, in a burst of educational zeal, passed bills to (1) elevate Arlington State College between Fort Worth and Dallas to a senior college, (2) make Tarleton State College at Stephenville a four-year college, (3) make Midwestern University at Wichita Falls a four-year state-supported college and (4) establish a new University of Texas medical branch at San Antonio.

All except the Midwestern bill already had been passed by the House.

OPEN MEETINGS APPROVED — Meetings of state, city, county and district boards and their records will be required to be open to the public under a bill given final Senate approval.

Measure that passed was a combination of Sen. Preston Smith's "open meetings" bill and Sen. George Parkhouse's "open records" bill.

Senate Jurisprudence Committee had amended Smith's original proposal to say that closed meetings could be held "for the discussion of appointments or matters which, if made public, might adversely affect the public security or the financial interests of the state or its political subdivisions."

New farm plans to be profitable

Garza County farmers who borrow from the Farmers Home Administration have completed making their farming plans for this year. And many are already putting new ideas into operation which should boost their 1959 farm income, Joseph E. Box, the agency's local county supervisor, said this week.

Better farming practices which some FHA borrowers will be putting into operation include (1) using farrowing stalls to save more pigs per litter; (2) planning two litters of pigs per year; (3) feeding a balanced ration to hogs to get them on an early market; (4) early and late season insect control as necessary on cotton; (5) planting certified and good quality seed; (6) digging and filling trench silos for silage for cattle as insurance against drought; (7) purchase of better quality bulls; (8) increased diversification by addition of livestock programs; (9) improvement in tenure by securing written long-term leases; (10) keeping records on production expenses and income.

During the past three months all FHA borrowers have analyzed their 1958 farm and home records. These records showed what had been planned and what had been accomplished. On the basis of the records the families were able to determine the strong and weak points of their operations and recognize further improvements that could be made in their operations.

As proof that good farm planning pays off, Box points out that nearly 60 per cent of the FHA borrowers in Garza County have repaid their FHA loans during 1958, and are now able to get all their necessary financing from local banks or cooperative lenders.

Neighbor Fred Lammert, who lives next door to us at 716 West Fifth street, really had a plane ride last week when he flew home from a year in Bolivia's jungle where he has been working since April of last year for the Western Geophysical Company. Most astonishing thing Fred had to report in our first visit was that he "didn't miss TV". Fred who has a supervisory position in the company's warehouse is going to fly back down after a 32-day leave for at least another year. He got into Lubbock Friday night after leaving by plane at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday morning. He was either in a plane or waiting on another one with a few hours lay-over all the time until he got home. Fred is really out in the jungle—being 80 miles from the nearest town, about the size of Post. Fred reports the rainy season has just ended in Bolivia and that the cool, dry winter is just beginning. What's in that jungle where Americans are drilling for oil—just all kinds of wild animals and snakes. Virtually all traveling is done by plane.

We are happy to report that Mrs. James Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brice Garland of near Slaton are out of the hospital and home again after suffering serious injuries in a fatal two-car crash near Sherman, Tex., April 14. ### Boy Scouts are Rotary guests

Some 27 members of Boy Scout Troop No. 16, sponsored by the Rotary Club, were luncheon guests of the civic clubbers Tuesday noon and staged a program of rope tying.

The program included two of the events the troop will compete in this weekend at the district Scout camporee in Blanco Canyon near Crosbyton.

The troop will compete with troops from Rails, Jayton, Crosbyton, Lorenzo, and Spur in flap-jack baking, string burning, knot tying relay, and log pulling.

The troop now has 31 members, having enrolled 10 since the first of the year.

Senior Patrol Leader Gary Simson was in charge of the program after being presented by Scoutmaster Leon Miller. Miller also introduced Assistant Scoutmasters Bob West and Marshall Ticer.

D. C. (Billy) Hill was inducted into the Rotary club as a new member prior to the program.

Herring's—

puts it, "to keep up with the times and the town."

Herring's has just undergone a major store remodeling, begun last September. It's the first major remodeling in the store's history.

"Since last fall, we've become almost a brand new store," Clint puts it.

Efforts of the Herrings to keep abreast of the town's needs is best illustrated by the addition last fall of a gift department.

It's close to the heart of Mrs. Herring — especially the imported gift items. Herring's has had a gift department before — years ago — but it wasn't the success the new gift department has been.

That's because, the Herrings say, the community is now ready for such a gift department. The Herrings enjoy traveling. And when they travel, they keep on the lookout for fine import gift buys.

That is what led to the establishment last year of the new gift department — although all the gift items offered aren't imports of course.

"The purpose of our party and sale," Herring says, "is to get our friends and customers into the store to look around and get acquainted with our new layout."

The remodeling was carried out on the basis of making it easier for Herring customers to find what they wanted — "to make it easier to stop" is the way Clint puts it.

Clint of course runs the department store operation. Lois, who literally was brought up in the merchandising business, helps out by doing the buying for the ready-to-wear and gift departments and by "taking an interest" in other phases of the store's operation.

Mr. Herring in his 21 years in Post has held down more than the usual number of "chairs" in community leadership, including being president of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary club, and school district trustees, and playing an active role in Girl Scout and Salvation Army work.

We are proud to have Planter's Gin and C. B. (Bill) Hogue, Baptist minister, as new members of the Chamber of Commerce.

A representative from the South Plains Parade of Progress Yearbook visited Post recently. He has informed us that Post will have more coverage in the book this year. This is good news for Post, as this very interesting yearbook publicizes nearly every town on the South Plains.

National Cotton Week will soon be here. Miss Jessie Pearce and the Agriculture Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, George Samson, Earl Rogers, Lewis Heron, and Powell Shytles are working hard to see that the program is even better than last year. There will be a cotton style show and program in the grade school auditorium May 15 as well as other events planned to promote cotton, and we're counting on the business people of Post to make this a big week.

Only a small number of senior students entered the West Texas Chamber of Commerce essay contest this year, but all the entries were very good. It is a difficult choice for the judges to pick the winner, who will be announced next week.

General Telephone Company reports big growth and progress in 1958

In the recently released 1958 annual report of General Telephone Company of the Southwest which serves Post, 1958 is hailed as a year of growth, expansion and progress.

According to the report, total plant investment figures at the end of 1958 amounted to $93,346,651, as compared to $84,976,063 at the end of 1957, and represented an investment of telephone plant in service of $333 per telephone.

During the year, 29 exchanges were converted from manual to dial operation, bringing 87.69 per cent of the company's 275,397 telephones to dial operation.

Revenues for 1958 totaled $27,752,197, exceeding the 1957 revenues by $2,014,403. Operating expenses during the year, excluding depreciation and taxes, were down over the 1957 figures; however, total operating expenses (including taxes) were $23,148,054, an increase of $1,228,021 over the comparable 1957 figure. Net earnings available for dividend requirements for the 12 months ending Dec. 31, 1958, totaled $3,356,394, an increase of $701,294 over 1957.

Over 16,000 telephones were gained during 1958 and the number of long distance messages increased 575,524, bringing the total long distance messages during 1958 to 16,308,537 or an average of 61 per telephone.

The report pointed out that telephone customers are the only utility users who pay the Federal excise tax and that the company collected from its customers over $2,800,000 in Federal excise taxes on local and long distance services during 1958. Federal excise taxes paid per average telephone during 1958 amounted to $10.63.

Operating taxes paid by the company increased $950,939 over 1957, and totaled for 1958 over $5,269,000. Total taxes levied per average telephone during 1958 totaled $30.34.

The report concludes by stating that $11,359,000 is budgeted for construction during 1959 and that 10 of the company's manually operated exchanges are scheduled to convert to dial operation. Expected 1959 gain in the number of telephones served is approximately 17,500.

Spring safety hints are offered on tornadoes by Safety Association

AUSTIN — "For most Texans, no time of the year is quite as pleasant as Spring. It is of small wonder, when you consider the beauty of bluebonnets, dogwood, and hundreds of other typical Texas flora.

"But, along with these signs of Spring," J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, says, "we can be quickly distracted by other signs of Spring—particularly tornadoes.

"Because this is the time of year when these violent and spectacular storms of nature are most likely to visit us."

Musick pointed out that there isn't really much a person can do to insure himself of complete safety when a tornado is around, unless he happens to be near a cave or underground excavation. But the safety expert did list a few precautions a person might take that will lessen the danger or serious injury when a storm is in the area, they are:

1. If in open country, move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression, such as a ditch or ravine.

2. The southwest corner of the lowest floor, or basement, offers the greatest safety at home. People living in brick or stone houses should seek other shelter, preferably in a storm cellar or the basement of a frame house. If time permits, electricity and fuel lines should be shut off.

3. If at school or in an office building of steel reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows near an inside wall on a lower floor.

4. Businesses and industrial plants should make advance preparation in case a tornado strikes. Employees should know where they can go for the greatest protection.

5. KEEP CALM! It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado.

Q. I'm a Korea veteran with a GI term insurance policy with the letters "RS" before the policy number. I understand I may now exchange it for another term policy which will cost me a great deal less in premium payments. Will you please explain this?

A. Since you have an "RS" Korean GI term policy, you have the right to exchange it for another new type term policy with premiums costing two-thirds less. However, it is not renewable after you make your election. You must be converted to one of VA's permanent plans before then, if you wish insurance protection.

Q. I am taking courses under the GI Bill which lead to a standard college degree. I understand there is a new requirement about reporting classroom absences. Does this affect me?

A. No. Since your courses lead to a college degree you are exempt from reporting monthly absences from class. Students not headed for a college degree or some professional goal must, however, now report classroom absences, using the special Certification of Training form for that purpose.

Q. I'm changing my job and am going to have to sell my home bought with a GI loan. Must the loan be paid off in full before I can sell?

A. Not necessarily. The buyer may assume your GI loan as well as all liability, if he is willing, if your payments are up to date, and if VA determines the new buyer is a satisfactory credit risk.

Q. I have a dental condition connected to injuries in service but for which I am not entitled to receive compensation. Is there any deadline in my case for applying for outpatient dental treatment?

A. No. Veterans with service-connected non-compensable dental conditions or disabilities may apply at any time and receive as many treatments as are needed.

High Plains cotton is being promoted

LUBBOCK — A free technical consulting service on the use of High Plains cotton is being offered to textile mills throughout the nation by the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and is attracting industry-wide attention.

While the High Plains once had a somewhat questionable reputation of producing quality cotton, the advertising and promotional campaign being conducted by the PCG is doing much to remedy this.

As was pointed out at the last PCG board of directors meeting this organization is the only cotton group that is using this type of advertising in promoting raw cotton.

During the harvest season the PCG sends out nearly 1,000 reports every two weeks that provide cotton merchants, mill buyers and shippers throughout the industry with comprehensive statistics on the quality of the area crop. Also the PCG has just published a new brochure giving statistics on the 1958 area crop which states that the 23-county output "provides excellent value for mills".

The free technical consulting service being offered by the PCG is based on years of fiber and pilot plant spinning research, which PCG officials feel "can definitely aid mill operators".

The average motorist drives approximately 8,970 miles each year — roughly equal to the diameter of the earth.

A Church Going Family Is A Happier Family

Bedtime Story

"Tell me a story..." is frequently the last plaintive request before this little one closes her sleepy eyes for the night and drifts into that wonderful dream world of contentment and rest. How often have we wished for the same kind of story that would lift the cares and burdens from our everyday lives that we also might find similar peace and comfort as this small child.

Within the reach of all is just such a story. Not a fantasy like Goldilocks and the Three Bears or Sleeping Beauty; but a true narrative founded upon the exciting words of God. The living story of the Bible should be as much a part of our lives as our daily bread. Read your Bible, rejoice in its comforting words and inspiring thoughts. Renew your understanding of this great story by regular church attendance by you and you family.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without His grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Player auctions are scheduled

Player auctions for both the Pony and Little Leagues are scheduled to be completed within the next few days so that team practices can get under way well in advance of the opening of the two baseball leagues Monday.

The Pony League player auction will be held Tuesday night, but was completed due to the absence of Lou Mills, manager of Levi's team, who was out of town on business.

Bids for players was due to be turned in Wednesday afternoon. Then the four managers will have to huddle to work out the remainder of the squad selections.

The Little League players' auction will be held Monday night at the First Methodist Church.

The Pony and Little League will field four Post teams this year.

Henderson, league president, said the Little League will be boosting its organization to six teams for the 1960 summer season to the number of boys who want to participate in the program.

This is the first year that the Pony League has operated as a four-team Post loop. In previous seasons only two teams have been organized here, playing in a league with two teams from Tahoka.

"From all indications we'll have enough boys in the 13 and 14 year age group to field four teams in the Pony League," Henderson said.

He reported that some players too old for Pony League play this year have volunteered their services this summer as umpires or in any other needed capacity.

Complete rosters of the teams in each of the two leagues will be carried in next week's Dispatch.

Schedule plans for the summer call for doubleheaders four nights each week — Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays—with a Pony League and a Little League game being booked each night.

Mr. Fisherman! If you like to try on the new, see a huge mass of water, and rough it a bit at the same time, we know a very spot for you.

It's Falcon Lake, fifty miles from Laredo. Here a lake 30 miles long and about five miles wide straddles the international boundary line between the United States and Mexico.

Falcon is a primitive lake, with respect.

This lake was created when the International Boundary Commission built a dam across the Rio Grande. International boundary agreements were placed down the middle of the lake so that the boundary between these two countries might be well marked.

TRIP, WHICH consisted of eight cats, cats, cats, and cats was left in the bottom of the lake. Two towns were moved to the banks of the river to the ground, but many of the buildings remain standing. To the town of Zapata is almost completely inundated, while Guerrero on the Mexican side is about half out of water.

Some of the rock walls have been washed down, and these old buildings afford wonderful habitat for birds.

It is feared there will be no bass in the lake. Common fishermen hit it heavy handed out the thousands of pounds of rough fish. Then suddenly there was an explosion of bass, both blacks and whites.

LAST YEAR they were barely seen. This year plenty of them from two to four pounds, and a few six to eight pound ones are being taken. Also, young bass are hooked. Sometimes you get one that isn't big as the lure it hits.

It is direct evidence that there are at least two spawns in this, the southernmost lake. At that rate it will become a hot fishing spot under the heavy pressure.

It will now most of the big bass—Juggin' Eels, Hawk lures and Bombers.

HOWEVER, the time is here when the bass will begin hitting top water lures. With a few days of warm weather, and provided there are no disturbing floods, the next 30 days will produce some terrific catches.

There is a perfect highway to Falcon Lake. The two towns where accommodations can be had are Zapata and Falcon Heights. Neither of these towns, however, can begin to take care of the heavy influx of fishermen. Sportsmen are going there by airplane, automobile and bus.

Motor accommodations in the towns are very limited. If you plan to make a trip to Falcon Lake, you'd better begin right now to make your reservations. And it is almost impossible to get in on a week-end even with a month's advance notice.

THERE ALSO is a scarcity of boats. Many fishermen take their own boats and motors, and it's a wise procedure unless you want to fish from the banks.

Frankly, it is a lake for big motors. Unfortunately, access is very limited. Some of the planners didn't use a recreational yardstick in measuring its values. Also, when the State Highway Department built bridges across arms of the lake, it failed to do enough bulldozer work in making launching ramps alongside the bridges.

Although there is plenty of fishing water on the United States side, approximately two-thirds of the lake is in Mexico. A thirty-day Mexican license costs only 80 cents, however.

ONE GOOD thing in favor of Lake Falcon is that prices haven't gone sky-high, as yet. Room rent and meals are well in line.

This time next year there will be more accommodations at the lake. So many fishermen will go there this year that capital is certain to move into and provide ample facilities.

It will be interesting to watch the results for a few years. Chances are very good that Falcon Lake will produce bass equal to Florida and in numbers beyond the fondest dream of the ordinary fisherman.

COVERS FOR treble hooks— Ever try to untangle a hooked-up mess of fishing lures? Fun, isn't it?

Man, there's nothing more disgusting. And that's not all. It's almost impossible to separate even a few lures without barb-marking the finger a few times.

Then too, if you've ever stuck a treble-hook lure in your pocket, and later on tried to remove it—oh, boy!

Anyway, Jack Braniff is your friend in need. Jack, who works at Mercy Hospital in Pleasanton, Texas, has come up with a simple solution that makes one wonder why he hadn't thought of it himself years ago.

This year seen as ideal one for most wildlife

AUSTIN — This is a big year for animals of all species, according to the Director of Wildlife Restoration, Game and Fish Commission. Good rains and excellent vegetative growth following the dry years are responsible.

"There has been plenty of food and cover for nearly all of our wildlife," said the director. The cycle that followed has brought on an increase in population of all animals, small and large.

The small species such as the birds, rabbits, rats and mice, found enough food and cover present to take care of larger families. So, they had larger families. This increase in small animal populations encouraged an increase in the larger animal populations such as the mountain lions, which prey on the smaller species.

"There will be more bobcats in the brushland this year than in any year since the drought period," said the director. "It's a natural trend under such ideal conditions. This is the year when some animal populations will reach their peak."

One indication that animals naturally produce larger litters when conditions are good, is the recent discovery of a bobcat with five unborn kittens. Just three days after this find, the same trapper killed another cat. This one would have given birth to seven bobkittens, had it been spared. The average litter for this animal is two or three.

Governor urges new safety laws

AUSTIN—Governor Price Daniel told county and district attorneys attending Attorney General Will Wilson's annual law enforcement conference in Austin this week that unless drastic measures were taken, the Texas highway death toll for 1959 could reach a new high.

Asserting that the Texas Legislature has "a golden opportunity" to pass traffic safety and general law enforcement legislation of top-ranking importance, the Governor revealed that the 1959 highway death toll is already 13 per cent higher than for the same period last year.

"With your help and the help of all Texas law enforcement officers, our citizens and organizations, we saved 197 lives in Texas last year," Governor Daniel stated. "If our efforts had been slackened then our reduced death toll would have been about four per cent, as it was all over the nation, instead of eight per cent. We have seen what we can do when we all get together in a statewide crusade and campaign with the determination to stop this slaughter. This year, we must do even more."

Red Raider Relays set for Saturday on Tech's track

LUBBOCK — The Red Raider Relays, primarily a meeting of track and field performers, will include some of the nation's best collegiate men here Saturday.

Biggest name will be Texas Tech's W. L. (Dub) Thornton of Aspermont, whose winning jump at the Drake Relays of 6-9 is the nation's second best. McMurry's Bruce Land of Hawley was clocked in the 100-yard dash last week in 9.4 seconds, a time bettered by only two others this year. Hardin-Simmons' chief blue ribbon entry is Russ Seitzinger of Pittsburg, Pa., whose discus throw of 162-6 3/4 ranks ninth nationally. In practice last week Seitzinger threw the discus 170 feet, which would be fourth nationally.

Entered in the college division will be Tech, Hardin - Simmons, McMurry and West Texas State.

Most interest will be in the high school division, where Andrews' national record. State qualifiers in all five conferences are eligible for the Relays, conducted by the Lubbock Recreation Department on the Texas Tech track.

Texas Tech's tennis players will be hosts to the current Southwest Conference champions, the Rice Owls, and the baseballers will entertain Midwestern University.

Post High Highlights

By KIM PIERCE and MARGIE CASTEEL

MARGIE KIM

The students of P. H. S. suffered through a morning of Achievement Tests last Thursday. But it was certainly a relief to get those things over with.

Charles Morris is sporting a new '59 flame red Impala around town. It seems as though some people have all the luck.

Just 15 days of school left for the seniors. Are they ever happy! They even have the number of hours, minutes and seconds counted.

The seniors will leave on their Senior Trip May 6 at 6 o'clock that morning. They are planning to go to Colorado Springs, Colo., with a side trip to Denver. They are really excited about it.

The senior graduation announcements came in last week sometime and — just remember kids, the sooner you get them mailed the quicker they will be answered.

Alice Joy Nichols and Linda Kaykendall left on the 2:30 o'clock bus Thursday afternoon to go to the state F. H. A. meeting in Dallas. They plan to return over the weekend. Both are officers of the F. H. A. here in Post.

Antelopes blanked in regional meet

Coach Frank Krhut's "orphan" high school Antelope tracksters — they have no track to practice on — failed to score a point in the regional meet at Lubbock Saturday to wind up their spring cinder season.

Sprinter Curtis Didway was leading in his heat of the century dash at the 60 yard mark when he pulled up lame due to a charley horse. He had to be scratched from the 220 sprint as well.

The 440 yard relay team which had figured to score some points finished out of the money after some bad luck on the handoffs.

Wayne Hair, the miler couldn't compete because of injuries suffered in a Sunday truck accident.

Kids, now is your chance to voice your opinion of the high school library. Simply write down your likes and dislikes and give it to any member of the Library Club and it will be printed in The Post Dispatch the following week.

Be sure to read the POST HIGH HILITES next week. It will be devoted to the "Senior Graduating Class" of '59. We will find what all the kids plan to do after receiving those "long-awaited" diplomas, and lots of other things.

Junior Set

By CHRISTINE CORNISH

I forgot to mention last week that Carol Camp also went to see Li'l Abner along with the three girls I mentioned last week. You see—I forgot that the 5th grade was in junior high—that's why I didn't put it in! Am I forgiven Carol!

About 15 students went up to Lubbock Saturday at 1:30 to see the engineering show being held there. These students were under the supervision of Mrs. Wristen, Mr. Meisch and Mr. Bennett. The group arrived back in Post at 8:15. Everyone who went said they had a wonderful time and the show was real interesting and lots of fun.

Banana nut and strawberry were the two yummy flavors of ice cream served last Friday at 8c's ice cream party. The party was held over at the school lunchroom. 8c won the party by selling, as a class, the most magazines. The party was real nice (so was the ice cream).

Mr. Hahn will pick a girls softball team around Thursday and these girls will go to the District Softball Meet held May 2 at Floydada. Good luck for both the team and the championship, girls!

Edward Tackett, Pam McCrary, and Jan Herring, junior high's three members in the high school choir (of which we are real proud) went on a tour Wednesday with the rest of the choir. The choir under supervision of Mr. Willson, toured Rails, Crosbyton and Lorenzo. Everyone had a real nice time.

Dennis Suttler, Donnie Hair, Tommy Rinker, Finnis Corley, Johnny Smith, Laylan Bratcher, Curtis Hudman, Lewis Herron, Ernest Cole, Lee Horton, Richard Wilson, Michael Mathews, Rickey Little, Iky Hare, John Suttler, Charles Bassett, Niel Driver, Charles Brannon, David Johnson, Raymond Shaw, Jackie Beavers, Jesse Partlow, Charles Landroop, and Ricky Welch were the boys who were dismissed at 11:30 so they could give the program at Rotary Tuesday. I hear the program was pretty good, boys!

GI insurance savings offered

Savings of up to two-thirds in the cost of their GI insurance are being offered by mail to all veterans whose insurance number is preceded by the letters "RS," the Veterans Administration said today.

All of these veterans, who for the most part fall in the Korean and post-Korean conflict period, now have a chance to exchange their present 5-year term policies for 5-year term policies at lower premium cost, due to the improved mortality tables resulting from modern medical advance.

The new policy, however, must eventually be converted to a permanent plan of insurance since it cannot be renewed by the insured past age 30.

To save confusion, VA also pointed out, if you don't get a letter with the application form, don't worry. That will mean you do not have "RS" type insurance and are not eligible for this exchange.

A word of caution, even if you return the enclosed application, continue to pay your premiums at the old rate until the VA notifies you the new type policy is in effect. Any overpayment will be credited to your account.

Santa Fe's net up for quarter

TOPEKA, Kan. — Santa Fe Railway netted an estimated $12.1 million the first three months of 1959 compared with $7.3 million the first quarter of 1958. President Ernest S. Marsh reported at the road's 64th annual stockholder meeting held here today.

In citing estimated total revenues of $148.8 million for the first three months of 1959, an increase of 15 percent over the first quarter of 1958, Marsh cautioned against using that figure as a guide for the whole year, stating, "We were experiencing rather slim traffic last year but it is interesting to note that the first quarter 1959 revenues will also exceed those for a comparable period of 1957 by approximately 3 percent."

Marsh said the road's gross capital expenditures for 1959 should be about $55 million as compared with $35 million in 1958. He pointed to appropriation of funds covering a program for 69 new Diesel units, 2,406 additional new freight cars and 25 new baggage cars.

In discussing the national freight car supply about which there has been some recent concern, Marsh said that in the past 11 years Santa Fe ownership of box and covered hopper cars has increased almost 25 percent. Repair forces have been increased this year to keep the number of unserviceable cars at a minimum figure.
