

$710,000 school bond election called for April 4

Union Good Friday program included

Easter services slated by churches of Post

By ORABETH WHITE
Special Easter services, high-graded by the Post Ministerial Alliance's Good Friday service, are being observed this morning by the city's churches. The Good Friday service, being sponsored by the ministerial alliance this year instead of the usual Easter sunrise service, is to be held at 7:30 p. m. at the Calvary Baptist Church, corner of Sixth Street and Avenue H.

The Rev. Cecil Stowe, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, will deliver the Good Friday message, "What Value Do You Place on Christ?"

MUSIC WILL BE under the direction of Bob Meisch, with an organ prelude opening the program. The Rev. Graydon Howell, host pastor, will make the call to worship and invocation, followed by the hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross." Following responsive reading of the scripture, the Rev. Almon Martin, pastor of the First Christian Church, will lead a prayer.

The Rev. Mr. Stowe's message will follow special music. After the message, the hymn, "Near the Cross," will be sung. Benediction will be by the Rev. C. B. Hogue, pastor of the First Baptist Church, with the postlude to follow.

Project is revived on mail delivery

Patrons can expect to qualify for mail delivery and parcel delivery by truck if enough Post citizens express their interest in the project.

Questionnaires will be available at the postoffice beginning Saturday for mail patrons to express their preference for or against city mail service.

Postmaster Harold Voss said the questionnaires would be available for ten days or two weeks. Patrons will be asked to indicate if they favor mail delivery and whether or not they would use it.

R. H. Dawson, postal inspector from Lubbock, was here Wednesday to begin his investigation of the proposal to bring city mail delivery here.

He told The Dispatch that an expression of interest in such service would be needed from at least 60 per cent of mail patrons living within the mail delivery area.

"City mail service," Dawson explains, "is expensive and the department does not want to inaugurate it unless the people want the service and will use it."

Lack of patron interest two years ago blocked the last efforts made to obtain city delivery here. Postmaster Voss said yesterday he thinks from inquiries received at the post office for such delivery that the community is now ready for such service.

To qualify for city mail delivery, requirements include (1) all-mail delivery—(See Page 8)

Barbara Mills is champion speller

Barbara Mills, 13-year-old Post graduate student, won the seventh annual Garza County Spelling Contest Friday by correctly spelling "imaginary" after runner-up Ward had misspelled it.

The first place was won by Linda Auburn of Close City. The other competitor was Shirley Postick, also of Close City.

The first, second and third place winners were presented checks of $10, $5 and $3 by the Post Chamber of Commerce with Mrs. Dixie Lucas, Chamber secretary, making presentation.

Barbara, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mills, will represent the county in the regional spelling contest at Lubbock on Saturday. (MAIL DELIVERY—See Page 8)

Regional contest in Littlefield

Choir is sweepstakes winner

Post High School choir won special sweepstakes award at regional interscholastic league contest in Littlefield Saturday by winning superior ratings in conducting and sight reading.

In addition, choir students won superior medals and one excellent for what is believed to be the best showing ever made by a high school vocal group.

"Today was our day," beam-leader Georgie M. Willson, conductor, said. "We were outstanding in the solo, ensemble and choir contests were rated superior, excellent, good, fair or poor by the judges."

In addition to the choir, superior ratings were received by the girls sextet of Kay Martin, Alice Joy Nichols, Karen Potts, Sharon Jobe, Janene Haynie and Peggy Butler, and by the boys quartet of Leslie Acker, Lee Williams, Edward Tackett and Clarence Ivie.

Superior ratings also went to the following soloists: Leslie Acker, baritone; Lee Williams, baritone; Peggy Butler, soprano; Clarky Cowdrey, bass; Jimmy Short, tenor, and Don Davies, piano.

Edward Tackett, tenor, received an excellent rating.

Judges for the event were Dr. Houston Bright, West Texas State College, Canyon; Leon F. Brown, North Texas State College, Denton; David Scott, Eastern New Mexico University, Portales; Robert Mincer, Midland Public Schools; Robert Clinton, Snyder Public Schools; Cloys Webb, Perryton Public Schools, and Richard Sligard, El Paso Public Schools.

The $710,000 school expansion program goes to the voters for a bond decision Saturday, April 4, with The Dispatch solidly behind school district trustees in their solution to the school district's growing classroom shortage. In a concise full-page statement on page 11 the trustees explain what their plans are and the reasons for the expansion program. Don't miss reading it—and studying it.

We've been told no bond issue ever offered Post voters has been defeated. But that doesn't mean that the proposed school expansion can't be dealt a jolting setback at the polls Saturday, April 4. It can if the folks who want good schools in Post stay home from the polls. One thing about bond elections—you don't have to encourage the people who oppose bond issue to vote. But it is necessary to push those favoring bond issues to go to the polls. A close vote on this one is predicted.

Post citizens have some more deciding to do, too. We can have city mail delivery and parcel delivery if we want it. But we have to make those desires known. Mail patrons, beginning Saturday, will be asked to sign a three-question questionnaire as to whether we want city mail delivery and will use it. Two years ago lack of interest killed the project. It's coming up again for the third time. We urge you to get your questionnaire and express your opinion. Post needs city mail delivery and it can easily qualify for it if we will only show we want it.

We were very pleased with the interest shown by the youngsters in The Dispatch's Easter Coloring Contest and we appreciate Tower Theater Manager Johnny Hopkins' generous offer of a free movie ticket to each youngster who participated in the contest whether at his or her entry won or not.

Clint Herring had quite an "experience" in his front store window last Friday night when the 65 mile an hour winds hit town. Clint was working in the store when he heard a loud noise from the east window. Thinking the window

Dust 'blows' continue here

Blowing dust fogged over Post and the rest of the South Plains yesterday, with 1959 well on its way toward the dubious distinction of being one of the dustiest years in the last decade.

Wednesday's dust storm was mild, however, compared to last Friday's when gusts of wind ranged from 50 to 75 miles an hour early that night.

Lights were out for an hour or two in section of the northwest part of town and the east part. Ted R. Hibbs, Southwestern Public Service Co. manager here, blamed the power failure on lines being blown together.

There was also some wind damage. A large sign was blown down at Ila's Snack Bar at the southwest corner of Main and Broadway and for a time plate glass windows were endangered in downtown Post. A window at Herrington out after a support snapped.

Alleged beating, robbery probed

An investigation into the beating and robbing Saturday night of Homer Eubanks, a Spur carpenter, is being conducted this week by the sheriff's department.

Sheriff Carl Rains said the Spur man, who was not seriously injured, said he was beaten, robbed of about $30 and thrown out of an automobile at Red Mud Creek, about 10 miles this side of Spur.

The sheriff said the alleged attack and robbery occurred after Eubanks had gotten into a car here with two men and a woman. The sheriff said Eubanks told him Tuesday that he did not know the names of his assailant.

Sheriff Rains said he learned of the attack from another person, whom he declined to identify.

Eubanks is employed by I. D. King, Spur contractor, who has been doing carpentry work in Post, the sheriff said.

Becomes effective Monday

Wages increased for 500 Postex employes

The Postex Cotton Mills today announced a wage increase for all its more than 500 employes. The boost will become effective Monday, March 30.

The big local industry did not reveal details or size of the pay hike.

Last wage increase at Postex came less than two years ago in mid-1957.

In an announcement of the increase, on page 15 of today's Dispatch, Postex points out that

Post girl, Kress boy take top prizes

Coloring winners are named

Wayne Schmedt and Terry Power are the first place winners in The Post Dispatch's first annual Easter Coloring Contest.

Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Schmedt, former Post resident, now lives at Kress, Tex. Wayne's prize is a pom-pom gun (motorized twin guns with remote control) as the winner in the 7 years old and under division. He is 7.

Terry Power, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Power, will receive a Whimpy Hounddog as first prize in the higher age division, from 8 through 12. Terry is 10.

A total of 63 entries were received in the coloring contest from youngsters who colored all ten pictures printed in the March 12 edition of The Dispatch. The youngest entry was Stevie

Cooper, a three-year-old, and the entry coming the longest distance was from Linda Ammons who lives on Route 1 at Springfield, Va. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Ammons.

The most unusual contest entry came from Diane Kiker, 12, who had her ten colored pictures mounted on a "bunny train" of white cardboard.

The 14 other prize winners in the two age divisions are as follows:

Age 7 and Under Division:
Second, Jan Olson, 6, who wins a Bat-a-Ball game.
Third, Timmons Bull, 6, who wins a pair of beginners' skates.
Fourth, Nancy Norman, 6, of Route 3, two passes to Tower Theatre.
Fifth, Jackie Gordon, 7, two passes to Tower Theatre.

A proposed $710,000 school expansion— including a new high school—will go to voters for decision Saturday, April 4.

Chamber Support

The Post Chamber of Commerce membership is almost 100 per cent in support of the $710,000 school expansion bond issue, Harold Lucas, Chamber president, said today.

Lucas said the Chamber office polled as many members in the last two days as it could reach and found a very high majority of those contacted favoring passage of the bonds at the April 4 bond election.

animously to call the special bond election April 4 in conjunction with school district voting for trustee positions.

The $710,000 expansion figure was decided upon by trustees two weeks ago as the amount to seek in the bond issue.

CALLING THE bond election climaxes three years of work by trustees on the expansion program.

The $710,000 bond issue would be for the following school expansion projects and their estimated costs:

New High School	$450,000
Remodeling Present High School	$138,000
Architects' Fee	$29,000
Equipment	$40,000
Building Site	$18,000

Bids being taken on new building

Bids on construction of a resident highway engineer building and laboratory building here will be accepted until 2 p. m. April 10 in the office of the state highway engineer at Austin.

The resident highway engineer's office has been housed in the Medical & Professional Building here since shortly after its establishment in Post more than two years ago.

Earlier bids on construction of a building here were rejected a few months ago, according to Julian F. Smith, resident highway engineer.

Site of the new building is to be between the state highway maintenance building and the new highway procurement warehouse, just south of town on the Snyder highway. The building plans call for a concrete tile structure of 1,750 square feet, with wood frame and plaster partitions, concrete floor and built-up roof.

The resident highway engineer said a landscaping project is progressing on the grounds of the maintenance building and warehouse, with about $2,000 worth of shrubbery and grass being set out.

Permit for building

Curtis Davies has been issued a city building permit for addition of an 8 by 12-foot porch room to his home at 114 North Avenue R at an estimated cost of $1,600. The permit brings the year's construction total here to $159,625 since Jan. 1.

Trash problem grows more acute

It's a trashy mess, but it isn't just one business man's problem. It's a problem for the entire business district.

What's more, trash is not only a problem for Post's business district. It's a community problem. Post is a trashy town — and knows it. We don't want other people — outsiders — pointing it out, but we know our shortcomings.

It's an axiom in this business that a picture is worth 10,000 words. That makes this a long editorial.

Post's problem with trash is that although last year the town paid approximately one-third of all its tax money for garbage collection, the $13,000 simply wasn't enough to do the job half-way adequately.

The city's garbage truck and crew hasn't the time to pick up all the trash regularly in the residential areas and a twice-a-week service to the business district isn't enough to keep the winds from blowing the trash all over Main Street.

Post has no garbage or trash ordinance. Therefore there are no regulations on trash. Most folks simply put a match to trash when the garbage cans are full in the alley to make room for more. So trash burning has become an accepted practice out of necessity.

The city council is well aware of the problem.

It's a problem growing steadily more acute as the town grows larger. It's a problem which needs solving — even when that solving means paying a bigger garbage bill.

The folks at city hall believe the problem can be solved by buying a second packer garbage truck and putting on a second collection crew. The new truck and crew could be assigned fulltime work in the residential areas. They should be able, that way, to make collections at least once a week. The present truck and crew could be put onto a regular business district run—where the trash accumulation is heaviest.

How to pay the bill? The obvious answer, is to levy a trash and garbage collection charge each month. It would be another utility bill for a service rendered.

Garbage collection is too big a load to be paid for out of the city's general fund. A third of the general fund goes for that today and the service falls far short of the need.

If garbage collection is charged as a monthly utility bill, as many towns do, the city also needs an ordinance setting up trash requirements to protect the town from the slovenly householder or business firm.

Most people, we believe, would be glad to pay for efficient garbage pickup just as they pay for their electric, gas and water bills.

Getting rid of our trash will make Post a cleaner, prettier, healthier and safer town.—JC

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

WE'RE CONTINUING to make progress in many ways, but we're "losing ground" in these sandstorms.

Easter, like track meets, shouldn't come this early in the year in West Texas. It's something, however, that West Texans have nothing to do about, and all we can do is just hope for pretty weather.

THIS EASTER Sunday, March 29, is the earliest it has been since 1951 when it fell on March 25. The earliest Easter date this century was in 1913 when it was on March 23, which, incidentally is as early as Easter can come. It will be 49 years from now—in 2008—before Easter falls that early again.

April 25 is as late as Easter Sunday can fall, and it came on that date in 1943, but won't do so again until the year 2038.

IF YOU'RE interested in how the date of Easter Sunday is decided, it was in 125 A. D. that church officials gathered and decreed that Easter shall be on the first Sunday following the Paschal Full Moon which happens upon or next after the 21st of March. The date of Easter thus may vary between March 22 and April 25 over a period of 35 days.

Because of this wide fluctuation, the British Parliament in 1928 passed a provisional statute with the purpose of bringing Easter within the "orderly scope of a solar measurement of time," determining provisionally that it should be "the first Sunday after the second Saturday in April." This would reduce the range of variation less than a week. But the change was to await international consent and that so far has not been obtained.

OUR FRIEND up the street says most of us are broad-minded enough to admit that there are two sides to every question—our own side and the side that no intelligent, informed, sane and self-respecting citizen could possibly hold.

We sat in on another Garza County Spelling Bee last Friday afternoon and heard the pronouncer, Mr. Phil Bouchier, call out words from the official spelling bee book for 45 minutes before a county champion was finally decided. She is 13-year-old Barbara Mills, an eighth grade student in Post Junior High School.

THIS IS THE seventh year of the spelling bee, and again this year we're looking for the Garza County champ to come through as winner in the regional bee at Lubbock. One of these years we're going to make it, and Babs might be the one to do it. She is a good speller.

There were only four contestants in this year's county spelling bee, the fewest to participate in the seven-year history of the event. All four were girls—two from Post Junior High and two from Close City. It was the first year for Justiceburg not to have an entrant after having furnished the winner, Sharon Blackwell, year before last.

WE'VE BEEN asked by a number of people how it feels to be the father of the "Mr. X" of Radio Station KPOS. Our answer is that it is the first time we've ever been the father of a cool one thousand dollars in cash, although "Mr. X" and his older brother and sister always have been and always will be worth many, many times that much to us and our better half.

Of course, the monetary value of "Mr. X" had dwindled to $100 by the time Norma Julian, junior high school student guessed his identity. But, for a few weeks we were living pretty close to a cool thousand in cash without ever suspecting it for a moment.

IF YOU'RE planning to be out of town on the date of either or both of the upcoming elections—school trustee April 4 and municipal April 17 — be sure to cast an absentee vote.

Parting Thought: Living in this world is twice as expensive as it was 10 years ago, but it's four times as exciting.

Will futility defeat law enforcement?

The proposition of whether Post citizens now want a uniformed police department and are willing to pay for it will be put to a "straw vote" at the municipal election April 7.

The Dispatch is convinced the community needs to expand its law enforcement arm and sharpen it. We think it is a matter of looking to the future — and the growth of the town — and not one of looking at the past.

Certainly Post badly needs two law enforcement items: (1) Nighttime law enforcement out patrolling the city and (2) a communications system whereby "the law" can be quickly reached by any citizen.

Actually it could have both of these today at little additional cost — if cost is the key to the future of local law enforcement and cost appears to be at least one of the basic issues.

Its one-man police force could be assigned to night duty and a night-time radio operator could be employed by the city and county jointly to maintain a communications system to the officer.

Actually Post today has law enforcement daytime only except when sheriff's officers or the city marshal work extra hours at night on some particular case or investigation.

But Post needs additional law enforcement officers or the sheriff's department needs to be "beefed up".

The Dispatch is not inclined to back away from this issue. We want law and order here because we think it is important. We have tried to keep this newspaper's desires and its suggestions on a constructive plane and have tried to eliminate what is so often called "personalities" in local politics. We could of course have spelled out the need in much plainer language, but that to our thinking would not have helped.

We disagree with those who contend that in standing for law enforcement we are doing this community disservice. We like community unity. But we think the basic American right of standing for what we believe is more important.

Today the law enforcement question in this community is all but dead as far as community interest is concerned. The people to whom we talk appear to think it is futile to try to secure the law enforcement they know we need. The citizens committee formed by church pastors with church lay leaders has literally talked itself to death on the subject without further action after meeting with the city council and county commissioners' court. Main Street business men who only a few short months ago in desperation were together paying some $300 to $600 monthly for a night watchman today have the same futile feeling, and are saying little.

Some even say it is futile to vote for a police department because more officers do not necessarily mean more enforcement unless the city council wants a law enforcement crackdown. These say it means only more taxes without additional benefits so they will vote "no".

Figures on the cost of police departments in other towns jangle the taxpayers' nerves.

We do not share the consternation of others. We are not going to have law enforcement in Post just because this newspaper or others want it. But we will have it when the people want it—and are willing to go to the polls and vote for it.

You can vote it down April 7, or you can stay away from the polls, shrug your shoulders in futility and not vote. That will maintain the status quo. Your alternative is your American right to express your desires with a ballot. If you do want the law enforcement problem solved you can go to the polls and vote FOR a police department.

The Dispatch may win no popularity contest with its present stand — and certainly hasn't in some quarters — but win or lose April 7, this newspaper will continue to stand for what we believe to be in the best interests of our community—and for one thing, that will be improved law enforcement.—JC

Rattlesnake warnings are issued

Being bitten by a rattlesnake is about the last thing we'd want to happen to one of our readers. Therefore, we're joining the executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission in a warning that this is the time of year when poisonous reptiles, such as the very unpopular but well known rattlesnake, are coming out.

As the weather begins getting warmer, the rattlers will begin leaving their dens to slip through the brushlands or just lie behind rocks and drowse in the sun.

Proof enough that there will be plenty of snakes in these parts when warm weather comes is the large catches made recently at Sweetwater in a "rattlesnake round-up." Some 3,000 to 6,000 rattlers were captured during a two-day snake hunt held in that ranching area.

One rattlesnake is one too many. Last year, they were more plentiful than they had been in years, particularly in the Justiceburg area, where several cases of snake bite were reported. If the rattlers are any thicker this year, then people on outings or those working in snake-infested areas would do well to keep an eye peeled. These killers usually hide in places where you'd least expect them to be.—CD

Stockholder meeting set by Lubbock PCA

The Lubbock Production Credit Association will hold its 25th Anniversary Stockholders Meeting at the Fair Park Coliseum, in Lubbock, beginning at 9:30 a. m. Thursday, April 2, E. R. Davis, president, has announced.

Registration will begin at 9 a. m. and entertainment, furnished by Lubbock's Monterey High School Chorus will start at 9:30, with the business session getting under way promptly at 10:30.

"More than 1,500 stockholders and guests are expected to attend the 25th Anniversary meeting," Davis said.

According to Secretary-Treasurer, Alton Strickland, the association has more than 1,300 stockholders who own more than $1,500,000.00 in capital and reserves in the association. Strickland also said that the association had its largest total loan volume in 1958, loaning more than $9,600,000 to farmers and ranchers in Cochran, Crosby, Garza, Gaines, Hockley, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum counties.

MASTER OF ceremonies for the meeting will be H. H. Farrar who farms in the Brownfield area. The meeting will be opened by invocation by J. Wayland Edwards, pastor of Southcrest Baptist Church of Lubbock and the welcome address will be given by Lubbock Chamber of Commerce president, present business matters will be W. D. "Dub" Rodgers. Past and given by Director Cleve Littlepage of Tahoka, who will give the directors' report, and C. E. Hicks, vice president, of Meadow, who will give a report on the capital structure of the association.

Guest speaker for the meeting will be Dr. Vergil P. Lee of Houston. Dr. Lee was instrumental in organizing the Production Credit System in the state of Texas and served as president of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston from 1937 until retirement in 1956. Prior to 1937 he was vice-president of the Corporation for several years and former head of the Department of Agricultural Economics of Texas A&M College. Dr. Lee is credited with having had more to do with the progress of the Production Credit System in Texas than any other man.

THOMAS V. Merrell, secretary of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston will give a report on the activities of the Credit Bank. "The Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston is the associations' discount agent and has made more than $4,600,000 available to the farmers and ranchers of the nine-county area through our local association since it began operation in 1934," Strickland said.

Chairman of the nominating committee, Clint Walker of Tahoka will give the report of the nominating committee. Following the report by Walker will be the election of one director to fill the expiring term of Vice President C. E. Hicks of Meadow. Following the election of the director, the 1959 nominating committee will be elected by the members. Other members of the 1959 nominating committee included Reed L. Moore of Ralls; Leon L. Foote, Brownfield, and Gordon McMillan, Levelland.

Following the adjournment of the meeting at 12:30, a fried chicken dinner will be served in the coliseum to members and guests.

Other officers of the association not mentioned above are E. L. Carlisle, director from Ralls, and A. B. Roberts, director from Levelland.

Adequate diet and family budget present problem for homemaker

By JESSIE PEARCE

Feeding the family an adequate diet and keeping the cost within the family budget is a problem that is present with every homemaker every day. It is a big job and one that a homemaker never learns all she needs to know about nutrition, food preparation, and prices to determine the most economical foods that meet the preparation time available.

A list of the plentiful foods as released by the Department of Agriculture is a help in determining the lowest cost food items. This information is only a general help, as all of the items listed may not be in plentiful supply in all areas, and thus not an economical buy in all areas, as the supply and demand determine the price of most food items.

On the March plentiful supply list are: large eggs, chickens, pork, lamb, milk and other dairy products, peanuts and peanut butter.

The homemaker can use this list to help make her shopping list, keeping in mind always the foods that her family need every day for good nutrition. Each person needs every day: milk, an egg, a serving of meat, 3 vegetables, (one green or yellow, sweet or Irish potatoes, and one other vegetable), 2 servings of fruit, (one citrus fruit and one other fruit), a serving of whole grain products, other enriched cereals, margarine or butter, some sweets, and 6 to 8 glasses of water.

The nutritive value of any food may be lost by improper preparation. Vegetable preparation is one where improper practices are often used. Here are some pointers in preparing vegetables: 1. Use fresh, crisp vegetables; 2. Cook in as little water as possible; 3. Cook vegetables in their skins whenever possible; 4. Cook only until tender—don't overcook; 5. Cook most green and all yellow vegetables in a covered pan; 6. Never use soda in cooking vegetables—it destroys part of the food value; 7. Serve vegetables as soon as possible after cooking—the longer they are

Auto inspection deadline date is drawing near

Only 45 per cent of the vehicles registered in Region 5 of the Texas Department of Public Safety have been safety inspected for 1959, according to Capt. Alan Johnson, motor vehicle inspection supervisor in this region.

With less than one month separating them from the April 15 deadline, 236,679 motorists of the 60-county region still have not obtained their stickers which have been available at inspection stations for several months.

"This number includes approximately 2,514 vehicles in Garza County, where there are five inspection stations to do the work," said Captain Johnson.

He added: "Many motorists are going to find long lines awaiting them as the deadline rolls nearer, as the inspection stations will not be able to cope with the usual last minute rush."

"It is as much a violation to display an old sticker as not to have one at all," he continued. Captain Johnson pointed out that the law provides a fine of from $1 to $200 plus court costs for operating a vehicle registered in Texas without the current inspection sticker.

Nation's riding groups to convene in Rotan

ROTAN — The annual spring meeting of the American Association of Sheriff Poses and Riding Clubs will be held here April 24-26 with the Fisher County Sheriff's Posse as host.

From 800 to 1,000 members are expected, many of them from out of state. Delegations in Florida and New York have already called for reservations.

exposed to heat and air, the more vitamin C they will lose; 8. If there is water left in the pan when the vegetables are cooked, use it in gravy or soup, never throw it down the drain. Also never throw the liquid from canned vegetables down the drain. Evaporate it down in an open pan, then add the vegetable and heat.

Bible Thoughts "BEGINNING AGAIN"

by RONNIE PARKER

A Poet has given us these lines.

I wish there were some wonderful place
Called the Land of Beginning Again,
Where all our mistakes and all our heartaches,
And all our selfish grief
Could be dropped like a shabby coat at the door
And never put on again.

There is a land of beginning again. A Christian is a baptized believer raised to walk in NEWNESS of life. (Rom. 6:3-4) Jesus calls it being BORN AGAIN. (Jn. 3:5) Paul says "all things have become new". (II Cor. 5:17). A New name (Acts 11:26); new speech (Col. 4:6); a New way of life. The born again Christian has new attitudes toward his neighbor, a new spirit toward his enemy, new business and social role, a new way to spend the Lord's day, and a new way to use his money.

Will you obey Jesus? Will you begin again? The Christian has hope because of his wonderful life. Do you?

Let's talk straight about releasing an unplanted cotton allotment . . . you don't have to do it, but you should . . . every acre allotted for the purpose should be planted to cotton . . . you can release your unplanted allotment to the ASC committee without hurting your "history" and some other farmer will benefit . . . or you can just forget about it, and cotton as an industry will be struck another blow . . . one thing though: If you have released your allotment for the past two years, or if you don't plan to plant your allotment next year, it might be wise to retain a small part, say an acre . . . then there will be no possibility of missing out on your share of acres a couple of years from now . . . the date by which you can release your allotment varies with each section, but you can check with your ASC committee who have all the answers, but do it soon! . . . If you want some additional acres for cotton write to your ASC county committee as soon as you can . . . tell them how much increase you will use . . . you may get it and at least it will stir up interest in turning in unused acreage.

New High

A new world record in cotton production . . . estimates put 1958-59 cotton at 44 million bales . . . up a half million from the record crop of 1955-56 . . . this puts world average yield at over half a bale per acre.

Less Competition

Looks like the low support price of U. S. cotton and the export subsidy that make U. S. cotton competitive are going to hit production in foreign countries . . . Mexico for certain . . . maybe Egypt also . . . some foreign farmers are in financial trouble from last crop's low-priced cotton.

Supports

Extra long staple will be supported at 65 per cent of parity of 52.91 cents . . . cottonseed supported at $38 per ton to producer . . . loan basis.

Better Check

Resale price of "A" cotton is 110 per cent support price of "B" cotton . . . not 71.5 per cent of parity . . . there's a difference . . . quite a difference in some grades and staples because of premiums and discounts.

Couple from Alaska tell students here of the new state

A-2c and Mrs. Bryan Morgan, who recently returned from Alaska, brought information about the 49th state to the 7B section of Texas Social Studies classes Friday. Mrs. Mary Lee Wristen, teacher of the class, invited them to speak.

Mrs. Morgan gave information concerning Anchorage as a city, annexation of zones to the city, population of the territory and public utilities companies.

A-2c Morgan told of many summer and winter sports such as tobogganing, skiing, ice skating, hockey, dog sledding, fishing, and hunting for moose and caribou.

They discussed transportation by land, sea and air and pointed out that Anchorage ranks third in U. S. air traffic.

Homesteading, types of people, such as Eskimos, Indians, Aleuts, mineral rights, incorporated towns, the Alaskan flag, and the possibilities in design of the new U. S. flag were of interest to the students.

Headlines and pictures showed the progress into statehood and the leaving behind of territorial days.

Take Your Family To Worship Easter at the Church of Your Choice

For Whom Toll The Bells?

The bells of the church steeple are an ancient part of Christian practice, but for whom do they ring? Is the worship of the church just for those who are members? Is it for only one segment of society or only one class? No, that can never be. So when you hear the bells ringing never wonder for whom they ring; they ring for you and for every person on this earth, calling us to worship the one true God who is Lord of all. The bells call all persons to come to the Lord that they may drink from the water of life which He alone gives and which, if a man drink, he will never thirst for salvation, for verily, his is the Kingdom of Heaven.

The bells of the church ring an invitation to you, "come, let us worship and bow down before the Lord our God."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond in that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Santa Fe Railway net income makes gain of 8.5 pct.

In the Santa Fe Railway System annual report just mailed to stockholders, it was announced by the President Ernest S. Marsh that net income for 1958 amounted to $67,235,272 compared with $61,941,791 in 1957, an increase of 8.5 per cent.

The 1958 net was equivalent to $2.51 per common share compared with $2.30 in 1957. As a partial reflection of the reduced economic activity in the recession year 1958, operating revenues totaled $595,289,055, representing a drop of 2.5 per cent from 1957.

Total freight carloads handled in 1958 declined 2.7 per cent under 1957, producing freight revenues of $509,932,185. Passenger traffic, which fell off markedly during the early months of the year showed some improvement as the year progressed.

Total passenger revenues of $39,490,072 were 5.6 per cent under 1957. Mail revenues showed an increase of 2.0 per cent, while express revenues declined 3.0 per cent.

"Increased business activity in Santa Fe territory, stimulated by the effect of record grain harvests, together with a general pick-up in freight revenues, contributed to the improvement in net earnings realized during the final months of the year," the report declares. It also points out that increased operating efficiency and control of expenses contributed to increased earnings.

Teachers re-elected

L. A. Garner and Stanley Nixon are among the classroom teachers re-elected for another year by the Crosbyton school board. Garner is a former high school science teacher here. Nixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Nixon, teachers in the Close City school, is a Post High School graduate. He began teaching in Crosbyton High School following his graduation from Howard Payne College, Brownwood.

Skip-row system is gaining favor

John W. Lynch South Plains farmer, has learned a few tricks which will be of interest to West Texas farmers—especially if they employ irrigation methods.

His system actually started because he observed a young Californian plant cotton.

Lynch wondered if it wouldn't cure the major problem on the Plains—list row furrows.

SO, LYNCH experimented for a couple of years until he worked out his present system of planting seed on top of the bed, skip-row fashion. One of his first problems was the uneven rows caused by using a three-row lister and 4-row planter. "I'd have two equal beds and one odd one on either side. Then I decided I'd make just as much by planting two rows and skipping one, by using only one section of the planter. I tried this for the first time on my 1957 cotton crop. I didn't have the right kind of equipment to do the job, so I just built it!"

The resulting all purpose plow built especially for the system is a multi-row sled, and sled units are suspended from a tool bar. Each sled covers one row and works independently. The sleds float freely, but spring tension holds them firmly to the ground.

THE UNIT CAN be used as lister, planter, or cultivator, (either sweeps or knives) and it can be used to bar off with 16 inch discs which are fully adjustable both vertically and laterally with accuracy and ease. Rotary hoes can also be attached and operated on the same tool bar castings as the RowMaster, which is the name Lynch has given his system.

Planter boxes mount on the sled unit, can plant on the bed or in the furrow. On lay-by cultivation, it can be adjusted to shape beds for most efficient stripping.

This skip-row system requires one-third less water, one-third less seed, and half the hoeing. Crops get more sunlight and air, which means, in the case of cotton: improved staple length, and quickened maturity. Lynch says since weak water is becoming a fact-

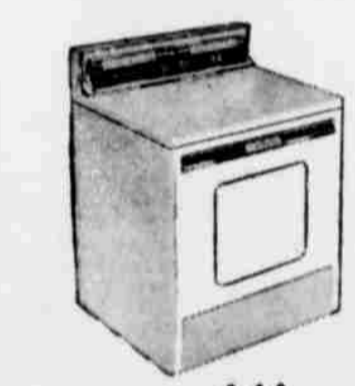

Dates set for Haskell Rodeo

HASKELL — The 1959 Rice Springs Roundup will be held May 14, 15 and 16, directors of the sponsoring Haskell County Sheriff's posse have announced.

Morris Stephens of Quitaque will furnish the rodeo stock again this year. Prize money amounting to more than $2,000 will be awarded in saddle and bareback bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping, ribbon roping, cowgirls' barrel race and cutting horse contests.

In addition to the rodeo event, a Quarter Horse show and Shetland Pony show will be held May 15 and 16 as added features of the rodeo.

Brahms and Brubeck... an unlikely combination? Not to the man who recognizes the "best of its kind," be it arpeggios or appliances. That's why he insisted on a new GAS Clothes Dryer for his wife. He sees the advantages of instant heat (turn it on and it's on), and no heat hang-over (gas off, heat's gone!). He's observed how gentle Gas heat blows moisture away instead of baking it out. Clothes come out fluffier, more wrinkle-free and easier to iron! They last longer, too. Yes, in every way—economy included—GAS gives you more. And where the finest is truly appreciated... (Continued From Front Page) glass had blown out, he ran to the front of the store to find that the metal support holding the two window panes in place had buckled by the wind and the big glass windows were virtually loose and ready to blow in.

School bond

(Continued From Front Page) ment of explanation about the bond issue. It also contains a drawing of what the proposed new high school would look like.

BRIEFLY, SCHOOL expansion plans call for remodeling of the present high school to be used as the junior high building.

The new high school building will take care of classroom needs at the high school level.

Only other expansion project planned at this time would be construction of new steel-supported football bleachers and a new field house to be used as dressing rooms for the football teams.

The trustees laid aside plans for a new gymnasium to be built in conjunction with the new high school and for a major expansion of the present school lunchroom in an effort to hold the size of the bond issue to bare essentials.

THE STATEMENT by the school board on page 11 concisely summarizes the expansion needs to be financed by the proposed $710,000 bond issue.

Financing the $710,000 bond issue and operation and maintenance of the new high school is planned through increasing the taxable valuation from 40 to 50 per cent of assessed full value.

It is believed the present tax rate of $1.30 can remain unchanged.

Lyby Metcalf, president of the First National Bank, which is the fiscal agent for the trustees for the bond issue, told Rotarians Tuesday that the school district now has a bonded indebtedness of $493,500 with a 2.6 per cent debt ratio to assessed valuation.

Passage of the $710,000 bond issue would raise the debt ratio to valuation to 6.11 per cent based on the 1958 valuation. He foresees a considerable increase in school district valuation next year.

METCALF SAID that the 6.11 per cent debt ratio after issuance of the $710,000 bond issue would be a "very good one" and "well below the average" of most school districts.

He pointed out that bonds from school districts with a debt ratio below 7 per cent are eligible for state purchase and this gives such bonds a better chance for lower interest rates in the bond market.

In answer to one question after his talk, Metcalf said that oil companies would pay 60 per cent of the cost of the school expansion program through taxes on oil properties in the school district.

SUPT R. T. Smith in reply to another question said the trustees have an option to purchase two blocks of property directly south of the present grade school as a site for the new high school. This property is owned by the Postex Mills.

He pointed out the need to maintain a comparatively compact school plant so that use could be made in different buildings of specialty teachers.

The new high school building would include 13 classrooms, library, homemaker department consisting of sewing lab, cooking lab and living room, a teachers' workroom, physics and chemistry lab, general science and biology lab, choral room, speech room, mechanical drawing room, woodwork shop, typing room, bookkeeping room, vocational agriculture shop and administrative offices consisting of a tax office, superintendent's office and principal's office.

REMODELING PLANS for the present high school building include dividing the high school auditorium into six additional classrooms with an assembly room upstairs, new restrooms, new floors, relighting an rewiring, new heating system, moving of partitions to make usable classrooms, re-pointing of masonry inside and out, repainting entire building, and new roof.

Architects estimate this will increase the life of the building 20 years.

Trustees emphasize that the $710,000 bond issue asked for is based on estimated costs of the various improvements.

Architects have based their estimates on a construction cost of about $10.50 per square foot.

If contract bid on a lower cost basis total cost of the expansion would be less.

TRUSTEES SAID Monday that even if the bond issue is approved, swelling enrollments probably will make it necessary for the next school year to secure either more temporary classrooms or to put the first grade on a half-day basis.

Enrollment now stands at an all-time high of 1,245 students with all classrooms in use. (Two temporary classrooms were built for the present school year in a "cottage" behind the high school building.)

New wildcat tests staked

Two new wildcat tests and a possible Spraberry discovery in the Red Loflin Strawn pool highlighted Garza's oil news this week.

General American Oil Co. of Texas is involved in all three.

Spraberry production is indicated one location south of a recent 10 1/2-mile southeast extension to the Loflin pool at General American Oil Company of Texas' No. 1-3 Koonsman, section 3, block 2 T&NO survey.

Two-hour drillstem test at 4,872 to 4,953 feet returned 3,550 feet of oil and 750 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud with no water. Subsequent four-hour test at 4,940 to 5,040 feet returned 1,300 feet of gas, 1,220 feet of salt water, 186 feet of oil and gas-cut salt water and 134 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud. The Spraberry was topped at 4,898 feet.

Drilling is continuing below 5,340 feet in lime on an 8,300 foot contract.

The two new General American wildcats include: No. 1-1 J. B. Slaughter Estate, 2005 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of J. K. Maxey 2, scrap file 5889, a 9,000-foot Ellenburger project four miles northwest of the Southwest Lazy JL Pennsylvania pool.

The second wildcat, an 8,500 Ellenburger test, is the No. 1-1 J. Slaughter, three-quarters of a mile east, southeast of the Southwest Lazy JL pool.

General American also spotted a five-eighths-mile southwest outpost to the Red Loflin Strawn and Ellenburger pool as the No. 1-21 Koonsman, 2,100 feet from north and 1,750 feet from east lines of section 21, block 2, T&NO survey, an 8,300 foot test.

Continental Oil Co. has completed a three-eighths-mile northwest extension and second Glorieta producer in the Three-Way multipay pool as the No. 3 Thuet, section 3, C. W. Post survey, scrap file 8370. It gauged 35 barrels of 38 gravity oil plus 60 per cent water daily on the pump through perforations at 4,092 to 4,093 feet after 550 gallons of acid.

Several of the different departments of the Church of the Nazarene are planning special Easter egg hunts for the groups this week with the kindergarden class meeting at the church at 11 o'clock Friday morning for an egg hunt.

Also, Friday at 11 o'clock, Mrs. Weldon Swanger is having an egg hunt for the primary group at her home. Friday afternoon, Mrs. Earl Rogers is planning an egg hunt for the Hi-NY group at her home at 5 o'clock. Mrs. W. R. Bennett was hostess for a weiner roast at 5 o'clock at her home for the junior and intermediate groups Wednesday afternoon.

The pastor of the Church of the Nazarene has announced his Sunday morning sermon message as "Do You Seek the Living Among the Dead" and Sunday night, "Christ Suffered and Entered Into His Glory."

SEVERAL OUT-of-state visitors are expected at the Easter services at the Church of God of Prophecy being the conclusion of the revival which has been conducted by an out-of-state evangelist, Mrs. Dean Silger, of Ada, Okla. Sunday afternoon, members of the church will go to a park near Snyder for an outing and Easter egg hunt.

The Rev. J. R. Brincefield invites the public to attend the Easter services at the Assembly of God Church. Special emphasis will be given on the subject of Easter and what it means to mankind for Christ to have been raised from the dead. The test which will be used for the message will be Matthew 28:6. "He is not here, for He is risen."

Tickets are issued on defective mufflers

Two city traffic tickets, both involving defective mufflers, have been issued—one by City Marshal Otis G. Shepherd Jr. and the other by Highway Patrolman E. B. McKnight.

The highway patrolman issued a ticket to John Leslie Guthrie, and the city marshal one to M. L. Palmer.

'Hungry' burglar raids drive-in

A burglar, who evidently was more hungry than in need of money, stole weiners, cheese, candy and chewing gum after breaking into the Post Drive-in, on the Snyder highway, Monday night.

O. E. Montgomery, proprietor of the drive-in, told City Marshal Otis G. Shepherd Jr. that the burglar did not take any money, although there were coins of small denominations in two jars. Neither was any attempt made to break into coin machines.

The burglar gained entrance by forcing the lock on a side door.

Dog ordinance is to be enforced

The City of Post's ordinance against stray dogs is to be strictly enforced, City Marshal Otis G. Shepherd Jr. said today.

To comply with the ordinance, dog owners are required to have their pets vaccinated against rabies and licensed, the marshal said.

Dogs will be vaccinated by the marshal for a fee of $2.25, after which licenses may be obtained at the city hall. The license fees are $2.50 for a female dog and $1 for a male dog.

The city marshal said he will start destroying stray dogs that have not been vaccinated and licensed.

Antelopes enter Crosbyton meet

Next competition for the Post antelope track team will be the Crosbyton Invitational Meet on Saturday, April 4, Coach Frank Krhut said today.

The Antelopes will compete in the meet's Class AA division, along with 13 other teams of that classification, the coach said. There are 14 teams entered in the Class AA division of the meet.

Within the next few days, Coach Krhut said, he will conduct a "small" track and field meet with the Bloomington High School track squad, which is coached by Leroy Westmeyer, former Post High School coach.

The coach said best times of the antelopes in track events and best places in field events will be achieved with the times and distances set by the Bloomington team to determine the winners. Krhut said he would have to take the Post team to some out-of-town track for their performances, because there is no track here.

At Odessa last Friday and Saturday, the Antelopes failed to place in staff competition, including

PT. RICHARD KING, DAN WAGGONER

Two persons from Texas voted into the Cowboy Hall of Fame

OKLAHOMA CITY — Texas is doubly honored by trustees of the National Cowboy Hall of Fame recently when two persons from that state were voted into the western shrine for which construction bids now are being made

Named as honoree on an "at large" basis after selection by a national committee of writers and historians, then voted upon by members from the 17 states, was Pt. Richard King, founder of King Ranch and of the breed improvements which in modern times led to the first new beef bred in America.

Filling the single space charged to Texas this year is Daniel Waggoner, who went into Wise county in its wilder days and built in a small start a tremendous empire that served as a base for all types of civic and beneficial activities.

Representing Texas at the national trustees meeting were M. G. Swenson, Stamford; Carter Jr., Fort Worth and Bert Kleberg, Kingsville. Swenson is a member of the executive committee for the group that includes the 17 historic western states. Construction of the first $1½ million unit of the eventual $5 million Hall of Fame and Museum began in a little more than 30 days after bids are checked.

The site is a 37-acre hill dominated area just east of Oklahoma on two major transcontinental ways. Oklahoma has contributed more than $750,000 toward the memorial and other states now engaged in membership funds or have planned organizations to do so.

Quarter memberships in the me-

Freshmen score 9 at Floydada

Post freshmen scored nine points Monday in the Floydada Lions Club invitational track meet.

Tommy Bouchier won a second in the 75-yard dash and a third in the 100-yard dash. Harold Wayne Mason was third in the shot put and Wayne McFadin picked up a fourth place in the broad jump.

The 440-yard relay team of Jerry Hill, Bouchier, Benny Schlehuber and Mason won fourth.

The freshmen will compete next Wednesday in an invitational meet at Idalou.

Antelope 8th graders fourth at Floydada

Post's 8th grade track team, coached by Lawrence Cook, scored 14 1-3 points to take fourth place Monday in an invitational junior high meet at Floydada.

The meet, sponsored by the Floydada Lions Club, was originally scheduled for Saturday, but was postponed because of bad weather.

One of the Post tracksters, Raymond Gonzales, missed by only one-half point being the meet's high point man.

Floydada and Lockney scored 21 1-3 points each to tie for the team championship. Olton was a close third with 21 points. Finishing behind Post were Spur, 5 points; Ralls, 3 points, and Crosbyton, 2 points.

Athletic banquet set for April 4

Polk Robison, Texas Tech basketball coach, will be guest speaker at the annual Post High School athletic banquet at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, April 4, in the school cafeteria. Coach Frank Krhut has announced.

Honor guests will be members of the football, basketball and track squads, girls basketball squad and their dates.

Youths score in cotton contest

Two Garza County 4-H Club members, J. W. Payton and Jerry Ligon, have received cash awards in the 1959 4-H Club Cotton Contest, sponsored by the Plains Co-op Oil Mill and Texas A&M College Extension Service.

Young Payton placed fifth in the irrigated division, for which he received $65. The Ligon youth was awarded $75 for placing fourth in the dryland division.

First place winners were Jimmy Martin of Hockley County in the irrigated division and Mary Beth Gardenhire of Lynn County in the dryland division.

The awards were presented at a luncheon Saturday in the oil mill banquet room at Lubbock.

LEAVE IS ENDED

Novis Furr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Furr, left Wednesday for Bremerton, Wash., after a 20-day leave in Post. In Washington he will be stationed aboard the USS Missouri. He has approximately nine more months to serve with the Navy.

RETURNS TO RHOME

Mrs. Rosa Idell, who has been visiting her son and daughter, Marvin Idell and Mrs. Dan Mitchell, was accompanied to her home in Rhome by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mitchell and son and Mrs. Dan Mitchell recently.

Point winners for Post were: Gonzales: 3rd 50-yard dash, 4th 100-yard dash, 3rd high jump, 2nd broad jump.

Andrew Askins: 2nd shot put. John Valdez: 4th high jump.

The 440-yard relay team of Gonzales, Valdez, Larry Guy and Filiberto Colazo finished second.

Coach Cook's boys will compete in an invitational meet at Idalou on Wednesday, April 1. The meet is for 7th, 8th and 9th grade track and field athletes.

Floyd on winning pro-am golf team

A. E. Floyd of Post was one of three amateur golfers teaming with Abilene pro Bobby Maxwell to win team honors Thursday in the pro-am at Lubbock Country Club with a 12-under-par 60.

Others teaming with Maxwell were C. A. Rodgers of Lubbock and R. B. Terrell of Lorenzo. Maxwell shot a 73 in leading the team to first place as the West Texas Professional Golf Association would up its annual two-day spring meeting.

D. H. Bartlett of Post was on a team led by pro Hart Warren, who fired a 70, as the foursome scored a 65. H. D. Hallman, Jimmy Hundley, Hub Haire and Punk Peel were others from here taking part in the pro-am event.

FENCERS GO TO ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Texas Tech athletes travel far afield in next few days

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech athletes will operate over a wide front extending eastward to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. Fencers, participating in the National Collegiate championships, travel the farthest. Due to graduation and ineligibility the fencers aren't expected to duplicate last year's finish, when they wound up 13th in the nation.

Golfers, hoping to follow up last week's championship at the West Texas Relays tournament, will run into tough competition at the Southwestern Intercollegiate in Houston Thursday through Saturday.

Texas Tech's track team will be represented by high jumper W. L. Thornton of Aspermont, pole vaulter James Leonard of Abilene, and possibly the mile relay team at the ABC Relays at Big Spring Saturday.

Tennis players will take part in another invitational tournament at Odessa College Saturday. The Red Raiders, who won an earlier meet at Odessa, will also play Texas Western in dual competition following the tournament.

Baseballers next play Midwestern at Wichita Falls April 3 and 4.

Texas Tech's freshman track team won a three-way meet at Lubbock, scoring 83 points to 29 for New Mexico Military, and 14 for Lubbock Christian College. The baseballers meanwhile suffered a double loss, 4-0 and 9-1 at the hands of University of Colorado.

Fence climbers head list of game arrests

AUSTIN — Trespassing continues the bane of game wardens. There were 59 persons arrested during February for trespassing on private property for their hunting, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission.

The monthly report showed a total of $8,184.78 paid in fines for game violations. Court costs amounted to $483 on the total of 258 arrests made by the wardens.

Night hunting was next high on the list of violations. There were 36 arrests for headlighting.

Fishermen without licenses also came in for 34 arrests, while 27 paid fines for hunting without licenses.

The director warned again about fishing without licenses.

"With the advent of warmer weather and more fishing, everyone should be careful about having his license," he said. "A license is required of all fishermen between 16 and 65 who fish outside of their home county, or fish with any kind of winding device anywhere, either in their home county or on the coast.

"Licenses can be obtained from so many sources there should be no difficulty in getting them."

The price of the Texas fishing license is $2.15. This license is good either for coastal or fresh water fishing, or for non-residents who fish in Texas waters.

Lunchroom menus

Menus for the Post schools lunchroom for March 31 through April 3 are as follows:

Tuesday: Butter beans boiled with pork, buttered spinach, onion and sweet pepper rings, pickles, corn bread muffins, butter iced graham crackers, one-half pint milk.

Wednesday: Fish sticks, catsup, creamed potatoes, tossed green salad, hot biscuits, butter, apple cobbler, one-half pint milk.

Thursday: Sauerkraut and weiners, buttered lima beans, carrot sticks, peanut butter sandwich, corn bread, butter, canned fruit, one-half pint milk.

Friday: Pork pattie on bun, buttered green peas, tossed salad, potato chips, ice cream cup, vanilla wafers.

The Municipal Theatre of Clonnel, Eire, operating at a loss, may be turned into a dance hall.

Plain talk to the man who thinks "all cars are built alike today"

EMMET JUDGE

"The one thing we know car buyers want above all in an automobile is quality. Yet many people assume that all cars today are pretty much the same in this respect.

This is far from being the case. I can name at least 30 basic differences in the design of our '59 Mercury. Naturally, we feel these differences make Mercury a better car. For example:

EXTRA STRENGTH STARTS WITH THE FRAME
The backbone of every Mercury is the frame. We use a heavy box-type construction—the heaviest in the industry. Competitors use frames that are up to 125 pounds lighter.

WE BUILD QUALITY YOU CAN SEE
Compare the way Mercury builds engine hoods. Most competitive cars use what is known as a single-panel construction. This type of hood can be twisted and turned with the slightest pressure—often flutters and vibrates when the car is in motion. At Mercury, on the other hand, we use a double-panel construction—two layers of steel with the insulation sandwiched in between. Not only is Mercury's hood more rigid, but it looks better.

YOU FEEL THE QUALITY WITH EVERY STOP...
Mercury brakes are the largest in the field—with up to 22% more brake lining than competitive cars. And only Mercury in its field has brakes that adjust themselves mechanically. You save money by eliminating periodic adjustments. And you are safer because Mercury brakes stay properly adjusted for the life of the linings.

...AND EVERY TIME YOU TAKE THE WHEEL
All 1959 Mercurys have a flexible coupling installed in the steering system.

This acts as an insulator—absorbs road shocks that would otherwise travel up to the steering wheel. Mercury, unlike some cars, gives you this with either manual or power steering.

WE HAVE PLENTY OF PROOF THAT THIS IS THE BEST-BUILT CAR IN AMERICA TODAY
We know it is the greatest Mercury ever designed and built. Never in Mercury's 20-year history have we had so much value in the product itself. Mercury has advantages everywhere over competition. The four described on this page are only typical. In future messages I'll tell you about dozens more—in styling, comfort, in everything you want in a car."

Believe it or not, Texans, Hawaii is cowboy country!

The land of the pineapple and the hula is also the land of the cowboy.
In fact, cowpunchers were riding the Hawaiian ranges several years before Texans began driving their steers to market along the old Chisholm trail.
Capt. George Vancouver, the English explorer, brought the first cattle to Hawaii in 1793. Protected by the king, the longhorns ran wild and multiplied.
When John Palmer Parker settled in the islands in 1815, the king hired him to slaughter the cattle, prepare their hides, and salt the beef for sale to visiting ships.
At first the king owned all the herds. But after the Great Mahele, or division of land, selected herds were settled on private ranches. And Parker's business mushroomed into a 300,000-acre ranch in the uplands of Hawaii Island that was to become the second largest cattle ranch in the U. S.

The Hawaiians learned to ride and rope from Spanish cowboys imported from Mexico, according to The World Book Encyclopedia. Their word for cowboy still is "paniola", from "español", or Spaniard.
Hawaiian paniolas like Eben P. L. Low, grandson of the founder of the Parker ranch, have won many rodeo events on the U. S. mainland. Even after he lost one hand in a roping accident, Low, nicknamed "Rawhide Ben", challenged any man to top his roping skill. In 1908 he was crowned at Cheyenne, Wyoming, as the one-handed champion roper of the world.

MOVIE OWNERS SAY 'STAY HOME AND WATCH'

'Oscar' to take spotlight at Academy Awards time

Motion picture theatres around the country which ordinarily compete with television stations for audience patronage have unanimously reversed themselves for the occasion of Academy Awards Night, April 6, and have been urging fans to stay home and watch the greatest of all free shows.
Johnny Hopkins said the Theatre here, of which he is manager, is joining in with the rest of the motion picture industry in urging fans not to miss the Academy Awards program.
By watching on TV, movie fans can have a front row center at the 31st presentation of awards made by the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences, Hollywood.
Those film personalities who have contributed the finest work in their respective fields of endeavor during 1958, will walk up to a stage and accept the coveted "Oscar" the world-famous golden statuette that represents the highest level of achievement in the motion picture world.
The 90-minute show, sponsored by the motion picture industry itself and therefore free of commercials, promises to be the most sparkling and entertaining telecast. It is inevitable that everybody's favorite will be repeated, because Hollywood's top talent will be on parade for the joyment of the 80,000,000 fans who are expected to tune into the annual show.

The Post Dispatch

Post School Board Recommends $710,000 Expansion Program

The Post School Board started a study of an expansion program approximately three years ago and now has reached a decision.

The School Board is asking the people of the Post Consolidated Independent School District to vote a $710,000 bond issue Saturday, April 4, for this expansion program.

The $710,000 will build a new high school, completely remodel the present high school for a junior high school, build football bleachers and field house, pay architects' fees, buy a building site and pay for equipment.

Estimated costs will be as follows:

New High School	$450,000
Remodel Present High School	138,000
Field House and Bleachers	35,000
Architect's Fee	29,000
Equipment	40,000
Building Site	18,000
Total Cost	710,000

Plans for remodeling the present high school building for a junior high include: Dividing the high school auditorium into six classrooms with an assembly room upstairs, new restrooms, new floors, relighting and rewiring, new heating system, moving partitions to make usable classrooms, repointing of masonry inside and outside, repainting building inside and outside, and new roof. The architects estimate this remodeling will increase the life of the building by 20 years.

The proposed new football bleachers, to be built on a steel structure, will seat 836 on the visitors' side and 2,052 on the home side. Present bleachers are approximately 18 years old. They are in a dangerous condition and beyond repair.

The new high school will have 13 classrooms, library, homemaking department consisting of sewing lab, cooking lab and living room, a teachers' workroom, physics and chemistry lab, general science and biology lab, choral room, speech room, mechanical drawing room, woodwork shop, typing room, bookkeeping room, vocational agriculture shop and administrative offices consisting of a tax office, superintendent's office, and principal's office.

Since the school has gone to five solid subjects, which means the present Freshman class will have to have 20 credits to graduate in 1962 that, then we must have more classrooms than we have now. This is a must. By making the present high school into a junior high school this will give us another grade school where the present junior high is now. Next year there is a possibility we will have to go on one-half day shift in possibly the first grade or build more temporary buildings. We have in our school system now 1,245 students, which is the largest enrollment in the school's history. With this enrollment our A. D. A. increase this year will give us three or four more classroom teachers for next year. But at the present time we have no place to put them.

We now have 180 students in our first grade. We enumerated 120 beginners this year as compared with 110 last year. We are estimating we will have 170 students coming into our schools each year. Present figures indicate we will have these.

By 1962, we will have 510 students in the first, second, and third grades. This will give us approximately 28 students per room and will leave no vacant rooms in the grade school building. In the fourth and fifth grades we will have 344 students. Their classrooms will be in the present junior high building. In the sixth, seventh and eighth grades we will have 350 students in the present high school building. In high school we will have 360 students, provided we get 80 per cent of the present fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Eighty per cent is the state normal.

Our enrollment has grown from 650 students in the 1944-45 school year to our present 1,245.

In order to have this bond issue, we are going to have to take 50 per cent of the valuation instead of the present 40 per cent, and expect to leave the tax rate the same as last year, $1.30. It is expected this will take care of the maintenance and operation of the new building.

The School Board would have liked to have seen a new gym and the remodeling of the lunchroom in this program also, but trustees felt that the people would want them to keep the school district on a sound financial basis. Therefore they eliminated the gym and remodeling of the lunchroom and are asking for the bare necessities only. However, within a period of two or three years, or when the school district is in a financial position to vote a bond issue for these things, the board will ask the people to do so at that time.

This program is needed NOW. It will be more than needed by the time we can vote a bond issue and get it built. Therefore the School Board is asking for your support in their decision on this matter at the special bond election Saturday, April 4.

Children in Graham community are looking ahead to Easter holiday

By MRS. DILLARD THOMPSON

With Easter coming up this weekend most children are looking forward to the holidays as well as new Easter frocks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bush were her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Boren and baby of Justiceburg.

Among those attending the funeral in Slaton Saturday for Mrs. Gaze Gregg of the Grassland community who passed away at the Slaton Hospital Thursday, were Mrs. O. H. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Porterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gregg and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Norman.

Grover Mason was in Brownfield Sunday evening to meet the 7 o'clock bus on which Mrs. Mason arrived after visiting since Wednesday in El Paso with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Barron and daughter.

Mrs. Carl Fluit visited last Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gandy of Tahoka.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Peel and Gene were Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Cowdrey and Clarky, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cowdrey and grandson, David Sparlin, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davis and Carol.

Auvy McBride was a supper guest Tuesday evening in the Carl Fluit home and a overnight visitor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theibert McBride, Shirley and David.

MRS. HARLAN Morris is making preparations to leave later in the week for Highwood, Mont., to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hanie.

Mrs. B. C. Childs returned home Sunday after undergoing surgery in Lubbock Methodist Hospital on Thursday. Mrs. Ola Denness of Tahoka is visiting for several days with Mrs. Childs.

Mrs. Elmo Bush and Rickey, Wayland McClellan of Whiteface was a weekend guest of his aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Bush, Jerry and Rickey.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hoover spent most of last week at their cabin at Stamford Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Stovall and daughters visited Sunday at Ralls with the W. O. Stewart family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sinclair and children of Abernathy were overnight visitors Saturday in the Quannah Maxey home. Mrs. John Kirksey and children were Sunday guests.

Mrs. Elmo Bush and Rickey, Wayland McClellan of Whiteface, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Matthews and children of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fluit Jr. and Sherita, Mrs. Harold Reno and sons, and Mrs. Morris McClellan visited Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fluit Sr. Sunday.

Mrs. Elva Peel and Beth and Mrs. Chester Morris visited recently in McGregor with Mrs. Peef's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Byrd and D'Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Dougett were in Lubbock Friday night.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON guests of

LONE STAR AGRICULTURE

More than 2,000,000 chickens are consumed by Texans each week

By JOHN C. WHITE, Commissioner of Agriculture

Texas is a chicken-raising and chicken-eating state. More than two million broiling or frying chickens are bought by Texas consumers each week, and the popularity of the budget-wise bird is ever-increasing.

To determine just what sort of bird the Texas fryer buyer is looking for when he or she goes shopping, the Texas State Fair in Dallas was the site for comprehensive consumer preference tests on certain poultry products.

The tests, conducted among 2,000 men and women attending the State Fair, were directed by personnel from the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station of Texas A&M College.

Items on which Fair visitors were asked to indicate their choice included: skin "color" — light, medium or dark yellow; method of pre-cutting chickens—into 6 pieces (as is commonly done), 10 or 13 pieces; type of wrapping for pre-packaged birds—conventional clear cellophane, colored cellophane or aluminum wrap.

Conclusions showed that most of those tested (57 per cent of men, 55 per cent of women) preferred a medium yellow skin color for broiler chickens although a considerable number preferred a dark yellow color and very few (13 per cent of men, 15 per cent of women) chose a light yellow, almost white, skin color.

Although most poultry offered for sale in Texas stores is packaged with the carcass cut into 6 pieces, most consumers selected the carcass cut into either 10 or 13 pieces, with no significant preference between the two. This is probably because many housewives either do not know how to cut up a frying chicken or else have no desire to do so.

In the test for wrap preference, groups of poultry carcasses cut into six pieces were packed in pulpboard trays and wrapped in clear, yellow or red cellophane or in wrapping paper with an exterior aluminum finish. Eighty-three per cent of those expressing a choice took the transparent cellophane overwrap now commonly used. Only 5 per cent expressed a choice for the aluminum-wrapped package, probably because it would give better protection if the poultry were to be held frozen before consumption.

Concerning the tests for skin pigmentation or color, it is interesting to note that a similar survey conducted in Baltimore, Maryland, revealed that most consumers there preferred either a very light or very dark pigmented carcass. It is possible that the differences can be explained on the basis of regional preferences, but further work is underway to determine some of the factors consumers associate with a white or yellow skin.

Junior Set

By CHRIS CORNISH

Mary Beth Ford was hostess for her slumber party, Friday night, at which all the guests first met at the show and then went to Mary Beth's home.

Refreshments of hot dogs, potato chips, candy and cold drinks were served. And since a slumber party isn't a slumber party if anyone slumbers—of course everyone had to stay awake all night.

Guests at the party were: Carol Hodges, Lynette Patts, Becky Thompson, Carol Billings, Betsy Shykes, Lana Haynie, Wynanza Windham, Margie Harrison, Pamela Stewart, Cheryl Martin, Lynda Driver, Yvonne Moreland, Marilyn Minor, Nita Wilson, Sharon Meisch and the guest of honor, Mary Beth. Everyone sure had a lot of fun!

Post Junior High came in third at the track meet at Floydada, Monday, the 23rd. We're sure proud of the boys and know they will do better next time.

Last Thursday was the first "volleyball" practice held this year for the 7th and 8th grade girls. Another practice was held Tuesday. The girls are under supervision of Coach Hahn.

Mrs. Rosa Gamblin left school Friday morning feeling ill, had surgery that afternoon and is now feeling fine (I hope). Mrs. Jess Cornnell is substituting for her. Mrs. Gamblin will return after the Easter holidays.

er holidays.

Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Ryder, and Mrs. Wristen have really carried out the Easter theme in their nicely decorated rooms. They look real cute!

Declamation eliminations were held Wednesday. In the 8th grade Chris Cornish placed first and Pam McCrary second. Argan Robinson was first in the 7th grade and Susie Jo Schmidt came in second. In the boys division in the 7th grade, Dickey Price was first and Steven Casteel was second. No boys entered in the 8th grade. Good luck at Floydada, everyone.

The 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades went to the grade school auditorium Thursday afternoon to watch the one-act play, "Sugar and Spice" put on by the speech class that went to contest in Floydada. It was real cute and the cast did a wonderful job.

The A and A minus students in junior high will put on a Spring Concert along with the high school choir, Thursday night at 8. Be sure and be there, everyone! "Ting-Tang-Walla Walla Bing-Bang—Wooee!" Everyone's out for Easter vacation. The junior high students got out at 2:30 today and will come back to school next Tuesday. Happy vacation, everybody!

Patrolmen probe three accidents on rural roads

By DIXIE BILLINGS, C. of C. Secretary

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated three rural traffic accidents in Garza County during February, according to Sgt. E. L. Stroud, patrol supervisor of the Department of Public Safety.

There was one fatality in one of the accidents and property damage totaling $3,650 in two of the mishaps.

Sgt. Stroud advised that too many people look upon driving as a thing apart — something divorced from the code of morality which governs the other activities of their lives. The result of this split thinking is a staggering annual traffic toll.

To reduce the death rate during 1959, the sergeant stressed the necessity for drivers, as well as pedestrians, to maintain vigilance and observe the lifesaving rules of the road. He urged greater compliance with the speeding and driving while intoxicated laws, pointing out that in 1958 these were prime factors in traffic accidents.

Community Center will stage Easter program

The Colored Community Center will not be open Good Friday and Saturday, but will open at 3 o'clock Easter Sunday for the annual Easter party for the children.

There will be refreshments, balloons and Easter baskets that were made by the children.

One of the oldest of all modern games, croquet, will also be introduced at the center on Easter Sunday.

Texas' sesame crop keeps up the pace

PARIS — The biggest Sesame harvest in the six-year history of commercial production of the crop in the U. S. produced almost one million dollars in income for the farmers of Texas in 1958.

Texas Sesame Growers, Inc., here, a farmers' corporation organized to help grow, harvest and sell the new oilseed crop, reported today that all of the 1958 crop now has been harvested and marketed. The harvest of 10,923,486 pounds to farmers of $980,127. The average price on No. 1 quality seed of Sesame brought a total income was 9.88 cents per pound. The average on No. 2 quality seed was 8.09 cents per pound.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION OF Sesame is centered in Texas—the counties of the Panhandle and High Plains and the Blacklands Counties of Lamar, Delta, Fannin, Red River and Ellis.

Robert L. Parker, executive vice-president of Texas Sesame Growers, reported that the 1958 crop was produced by some 400 growers on approximately 12,500 acres. The 9,000 acres on the Plains produced nearly 9,000,000 pounds of the total 10,923,486 pounds grown. He added that although the price of Sesame was somewhat lower in 1958 than in 1957, the crop probably is in a better competitive

Former Post woman dies in Littlefield

Friends received word Tuesday night of the death of Mrs. John Chaney of Littlefield, former Post resident. Mrs. Chaney and her husband, the late John Chaney, were in the bakery business in Post several years ago.

Funeral services were scheduled for 10 o'clock Thursday morning at Littlefield with several Postites planning to attend.

A film of the life of Lord Baden-Powell, father of the Boy Scouts, was to have been made by the late Cecil B. de Mille, London learns.

4-H dress revue program growing throughout land

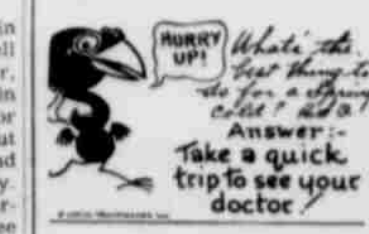

CHICAGO—The prettiest girl in the Easter parade can very well be a Texas 4-H Club member, particularly if she is enrolled in the 4-H Dress Revue program. For this 4-H miss has learned to cut and sew the perfect ensemble, and then wear it smartly and proudly.

This all-girl 4-H activity is arranged by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, and is under the supervision of the Cooperative Extension Service.

Young ladies between the ages of 10 and 21 are eligible to sign up, and nearly 400,000 from coast to coast already have.

Climax of the year's work is taking part in local dress revues. Here the girls have an opportunity to show off their handiwork in competition with other club members. Rewards range from the county medal of honor to an all-expense paid trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December.

Post High Highlights

By KIM PIERCE and MARGIE CASTEEL

Post High Choir members are walking on "Cloud 9". They went to contest last Saturday and came home with a sweepstakes plaque plus 16 first place honors. Everybody in school is really proud of them. Congratulations, kids!

The girls sextet went to Ralls last Tuesday night where they sang for the Junior-Senior Banquet. They sang "May You Always", "Baby, Be Good to Me", and "Left Right Out of Your Heart". We heard you did very well, girls!

Everybody is sure to come to the grade school auditorium and hear the "sweepstakes" choir sing the songs they took to contest. The concert will be this evening

"THEY'LL ALL DIE VIOLENTLY! ALL THE LIARS!"

These were the words that tore from the throat of beautiful Barbara Graham as the judge branded her a brutal killer! Today there is evidence that justice may have erred! Today there are those who are trying to stop you from seeing this powerful and true story of a woman's anguish!

at 8 o'clock. They will also show the plaques they won.

Everyone was mildly surprised to learn that Curtis Dilday was "Mr. X". Out with it, Curtis, let us all in on your secret.

The basketball girls received their jackets last Friday during a special assembly. They are solid black with a big gold "P" and two black and white stripes at the top of the sleeve. They are really pretty.

The one-act speech play presented in Floydada came in third last Friday night. There were four towns represented with Floydada winning first place and Spur winning second. The best actor and actress were Kenneth Gillcrease of Spur and Beth Scott of Floydada. Leslie Acker, PHS freshman, got a best actor's award. Congratulations, everybody.

The track boys went to the meet at Odessa Saturday and even though they didn't win or go on to the finals, Coach Krhut said they did very well and he was really proud of them.

The senior play cast has six more rehearsals before they present "Hilbilly Wedding". If what we hear is true, and they really don't know it—they better go to work.

Girls attending the FHA Area II meeting were Pat Wheatley, Mel-Annie Thompson, Sheila Murriss, Lois Edwards, Gayle Dillard, Denise Eubank, and the sponsor, Mrs. Wilma Hill. They report they all enjoyed it very much, and especially a fashion show entitled "Fashions, Yesterday and Today".

We have a very happy girl on our hands at PHS, namely Karen Potts. She won the title of Lions Club Sweetheart and will compete at the finals in Plainview April 25-28. Her runner-up was Kim Pierce. Other girls in the contest were Janet Stephens, Linda Wilks, Ruth Ann Long, Frances Barron, Glenda Whittenberg, and Leta Stone. Congratulations

Award given new car dealer for safety training

A certificate of merit for lending an automobile and a pick-up in the high school driver training program was received this week by Caprock Chevrolet Co. authorized new car dealer in Post.

The award was made to the dealer by the Texas Automotive Dealers Association, the state-wide association of factory franchised dealers whose members for more than 10 years have loaned cars to high schools for "behind the wheel" driver education. The vehicles are loaned without charge, as a public service.

The local company loaned one car and one pickup to Post High School which has instructors qualified to teach the fundamentals of actual driving, as well as the theoretical aspects of proper use of today's modern motor vehicle.

Officials of the state new car dealers association describe the driving training program as a most important part of the campaign to cut down the accident rate of teenagers and those in the early 20's age group.

"Youthful drivers are the reservoir from which future operators of motor vehicles are siphoned," said Sara H. White, Houston, president of the association. "As the sellers of motor vehicles, our members who have loaned these cars are glad to do everything possible to give them as much advance training as they can."

GUESTS OF SHELTONS
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Shelton Monday were Monroe and Dolly Shelton of Ruidoso, N. M., Clint Bullard of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Moore and Jackie of Slaton.

Karen, and lots of luck at contest.

Those lucky sophomores! They are always planning something. This time it is to be a picnic in Lubbock. Although they haven't set the date, it is supposed to be during April. Everybody wishes them a lot of fun—because they have really worked hard this year.

School dismissed this afternoon for Easter vacation and will not resume until Tuesday morning. We decided to ask some of the kids what they plan to do during this time. Here's what they said:
Billie Lou Hill: Stay home.
Gayle Dillard: Go to Floydada.
Jane Francis: Stay home.
Ruth Saenz: Go to San Antonio.
Mrs. Wilma Hill: Stay home.

The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime

About Your HEALTH

Rabies is serious business, but there is a lighter side. Early this technician whose duty it is to pre-mortem the brain tissue for microscopic scrutiny on suspect rabies cases was enjoying a game of dominos during the noon hour.

He was interrupted and informed that there was a "head" outside, but desiring to finish the hand he said he'd be out in a second. He would have forgotten the game had he known what kind of head.

Because two ladies were waiting with a real genuine African lion's head. It seems that the lion had been raised from a cub, but later turned on its master and had to be destroyed.

There was little chance of rabies, but it pays to be sure about any suspect case. So the head was sent to Austin for examination. It was negative.

Lab technicians have examined fox heads, skunk heads, cat heads, thousands of dog heads and even a nutria head a short while ago. Among the strangest was a deer head. It proved to be negative, but the man who brought it in insisted the horns be cut off. The technician was convinced the hunter just wanted a cheap way to get those horns.

Winter and early spring see a slight rise in the number of positive findings of rabies in State Health Department laboratories. More effort is needed to inform and educate the public about the dangers of rabies and the means of controlling outbreaks.

Last year there were 491 laboratory cases of rabies plus 163 reported clinical cases in animals. In the past two years vaccine for 3,600 cases of human exposure to rabies was distributed by the State Health Department.

In 1955 a state law made it possible for county commissioner's court to enact legislation for control measures during a rabies emergency. These measures can be carried from year to year as a sustained program to keep rabies at the lowest possible level.

Well-trained personnel from the Texas State Department of Health are available to counties and other local health jurisdictions to help launch their own rabies control programs.

The rabies battle is a year round fight. A let-up in any particular season may mean an outbreak later on. Everyone should have his dogs and cats vaccinated, especially if they are often on the loose.

Rabies control is a necessary and interesting program even if you don't get a lion's head in every day.

Pork heads list plentiful foods

COLLEGE STATION—The current supply of pork is sufficient to rate the feature spot on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's April list of plentiful foods for this area.

The list also includes many other energy foods that go well with increased spring activity. Lamb has taken a spot on the list. Broilers and fryers continue plentiful, as do eggs, milk and other dairy products, peanuts and peanut products. And with pork plentiful, lard is too.

Potatoes, cabbage and canned peas are still sufficiently abundant to rate the plentiful tag.

Honey and walnut supplies also continue plentiful and they complete the April list. The monthly list of plentiful foods is supplied by the USDA through the southwest food distribution division of the Agricultural Marketing Service, after national and local supplies are determined. Only foods in heavier supply than normal make the list.

FORT SILL VISITORS
Mike Ray, Sammy Martin and Ronnie Polk, who are stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., were weekend visitors with their parents and friends.

A diamond is the hardest of all stones. A young man doesn't find it easy to pay for one, either.

WTCC essay contest is open to seniors

Rules for the Fifth Annual Industrial Essay Contest, sponsored by the Industrial Development

Elected at Tech

Miss Frances Dietrich, freshman music education major at Texas Tech, has been elected as a new officer of Tau Beta Sigma, honorary band sorority at the college. She was elected to the position of representative to the Association of Women Students and Board of Student Organizations. Miss Dietrich is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dietrich.

VISIT IN ODESSA

Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Williams and three children and Mrs. L. E. Claborn visited in Odessa recently with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hamilton.

RALLS BANQUET

RALLS — The annual banquet of the Ralls Chamber of Commerce will be held April 3. Joe Meador, manager, has announced. C. L. (Casey) Key will speak on "Americanism in Our Day."

Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, have been furnished Post High School, according to John N. Hopkins, manager of the Post Chamber of Commerce.

First and second place winners in the local phase of the contest will receive cash prizes of $50 and $30, with the Chamber of Commerce contributing half the prize money and the City of Post the other half.

The WTCC committee will select winners in each WTCC district and will award certificates to them. Then the first place winner in the region is awarded a $250 scholarship to the West Texas institution of higher learning of his choice.

All high school seniors are eligible to enter the contest on the subject, "What My Town Can Do to Have More Industry."

David King of Post, now attending West Texas State College, was winner of one of the four previous contests. Other winners have been Danny Solomon of Tulsa, Linda Thomason of Wichita Falls and Dan Hartmann of Fredericksburg.

POST STUDENT IS HONORED

Leonard Short of Post (center) was honored as one of the three top students in Engineering Sunday in the 13th annual All-College Recognition Service at Texas Tech. Short, a senior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Short. Three of the other 10 senior students honored are also shown. They are Ray Knezek (left) of Olney, and Mrs. Carolyn Watkins of Sudan.

To attend school

Sp. 4 Walter F. Didway, who is stationed with the U. S. Army at Fort Belvoir, Va., will leave about April 1 for Indianapolis, Ind., where he will attend a six-week personnel school. He will be promoted to sergeant after completing the school.

Williams pledged

Bryan J. Williams III of Post is one of 16 men pledged by Phi Gamma Delta, national social fraternity at Texas Tech. A 1960 graduate of Post High School, he is a freshman at Tech.

BUILDING PROGRAM

HALE CENTER — A $100,000 building program has been adopted by the congregation of the First Methodist Church here. The program will include a new church building at the site of one destroyed by fire a few months ago.

WAS THE LAW BLIND?

...when it brought beautiful B-Girl Barbara Graham to trial for a brutal murder! Many notable, including Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter Ed Mosley, say she was incapable of committing this crime. Others say elections were at stake—and a young mother's life most nothing. They say that certain facts were overlooked during her trial—evidence that could have cast a reasonable doubt as to her guilt! Today, there are those who are trying to prevent her true life story from ever being revealed. Why?

See Susan Hayward in her acclaim-winning performance in "I Want To Live!", the story of Barbara Graham, whose murder trial shocked the world.

Gregg funeral is held in Slaton

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Gregg, 86, of Route 3, Post, who died last Thursday in Mercy Hospital in Slaton, were conducted at 2 p. m. Saturday, with burial in the Englewood Cemetery. Mrs. Gregg was an aunt of D. W. Post. She is also survived by three brothers and three other nieces. The Rev. C. M. Field, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Slaton, officiated at the services, assisted by the Rev. Walter Comstock, pastor of the Pentecostal Holiness church.

Announcing Plans for Post's Newest Residential Development

Ed Sims' Town and Country Addition

On A 50 Acre Tract Just Inside Post's New East City Limits Facing on US-380 from North.

Our plans for this ideally located housing area are rapidly developing. We have been promised the cooperation of the city in laying out streets and alleys and obtaining sewer extensions as quickly as possible.

We are confident we will be able to announce complete plans for the addition and begin the sale of lots in the immediate future. So keep Town and Country Addition in mind in your new home planning.

Our present plans call for restricted housing areas within the addition for several price ranges of homes. For example homes costing $7,500 to $10,500 would be in one area, homes between $10,500 to $13,500 in another, $13,500 to $18,000 homes in a third, and homes from $18,000 up in a fourth.

We are planning varying lot sizes to meet any home owner's need—ranging from 60 to 150 foot fronts. Wide, paving streets are planned for the entire addition and street paving will be undertaken as the addition develops.

Many already are enthusiastic about Town and Country Addition for their future homes. We think you will be too when you see our complete plans and lot prices. Watch for full details in the next few weeks.

Wage Increase at Postex Mills

Burlington Industries this week announces a general wage increase in all of its plants, including the Postex Cotton Mills, effective March 30.

This is in keeping with the policy of the company to stay abreast of rising living costs for our employees and to increase wages as we in the textile industry can afford despite restrictive and unfair governmental regulations.

The textile industry, as a whole, for the past several years has been severely handicapped profitwise because of unfair Japanese competition. Although the American textile industry's wage scale on the average is ten times higher than the Japanese wage scale, the Japanese textile industry is permitted by our government to purchase American-grown cotton five to six cents a pound cheaper than the textile industry in this country can buy it.

In addition to being forcibly held back on wage scales as compared to other industries, we have a sizable amount of money being paid out for life and accident insurance benefits and unemployment compensation benefits which is shared by industry on a higher percentage basis as compared to state and federal contributions.

Now legislation has been introduced in both federal and state government working toward approximately 40 per cent increase in maximum weekly benefits, lengthening the payment period and decreasing the present very liberal requirements for eligibility of claimants. This would definitely endanger the welfare of deserving employees and in time would lead to the establishment of the dole system with all of its disastrous results.

Industries in some localities are given due consideration taxwise because of their economic value to the community including the money it costs industry for their very beneficial insurance programs. But in some localities industries are not given such consideration.

We at Postex Mills are very glad to announce a wage raise at this time. We sincerely hope conditions in the future permits further increases from time to time as competition and local conditions permit.
