VOLUME IX

O'DONNELL, LYNN COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1932

NUMBER 48

OTHER O'DONNELL BANK SUSPECT IS CAUGHT; PETE VAIL IS CHARGED

Henry Reed of Tahoka is in jail in view of a charge by indictment by Lee Pebworth, Jack Sullivan, and H. C. Hunsucker of the robbery of the Oton State Bank on July 15. The indictment was returned by the Lamb county grand jury in Olton last Saturday. Reed is also charged by complaint in the justice court at Tahoka with the theft of tires and gasoline from different oil stations and other places of business in Tahoka, while Vail of this place is in jail at Olton charged with the same offense. Wright, escaped convict, who is alleged to have shot an officer at Tahoka, is also in jail at Olton. Undertaking to arrest him and other suspected bank robbers several weeks ago, is also in jail at Tahoka for alleged complicity in the robbery of the bank. The undertaking succeeded in getting away $1,000. Wright was arrested at Big Spring and was taken to Tahoka last week by Sheriff L. Parker. Other officers in the robbery here are Bill Tidwell, J. M. Bradshaw, notorious Oklahoma outlaw and ex-convict, now in Lubbock; "Racehorse" Baker, a bond; and Truly Bounds, out of Olton.

LOCAL PEOPLE WATCH SUN'S ECLIPSE WEDNESDAY

In company with other members of the United States census, O'Donnell people armed themselves with smoked glasses shortly after noon Wednesday, and for a short time viewed one of the most awe-inspiring of nature's phenomena—a partial eclipse of the sun. The shadow was first visible soon after one o'clock, but the exact time of its passing from vision of watchers in this territory could not be told because of heavy clouds and a sudden shower which came up at two-thirty. The crescent was clearly defined on the upper rim of the sun, resembling a slice which had been cut cleanly from the sun. Even the reflection from a mirror plainly showed its presence. Practically everyone in O'Donnell was armed with a piece of smoked glass through which to peer, and streets and curbs were lined with watchers. In olden days, it was superstitiously believed that an eclipse of the sun portended the coming of some great evil or catastrophe, and some of the more modern credulous ones cite the fact that the last eclipse occurred about the beginning of the World War. While we have never believed very strongly that the entire solar system need be disrupted because of affairs of one planet, we're quite willing to grant that even a partial eclipse is interesting and not to be taken lightly. The next eclipse will, astronomers state, take place in 1970, so quite a few of us will be getting along many years and may need more glasses than smoked ones when we view it.

LOCAL CO-OP OFFICE OPENS HERE THURSDAY

The local office of the Texas Cotton Co-Operative office opened for business Thursday morning, September 1st, under the management of W. H. Clark. Mr. Clark is not a stranger to farmers and business men of this territory, as he finished out the season last year as well as having been O'Donnell for the past six weeks preparing for the best season the Co-Op has ever known here. He has visited every section of the county and is intimately informed as to prospects for the season. In Mr. Clark's opinion, this is the best year we have known for some time, both from the production angle and the price as well. Even in the districts which felt the effects of the late fall, fields are full of blooms, and in stalks which are full of us—will be getting along across the middles and loaded to full capacity. East of town in the section which has been drought stricken for several years, maize heads are beginning to come out and a number of cotton fields promise easily half a bale per acre, even making allowances for shedding of fruit. Mr. Clark also thinks that the rise in cotton prices will continue steadily, perhaps not so much as during the past week or ten days, but will be without interruption. Mr. Clark is esteemed and respected by all men and an official of the Co-Op, and this is expected to be one of the most successful years in the history of the local office.

LEFIELD CHILD INJURED SATURDAY

Wanda Ruth Stubblefield, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Stubblefield, who lives in town, received a painful Saturday evening when the door was slammed on her, and she most severely the left big toe but began just under the nail course continued upward, and an exceedingly ugly wound. Little girl was taken immediately to the office of a local physician and measures, and is doing well.

LOCAL MEN FIND SKULL SUNDAY NEAR CEDAR LAKE

C. J. Beach and J. L. Shoemaker, assisted by C. H. Doak and Morris Sanderson, went prospecting around the margin of Cedar Lake Sunday, and brought back a human skull and several bones as their reward.

When cleaned and assembled, the skull appeared to be that of a man, probably an Indian or a negro, who had reached middle age. The hipbone and upper leg bone were also brought into town, but the remainder of the skeleton was too crumbly to be moved.

The skull itself was in only a fair state of preservation. One side had either been crushed by a blow at the time of death, or had decayed and crumbled during the years since that time, and one tooth was missing. The gruesome object has been on exhibition at the First National Bank this week, and has been viewed and examined by scores of local people, each one of whom advances a different theory as to the age, cause of death, and length of time since death occurred. High cheekbones and sloping forehead are indications of Indian blood and low mentality. Local medical men are of the opinion that the skull is probably around 75 to 100 years old.

WOMENS FAIR DEPARTMENTS OF UNUSUAL INTEREST

At a meeting of the heads of the various departments of the women's division of the Community Fair Tuesday afternoon, it was voted to hold a baby show as one of the attractions. Mrs. F. A. Anderson, Irvin Wright, and George Shumake were appointed as a special committee for this work, and score cards will be published at an early date. This will not be the ordinary "prettiest baby" contest so often used, but will be based on health, development, etc. along with beauty. Every effort will be made to make this one of the most interesting and worthwhile projects of the entire fair. Mrs. B. H. Scott, general superintendent of the women's division, and R. H. Mathis, director general, were more than pleased with attendance at the meeting Tuesday afternoon. In spite of the heavy rain which came up just at the appointed hour, only four chairmen of committees were absent, and every lady present was full of enthusiasm and suggestions to make this fair one of the best on the South Plains this year. Mrs. Scott appointed committees to visit each woman in each of the communities in our territory so that some idea as to number and nature of exhibits may be secured. It is hoped and expected that every family in the entire trade territory will have a least one exhibit in the community fair here September 24, and the members of the various committees plan to personally see and invite them to come help us put this fair over in a big way.

TAHOKA MAN INJURED HERE IN FALL FROM GIN

Mr. Mullins, tinner from Tahoka, received a broken arm early Tuesday morning when he fell as he was working at Henderson-Boone gin here. He was brought to the office of a local physician for attention, and it was found that both bones in the left arm were broken just above the wrist joint. The physician set them and placed the arm in splints and sling. Mr. Mullins returned to his home as soon as he felt able to make the trip and the broken arm is healing nicely.

REMODELING INTERIOR OF C. C. DRY GOODS STORE

T. M. Garner and Barton Burk began carpenter work Tuesday morning at C. C. Dry Goods store, moving a partition back, building and rearranging shelves, and otherwise changing the interior. This work is being done, Mr. Carbone, to give more and better opportunity for display of fall merchandise, as well as adding to the appearance of the store.

ONE DOLLAR APPORTIONMENT FOR COUNTY SCHOOLS

Lynn county schools received a per capita apportionment of $1 last week, as funds were being disbursed this week. Payment of this amount brought the total paid up to $14, with $3.50 yet to be paid from the state funds on the per capita apportionment of $17.50 for the past year. Wells school received $117.00, O'Donnell $479.00. The next payment is not expected until about September 15.

Mrs. W. E. Guye returned from Dallas and Ft. Worth markets Friday with new merchandise for the store. Watch the advertising columns of the Index for announcements regarding it.

CAPTAIN MACDONALD SPEAKS AT METHODIST CHURCH

Captain H. W. Macdonald, missionary and noted traveler who has visited all but two countries of the world, addressed a large and attentive congregation at the local Methodist church here Sunday evening, using Africa as the theme of his talk.

CAPT. H. W. MACDONALD

ALICE JOY BOWLIN SEVERELY BURNED

Miss Alice Joy Bowlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bowlin, received painful burns about the face and head early Sunday morning as she lit the gas burner in the oven. While none of the burns were deep enough to leave scars, they are decidedly uncomfortable and Miss Alice Joy is of the opinion that it's still too hot to cover one's face in a swathing of bandages such as she had under her hair.

MRS. HANCOCK'S WRIST FRACTURED MONDAY

Mrs. Buck Hancock is wearing her left arm in splints and a sling this week as the result of a fall Monday night when one of the bones in her left wrist was fractured. The injury was not ascertained until she was brought to the office of a local physician after the arm had given her a night's pain. She is reported to be doing well.

JENKINS RETURNS SUNDAY TO HOME CHARGE

Rev. L. S. Jenkins of the First Baptist church, has returned from a series of revival meetings in different parts of the county, and will preach Sunday at both morning and evening hours here. The services of the church will meet as usual, and everyone has a cordial invitation to be present.

O'DONNELL GINS ARE READY FOR BUSINESS

With the best crop in four years in sight, O'Donnell's six gins are in perfect tune and it will be only a few days until they will harmonize in singing a song that will mean prosperity to farmers and business men. A survey of the six found each of them practically ready to go at a minute's notice, prepared for the season's run. Repairs and adjustments have been the order of the day at each of them for the past month, and the machinery is running like a well-oiled watch. Taken as a whole, the farmers of the O'Donnell territory are indeed fortunate in having such a line-up of experienced gin men and such well-equipped gins. Buyers from all over the country will be here this season to pay market prices for fleecy staple and local merchants are laying in large stocks containing every necessity for family and household, ready for the best season O'Donnell has known since 1928. The big bolls are beginning to pop open, and only for the rains this week our first bale would have been ginned this week. The merchants, merchants and gin men as well as the general citizenship of the town, cordially invite our farmers and their families to feel that O'Donnell is here for their benefit and welfare, and that we're all working together for our common good. Bring your cotton to O'Donnell, and bring your wife and children in to visit while you're at the gin. O'Donnell will welcome all of you, even down to your pup.

DEMOCRATIC RUN-OFF FURNISHES THRILLS

With the results of the governor's race still being questioned after one of the closest contests in the history of Texas, with Miriam A. Ferguson seemingly being the leader by some 2000 votes, Saturday's election returns are still the subject of conversation.

In our own county the clerics' race, H. C. Story, Tahoka, defeated W. O. W. (Bill) Jones, O'Donnell, by a count of 403 votes. O'Donnell stood almost solidly behind the local man, and he made a good race throughout the county.

The race for public weigher ended in victory for W. E. Payne over Tom H. Rogers, with Payne tallying up 386 votes to Rogers' 221. Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield defeated G. E. Lockhart of Lubbock for State Senator from the 30th Senate District after a hot campaign featured by circular attacks and charges from both sides. John Thomas of Tahoka was the choice of the voters of the 11th district and won by a safe margin over Homer L. Winston of Brownfield.

George B. Terrell of Alto, Joseph Weldon Bailey, Jr., and Sterling P. Strong of Dallas were elected as congressmen at-large.

C. V. Terrell, chairman of the Railroad Commission, defeated Lee Satterwhite for the six-year term of that body, while Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo won the four year term by defeating Gregory W. Hatcher. William Pierson defeated J. E. Hickman in the race for Associate Justice of the State Supreme Court.

Described by dailies as a "horse race", the gubernatorial race was the most exciting of the year. Ferguson and Ross Sterling taking the roles. Radio fans grew dizzy Saturday night as first one and then the other took slight leads, with Ferguson prevailing in a few hundred votes tight-rope-walking between them after the 900,000 mark was passed. "Ma" greeted early risers Monday morning with a lead of 493, while Sterling closed the working day with a lead of approximately 1,600.

The battle raged throughout the week, with Mrs. Ferguson leading late Wednesday with over 2000 votes. Republican leaders are planning a determined fight for the governorship at the November election, dismissing their hopes largely on the basis of prevailing in the Democratic race. The Republican nominee is Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls. Mr. Bullington has connections in all parts of the state, being president of two ex-students associations, and of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce. He is vice chairman of the Republican state committee and was chairman of the G. O. P. Texas delegation to the 1928 national convention.

Much to the regrets of staunch Democrats, prospect for a Republican government is better than at any time in the history of the state, according to opinions from politicians in this part of "the county," many of whom believe that feeling a general election on both the Democratic nominees will tend to counter-balance party loyalty.

It is evident that the election will be contested, no matter which of the democratic candidates is elected on the first count. Texas politics are being taken seriously this year, with the final outcome still very much in the dark.

MRS. HANCOCK'S WRIST FRACTURED MONDAY

Mrs. Buck Hancock is wearing her left arm in splints and a sling this week as the result of a fall Monday night when one of the bones in her left wrist was fractured. The injury was not ascertained until she was brought to the office of a local physician after the arm had given her a night's pain. She is reported to be doing well.

The lady fell as she was attending to some forgotten duties just before bedtime Monday evening. In fact, she had started preparations for retiring and had taken out her shoes when she remembered some task she had neglected during the day. Without waiting to put her shoes on, she walked out into the yard and stepped on a grasshopper, trying to pull it loose. Mrs. Hancock lost her balance and fell, bruising her hip and fracturing the arm.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD REVIVAL UNDER WAY

We are asked to announce that a revival meeting is now in progress at the Assembly of God, services are being held in the former Presbyterian church building north of the school grounds. Rev. E. A. Musick is conducting services. Everyone is invited and welcome to any or all of these meetings.

SINGING CONVENTION TO MEET AT WELLS

We are asked to announce that the singing convention will meet at Wells school building Sunday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. A number of local people have of better serving the producer of cattle, and they report that real singing and a genuine good time are always in full force.

EVERYONE HAS A CORDIAL INVITATION TO GO TO WELLS SUNDAY AFTERNOON AND TAKE PART IN THIS CHORAL WORK.

Mrs. N. Saleh and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Malouf at Post.

Six Years Ago

News items taken from files at O'Donnell Index published here six years ago.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1932

O'Donnell had received her first bale of cotton, grown by Grady Best. The bale weighed 440 pounds.

Rev Everett and C. E. Kelly were building residences.

New Moore was to have a gin. S. H. Moore ordering the machinery and equipment.

Mell Pearce was elected weigher of this precinct.

Mrs. A. H. Koeninger entertained with a forty-two party at the Corner Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fritz were on their vacation, visiting Christoval, and Hot Springs, N. M.

Major H. Rogers had bought lots in Levelland to erect buildings for his coal and grain business.

MURRAY GIVES COTTON CROP ESTIMATE

The six counties in the crop production loan district for which P. F. Murray is supervisor of loans, will produce 178,000 bales in 1932, Mr. Murray said in an estimate made at the Dallas office of the federal crop production loan service.

Lubbock county, Mr. Murray estimates, will produce 60,000 bales; Hockley, 50,000 bales; Lynn 40,000 bales; Terry, 30,000; Cochran, 3,000 bales and Yoakum, 3,000.

Last year Lubbock county produced 72,000 bales; Hockley, 63,000; Lynn, 52,000; Terry, 33,000; Cochran, 4,900, and no report for Yoakum because the county does not have a gin. Federal census reports for 1929 show Yoakum county that year produced 2,400 bales. Cotton is ginned in Terry county.

SHE FURNISHED COMPETITION

Everybody could see they had quarreled when they entered an Irish tram car. She sat with tightly compressed lips; he sat glaring at the advertisements.

"If it wasn't for me you'd be the biggest fool in Dublin," she burst out suddenly.

Then, for the first time, the man grinned; and so did the other passengers.

LOWER FAIR RATES WILL BRING CROWD IS BELIEF

Admission to the Panhandle-South Plains fair, September 26 to October 1, will be just half of former years' prices, the fair directors have decided.

The authorities have a dual purpose in lowering the price of tickets. They will answer a popular demand for lower rates and at the same time will give twice as many people an opportunity to see the fair.

Admission charges this year will be reduced to 25 cents at the gate, while adult season tickets will be $1.50. Children's season tickets have been lowered to 75 cents.

Directors expect to give the same high grade entertainment at this year's fair as have always featured the event, despite the reduction in admission charges.

Johanie Wortham's Shows, one of the feature attractions, is one of the largest of its kind in the world and in itself promises to prove a great drawing card.

LIGHT SHOWERS BENEFIT CROPS IN TERRITORY

Light and scattered showers Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons were of great help to young cotton and grain crops, and of especial benefit to melon patches, according to reports this week from farmers over the territory.

Brisk winds from the south and east heralded the showery spell several days before it began, and cloudy weather through the week has cooled the atmosphere to a very pleasant degree. All showers, excepting the one Tuesday evening, which lasted several hours, were of short duration and probably did not total more than three-quarters to an inch, but the added moisture probably prevented undue shedding of fruit in fields of maturing cotton.

territory needed rain, and parts of it need still more.

STERLING TO CONTEST PRIMARY ELECTION RESULTS

Thursday's dailies carried a statement from Governor Ross S. Sterling promising that all the fireworks in Texas gubernatorial politics is not over by a long shot.

With Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson's lead jumping to 2,398 on the final tabulation of votes Wednesday by the Texas Election Bureau, one of the most thrilling and surprising elections in the history of Texas came to a close Wednesday evening.

Governor Sterling has declared, however, that he plans to contest her election as Democratic nominee for governor, claiming that illegal votes were cast all over Texas. The press editors who expressed himself as being confident that he will have a substantial majority over his woman opponent when these illegal votes are cast out, and further said that based his statement on reliable information and advices from all over Texas.

Out of a total of 950,000 votes cast, the present governor has trailing Mrs. Ferguson by more than two thousand votes as a climax to the hottest and most interesting campaigns since the first election was held in the United States. The one of the largest vote ever cast in a State Election. As stated by the Election Bureau Wednesday evening, Mrs. Ferguson has a total of 476,750 votes and Sterling 474,123. Governor Sterling has proposed "to leave nothing undone that is within my power to secure an honest ballot and an honest count and to eliminate every illegal vote cast in Texas last Saturday."

On the other hand, Jim Ferguson, husband of the apparently victorious nominee and the acknowledged prospective governor, had previously issued a statement to the effect that he would contest the election if his wife were not nominated.

So no matter which way the tide had turned, we were still to see and hear animosities, charges, and attacks. Whether or not the matter will be settled Saturday when the state conventions meet at Lubbock remains to be seen, but our opinion is that Texas is due for more politics in the very near future.

PRAIRIE CHICKENS DUE FOR TUSSELE THIS WEEK

A number of our local Nimrods left Terry, Wednesday evening, and early Thursday morning, headed for the wilds where the prairie chickens grow and where they belong.

As we go to press (Thursday) we have heard no reports from the number of chickens they brought back, but our guess is that the feathered clan will be sadly diminished by nightfall.

SEED SALES WILL NOT BE APPLIED ON PRESENT LOANS

Attributing the policy to "the desire to enable the farmers to use their seed money toward ginning expenses," Owen W. Sherrill, regional director of crop production loans, has informed P. F. Murray, field inspector here, the Dallas office "will not require farmers who were granted crop production loans this year to pay the proceeds from the sale of their cottonseed on their loans." Gainers were asked to co-operate with the field inspectors in handling the crop loans.

STATE HIGHWAY PATROL WARNS ABOUT CAR LIGHTS

The State Highway Patrol is waging a war on defective lights on automobiles, Jack Reeves, patrolman, reported one case this Monday afternoon. In one week Reeves and his partner, E. C. Dorris, checked 582 cars with defective lighting systems. Light cars and trucks, cause more trouble than any other class of vehicles, the officer said.

RODEO AT ABILENE ON LABOR DAY

TWO-YEAR JERSEY HEIFERS MAKE GOOD SHOWING

E. W. Hester, Jersey breeder and results of tests and records on milk and butter fat production of two Jersey heifers in his dairy herd.

The two are daughters of Buttercup, and each freshened at about two years of age. The testing period extended over the month from July 23 to August 23. Pansy produced 1174 pounds of milk during the time, with a fraction more than 47 pounds of butterfat. Rosebud produced 904 pounds of milk during the same time, with a little better than 46 pounds of butterfat.

PLAINVIEW NEWS

Editors Note: We are indeed glad to welcome our Plainview Columbus back home, and ask the good people of her community to tell Miss Walk, all the news so she may send it in to the Index.

Something, probably the breaking of the high tension of last week's election strains has rendered the absent minded reporter, that great things have been happening here at Plain View which the rest of the world should hear about.

We would say again that crops have been growing larger and finer than the writer has ever seen them here before, but as we have been saying so much of this recently, is about time we stopped and knocked on wood, to ward off the evil Gods, ere another hail storm or some such evil visited us.

Crops that were damaged by the hail about five weeks ago are looking quite a bit more hopeful for at least a feed crop than they did for awhile. With the good rains that have been falling since, vegetables and other truck in that section are doing nicely, and with these and feed for live stock even those in the damaged belt will be better prepared for living than most of us were last year.

The farmers of the community are busily at work harvesting maize, while farmers wives are still busier canning food for winter use. Several new steam pressure cookers and sealers have been purchased in the community during the past few months, and with the abundance of vegetables grown here, there are very few canners that do not have a goodly supply of well filled cans and jars stored away.

Even with accomplishing so much worth while work, many have found time for a short vacation. Most of these have been taken, visiting relatives or friends in other sections of this or near by states, and fishing trips.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Austin and children, together with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Floyd attended the Primitive Baptist Annual Convention at Tahoka Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They report having had a delightful rest, while hearing some splendid preaching and singing and renewing acquaintance with old friends and making new ones.

Most everyone in this community have been attending the Church of Christ meeting. Rev. Bankhead has been holding at Berry Flat for the past two weeks.

Miss Lillian Harvey of Berry Flat spent last Wednesday night with Trula Berry.

Lorene Fletcher returned last Monday from a visit with relatives in Hood county and friends at Aspermont.

Glady and Alma Berry were visitors in Gail Sunday.

A number of the young people in the community attended the dance at the King home at Mesquite last Friday night.

As for the governors' race we believe there were no actual blows dealt with fist, feet or iron bars, but plenty of tongue lashing has been done, and is still being done but personally, I just wonder if our talking, arguing and fighting is going to keep the cotton price moving upward? If so, me for the soap box and boxing ring.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED AT SHOWER TUESDAY

Mrs. V. B. Hohn, who was Miss Alta Lee Payne before her recent marriage, was honored Tuesday afternoon at a shower and informal reception at the Baptist church, Mmes. I. Street and W. E. Vermillion were co-hostesses at the delightful affair.

Mrs. Hohn was invited to attend a social meeting of the T. E. L. class, and was entirely unsuspecting when she arrived. However, the large number of guests, many of them her old and Mr. Hohn's classmates, had begun giving her an inkling of what was in the air before the array of lovely and useful gifts appeared.

Misses Mary Jo Gates and Mattie Williams, high school classmates of the honoree, presented the gifts to her in a huge basket, expressing as they did so the esteem and affection in which the charming young lady is held by all who know her. As a coincidence, all kitchen and glassware were in shades of cream and green, working out a dainty color scheme in the bride's favorite colors. Linens, silverware, and other miscellaneous housekeeping articles were included in the list of tokens.

Refreshments of chicken salad sandwiches and iced tea were served to about fifty guests.

BIRTHDAY DINNER SUNDAY HONORS TWO

Honoring the sixty-fourth birthday of D. W. Harris and the eighteenth birthday of their nephew, M. L. Webb, and Mr. and Mrs. John Etter were gracious hosts last Sunday at their lovely home in the Wells community, entertaining a number of friends with a buffet dinner at one o'clock.

The day was spent in visiting and enjoying the variety of delicious eatables prepared by the hostess. The menu consisted of fried chicken, all kinds of vegetables, ice cream, and angel food cake.

Those present for the happy occasion were Misses Vera Askew, Eva Dell, Fran, and Mabel Harris, Lizzie Mae Burnett, Billie Lovine, Edie Bernice, and Eva John Etter; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Harris; Messrs Ollie McLaurin, Roy Askew, Otis, Ollie Deo, and O. L. Harris, and Lester Etter.

INFORMAL PARTY MONDAY FOR COLLEGE GIRLS

Honoring Misses Sus, Hester, and Mary Jo Gates, who arrived Friday from Canyon for a short stay with their parents, Mrs. T. M. Garner and Miss Christine Millweave were joint hostesses Monday evening when they entertained with a delightfully informal party at the home of the latter.

Tables were placed for forty-two when the guests arrived, and the sixteen players were soon deeply engrossed in the fascinating game.

Dainty refreshments of macedone salad, cheese tidbits, and iced tea were served to the honorees and to Misses Thelma and Irma D. Palmer, Florence Gary, Hazel Burk, Claire Ruth Nichols, Eva Dell and Mabel Harris, Laynette Smith, Louise Anderson, Louise Edwards; Mmes. Y. B. Hohn, and Allan Williams; and Mr. Mack Garner.

Mrs. Scott and daughter, Miss Marie, of Dallas, who have been guests for several days of her sister, Mrs. D. M. Estes, left Wednesday morning on an extended tour of Oklahoma. They were accompanied by Mrs. Estes, who expects to be away about three weeks.

"What are all those customers going in that store for? Is it bargain day?"

"They are not customers. They're bill collectors."

B. R. Stovall was in Lubbock business Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tomlin had as week-end guests his brother A. B. Tomlinson and family of पास, and R. P. Tomlinson and family of Post.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Benson on August 30, a ten and one pound son. Mother and baby are well.

Misses Lois Burdett and Faylinson were in Lubbock Wednesday.

The Officials of the O'Donnell Free Community Fair are especially anxious for each of the various communities around O'Donnell to have a community exhibit here on September 24. These community exhibits will be arranged and judged according to a score card just as they were at our fair two years ago. Since there is no money available with which to put out a fair catalogue, the community exhibit score card is being printed in this issue of the O'Donnell Index. We are asking that this score card be saved and used in preparing the community exhibit.

Score Card for Community Exhibit
No. 1—Cotton and Grain Sorghum—200 points. Either may be shown. (a) Grain Sorghum—Milo, Kaffir, Hegari. Two varieties may be shown. 10 heads each. (b) Corn—10 ears. Yellow Dent. 10 ears. White Corn, and 10 ears Strawberry or any other variety.

No. 2, Cotton and Wheat—200 points. Either may be shown. (a) four samples of 20 open bolls each, any variety, or (b) when open, not less than three or more than five inches in diameter, and two one gallon samples of threshed grain.

No. 3, Oats, millet or sweet potatoes—50 points. Either may be shown. (a) Oats—3 five inch bundles and two one gallon samples or (b) Millet—two five inch bundles and two one gallon samples or (c) Sweet potatoes—two one gallon samples.

No. 4, Peanuts or cow peas—50 points. Either may be shown. (a) Peanuts—Three single vines and two one gallon samples. (b) Cow peas—three single vines and two one gallon samples.

No. 5—Alfalfa, Sweet Clover, and Seeded Ribbon Cane—50 points. El-ther may be shown. (a) Alfalfa—Two five inch bundles or (b) Sweet Clover—Three five inch bundles or (c), Seeded Ribbon Cane—20 stalks.

No. 6—Annual forage crops—50 points. (a) One five inch bundle of Red Top Cane, (b) One five inch bundle of Orange Cane, (c) One five inch bundle of Black Amber Cane, (d) One five inch bundle of Darso. Any variety of cane may be substituted for any one of group No. 6 or Sudan.

No. 7—Fruits—50 points. Two one quart jars of plums, two one quart jars of peaches, two one quart jars of cherries, two one quart jars of apples, two one quart jars of pears, two one quart jars of berries.

No. 8—Vegetables—50 points. One watermelon, three cantaloupes, one pumpkin, one kershaw, three winter squash, ten tomatoes, ten bell peppers, ten onions, three cabbages, 12 Irish potatoes, ten beans, ten turnips, ten Irish potatoes, one gallon of beans, etc. There must be shown at least 10 varieties of vegetables.

No. 9—Attractiveness, arrangement, and neatness of the exhibit will count 100 points.

The above score card will also be used in preparing and in judging the Individual Farm Exhibits. At the fair held here two years ago, several very attractive exhibits were brought in by individual farmers, and it is hoped that these men will do the same again this year. Such exhibits teach us the value of diversified farming and add a lot to the fair. There is no better way of advertising your farm than by bringing your agricultural products to the O'Donnell Free Community Fair so that the public may see what you have produced. May we suggest that you start preparing your exhibits now for the day of our fair, September 24, will soon be here.

Holt, and Messrs. Olin Blair, Joe Rogers, and Raymond Walderr spent Sunday with Miss Winnie Rogers.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

I wish to express through the O'Donnell Index my profound gratitude to the good people of Lynn county for your loyal support and vote of confidence in me as shown by your ballots in the recent August primary.

I shall ever be deeply indebted to you for this splendid help. I tried to refrain in every way from anything that would bring reproach upon myself, for I felt that to run a fair clean race would be a credit to both myself and my worthy opponent. My sincere thanks to all who were interested in my race.

Respectfully yours,
H. C. STONEY.

"AMBULANCE SERVICE"

LUBBOCK, TEXAS, Sept. 1. The 10th annual convention of the Plains Ginners' Association will meet here next Saturday, Sept. 3rd, at 10:00 A. M. in the Hotel Lubbock for an all day discussion of problems confronting the ginners and ways and means for their solution.

The officials of the O'Donnell convention, some 400 of these being the ginners, while others will be machinery and supply men, officials of the State Association and others directly interested in the production of cotton.

P. E. Beeson was the first president of the Association when it had about thirty members. E. E. Patterson of Lockney is now president and has been instrumental in building the organization to its present size. C. J. Almet, deceased, was president a number of years and was one of the organizers of the association.

With from 230 to 240 gins here in the State, and those in the South Plains and some fifteen to twenty new plants under construction at this time, the Plains Association is one of the strongest and most progressive in the State, and it is in position to know state that the finest gin plants in the world are located on the South Plains.

Every ginner of the section is invited to attend the convention, and the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce is mailing out a last minute invitation to this week to all ginneres. The committee and officials of the association.

CARD OF THANKS

To take this means of expressing my gratitude to my many friends for their loyal support in the run-off Monday, and to congratulate the society on securing the services of so good a man as my successful opponent, Mr. Story. I appreciate every effort in my behalf, and I bear no ill will toward anyone, and ask all my friends and neighbors to do everything in their power to assist Mr. Story in his work, and a good, clean race, and like other personally, and every citizen of the county can rest assured we have a competent conscientious man in the clerk's office, and thank each of you again for your support and influence.

W. O. W. (BILL) JONES.

NEW MOORE NEWS

Let everyone in this community be through with the weather and fair, a good many will be wearing maise soon.

Mrs. T. H. Rogers of O'Donnell visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rogers, Sunday.

The revival meeting, which was begun last week, is attracting much interest in this community and the surrounding territory. Rev. Slate of Cole county is conducting the services here. Veil leading the song service.
