LOCAL M. E. PASTOR TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Rev. W. R. Burnett, pastor of the Methodist church here, and several delegates are making plans to attend the 23rd annual conference of Texas Methodism to be held at Amarillo November 10th.

Polk Street Methodist church, with Rev. F. Key as pastor, will entertain the conference, and Bishop Hiram A. Boaz of Houston will preside.

In addition to the survey of the work of the denomination afforded by the reports of the various delegates, Bishop Boaz and his presiding elders will reassess pastors who have served their present congregations the four years allotted by the church regulations. Admission to and promotion in the ministry will also be accorded a number of candidates.

Rev. J. N. Score will deliver one of two addresses each day.

Abilene, Clarendon, and Plainview are contenders for the honor of entertaining the 1933 conference, with Abilene leading in favor. The last annual held in Amarillo was in October 1921 when Bishop W. F. McMurray presided.

The exact number of delegates who will represent the O'Donnell church is not definitely announced but their plans will be completed within the near future.

MRS. J. B. MILES IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. J. B. Miles, pioneer resident of O'Donnell and the South Plains, was taken to a Lubbock hospital Monday of this week for treatment of an anemic condition which she has suffered for some time.

Mrs. Miles was accompanied to the hospital by her daughter, Mrs. R. P. Tomlinson of Post. Attending physicians diagnosed her case in the same way as did her local physician, and advised that she remain in the hospital for a few days until her strength is built up.

The index joins with other friends of the family in the hope that she may soon be completely recovered.

SCHOOL PER CAPITA PAYMENT DUE SOON

L. W. Rogers, Texas State Superintendent of Public Institutions, announced Saturday an additional payment of $1 per capita for the year ending Tuesday, November 1, toward liquidating the balance of $2.50 due on the 1931-32 school apportionment.

His billfold was full of government checks, and his car was very well loaded with merchandise purchased all down the country. He is armed with a 30-30 automatic rifle and a dirk, apparently ready for business.

"He was sullen at first, but later made a full confession that he had served at least two prison sentences, and that he is wanted in several other states, even volunteering the information that there is a $500 reward for his capture in New Jersey. The car was stolen in Connecticut and the man seemed to be 'cat on wheels' in every way.

Winnery consoled himself for his gullibility by the fact that he wasn't the only one who had fallen for his line, but still maintains that he'd like to get a good swat at the bird—provided of course that he didn't have the dirk or the rifle.

POST OFFICE CHANGE EFFECTIVE THIS WEEK

Miss Winnie Fairly took up her duties at the local post office Monday this week, and will in all probability remain there permanently.

Sam Singleton, who has been employed in that place has accepted a position as bookkeeper at the New Moore gin.

DUCKS AND GESE TO BE PLENTIFUL HERE

With opening of the duck season by a few days, aff, hunters in this section have already been prospecting around, seeing just how many they can bag this year.

All indications are that both ducks and wild geese will be reasonably plentiful on the South Plains this year, and daily papers report that other parts of West Texas will also be well stocked.

The unusually heavy feed crop is probably responsible for the unusually large number of fowls, and late September rains which filled many of the small lakes and ponds were also a factor. Opening of the hunting season in New Mexico fifteen days earlier than in the Panhandle has driven numbers of both geese and ducks into this territory for refuge, according to game authorities. The hunting season on ducks and geese will open next Tuesday, Nov. 1st.

SWINDLER UNSUCCESSFUL IN ATTEMPT HERE

Giving the name of G. J. Ringling, an enterprising general with a convincing line of patter almost succeeded in swindling Whitsett Drug out of some twenty dollars in cash and merchandise last Thursday morning. Instead of that, however, he is perhaps feeling more like a monkey than ever as he cools his heels in the county jail.

The man drove up in an Essex sedan about seven-thirty Thursday morning, seemingly in the biggest kind of a hurry. He introduced himself to Jimmy Millwee, a clerk on the job at that early hour, and produced credentials purporting to prove that he was a government man, employed by the Department of the Interior. He had broken his watch and was so favorably impressed with prices at the store that he decided to just buy a new one rather than have the old repaired. And while in the store, he decided that one of the new electric warming pads would be just the thing for winter, so he just bought one, offering as payment a check for twenty dollars, stating that it was a government check. His affable manners, his apparent sincerity and his telephone messages to officers in every direction.

Sheriff B. L. Parker stopped him at Tahoka after an exciting chase which was terminated by soft graded roads. The man readily admitted giving up the check, but insisted that it was his, and that he was really what he claimed to be. His arguments were so forceful and the papers so convincing that Parker phoned back the report that he believed the man was all right, but that he would hold him in the matter was further investigated.

While Mr. Whitsett and local officers were enroute to the county seat, however, Parker searched the man and his car and had learned that he was one of the smoothest swindlers he has ever hit out of our part of the country.

His billfold was full of government checks, and his car was very well loaded with merchandise purchased all down the country. He is armed with a 30-30 automatic rifle and a dirk, apparently ready for business.

"He was sullen at first, but later made a full confession that he had served at least two prison sentences, and that he is wanted in several other states, even volunteering the information that there is a $500 reward for his capture in New Jersey. GINNING REPORT PASSES 1200 MARK

Though delayed by rain Thursday and Friday of last week and by rain and cold the first of this week, cotton has been coming into O'Donnell at a fair rate this week.

A total of 1272 bales had been ginned up to Wednesday afternoon, an increase of 441 over last week's report. The extra day lost this week lowered the average to a certain degree, last week's report showing an increase of 563 bales over the week before, or 953 less bales this week than last.

This year's report is still far short of last year's. Total number of bales ginned up to the last week in Oct. 1931 was 3187, so that we are 1915 bales short so far this year.

The brisk report Tuesday seems to have cleared the atmosphere as this is being written (Wednesday noon) and unless another rain comes up before this issue of the Index is in the mail, next week's report should be much better.

The heaviest frost of the season came Tuesday night, being heavy enough to nip vegetation pretty thoroughly. Early morning risers report ice also.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

Whereas, in years past it has been the custom for boys to play pranks on All Saints' Eve, and

Whereas, in many instances damage and destruction of property has resulted from their misdirected sport, and

Whereas, business men, merchants, and aldermen have decided to call a halt to such damage and destruction by using stringent measures to protect property,

Therefore, I, as mayor of the City of O'Donnell, do call upon the parents and citizens of O'Donnell to cooperate with them in the effort to have a safe and sane Halloween, and hereby issue the warning that loiterers on the streets on the evening of October 31st will be confined in the city jail until a fine is paid.

W. S. CATHEY, Mayor.

BABy FISH PUT IN LAKES IN THIS SECTION

Of wide interest to fishermen in this part of the county is news that fifteen thousand baby fish, bass, crappie, and bream, have recently been distributed in three lakes near Post Oak. The lakes received 5,000, including the kinds; South Lake, owned by Bill Donaldson, received 2,000, and the Justiceberg Lake 3,000.

The remainder were distributed to ranchers for private use. The draw lake has been a gathering place for South Plains people for the past number of years, and each summer parties of O'Donnell people have joined the throngs who go there to enjoy the swimming, camping, and fishing.

MOVE UNDERWAY FOR SANE HALLOWEEN

Acting in cooperation with the mayor and city council, business men of the town are backing a move for what is described as a "safe and sane Halloween."

To add punch to their efforts, local officers have already stated that boys found loitering on the streets or away from their homes after a reasonable hour on the evening of October 31st will be placed in city bastille for safe-keeping until their parents call them out and pay their fines. Parents and the boys themselves are being warned of these measures in a proclamation issued this week by mayor W. S. Cathey.

The new campaign appears in another part of this issue of the Index.

In past years, business and residence, as well as personal property has been scattered and in many instances damaged by mischievous boys who should have known better than to pull the pranks they carried out. So flagrant were the escapades last Halloween that local property owners are determining to prevent the damage or destruction of their property.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Casey of Plainview will spend Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Nichols.

Miss French Heathington, who is attending Wayland College at Plainview, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Heathington.

Mrs. Robert Johnson of Pampa was the guest of the first of the week of Mr. and Mrs. Boss Johnson. She was accompanied on her return by her small son, who has been here with his grandparents for the past two weeks.

RUNAWAY TEAM SATURDAY CREATES EXCITEMENT

O'Donnell people were treated to an old-time thrill Saturday afternoon when a team of mules, hitched to a wagon, decided that the quiet life was beginning to pall, and undertook to remedy that state of things by bolting down Eighth street.

Making the curve with two wheels in the air, they whirled down the alley by the B & O Store, going in high. B. L. Davis' sedan and Dick Tune's new Chevrolet barely escaped a sideswiping as the wagon careened past with everybody yelling "head them off!"

They ran across the square behind the stores, and finally wound up their flight by running completely over another wagon standing on the open lots and entangling themselves very thoroughly.

The reporter maintained a distance during the untangling process, but a net very vague haze in that direction seemed to indicate that the atmosphere about was turning blue as the owners of the two teams struggled to get their teams unknixed.

The whole affair created an unusual amount of excitement, especially among the children, many of whom had never seen a runaway before.

ROOSEVELT AHEAD IN LATEST DIGEST POLL

The last issue of the Literary Digest, which makes a nation-wide poll each presidential year, reveals that the Democratic ticket is leading the Republican ticket by 244 to 55 electoral votes, while individual ballots show a substantial majority for the Roosevelt-Garner banner.

Naturally, this estimate is not conclusive, or even complete at this date; but newspapers all over the nation are co-operating in getting the poll.

ELECT OFFICERS FOR LEGION AUXILIARY

Mrs. L. E. Robinson was elected president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fern Allen post of the American Legion at a business meeting held at the hall Friday afternoon.

Other officers were elected as follows: Vice-President, Mrs. John Earles; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. R. O. Stark; chaplain, Mrs. L. F. McAfee. Chairmen of the various committees will be appointed later, and will be announced in the near future.

The Auxiliary has been an important factor in club circles in O'Donnell since its organization three years ago, and the coming year is expected to be one of the most successful periods in its history.

EAGLES' SCREAMS

Order Senior Rings Orders were placed this week for Senior class rings, according to announcement Tuesday from the reporter.

A three-year contract was signed with the company, but it was decided that standard rings will not be used.

Loss Game To Lamesa The Eagles came out with the very small end of the score Friday when they played a Lamesa team on the home field. However, coach Johnson's lessons and their own training are beginning to take effect, as the score was only 20-0.

The Pep Squad girls were out in full force, and their enthusiastic support gave the team strength and nerve to play a cracking good game right up to the final whistle. M. L. Webb, Gwen Line, and Ben Morrison starred for the Eagles, and Cecil Stewart and Red Moore for Lamesa.

Drawing Class Increases Additional members have enrolled in the art class, bringing the total up to ten this week. A visit to the studio is interesting to anyone. The desks are arranged in orderly rows, each one equipped with a drawing board, and each member of the class is displaying much interest in the work.

The walls of the studio are already lined with specimens of their efforts, and many of them are very good indeed.

Grammar School News

Seventh Grade pupils have recently written sketches of Thomas Jefferson, Henry Ford, Luther Burbank, and Abraham Lincoln, and found the work very interesting.

Wynell Scott and Hope Shook drew posters for display at the P. T. A. fire prevention program Tuesday afternoon. Low Seventh Geography pupils are drawing maps of Eurasia and are memorizing "In Flanders' Fields."

Sixth Grade pupils met this week for the third meeting of their Better English Club, at which time newspapers were read. This work is proving to be very interesting indeed, and they are discovering traces of several budding Horace Greeleys and Ring Lardners in their midst. They are also making fire prevention posters for this week.

Fifth Grade reports the loss of a pupil, Wilma Jane Phillips, and the enrollment of a new one, C. R. Burleson. Elizabeth Ann Gantt made a perfect record in spelling for the picture show, "The Three Bears," and several of the highly English pupils are writing a diary.

Doris Lawler is captain of the Fourth Grade health squad. Her report also stated that they are keeping close check on spelling scores.

Pupils having a perfect spelling record in the Third grade this week are Margie Buchanan, Helen June Gantt, Doris Lee, and Mary E. Elkins and Doris Nell Gates.

Wilda Gene Campbell is back in the Second Grade room after a two-weeks' absence, according to their reporter. The others have been studying hard and have a new Reader this week.

First Grade pupils have been making Halloween decorations for their room, and have a border of white, pumpkins, and black cats all around the wall. They recently put on a picture show, "The Three Bears," and several of the interior scenes are still on display in the room.

DRAWING CLASS OBSERVES NATIONAL ART WEEK

Since the class had not been organized long enough to have specimens of work from the pupils during national art week, they are observing it this week.

Watercolors, oils, and pen and ink sketches done by students are on display this week in windows of the business houses, and have attracted much favorable comment.

GUYE'S STORE FEATURES COTTON WEEK SPECIALS

To carry this point, Guye's store is this week featuring "Cotton Week" in connection with the "Dollar Days" specials. A list of our ready-made goods is placed on another page of the Index in which a number of timely items are listed at attractive prices.

IMPROVED NIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

Lesson for October 30 THE CHRISTIAN AND LAW OBSERVANCE (World's Temperance Sunday)

Romans 12:1-17; 1 Corinthians 6:13-17; Galatians 6:1-16; 1 Peter 2:11-17. GOLDEN TEXT—Be ye devoted: God is to be glorified for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. Galatians 6:7.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Law for Me to Keep. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Observing the Law for the Sake of Others.

TOPIC FOR PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Church and Law Observance.

I. The Christian's Obligation to the State (Romans 13:1-7). The believer is a citizen as well as a Christian. The instructed Christian will be loyal to the state as well as to the church.

1. Obedience to rulers (v. 1-4). This obligation is upon all Christians. The civil government is ordained of God and rulers are his representatives.

2. The spirit in which the Christian renders obedience to rulers (v. 5). He should regard it as his obligation, not only because it serves a good purpose but because it is morally right.

3. Method of expressing this obedience (v. 6-7). The citizen who enjoys all the benefits of a government is morally bound to support the government.

4. Payment of taxes. The business relation between nations must be regulated and for this the citizens should pay.

5. Veneration to magistracies, "fear to whom fear." Those who have the fear of God in their hearts will venerate their rulers and representatives.

6. "Honor to whom honor" is due. Civil officers should be honored, because of the ministry they perform.

7. The Christian's Self-Control (1 Cor. 9:19-27). The true way to get people to be free from intemperance is to help their evil self-control.

1. Paul's own life and example (v. 19-23). Through free from all men, he made himself servant unto all.

2. The Christian's self-control (v. 24-27). He uses those regular games to illustrate the need of self-control.

3. Life is a race (v. 24-25). In order to win a prize there must be self-denial and self-control. The Christian obtains life by contact with Jesus Christ through faith (John 3:16; 5:24). This he must possess before he can begin the race.

4. It is a fight (v. 26, 27). The Christian has a real antagonist—his carnal nature.

5. The Christian Life and Walk in the Spirit (Gal. 6:1-10). Those who are freely justified in Christ will live and walk as follows:

1. Restore the sinning brother (v. 1). "Restore" is a surgical term which means the placing back of a sinner into the place of a member of the body of Christ and the wearing of a brotherly love as really to give us pain as the dislocation of a member of our body.

2. Bear one another's burdens (v. 2). Support teachers of God's Word (v. 6). It is incumbent upon those who are taught in the Word of God to give of their means for the support of the teacher (1 Cor. 9:14).

3. Do not weary in well doing (v. 9). Some fall of the reward because they quit even when the goal is near. 4. Work for the good of all men (v. 10). The Christian's behavior as a Sojourner and Citizen (1 Peter 2:11-17).

1. As a sojourner or pilgrim (v. 11, 12). Christians are pilgrims on the earth. They are journeying to their eternal home in the heavens. Such citizenship demands:

a. That they abstain from fleshly lusts (v. 11).

b. Behave so as to glorify God before the world (v. 12). The word "conversation" means behavior.

2. Behavior as citizens (v. 13-17). He has a responsibility as a citizen on the earth. As such he should:

a. Obey all requirements of civil rulers (v. 13). His duties as a citizen are to perform as the Lord's free but through service fear.

b. Honor all men (v. 17). We should see in every man the image of God, and in that sense give honor to him. 3. Love the brotherhood (v. 17). The brotherhood is composed of those who are children of God by faith in Jesus Christ.

4. Fear God (v. 17). This has a peculiar significance because in all probability, the wicked Nero was persecuting at that time.

5. Love the neighbor (v. 17). This has a peculiar significance because in all probability, the wicked Nero was persecuting at that time.

6. Love the neighbor (v. 17). This has a peculiar significance because in all probability, the wicked Nero was persecuting at that time.

7. Love the neighbor (v. 17). This has a peculiar significance because in all probability, the wicked Nero was persecuting at that time.

BRIDGE PARTY ENJOYED TUESDAY EVENING

Misses Beatrice Gardenhire and Rebekah Schooler were joint hostesses Tuesday evening at the home of the latter when they entertained with bridge and other games.

The entertaining rooms were made cozy and attractive by the use of autumn flowers, and the atmosphere of hospitality made the evening a very pleasant one for the guests.

Among those present were Misses Eva Dell Harris, Zada Simmons, and Vivian Pearce; Messrs. Tom Garner, Roy Lee DeBusk, Golden Simmons, and Charles Lawler.

BIRTHDAY DINNER SUNDAY IONORS TWO

Celebrating the birthdays of her son, C. E. Ray, and her brother, W. E. Heblson, Mrs. C. E. Ray arranged a delightful family dinner at her home Sunday at one o'clock.

The entire affair was a complete surprise to the honorees, who had forgotten about such things as birthdays until they were ushered into the dining room. A giant birthday cake laced with chrysanthemums from the hostess' own garden formed the centerpiece for the attractive table.

There a delicious three-course dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heblson and Mr. and Mrs. Ray enjoyed the occasion.

FIFTH MONDAY SOCIAL AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Ladies of the First Baptist church will be hostesses Monday afternoon to ladies of the other churches of the town when they entertain with a social at their church.

Every member of the Fifth Monday Federation is cordially invited to be present for the interesting program, which will begin at three o'clock, and for the social hour which will follow.

JUNIOR SEWING CIRCLE ORGANIZED WEDNESDAY

Little Miss Allie Joe Schooler was hostess at the home of Mrs. B. M. Haymes last Wednesday afternoon when a group of the very young ladies organized a sewing club.

Quite in keeping with their years, the small guests spent the afternoon making doll clothes and linens, and in the center enjoyed by ladies of their tender age. Games were enjoyed when sewing ceased to be amusing, and apples were served as refreshments.

Those present were Misses Marjorie Lambert, Aubra Lee Shook, June Marie Gibson, Ruby Lois Shook, and the hostess.

What Has LIGHT To Do With Convenience

Remember. Duty comes during the night—how handy it is to switch on a bed lamp right over your head or a bedside lamp at your bedside, with the ball light switch within arm's length and the necessary light almost as easy. Half-a-dozen steps and the bed, kitchen or living room is flooded with light. Light is sufficient everywhere it is needed. That is real convenience.

Everybody Eats More In the Fall

And that means more work for the housewife unless she is one of the more-than-a-million young ladies who do their cooking electrically. She is, she hasn't a worry in the world—a hot lunch or a weighty dinner, one is as easily prepared as the other. The electric range does the work she takes it easy.
