

Texas Electric Service Company day appealed to parents to caution their children about flying kites near electric wires.

"Th windy season brings kite flying time and this traditional sport is one that is lots of fun for children if it is done safely."

Local youngsters who fly kites have been careful and cooperative in the past and we've had no serious mishaps in several years, but many cases of injuries to kites made right and down right flying is an enjoyable, wholesome sport.

Play Set For PTA On 14th

The regular meeting of the O'Donnell PTA will be Monday, Feb. 14th at which time a play titled "Deep Are The Roots" will be presented.

The group was pleased with the number of questionnaires returned, but if you have one at home that has not been filled out, please do so today and return by your child.

Geo. Mahon Writes From Washington

The first month of the new Session of Congress has been unusual and eventful because of the Resolution in regard to the defense of Panama which we passed upon the urgent recommendation of President Eisenhower.

My only direct contact with the President since returning to Washington was to shake his hand at the reception which he and Mrs. Eisenhower gave at the White House for Members of Congress and their wives.

Generally, if you carry on a business as a sole proprietor, or if you render service as an independent contractor or as a member of a partnership or similar organization, you will have self employment income.

The computation of your self-employment tax is made on separate Schedule C which, with attached Schedule C-a should be filed with your individual tax return.

In a radio debate last week with John Taber, former Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, I predicted that Congress would reduce by two billion dollars the President's request for new funds.

We called Secretary of Defense Charles Wilson before us this week and began hearings which will run several weeks.

As Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, he was also before us this week. He is the top military officer of our Government, a very powerful and forceful character.

Mrs. Wells Hosts Club

The home of Mr and Mrs. E. T. Wells was the scene of a delightful Valentine's party Friday night honoring the husbands of club members.

The home was attractively decorated in the Valentine theme with a large red and white heart on the front door with red streamers on the tables and an arrangement of red roses (the Club's flower) for the mantle. Place cards were hearts.

The meeting was a six o'clock dinner served buffet style. Menu for the meal included baked ham garnished with pineapple slices, cherries, and red crabapples, a cranberry salad, candied yams, string beans, vegetable salad, hot rolls, apple pie and coffee.

After the delicious meal, games of 84 were enjoyed. Attending were Messrs. and Mesdames, R. B. Ballaw, John Earles, A. H. Kneeling, Ben Moore, sr., C. D. Dickens, Roy D. Smith, Warren Smith, Clint Tyler, D. E. Sumrow, E. T. Wells, Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Menefee, Madams: J. P. Bowlin, A. W. Gibbs, Hal Singleton, sr., J. L. Shoemaker, Jr.

The next meeting will be Feb. 16, the anniversary luncheon, in the home of Mrs. John Earles.

TAX QUIZ

If you itemize deductions on a Long-Form 1040, you can deduct most non-Federal taxes paid by you. You CAN deduct:

- 1. Personal property taxes.
2. Real estate taxes
3. State retail sales taxes
4. Auto license fees
5. State poll taxes
6. State gasoline tax (Texas, 4c per gal.)

You CANNOT deduct 1. Any Federal excise taxes on your personal expenditures, such as taxes on theatre admissions, furs, jewelry, cosmetics, railroad tickets, telephone, etc.

2. Federal social security taxes.
3. Hunting licenses, dog licenses, auto inspection fees
4. Water taxes.
5. Taxes paid by you for another person.
6. Texas State cigarette tax.

Every self-employed individual must file an annual return of his self-employment income on Form 1040 if he had at least $400 of net earnings from self-employment in 1954.

If your income was derived solely from salary or wages or from dividends and interest on investments, capital gains, annuities, or pensions, you will have no self-employment income and no self-employment tax to pay.

Generally, if you carry on a business as a sole proprietor, or if you render service as an independent contractor or as a member of a partnership or similar organization, you will have self employment income.

The computation of your self-employment tax is made on separate Schedule C which, with attached Schedule C-a should be filed with your individual tax return. The self employment tax is a part of the income tax.

Local Stock Show Is Week From Saturday -- Feb. 19th

Plans have been completed for the O'Donnell Community Junior Livestock Show, which will be held here on Saturday, Feb. 19, sponsored by the businessmen of the city.

James Reed, O'Donnell Vocational Agricultural teacher, and Bill Griffin, county agent, report FFA and 4-H boys expect to enter 71 pigs, 19 calves, and 8 lambs in the show.

The show will be on the Smith lots across the street from Post Office.

The committee of business men raising the premium list and making other show arrangements is composed of Homer Hancock, Weldon Martin, John Ellis, J. W. Gardenhire, James Forbes, and Ralph Beach.

The O'Donnell boys will also show their stock at the Lamesa show on Feb. 24, 25, and 26, and at the Lynn County show in Tahoka on March 4 and 5.

SHOOK BUILDS BUILDING

Jeff Shook has nearly completed work on a 22 by 32 foot office and workshop building just south of his present plant. Estimated cost will be $1800. The sheet iron building will have a rear door to admit a tractor. In the shop installation of L. P. gas tanks will be done -- the trend in farming.

Over The Top

John Ellis, local chairman of the O'Donnell March of Dimes, reported Saturday having collected $1566.60 for local March of Dimes. O'Donnell's quota was $1475. More money is expected in the next few days to swell this total.

Mr. Ellis said that to list all who assisted in the drive would include everyone of this area but that he wanted to express special thanks to the Fire Department, Joe Burkett and his Musicians and others on the recent variety show, the telephone employees, the 1946 Study Club, the School as well as the H. D. Club. Mr. Ellis said he was very pleased with the fine cooperation. This year the public containers netted $175 -- more than twice last year.

Mr. Everett Berryhill visited in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Amos Barton and family last Friday and Saturday. Jerry Barton returned home with his grandfather for a visit.

Mrs. L. W. Barton visited several days last week at Knox City with her father who has been ill. He was improving when she returned home Friday.

Jim Christopher is up after being ill for past 10 days.

Singleton Sells Hardware Store

Clyde Winans Buys Firm

Announcement was made this week of the sale of Singleton Hardware to Clyde Winans.

Hal Singleton, Jr. former owner of the combined hardware and appliance firm, has moved to his building across the street where he will have a line of appliances and T.V. sales and service with the further association of Vernon Cook and Joe Burkett in the service department.

Mr. Winans, new owner of the hardware firm in the Singleton building, moved here about a year ago from Big Spring as manager of the Paymaster Gin here. He is married and has two children.

The former Singleton Hardware was the oldest continuous business firm in town being founded in 1913 by the late Hal Singleton, Sr. as a lumber and hardware business near the depot. After about five years the firm moved to its present location in a frame building. In 1928 the present 75 foot string of modern brick buildings were constructed. The lumber business was discontinued, and until 1928 the firm was a general mercantile business carrying a line of groceries. In 1922, a son, Hal, Jr. entered the firm and in 1944 became the sole owner of the firm.

I thank each and everyone who contributed to our school for the March of Dimes Drive. Adeline E. Payne (Teacher)

Important Bills

Two major - but antiquated - Texas laws soon will be modernized to meet present day requirements, if recommendations of the State Bar of Texas are adopted by Legislature.

A New Probate Code and Corporation Act were endorsed by the board of directors of the state lawyers organization at its meeting just concluded in McAllen, and will be introduced in the Legislature as bar-sponsored measures.

Both measures have been studied carefully over a period of several years by many of the outstanding lawyers of the state. Present drafts have been discussed at a number of legal institutes held in all parts of Texas.

Fire Hits House

Fire at 6 a. m. Friday destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Gomez near the section house. The house was property of Santa Fe R. R. Mr. and Mrs. Gomez and three children were asleep and barely awakened losing all clothing and house furnishings. Fire Chief F. M. Jones said that possible cause of fire could have been wiring as Mr. Gomez said no stoves were lighted. The home was well ablaze before the alarm was sounded. Many of the town are taking the family needed clothing, etc. He is a section employee of the railroad.

The night before the Fire Department answered a 9 p. m. call to Farmer's gin to put out a trailer loaded with burrs.

Winter Rains

A weak cool front Thursday gave up 17-100ths of moisture here. The fall was as much as 1-2 inch at G. C. Aten place east of Harmony and even heavier a few sections west of his farm, Mr. Aten said.

Giving the finny tribe a bad time at Fort Aransas last week were several from this vicinity. Harvey Burkett of Welch, B. B. Street and wife, Homer Davis and wife, Gum Minton and wife, all of here and Ernest Turner of Welch.

Home economists estimate that the average homemaker will dry approximately 16 washer loads of clothes a week. Some of these loads will dry in five minutes. Other fabrics take as much time as an hour — or more — to dry. The average load requires about 30 to 35 minutes to dry. Gas for drying clothes costs approximately 1 cent an hour. Based on the above averages, it is estimated that the homemaker will use a dryer about five hours a week — or 260 hours a year. See your dealer today. How many "horses" would you like?

Every driver has different requirements. Chevrolet, with four ultra-efficient new engines, offers the widest range in the entire industry. Whatever you want—acceleration, thrift, effortless cruising—you'll find it here in a valve-in-head engine built by the valve-in-head leader!

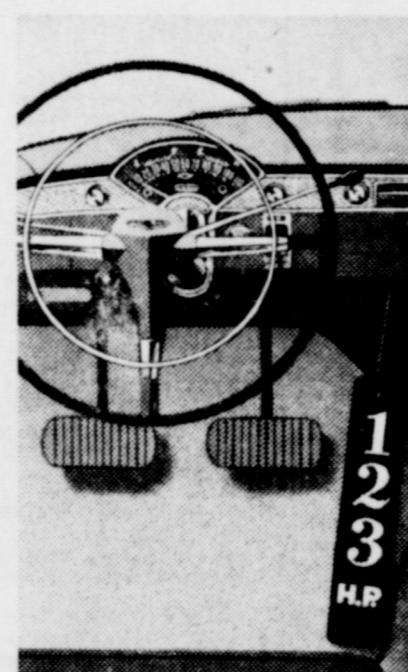

Created for drivers who put a premium on blazing acceleration, the "Super Turbo-Fire V8" has all the advanced engineering features of Chevrolet's V8 design . . . plus dual exhaust system and a four-barrel carburetor. Optional at extra cost.

A silk-lined cyclone of power, the "Turbo-Fire V8" boasts the shortest stroke in the low-price field. More compact than other V8's, it has the highest compression ratio (8 to 1) in its class . . . and the exclusive Chevrolet 12-volt electrical system.

The "Blue-Flame 136" takes advantage of the cushioning effect of Powerglide* to set the standard of six-cylinder valve-in-head efficiency, gives the ease of automatic shifting at lowest price. It, too, has 12 volts . . . and quiet hydraulic valve lifters.

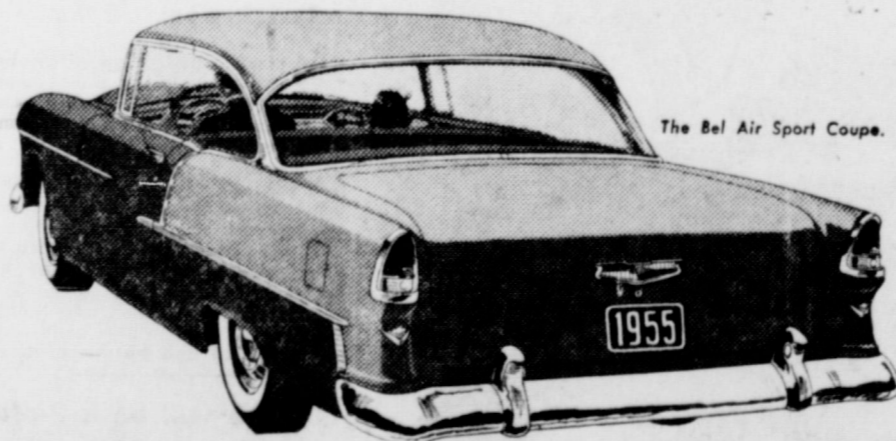

The ultimate development of Chevrolet's 26 years' experience with the valve-in-head six, the "Blue-Flame 123" is the world's yardstick for automotive value. And its thrifty 7.5 to 1 compression offers performance that is gratifyingly smooth and lively.

All with the style that's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars

No matter which engine you choose, you get Chevrolet's sparkling-new body design, the smartest styling on the road. You get that commanding view through the Sweep-Sight windshield, visibility that lets you see all four fenders. You get a velvety ride you never expected from a low-priced car . . . a "big-car" way of going that stems from the flexing ease of Glide-Ride front suspension, the stability of outrigger rear springs. You get your pick of three modern drives, a full range of power assists . . . and you get all this with Chevrolet's well-known thrifty ways. Come drive a Chevrolet and discover the whole story!

Alcan Highway Travel Called Heaviest Yet

FAIRBANKS—Still another wilderness is falling before the modern motor vehicle. The Canadian government reports that traffic over the 1,520-mile Alaska highway is at least double that for 1951. The tourist is beginning to crowd the wolf and ptarmigan for room.

A lasting monument to the genius of the American army engineers who built it in record time, the "Alcan," as they called it then, winds through some of the finest fish and game country in North America. It traverses the Peace River farming plains, skirts blue lakes and majestic mountain ranges, visits picturesque Indian villages and crosses swift streams of purest water.

Part Gravel, Part Macadam

The Canadian terminus of the part gravel, part macadam, 26-foot-wide roadway is at Dawson Creek, the American at Fairbanks, Alaska. Best way to reach the Dawson Creek jumping-off-place by car is from Prince George, B.C., over a new highway. The old trail was a standard road from Edmonton, Alberta.

The United States maintained the entire highway until 1945, when Canada took over administration of its 1,220-mile share. Until 1948, the Canadians wisely refrained from issuing travel permits indiscriminately, fearful lest some come to grief miles from help.

Now wooden fills over quaking muskeg have been replaced with steel and concrete. New bridges are constantly being built. Filling stations and hostleries plentifully dot the route. Highway patrols prowl constantly.

No longer is a travel permit required, and a motor trip to Alaska is a safe, simple possibility for anyone with a good car and a respectable vacation budget.

Home of Indians, Aleuts

Before the Gold Rush of 1898, Alaska was populated largely by Indians and Aleuts. Visitors from the outside were fur trappers, hunters and fishermen. When Secretary of State William H. Seward bought the territory from Russia in 1867 for $7,200,000, many Americans thought the price too high and called the new possession "Seward's Folly," or "590,000 square miles of icebergs and polar bears."

Some Moles Dangerous Philly Doctor Warns

CHICAGO—Although more than 99.9 per cent of all moles are harmless, some may turn into the worst kinds of cancer—highly malignant, very invasive and promptly fatal—Dr. Albert P. Seltzer, of Philadelphia, warned.

"Many people feel that just because a mole or other growth has been present since birth, it will never cause trouble," Dr. Seltzer says. "This is wishful thinking. We are all born with teeth, with tonsils, with an appendix. Yet frequently these organs become diseased and must be removed. The same is true of the common mole."

"Should every mole be removed? The answer is no. Most moles need no treatment except for cosmetic reasons. But certain kinds of moles are dangerous. A mole that increases in size, a mole that bleeds readily, a mole that becomes irritated or inflamed may already have become cancerous and certainly should come out at once."

Dr. Seltzer pointed out that black moles, particularly blue-black, green-black or slate colored ones, are prone to become malignant. Moles on the foot are quite dangerous and should be removed, as should moles in places exposed to constant irritation or chafing, such as along the collar line, in the shave area of the face, on the lips of a pipe smoker, along the belt line or in the armpit.

Egyptians Made Elaborate Dolls For Children

No one knows for sure who made the first doll, but it can be assumed the earliest figures were sacred—gods and ancestor images. These doll-like forms were not toys for the delight of children, but solemn religious figures that preserved the tribe from harm.

Then, somehow, somewhere, a change took place. Dolls became a toy for girls and the most popular Christmas toy of them all.

Dolls have been discovered in Egyptian tombs and ruins, some even had real hair; some were ivory, carved by craftsmen for a king's daughter; others were made of straw by an overworked mother in a peasant's hut.

In ancient Greece dolls were played with and cherished by little girls until they were ready to be married. Then their dolls were taken to the shrine of a favorite goddess; and, often with tears, presented to her. The Roman children played with dolls, too, but after the fall of the Empire there came a long period in which there is no record of dolls.

Not until the thirteenth century when dolls were made in Nuremberg and dressed in the fashions of the times did little girls again play with dolls. They were here to stay.

By and by in Europe, the French fashion dolls became all the rage, not for children to play with but as models from which fine ladies could pattern their own modish costumes.

In America, the Indian children had dolls of their own made of rawhide and feathers and wood.

Pioneer children had dolls much like these, and some were made of braided cornhusks, or nuts, or cornucobs, or rags, and were dearly loved in spite of their plainness.

Much later, lifelike dolls were imported from Germany, where the doll industry had reached enormous proportions. These dolls had fine china heads with carefully painted faces and kid bodies that were jointed at the arms and legs. Later there came the Japanese-made dolls, which were inexpensive enough for almost any child to own. Then the American-made dolls began to appear—the special dolls, the kewpies, billikens, Buster Browns, teddy bears, Patsy dolls and Shirley Temples and phonograph dolls, with all the host of others that have followed, and which are still to come.

Broiler Chickens Give Farmers New Product

GEORGETOWN, Ohio—A boom in the broiler chicken business the last five years has given farmers near this Ohio town a new farm product that can be produced profitably—eggs for hatchery purposes.

A good example of a farmer who has gone into this business in a big way is Wayne Bach, R. F. D. 2.

Since most of his eggs go for the broiler trade, Mr. Bach raises New Hampshire Reds, a fast maturing, meat type bird, preferred by many broiler raisers and the market.

His breeding flock consists of 1,000 hens and one rooster for each 10 or 12 birds. His egg production runs about 50 to 55 per cent now and is increasing.

As many farmers have done, Mr. Bach converted a barn into a laying house. The former dairy barn measures 36 by 60 feet and 550 birds are housed on the mow floor and another 450 on a floor constructed above the mow floor.

A chain conveyor system carries feed from a hopper on the first floor to feeding troughs on the upper floors. It's a great labor saving device, but Mr. Bach still has to carry feed sacks about 12 feet from his truck bed to near the hopper.

A motor on the conveyor system automatically starts every hour and a half and runs for 15 minutes. That's the length of time it takes to carry adequate feed to the laying flock.

Pastor Tempers Justice With Mercy

LIBERTY, Ky.—In a big city when a theft is committed, the crime is reported to the police and the cold, indifferent process of the law works to catch the thief and punish him.

In a small town, the law against theft is sometimes tempered by the community heart, or spirit of neighborliness.

Someone stole two lengths of garden hose and a sprinkler from the lawn of the First Christian Church. The pastor, who believes that justice is always to be tempered with mercy, placed an ad in the Casey County News, the home town newspaper, that directed the thief as follows:

Only Car at its Price* . . . So Smart! So Big! So Powerful!

*You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars!

Whatever you want most in a car—beauty, size or performance—you get it in extra measure in a Pontiac. In fact, when you choose Pontiac the decision comes very easily—because Pontiac alone, at its price, gives you everything!

For example, take Pontiac's distinctive smartness. Certainly there is no question on this point. Pontiac is the one car that stands apart from all the others.

If it's size and big-car sure-footedness you want—Pontiac's your car! Pontiac's long wheelbase—124 inches in the Star

Chief, shown here, and 122 inches in the 860 and 870 series—is the plus wheelbase that provides the roominess, the comfort, the satisfying road-hugging security that only a big car can supply.

As for performance—once you get behind the wheel you have all the proof you need that Pontiac is way ahead in this department, too. Pontiac's spectacular performance starts with the most modern engine of all—the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8—specifically designed for Pontiac's all-new chassis to give you balanced performance. That means smooth, eager getaway in traffic; power to spare on the open road; and even more of Pontiac's traditional economy, dependability and long life.

All this adds up to a wonderful car and—with Pontiac's remarkably low price tag—a very wonderful buy. Come in soon and talk dollars and cents. If you're in the market for any new car, you'll discover you can easily afford all the pride and pleasure of a big, powerful, luxury-loaded Pontiac.
