Local classrooms to open Wednesday for students

Classes will begin in Iowa Park schools for the 1992-93 year Wednesday morning.

The unusually-early beginning of school was required when trustees accepted a proposed schedule that would permit completion of the fall semester before the long Christmas holidays.

The first bell is to ring at 8 a.m., and the tardy bell at 8:05, at all campuses.

School buses are to observe the same routes and time schedules as last spring, according to Robert Palmer, assistant superintendent.

Teachers are to have an early start, as they will be meeting Tuesday for a full day of inservice and the faculty's annual luncheon.

Any student who did not attend classes in the district last year, and has not yet registered, is encouraged to do so at the respective campus. Kindergarten through second grade are at Kidwell Elementary; third through fifth grade at Bradford Elementary; sixth through eighth at the junior high, and all others at the high school.

Elementary student assignments to teachers' classes are to be posted Friday afternoon on the front entrance windows, according to the principals.

A kindergarten parent orientation will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday, in the high school auditorium. There, school rules will be explained, as well as procedures, report cards and the grading system. For the first time in Iowa Park, kindergarten is being offered on a full-day, full-year basis.

Additionally, parents will have an opportunity to meet their child's teacher. Refreshments will be served.

Junior high school students are to check lists posted at either of the building's front doors, when they arrive Wednesday, to get their home room assignments.

All high school students are to go directly to the auditorium, upon their arrival Wednesday. They will receive instructions for the day and then go to assigned home rooms where they will be issued class schedules and other information.

Kidwell Elementary is enrolling pre-kindergarten students who qualify on the bases of free or reduced lunches and are limited in the English language. Those students will qualify for half-day pre-kindergarten, according to Ron Woods, principal.

Trustees almost ready to present new budget

School trustees continued their work Thursday night on the 1992-93 year budget, and plan two more meetings on the subject before month's end.

In addition to budget work, board members also took action on accepting resignations, hiring new personnel, and accepted bids for a number of supplies and services.

Another meeting was set for Tuesday, Aug. 25, and then a meeting will be held Monday, Aug. 31, at which time the boards plans to set its tax rate.

Throughout the multiple meetings on the budget, revenue based on a tax rate of $1.13 per $100 valuation has been used.

That is reached by presuming the Wichita County Education District will set its rate this year at 85 cents, and includes an 18-cent rate for local maintenance, the same as last year, and 10 cents for bonded and debt service, an increase of one penny.

Last year's CED tax rate of 75 cents, mandated by the legislature, must be increased by at least 10 cents, according to the same state mandate.

Total revenues anticipated, from all sources, would be $7,484,497, while estimated expenditures would be $7,381,404, leaving an anticipated $703,093 carryover to begin the following school year.

Resignations accepted included those from Gary Lyles, Tracy Otto and Cathy Gamble.

New personnel hired include Wendy Meadows, junior high reading; Rebecca Hatcher, junior high reading; Billy Thomas, junior high history and coach; Pamela Innes, half-day speech therapist, and Cheryl Frederick, fifth grade.

Bids approved included: Zerex, lease of copying machine and all supplies except paper for one year; IBM for computer upgrades at high school, $10,456; Ayres Oil for gasoline and diesel supplies; and classroom furniture including desks, filing cabinets and book cases, supplied by Indeco.

Tuition fee for transfer students from the City View school district was set at $1,500 annually per student.

Final two weeks work on streets announced

The city's street crew will wind up its asphalt pavement resurfacing for the summer during next two weeks, if weather permits, Mike Price, public works director, said.

Actually, the streets scheduled will amount to only slightly more than half those that had been put on the priority list for the year, but wet weather has prevented the crew from accomplishing its goal.

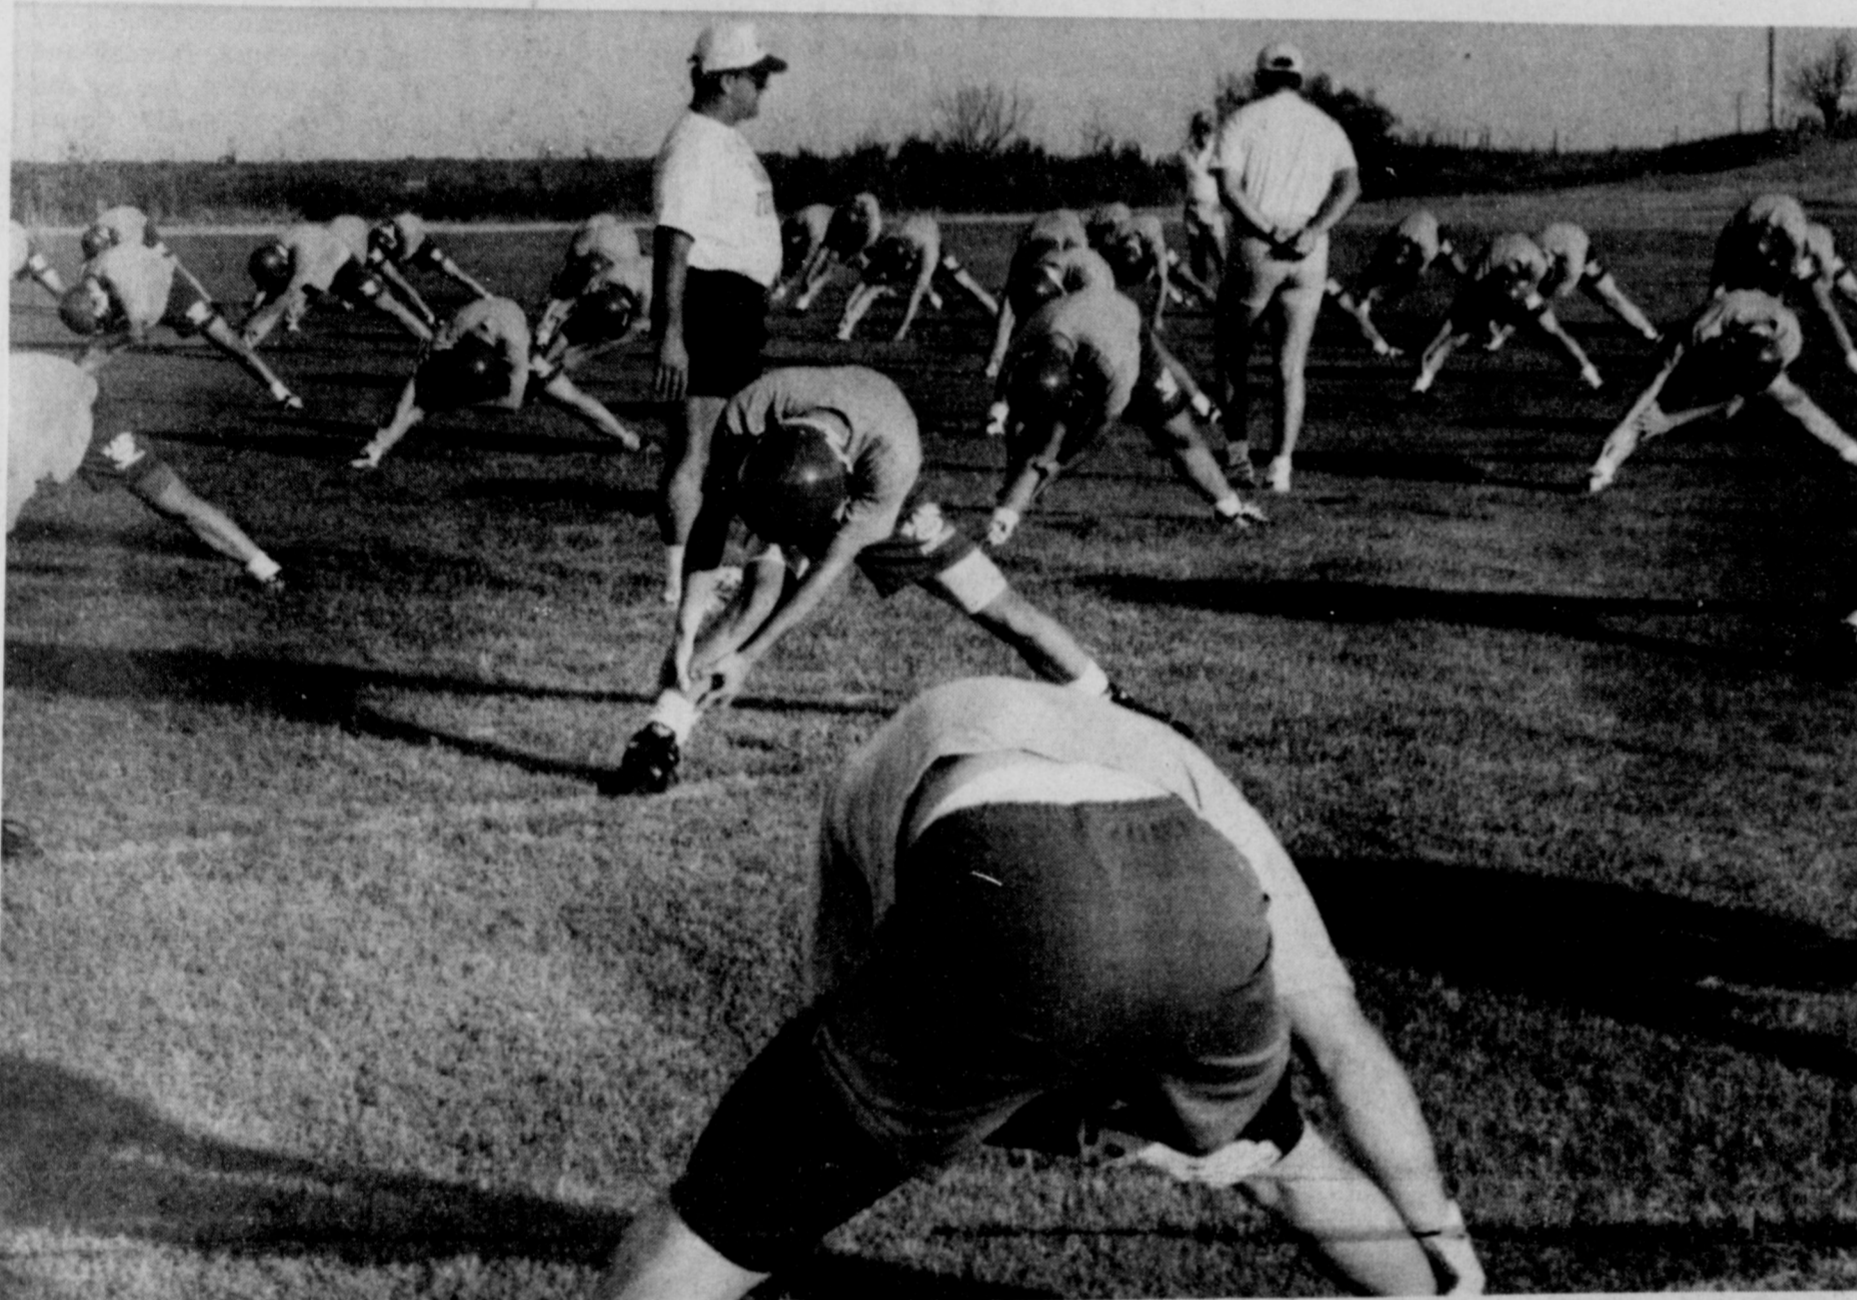

The priority list consisted of more work than the city council felt could be accomplished, going into the season, but Price and his crew were asked to do as much as time and weather would permit.

This week, Price told the council 55,160 square yards of pavement had received slurry applications. The priority list contained a total of 121,790 square yards.

The nine streets scheduled next two weeks will bring the year's total square yards slurred to about 80,000, Price said.

Workers are cleaning the surfaces of the streets to be worked next week. The schedule observed thus far includes surfaces being cleaned, residents along the street being notified the evening before the work is to be done, and asked

MUSCLE STRETCHING was the first order of the day during Monday morning's start of two-a-day workouts for the Iowa Park Hawks. The players will continue working out in shorts through today, put their pads on tomorrow, and hold a controlled intrasquad scrimmage Saturday morning. Tuesday will be the final twice-daily workouts, as school starts Wednesday.

Police report rash of criminal mischief

Six citizens became victims of criminal mischief, and a resident found himself the victim of a law.

Three of the criminal mischief cases reported during the past week to police related to vehicle glass breakage.

The first window breaking report was received Wednesday morning, from a resident in the 1000 block of Comelia, who said a vehicle's side window had been shattered.

Monday, a vehicle owner who lives in the 100 block of Westview told police of finding five BB holes in the windshield.

Tuesday, a report from the 300 block of East Garden indicated a window of a vehicle had somehow been broken out.

In that same block of East Garden, residents complained Sunday evening that someone was making Molotov cocktails and throwing them into the street.

No resident of the neighborhood reported observing the homemade fire bombs being thrown, but several areas of the pavement were blackened from the damage.

One parked vehicle had smoke on it, after one of the cocktails erupted nearby, police observed.

A resident in the 1100 block of Louisa reported last Wednesday evening that a natural gas meter had been damaged. Service to the residence was discontinued while piping was replaced, police said.

A vehicle owner told police Tuesday she thought someone had slashed a tire while it was parked in the 500 block of West Highway. The owner had driven the vehicle home before reporting the incident, and police could not determine if the tire had been slashed or just gone flat and was damaged from having been driven.

A resident in the 800 block of East Pasadena no longer has possession of an automobile he had purchased at an auction.

One of Iowa Park's officers ran a check on a 1968 Ford Mustang that normally was not parked in that neighborhood.

The computer reported the vehicle as having been stolen in June from Garland. Subsequent investigation determined the vehicle had been sold four different times in auctions since the car had been stolen.

It was impounded, and the owner, a Garland resident, claimed it. The Iowa Park man was left holding only a sales slip he received when he purchased the vehicle.

More than $800 worth of antiques were reportedly stolen from the yard

Sales tax report glows

People apparently are paying attention to the business community's encouragement saying, "Shop Iowa Park First."

According to this month's sales tax report from the state comptroller's office, Iowa Park sales taxes thus far have increased more than four times that of the other cities in Wichita County.

The city's rebate check this month was for $23,563.22, a 38.33-percent increase over the $17,033.91 reported at this same time in 1991.

That raised the year's total 22.59 percent over the same date last year. The new total is $139,450.69, as compared to last year's $113,752.33, according to the comptroller's office report.

Despite experiencing lower sales for the month, Burkburnett and Electra continue to show an increase for the year, as does Wichita Falls.

Burkburnett's rebate check this month was 4.66 percent less than the August 1991 check, and Electra was a minus 23.77. However, they still show increases for the year of 2.21 and 3.08 percent, respectively.

Wichita Falls is a plus 5.92 percent for the year.

Holliday continues to have difficulty with its sales taxes, with a minus 25.63 percent for the year.

The August rebate checks represent sales tax payments collected during June, by businesses that file monthly, and also quarterly filers for the second quarter.

City to sell lots

City aldermen Monday night authorized advertising for sale a tract of land, and passed a resolution accepting the 1992 certified tax rolls.

The tract of land, at 303 East Lafayette, was assumed for taxes as well as liens for mowing done by the city.

Despite its size -- the 50x71 foot tract is the front half of a regular-size lot and has no access to the alley -- council set the minimum acceptable bid for the land at $560.

The price covers all taxes owed to the city, school district and county, as well as the mowing fees, it was pointed out.

Actually, the city is selling two tracts, and began advertising their sale this week. The other site is at 610 East Bank, which was sold for taxes but the buyer failed to pay the balance of the contract after making a down payment.

According to the appraisal district, Iowa Park lost $267,097 in property values this year. The district said the appraised value stands at $96,042,274.

Every taxing entity in Wichita County, with the exceptions of the cities of Wichita Falls and Burkburnett, lost property values this year. Those two entities reported gains.

Iowa Park's school district lost $13,575,781, the appraisal district reported. Only Wichita County and the Wichita County Education District, with losses of $102,602,684 and $34,959,956, respectively, lost more in values than did the local school district.

In other business, the council voted to accept the minutes of the July 27 regular meeting, as well as the minutes of budget workshops held July 20 and 28 and Aug. 3.

Non-city residents bringing trash into the city and putting it either in dumpsters or at the landfill were cited as a problem during the general discussion period.

Only residents of the city are permitted by ordinance to put debris in the dumpsters, and dumping at the landfill by non-city residents is allowed only if a fee is paid.

Mayor Wayne House suggested that the current practice of selling in-city residents dumping permits to use the landfill should be continued, but at an annual fee higher than $2.

"That doesn't even pay for the printing of the permit tags," he said.

No vote was held on increasing the fee, but a consensus of the council was that the fee should be increased to some higher amount.

For the first time in several weeks, Alderman Virgil Woodfin was in his chair. Woodfin is recovering from both an illness and a broken hip, and arrived with the aid of crutches.

Community-wide garage sale set

A lot of business should be transacted in Iowa Park Saturday.

This is the second-annual Crazy Day promotion held by retail businesses, and also community-wide garage sale, sponsored by the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber has an advertisement in this issue, listing the locations where all the garage sales are being held.

Food commodities to be ready

U.S.D.A. food commodities will be distributed 2-6 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 20, at the First Christian Church, according to Frances Park.

Foods to be distributed this month include cornmeal, flour, peanut butter, butter, tomatoes and corn, Miss Park said.

Henslee, Roberts vows solemnized July 18

Kenneth Mark Roberts and his bride, the former Le Ann Henslee, have established residence in Fort Worth following their recent marriage and a wedding trip to the New England states.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Jones Henslee of Grand Prairie and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Cary Roberts of Iowa Park.

Doubling vows were exchanged by the couple July 18 in a ceremony performed at high noon in Robert Carr Chapel on the Texas Christian University campus. Dr. Jerry M. Poteet, pastor of First Baptist Church of Grand Prairie, directed the recitation.

The altar area was banked with a profusion of roses, lilies and hydrangeas. The same floral theme was carried throughout the reception area.

Pre-nuptial music was provided by classical organist Professor Emmet G. Smith, and soloist, Dr. Bette Neely-Plog.

At the chiming of the hour of 12, the bride's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Leona Fowler, were seated by Jimmie J. Henslee II, brother of the bride, and the groom's mother was seated by William Marshall Best, the groom's cousin, as the soloist sang "Be Thou With Them"--Bach.

The processional was "Trumpet Voluntary in D"--Purcell. As the bride was presented for marriage by her father and family, wedding guests sang, "Holy, Holy, Holy"--Dykes, and following the exchange of vows, the song of blessing was "The Lord's Prayer"--Malotte, by Dr. Neely-Plog. Professor Smith played "Trumpet Voluntary in C"--Purcell for the recessional, followed by the carillon ensemble.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of heavily beaded lace and tulle. It was fashioned with an off-the-shoulder neckline, a drop waistline and full tulle skirt that extended into a chapel length train.

Her full length veil was designed from several layers of tulle gathered onto a beaded lace headpiece.

The bride's Victorian bouquet was styled from several varieties and shades of roses framed by full blue hydrangeas.

Miss Kimberly Ann Phillips of Dallas served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Crisa Lejeune Hall of Grand Prairie, Miss Kendra Ann Kennedy of Houston, and Miss Christina Ann Melton of Dallas.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore identically styled dresses of ivory antique satin accented with a wide collar and sleeves of white organza.

Miss Phillips carried a bouquet similar to the bride's fashioned of pale pink roses and framed by full blue hydrangeas.

The bridesmaids each carried a bouquet of roses varying in color from shades of pale pinks to rich ruby reds. All bouquets were tied at the stems with wide ivory satin ribbons.

Richard Michael Roberts of Fort Worth served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Wayne Clifford Watson and Timothy Allen Brown, both of Fort Worth, and Hal Loring Roach, Jr., of Houston.

Ushers in addition of Jimmie J. Henslee II and William Marshall Best, were Kenneth Alan Burger, James Edward Dodson, John Adam Hill, Michael Jarrett Minor and Joseph Loel Ovalle.

Male members of the wedding party were attired in charcoal gray morning strollers.

The reception was held at the River Crest Country Club in Fort Worth where guest tables were adorned with large bouquets of lilies, roses and hydrangeas.

The bride's four-tiered cake was placed on an antique silver base. The cake was trimmed with a white and ivory floral pattern.

The groom's double tiered cake of white and dark chocolate was topped with sugared fruit and rested on a silver reflecting tray.

A bride's book was covered with ivory moire and displayed the gold initials KRL.

Bridal hostesses greeted guests and presided at the bride's book. They were Connie Jo Holland, Carey Dale Roberts, Patricia Helen Roberts and Marsha Faye Stallard, sisters of the groom, Melissa Roberts, the groom's sister-in-law, and Melanie Faye Stallard, the groom's niece.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Mark Roberts of Trussville, Al., Mac and Fenton Best of Kerrville, and Jack and Polly Moss of Houston. Other family relations of both the bride and groom attended from the states of Oklahoma, Alabama, Missouri, Virginia, Florida, Louisiana, and Massachusetts, and Texas.

The bride is a graduate of Grand Prairie High School, received the BFA from the University of Texas at Austin in 1988 and her MS from Texas Christian University in 1990. She is employed by Dallas County Community College and Tarrant County Junior College as a Speech Communication instructor.

Roberts graduated Iowa Park High School and in 1985 received the BS degree from TCU. He is employed by Practitioners Publishing Company as a Marketing Publishing Coordinator.

Michelle Hooker feted at shower

Michelle Hooker, bride-elect of Jamey Huff, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Sunday at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Lucille Hooker.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Bonnie Collins, and the honoree's cousins, Kristi Hooker and Staci Finley of Lawton, Ok.

Special guests were mothers of the bride and groom-elect, Kay Hooker and Elaine Huff.

The white covered refreshment table held a central arrangement of silk summer flowers. The honoree's cousins presided at the table.

Vases of fresh flowers were placed at vantage points throughout the party rooms. The couple will exchange marriage vows Saturday.

Art Association meets

Sheri Albus was in charge of the program Tuesday evening, when members of the Iowa Park Arts and Crafts Association met at the RAC.

She showed the group how to make Santa heads using halves of bleach bottles, white rug yarn and red felt.

Bobbie Heacox won the door prize, a spoon doll with cloth arms and legs, dressed in a pink paisley dress with a white apron. It was made by Pat Ikey.

During the business session conducted by Kathy Hicks, a visitor, Dorothy Johnson, was introduced. Plans were finalized for the Whoop-Do, and Sandy Conkling gave a list of materials that will be needed to make a wreath at the next meeting in September.

As I See It. . .

By Bob Hamilton

I'm getting tired of the lies politicians give the people.

No, I'm not talking about national politicians, at this particular time. My complaint is with county and state politicians.

County Judge Nick Gipson told us a lie, when he said voting for the multi purpose event center in Wichita Falls would not increase county taxes.

Now, since the commissioners told him they wouldn't go along with letting a couple dozen employees go, Gipson is talking a six-cent tax increase for next year.

All through the promotion time of the event center, Gipson never mentioned any kind of possible tax increase or laying off personnel to cut the budget. But he did say the center would not increase taxes if the county approved that $9-million bond issue.

That, in my opinion, is a lie, and I'm sure going to be reminding you of it when his office comes up for election.

The other lie from our state legislature.

That body told school districts and the public the state would do its part in funding public education. And that came after mandate after mandate had been placed on local school districts.

The state then began notifying, last year, that there was a "shortfall" of funds available to meet the state's obligation to local districts. And the 1991-92 shortfall was even less than will be for the 1992-93 year funding, from all I gather.

Our legislators keep mandating more and more expenses in education, and then pass on the cost to the local school districts.

In other words, when funds become short on the state's side, they just tell the local elected officials they'll have to raise their taxes even more in order to keep their schools open.

The state's shortfall of funds will pass on something like $400,000 to taxpayers of the Iowa Park school district, for funding last year's and this next year's education of our children.

Police

and front porch sometime Wednesday night from a residence in the 100 block of West Chestnut.

The residents were away from home, and returned Thursday to discover a large number of antiques having been taken. The owner valued the items at $855.

Iowa Park police arrested a man who had outstanding warrants against him from Val Verde County.

Officers took John Raymos, 32, into custody Tuesday evening in the 500 block of Alameda, when it was determined outstanding warrants had been issued for him for interference with child custody.

Ramos was transported to the county jail.

Two young men were taken into custody shortly before midnight Tuesday of last week at Lake Iowa Park, on charges of minor in possession.

Citations were issued against both individuals. A 17 year old was released after signing a personal recognizance bond, and a 15 year old taken to the police station and later released to his parents.

Worth Quoting

Okay. I've had it with all this Bob-bashing. What is it with cartoonists these days? Why are all the funny-looking, blob-shaped dimwits suddenly named Bob? The Far Side had a "Celebrated Jumping Bob Contest of Calaveras County" the other day. Guys named Bob are being eaten by sharks, choking on tiny Ninja swords in their turtle soup. This is humor?

Stop laughing!
When did the name Bob get to be so funny, anyway?

Who started all this? Was it Bob Newhart? Bob Hope? Bob Cummings? Bob Barker? There have been a lot of funny Bobs over the years, but why the sudden urge to name every goofy, off-the-wall character Bob?

Maybe it was that Bill Murray movie, What About Bob. Or maybe there's a funny Bob I've missed somewhere. Is there a Bob on the Simpsons, or a Homer, Alaska?

Is it Bob Vela? Bob Cratchit? Bob Denver? Bob Saget? Is there a Smothers brother named Bob? Did Mom like him best? Enquiring minds want to know.

Don used to be the funny name. Don Knotts. Don Adams. Don Rickles. Don Ameche. Don Quixote. These guys were probably all originally named Bob, but they changed it to Don when they went into showbiz.

Nowadays, Bob is the humorous name of choice. A comedian can walk out on stage and say, "Hello. My name is Bob," and the place comes down around his ears.

Maybe it was that commercial where the guy named Bob has his own freeway, his own speed limit, his own parking space. The police officer comes up to the window to write him a ticket, then smiles and says, "Oh, it's you, Bob." That's pretty funny stuff.

"Oh, it's you, Don," would never work. Frankly, I would prefer, "Oh, it's you, Ralph," or "Oh, it's you, Fred." But today's humor consumer wants Bob.

Bob Quixote. Go figure.
Bobby, on the other hand, has always had a bit of an impetuous, romantic flavor to it. It's affectionate, in a dashing, I-don't-wanna-grow-up sort of way.

Bobby Darrin, Bobby Kennedy, Bobby Valentine, Bobby Bounds, Bobby Witt and Bobby Bragan come to mind. Bobby is a playboy, a jock.

Bob is a dork. I'm not comfortable with this trend.

I grew up a Bobby. Most of my high school and college friends still call me that. I chopped it down to Bob when I got into the newspaper business and started seeing it in print. Bob was easier to type -- it's spelled the same way backward or forward -- and it fit better in one column. Besides, it looked more mature.

Bobby sounded like somebody who should be playing shortstop. Bob sounded like the guy in the pressbox, with the pipe and the plaid jacket.

That was then. Now, Bob is the guy at the water cooler, squirting water in his ear while someone sets his shoelaces on fire. Bob is a cartoon character waiting for a caption.

It may be time to rally the Bobs of the world and create yet another special interest group to lobby for federal dollars.

Bobs of America. BOA, for short. I can see the headlines now: "BOA squeezes funds out of federal agency. . ."

We could join forces with other downtrodden minorities. Blondes and white men come to mind. You show me a blonde-headed white guy named Bob, and I'll show you a class-action civil rights lawsuit waiting to happen.

This could be a powerful lobby in Washington, where Bob Dole is an influential senior senator who, like most people in government these days, gets very little respect. Bob Dole could be a big supporter of our cause.

Of course, the fact that he was on Gerald Ford's ticket in 1976 and they lost to Jimmy Carter and Walter Mondale could explain his lack of respect. Losing a vice-presidential race to a guy named Walter is about as bad as it gets, respect-wise.

By the way, Walter is my middle name.

Now cut that out!

Letters to Editor policy explained

The Leader receives numerous letters which cannot, for one reason or another, be published.

Letters will not be printed unless they are signed. A typed name will not do. And, for the sake of verification, the writer's telephone should be included.

Should the writer not wish his/her name printed, it will be omitted upon request. However, the letter will be kept on file to be read upon request.

Letters also must be free of libel. If not, they will not be published, because we will not edit their content.

Corrections will not be made if they change the message in any way, but will be edited to enhance their content.

In letters supporting political candidates or issues, the Leader reserves the right to limit their lengths.

We encourage your Letters to the Editor, and offer the paper as your forum for discussions of ideas and observations.

RAC NEWS
By SHERI KENNEDY

WEIGHT WATCHERS COMMUNITY MEETING

We will try to hold an informational community meeting for Weight Watchers some time later the month. The Weight Watchers group has not met this summer but we would like to start back this fall.

The tentative evening for meetings is Thursdays. If you are interested in joining or would like more information contact the RAC at 592-4471.

WE STILL HAVE.....

lots of Christmas trees, soap dishes and other ceramics we made this summer. If you have anything still here please stop by and pick it up.

FOR A GREAT SUMMER

We would like to thank all of the children who took part in our summer activities. We have had a great time and we hope you have too.

I would like to thank Candace Heidrich, Cathy Wikel and Rayelynn Coburn for all of their help and patience.

The cost is $1.50 and the production is "The Ant, The Grasshopper, The Cricket and The Beetle".

If your children have not had the opportunity to see the Story Patch Players don't miss this chance.

They encourage participation from their audience, teach them action songs with motions, and most important teach them the importance of using their imagination.

We hope you and your children can join us.

A PERSONAL NOTE

I would like to thank everyone who has been so supportive for me this past year. I am proud of the progress the RAC has made and I am sure great things lie ahead.

Please remember that this RAC belongs to Iowa Park and I hope you will continue to use and support its efforts.

Thank you again and remember, great things are happening at the RAC, join us!

BRIDGE WINNERS

In play Monday afternoon at the RAC bridge winners were Dolores Hamilton, first, with a score of 4,170 and Betty Dyer, second, with a score of 4,070.

STORY PATCH PLAYERS

The Story Patch Players will have their final summer performance tomorrow at 10 a.m. here at the RAC.

Mr. and Mrs. I.M. Mishoe

Mishoes to celebrate 50th

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Mishoe of Kamay will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday from 2 until 5 p.m.

The celebration will be held in the Community Room of the Kamay Fire Station. All friends and neighbors of the couple are invited to come by.

Mishoe of Loris, South Carolina and Johnnie E. Mahan of Wichita Falls were married there July 31, 1942.

They have three daughters, Jean Downes and Sandra Ward of Kamay, and Lanita Dyer of Holliday, and nine grandchildren.

Mishoe retired as an oilfield mechanic in July 1982. Mrs. Mishoe retired as a seamstress in June 1985.

Cub Scout NEWS

The Iowa Park Optimist Club hosted the Bike Rodeo Saturday for Pack Seven Cub Scouts.

Top Scout winners were Jared Hicks, first; Jared Davis, second; Will Clapp and Eddie Lynn, third.

Family members were also able to take part in the Rodeo. Winners were Johnathon Kieren, first; Hayley Henderson, second, and Lara Clapp, third.

The Lockes

First Baptist concert set Sunday

Texas based Christian recording artist, "The Lockes" will be in concert at First Baptist Church Sunday night. The concert will begin at 7 p.m. and everyone is invited to attend.

"Beginning as a family quartet 15 years ago, "The Lockes" have evolved into one of the most sought after groups in Christian music," said Jim Wright, music and education director of First Baptist Church.

Father Al and daughter Denise, original members, are joined by the brother and sister team of Barry and Carolyn Hazel to make up today's group.

Their performance will feature songs on their just released Nashville recording "Brand New Road", which is produced by Ben Speer of "The Speer Family". The title song and others on the project were written by Denise, a prolific young composer.

While the church is the major focus of their ministry, "The Lockes" perform annually at many fairs and festivals across the southwest. They have shared the stage with many country artists such as Moe Bandy, Becky Hobbs, Lee Roy Parnell, and others.

High energy best describes their concerts which include music styles from Southern Gospel and Christian Country, to Inspirational.

Rev. Irons gives Lions program

Rev. Margaret Irons, associate pastor of the Highland Heights Christian Church in Wichita Falls, gave the program Tuesday for the Evening Lions. She was introduced by Harvey Troutman, vice-president.

Rev. Irons said that many people asked her how she can justify being a minister and a female. To answer that question, she shared her call to the ministry and her understanding of the creation stories in chapters one and two of Genesis, the first book in the Bible, Jesus relating to women and Paul's view of women. She mentioned some of the women that played an important part in Jesus' life and ministry on earth, such as Mary, his mother, Mary and Martha, and the woman Jesus met at the well in Samaria and told her to "go tell."

John Van Dunk, a member of the Founders Club in Wichita Falls, and the current chairman of zone 4A, was a guest and discussed some of the plans for the year which involves frequent meetings of the presidents, secretaries and treasurers of the different zones, and the planning of interesting programs for the local clubs.

Pete Elliston, president, presided during the business that followed the program.

DEREK REDMOND FINISHED HIS RACE! WILL YOU FINISH YOURS?

The goal and dream of Derek Redmond was foremost in his mind on August 3, 1992, as he competed in the 400 meter run. While running he heard the pop in his right hamstring and pain forced him to go down on one knee. In a moment he made the decision to finish the race. He rose above the pain, determined to finish and walk the race course. His father, Jim Redmond, rushed down from the stands, placed his son's arm around his shoulder and helped him to finish. Derek obviously did not receive a gold medal upon that day, but in my estimation he received a gold medal in courage by staying in the race, although it would have been very easy for him to drop out. The support given by his dad in his moment of need was heartwarming.

The Apostle Paul also determined "to finish my course with joy" (Acts 20:24) and we find he did. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." (2 Timothy 4:7). Paul overcame many obstacles that would have stopped a lesser man. (2 Corinthians 11:23-27). Because Paul finished his race, he would receive a crown of righteousness from the Lord. (2 Timothy 4:8) The promise is also made to all those who finish the work God gave them.

It is unfortunate today many do not have that same determination to finish the race. All too frequently people drop out of church because they came to church looking to "get something out of it." When they are not entertained to their satisfaction or fail to receive the chief seats, they quit. A multitude of excuses are given to justify the action of quitting: "The preacher can't preach; people weren't friendly to me; Brother So and So made me mad; I don't like the way they spend the money; I was in the hospital and nobody visited me; the elders wouldn't do what I wanted them to do; the ladies didn't give a shower for my daughter who is getting married; there are not enough activities for my children; there are some hypocrites down there; the temperature is never right in the building; I can't stand crowds; I don't like my Bible class; people don't even know my name; I hate all of those new songs; I like the communion last rather than at the first of the service; I am never asked to lead prayer, etc."

All of the above excuses have one thing in common. All the people declared, "I quit." Some want to take all the church "gives" and then ask what more you are prepared to do to keep them. Somehow people have forgotten a Savior who finished His work (John 17:4; 19:30), and gave His blood which was shed for many for the forgiveness of sins. (Matthew 26:28)

It is not too late to get back into the race. We will help you to bear your burdens. (Galatians 6:2). We invite you to come back home and we'll receive you with the welcome that is demonstrated in Luke 15.

Recipes for

Back-to-School Menus

With next Wednesday being the first day of school for students in Iowa Park, the recipes being featured this week are ones that will fit in with a busy schedule.

The beginning of school also signals the start of related activities such as football, band, choir and FFA, and many civic organizations that don't meet in the summer months commence meeting again in September.

The recipes are ones that can be prepared ahead of time, or cooked in a matter of minutes. Some are easy enough for older children to prepare for themselves. The recipe for "Chuck Wagon Beans" is prepared in a slow cooker, and is good to have when members of the family can't get together at the same time for a meal.

French Fried Peanut Butter and Jelly Sandwich

Spread peanut butter and jelly of your choice between two pieces of bread.

Beat together:

1 egg
1/8 cup milk
Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a small teflon skillet until hot but not smoking.

Dip sandwich in egg mixture and fry in hot butter on each side until golden brown. May sprinkle with powdered sugar while hot.

This can be served for lunch or breakfast.

Hot Mexican Casserole

1 lb. ground meat
1 chopped onion
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 can evaporated milk
1 - 4 oz. can green chilies
Cheese, grated
Tortillas

Brown meat and onion. Combine soup, milk and chilies in double boiler and heat. Line casserole dish with tortillas. Layer meat, cheese, soup mixture, and top with cheese. Bake 30-45 minutes at 350 degrees.

Sunday Roast

4 to 4 1/2 lb. chuck roast
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 pkg. dry onion soup mix
Salt and pepper

Place roast on large sheet of aluminum foil. Sprinkle on dry soup mix, salt and pepper, then pour mushroom soup over all and cover with foil. Bake 3 1/2 hours in 325 degree oven.

Fingerlings

2 lbs. ground round
1 lb. pork sausage
1 can chicken rice soup
4 eggs, beaten
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. pepper
2 small onions, chopped
2 cups bread crumbs

Mix all ingredients and shape into fingerlings, thick in the middle and tapered at the ends. Roll in crushed corn flakes. Place in baking dish and cover with 2 cans cream of mushroom soup mixed with 1 can water. Bake one hour at 350 degrees. Serves 20.

Tex-Mex Cornbread Salad

1 - 6 oz. pkg. Mexican cornbread mix, prepared according to package instructions
2 - 15 oz. cans pinto beans, drained
2 cups chopped tomatoes
1 cup chopped green onions
1/2 cup chopped bell peppers
1/4 to 1/2 cup chopped and seeded jalapeno peppers
12 strips bacon, cooked and crumbled
2 cups (8 oz.) grated Monterey Jack cheese
1 - 8 oz. ctn. sour cream
1 cup salsa
Additional sour cream and jalapeno pepper slices for garnish

Crumble half of prepared cornbread into bottom of large serving bowl. Top with half of beans. In another bowl, combine tomatoes, onions, green pepper and jalapeno pepper; blend well. Spread half of vegetable mixture over beans. Sprinkle with half of the bacon and half of the cheese. Stir together sour cream and salsa in small bowl; spread half of dressing over cheese. Repeat layering procedure with remaining cornbread, beans, vegetables, bacon, cheese and dressing.

Garnish with sour cream and jalapeno pepper slices, if desired.

Cover tightly and chill 2 to 3 hours before serving. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Chuck Wagon Beans

1 lb. pkg. dried navy or pinto beans
6 cups water
1/4 lb. salt pork, diced
1 large onion, chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
1 large green pepper, seeded and chopped
1 1/2 lb. boneless chuck, cubed
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. leaf oregano, crumbled
1/4 tsp. crushed red pepper
1/4 tsp. ground cumin
1 - 8 oz. can tomato sauce

Combine beans and water in a large kettle. Bring to a boil, cover and cook 2 minutes. Remove from heat; let stand 1 hour; pour into slow cooker. (Or soak beans overnight at room temperature.) Brown salt pork in skillet; remove with a slotted spoon to cooker. Saute onion, garlic and green pepper in pan drippings, remove with a slotted spoon to cooker. Brown meat a few pieces at a time in pan drippings; remove with a slotted spoon to cooker. Stir in salt, oregano, red pepper, cumin and tomato sauce. If necessary add more water to cover beans. Cover and cook on low for 10 hours, or on high for 6 hours or until beans are done.

Easy Casserole

2 lbs. ground beef
8 oz. sour cream
1 pkg. green onions, chopped
1 lb. Cheddar cheese, grated
1 lb. egg noodles
8 oz. cream cheese
3 - 8 oz. cans tomato sauce

Cook noodles. Brown meat and add 3 cans tomato sauce. Blend sour cream, cream cheese and onions. In casserole dish alternate 1/2-inch layers of noodles, meat, cheese mixture, ending with noodles. Top with grated cheese. Bake 20 minutes in 350 degree oven.

Chocolate Chip - Toffee Grahams

11 whole graham crackers, broken into squares
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 cup finely chopped pecans
1 - 6 oz. pkg. semisweet chocolate chips

Arrange graham cracker squares in a single layer in a 15x10x1-inch jellyroll pan. Combine butter and sugar in a saucepan. Bring to a boil over medium heat, stirring constantly until butter melts; boil 2 minutes. Remove from heat, and stir in cinnamon and pecans. Pour mixture evenly over crackers; spread to edges of pan, covering crackers completely. Bake 10 to 12 minutes at 350 degrees.

Remove from oven, and sprinkle with chocolate chips. Cool in pan 5 minutes; carefully separate and transfer cookies to wax paper-lined cookie sheets using a spatula. Refrigerate until chocolate hardens. Store cookies, layered between pieces of wax paper, in airtight containers in refrigerator. Yield: about 2 dozen.

Chewy Oatmeal Cookies

1 cup flour
3/4 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
3/4 cup margarine, softened
1 1/4 cups firmly packed brown sugar
2 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
2 cups uncooked oats
1 cup raisins
1 cup pecans

Sift flour, soda, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg into bowl. Add margarine, brown sugar, eggs and vanilla, beating until smooth. Stir in oats, raisins and nuts. Drop by heaping teaspoonful onto greased baking sheet. Bake 12 to 15 minutes at 350 degrees. Cool before storing.

Friday Night Special

2 cups cooked chicken, diced
3 cups cooked rice
1 cup cooked mixed vegetables
1 cup onions, chopped
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 tsp. poultry seasoning
1 tsp. celery salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1/2 cup chicken broth

Combine all ingredients and pour into a buttered 2-quart casserole dish. Bake 20 minutes at 350 degrees. Sprinkle with 1 cup grated cheese and bake 5 minutes longer.

Cockrum named director of Iowa Park RAC

Jo Lynn (Mrs. Jim) Cockrum has been chosen to succeed Sheri (Mrs. Pat) Kennedy as director of the Iowa Park Recreational Activities Center.

She was selected from a field of six applicants, and will officially assume her duties on August 26.

Mrs. Cockrum, who for the past year has been employed at Bethania Regional Health Care Center, was previously the program coordinator at Tom Burnett Memorial Library. She said that she enjoys working with all age groups and is excited about her new position with the RAC.

A graduate of Iowa Park High School, Mrs. Cockrum is a 26-year resident of Iowa Park. She and her husband Jim have two children, ages 10 and six. They are members of the Lakeview Church of God.

Mrs. Kennedy resigned her position with the RAC in order to accept another job offer. She said, "This past year has been very rewarding both personally and professionally, and I feel that the RAC can achieve even greater success in the future."

Jo Lynn Cockrum

Friday will be Mrs. Kennedy's last day of work at the RAC. During the interim, Kennedy and Candice Heidrich, who will remain as a part-time employee, will be working with Mrs. Cockrum to insure uninterrupted operation of services and programs at the RAC.

Annual Crop Walk meeting planned

A meeting will be held at 7 p.m. next Thursday at the Iowa Park RAC, 806 N. Third, to make plans for the Fifth Annual "Hawks Against Hunger" Crop Walk.

This year's walk is set to be held Sunday, Sept. 13, beginning at 2 p.m.

All interested citizens and organizations are invited to attend Thursday's meeting, or call Sheri Kennedy, 592-5134.

The walk is held each year to help raise money for programs to fight hunger overseas, as well as in Iowa Park.

Iowa Parkans carry gospel to Russians

By MYRNA SMITH

Dr. Derrell Monday, pastor of First Baptist Church, and four members of the church, Glenna Via, Joe Singer, and Ed and Dianne Hefli, returned July 30 after a two week gospel crusade in Russia. They joined 130 other Baptists from the United States, South Africa and Latvia, (formerly a republic of the U.S.S. R.).

They left behind several thousand Bibles, and 11,400 persons who "made their decisions for Christ".

The group of 130 people divided into teams and visited 30 different Baptist churches in 25 cities. They made the trip to Russia under the auspices of International Crusades.

Iowa Parkans agree that the crusade was successful. They also returned home with a feeling of humbleness and thankfulness that they live in the United States and have a renewed appreciation of their material blessings.

Some of the teams stayed with Russian families, however, the Iowa Park group stayed in a hotel--with no hot water. That is because the steam is turned off in the summer.

The Iowa Park group left July 14 and met the others in Moscow where they spent a few days at the beginning and at the end of the crusade. There was no organized effort in Moscow, however, they did get to share some gospel messages with the Russian people and share their testimony.

On a 12-hour train ride made at night, the Iowa Park group and two other teams went from Moscow to Veronesh, a historic city of about one million people.

There were two established Baptist churches and one mission church in the city. Those from Iowa Park worked with the mission church that had a membership of 20.

An interesting note is that the preacher at that church had previously been in the Russian Army 37 years and held the rank of colonel.

Dr. Monday said Veronesh is a very interesting city. It was where Peter the Great had built the Russian Naval Fleet because of the tall pine and sturdy oak trees.

It also was the city where the line was drawn during World War II to keep the Germans from entering Russia. Dr. Monday commented that there were monuments throughout the city commemorating WWII and other historic events.

The church with which the Iowa Park team met were holding services in an old movie theater.

Members in Veronesh had made some preparatory arrangements and had visited some of the people in the community in view of the teams coming for the crusade.

"We found most of the people very hospitable," Dr. Monday said. "We held services each night. We would start our visitation in the morning on the top floor of one of the apartment buildings and work our way down, knocking on doors. Most of the buildings had nine stories," he added.

Dr. Monday continued, "We would play records with the gospel message in the Russian language, give them our testimonials, answer their questions and leave them a Bible. We gave Bibles at the services each night to those who made decisions for Christ.

"The people were eager to get Bibles. Most of the people were very warm and receptive, gracious, generous, and more than willing to share what they had with you. They also seemed anxious to hear what we had to say."

The group did not get all the Bibles they had ordered in time to give them out while they were there. "We gave out more than 4,000 and several thousand more arrived just as we were leaving. The church members there will distribute them".

Dr. Monday said they had few restrictions on where they could go with their message. "We would think we were going to a certain place and find out it was 'off limits'. Our hosts would just tell us it was a Russian problem."

The only real problem they had was from the Russian Orthodox Church. "Since that is the state religion the officials did not like for any other religious group to come in with their message", Dr. Monday said.

DR. DERRELL MONDAY

... reports trip to Iowa Park Lions Club.

"One of the most meaningful things to me," he commented, "was that 10 Latvian people worked with the crusade. Last year when I was in Latvia, the people still would not have anything to do with the Russian people.

"They could not get over the way they had been treated and that their churches had been closed. They had suffered various kinds of persecution at the hands of the Russians, and it was hard for them to forgive. But, here they were going to Russia to help with bringing the gospel to these people."

Possibly the highlight of the entire trip for Dr. Monday was the final night of the crusade. He had the unique experience of being the only American to have the privilege of assisting five Russian preachers in a baptismal service in the Don River for 150 people. "It really was a very touching experience," said Dr. Monday.

The Baptist minister commented, "Joe Singer was a big hit with the young people and the children. And they were a big hit with him."

Singer certainly agrees with the last statement. "One of the things that impressed me most was the love the people and the children offered. I was also impressed with their sincerity and their lack of knowledge of what is going on outside Russia," Singer said, "they know so little about what goes on in the United States.

"I was humbled by their lifestyle," he continued, "their homes looked about like most of ours did in the 1930s. We take so much for granted here.

"Their streets are so drab and no one seems to smile. But, their flowers are beautiful. People have had such a hard life that people in their 60s look more like they are in their 80s."

Singer had an interesting experience that none of the others on his team had. He got to visit a prison there.

His grandfather had been a warden at a prison in New York City and he had a desire to visit a prison. He seized the opportunity to visit one in Veronesh when he was asked if he would like to go.

It was staffed by young Russian soldiers who had fought in Afghanistan. He did not get to visit with the prisoners, but he did get to share his message with the guards and the commandant. Singer was fortunate to have a very good interpreter with him.

"I also was impressed by the eagerness of the people to hear the gospel message. The people were there ahead of us waiting almost every night," Singer said.

We were unable to contact the Heflis, but Glenna Via said, "It was much like you might expect. I was surprised that they showed no animosity toward us because we were Americans.

"The people had many questions, such as the differences between the Orthodox Church and Protestantism. I found the people in Veronesh much nicer than they were in Moscow."

Glena said some people here said they didn't think they would want to go to Russia. They would be afraid they might get back. "I did not fear anything there. I found it exciting."

Glena said people in Veronesh are wondering about the aspects of capitalism. "It seems the people thought a democracy would be the answer to all of their problems," she said.

"There seemed to be some confusion among the people I visited about what they did believe. They do believe that we as humans sin, and they believe in Christ, but they wanted to know why we do not cross ourselves and why we do not pray to the Virgin Mary. But most of them wanted to ask questions and were willing to discuss various subjects.

"Some of those who went on the crusade worked with churches in the smaller towns away from the big cities. They seemed to have a lot more in common with us than some of those in the large cities," Glenna said.

She and Hefli, both musicians, played for the services part of the time. They had a Russian hymnal and there were a number of songs that are familiar in our churches in America. Some of the homes had pianos and Glenna was asked to play at several homes.

When they were in Moscow they visited Red Square and the Kremlin. Some of the other groups attended a circus. They got to go inside the Kremlin offices. But, they did not get to see Lenin's tomb.

Dr. Monday said they were told the day they were there that "he is sleeping today". "Seemingly Lenin has certain days that he sleeps," Monday said.

The group also did some shopping in Moscow. Dr. Monday said some of the convenience stores were better stocked than some of the larger stores.

"We really did not see anyone that looked like they were starving. Outside the city and on the street corners in the city are gardens, so they seemed to have plenty of fresh vegetables.

"A portion of one street was devoted to booth after booth of various wares, such as our flea markets.

"The economy there is terrible. When we arrived in Moscow it took 130 rubles to make a U.S. dollar. When we left in two weeks it took 162 rubles to make a U.S. dollar. So, they are struggling with their economic condition and many are wondering if a democracy is going to work for them. The demand is much greater than the supply."

Dr. Monday said they ate at McDonald's in Moscow and the food was very good. "In fact," he said, "it was the best we could get there. McDonald's serves a tremendous number of people. It is constantly full and is close enough to American food that it really tasted good after what we had been eating.

When Dr. Monday came here to pastor First Baptist Church six years ago, he told the church he would want permission to make one mission trip a year. It has become an annual event for him.

With the exception of the last two years his trips have been to Third World countries.

"I never know for sure just where or when I am going," he said. But by another summer, if not before, he will know and he will be making his plans.

Making NEWS

S everyone likes to read about his special interest, group or team in the community newspaper. You may be planning a benefit or other social event that needs the support of your local newspaper. Perhaps you would like to express your views or respond to the views of others.

This guide will give you the basics of dealing with your local editor, so that you can "get your story out" in the fastest, simplest way. It is a guide that will answer your basic questions about how news makes it to print, how to contact your newspaper and how to present your story. We offer this guide in the interest of working together to keep the community informed.

WRITING

Use your simplest English. Never use fancy wording or terms that only a member of your club would understand. Watch the newspaper to learn its style. Most important, be honest, impartial, accurate and brief. Never use a quote unless it is direct and accurate, and always identify your sources.

Remember that there can be different writing styles for different parts of the newspaper. Use "I" only in letters to the editor or opinion columns. Give more description in feature stories. Keep your news writing to the point, with the most interesting and important information first.

PICTURES

Editors are always seeking good picture opportunities. If you think your story merits a photo, talk to the editor about it. If a newspaper photographer cannot make it to your event, take one yourself and include it with your story or release.

Always try for action, rather than posed, pictures. If little Jane Doe, for example, has been presented an award for volunteering at the local hospital, a picture of Jane at work is much better than one of the mayor presenting her with an award. Write the outline, or description, of the photo on a separate piece of paper rather than the back of the photo, and list names left to right.

THE OPINION PAGE

When you write letters to the editor, always include your name, address, affiliation (if any), and phone number. As a matter of accountability, and to protect the newspaper from irresponsible letter writers, newspapers rarely publish a letter without this information. If you have an opinion, remember that the opinion or editorial page is considered the property of the public; it's your page, so feel free to use it. Editors appreciate receiving your views for this page.

PUBLICITY BASICS

Only one person from your organization should be in touch with the newspaper.

It is often said there are three rules of journalism: accuracy, accuracy, and accuracy. Write everything down, check the spelling of names and never trust your memory.

Get your story to the newspaper as soon as possible. Know the newspaper's deadlines. Whenever possible, let the newspaper know about an event before it takes place.

Use creativity. If you have an idea for a feature story, suggest it. Newspaper editors appreciate fresh ideas.

Never try to obtain publicity by pressure of friendship or business connections.

WHAT'S NEWS?

Editors choose their news according to the importance of an event to their communities. A fire, a crime, or an accident is important—but so is the award your club gave last week. Club elections, new projects, unusual actions, social events, milestones, athletic events, benefits that need public support, and member participation in local, national or world events are all of interest to your community newspaper editor.

PACKAGING

Your newspaper sees a constant barrage of paper. You're already one step ahead if your news release or story is obviously local. However, remember that the typical editor must make quick decisions regarding newsworthiness. As a newspaper reader you know that your reading decisions are based first on the headline, and then on the first paragraph of the news item.

Give the most important information first. Be sure to give the "who, what, when, where and how" of the story right away. Background material should come last.

Include the name of the contact, the group, and a phone number at the top of the page for quick reference.

When submitting a story to your local newspaper, type it double-spaced on one side of 8½-by-11-inch paper. Start about one-third of the way down the paper on the first page and leave ample margins. Number your pages. When you're done, type this symbol: # # #

DEADLINES

Pre-planned events should always reach the editor's desk well before the last-minute rush. Learn your newspaper's deadlines, and keep as far ahead of them as possible. It is always best to stop by or call the newspaper office after the last issue has been published, rather than just before the presses roll. Remember that there will be times when an editor or reporter is simply too close to deadline to talk to you.

MAKING NEWS

Chances are, if you follow deadlines, concentrate on accuracy and maintain a good relationship with your editor, your organization will make the news and your information will make it out to the community.

This guide was developed by the National Newspaper Association, representatives of more than 5,000 community newspapers, to assist newspaper publishers in their effort to better serve their communities.

Retail building bright spot in state

Retail building permits are the bright spot in the state's nonresidential real estate market, according to the chief economist for the Real Estate Center at Texas A&M University.

"For the 12 months ending in May, retail building permits were up 9.9 percent in Texas," said Ted C. Jones. "This is in stark contrast to a 51.5 percent decline in office building permits and a 21 percent drop in industrial building permits."

Figures compiled by the Real Estate Center show almost $581 million in retail building permits issued during the 12 months.

Houston led the state with $155.1 million in retail permits, a 36.8 percent increase. Dallas was second with nearly $105 million in retail permits, down 2.8 percent.

"The improving Texas retail picture looks even better when compared to the nation," said Jones, as evidenced by the less than one percent decline in total properties sold. "The good news, however, in that supply also shrank. The number of new listings was down 4.72 percent through May, despite a 14.1 percent gain that month."

"The overall number of homes on the market in major Texas cities fell 5.28 percent in May," said Jones. "The number of months supply stood at 10.68 months, down almost 4.4 percent. As the supply of existing homes continues to shrink, prices will begin to move upward."

May's median price for a home sold by Multiple Listing Services in 26 major Texas markets was $78,100. The national median was $102,700.

Both prices were up 2.3 percent from May 1990.

Helpful Facts

Persons other than the property owner doing work on a residence must be a licensed building contractor, plumber, electrician, or heating and air conditioning contractor with the City of Iowa Park, and carry a performance bond.

Browning elected ARC treasurer

Ronnie Browning of Iowa Park has been elected treasurer to serve on the State Board of Directors of the Association for Retarded Citizens.

Browning, a member of People First Advocates, sponsored by ARC of Wichita County, was elected at Texas Advocates Convention held in College Station July 31-Aug. 3.

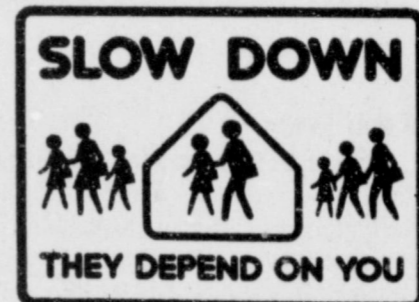

People First Advocates of Wichita County received the 1992 Membership Award for having the greatest membership increase for the year. The Wichita County chapter is the largest local chapter in Texas with 90 active members.

Billie Browning of Iowa Park was also among the members and chaperones attending the convention.

Obituaries

Dan Meissner

Services for Dan Meissner, 44, father of David and Michael Don Meissner of Iowa Park, were at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at Lunn's Colonial Funeral Home in Wichita Falls.

Rev. James Scarborough, pastor of Westside Baptist Church and Rev. Al Cullum, associate pastor, officiated. Graveside services were at 2:30 p.m. in Pioneer Cemetery in Graham.

Meissner died Saturday in a Wichita Falls hospital.

Born Nov. 15, 1947 in Stephenville. He was married to Linda Rader Oct. 12, 1989 in Wichita Falls.

Meissner worked in maintenance at Rider High School. He had lived in Wichita Falls 16 years, moving there from Graham. He was a member of Westside Baptist Church.

He served in the Army and was a member of the American Legion. He served as a referee with the Wichita Falls Basketball Association.

Other survivors include his wife; two stepsons, Derek Glover and Laurence Martin, both of Wichita Falls; a stepdaughter, Barbara Kyser of England; two sisters, Shirley Oates of Fort Worth, and four grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to Westside Baptist Church Band Fund.

Warren L. Lee

Services for Warren Leslie "Spud" Lee, 65, former Iowa Park resident, were Saturday at 10 a.m. at Bill Eisenhour South East Chapel in Oklahoma City.

Rev. James Clinkscales, pastor, and Clyde Hale officiated. Burial was at 2 p.m. in Newkirk City, Okla., cemetery.

Lee died in Oklahoma City Thursday, Aug. 6.

Lee was born April 23, 1927 in Shidler, Okla., and was married to Mary Lee August, Aug. 12, 1948 in Shidler.

He moved from Iowa Park to the Oklahoma City area in 1970. He was a member of Beverly Hills Baptist Church. He was a 32nd degree Mason and was retired from Phillips 66 as a well service supervisor after 35 years of service. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Mickey.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Tony of Hugton, Kan.; two daughters, Janie Clinkscales of Fort Worth and Kay Deem of Midwest City, Okla.; his mother, Beatrice of Cedar vale, Kan.; one brother, Robert of Hobbs, N.M.; one sister, Dixie King of Bartlesville, Okla., and nine grandchildren.

1992 Property Tax Rates in IOWA PARK CISD

This notice concerns 1992 property tax rates for IOWA PARK SCHOOL DIST. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:

Last year's operating taxes	$ 473,695
Last year's debt taxes	$ 236,850
Last year's total taxes	$ 710,545
Last year's tax base	$ 263,165,000
Last year's total tax rate	$.27 /$100

This year's effective tax rate:

Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 681,992
+ This year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting value of new property)	$ 248,441,524
= This year's effective tax rate	$.27450 /$100

In the first year a hospital district or city collects the additional sales tax, it must insert the following lines unless its first adjustment was made last year:

- Sales tax adjustment rate	$ N/A /$100
= Effective tax rate	$ N/A /$100

x 1.03 = maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearing

	$.28273 /$100
--	------------------

This year's rollback tax rate:

Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 454,661
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 248,441,524
= This year's effective operating rate	$.18300 /$100
x 1.08 (or add $.08 for schools) = this year's maximum operating rate	$.26300 /$100
+ This year's debt rate	$.10000 /$100

A school district must insert the following lines:

= This year's rollback rate before adjustment	$.36300 /$100
+ Rate to recoup lost revenue	$.07004 /$100
= Adjusted rollback rate	$.43304 /$100

= This year's rollback rate

	$.43304 /$100
--	------------------

A hospital district or city that collects the additional sales tax, including one that collects the tax for the first time this year, must insert the following lines:

- Sales tax adjustment rate	$ N/A /$100
= Rollback tax rate	$ N/A /$100

"My heat pump's so efficient it saves money. And it's a clean system. I like what it means for the environment." —Elta Chandler
Park Board Member

Elta Chandler cools and heats her home with a heat pump because it saves money and energy. And since it's electric, it's "wonderfully clean."
A heat pump uses the energy in the air to keep her home comfortable all year. Even on cold winter days there's heat in the air. A heat pump captures that heat and uses it.
And it costs less to operate than a gas furnace. It's so efficient that for each unit of energy it uses, it creates two to three units of heat.
In the summer a heat pump becomes a high-efficiency air conditioner, capturing the heat inside the home and removing it.
For more information, call a heat pump dealer or TU Electric. It's your chance to save more than money.

HAWK TURNS COWBOY - Todd Pulley signed a letter of intent Tuesday to play baseball for Hardin-Simmons Univ. He was a first-team All-District selection as a catcher, and earned an average of .500 batting for the 1992 season. With him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pulley.

Head Hawk 'pleased' with players

After his first three workouts, Head Hawk Robert Clensay had no problem expressing his feelings about his football players.

"We're very, very pleased," he said, when asked his impression of the players on Tuesday, the second day of two-a-day practices.

In all, there were 89 athletes working out, including 32 with the varsity, 33 junior varsity and 24 freshmen (three more than Monday).

"They showed up in above-average physical condition... real enthusiastic... and the staff is working great," he emphasized.

"We're right on schedule. The kids retained a lot since last spring."

The players were well-tested in their first session Monday, which lasted three hours. Emphasis was on muscle stretching, starting and ending the session, followed by play practice and winding up with wind sprints to allow coaches to assess their physical condition.

Players are required to work out in shorts through today, and will put on full pads Friday. Workouts are at 7:45 a.m. and 5 p.m.

After two sessions in pads tomorrow, the teams will hold a practice session starting at 9 a.m. Saturday. Following that, a "very" controlled scrimmage will begin about 9:45, Clensay said.

"We're not going to know where we stand until we scrimmage Old High. They're a big, physical program," he said.

That scrimmage will be next week, as the first of two pre-season scrimmages permitted under University Interscholastic League rules.

The season opens the first Friday in September.

Two-a-day sessions are being cut short by a week this year, because of the early start of school.

They will continue through Tuesday, but classes begin next Wednesday. After that, it'll be afternoons only for the rest of the season.

Season reserved seats went on sale this week for varsity Hawk football games, at the high school principal's office. Fans wishing to retain the same seats they held last year will have until the first home game, Sept. 11, to renew their options on the same seats. The book of five tickets for all 1992 home games is $25 per seat. General admission tickets, purchased in advance, are $2 for students and $4 for adults, and all tickets sold at the gate are $5.

Three-year starter on the Hawk baseball team, Robert Denton, will be playing next spring for Tarleton Univ. at Stephenville, his mother confirmed this week.

Sunday last of swimming season

The swimming season will come to a close Sunday in Iowa Park.

When the gate is closed at the end of that day, the Bicentennial Swimming Pool will be shut down until next spring, because school starts next week.

Highway plans to be discussed

An informal public meeting concerning future projects of the Texas Department of Transportation will be held Friday in Wichita Falls.

The purpose of the meeting is to allow public input into the Project Development Plan and the Transportation Improvement Plan preparation process.

A list of projects selected for phase one, projects proposed to be selected and projects proposed to remain pending will be available.

Maps and drawings will be on display and department representatives will be on hand to discuss the projects. Projects discussed will include the nine-county area of the Wichita Falls District.

To be held in the assembly room of the office at 1601 Southwest Parkway in Wichita Falls, the meeting is to begin at 4 p.m. and conclude by 6:30.

Written comments concerning the projects must be received within 10 days of the meeting, in order to be considered.

Sports Shorts

Registration for players in the Top 'O Texas kids' football league will again be held Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 12-noon, at the county tax office, 218 W. Park. Youth eight through 11 years of age are eligible. Those who have not played in the league before should have birth certificates when they register.

Lubbock will host the Senior Sports Classic Aug. 19-22. Participants must be 50 or older, and categories for men and women will be in increments of five years. Events offered include archery; three-on-three basketball; basketball freethrow; singles, doubles and mixed doubles bowling; cycling; disc golf; 36-hole golf; five and 30K roadrace; 14 swimming events; singles, doubles and mixed doubles tennis; discus; shot putt; high jump; long jump, and pole vault. The Lubbock Parks and Recreation Dept. is the sponsor.
