Council votes to sell landfill, equipment

The city council voted Monday night to get out of the trash collection and landfill business, and turn it over to a private company.

Aldermen voted unanimously to virtually turn over the city's landfill site, related equipment and trash trucks and containers to the Bell Group, for $10.

In return, the city expects to save approximately $200,000 per year, and hold garbage collection fees to homes and businesses at the current rates.

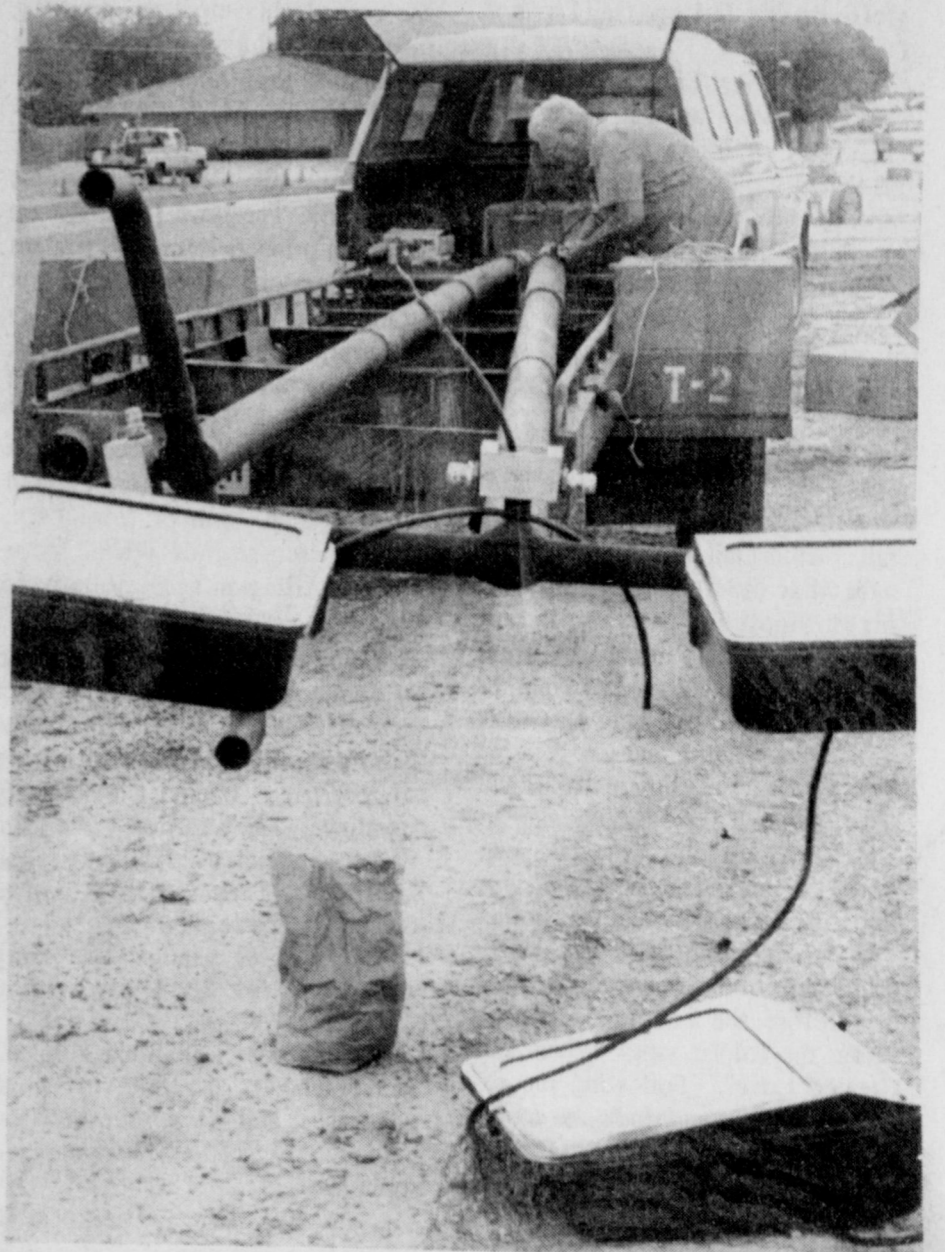

No contract was signed that night, but is expected to be finalized within the next two weeks.

Action on the issue followed an executive session that lasted approximately 45 minutes.

Prior to the vote, once the council returned to the chambers from its closed session, a representative of Texas Waste Management, another firm which had submitted a bid that did not include taking over the landfill, attempted to convince the council to change its mind and consider a counter proposal.

The action in effect nullified Iowa Park's possible participation in a tricity landfill operation at Burkburnett, in which that city and Vernon would join in its operation.

Iowa Park has contributed funds to a study of the Burkburnett landfill, with the other cities, as a possible alternative to a solution all cities are facing since the Environmental Protection Agency mandated "Subtitle D" regulations over such operations.

various other alternatives over the past two years and was facing a deadline of time operating its own landfill or make a decision on one of several solutions that was studied.

No information on details of the pending contract is available as yet.

The Bell Group is actively soliciting additional acreage in the area of the city's 23-acre landfill tract, to have room for several years of usage and is expected to make it into a regional landfill operation.

Council members in the past have stated they would not agree to sell the city's landfill to anyone, unless the state provides in writing an agreement that the city would not be held liable any time in the future should any violations of Subtitle D be detected.

OTHER BUSINESS

In a public appearance, Richard Porter of Fort Worth told the council he is interested in developing a 48-acre tract north of US 287 and west of FM 368 for housing and possibly commercial businesses.

Porter said he had owned the tract several years, and had been a partner with two Wichita Falls investors in building Woodbriar Apartments. Those two partners continue to own most of the land between Porter's and the apartments.

He asked the city to extend water to the area to be developed, and also to participate in its sewage line installation.

He also pointed out that he expected to petition that the area be annexed into the city.

Porter presented a hand-drawn plat of the area, which included only six lots on the north end of the tract for homes on lots larger than two acres each.

He was told the council was interested in doing whatever it could to assist, but a finalized plan would be Aldermen voted to authorize the city administrator to advertise for bids to have a contractor install a new sewer line and lift station in the south part of the city. Funds for the project are to come from a Community Development Program grant.

Also approved was a request by the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department to close most of the 100 block of East Cash Saturday night for a fund-raising street dance.

The council agreed to a recommendation by Administrator Mike Price to have its investments fund transferred from Nations Bank in Wichita Falls to the local branch of Parker Square Bank.

He explained the money actually is in the Texpool, but funds are transferred electronically from Nations Bank. Parker Square is the only local facility with the same capability, Price said, to support his request.

The council has been unable to complete its study on the 1993-94 annual budget, until the landfill situation could be resolved.

With that action having been taken, and believing the contract will be available for action Monday, the council decided to meet that evening both to act on the contract and also to hold the first of two public hearings on the budget.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in council chambers.

During the general discussion period, Dr. Erwin Soell informed the council that Park Clinic had been charged for long distance calls to addresses in Wichita Falls.

Contact with Southwestern Bell was promised by one of the aldermen, in an attempt to find out why the calls were charged.

School budget on tap Tax rate could increase by four cents

The Iowa Park school board will hold a public hearing at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the junior high school library on a proposed budget for the 1993-94 year of $7,763,906.

To fund the budget, a four-cent tax increase would be required.

If approved, taxpayers would be asked to pay a rate of $1.16 per $100 valuation. That is four cents above the combined local and County Education District total district taxpayers paid last year.

The new rate and other receipts, including cafeteria, fees and athletic gate receipts, is anticipated to generate $3,799,105 locally. That would be supplemented by $4,016,694 in state and federal monies.

Those two sources, added to the estimated carry over from local revenues at the end of the 1992-93 school year, would produce an estimated $8,747,345, leaving $983,439 with which to start the 1994-95 year.

Monday's hearing will be the result of four study sessions held by the trustees, which have resulted in almost $100,000 in cuts from requests.

Expenditures accounting for most of the requested increase in tax revenues were necessitated by additional technological equipment such as computers and related materials, additional teachers and support personnel, state-mandated salary increases, and the state cutting its payment to the district by approximately $100 per student.

Also, Supt. Glen Mitchell is asking the board to permit him to set aside $83,000 to be used on district maintenance needs, an area he asserts has been short-funded the past three years.

If the tax rate is approved, the owner of a $50,000 home would pay $580 in taxes, a $22 increase over last year.

Most of the increased expenditures apparently are the result of House Bill 72, passed by the legislature in 1984. The bill had numerous mandates for increased expenditures by schools over the following years.

In 1985, the local tax rate was 71 cents, which resulted in a $355 tax bill to the owner of that $50,000 home.

Iowa Park teen killed in wreck

Jason Priddy, 18, of Iowa Park, was killed in a two-vehicle wreck early Wednesday morning in Wichita Falls, according to Melvin Joyner of the Wichita Falls Police Department.

The collision took place at the intersection of Kell Blvd. and Allendale Road. According to accident reports, Priddy was travelling north on Allendale Road at the intersection, when his white pickup was struck on the driver's side by a TNM&O commercial bus, travelling east on Kell East Blvd.

Upon impact the pickup burst into flames, killing Priddy instantly.

The driver of the bus, 50-year-old John Ross of Lubbock, was thrown through the windshield of the bus. He is listed in serious condition at Wichita General Hospital. Several of the 13 passengers aboard the bus were treated and released from the hospital, according to Joyner.

The bus was en route to Wichita Falls from Lubbock.

Rural phone customers look to Austin for bill

Residents of the Valley View-Kamay area are awaiting details of a senate bill they hope will eventually help them in their effort to eliminate long distance calls to neighboring communities, especially their school district.

At a meeting Thursday night in Valley View, the third in a series by a committee of residents headed by Shirley Cravens, details of Senate Bill 632 must be studied in order to map their next move for toll-free calling.

The bill is supposed to be available after Sept. 1.

Committee members, five GTE representatives, two from Wichita Falls, two from Iowa Park, some from Holliday, and others interested in the project almost filled all available seating in Valley View One Stop.

Anticipated action, once details of the bill relating to communities seeking toll-free calling, include petitions which will be presented to the Texas Public Utilities Commission.

As far as the telephone companies involved within Wichita County, GTE and Southwestern Bell, representatives of both said they had any problems with what the rural residents were attempting to accomplish.

Joe Williams, division switching service manager for GTE from San Angelo, pointed out it was his under-

Chamber accepting booth reservations

The Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce will begin accepting requests for booth reservations Wednesday, Sept. 1, for this year's Whoop-T-Do.

Booth spaces in the main area, which again will be in the 100 block of East Cash, are available only to local non-profit organizations.

Arts and crafts booth spaces are made available on sidewalks west of Wall.

Those who had booths last year can reserve the same area, if they make their desires known by Sept. 15, according to Susan Dillard, Chamber secretary.

She can be contacted by calling 592-5441.

At the Chamber's board of directors' monthly meeting Monday, a request by an organization to use the Chamber building during Whoop-T-Do was denied.

The Iowa Park Garden Club had asked to use the meeting room for its annual show and contest.

Also during the meeting, Robert Palmer pointed out that approximately 12,000 football fans are expected to be in the city on Saturday, Oct. 30, for the football game between Midwestern State Univ. and McMurry Univ.

Because of the annual University Interscholastic League's marching contest being scheduled at Memorial Stadium in Wichita Falls, the alternate site for the college game was moved to Hawk Stadium.

Palmer said the size of the crowd, as well as the game being televised live by a Wichita Falls station, presented an opportunity for a positive exposure of the community.

President Larry Dutton appointed a committee of Tommy Key, Mike Price, Bob Hamilton and Gene Jordan to work with the school to help coordinate publicity and ways of assisting the schools and fans while in the city.

News Briefs

Monday's rain first since June

Iowa Park received its first measurable amount of precipitation Monday evening in almost two months, according to Virgil Woodfin.

The shower produced .37 of an inch, and Woodfin, who explained there had been a couple of "traces" in July, said his last measurement was on June 25, when he last marked his calendar with a .30 measurement.

Wilson, Davis wed in double-ring ceremony

St. Andrew Presbyterian Church in Denton was setting for an impressive double ring ceremony Aug. 7 at 7 p.m. uniting in marriage Melissa Ann Wilson and Paul Reid Davis. Dr. Jim Spivey directed the recitation of vows.

The bride is the daughter of Don and Wanda Wilson of Ardmore, Okla., formerly of Iowa Park, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Wilson of Electra. Parents of the groom are Drs. Jack and Gail Davis of Denton.

Wesley Van Zile, organist, presented prelude musical selections. "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" was played as the mothers lighted white taper candles on either side of the unity candle that represented each of their children. The bride's mother was seated by her son, Terry Wilson.

Rebecca Masters, soloist, sang "Ave Maria" prior to the entry of the wedding party.

As the organist played "The Wedding March"—Wagner, the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father amidst tall pew markers draped with white dendrobium orchids, pink pixie dianthus, gypsophila and springer ferns. Ribbon swags and bows connected each pew marker, making the center aisle accessible only to the wedding party.

Altar of the church was flower laden with a large arrangement of white gladiolus, pink and white snapdragons, mauve alstroemeria, star gazer lilies, gypsophila, and garden smilax. The arrangements were repeated on four stands of brass candelabra.

Before the couple exchanged vows, the soloist sang "When You Created Love". Following the exchange of vows and rings, the couple knelt at the altar as the "Lord's Prayer" was sung by the bride's father.

The bride presented a white rose to her mother during the processional and to the groom's mother during the recessional.

For her wedding, the bride wore an original peau de soie gown designed and handsewn by her mother. The gown featured a Queen Anne neckline and princess-lined bodice accented with imported French Alencon lace. Myriad handsewn sequins, crystal beads and seed pearls embellished the bodice.

The softly gathered skirt fell from a dropped waist accented in the back with a bow sprinkled with sequins and seed pearls. It swept to a cathedral train that was edged with rows of lace and featured deep insets of lace appliques surrounded by English net. Sleeves of peau de soie and imported English net repeated the Alencon lace applique motif.

Her veil of illusion fell from a jeweled headband encrusted with crystal beads.

For "something old" the bride carried a handkerchief of her paternal great-great-grandmother that was made by a friend who had gathered the flax she later spun into thread and wove into cloth. The handkerchief was also carried by the bride's mother at her wedding.

"Something new" was her wedding gown, "something blue" was her garter, and for "something borrowed" she carried her mother's wedding ring. She added a sixpence in her shoe to complete the sentimental tradition.

The bride was attended by Michelle Church of Waco as maid of honor. She wore a two-piece gown of rose moire satin. The gown featured a top styled on princess lines with peplum back, rhinestone buttons, and a long straight skirt with back slit. She carried an arm bouquet of star gazer lilies, pink aristocrat roses, alstroemeria and gypsophila.

Bridesmaids were Renee Berry of Wichita Falls, Valerie Hedrick and Jenny Salan, both of Iowa Park, Darlene Heussner of Waco, Jodee Foster of Arlington, and Julie Burris of Waco.

Flower girls were Lacey Whitfield of Seminole and Ashley Burleson of Wichita Falls, cousins of the bride. They were attired in tea length dresses of rose satin covered with organdy pinafores. They carried white satin baskets containing pink Elfe roses and gypsophila. They wore halos of roses and baby's breath.

Serving as ushers were Terry Wilson, Doug Hale, and David Chrisman.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with notched lapels, white vest, white wing shirt, and white satin tie. His boutonniere was a white rose and gypsophila.

His best man was David Ray of Richardson. He wore a black tuxedo and vest with white shirt and black bow tie. Groomsmen were Chuck Bauman of Tyler, Jeff Dalton of Delaware, Brian Kilpatrick of Waco, D. Brady King of Washington, D.C., Marc Ranc of Waco and John Hardin of Chapel Hill, N.C. The groomsmen wore identical attire to the best man, and all wore buttonnieres of pink aristocrat roses.

Mother of the bride wore a pink silk shantung dress with flowing pink crepe skirt and matching pink jacket that was accented with rhinestones.

The groom's mother wore an aqua dress of crepe with flowing skirt and matching jacket. Corsages of white cattleya orchids completed their attire.

The registry table in the church foyer was covered in rose moire satin and lace and was draped with tulle swags. It was attended by Dr. Jessica Alsup, cousin of the bride, who also acted as wedding coordinator.

Denton Country Club was scene of the reception. "Chambre de Musique", a string quartet, played romantic selections. The bride and groom completed the traditional first dance to "Wonderful Tonight" by Eric Clapton.

The bride's table was covered with white lace and taffeta, with a lace skirt and swags of tulle that were accented with greenery. The four-tiered cake was lavishly decorated with fresh roses and greenery and was topped with a porcelain bride and groom music box.

The bride and groom cut their wedding cake with the same knife used at the 25th wedding anniversary party of the bride's parents and the 50th anniversary parties of her four grandparents.

The groom's table was covered in white lace and appointed with a silver coffee service and a portrait of the groom. His cake was a two-tiered chocolate heart decorated with double-dipped fresh strawberries.

A long food-laden table held assorted cheeses, fruits, fresh vegetables, chips and dips, and meat dishes.

A three-foot ice sculpture centered the table. It featured a large heart with the letter D and two doves. Base of the sculpture was decorated with greenery.

Rose napkins were engraved with doves in white with the lettering, "Melissa and Paul, August 7, 1993".

Other table appointments included a tall silver urn holding an arrangement of Casablanca lilies, star gazer lilies, white freesia, Queen Anne's lace, pink roses, and gypsophila. White baskets of sage palms and garden smilax on white pillars completed the floral decorations. A large bridal portrait on an easel graced the foyer of the building.

Guests were seated at tables covered with white cloths and centered with satin containers filled with white begonias and needlepoint ivy.

During the reception the bride and her mother were honored by a circle of the bride's Sigma Kappa Sorority sisters from Midwestern State University and Baylor University who sang "Pass It On" and "A Sister Is Forever."

Following the reception the couple left in a white limousine. The windows were decorated with pink hearts inscribed "Bridal Party". Birdseed was tossed at the couple after being distributed to guests by Nicole Wilson and Kayla Whitfield, cousins of the bride.

The bride wore a navy dress with white sailor collar, a white pleated skirt, and a matching hat for her going away attire.

Members of the house party were Glenda Thomas of Electra, Nancy Wilde of Lake Dallas, Barbara Browning of Santa Fe, N.M., aunts of the bride and Karen Thomas Whitfield of Seminole, cousin of the bride.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at the Diamond Eagle Suite at the University of North Texas.

The bride is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and Baylor University where she was president of Sigma Kappa Sorority.

The groom, a practicing attorney, is a graduate of Denton High School, Baylor University and Baylor University School of Law.

Following a wedding trip to San Diego, the couple will make their home in North Carolina while the groom pursues studies in Medical Law.

10 Steps to staying ahead of Lice

1. Watch for signs of head lice, such as frequent head-scratching. Anyone can get lice... from another person or from sharing hats, brushes, combs, etc.
2. Check all family members for lice and nits (lice eggs) at least once a week. (It helps to use natural light and a magnifying glass.)
3. Treat only those family members who do have lice. Buy a lice product at your drug store, the pharmacy section of your foodstore or call your doctor for a prescription.
4. Follow package directions carefully! Use the product over the sink (not in the tub or shower). Keep the eyes covered with a washcloth.
5. Call your doctor first if you are pregnant, nursing or allergic to weeds, plants, etc. Never use a lice product on your baby!
6. Remove all nits (which will stay on the hair after treatment). This is essential! You can do this with a special lice comb, scissors or your fingernails.
7. Wash sheets and recently worn clothing in hot water and dry in a hot dryer. Combs and brushes may be soaked in hot (not boiling) water for 10 minutes.
8. Vacuuming is the safest and best way to control lice on mattresses, rugs, furniture and stuffed animals.
9. Continue to check heads every day for 2-3 weeks to make sure head lice are gone. Regular checking is the best prevention.
10. When you find a case of lice, tell others! Call your child's school or daycare. Notify neighborhood parents.

Curbs the 'Craving' Chain Herbal Formula Reduces Desire For Sweets

TALLAHASSEE—Researchers at Florida State University have published findings determining that consumption of sweet foods are habitual; initial intake of sweets actually increases the desire for more sweet food. This vicious craving chain was curbed by the FSU researchers with an herbally derived taste modifier which reduces the desire for additional sweets without changing the flavor of food.

In taste perception trials, subjects using the herbal derivative gymnemic acid, ate less than those not using it. The decreased desire for additional sweets resulted in an average of 20% fewer calories consumed. Carbohydrate and fat consumption also declined, resulting in weight loss. Published in Physiology and Behavior, the study demonstrates the herb's control of sugar consumption results in better appetite management, often generating substantial weight loss.

This safe and effective herb is now available in an all natural fiber tablet called Beta-Trim. Rapidly gaining acceptance in pharmacies nationwide, Beta-Trim has become a tremendous discovery for dieters. An Oklahoma resident writes, "Beta-Trim helps me maintain my weight and I feel much better about myself." Another in Arizona, "noticed results right away...My friends at work noticed the weight loss, now three of them are taking it."

Control your sweet tooth, naturally with Beta-Trim. Now available at:

Lightsey, Sumner wed here recently

Daniel Dwain Lightsey and his bride, the former Dorothy Kay Sumner, are making their home in Iowa Park following their recent marriage in Faith Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Robert Sumner and Jack Lightsey, both of Iowa Park.

Dr. Greg Ammons, pastor of the church, performed the double ring afternoon marriage vows on July 10.

At the close of the ceremony Mike and Kathy Gallant sang "The Lord's Prayer".

Swags of greenery decorated the candelabras that centered the altar area. Pews were marked with mauve bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white taffeta designed with a lace covered bodice styled with a portrait neckline and short lace sleeves puffed at the shoulders. The full skirt of the gown flowed into a chapel train.

Her veil of bridal illusion was held by a bandeau of ruffled illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and white roses.

LaDonna Johnson of Iowa Park attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a mauve dress fashioned with a lace covered bodice.

Mark Solomon was best man for the groom. Ushers were David Lightsey of Mansfield, brother of the groom, and Barry Harper of Wichita Falls, the bride's brother.

The reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church.

Bride and groom bears decorated the registry table.

The bride's table featured a white lattice background decorated with greenery and hearts. The table was covered with a white cloth with swags caught with purple and pink bows.

The bride's three-tiered cake was all white and the groom's chocolate cake was trimmed with chocolate frosting.

Members of the houseparty were Joanna Matthews ad Dianna Brown, sisters of the groom, Tammy Lightsey, his sister-in-law, Rhonda Harper, the bride's sister-in-law, and Renee Creswell, the bride's sister.

The couple took to a wedding trip to Six Flags and the Dallas metroplex area.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Iowa Park High School.

The bride works for Wal-Mart in Wichita Falls.

(Dorothy Kay Sumner)

Lightsey received the Associate Automation/Robotics degree from TSTI, Sweetwater, and EMT Certification at Vernon Regional Junior College. He works at the Transfer Station for the City of Wichita Falls.

The 4-H Club bicycle group has ridden in the Hotter-n-Hell Hundred every year since its inception under their leadership. Members of the club are currently preparing to ride this year.

The Iowa Park Club is fortunate to have an excellent project leadership because of the many parents that take an active part.

The club will continue to meet the second Wednesday night of each month at 7:30 p.m. Anyone wishing to join should attend the first meeting in September or call the Hunters at 592-5342.

FFA Booster Club meeting is tonight

Members of the FFA Boosters Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the Vo-Ag Building, to make plans for public feedings this fall.

The Boosters feed the public before all home varsity football games, as a major fund-raising activity, and the first game will be Friday, Sept. 3, against Burkburnett.

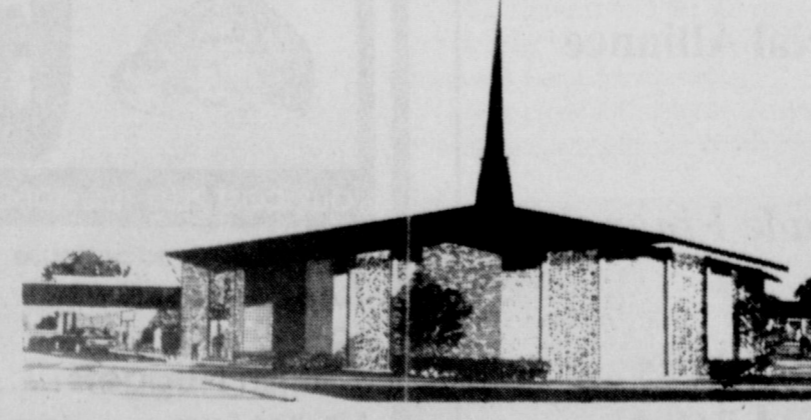

Potential members are encouraged to attend the meeting.

Booster meetings are normally held the first Monday of each month, but because next Monday is a holiday, the next regular meeting will be held Sept. 13.

1993 Property Tax Rates in Iowa Park CISD

This notice concerns 1993 property tax rates for Iowa Park school district. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the school district used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the school district can set before it must hold a rollback election. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes and state funds by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

| Last year's tax rate:       |                |

| Last year's operating taxes | $ 429,536     |

BEAUTIFICATION COMMITTEE MAKES PLANS FOR OSCAR PARK PROJECT

Beautification work begins

Work was begun Saturday on the first project of the city's newly-formed beautification group, "Iowa Park Clean and Green."

Volunteers met at 9 a.m. in the picnic area on the north side of Oscar Park and picked up several sacks of trash and broken glass, and painted the picnic table and cover in bright, primary colors.

The next workday is scheduled for Sept. 11, in the same area, and the volunteers will be clearing out underbrush, pruning the trees, and finish painting the picnic tables.

Anyone who would like to help is encouraged to call Steve Hammonds, chairman of the beautification division, at 592-2100, or Dolores Hamilton at 592-4431.

It was decided at the last meeting of the group to begin their beautification efforts at Oscar Park, and these two workdays will complete the first phase of the project.

Future plans for this area of the park include the planting of trees, shrubs and flowers.

The group was formed in April as a committee of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce, with Dolores Hamilton named as chairman. It will operate under the name "Iowa Park Clean and Green," and work in conjunction with Keep Texas Beautiful, Inc. and the Texas Highway Department.

One objective is to enter into competition with other cities in Iowa Park's population bracket for the Governor's Community Achievement Award.

In addition to beautification, criteria for this award include emphasis on clean-up and anti-litter campaigns, education, solid waste management and recycling, illegal dumping/law enforcement, and public awareness.

Other projects being planned are the planting of wildflowers and trees, pocket parks, painting and dispersing of trash receptacles, landscaping near the railroad crossings, city-wide clean-up, recycling, public awareness of city ordinances, and numerous others.

"This is an ongoing project in which every citizen in Iowa Park can become involved," said Mrs. Hamilton.

"I have been overwhelmed at the response of volunteers and interest shown in this project by the city, schools, businesses and local organizations. It shows that the people of Iowa Park are proud of their community, and want to help make it a clean and pretty place to live," she said.

The next meeting of the group will be at 5:15 p.m., Sept. 2, in Room 2 at the Recreational Activities Center, 806 N. 3rd St. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

VOTER
WANTS YOU!
WHY?

So You Have The Opportunity To Maintain YOUR Freedom Of Choice.

To GET THE HABIT! To VOTE!!!

Voter Registration Trivia that everyone should learn the answers, so they don't get upset on election day.

1. The difference between: a. Being qualified to Register.
b. If registered whether eligible to vote now or in November's Election?
2. It is the Voter's responsibility to make "direct changes" to their registration. (Not the Postmaster - they aren't allowed to forward certificates)
3. Is MOVING a residency change or a mail change or both? (Precinct designation is determined by the residency ONLY.)
4. When registering to vote, you are eligible to vote 30 days from the date the Voter Registrar receives a correctly completed application.
5. Your current voter certificate from another Texas County is invalid in your new county of residence if it has been OVER 90 days since you moved and there is a current election being held in your new county of residence. You WOULD have been allowed to register and vote during regular office hours of the Early Voting Clerk and voted in like contests of your former county in Texas. (Known as Limited Ballot.)
6. Moving within the same precinct in the county, if it is over 90 days since you move you cannot vote legally. This is also true if moving from one precinct to another within the county. (Read the back of your voter certificate.)
7. Number 6 above is a TRUE statement; when is it NOT?
8. Approximately 63,000 new voter registration certificates will be mailed out the latter part of November 1993. They will be Yellow and White. They are valid if all the information on the face of the certificate is correctly maintained by the Voter. If not the certificates will come back to our office. Usually 12 to 14,000 of them by January 1st. These returns are automatically cancelled on August 16, 1994 if the Voter does not turn in a change to the Voter Registrar.

If registering from another State or just changing residence from another Sister county in Texas.

Former Hawk Bruce Palmer is the only Iowa Parkan listed in this season's Midwestern State Univ. football media guide. A senior wide receiver who last year was named Academic All-District 8 and Academic All-TIAA, was used sparingly in 1992, catching the pass for 16 yards.

Local football fans won't have to travel far to see Palmer play in at least one game this fall. Midwestern will play McMurry at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 23, in Hawk Stadium because of a conflict at Memorial Stadium, where the Indians usually have their home games.

Three familiar names to Iowa Parkans also appear in the MSU media guide. They include Roy Boutwell, defensive line and equipment coach; former resident and teacher at IPHS C.W. Rowell is a faculty representative on the athletic staff, and Dan Brown, who has been the trainer for IPHS athletes is now head trainer there, replacing Iowa Park native Marc Klinkerman.

Boosters to be active

The next few days will be a very active period for the Athletic Booster Club.

They've got Friday night's scrimmages at Abilene Wylie and Holliday, a gathering Saturday with the players, and a regular weekly meeting Monday, on their schedule.

An ice cream and watermelon feed will be given the players, members and potential members Saturday afternoon at the field house.

To begin at 5 p.m., the public will have an opportunity to meet all the freshman, junior varsity and varsity players, as well as their coaches.

At the regular 7 p.m. Monday meeting in the field house, any parent with last year's varsity player yard sign is asked to turn them in, or to be changed if the son's number is different from last year.

Coaches looking for more improvement

The Hawk coaching staff is looking for continued improvement, when the team travels Friday to Abilene Wylie for its final non-conference scrimmage.

The downside of last week's scrimmage against the Class AAAA Wichita Falls Coyotes was the fact that the Black and Red outscored the Hawk first unit 4-1.

The upside, however, was the fact that all the larger school team's scores but one was long distance. "They were never able to mount a sustained drive" against the Hawk defense, Coach Robert Clensay pointed out.

In action tomorrow, the Freshmen are to go just as far south as Holliday, where they will scrimmage at 5:30 p.m. with the Eagles.

Three scrimmage sessions will be held at Abilene Wylie. The second unit Junior Varsity will take on Wylie's freshmen, starting at 5:30. That will be followed by the JV first unit scrimmage, and the Varsity will begin between 7:15 and 7:30, Clensay said.

First-unit Varsity teams will each run 20 plays on offense, followed by 15 plays of each team's second units. First units will then return to the field for game-situation contact, and probably wind up with a few goal line plays.

Wylie returns five offensive and defensive starters from last year's club that advanced into the playoffs.

In Wylie's scrimmage last week at Stamford, the host team outscored the visitors 6-1. Wylie quarterback Chris Kincaid was about the only success story offensively, completing five passes out of 12 attempts for 116 yards, but suffered two interceptions.

For fans who have never driven to Abilene Wylie, the easiest route is to take the western loop around town, continue past the San Angelo turnoff and turn south at the Buffalo Gap exit. A few miles down the road is Wylie, and the stadium is on a road to the right after passing almost through the community. A sign on the side of the road gives direction to the stadium.

A 12-yard pass from Tony Lozipone to Stan Tigrett accounted for Iowa Park's scoring against Wichita Falls High last week.

Two key plays on the drive was an 18-yard sprint by Brent Brown, and a 13-yard pass by Lozipone.

The Coyotes scored three times in their first offensive series, once on a pass that covered 60 yards, a 70-yard run, and the third a 50-yarder on a busted play.

Old High's other touchdown was in the second series, a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass.

The Coyote second unit's only score was a 49-yard sprint by a player who was a starter last season.

Tomorrow's scrimmage will wind up pre-season activity for the Hawks, who open the 1993 season schedule here Sept. 3 against cross-county rival Burkburnett.
