Lonnie Lee, local wildlife expert, calls our attention to the danger of rattlesnakes at this season of the year.

Rattlers are on the move for winter hibernation, and these dangerous reptiles are aimless wanderers, often taking refuge under buildings.

Says Mr. Lee: "Be cautious about reaching under buildings, behind boxes or other objects in garages and outbuildings.

"Also, there is danger in reaching into flowerbeds and hedges. Keep children away from fence rows and piles of old lumber. And while walking around or in old buildings at night, be sure to use a flashlight."

Chevrolet Agency Shows Growth

E. T. Wells purchased the local Chevrolet agency approximately 17 months ago, and the business has grown steadily each month until the personnel includes 12. They are:

Mr. and Mrs. Wells reside at 615 North Park. They lived in Electra before coming here. He was with the Chevrolet company in Electra for 29 years and operated the Pontiac agency there two years.

The Wells have two daughters: Mrs. Stanley T. Lane of Blanco and Mrs. Ralph Knight of Wichita Falls. There are two grandchildren: Kay and Cliff Knight.

Next Monday night at 7:30 the Hawks will play at Will Burnett Field against the Wildcats of Wichita Falls.

Admission is free. Little League football is financed by the Community Fund.

Odd shapes of fruits and vegetables are fascinating and often are sources of speculation as to what caused them to take such unusual forms.

A watermelon growing on a cyclone fence in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Don Taylor, 1000 W. Louisa, is something of an oddity. The vine came up voluntarily and as it grew started to weave in and out of the fence. The melon formed in a square of the fence.

A part of it about the size of a baseball is growing inside, and the other end about the size of a basketball is growing outside the fence—about 18 inches above the ground.

The dedication of a book reveals the author's source of inspiration and help for the writing of the piece of literature. Dedication of the 1962 Fair Edition of the Iowa Park Herald to Dr. and Mrs. Gordon G. Clark attests to the indefatigable efforts they have expended toward the success, improvement and continuation of the Fair since its beginning as a community fair in 1923.

However, as commendable as their work with the Fair has been, the story of their lives of usefulness and service would not be complete if other spheres of their activities were not highlighted. Being the high caliber couple they are, the Clarks put first things first and let the other things fall into proper sequence.

Dr. Clark, a prominent physician and surgeon of this area, first came to Iowa Park in 1913 with his parents the late Dr. and Mrs. Frank Clark. He received his medical degree from the Fort Worth School of Medicine, medical department of Texas Christian University, in 1918, and when he returned to Iowa Park in 1921 to establish permanent residence he became associated with his father and brother, the late Dr. J. Frank Clark, in the practice of medicine.

For many years Dr. Clark's office was located above the Rexall Drug Store on Cash Street. In 1937, he moved into a clinic on West Alameda just a block east of his present beautiful, modern clinic which was built in 1952.

He has associated with him at the present time two other doctors, a business manager, a receptionist, two nurses and a laboratory x-ray technician. The high esteem in which Dr. Clark has been held by his patients through the past 40 years is an attestation of his skill, sympathetic understanding and absorbed interest in humanity.

Dr. Clark has served as City health officer since 1924. He was health officer of Wichita county in 1923. He is a past president of Wichita County Medical Society, and has been chairman of Wichita General Hospital board for 14 years.

He is a member of American Medical Association, Texas Medical Association, Southern Medical Association, and American Academy of General Practice.

A member of Iowa Park Christian church, Dr. Clark is a former chairman of the board and is currently serving as stewardship chairman.

As a civic leader, Dr. Clark has worked untiringly and with strong convictions and determination. In all of his endeavors he had the interest of all the people at heart, never purposing to discriminate against anyone.

He served as mayor of Iowa Park for seven years and as president of the Chamber of Commerce three different times. He is in Iowa Park of the Noon Lions is the only living charter member club, having served that organization as president. During earlier years he was manager of the Independent Baseball Club for several years.

If any one individual has been considered indispensable to the Fair it has been Dr. Clark. In 1923 he was chairman of the parade and program. The name of the Fair was changed to Wichita County Free Fair in 1929, and Dr. Clark has served on the executive committee continuously since that time. He was president of the Wichita County Free Fair three different times, and was elected president of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair in 1948, a position he held until 1959 when he resigned. Since then he has been chairman of the board of directors.

Mrs. Clark, the former Miss Oscar Duvall, is regarded by all who know her as the essence of efficiency and dependability. When she sets herself to a task she never stops until it is successfully behind her. The townspeople detected this characteristic in Mrs. Clark soon after she came to Iowa Park, and from that time on when a project was being considered that called for carefully mapped strategy and endless hours of hard work it has been easy and natural for all minds to turn to beloved "Oscar Clark."

Mrs. Clark took nurse's training at the All Saints' Hospital in Fort Worth and practiced her profession three years before her appointment to the State Board of Nurses Examiners, an organization she served as president for two years.

Young people are one of Mrs. Clark's "first loves." Her interest in their welfare has been so keenly felt that it has been so-rt of a magnet drawing them to her. Among her treasures are letters she has received from young people thanking her for a courtesy or favor.

There are adults living in the city now who have fond memories of the time when she served as their Camp Fire Guardian. She was later a den mother when her two boys became of Cub Scout age. For two years Mrs. Clark served as one of the sponsors of the Youth Canteen, which was organized to provide wholesome recreation for the high school set. Another project which afforded her a great deal of pleasure was being chairman of dances held in the Fair Auditorium during World War II for servicemen arms when grease caught fire as she was preparing a meal.

All persons interested in forming a square dance club for the coming season re invited to attend a meeting at the Youth Center, Thursday, Sept. 20.

Officers and directors will be elected and square dance nights will be set. If you're interested, be there. A free dance will be held at the Youth Center beginning at 8:00 p.m. Saturday, October 6.

Helpfulness is a quality of the good life that is often neglected. And when noticed it reaps great rewards.

Monday night of this week a man in need of gasoline stopped at the Jiffy Food Store and asked for help. He was put in touch with Bill Robinson, owner of the Sinclair Station bearing his name.

at Sheppard Field. The young women who attended the dances were asked to wear their formals, and the men were transported to and from the auditorium in Sheppard Field buses. Many remarked that the setting and atmosphere were vivid reminders of their college days and dances.

Mrs. Clark has been an active member of the First Methodist church here for many years. She taught a Sunday school class for a number of years. The Woman's Society of Christian Service is another sphere of her Christian service.

She is now a circle leader and is presently co-ordinator for the Wesleyan Service Guild. She is chairman of WSCS's project to provide a monthly program and refreshments for patients in the S.A.F.B. hospital. She is also on the official board of the church.

Mrs. Clark served on the Wichita County American Red Cross board for many years. She was chairman of the local Red Cross board for 10 years. She was supervisor of surgical dressings for American Red Cross during the World War II. She is presently a Gray Lady.

Mrs. Clark was chairman of the United Fund Drive in Iowa Park for several years, and she has assisted in some way with practically every local project intended for the betterment of humanity and to alleviate human suffering.

Mrs. Clark was president of the United Church Women of Iowa Park for two years, and she has held district and state offices in the organization. She is a former president and district council woman of the Wichita County Medical Auxiliary.

Along with her other achievements is the important role she has played in the Fair from the start. She served as director of the Women's Department from 1942 through 1947. Then she became chairman of the Fine Arts Division, holding this position until 1960.

Dr. and Mrs. Clark have many interests in common. They are members of the Knife and Fork club in Wichita Falls. They are both interested in city and home beautification. Mrs. Clark was chairman of the first City Beautification committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce. At that time a trophy was awarded to the section of town doing the most toward beautifying and getting rid of the eye sores in that section.

Their own lawn is a picture of unusual beauty and reflects hours of planning and hard labor. They were awarded the plaque for the Home of the Year in 1960.

Admission to the Fair Grounds will be 25c and 50c. Free tickets have been distributed in Oklahoma and Texas to 100,000 school children.

Even though the Fair lost its main auditorium recently in a fire, programs will be presented under a large tent that has been erected near the front entrance.

Monday the Midwestern university Indian Band will present a program at 7:30. Members of this band represent practically every section of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair region. Their music and floor show are always inspiring and entertaining.

Tuesday night at 7:30 the Army Band from Ft. Sam Houston will present a concert. This band performed at the Henrietta Pioneer Celebration last week.

Wednesday night at 7:30 Electra will present a home talent show.

Thursday night at 7:30 Burk Burnett Town Band will entertain Fair visitors.

Friday night will be devoted to entertainment furnished by various neighboring towns. The Saturday night show will feature the Wichita Falls Baton Twirlers.

All these programs are free. Parkway Shopping Center has a nice black top parking area in front of Rowntree Men's and Boys' Wear, A and K 5c to $1, and Parkway Furniture. Makes a mighty neat appearance.

Tom Dillard, 70 Is Heart Victim

Funeral service was conducted for Mr. Thomas Lee Dillard, 70, Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 19, in Faith Baptist church with Rev. John Klappenbach, pastor, and Rev. Wayne Dunson, Methodist church pastor, officiating. The body lay in view at the church one hour before the service.

Burial was in Highland cemetery under direction of Tanner Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Glen and Walter Spruiell, James and R. B. Wilkerson, Gordon Hair, Harrel Sullivan. Honorary pallbearers were longtime close friends.

Mr. Dillard had just returned home Sunday after visiting a week in Oklahoma City with a daughter and family. After visiting with friends downtown, he went home Monday to mow the lawn and suffered a heart attack. Two of his neighbors saw Tom fall and went to his aid and tried to revive him.

Born Oct. 2, 1891, in Gadsden, Ala., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dillard, he came with them to Jack county from Louisiana while a young boy. They later moved to Vera, where he was married to Miss Martha Hall, Feb. 6, 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard and family resided in Knox and Baylor counties until 1937, when they came to Valley Farms community near Iowa Park.

In 1945 Mr. Dillard bought the local feed store from the late A. A. Birdwell and moved his family into town. At time of his death he had been retired for several years.

Surviving are the widow; a son C. B. Ventura, Calif.; two daughters: Mrs. Jack Spivey of Oklahoma City and Mrs. James Hair of Ft. Worth; 12 grand- and 2 great-grandchildren.

Hawks 27 Anson 8

Starting like a winter snowball the Hawks took the measure of the Anson Tigers ast Friday on Hawk Field.

Whiteclad Hawks took the opening kick-off and marched 62 yards in 13 plays for their first marker. Billy Jackson counted the 6 points with an 8-yard sweep outside left end. Mike Davenport tacked on 2 points.

Anson's Tom McIntire returned the kick-off to his 33. On the next play Sanders flipped the ball back to Donnie Lain, who tossed a pass to McIntire. He eluded the Hawk secondary and sped 67 yards for a touchdown. Sanders rolled to the right for a 2-point conversion, tying the score.

Anson kicked off and the Carter boys started downfield again. Caldwell picked up 17 yards on three attempts. Davenport broke off right tackle for 17, was hit, and fumbled. Anson took over on their own 20.

The Tigers ran three plays and then Sanders booted 50 yards out of trouble. Starting from their own 27, the Hawks banged and plunged to Anson's 10, where the pigskin equirted free and was regained by Anson.

Again Sanders kicked on 4th down. Anson drew a 15-yard penalty to get the Hawks underway. Mike Caldwell and Larry Thompson alternated carrying the ball until the Hawks gave back 15 yards on a violation. Thompson restored the Hawks with a 13-yard pass. Jackson caught the Tigers off balance and reversed for 7. Anson then donated another 15 by piling on.

Starting from the Anson 16, Caldwell rammed the line three times, and Thompson added the last 4 for the TD. This ended scoring in the first half.

Bands of both schools gave intermission performances. The Hawk twirlers were impressive with a fire twirling act.

Second half started like the first. The Tigers bogged down and Sanders made a 50 yard kick which Caldwell returned 34 to the Anson 25. He then bounded through a hole made by Brett and Gillispie for 14. Sam Archer reversed to the left and was wide open as Rausher and Grams applied blocks, and the score became 20-8.

Tigers tried the hand-off play on the kick-off but the left side of the Hawk line stopped the play. Three plays and minus 17 yards later the Tigers kicked, the ball dying on the Tiger 46. Eight plays and 1 penalty later the Hawks had scored again. Thompson was aided by Jackson's beautiful block for a 17 yard amble in the drive.

Billy Jackson ran his own right end for the final 5 yards. Log Benny Brett lofted a kick high and true for the 27th point in the IP column.

Fourth quarter found the Hawk squad testing a passing game. They picked up 39 yards and moved the ball well but were held scoreless.

Our scorekeeper showed the Hawks made 274 yards rushing while Anson had 53 net.

In passing the Hawks tried 8 and completed 3 for 52 yards. One was intercepted. The Tigers attempted 12, caught one for 67 yards and had 3 swip-d.

This Friday the Hawks will go to Jacksboro to test the Tigers. Last week Steve Wheelis put on a one-man show against Rider. He threw 3 TD passes.

The Hawk line will have to put plenty of pressure on him to keep the victory string going.

Let's all drive safely to Jacksboro and cheer our boys into bringing back another Tigerskin for our trophy room.

JUST OPPOSITE THE FAIR GROUNDS

Three Years . .

M.Sgt. and Mrs. Joel W. Gilliam and two children Dell 9½ and Missy 8, of 1314 Fourth in Iowa Park, has just returned from a three-year tour of duty and stay in Libya, North Africa.

Gilliam was stationed at Wheelus Air Base near Tripoli. Libya, a colony of Italy from 1912 to World War II, became an independent kingdom in December 1951. Joint capitals are Tripoli and Bengasi.

According to the Gilliams, Libya in most respects has advanced little in comparison with Tunis, about 500 hundred miles from Libya. Civilization is so antiquated that Tunis refers to Libya as her "backward cousin."

For the first 30 months spent in Libya the Gilliams lived on an Italian farm 10 miles out toward the Sahara Desert. They lived in a modern trailer on the base the last six months.

Their house on the farm was large but had no built-in features and they had to improvise closets etc. It had electricity but that was cut off during irrigation—which was all day nearly the year around. This made it difficult to keep fresh meat and vegetables on hand. Kerosene was used for heating purposes, and Mrs. Gilliam says during the cold months it was impossible to keep the large living room warm.

The family wash was hung on the upstairs porch to be higher than ground level because dry pulverized particles formed a continuous cloud of dust on the ground.

Road to the base was narrow and rough. Shortly before the Gilliams left Libya a four-lane highway about five miles long was completed near the Sea of Tripoli.

Most modern buildings in Tripoli are a post office, two hotels, two banks; but these are mediocre when compared with modern buildings in Tunis. Most popular shops are cubbyholes in the wall, and even though some of the merchandise is beautiful it cannot be displayed. Instead it is arranged in stacks so high finding a desired item is difficult.

Of all the interesting experiences the family had while there, Mrs. Gilliam said the two which stand out vividly for her were the time when Vice-President L. B. Johnson visited the base, and the time she was entertained in one of the Arab's grass huts on the Italian farm.

Mrs. Gilliam worked as secretary on the base. One day someone came into her office and announced Johnson had arrived for a visit. Just as she walked out of the office she came face to face with him. At that time someone shouted "She's from Texas."

Johnson gave her a warm handshake and paused for a chat. A few weeks later an account of the meeting appeared in the Austin American, daily newspaper.

Thereafter, Mrs. Gilliam was dubbed "Belle of the Base."

In the summer of 1961 Mrs. Gilliam's mother Mrs. Ed Munson of Austin, went to Libya for a visit with the family. One of the Arab women who lived on the Italian farm invited Mrs. Gilliam and her mother to shahi (tea). The hostess lived in a grass hut almost devoid of furnishings. She dug a hold in the dirt floor large enough to hold some charcoal and a tin can to heat water for the tea.

The drink was served in crude metal cups as the women sat cross-legged on the floor. Arab women serve their guests three times, dropping peanuts into the third serving to indicate it is time for the guests to depart.

In that section of Libya the woman is called Fatima and the man is called Mohammed. Mrs. Gilliam's hostess was attired in a coarse red and white striped barracan, which is one long piece of cloth wrapped around the body and tied at the midriff. She wore a wide crude bracelet on her arm which was so tight it almost cut the flesh. Arab women wear much jewelry, and big earrings are so popular with them that most of their cars are obnoxious because they have been pulled out of shape.

When the husband came home, his wife separated him from the guests by a blanket partition because it is not proper for a man to converse with women unaccompanied by their husbands.

The dress-up barracan is white. The men also wear barracans, and fashioned of a material similar to sheep wool. For ordinary dress they wear cotton and for work the garment is made of bur-lap.

Though Mrs. Gilliam knew and spoke little Arabic and her hostess knew less about English, they managed beautifully because the language of smiles, gestures and guttural sounds somehow took care of the situation.

Familiar sight in Libya yet one which never lost its fascination for the Gilliams was the cow drawing water from the well. The cow is harnessed to a pulley and rope draw the water to the surface of the well. The beast walks up an incline, drops the water from the leather pouch into a bucket, and goes back to await the next customer.

When an Arab family goes to visit a neighbor, the husband either walks or rides a bicycle in front of the children. The wife follows behind carrying the baby and a bundle on her head.

During the three years the Gilliams spent in Libya they could observe a few signs of progress. One was that small girls who were not allowed to attend school three years ago are now granted that privilege.

The Gilliams purchased most of their food on the base. Occasionally they bought citrus fruit and tomatoes of the natives but these had to be soaked in Clorox water before they could be eaten. The tomatoes are similar to our bell peppers and are meaty instead of juicy.

In the summer of 1961 the Gilliams toured Europe, visiting in seven countries. They also visited in Tunis which with its French atmosphere is almost like being in Paris. After roughing it in Libya so long, they felt like they were in a fairyland in the modern hotel with every accommodation even to telephones in the rooms. They also visited two Roman ruins: Leptis Magna, east toward Egypt; and Sabratha, west toward Tunis.

At the museum in Tripoli they saw the mast of the ship Philadelphia, which went down in the waters of Tripoli. Each Memorial Day the Americans in that area hold a service to pay respect to the men who lost their lives on the ship.

Most of the Arabs are Moslems and worship in mosques. Friday is their day of worship and also their market day. Among the mementoes brought back from Libya is a copy of the Koran in English. The Gilliams also have a wide assortment of souvenirs collected from Africa and the European countries. Mrs. Gilliam has a spoon collection from a large number of countries.

Sgt. Gilliam is a native of Granbury. His parents reside in Kopperel where his father is a school teacher. He is presently stationed at SAFB.

A Golden Opportunity will be theme of the Ministerial Alliance booth at the Fair. A point of interest will be scale models of the Iowa Park church buildings. By the side of each will be a brief history of the church.

There will be a table in the booth which will hold an American Bible Society catalog and order blanks for desiring to order anything.

Mrs. Hawkins Is President Of Area Teachers Sorority

Beta Rho chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary society for women teachers, will begin its 27th year in Wichita Falls when members meet for a re-assembly tea in September.

Mrs. L. D. Hawkins, who recently retired from the Iowa Park school system, will be president during 1962-64. She will be assisted by Berneze Buckner, first vice-president; Mrs. Lee Womack, second vice-president; Joy Michael, recording secretary; Maurine Leisler, corresponding secretary; Vera Pickard, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Grady, parliamentarian.

Miss Buckner, program chairman, has planned one meeting a month from September through May, using the program focus announced by the International Committee on Program, "Advancing with Women Leaders of the Modern World."

Joint meetings with Zeta Sigma chapter of Wichita Falls will be held in December and April, when the two groups will observe Christmas and will initiate new members.

Delta Kappa Gamma is of particular interest to Texans because it was organized in Austin on May 11, 1929, by 12 teachers drawn from all parts of the state. The idea was conceived by Dr. Annie Webb Blanton, who at that time was professor of rural education at the University of Texas.

One of her purposes was to help to remove the barriers limiting the advancement of women educators and thus to eliminate unjust discrimination.

During the 33 years of its existence, DKG has established chapters in all 50 states of the Union and in six provinces of Canada. There is now a membership of almost 80,000 teachers.

National headquarters have always been maintained in Texas and the society now owns a building in Austin.

In addition to protecting the professional interests of women in education, other purposes of the society are to sponsor and support desirable legislation in the interest of women educators; to develop a continuous program of teacher welfare; to inform members of current economic, social, political and educational issues; and to endow scholarships to aid women teachers in pursuing graduate study.

Beta Rho chapter was organized in Wichita Falls on Dec. 14, 1935, by Mamie S. Bastian, one of the national founders. First president was Mamie Raborn, and immediate past president is Mrs. R. D. Huston.

Members of Delta Kappa Gamma residing in Iowa Park are Mrs. Riley Bomar, China B. Smith, R. A. Tanner, George Trammell, Chauncey Weiler; Miss Ethyle Kidwell and Mrs. Hawkins.

Future Farmers of America officers have been meeting every day the past two weeks in the ag. building planning the work schedule for the T-O Fair and other activities of the year. Officers are:

- Carson Crume, president
- Johnny Hankins, vice-pres.
- Jerry Starr, secretary
- Gordon Cole, treasurer
- Robbin Crawford, reporter
- Clifford Klinkerman, sentinel
- FFA boys will exhibit their projects as follows:
- Andy Crawford—a Southdown wether lamb and a ram.
- Garland Lehman—Hampshire and Berkshire barrows.
- Pat Pruett—Hampshire barrow.

Jeff Williamson—Suffolk ram and ewe lamb.
Larry Holder—Southdown ewe and wether lamb.
James Cantrell—Southdown ewe, ewe lamb and Southdown wether lamb.
—Robbin Crawford, reporter

Soil Conservation

Land, grass, range and pasture judging will bring participation of about 35 FFA and 4-H teams at the T-O Fair, Sept. 29, according to Elvy Sargent, Iowa Park soil conservationist.

Little Wichita and Wilbarger-Wichita soil conservation districts will co-sponsor these contests, which provide basic knowledge in our natural resources: soil, plants and water.

National land judging score-card and rules will be used in land judging. Cards 3 and 4 of National Range judging contest will be used. Coaches are advised that in the grass judging contest, characteristics of plans will be checked according to state list and on 50 plants selected for this contest.

Haydn Works Study Topic

First meeting of the year for Modern Music Study club was in the form of a covered dish supper Friday in the home of Mrs. Gayle Park on Iowa Park Road. Assisting with hostess duties were Mrs. Bill Curry and Miss Mary Butcher.

Following the meal, business was directed by Mrs. Joe Flanagan. Mrs. W. G. Steele reported books on music have been ordered for presentation to Wichita County Free Library. It was voted to enter a car in the T-O Fair parade Sept. 24.

Mrs. Boyd Schlenker presented the study on Early Life and Work of Joseph Haydn (1731-1809). Native of Rohrau, Austria, he spent most of his year in Austria and Hungary. For 30 years he was head musician for Prince Nicholas Esterhazy. He is best known for his quartets and symphonies.

A madrigal composed of Mmes. Delbert Todd, John Klappenbach and M. J. McDonald sang rota "Summer Is A-Coming In."

Mrs. Schlenker discussed the hymn of the month, "The Lord's My Shepherd," by Francis Rous. She gave the history of his life, and the group sang the hymn. Mrs. Otis Gay furnished organ accompaniment.

Miss Frances Park was a guest. Other members present were Mesdames O. E. Lochridge, Henry Jones, James A. Sewell, Preston Pace, Wayne House, John Rent-schler, Esther Thornberry.

Army to Exhibit Missiles at Fair

Patrons of T-O Fair will have opportunity to acquaint themselves with America's missile arsenal when the U. S. Army's Missiles Exhibit opens September 24 in Iowa Park.

The exhibit features an electronic defense map of the United States showing how defense missiles can track, intercept and destroy approaching enemy aircraft.

Another phase of the exhibit traces the history of rocketry—from the 13th century to the present—and illustrates how army rocketry may revolutionize army mobility.

Still another attraction is a color motion picture depicting dramatic firing sequences of army missiles. Actual army missiles—including Little John, Lacrosse, Hawkf SS-11 tank killer, and Redeye—will be on display.

Army specialists will be on duty to answer questions.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Compton and Sherye Compton and Marshall Farrier visited Sunday in Bowie with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Noah.

Gary Compton has returned home after several weeks in Plainview.

Roger A. Darnell, storekeeper seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Darnell of Iowa Park, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Saratoga, operating out of Mayport, Fla.

Garden Club Begins Season

First meeting of the club year for the Iowa Park Garden club was last Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Erwin Soell, president.

Program was presented by Bob Webb of Webb Landscaping Co., Wichita Falls. He discussed planning a yard and plants for arrangements.

Webb stated that the prime factor in planning a yard should be low maintenance. In front yard the planting should be simple and attractive beginning with background planting in long lines next to the house. In front of this should come flowers that produce color, then the border, and finally the lawn edge.

He showed where trees should be used to add weight to the lawn area. Webb illustrated designs for backyard but said such designs were not static and should suit the taste of home owners.

Webb favored the free-form shapes in flower beds, listed a fence as a must, gave the advantages of a service strip and told when and where to plant trees, shrubs and flowers to the best advantage.

Plants suggested for use in arrangements were Pampas grass, floting, cherry laurel, nandina, bamboo, Chinese holly, Aucuba gold dust plant, pittosporum, camellia, redbud, barberry. Flowers for use in arrangements are hibiscus, althea, spirea and crepe myrtle.

During the business period directed by Mrs. Soell, Mrs. W. T. Crawford was appointed parliamentarian and Mrs. I. W. Corder, special projects chairman.

Mrs. Arch Hughes and Mrs. R. G. Warner were appointed to select a gift for Mrs. Morris Jacks, who resigned as president recently to move to Arkansas.

It was voted to have an entry in the T-O Fair parade Sept. 24. Mrs. Herman Rains and Mrs. Bart Grant were recognized as new members. Mrs. Margaret Soell of Lohman, Mo., mother-in-law of the hostess, was a visitor.

Other members present were Mmes. Wilburn Bedford, W. L. Yost, Sam Hunter, R. C. Carver, O. N. Newman, Homer Blalock and Miss Hazel Crites.

Tough new '63 Chevrolet Trucks are here!

...THE ONES THAT WHIPPED THE BAJA RUN...TOUGHEST UNDER THE SUN... TO SHOW THE WORTH OF NEW ENGINES, FRAMES AND SUSPENSIONS!

Sometimes the caravan crept along for hours in low gear. It took 17 days to go 1,066 miles! This is the road near Loreto.

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' hah) California Peninsula, Mexico.

These pictures give you only a bare idea of the place. The road is fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the beating begins. Rocks and hard-baked ruts bang, jab and jerk the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them.

The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,066 miles.

All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty.

Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. Come in now and see tough quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements.

Engineering advancements and modern production techniques have eliminated the need for a 1,000-mile inspection, and increased major chassis lubrication intervals to 36,000 miles, with minor lubrication intervals of 6,000 miles. These are only two of the many service-saving items designed into all Ford Division cars except club wagons and buses for 1963.

Fairlane hardtops, station wagons, and sporty sedans will go on display in dealer showrooms on Friday, September 28.

A. J. Wood Jr., who lives at 123 Wood Circle North, was born in Wapanucka, Okla., where he also attended school. He was and still is a rancher there. He is well known for his Whiteface cattle and is now experimenting in raising Brangus cattle, a cross between Brahma and Angus. Later they will be crossed back to his Herefords.

He raises all his feed such as grain and alfalfa on his ranch.

Mr. Wood moved his family to Ft. Worth about 16 years ago, where he was active in the home building field. He has built in many sections of Ft. Worth and Hurst. He owns seven different building and developing corporations.

Mr. Wood came to Wichita Falls 18 months ago to build in Lincoln Heights for the Ram Co. A year ago he started Sandra Gail Homes in Iowa Park. Twenty-five of the sub-contractors and office force with their families have also moved here from Ft. Worth and most of them live in Iowa Park. This is a total of 76 persons.

Sandra Gail homes are designed for comfort, style and convenience of the home owner. Much time and thought is put into the livability of his homes. They reflect the personal touch of an expert decorator.

Mr. Wood and his wife Geraldine have three children: Renda Ogletree, who is a bookkeeper in Wichita Falls for two of her father's corporations. Her husband owns and operates Ogletree Electric and is electrician for the Ram Co. project and Sandra Gail Homes.

A. Jerry Wood 3rd and his wife Earline live in Iowa Park and both work for Sandra Gail Homes.

Sandra Gail, for whom the homes are named, is in her first year of junior high here.

Mr. Wood tries to make all his homes as beautiful as his own Sandra Gail. There are two grandchildren: Rena 5 and Kevin 3, who are the children of Charles and Renda Ogletree.

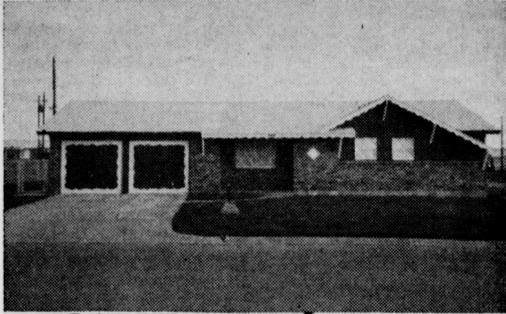

Mr. Wood is an active and civic minded person. He is member of Home Builders Association in Wichita county and on the board of directors of the Tarrant county branch; Wichita Falls Sales Managers club; Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce; ex-commander of American Legion Post 308, Wapanucka; former vice-president of the Ex-Students association of Wapanucka; member of Southwestern Cattle Raisers association.

Organ Club

Mrs. O. E. Lochridge was hostess for the first meeting of the current year of Iowa Park Organ club Tuesday evening. Mrs. Elmo Traylor conducted the business period.

The program featured selections by each member.

Present were Messrs and Mmes Elgin Denny, Pul Coppock, Henry Jones, Joe Smith, Elmo Traylor; Mmes. Jo Ann Locascio, Elbert Jones, John Williamson and Miss Janie Williamson.

Shown above is the Falcon Squire station wagon for 1963, one of Ford's five models of compact wagons. The Falcon Squire, a four-door, six-passenger station wagon, is a deluxe model with all the basic advantages of Falcon economy and maneuverability. This view shows off some of the all-around styling refinements incorporated into the Falcon line of sedans and wagons for 1963. A new grille carries out the forward-thrusting, "blunted-spear" effect evident in the front-end profile. The simulated hood air-scoop is retained, and block "FORD" letters are placed on the leading edge of the hood.

Low-slung and spirited, Ford's all-new compact Falcon Futura convertible (below) leads off Detroit's 1963 parade of new car models. Designed with a sports car flair, the car offers luxury car interior appointments, an electrically operated power top and a complete range of performance options. Wire wheel covers, bucket seats and a floor mounted, 4-speed transmission are a few of the many options available.

These two models, along with Falcon's full line of 17 models, will be introduced in dealer showrooms Friday, September 28.
