MINING MATTERS.

THE BELZORA.

Geo. A. Sanborn and J. B. Menard are at work on the Belzora. Pete Crawford will assist them for a time, after which he will try his luck on the Palmetto.

THE PRINCETON.

Two drifts are being run on the Princeton ore body, the north one being in only 15 feet—the south drift 40. The vein shows up well and only the ore necessarily extracted in running the drifts is being mined.

THE POLAR LODE.

John Schnelle is showing up a two-foot vein in the Polar lode, which he claims to contain nice streaks of sulphuret and chloride ore. The only mill-run so far made returned 93 ounces silver per ton.

THE BLACK HAWK.

John Glasgow is driving along on the Black Hawk tunnel and is preparing a shipment of ore for both the Rico smelters. The mine shows one of the largest bodies of ore in San Juan and with a slight profit per ton can make its owners rich in a short time.

THE FOREST TUNNEL.

The Grand Duke Co. called for bids to run a tunnel 240 feet (more or less) to cut the vein of the Forest lode, and on Monday opened 21 bids ranging in the neighborhood of $7 to $10 per foot.

THE GRAND VIEW.

The Grand View smelter is receiving ore from the Mendota and Sheridan mines of Marshall Basin and other mines in the San Miguel section. Yesterday six different lots were received.

THE VALLEY VIEW (OPHIR).

The Valley View has been one of the prominent mines of the Ophir district ever since it was a district and nearly all its product has been shipped to Silverton. Their first instalment to Rico arrived here yesterday and there is every probability that the entire output of the mine will come to our smelters hereafter.

THE PASADENA.

The Pasadena people are turning out about five tons of bullion daily and are receiving ore at a very encouraging rate. The Boomerang mine at Telluride is the latest acquisition from over the divide and 200 tons of ore now on the dump of that mine will probably come to them for treatment.

MINERAL BENEATH THE TOWN OF RICO.

Two years ago the excitement over the South Park contact was at its height and in the month of July more than 20 shafts were started at the base of Dolores mountain to "catch the contact." Some of them failed of their object, yet there are many mining men who believe that the peculiar formation and rich mineral of the South Park are only indications of very rich deposits to be found deeper, and point to various indications which tend to corroborate their theory.

A DENVER reporter has discovered that baldness and gray hairs are very common among the gentlemen of Colorado and ascribes the causes not to "too much matrimony" or "an overstock of mother-in-law" but to the extreme dryness of the atmosphere and the alkali contained in the waters of the state.

The census returns show that there are over 18,000 farms in Colorado.

TRIPLETS.

BORN TO DEL NORTE PROSPECTOR, July 18, '85.

Oh, I'm a gory Ute On the shoot— Hear me too, I'm a scrapper from the hills— After blood.

I'm a cow-boy from the Mancos— Hear my gun— Click—bang! I'm a leather-legged herder— Flying high.

And I'm a state militia man, Fight I can— Never run. And I'd laugh to meet the Injun In his lair.

MURDERED IN PARADOX.

John W. Prentiss Murdered Away Down the Rio Dolores Last Week.

State Senator Jim Galloway Bobs Up Suddenly and Takes the Murderer in Out of the Wet, Capturing Him at Montrose.

R. T. Norman came to Rico on Tuesday, bringing news that a gentleman named Prentiss had been murdered in Paradox valley on the Dolores by a party who was living at the Prentiss ranch.

On Sunday M. V. Rollins, John W. Prentiss and a man named Watson were at the Prentiss ranch, drinking and carousing. Prentiss showed Watson his pocket-book, saying there was $400 in it, and said that people would be surprised to know that he carried so much money.

On Monday several persons who called at the cabin of Prentiss found the door guarded with a wire fence recently erected and were met at the door by Rollins, who said to callers that Prentiss was not at home. On Tuesday Senator J. P. Galloway, whose cattle ranch is close by, called at the Prentiss cabin in company with a friend named Watson.

On Wednesday inquiry showed that Rollins was gone, and that Prentiss had not been seen. The mail driver reported having met Rollins going to Montrose, with two horses.

Search failing to discover Rollins, Galloway and Watson concluded he had escaped to Montrose, and they went at once to Bed Rock, had a warrant made out for his arrest which was placed in Senator Galloway's hands, and he, accompanied by Deputy Fountain, started in pursuit as soon as possible.

In the meantime, as supposed, Rollins came to Montrose flush with money, which he began at once to squander freely at the saloons and houses of prostitution.

Last Monday Galloway and companion arrived and found Rollins at a house of ill-fame, where they arrested him, on an alleged warrant for horse stealing. The man agreed to go back on such a charge, but the complaint charged murder. The prisoner had $82.10 on his person and the murdered man's pistol and watch.

It is supposed that Prentiss had $500 in cash at the time he was murdered. Senator Galloway reached home with his prisoner on Wednesday of this week, just a week from the time Prentiss' body was discovered.

John W. Prentiss was a well to do ranchman, 34 years of age, leaving near Bed Rock, and was known as an industrious man who has lived in that section some years ranching and teaching school.

Rollins is a slender young man, about 22 years of age, whom Prentiss had known in the East, and had sent for some nine months ago to come out to Colorado. He had done nothing since his arrival in this country except riding around and dissipating.

He brought with him to Montrose a pistol, shot gun and a Winchester belonging to Prentiss—probably the weapon used in the murder. Rollins came from Louisville, Ky., where his parents reside.

He was not informed of the finding of Prentiss' body, but thought he was arrested for stealing the horses. He was very anxious to waive examination and remain in jail at Montrose. When he gets down in the valley he may wish that he had never got to Bed Rock.

THE NATION'S SORROW.

Death of Gen. Grant at Mount McGregor, on Thursday.

It became apparent early in the week that the life of America's great general was ebbing away and that his time on earth could be counted by hours. On Tuesday night he began sinking rapidly and at 10 o'clock Dr. Douglas said there was a slight rally and that he had known persons in General Grant's condition to survive for two days. He said the patient was in a critical condition, and he would hazard no prediction, not even for the night.

While in a measure prepared for this blow, the realization that General Grant is really dead brings sadness to the heart of a Nation, both to those who followed and who fought against him in a war in which brother was arrayed against brother and father against son.

For the past two months the name Dolores has frequently appeared in connection with Indian troubles, and is liable to mislead the reader. Rico is situated on the Dolores river, it is the seat of Dolores county, and has become recognized as the metropolis of the Dolores country.

On Wednesday inquiry showed that Rollins was gone, and that Prentiss had not been seen. The mail driver reported having met Rollins going to Montrose, with two horses. Search failing to discover Rollins, Galloway and Watson concluded he had escaped to Montrose, and they went at once to Bed Rock, had a warrant made out for his arrest which was placed in Senator Galloway's hands, and he, accompanied by Deputy Fountain, started in pursuit as soon as possible.

All Quiet Along the Dolores.

The following letter was received too late for publication last week: Up to the present I have had nothing to report, for there is nothing.

Let me say to you that the reports, newspapers and gossip, have been exaggerated and some cut out of the whole cloth. There is no immediate cause for alarm and should such an event occur, Col. Swain is fully alive to his duty and position and has troops enough to protect all settlements. There is a company now stationed at the Big Bend which will be there all summer. There is no danger.

The Colorado press association is off on its annual junketing tour. This year they go to Oregon and have a trip down the Portland river and will visit points of interest in Idaho. A very small proportion of the fraternity in the state is enabled to leave work long enough to enjoy the advantages of the trip.

JOSEPH KIST, a noted St. Louis athlete, jumped from the bridge last Sunday afternoon into the water, a distance of 90 feet, and swam to the foot of Chouteau avenue, one mile distant. He was previously prevented from making the leap by the police. The leap which killed Prof. Odium was only 110 feet.

JOHN ROACH, the leading ship-builder of America, and the builder of the war dispatch boat Dolphin, about which so much has been said lately, made an assignment last Saturday. His pay roll has been $15,000 weekly.

GENIUS is not always unrewarded. The author of "Silver Threads Among the Gold" has been appointed postmaster of a Wisconsin town with a salary of $243 a year.

Mrs. GENTNER's brother arrived from California, on Wednesday, and has gone to his sister's bedside.—Durango Herald.

We have received the first number of John R. Curry's new Kansas paper, the Cimarron Herald. John will make a success of the enterprise in this thriving district.

To Whom it May Concern.

Public Notice is hereby given that the Puzler Mine in Horse Gulch is a patented lode claim. Mineral Entry No. 330, dated December 13th, 1881, owned by the Rico Silver Mining Company of Colorado, and that the mineral underlying the said Puzler ground is the property of said Company.

THE county commissioners were in session Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, listening to the grievances of such as considered their assessments elevated beyond human endurance. In some cases the complaints were well founded—in others, purely imaginary.

W. A. ADAMS, president of the Pasadena company, started for St. Louis on Thursday last, large business interests in that city calling him thither. Mrs. Adams will accompany him as far as Colorado Springs, where she will pursue health and pleasure for the next few weeks.

MEN'S Straw Hats given away at Holmes'—call early and get one and don't be sensitive about having quit trading with old Holmes because you thought you could do better elsewhere. Old Holmes is of a very forgiving nature and never treasures any hard feelings against any one—nor hardly ever.

IN mentioning the wedding of Samuel James, Jr., to Mrs. Susie Small, which happy event occurred at Trimble Springs, July 16th, we inadvertently misprinted the name of the bride as to appear "Mrs. Susan Small." It may seem a small matter, but there is nothing more provoking than to see one's name misprinted.

JOHN DARLING returned from Ouray Monday and started on his return to that place, accompanied by his wife, on Wednesday. R. C. Darling and wife have also gone to Ouray and will possibly take up their residence there, as a flattering offer has been made to R. C. to take the foremanship of a group of mines near that point.

WEDNESDAY a party of fishermen (and women) set their hooks at the Trout Lake and came down to Rico. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Ingersoll, Misses Nettie Jackson and Emma Carter and Mr. A. J. Sheldon. With the exception of the first named, the party returned to the Lakes on Thursday.

RICO has no post of the Grand Army of the Republic, yet there are several old soldiers here who would doubtless find the establishment of a post a source of much pleasure. The social benefits are great. All persons who would be eligible to membership in such an organization are invited to call on W. H. Bean and give him their names.

A. P. ADAMS, half-owner in the famous C. H. C. mine, will depart on Monday for his home in Albany, New York, where he will remain with his family for the ensuing two or three months. While actively looking after his business here, he has found time to cultivate the friendship of many and they will miss him. Mr. Carpenter will continue at the mine.

THERE will be a calico hop next Thursday evening, the proceeds of which will go to the Rico Cemetery Fence Fund. Tickets for participants $1.00; spectators, 50 cents. The fund now only contains $17.40 and $200 is needed. Ladies are expected to bring neckties to match their dresses or aprons. The cause is a most worthy one, and everyone should go.

RICO ENCAMPMENT No. 19 last Saturday installed new officers, who are: J. F. Stephenson, O. C. P. H. Hensel, H. P. W. B. Shevley, S. W. D. Haydon, J. W. W. T. Williamson, S. G. A. Rule, Treas. R. J. Clague, O. S. J. T. Beale, O. G.

W. H. MIDDAGH, of the dry goods firm of Middagh & Carter, of Durango, came in Tuesday evening to visit his brother Chas. F., and was accompanied by their sister, Mrs. J. W. Weir, of Denver. They only remained one day, returning Thursday. Mr. Middagh is delighted with the overland route into Rico and enjoyed the ride coming in very much. The only thing that could have possibly added to his enjoyment would have been a well-stuffed feather pillow with which to protect the seat-stage seat.

L. UDEMANN, wife and child arrived last evening from Chicago and Mr. U. will take the position in L. Haberman's establishment made vacant by the departure of A. Steinhilber. Mr. S and wife will leave Rico on Monday morning, with tickets for Stuttgart, Wuerttemberg, Germany. This is their childhood home, from which they have been absent 28 years, and if they can get along conveniently with King William, after living so long under the stars and stripes will not return to America.

THE men who were injured by the explosion of giant powder on the Fish Fork of the West Dolores, W. J. Mulholland and Jas. Findley, arrived in Rico Thursday afternoon and are comfortably quartered at the St. James. The accident has robbed each of a hand, all other injuries being of a merely temporary nature. The accident shows what small things sometimes leads to disastrous results. The trouble of lighting another match would have prevented it, but the attempt to spit both fuses at the same match resulted in a confusion of fuses. Findley's fuse split first, and while waiting for the other to catch, the charge was exploded, also discharging Mulholland's. Each held about a third of a stick of Atlas powder. F. A. W. Day rode over from West Dolores with them.

MAJ. B. F. KLEE returned from his Indian inspection trip last evening, and made his report. Gov. Eaton has organized or established a military department including all portions of the southwest where there is any possibility of an Ute outbreak, and placed Major Klee in command. It is the Governor's desire that any irregular proceedings on the part of any Indian band be immediately reported to Maj. Klee, who has full authority to act immediately without the delay of communicating with state authorities.

MISS LOTTIE SAUNDERS, sister of Mrs. D. R. Clay, will leave Salt Lake for Rico about the 7th of August. She has just been compelled to undergo the amputation of one of the fingers of her right hand from a very simple cause. Some little time ago she was using a lye brush and tore her hand slightly on a nail. The concentrated lye touched the bleeding hand and blood poisoning followed. It was thought at one time that it would be necessary to amputate the entire arm, but by careful attention the only final injury is the loss of the finger.

JOSHUA THORNE, a prominent citizen and physician of Kansas City, arrived in Rico last Monday, and was for several days confined to his room at the St. James. The Doctor is one of the largest owners of Wabash stock, the other owners being Messrs. Drennon & Werk, Jos. Chick, W. H. Whiteside, Sam F. Scott, W. H. Gardner and Robert Van Horn, Jr., all of Kansas City. These gentlemen have invested considerable money in the Wabash Hill and the results of their expenditure may bring them excellent returns. The proper development of that mine ought to uncover large bodies of ore. It has the advantage of the fact that good ore is being mined and marketed almost at its sidelines. To determine the future programme in regard to the mine is the object of Dr. Thorne's visit.

THE state law concerning habitual drunkards is being enforced all over the state, and Rico has fallen in line. Last evening Marshall Hayes, acting under orders from the town board, notified all saloon keepers and proprietors of billiard halls that the state law and ordinance No. 70, of the town of Rico, would be enforced to the letter. Four habitual drunkards were especially designated. The law requires that proprietors of saloons, bar-rooms, billiard halls, etc., or any place where liquor is sold, shall not permit any minor or habitual drunkard to frequent such places or to drink any intoxicating or malt liquors, or engage or participate in any game of billiards, or any game, bet or wager with any cards or any other gambling device, under a penalty of $50 fine for the first offense and forfeiture of license for the second.

Death of Mrs. S. M. Ransom. At the family residence at Horse Gulch, Mrs. S. M. Ransom died at 11 o'clock last night. A few days since she was to all appearances enjoying the best of health and to-night she sleeps in the grave. The attack was sudden, but sure, and the first sign of approaching dissolution was on Wednesday morning last, when her husband awoke and found her unable to move any portion of her right side, which was paralyzed. She could not speak and soon lapsed into an unconsciousness from which she never recovered. She leaves a husband and two children (Mattie and John) to mourn her loss. Mrs. Ransom was born in Michigan 41 years ago.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence by Mr. C. O. French, and the sad procession departed from the house at 3, p. m. to-day.

Mrs. Genthner's Reply. The following appreciative letter from Mrs. Genthner, who was recently sent $164.15 by the citizens of Rico, shows with what gratefulness the gift was received. Her womanly thanks are quite touching: DOLORES P. O., Colo., July 16th, 1885.

Mr. W. H. Bean and the people of Rico, DEAR FRIENDS—I write you this morning to acknowledge the receipt of your valuable present to me and to express in my feeble way my thanks for your kindness and sympathy. I feel that words can scarcely be found to express my feelings on the subject. I feel that a whole life time of thankfulness and love cannot more than repay my many friends and acquaintances for their help and kind feelings for me and mine in this, our overwhelming trouble. Now after I have had time to think calmly over the whole thing, I cannot realize that I could have gone through so much trouble, but it is too true to be mistaken, and I know that were it not for the kindness of my many friends, I would almost, if not altogether, break down under the weight. Thank you kindly for your many offers of sympathy, and while I feel that my wrongs and losses will never be entirely repaired on this earth, I am assured that all my friends can do will be done. I cannot thank each one of you separately, but I want each one of you to receive this as coming from the depth of my heart to each and every one. Your seeds of charity and kindness I can assure you have fallen on soil rich with gratitude and thankfulness. My constant prayer for you, my many friends, is that our God may repay you in gifts as rich as you deserve. And now as I feel that I can never thank you enough, I will close by subscribing myself, Ever yours, MRS. J. A. GENTNER.

Colesworthy's Short Order Restaurant has been improved by the addition of a room at the back where a large ice-chest will keep cool their excellent supply of fresh vegetables, butter, fish and other perishable delicacies. The restaurant is always ready for business and keeps nothing but the best.

Death of William E. Parsons.

At 12:30 o'clock this morning, July 25th, all that was mortal of William E. Parsons passed away, at the residence in this place of Geo. A. Rula. The deceased gentleman was the victim of hereditary consumption, from which he has suffered for many years and its wasting effect has for the past year shown itself only too plainly to the eyes of his friends.

Mr. Parsons was born in Buddissham, Somersetshire, England, June 7, 1844, and in this place both his parents still reside. He came to America in 1860, and served through the civil war in Co. K. of the 3d New York Artillery. The ravages of his disease caused him in 1880 to seek a higher altitude and he came to Colorado, removing to Rico in 1881. Here he has since resided and has won the friendship of many. He leaves a brother, Arthur Parsons, and sister, Mrs. Boley, in Cayuga county, New York and another brother, John Parsons, in Johnston county, Iowa. He frequently suffered from hemorrhages of the lungs and for the past two or three months has been falling rapidly. In his last illness he received every possible attention and care, at the hands of his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Rula, and others, and also the members of Silver Crescent Lodge No. 40, of which he was a member. This order will bury him to-morrow with appropriate ceremony from the Rula residence at 10 o'clock. Owing to the absence of Rev. Howard, no services will be held at the church. His parents across the water and relatives everywhere have the blessed assurance that all that earthly hands could do for him, was done by kind and loving friends.

An Extinct Volcano in Sight of Rico.

The following very interesting letter is from the pen of a gentleman of great scientific research, and his belief that a volcano once spouted lava in plain sight of where Rico now stands is not the vagary of an enthusiast, but the practical statements of a geologist of note. The subject is one fraught with much interest: Rico, July 24th, 1885.

To the News. Your little city is not so excited as it was four years ago when I was last here, but it is decidedly more permanently prosperous; gopher holes have given place to mines and prospects to furnaces, and while the remark is to a great extent true that the bottom has fallen out of Colorado, the Silver San Juan I think shines out brighter than ever.

But your little nook in the mountains possesses other attractions than silver and one of them is the object of this letter. To anyone versed in geology this valley of the Dolores tells a wonderful tale. As I sat on your mountain sides, contemplating the terrible rents in the rock formations, finding here no order or periods of creation; where mounds, rocks and hills are confusedly hurled—the remnants of an earlier world—and as I thus listen to the story of the giant ages it reveals, I feel impelled to leave the fissure and the silver trail, and question the open book of nature still further. I will call your attention now to a very interesting page in this book. It is found in one of the gulches on Expectation mountain, the one immediately this side of Horse Gulch. In this fissure just below the Aztec mine will be found the crater of a volcano. I think it is a side issue of lava (the main crater was at Calico peak). At this point, and below it, can be found large quantities of volcanic lava, the most recent and beautiful that I have ever found in any part of the world. I have found specimens here that would bring their weight in silver at Naples!

This lava is of a pure cream white, is like (and is) alabaster, containing the full imprint of the leaves and flora of to-day. This is clearly a very recent (geologic) eruption, and constitutes a point of marked interest to the scientist as well as to the lovers of the unique and beautiful. I have made this crater a part of my trip to this valley but cannot by reason of sickness investigate it now. I hope by the time I return that your ladies will have prospected this interesting spot, and have found many more things on their own account. Let them go out when the fever of the world hath made their lives impatient, and even though their cheeks be bronzed by the kisses of the wind they will thank you for calling their attention to this interesting spot within sight of their homes, which I would gladly cross a continent to visit.

J. THORNE, M. D.

The Truth in a Nut Shell.

Accidents happen and will happen continually. Accidents always happen when unexpected. Accidents happen from the carelessness of others. You cannot tell when your accident will come. Therefore an accident policy is a wise investment for you. The time to secure an accident policy is before you are hurt. If you are without it, you fail to estimate your own risk. Any one who reads these axioms must be convinced that one of the most important developments of insurance in recent times, is insurance against accidents to human life. The expense is small, and in case of a disabling accident, the benefits are not deferred to a time when the insured person has no use for them. On the contrary, he receives the benefits while he is living and when they are urgently needed. The newspapers remind us every day that accidents of innumerable kinds lie in wait wherever we go, on sea or land. All sorts and conditions of men are overtaken sometimes making them helpless in a moment. By sinking of ships, by the burning of houses, by the bursting of steam boilers, by explosions in mines, by collisions on railroads, by the falling of buildings, by panics, by floods, by drowning, by lightning, by tornadoes, by earthquakes, and by other occurrences unforeseen, thousands of people have suddenly perished, or have been seriously injured, in the course of a year.

Therefore to all men whose circumstances or occupations expose them to risks of accidents, and to those who foolishly imagine that they are exposed to no risks, Accident Insurance is especially valuable. To every merchant, clerk, tradesman, professional man, farmer, holiday-seeker, man-of-leisure, even to every person whose income supports a wife and children, Accident Insurance is of priceless value. To them may be recommended The United States Mutual Accident Association, which effects a saving to the insured of one-half the usual cost of Accident Insurance as practiced by other companies.

It has paid $5,000 to the beneficiaries of all members who have received fatal injuries and have held a full policy for that amount.

It has paid to its members more than 5,000 claims for indemnity for accidents causing disabling injuries.

It has in force over $125,000,000 of Accident Insurance policies which carry weekly indemnities at the rate of $30,000,000 per annum.

It gives to its members Accident Insurance at a very low rate as compared with the cost of similar insurance on any other trustworthy company.

It has no proven death or indemnity claims, or indebtedness of any nature unpaid.

It offers the best system of Accident Insurance extant.

Its system is distinct and original.

It is approved by more than twenty-five thousand patrons.

It has never allowed a just claim to be litigated.

It has always paid promptly every valid claim.

It has always resisted every unjust claim.

It has been doing a prosperous business for eight years.

It is a mutual company, and offers advantages much superior to those of any stock company of equal security.

The cost of membership for entrance fee in this Association is $5, paid but once. Members having preferred occupations, such as mercantile and professional pursuits, can carry a policy in the Association that grants $5,000 in the event of death by accident, and $25 per week in case of disabling injury, at a cost (after paying the membership fee) of about $18 a year, which may be paid at one time in advance, or in six assessments, as preferred. $10,000 Accident Insurance with $50 a week indemnity is furnished at proportionate rates. The Difference.

Hawkinsville (Ga.) News.

There is any amount of fun court- ing a young girl who has not been used to it. She swallows all the soft things a fellow says, but whenever it comes to popping the question or something of that kind, she becomes frightened, more or less, and wants time to consider, until there are enough loop-holes for her lover to slip out through without the least bit of trouble, if he happens to see some one he thinks he could love a shade or two better. Young girls are timid and shy in earnest, and if a fellow is not pretty certain he has found pre- cisely the angel he is looking for, he can manage so as to have the refusal of her for a year or more, and at the same time manage to keep his neck out of the reach of a breach of prom- ise suit when he happens to meet some other sweet-faced angel that seems better suited to his taste.

It is different with a widow. She gets rid of all her shyness at the very earliest convenient opportunity, and finds out the principal things she de- sires to know before she allows him to get acquainted. The school-girl trusts herself to any young fellow on sixty or ninety days' sight, without security, but the widow, like a thrifty wholesale house, goes out and ex- amines the mercantile reports concern- ing him, and then sells to him on her own terms for cash. She has him sized up before he comes to market, and when she looks as if she were a very artless creature, and fights shy of him whenever he happens to sit a little close to her on the sofa, there are ten chances to one that he will never look any further, but will buckle right up to her and put the question fairly and squarely, and when he has done so she is not going to tremble and blush and ask for a week or a month in which to make up her mind. She will just wind her arms around his neck and look up into his face without one of Ella Wheeler's fiery yawns and before he has had time to catch his breath he will find him- self nailed to the cross with a "yes" that pierces him to his very soul.

Mormon Insults to the U. S. Flag.

GEN. HOWARD, who recently wrote to President Cleveland suggesting the possibility of a hostile demon- stration at Salt Lake by the Mormons on their pioneer's anniversary, the 24th instant—yesterday—received a dispatch from the President directing him to keep all posts of the Western Platte Department in full strength and prepared for any emergency that may arise in Utah in the near future. Gen. Hatch, with the Fifth Infantry, will be ordered to remain in readi- ness at Ogalalla, Nebraska, to pro- ceed by fast train to Salt Lake if necessary. The Sixth Infantry at Fort Douglas, Utah, consisting of 500 men, will be retained there on guard, and are considered sufficient to cope with anything but organized mobs. The government authorities do not propose that another public insult to the American flag, such as was tendered on the Fourth of July, shall again pass unrebuked. Any such attempt yesterday certainly pre- cipitated a collision.

Chas. M. Wyman, now of Rico, tells us that he once saw a Mormon procession in the streets of Salt Lake and that the American flag was being dragged in the dust at its heels, and was greeted at every turn with hoots and jeers. That gentleman also in- forms us that the cemetery in which are buried the soldiers of the Union while fighting under that gallant leader, Albert Sydney Johnson, is now used as a Mormon sheep corral. Such indignities and desecration are more than the Gentiles should meekly submit to.

The special postal delivery system will be put into operation in a month or two in about a dozen of the principal postoffices of the country, to include New York, Boston, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Chicago and Washing- ton. A special 10-cent stamp will insure the immediate delivery of a letter when received in those cities. Other cities with a population of not less than 4,000, may be designated by the Postmaster-General.

No TRACE has ever yet been found of the mail carrier between Silverton and Ophir who was lost one year ago last winter in a snowslide. All last summer his brother hunted for the body and as winter approached he had wood packed to the snowbank and built huge fires to melt the snow. Trenches were dug in every direction but without success. The snow did not disappear all the season.

By the Colorado census, which is just completed, the state shows a population of 240,107, a gain of over 40,000 since 1880. Denver with the suburb of Highland has in round numbers 60,000 people.
