attend all of the meetings, come to some.

BUS DRIVERS ARE BIG WHEELS

"Big Wheels" is the name for the dozen efficient and very careful Gruver School bus drivers who are responsible for transporting 308 Gruver students (about half of the School enrollment) to and from school each of the 176 days in the year.

Veterans of the School Drivers are Fred Chase who has been deftly wheeling one of the familiar yellow buses over the roads since 1954 and Edd Snow who began driving the students in 1955. Next, in year's of service, is Winston Upchurch who began driving a school bus in 1956, and Darrell McQueen who has been driving since 1958.

Included in this year's roster also are three men who have had two years experience, Robert Dahl, Jim Chockley, and Ted TeBeest. Those who had their initial runs last year are W.A. Bratton, Otho Gammill, John Masten, and Richard Williams, with Alfred White, a newcomer this year completing the group of twelve.

The Gruver School District is one of the larger in the State and has a total of 778.4 miles of paved roads covered by the school bus routes and 271.2 miles of dirt road. The longest route totals 126 miles per day with the shortest, 73

Mileage which the bus drivers cover each day is 1,049.6 miles with a grand total for the school year being comparable to 7.4 trips around the world or 184,729.6 miles! This figure lacks just a little equaling the distance to the moon which is only 216,240 miles away from the Gruver School District!

Top physical condition is required of each of the drivers who must pass a physical examination at the beginning of the school year, and be holders of a current Texas State Chauffeur's license. Steady nerves and an even disposition are further attributes displayed by Gruver School bus drivers.

When not driving the school buses, the twelve men represent a cross-section of the community with the majority being farmers and ranchers of the area; three represent the teaching profession, two are welders; two Gruver businessmen, and one, a minister.

Gruver area residents salute these men in whose capable hands we confidently entrust the lives and safety of our Youth.

The group saw the manufacturing of reinforced concrete pipe with sizes ranging up to 72 inches in diameter. This pipe is used in the aqueduct system between Lake Meredith and Amarillo.

operations of the tower which can select the area to withdraw the best quality water. He explained the functions of the flood gates, the emergency spillway, and the stilling basin. A discussion was given on the set up for pumping water to Amarillo and the other member cities to the south. A separate pumping system will be used to provide water to Borger and Pampa. Mr. Kensley reported on the development of several recreational areas around Lake Meredith. It was pointed out that these recreational facilities will be turned over to the National Parks Service for further development and operation.

Guide Offered For College

Transfers

Many students who are currently attending or who are planning to attend a junior college are asking the questions, "Will I lose hours when I transfer to a senior institution?" or "Will my grades be changed to C's?"

The answer to both these questions is NO.

If the following requirements are met, any course taken from an accredited junior college will transfer to a senior institution:

1. The course must be passed. (Generally a grade of C is required, although a grade of D may sometimes be accepted.)

2. It must apply on the student's major field of work or be recognized as elective for the major.

3. It must be taken in the proper sequence with the required pre-requisites.

4. The work to be transferred from a junior college may not exceed more than sixty-six semester hours or one-half of the degree requirements. A student may receive special permission from a senior college to take an additional six semester hours from a junior college.

The following information from the University of Texas answers the question concerning the transfer of grades: "Grades earned at other institutions are not changed. The transcript submitted as part of his application for admission by a student transferring to the University becomes a part of the University's permanent files. If, after he has entered the University, a student desires to have a complete transcript made, his transcript of work taken in other colleges are photographed showing the exact grades he made in each institution he attended."

To summarize: Any course taken from a junior college will transfer to a senior college provided the grade is acceptable and provided that the course is appropriate to the degree plan and curriculum. All grades transfer as they are shown on the transcript. Excess grade points made at one college, however, will not make up for a deficiency at another college.

These facts show that students should have no concern about transfer of credits from the junior college to the senior institutions and universities of the state. The old complaint that junior college credits will not transfer and that grades are changed to C's is completely false.

Texas Highway Department Distributes Litter Bags

Texas motorists paid for many miles of new highways last year. But they never were built.

Governor Connally emphasized this point today in accepting the first of a quarter-million litter bags given to the Texas Highway Department by the Galveston Chamber of Commerce and the Galveston Convention and Tourist Bureau.

The bags will be distributed to motorists at each of the eight Tourist Information Centers located at points of entry on key highways of the State and in the Capitol rotunda.

"The Texas Highway Department is charged with the construction and maintenance of the State's superb 66,000-mile highway system," Governor Connally said. He added:

"But the truth is that more than $1.5 billion of taxes levied on highway users is wasted each year to pick up litter thrown along the right of way by careless motorists. This money could better be used to build more miles of new highways, and to protect the taxpayers' $4 billion investment in our existing system."

The bags were donated by the Galveston Chamber of Commerce to encourage litter control among out-of-state visitors. They also bear a message of invitation to visit the Galveston resort area.

D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, pointed out that approximately 12 million visitors come to Texas each year.

"These visitors represent an industry of more than one-half billion dollars a year," Greer said. "We hope that Texans will become conscious of our litter problem and help us present a 'clean house' for our paying guests."

The Texas Highway Department has distributed litter bags through the Tourist Information Centers for many years. However, this is the first instance that any organization has donated such a large number of bags for free distribution.

Some 400 thousand tourists visited the Information Centers last year. Besides litter bags nearly two million pieces of travel-oriented literature were handed out. In addition, Information Center personnel encouraged tourists to extend their trips to visit other Texas scenic and historical attractions.

Presentation of the first litter bag was at a ceremony held in the State Capitol. Edwin D. Hunter, president of the Galveston Chamber of Commerce, presented the initial bag to Governor Connally. He said:

"Galveston merchants who are financing the purchase of these bags are very happy to try to help solve the State's litter problem. We are intensely interested in the tourist program. Only by presenting clean, inviting attractions can we hope to encourage out-of-state visitors to come to Texas again, and again, and again."

Present at the ceremony besides the Governor and Hunter were Greer, John McCann, president of the Galveston Convention and Tourist Bureau, and Pam Latham, travel counselor at the Tourist Information Center in the Capitol rotunda.

"THE WAY I SEE IT"

by Pastor Robert Cordes

There's an old fable about two ducks and a frog who lived in a farmers pond. The ducks and frog the best of friends. One hot summer day the pond began to dry up and the ducks realized they would have to move. They could easily fly away. But what about their friend, the frog?

The ducks devised a plan. They would put a stick between them. Each would hold one end in its bill while the frog hung on the stick by its mouth. So the three friends set out for another pond.

As they flew, a farmer said "How clever. I wonder who thought of it". The frog said "I did." And that was the end of the frog.

This little parable illustrates Proverbs 16:18 "Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall."

If we like to blow our own horn or take credit for the ideas of others, as the frog did, we're headed for a fall. Friends turn from a person who is proud.

The worst kind of pride is the feeling we're good enough for God to be pleased with us. This is how the Pharisee in the temple felt. He didn't confess his sins but rather boasted of his good deeds. Jesus said, "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Christian humility begins at the cross of Jesus. Let's daily confess our sins and look to the Savior, who humbled Himself so greatly that He even died for us.

Nor alms nor deeds that I have done

Can for a single sin atone. To Calvary alone I flee-- O God, be merciful to me!

Welcome Gruver weekend visitors at the home of the Warren Jeffree were the Bob Whites from Goodwell.

Stock Sold By South Coast Life Insurance Co.

According to Paul Gurfory, Gruver representative of the South Coast Life Insurance Company,

A group of prominent Texans have today purchased 205,559 shares of South Coast Life Insurance Company stock from L.B. Pullen, P & R Investors Corporation and J. D. Neal and Company, Trustee, all of Lubbock, Texas. The consideration for this stock was $12.50 per share, or a total of $2,569,487.00. Joe Woodward, president of South Coast, stated this was the largest block of stock ever traded in the company's history and that the investors purchased the stock because of the outstanding record of South Coast in the past and because of the outlook for South Coasts continued rapid growth. The South Coast Life Insurance Company is now licensed to do business in 8 states. South Coast ended 1964 with over $300 million of life insurance in force; over $47 million of assets; almost $8 million capital and surplus. F.T.A. Officers Elected

by Camelia McClellan

On April 26, 1965, the Gruver F.T.A. Chapter held its last and most important meeting of the year, the election of officers for the coming year. This election is one of the most important functions of the year for the officers are the backbone of the club. It is their work in planning that sets up the program and keeps the club a working organization.

The floor was opened for nominations of president. Jimmy Hardesty was elected president for the coming year. He has been in the club for two years, and he held the office of parliamentarian this year. Then the nominations were made for vice-president. State FFA Judging Contest

by Arlene Barkley

Tommy Gumfory, Van Etling, Harley Murrell, and Dan Ralston represented the Gruver FFA Chapter extremely well at the State Livestock Judging Contest this past weekend by placing eighth. These boys were in competition with eighty-eight other teams from throughout Texas.

The team, along with Mr. Flathers left Friday morning to travel to College Station where the contest was held on Saturday. Gruver, who had placed fourth in Area I, beat two of the teams who had placed above them at the Lubbock contest. These teams were from Pampa and Shamrock.

Shamrock placed eleventh in state and Pampa placed twenty-third. The winner of first place in the State Livestock Judging Contest was Plainview who had also won in Area I. There were only 39 points difference in Plainview and Gruver's scores.

Gruver's placing eighth was really quite an accomplishment since they were the only team in our district which placed in the top ten. These boys received a large banner which is presently on display in the trophy case at the high school. Gruver has much to be proud of in the Gruver FFA Chapter.

WATCH YOURSELF GO BY
by Strickland Gilliland
submitted by Arlene Barkley

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by; Think of yourself as "he" instead of "I". Note, closely as in other men you note, The bag-kneed trousers and the seedy coat. Pick flaws; find fault; forget the man is you, And strive to make your estimate ring true. Confront yourself and look you in the eye— Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

Interpret all your motives just as though You looked on one whose aims you did not know. Let undisguised contempt surge through you when You see your shirk, O commonest of men! Despise your cowardice; condemn whate'er You note of falseness in you anywhere. Defend not one defect that shames your eye— Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

And then, with eyes unveiled to what you loathe, To sins that with sweet charity you'd clothe, Back to your self-walled tenement you'll go With tolerance for all who dwell below. The faults of others then will dwarf and shrink, Love's chain grow stronger by one mighty link, When you, with "he" as substitute for "I", Have stood aside and watched yourself by.

COLORADO OR BUST

by Jane Hoy

Tuesday, April 27, the senior class of Gruver High School left Gruver at 9:00 p.m. on the annual senior trip. From Gruver they traveled to Dalhart, where they boarded the train for Colorado Springs.

Wary, but excited, the thirty-one seniors arrived at Colorado Springs about eight o'clock Wednesday morning. After checking in at their motel, freshening up, and eating breakfast, they boarded five black Cadillac limousines and toured the Broadmore District of Colorado Springs and the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo. From the zoo they traveled to Seven Falls where all who were able climbed the 260 steep stairs to the top of the falls. Exhausted, they then ate a picnic lunch in North Cheyenne Canyon.

Then back to Colorado Springs they went, and visited Ghost Town, a huge building of antiques and scenes from yesterday. The seniors then went across the parking lot to Van Briggles Pottery and the Potter's Wheel, where they were taken on a tour of the building and learned much about the history of pottery making.

They then boarded the limousine and traveled to the Cave of the Winds, where they saw many fascinating sights. From there, they went on a tour of the Garden of the Gods in a canyon nearby. It was easy to see how this place got its name; it was so awe-inspiring. After a full day of sight seeing, the group returned to the motel just in time to freshen up, eat, and board a chartered bus for Denver to see the Cinerama movie, "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World." At about 12:00 p.m. the group at last arrived at the motel to sleep for a few hours.

At seven o'clock the next morning, Thursday, the seniors ate breakfast, then began another full day. They again boarded their limousines and went, this time, to the Colorado State Penitentiary for an interesting guided tour.

From there they went to the Royal Gorge, where they had planned to ride the cog train to the bottom of the gorge, but the train had been broken earlier that morning. They took a skylive drive back to Canon City, where they ate lunch. They then toured the United States Air Force Academy. The highlight of this tour was the Planetarium Show, which gave much information about the stars and space. From the Academy, the group went to Colorado Springs where they ate dinner and attended a fine arts program at one of the local high schools. About 9:30 p.m. they returned to their motel for the night.

Friday, April 30, saw the group board a sight-seeing bus and depart for Denver and Boulder. The seniors toured the U.S. Mint, the state Capitol, a Denver Park, and the Denver stockyards and coliseum. Then they went on to Boulder where they toured the University of Colorado. After eating lunch at the University Student union building, the group toured the National Bureau of Standards.

Then they left Boulder and traveled to Lookout Mountain and Buffalo Bill's Grave Museum, then back to Denver via the Buffalo Bill Amphitheatre in Red Rock Canyon. They ate dinner in Denver and then went back to Colorado Springs to their motel to pack their clothes and prepare for their last day and the trip home.

Saturday morning, after having loaded their luggage in a truck and having breakfast, the seniors boarded their limousines and started on their trip to the top of Pike's Peak. The day before the seniors had arrived, there had been a forty-inch snow on the Peak, but the roads were cleared by this time, and after eating lunch and shopping for a while, they boarded the train which brought them back to Dalhart. They were met at Dalhart by a bus which returned them to Gruver about 11:30 Saturday night.

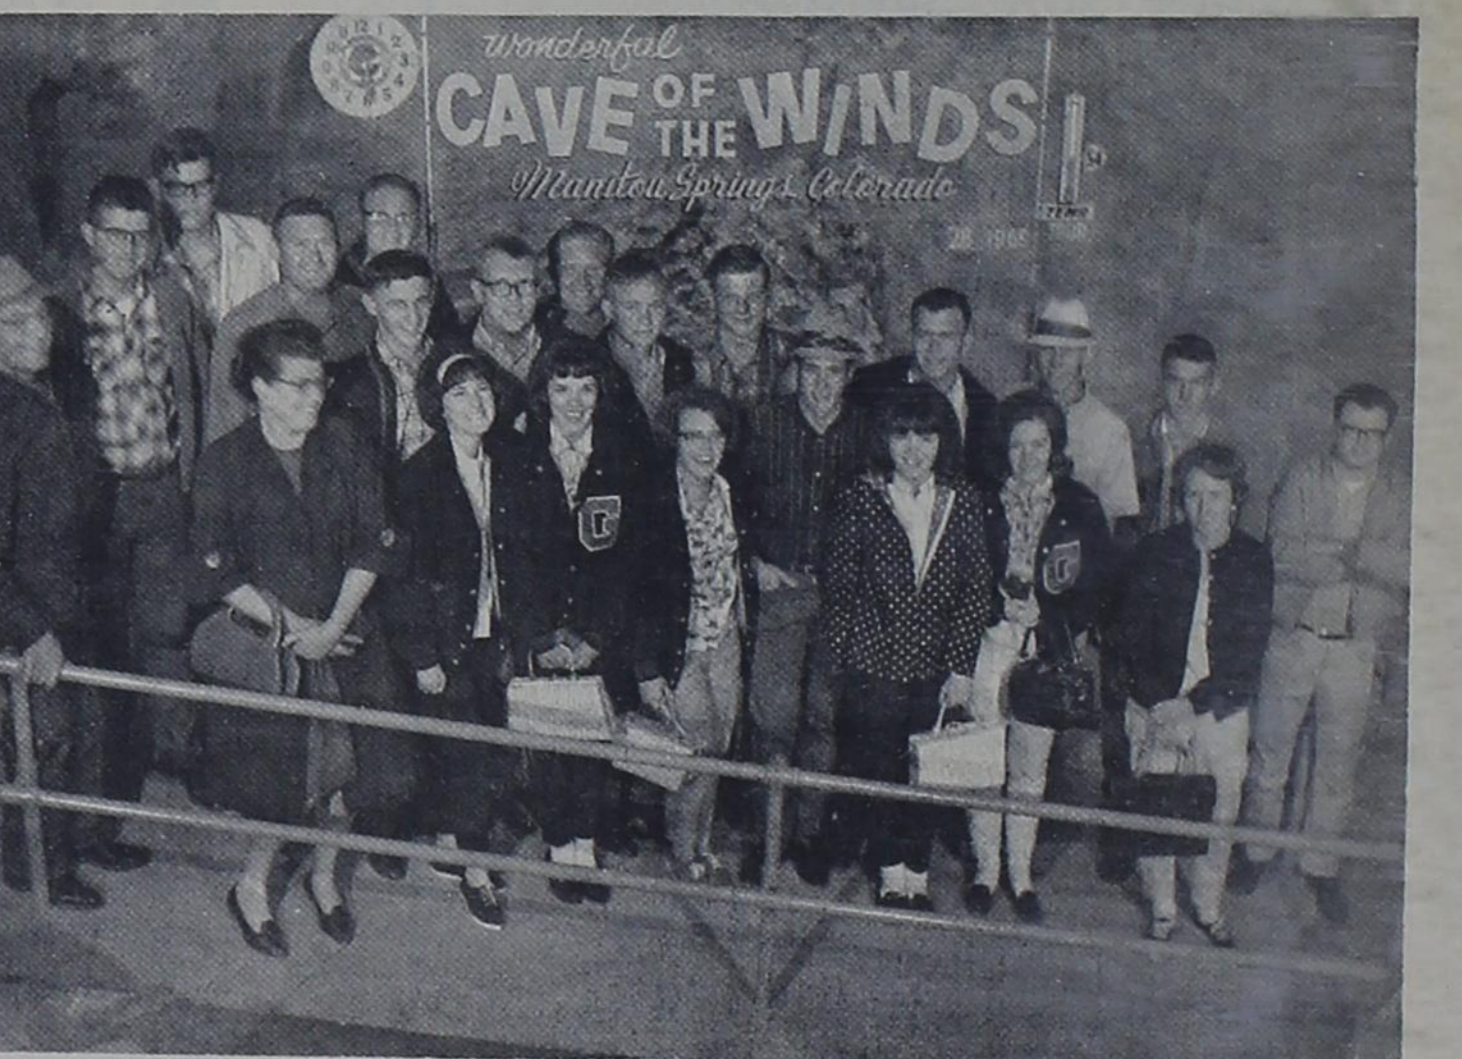

This trip, which the seniors had worked hard and looked forward to all year, was an experience they will always remember fondly. It helped to make this a memorable and an enjoyable occasion to help complete their senior year.
