Tourney To Be This Week-end

The girl's District 10-B Tour The girl's District 10-B Tournament will be held in Lakeview this week-end with one game being played Thursday night. Turkey and Estelline will play Thursday night at 7 o'clock, the only game to be played that night. Matador will meet the winner of that game at 7 o'clock Friday night. At 8:30 Friday night the Quitaque Pantherettes will meet the Lakeview Eaglettes. Friday night losers will play at 7 o'clock Saturday for third place and Friday winners will play for the championshp. If Matador wins the district tourney they are the champions since they won the round-robin portion of the race. If someone other than Matador wins the tournament, then there must be a playoff to determine the district champion.

The Pantherettes lost two games to Lakeview and two to Matador, but if the local lasses turn up hale healthy, and hitting they could upset the leaders. There will be good basketball games played during the tournament and local fans are urged to go along and help the Pantherettes.

Unless the Pantherettes win th Unless the Pantherettes win the district tournament Saturday night's (The Pantherettes will play Saturday night, either for first of third place) game will mark the end of the high school basketball careers of seniors SeReatha Stephens, Jerry Faye Elliott, Judy Colvin, and Chlonez Woods.

The Junior Panthers won their first game of the tourney by defeating the 2-AA Lockney Longhorns. The Longhorns gave the Panthers a tough time all the way but the Panthers came out with a ttwo-point, 19-17 victory. The Longhorns were taller but Joe Jacobs hustled and did a fine job of rebounde to spark the Panthers. All five of the starters got in on the scoring with Monte Stephens hitting 7, followed by Dlae Ramsey with 4, Lupe Leal 3, Ervin Phillips 3 and Joe Jacobs 2. The Junior Panthers won their

PANTHERS WIN DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP

The Quitaque Panthers sailed through the district schedule and district tournament without a loss. The Panthers are undefeated since Coach Gene King tookover the reins early in the season. They have won 17 straight since that time and will meet Hedley for bidistrict Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Silverton High School gym. The entire Panther squad with the exception of Cappy Wise will return next year. Pictured above, kneeling left to right: Jim Saul (co-capt.), Cappy Wise, Bobo Morrison (co-capt.), and Phil Barefield. Standing left to right: Warren Lee Merrell, Carl Wayne Wods, Eddie Monk, Jamie Johnson, Robin Bown, Jack Johnson, Terry Woods, and Joe Hamilton. The pleased young fellow standing at the end of the line is coach Gene King. This is his first team to coach—a district champion and all of the them will be back next year-the stuff from which dreams are made.

The Quitaque Panthers, defending champions of District 10-B, taking a 59-40 win over Matador in the District final game at Lakeview last Saturday night. Estelline took third place in the district tourney by downing Lakeview 53-28.

Lakeview won 'over Florated or Thursday night to advance to the second round of play and Matador defeated Turkey that same night Quitaque and Estelline drew byes into the second round and were heavily favored to meet in the finals Saturday night. Matador had other notions, however and upset Estelline 49-45 in a double overtime thriller on Friday night. Earlier in the evening Quitaque had taken a 103-33 win over Lakeview to advance to the finals against Matador.

The Panthers were hot Friday night in hitting the hundred point total for the first time this season. The Quitaque lads owned a 31-7 lead at the end of the first period, increased it to 60-20 at half time, with the reserves playing part-time in the second quarter. At the end of the first period, increased it to 60-20 at half time, with the reserves playing part-time in the second quarter. At the end of the first period for the furth quarter Quitaque led $5-27. The reserves played most of the fourth period. They were flirting with the 100 mark but it became apparent that they were not going to make it Coach King let his starters go back in and finish out the game.
