WALTER ROGER'S NEWSLETTER VOTING

Voting is the keystone of democracy. Unless one conscientiously exercises this right of franchise, a full and complete expression of the electorate is absent. If less than a majority exercise this right, the result of the election is not a mandate of the people, but a mandate of the majority of the minority. As has occurred on several occasions in our history, a controlled and influenced minority can wield great power. In fact, it can thwart the will of a disorganized majority. It could be argued successfully that there are times when the best interests of the country can be served if such a minority, influenced by good, can prevent great damage and danger to an uninformed majority. All of which points up the fact that the best interests of this country will be most fully served if the electorate is informed and if the electorate votes.

In recent years, there has been much controversy as to the electoral college method of electing U.S. Presidents. As a matter of fact, during Senate hearings this year, the observation was made by one Senator:

"Originally adopted as a compromise, the electoral college resulted from a distrust of the people and conditions of geography and communications which no longer exist. Despite its confusion and uncertainties, by sheer luck it has managed in most instances to elect a president who has reasonably reflected the choice of the majority of the people. But this good fortune has lulled us into inaction after each election to the next. Every 4 years the electoral college is a loaded pistol pointed at our system of government. Its continued existence is a game of Russian roulette. Once its antiquated procedures trigger a loaded cylinder, it may be too late for the needed corrections.

"We cannot assume that U. S. Presidents for the space age can continue to go into office in the oxcart furnished by the electoral college."

This would indicate to some that the Senator referred to was not exactly happy with the electoral college system. However, this particular Senator has been quite controversial on several subjects.

It should be pointed out that there are 14 separate resolutions sponsored by 26 Senators which would change in some way the Constitutional method of electing the President. The Subcommittee on Constitutional Amendments of the United States Senate divided these into four basic plans: (1) direct national election, (2) the proportional system, (3) the district system, and (4) perfection of the present system.

(1) Direct National Election - This proposal would completely abolish the electoral college. Under it, the President would be elected directly by nation-wide popular vote. A majority of the total popular vote would be required. This means that if any one candidate did not get a majority of all votes cast in the first instance, a run-off election would be held between the two top aspirants. This proposal has been defeated three times in the Senate. In 1934 by a vote of 59-29; in 1950 by a vote of 63-28; and in 1956 by a vote of 66-17.

(2) Proportional System - This system would retain electoral votes but divide each state's electoral votes among the candidates proportionally among the candidates in proportion to their shares of its total popular vote. Presidential electors would not be listed on the ballot. The people in each State would vote directly for candidates for President. There are several variances on this proposal. One of

Mort Hawkins Solicits Voter's Consideration

I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the many words of encouragement and kindness extended to me during my campaign for re-election as your commissioner of Precinct 2.

I know I may have missed seeing some of you personally. To those whom I may have missed, please regard this as a personal solicitation for your vote and support as you go to the polls June 2.

I have enjoyed working with and for you folks and feel I can do even better another term.

If I am elected I shall endeavor to perform the duties of the office efficiently with the public always in mind.

Sincerely,
Mort Hawkins

Mrs. L. R. Frogge of Phillips and Mrs. Maude Ford of Garland were Quitaque visitors Saturday. They will be remembered by their friends here as Maude and Mary Edith "Dill" Dunham.

Venoi Cain and family of Pharr, Texas spent several days here this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cain.

these provides that a plurality of electoral votes would be sufficient for election. Another would provide that the elections in each State would be regulated by its legislature but authorizes Congress by law to make or alter such regulations. Another would require a division or proportion of a State's votes only if the minority candidate received at least one-third of the popular vote. Other variances include qualifications for voting, regulations of elections, provisions for the District of Columbia, and so forth.

(3) District System - The district system retains the electoral college but changes the method of choosing electors. Two electors from each State are to be elected by a plurality of the popular vote from the State at large. All further electors are to be elected from single-elect district. The original district system proposal did not anticipate that the electoral districts would be the same as Congressional districts. However, in recent years other proposals have been made which would require that the electoral districts correspond to the Congressional districts. Under either system, a majority of the votes in that district would determine the winner of an electoral vote. A majority of electoral votes would be required to elect a President. Otherwise, election would be by joint session of the House and the Senate.

(4) Perfection of Present System - Under this system, the individual presidential electors would be eliminated and the people would vote directly for the President and Vice President. Electoral votes in each State would be awarded automatically to the candidate winning a plurality of its popular vote. Other resolutions have differences. Under one, only 35 percent of the total electoral vote would be required for election. If no candidate received 35 percent, election of both the President and the Vice president would be by a majority of the House of Representatives.

The number of different types of proposals plus the lack of a firm solution to date, indicate that the problem is a tough one and is continuing. Let us hope our generation will produce statesmen of stature equal to those who met the same types of challenges in another day.

SATURDAY IS RUN-OFF PRIMARY ELECTION DAY

Considerable interest is being shown in Texas in the Democratic run-off primary, which will be held on Saturday of this week.

Local voters have a race to settle here at home, in addition to those of the state level.

Mort Hawkins, present Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, is being opposed by B. K. Hamilton, who defeated Orval Cobb in the First Democratic primary for a spot in the run-off.

The race for governor of Texas is shaping up like a real hot one. John Connally won by a considerable margin in the first primary but Don Yarboough came along fast in the latter weeks and now it appears that he might give Connally a run for the money in the run-off.

In the race for lieutenant governor, Preston Smith of Lubbock is running against James A. Turman of Fannin County. Turman was the leader in the first primary.

Another Lubbock man, Waggoner Carr, is opposed by Tom Reavley of Dallas for attorney general. Carr won the first primary rather handily and would appear to have a good chance of winning this one. There are other important races to be voted on and all voters are urged to turn out again and vote for the candidate of his choice.

Mr. N. L. Bedwell and Mrs. John King spent last Tuesday night in Sunray with Mrs. Opal Broxson.

Mrs. Mary Bailey Buried At Hedley

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Juanita Bailey, 84, mother of Paul Bailey, were held at 3 P.M. Wednesday in the Hedley Church of Christ with J. C. Stepp, minister of Kirkland Church of Christ, officiating. He was assisted by Dixon Latham, minister of Hedley.

Burial was in Rowe Cemetery in Hedley under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home of Memphis.

Mrs. Bailey, a resident of Hedley for 52 years, died Tuesday morning in Inez Rest Home in Clarendon.

She was born in Cook County, Texas, and married T. E. Bailey on January 15, 1905, in Gainesville. Mr. Bailey and one son preceded her in death.

The Church where the funeral service was held was built in 1911 by Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and another couple.

Most of Scout Troop 264 of Quitaque attended the funeral service. Paul Bailey is Scoutmaster of the Quitaque Troop.

In addition to Paul D. Bailey, she is survived by another son, Thomas E. of Hedley; a brother, John Dustin of Gainesville; three sisters, Mrs. Maud Berg and Mrs. Elmer Lourett of Pasadena, Calif. and Mrs. Zula Bodkin of Denison; 10 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Seniors Visit Many Interesting Places During Trip To South Texas

By Dellis Monk

Friday, May 18, at 12:00 midnight, the 1962 graduates of Quitaque High School boarded a school bus and left for Galveston. On the bus were sixteen of the seventeen graduates and their four sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berryhill, and Mr. and Mrs. Odell Johnston. Saturday at 1:30, thirteen and one-half hours later, we arrived in Houston. Here we spent the night in the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel. The next morning, Sunday morning, we attended church. Before going to Galveston we visited San Jacinto Monument. First we went through the museum, then we went to the top of the monument, which is over 500 feet high. We also went aboard the Battleship Texas.

After visiting the San Jacinto monument and the Battleship Texas, we headed for Galveston. A short time later we checked into the Jack Tar Hotel in Galveston. This was our home for the next three days and nights. The hotel is near to the beach and had a nice swimming pool. While we were in Galveston, we toured the island, went deep-sea fishing and swimming, and many other things. We had a real nice time and always had plenty to do.

Early Wednesday morning, about 4 o'clock, we left Galveston and headed for San Antonio. In San Antonio we stayed at the Granada Inn. While in San Antonio, we visited the "Sunken Gardens" and we visited one of the best zoos in the United States. We saw everything from a 250 pound snake to dancing bears. Later, as the town was beginning to get dark, we boarded a small boat and took a short trip around town.

We had visited the Alamo earlier that day.

The next morning, again at 4 o'clock, we boarded the bus and started for home. As one of our sponsors remarked, we weren't looking as happy and full of pep as when we began our trip six days earlier. We were all sleepy and tired, not full of pep, but still happy.

We arrived in Quitaque Thursday about 2:00 P.M. Although we all had a good time, we were glad to get home.

Glynn Morrison Dryland Sorghum Growing Champ

Glynn Morrison was proudly displaying a very nice plaque last week that he had received from the DeKalb Grain Co. which he was awarded in recognition of being the top grower of grain sorghum in Briscoe County on dry land.

Glynn reported that he entered the contest sponsored by DeKalb more or less routinely with not much thought of winning and was surprised when he was notified that he was the County champ.

Glynn's yield of 3,189 lbs. per acre average was for his entire field and not just a 5-acre plot. He stated that he had some grain that went above 4,000 lbs. per acre. He planted DeKalb 50-A.

FORMER PUBLISHERS OF POST QUITAQUE VISITORS THIS WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Humphrey and children, Mark and Nadine, of Reseda, Calif., former publishers of the Quitaque Post, were Quitaque visitors Tuesday morning. The Humphreys visited at the Tribune office and at the Owens' home. Dean and Betty report that things are going well for them in California. Dean is Machinist at a newspaper in Van Nuys and Betty is a Linotype operator for a newspaper in Hollywood, and has worked there since 1959. They like California and have bought a home in Reseda. The Humphreys were on their way to Nebraska to visit his mother, and to Ohio to visit Betty's relatives. Dean's father passed away about two years ago. They give their regards to friends here.

C. E. McElvey returned to his job last Wednesday after seven months illness. He went to Fort Worth for a medical check-up and his doctor okayed his going back to work.

Mrs. Reed Bethel and Mrs. Jean Grundy of Lamesa and Mrs. Jean Grundy's granddaughter, Christie Baird of Silverton, spent Sunday with the ladies' sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John King. Mrs. Opal Broxson of Sunray joined them Sunday afternoon for a visit. Mrs. Bethel and Mrs. Broxson spent Sunday night with their father, Mr. N. L. Bedwell, and Mrs. Jean Grundy spent the night with Mrs. Jess Grundy. They all returned to their homes Monday morning.

DENVER ANDERSON BRINGS IN FIRST LOAD OF 1962 WHEAT

Denver Anderson brought in the first load of wheat to the Quitaque Elevator to get the local wheat harvest underway, Arville Setliff, manager of the Quitaque Elevator announced last Friday.

The load of wheat brought in by Anderson was averaging 20 bushels per acre.

According to manager Setliff the wheat is beginning to come in fairly steady but still is not in full swing. He stated that the wheat cut thus far was averaging from 10 to 20 bushels and he believed that the area would have around a 15 bushel per acre average this season. Most everyone's wheat was turning out better than anticipated.

The prolonged dry weather, plus the continuous high winds that the area has been undergoing for the past several weeks has cut the yield considerably.

Lions Sponsoring Donkey Ball Game

Local residents will be treated to one of the funniest games in all sportsdom here next Tuesday night, June 5, a donkey softball game.

The game is being sponsored by the Quitaque Loins Club and all proceeds will go to the local Little Leaguers for use in buying any kind of equipment that they will need this summer.

Game time is 8 P. M. and it will be played on the local school grounds.

Anyone who has ever seen a donkey ball game will tell you that a persons gets his money's worth seeing anyone trying to coax the donkeys into doing anything right.

Every player except the pitcher and catcher is mounted on a donkey. The batter, after hitting the ball must mount a mule and try to make it to first base. This very rarely happens because the donkey will do anything except go to first base with a man on his back. He will either buck its rider off, go to another base, or go nowhere. The donkeys are well trained and no two of them will do the same thing so spectators (or riders) know what to expect when a ball is hit by a batter and he thinks he will head for first base.

Members of the Lions Club and local businessmen will make up the teams and fans are assured of a real evening's entertainment.

Admission prices are 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children through 12 years of age.

Contact members of the Lions Club about advance tickets. The Club realizes more from the sale of advance tickets than if they are bought at gamesite.

Help the Little Leaguers and help yourself to a lot of laughs by attending the Donkey ball game next Tuesday night.

Texas Litterbugs Cost Taxpayers Millions of Dollars

Austin, Texas — Almost two million dollars — funds that could have built 72 miles of farm to market roads or 24 miles of two-lane primary highways — had to be spent by the Texas Highway Department to remove litter from the highways and repair vandalism damage last year.

This is much like a man throwing trash in his own back yard and then paying someone to pick it up, for Texas motorists are covering the "front yards" of their state with a trail of trash and then "footing the bill" to have it cleaned up. Last year the Highway Department had to spend $1,344,000 to remove this unsightly and unsanitary mess from the roadsides.

In addition, sign vandalism accounted for another $385,900. Other vandalism totaled $70,000 bringing the total for litter removal and vandalism to $1,799,900.

Vandalism, according to the Highway Department classification, covers such as items as damaging and destroying signs and highway supports, marking on structures, and damaging safety rest areas, (roadside parks). Litter includes beer cans, watermelon rinds, bottles, wrappers, newspapers, milk cartons, and cigarette packages.

The litter problem is more or less localized to certain sections of highways along the more heavily traveled routes and the urban areas. It is believed that people are more likely to throw trash from their cars when they travel the same route every day. Also, roads leading from "wet" counties to "dry" counties come under heavy bombardment of cans and bottles.

At the present time, well-traveled federal and state highways are cleaned about three or four times a year, farm to market roads once or twice a year. Freeways in the urban areas require much more moving and cleaning.

Highway engineers are constantly seeking new methods or machines that will help to remove the mess from our highways, but so far the only satisfactory method has proved to be the man with the stick.

Many concerned citizens and highway engineers feel that an education program and strict law enforcement of the anti-litter law are necessary to stop the litterbug. Strict law enforcement helps to some extent, but it is almost impossible to stop littering by patrolling "heavy litter" areas. The trend, and some feel the only solution to the problem, is toward education of the public through mass media and through programs sponsored by the Texas Highway Department, civic clubs and other organizations.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES TO MEET AT HOBBS JUNE 15-17

Jehovah's Witnesses of this area have received information from the Watchtower Society that their next circuit assembly will be held in Hobbs, New Mexico, June 15-17.

V. D. Tiffin, presiding minister of the Quitaque Congregation, said, "The activity of the assembly will be built around the theme, Faithfully Increasing Our Praise to Jehovah."

"For each semi-annual circuit assembly," Tiffin said, "We have a goal of five percent increase over the previous assembly in the number of ministers that are doing house to house service, making back calls on interested persons and conducting Bible studies in their homes."

Approximately 700 active ministers, from the 17 congregation circuits, will have their local meetings cancelled for the three-day assembly in Hobbs, Tiffin said. "This is to afford everyone the opportunity to take advantage of the assembly program which is designed to help us increase our time and proficiency in the ministry."

FARM HOME ADMINISTRATION HAS FINE LOAN RECORD

Mr. L. J. Cappleman, State Director of Farmers Home Administration, recently stated, "The Rural Housing Loan Program was started in Texas some twelve years ago and the records show the success of the Program. Up to December 31, 1961, some 2,730 loans have been made and not one penny has been lost or written off as uncollectible."

"More than $20,440,000 has been advanced in Texas in Rural Housing Loans and the principal and interest payments made total over $8,845,000. Over 24 percent of these loans have been paid in full. Payments of principal and interest on the 2,064 loans outstanding total over $4,561,000, or 104 percent of the amount that has become due," Mr. Cappleman said.

"This is a remarkable tribute to the financial integrity of rural families and their ability to manage their financial affairs," the State Director said. "Loans under this program are made only to those who cannot obtain financing from conventional sources. As a result, the 2,730 Texas families who obtained these loans have had to be extra diligent in meeting their repayment obligations."

"This repayment record of rural housing loan borrowers is also a tribute to the judgment of the 654 Texas FHA County Committeemen who assisted in evaluating the soundness of these loans," the State Director said.

This program provides benefits throughout the entire rural-based small town economy and the overall economy of these counties," he added. "Contractors, small businessmen supplying contractors, and building trades workers all benefit through increased business. Their stepped-up activity in turn stimulates the entire rural economy. The approximate $4,800,000 the Farmers Home Administration in Texas will make available this year is the equivalent of several new industries in terms of more jobs and greater purchasing power."

A survey made in an Alabama county showed that the $291,906 loaned to 28 borrowers under the Rural Housing Program in 1961 provided 37,324 hours of work to local labor, and $195,720 for the purchase of electrical supplies, bathroom supplies, and other building materials. Of this amount, $81,620 was spent for materials produced or manufactured in the county, such as lumber and cement blocks.

Controlling Fungus Diseases

Science has come to the aid of the amateur gardener with a potent new antibiotic that knocks out a variety of troublesome fungus diseases in lawns, roses, and other ornamentals. Powdery mildew and black spot of roses are examples of the more widespread conditions that succumb to the chemical and its combinations. Apply the antibiotic, called Acti-dione, as a spray — two tablespoons of the powdered drug in a gallon of water.

Spraying regularly to prevent both insect and disease damage is basic to growing good roses. Fertilizing, watering, and pinching off old blooms are other essentials.

A luxurious lawn starts with selecting grasses suited to the climate, the soil, and light conditions. After that, it's a matter of spending time and energy generously but judiciously on fertilizing, watering, mowing, and insect and weed control. Proper care won't prevent or cure lawn diseases, but it helps to curb them so that chemical controls are more effective. When common fungus diseases like rusts, dollar spot, snow mold, or brown patch appear, Acti-dione-Thiram offers the gardener two extremely effective fungicides in a single package. Acti-dione is generally available in garden supply stores. For free information on these chemical aids to gardening, send a postal card to: James Wilkes, Room 914, 342 Madison Avenue, New York.

LOCO MOTIVE

A stranger was standing on the platform of a small railway station when the express train flashed past. Into the swirl of dust raised by the train leaped the stationmaster's dog, and tore madly up the track in pursuit.

"Does your dog often do that?" asked the stranger of the stationmaster.

"Yes, sir. Every time the express passes, my dog is after it like a hare."

"That's queer," commented the stranger. "Why does he do it?"

"I don't know," replied the dog's owner, scratching his head thoughtfully. "What worries me is what he's going to do with it when he gets it."

For Safe Motor Trip Follow These Rules

FLINT, Mich. Your vacation trip this summer will be a lot safer and more enjoyable if you will get plenty of rest each night and limit your driving to 10 hours per day.

These are two of the most important rules followed by Buick test drivers in compiling a record of 3,000,000 miles without an accident at the General Motors Proving Grounds, Milford, Michigan.

A. E. McManama, general supervisor of Buick's road test department, lists the following as musts for Buick's driving team:

- 1 Good living habits— plenty of sleep and rest, and a good frame of mind with no worries while driving.
- 2 Break up monotony— stop for coffee or gas, at regular intervals, get out and walk around. Never go more than two hours or 150 miles without a stop. This keeps you fresh, alert and at your driving peak.
- 3 Limit your Daily Driving— ten hours of driving per day is the limit. After that you are asking for trouble.
- 4 Car maintenance— it's a must to keep your car in top mechanical condition.
- 5 Drive a tidy Car: Loose articles, litter, packages, etc., can be dangerous. Keep the inside of your car neat and tidy, everything packed in convenient places where loose items can't slide around. Packages piled on the rear window ledge become missiles in case of a collision, and they also block the view of the driver behind you.
- 6 Follow road conditions: If the sign says 40 m.p.h., believe it. If it says, "Slow, dangerous curve," take the highway department's word for it. The signs are placed along the roadway for your help, and they have a good reason for being there. Dusk and dawn are poor visibility driving times. Use extra care then.

"These are the rules we follow," points out McManama, "and everyone of them can be adapted by the motorist. Strict adherence to them is the best insurance we know against accidents."

MARSHALL FORMBY THANKS VOTERS FOR SUPPORT

To all my Wonderful Friends: My heart is full of gratitude for the blessings that are mine . . . that a kind Providence has spared my wife and two children from what could have been a fatal accident; and for my friends.

My wife and children were on their way from Austin to Plainview on Friday, May 4th, when they were involved in an accident near Hamlin. The children were dismissed from the hospital on May 10th and on May 16th, we moved Sharleen to the Plainview Hospital where she will be for some time. But, we are thankful that we are back in Plainview in one piece.

As to the lecture . . . We are very thankful to all our friends in Texas who did so much to help us. Our friends worked hard and we got a good vote, a vote we can be proud of. But we were up against two political machines and too much money.

The Texans who voted for us were ones who wanted good, sound, honest government. They wanted a progressive, Texas, but they wanted their money spent wisely.

We have no suggestions to make as to voting in the run-off. We came out of the campaign on good, friendly terms with all the other gubernatorial candidates. I consider them all my friends. Texans who were intelligent enough to vote for us, are more than intelligent enough to vote wisely in the run-off campaign without my suggestions. I do urge everyone to vote.

We carried 54 counties. We were second in many more.

Our voters were proud voters and did not have to apologize to anyone for their vote.

Again, I want to express my thanks for all that you have done—for without your help, your contributions, and your prayers I could not have begun to do the task that was before us.

God bless you and your's.

Sincerely,
Marshall Formby
