This And That About One Thing and Another

Evidently residents of Quitaque are satisfied with the operation of their city under the present administration. No names were submitted for candidates to fill the places of W. J. Rice, Frank Gillespie and I. G. Grundy, whose terms as city councilmen expire this year. According to the information we have, this means that no names will be printed on the ballots, and the election must perforce be a write-in contest.

Quite a few have been kind enough to comment favorably on the Baptist Church special issue of Feb. 10. Among them was Mrs. Joe Graham of Amarillo, and Mrs. Graham added that her mother, the late Mrs. Ross was the short woman in the picture of the old tabernacle. She thought that the tall young woman in the large hat might be her sister, the former Mrs. Vella Hawkins, and the little boy was George Omar Hawkins, who died in 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Campbell announce the arrival of a new son, born February 25, in an Amarillo hospital. The young man weighed 6 pounds, plus 1/2 ounce, and was named William Frank Mrs. Campbell has been with relatives in Claude but writes that they will be back home in Brice, in a few days.

Mrs. Campbell asks if there are any charges for this announcement. Goodness no! We are happy to have the privilege of reporting new arrivals, but sometimes we do not know about them. The parents are too timid, or something, to tell us, and our friends neglect to mention them.

Babies and weddings are the happy items we delight to record. Funerals, injuries, fires, accidents, are the ones we find difficult to report.

Another arrival we're happy to announce is a daughter, Linda Sue, weighing 6 1/2 pounds, who was born February 9, to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Garvin of Childress. Mrs. Garvin is the former Miss Ellie Ruth Robinson.

While Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Grundy were enjoying a short vacation between jobs (they took over the variety store just a couple of weeks after relinquishing their positions with the Gulf Oil Corp.) they went down to Houston for a visit with their son Jack and family. Jack Grundy recently received a substantial promotion with his company which places him in a very responsible position and carries a sizeable advance in salary—so the Jack Grundys had moved into a new home.

The new residence is located in a rather swank district, where the streets curve around parkways, etc., and the house numbers are artistically hidden—so the house was difficult to locate. It was after dark when the Grundys arrived in Houston and as the visit was a surprise—the children not expecting them, were not at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Grundy drove around awhile looking for something that would identify their sons home and finally chose one. The door was unlocked so Mr. Grundy unselfishly permitted Mrs. Grundy to enter first, while he stood guard in the car—at a safe distance. All the furniture was new and strange, so she wandered from room to room, looking for a familiar object until finally she spied photographs of the family in the bedroom—so the folks moved in and made themselves comfortable until the kids came home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Womack returned last week end from a visit in Denton and Grayson county. Mr. Womack said he'd been fishing with the champion fisherman of Lake Texhoma—his wife, that is.

Quitaque auto dealers could get together and stage a very nice automobile show. Recently the new 1949 Dodge and DeSotos made their debut in the showrooms of local dealers, and in February the Futuramic Oldsmobile was displayed here. This week the new Chrysler is announced for display at Boyett Motor Co., and the Plymouth dealers will announce their new cars soon.

All the displays have attracted large crowds.

City Buys Gov't. Surplus Building For Hospital

Quitaque is to have a hospital. About two weeks ago a committee headed by Mayor Roberson, and composed of Orlin Stark, C. C. Ham, W. J. Rice and County Commissioner B. K. Hamilton, went to Lubbock where they inspected a number of government surplus barracks at the Lubbock air field.

A building which formerly served as infirmary at the field was approved. On Thursday of the same week, Mayor Roberson and W. J. Rice went to Dallas where they submitted bids in the city's behalf for the building.

Official notice of approval of the bid was received by Mayor Roberson on March 8.

The structure is 84 feet long by 25 feet wide. It will have to be moved within a specified time, and city officials are now negotiating for a location. A site near the business district but off Main street is considered desirable.

Quite a bit of work—and expense—will be necessary before the building can be made ready for use, but the need for hospital facilities in Quitaque has become more acute each year, and this is a big step in the right direction.

It is quite likely that contribution of both labor and funds will be needed to complete the project, but the hospital is a community enterprise, to fill a community need. If you are interested, and can help in any way, no matter how small, see Mayor Roberson or any of the above committee and tell them that they can depend on your support.

MAKES HONOR ROLL

A letter to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Persons from E. J. Howell, president of John Tarleton Agricultural College at Stephenville, advises them that their son Cadet Tad Persons made the honor roll for this semester. A student coming from a small school system like our own, must compete with students from much more well-rounded and larger systems, when entering college. Achieving the honor roll the first semester in college against such stiff competition is a commendable accomplishment.

The president of the college writes:

"I am in receipt of the semester honor roll from the registrar's office and I notice your son's name on this list. A student is eligible for the semester honor roll when he makes 30 or more grade points for the semester and has no failing grade.

We are indeed happy that your son has made the semester honor roll and we sincerely hope that he will continue the high scholastic record in the future."

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR PATSY

A birthday party honoring Miss Patsy Carpenter was given Saturday night, March 5, in the home of her aunt Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, with Mrs. H. K. Carpenter, Jr., assisting as hostess.

A pleasant evening was enjoyed with the young people playing games, and refreshments were served consisting of a birthday cake with 15 candles, ice cream and hot chocolate.

The honoree received a large number of nice gifts.

Present were Curtis and Roy Monk, Billy Carpenter, Nancy Smith, Arthur Patrick, Valverie Honea, Cloris Neatherlin, Roxie Price, Wesley and R. W. Bull, Horace Morrison, Harold Chase, Jimmy Davidson, Betty Ruth Merrell, Peggy Jo Hand, Carl D. Lewis, Ginger Shannon, Henryetta Finney, Valma Shannon, Joyce Baker, and the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster McCord and family moved this week to a place near Levelland where he will farm. His mother Mrs. Mary McCord accompanied them to help them get settled in their new home, planning to be away about a week. The McCords sold their home here to the G. J. Johnsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Williamson and children of Borger visited relatives and friends here over the week end.

Henry Hines Buried Thursday At Flomot

Last rites were held Thursday, March 10, at 10 a.m. at the Flomot Baptist church for John Henry Hines of Flomot with interment in the Flomot cemetery.

Mr. Hines was born December 11, 1876, and passed away of a heart attack on March 8, 1949, at the age of 72 years, 2 months and 27 days. He married Minnie E. Martin on June 18, 1905.

Survivors are the wife and five sons, Clay of Grand Prairie; E. J. and Otis of Flomot; Coe of Clayton, NM., and Howe of Matador; 12 grandchildren and six sisters. One brother and a sister preceded him in death.

The Hines family formerly lived at Quitaque, and they built the house which is now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Grundy. A more complete obituary will be published next week, if the information can be secured.

Accident Victims Well-Known Here

An automobile mishap at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon put several people in a hospital at Fort Smith, Ark., some in serious condition. The driver lost control on a wet pavement near Fort Smith, the car skidded and turned over.

Lester Hathaway of Mobeetie was scalped and suffered a severe brain injury. A specialist from Oklahoma City was called in to operate and take care of his needs, and his condition was grave.

John R. Freeman of Lubbock received a broken back and chest injuries. He was reported in serious condition also.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammers of LeFores, Van Bonneau of Dodsonville and a Mr. Markum were more or less injured, however Markum was dismissed from the hospital after first aid. All others are still under treatment at the hospital.

Alva Johnson of Turkey is there with them and doing what he can. He had spent the week end in Tulsa and was supposed to have met them Tuesday in Fort Smith where Hathaway was to open a week's debate.

The wreck victims are all Church of Christ evangelists and five of them are well known here.

School Election April 2 Supt. Cross Retained

At a meeting of trustees of the Quitaque school Monday night, Supt. E. W. Cross was re-elected to serve for two more years. Mr. Cross has made a splendid leader for the schools the past year, and as the board reports "they've not heard a word of complaint." The schools have operated smoothly, with interest good, and increasing, in all departments.

The school election will be held the first Saturday in April, or April 2. Two trustees will be elected, to fill the office of Alton Johnson and Bert Grundy whose terms expire this year.

Names for the ballot must be submitted ten days before date of the election. They must be presented (or mailed) to the county superintendent, (Judge J. W. Lyon, Jr.) in the form of a petition bearing the name of five or more qualified voters.

Supt. H. W. Cross was sick this week and absent from school Wednesday because of illness.

Com. Court Asks Farmers Weed Control Cooperation

At a recent meeting of the Commissioners Court the problem of cleaning and burning weeds along fence rows was discussed. During several weeks of snow and sleet it was found that where the fence rows were banked with weeds and caught the snow, that those places were most generally the places in the roads that made them impassable.

Each Commissioner Precinct has this problem on its hands. They are putting forth every effort to eradicate the weeds and to keep the fence rows clean of weeds. On the other hand it is rather expensive for the county to undertake to do this job alone, in fact it is almost prohibitive.

The court states it this way: They say they have to watch for the right time and weather to burn the fence rows. And when they get their crew of workers on the job and the wind gets too high to work then they have to pull off of the job, and at the same time it costs the county a day's labor.

The court is asking the cooperation of all farmers to help keep the weeds burned, in order that they may be able to keep their roads built up in good condition. With the cooperation of all the farmers this job can be handled and everyone will benefit from the undertaking.

FORMER FLOMOT MAN BURIED THERE THURSDAY

OES Chapter Host To The Masons

The Quitaque OES chapter was host last Thursday night to members of the Masonic lodge and entertained them with a social hour and refreshments at the Masonic hall.

A large crowd attended the affair and enjoyed the splendid program. Miss Jo Dean Bedwell presented a reading and Willie and Robert Gragson gave a vocal duet. Mrs. E. B. Knollhoff sang "A Man Is The Cause of It All", but this humorous presentation was in connection with the highlight of the evening's entertainment—a sham initiation.

Four candidates, W. J. Rice, Ollie Nall, Dr. Knollhoff and J. B. Baird, assisted by the worthy patron, Travis Morrison, were given the 7th degree—and they really got the works.

Mrs. J. B. Baird was the sterna conductress, who led the candidates a merry pace around the hall, and Mrs. J. C. Rhoderick, Jr., was associate conductress, who brought up the rear as best she could. The ladies were armed with guns on their shoulders to insure obedience to their commands.

The candidates were threatened with every conceivable horror, including clubs, rolling pins, butcher knives, and empty purses, which they accepted with good grace for the sake of the order.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, cheezts, pie and coffee were served. The four initiates and the worthy patron, to show their good natured acceptance of their "initiation" added to the ladies' pleasure by doing the dishes.

Everybody had a grand time—we think.

NORMA'S SHOP STYLE SHOW AT TURKEY WELL ATTENDED

Fashioned-minded women of the area evidenced their interest Wednesday in what's new, when they attended the tea and style show presented by Norma's Shop of Turkey. Mrs. Norma Russell established her attractive exclusive ladies shop in Turkey three years ago, and her keen perception of popular taste for well-dressed women has aided her small shop to continued expansion, with steady addition of new lines and increased stock.

In observance of the shop's third birthday, she presented a fashion show preceded by tea at the shop. The Turkey high school auditorium was the scene of the style show and young women from Turkey, and neighboring towns modeled the garments. Spring suits, sports wear, formals and lingerie were shown with a pretty floral setting on the auditorium stage as a background.

Hedrick and Miss Jeanette Meacham at the piano and vocal selections by Mrs. Gary Barnhill and Miss Sandra Barnhill of Turkey. Jackie Wingo, accompanied by Miss LaRue Gilkerson, both of Silverton rendered a vocal number, and wee Miss Wanda Barnhill gave a reading.

Visitors received favors of match folders and registered in the guest book at which Mrs. J. E. Barnhill presided. "WHERE MOST PEOPLE TRADE"

"I Give You Texas"

By Boyce House

It's 60 miles from Fort Stockton to Alpine—and did you imagine that there was that much of a stretch of highway left in the United States that doesn't have a filling station?

You pass close to the spot at which the Confederate veteran, Powe, was killed in a dispute about a steer at a roundup. This animal, because he had cost a human life, was branded "M.U.R.D.E.R." and then turned loose to roam. Men said that other cattle seemed to shun the creature. Short stories and battles have been written about the "murder steer."

Cas Edwards lives at Alpine. He knows stories about the peaks and caves of that region. He used to play baseball and he's the business manager of the semi-pro club which has a beautiful park, with a fence of native rock. It would be pretty hard to watch one of their games through a knothole, wouldn't it?

Years ago, Edwards devised a helicopter. Also he experimented with a device to heat a house with the rays of the sun. And he writes verse—in fact, he published a book of good Western rhymes at couple of years back, published the book himself—1,600 copies, and sold 'em all. And that's mighty good.

In fact, it's like the little boy who was asked, "How much is 10 times 9?" and he said, "Ninety" and the teacher declared, "That's good." The boy said "Good, h---; it's perfect!"

I once met a man who rated as worth $7,000,000. When we met again, he shook hands and smiled. Afterward, a mutual acquaintance said, "He likes you; that was mighty cordial for him."

Reckon a fellow who has $7,000,000 has to be on his guard all the time to keep somebody from "getting to him" for a chunk of cash. A millionaire can never be sure that he is liked for himself and not for his money. That must make life a rather lonesome sort of thing.

And all this man's millions couldn't save him when a locomotive struck his automobile.

San Antonio:

A tiny hat shop where the customer occupies a chair in front of a mirror, in full view of the passers-by—like a window display.

The Medical Building, its graceful summit is subdued gold, like a crown.

An old Mexican musician, so bent with age that his primitive harp fits in the curve of his shoulder.

A crippled beggar who smiles after a little curly-headed girl has skipped by.

The displays of trinkets in silver and semi-precious stones in the curio shops.

The parks where the checker games and the arguments on predestination by old men were not interrupted even by two world wars.

And the sweeping bends of the blue-green river, with canoes and decorated barges, the banks lined with palms and banana plants, a silvery waterfall adding the final touch of poetry.

Some Irish sayings:

Even contention is better than loneliness.

The covetous man is always in want.

The losing horse blames the saddle.

He who is bad at giving a lodging is good at showing the road.

An Irishman is never at peace when he's fighting.

A contractor went out to look over one of his postwar homes.

Walking up to a house in which a carpenter was working, he whispered: "Can you hear me through this wall?"

"Yep."

"Can you see me?"

"Not very well."

"That", said the contractor jubilantly, "is what I call a darned good wall."

Turkey Stock Show
Date Is March 19

March 19 is the date set for the stock show at Turkey.

The Veteran Aggies are getting their new home in shape. It will be the scene for the show. They have put out a lot of work on it and have something that adds a great deal to the community. There are the offices and three class rooms on the East, while north and west parts of the building will be used for housing livestock.

The directors decided to try something different this year to help raise prize money. In fact there were two ideas back of it; one being the prize money, and the other being some better livestock in the community.

There will be a registered heifer and gilt given away the day of the show, on the donation plan of a dollar a piece.

There will be six divisions: Dairy Cattle, Beef Cattle, Dual Purpose Cattle, Swine, Poultry, and Horses. Superintendents and assistants have been elected for each division from both the veterans and the F.F.A. Chapter. The first name mentioned under each division is the superintendent, and the others are assistants.

General Supt. is Hicks, with assistants Helms and Vinyard; Secretary and Treasurer, Lee Gregory and Squint House.

Dairy Cattle—Lee Seymore, Ray

Truse, Edmond Hunter and Jay Eudy.

Beef Cattle—Jack House, Bill Lane, Harold Lane, Jack Boney and Lloyd Wellman.

Swine—Winfred Bush, Olen Lane, Smitty Guest, Billy Fred Lacy, E. J. Browning.

SON OF MR.-MRS. JACKS
WRITES FROM NORTH AFRICA

A letter was received last week by Mr. and Mrs. W. Q. Jacks from their son Sgt. Harold Jacks who for several months. The sergeant has been stationed in North Africa had been on a trip to Greece, and his comments are interesting. Here are the excerpts from the letter:

Dear Folks, Well, I am almost ashamed to write you. I'll try and do better in the future tho.

How is everything back there now? It is rather cold here believe it or not. I never thought it would ever get this cold in North Africa. We have been having an awful lot of rain also.

Well, I've been on a trip again. I spent about 3 months in Athens, Greece. It was quite a trip. I saw plenty of interesting things while I was up there.

I was up on Mount Olympus and through the Acropolis. That is the temple of the Gods. They were supposed to live up there. I believe the Greeks are the most stupid people I have ever run across. That big temple just proves it. They imagined their gods lived there and they couldn't go into it for that reason. Oh well, everybody has their right to their own belief.

I guess it has been rather cold back there this winter. At least all the news we have been getting this past month says it is plenty cold. It certainly was cold up there in Greece. There were mountains all around on three sides and the sea on the other so you see we had some very changeable weather.

I hope to get up in Germany before I leave here. Some of our boys have been up there and they say it is very nice to look at in places. I want to see all I can anyhow while it is possible.

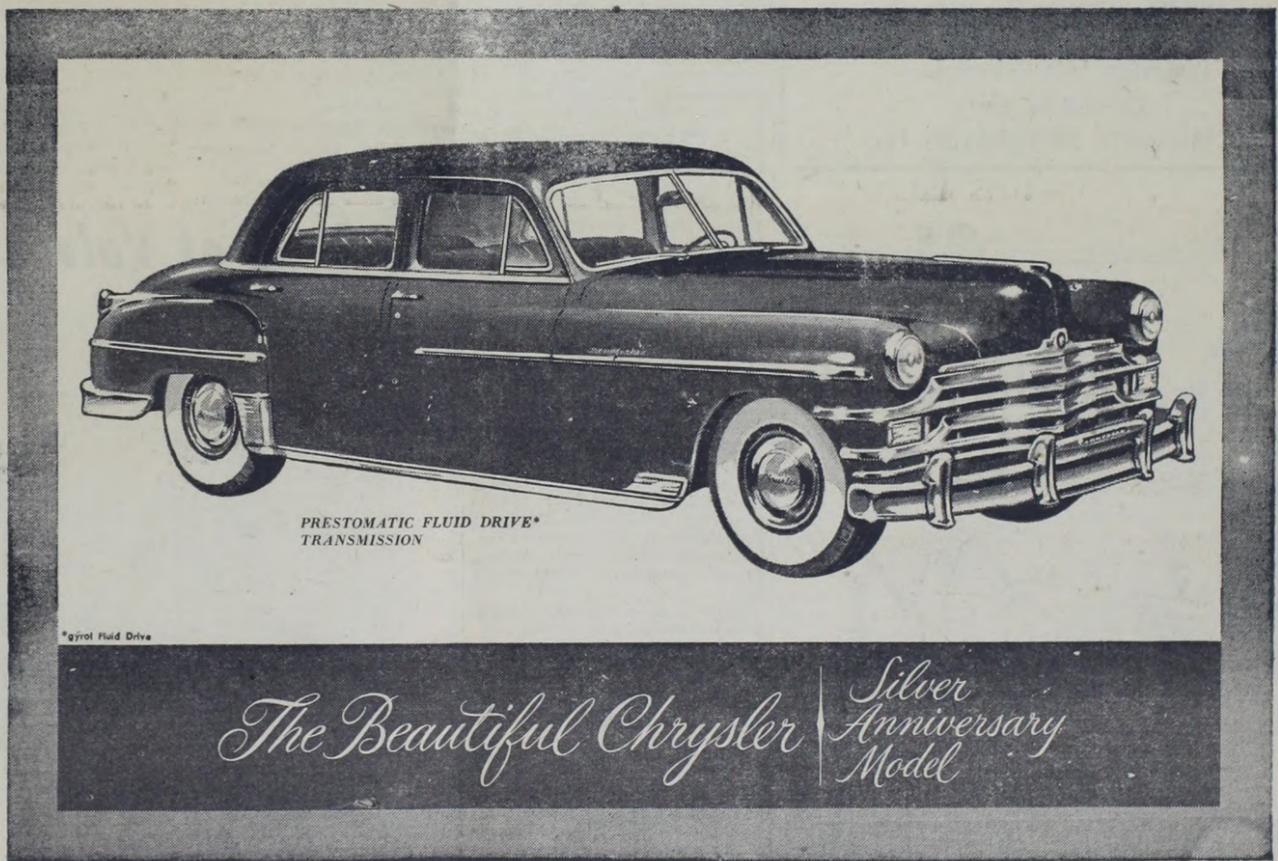

Your son, Harold.

MEADE GRIFFIN, PLAINVIEW IS SUPREME COURT APPOINTEE

Austin, Texas, March 5.—Meade F. Griffin, Plainview attorney, will become a Supreme Court justice on April 1.

The appointment of Griffin by Gov. Beauford H. Jester gave Jester the distinction of appointing a majority of the high court during twenty-seven months in office.

Jester chose J. E. Hickman to be Chief Justice, succeeding the late James P. Alexander. He appointed Griffin, James P. Hart of Austin, W. St. John Garwood of Houston, and J. H. Harvey of Atlanta to vacancies.

Associate Justice A. J. Folley became the third member of the state's highest court to resign to practice law. He will join an Amarillo firm, Gordon Simpson and C. S. Slatton previously left the court to practice in Dallas.

Griffin's appointment is for a term expiring Jan. 1, 1951.

The appointee is a member of the Griffin and Morehead firm in Plainview. He is a veteran of both World Wars, and served as county judge of Hale County and district attorney at Plainview. He was born March 17, 1894, at Cottonwood, Callahan County, and holds Bachelor of Arts and law degrees from the University of Texas.

Griffin is a former director of the state bar, and a recent nominee for president of the bar. He now heads its courts housing committee.

Jester appointed Judge Griffin as a member of the State Hospital Advisory Council in 1948. He is a Mason and a member of the Episcopal Church, American Legion, 40 & 8 and Rotary. He is married and has two children. The Griffins have helped to educate several other children. Appointment of Judge Griffin preserved the court's geographical balance by continuing to give recognition to the Panhandle-High Plains area.

FIRST SAVING BONDS ARE COMING INTO MATURITY

U. S. Savings Bonds were 14 years old March 1.

The first of these securities—then popularly known as "Baby Bonds"—was issued by the Treasury Department on March 1, 1935.

Since then 80 million American citizens have bought more than one billion bonds, worth $83 billion. Today they still own $55 billion worth of these bonds, or 66 per cent of all that have been sold.

In citing these figures, Harry Owens of Dallas, state director for Savings Bonds, recalled that these securities have well been known by several popular names, varying since 1935 to meet changing circumstances caused by national and world events.

"When first issued they obtained the name of Baby Bonds from the fact that they were smaller in size and were available in lower denominations than the government's other securities," he said.

"When the United States launched into an intensive program for preparedness with the outbreak of war in Europe in 1939, they became Defense Bonds. Then, following the attack at Pearl Harbor, they won quick acceptance as War Bonds. Immediately following the war, they were known as Victory Bonds, and during 1948 they were called Security Bonds to emphasize that, although they performed a vital function of war, have also have far-reaching value in peace by helping to strengthen the national economy and provide financial security for the individuals owning them.

"For nearly all of these 14 years they have also been known as 'people's bonds' because of their popularity with people of small or moderate means who otherwise would not have a completely safe security of small denominations in which to invest their savings.

"But, whatever popular name they may bear from time to time, they are still U. S. Savings Bonds."

Mr. Owens explained that money derived from the sale of Savings Bonds is used by the Treasury Department to pay off other government debts as they become due.

He said that preparations are being made for the "Opportunity Drive", May 15 through June 30, for increasing the sale of Savings Bonds to the people. Volunteers in every community in Texas will help conduct the campaign.

ILLEGAL ENTRY OF MEXICANS CAUSES SOCIAL PROBLEM

Austin—The most serious threat to an effective program of incorporating Texas' Spanish-speaking people into Anglo-American culture is that of illegal aliens, or "wetbacks," a University of Texas professor declares.

In preparing ground-work for a socio-economic survey of Texas, Spanish-speaking people, who make up one-sixth of the population Dr. George I Sanchez said the wetbacks are a major problem for consideration.

Dr. Sanchez, Latin-American education professor, is directing a $14,000 research project sponsored by the University of Texas and General Education Board.

"Tens of thousands of wetbacks now labor in the Southwest, without benefit of law, without protection or responsibility," Dr Sanchez said. "Because the wetback can and must work for whatever he is offered, he makes it virtually impossible for residents of the border area to make a satisfactory living there.

"Unless we can put an end to the illegal entry of large numbers of Mexican aliens, much of the good work state and federal agencies are doing will go for naught. Also, much more time and effort and many more millions of the taxpayers' dollars will be required to bring Texas and her sister states to a desirable and defensible cultural level."

Wife (looking up from magazine): "I've just read an article about electricity, Ralph, and it says that before long we shall get everything we want by just touching a button."

Ralph (sadly): "It won't do us any good."

Wife: "Why not, Ralph?"

Ralph: "Because nothing could ever make you touch a button. Look at my shirts!"

Price of Valves is up 43%

Five valves, one eight-inch, two three-inch and two three-quarter-inch, were used in the block gate, shown above, which was installed in West Texas Gas Company's transmission line in 1948. The three-inch valves have increased in price from $25.48 each in 1940 to $36.63 in 1948.

Yet Natural Gas Service Remains At the Same Low Pre-War Prices!

In cold weather scores of valves are opened and closed to meet your requirements for natural gas service.

Like other equipment, the price of valves is much higher today... but your gas rates are still at pre-war prices.

Yet... despite the increased costs of equipment, transmission, production, steel pipe and compressors... natural gas service is still furnished you at 1940 prices!

Several producers have reported their contour listing as completed. There is still time to get your prior approval for listing if you don't have yours. The approval must be obtained at least 30 days prior to seeding, and returned to this office after the listing is completed, with the acreage actually listed on the contour reported.

Purchase orders have been submitted this week for wells for A. J. Daffern and J. Almar Wilson, and diversion terrace for Mrs. Pearl Wilkinson. Under the Purchase Order plan, the contractor is paid directly by the Government; thus, the farmer does not have to pay for the services. Most of our terraces and earthen dams are constructed under this plan.

The Grain Loan Business ended February 28, with 19 loans being made on grain sorghum and 2 on wheat in Motley County.

Farmers who are interested in getting their sandy land plowed 36 inches deep should contact this office and talk the situation over. We have got some good stories for you. Two days this week Administrative Officer Richard H. Alexander and several farmers from Motley County attended a demonstration of deep plowing near Lubbock, Texas. Mr. Alexander heard almost unbelievable stories of the results of deep plowing, but they must be true—both the plow salesman and operator told the same story—and we have pictures of the plow at work which show clearly how sandy the land is, and the same field partly plowed, with rich clay being brought to the surface. The operator of the plow says he can get about 36 inches deep. Farmers attending the demonstration are Sterling Price, T. G. Tilson, and Ben F. Edwards.

Equipment for deep plowing arrived today and was unloaded at the Ben Edwards farm south of Whiteflat, west of the Matador highway. Plowing should start by Monday. This is something every sandy land producer should visit. This plow makes tight land out of sandy land farms. Mr. Edwards plans to break 100.0 acres with this plow. This practice must be completed 30 days prior to seeding.

Farm people will meet in their communities next week to hear farm problems discussed. Elbert Reeves of the Matador community will discuss the Price Support program. Also on the program will be entertainment by Tom Tilson. Refreshments will be served. The meetings will be held at the following places on the following dates: Matador, Monday March 7, 1949, Whiteflat, Tuesday March 8, 1949, Flomot, Thursday March 10, 1949. Other meetings will be announced at a later date. Farmers in Motley County should plan to attend these meetings, discuss their farm problems, and make the farm program in Motley County a better program.

Baptist Church News

The crowds looks like our Revival had already stated Sunday, March 6. There were 164 in Sunday School and 225-250 in church. Sunday night there were 66 in Training Union and around 150 in church.

Don't forget our Revival, March 20-27. Services twice daily, 10:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Rev. Jerrell D. Gaddy of Kinney Ave. Baptist Church, Austin, will bring the messages. He is a fine young preacher. He was pastor of a church when he was 14 or 15 years old. He is Sid Eogan's son-in-law.

Rev. Durrill Davison, a fine tenor singer of Lovell, Okla., will lead the song service. These are both young men and no finer men can be found. Come worship with us and help us win the lost to Christ.

The annual meeting of the Baptists of Dist. 9 met with the First Baptist Church of Ralls March 8-9.

Let me urge all of our friends of Christ to be in prayer for this meeting, March 20-27. If you have lost loved ones, do your best to win them to Christ. Lost Souls will burn with an unquenchable fire. Let's save them now while there is yet time.

WATCHES on PARADE

IN THE 16th CENTURY GENTLEMEN OF FASHION HAD WATCH CARRIERS.

From the Jewelry Industry Council.

Clock-watches, forerunners of the modern watch, were fashionable in the 16th Century but too large and heavy to be worn on the person. The modern watch is light enough for the slimmest wrist, is far more accurate than its ancestor and every bit as ornamental and fashionable.

Not Scared

A little boy surprised his parents by refusing to be scared into being good.

"It's no use telling me the angels will write down in their books if I'm naughty," he said. "I might as well tell you they think up in Heaven I'm dead."

"But why should they think that?"

"Because I haven't said my prayers for a fortnight."

They Don't Listen

Theodore Hook, the famous practical joker, held with the contention that people don't pay much attention to what others say on many occasions.

On a bet he greeted his hostess at a party by saying: "I'm sorry to be late, but it took me longer to strangle my uncle than I expected."

"Yes, indeed," replied the lady, "so nice of you to have come."

His friend gasped and paid up.

Plant Bird Seed

I took my small son to the grocery store the other day and as usual he wanted to buy everything in sight.

He said: "Mama, let's buy some bird seed."

I could understand his requests for candy bars and jelly and cookies, but this had me stumped.

"What in the world do you want with bird seed?" I asked.

"Want to plant it," was the reply. "But what for?" I persisted.

"So we can grow some birds."

A Maine farmer and his wife were making their first visit to California. They took a sight-seeing tour along the shore of the Pacific and seemed quite impressed with it.

"You know, Sam," his wife observed, "the Pacific Ocean is twice the size of the Atlantic."

The farmer shaded his eyes from the sun and gazed critically out toward the horizon.

"Yeah," he nodded, reluctantly, "I guess it is, at that."

It is not bad luck to postpone a wedding, so long as you keep on postponing it.
