

MRS. JACK RHOADES

SHIRTAIL SERMON

"Take heed, and beware of covetousness." Luke 12:14
 "A fly landed on a nice strip of gooey, sweet-smelling flypaper. Not seeing a challenger in sight, he happily announced, 'My flypaper.' Sinking his nose in the syrupy stuff he dined sumptuously. Then, deciding to leave, he began hopelessly beating his wings against the air—and the paper announced, 'My fly!'"

This little story can remind us of the situation between many a man and his possessions. Surveying his accumulations he proudly declares, "My possessions!" But the possessions knowingly announce, "My man!"

Covetousness usually is not recognized for the sin that it is. The reaction of the Pharisees to the teachings of Jesus is given in Luke 16:14: "And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all things: and they derided him." Lovers of money sometimes scoff or at least shut out the teacher who warns them of their sin.

Spring and Kelly Puckett of Dallas, a niece of the bride. Their dresses were identical to the bride's gown in a light shade of blue with blue velvet streamers.

Gwen Lane, niece of the bride, of Lockney, was flower girl. She wore a lace dress and carried a basket of white rose petals.

Candlelighters were Chad Puckett of Dallas, nephew of the bride, and Robin Downer, niece of the groom.

Tom Legate of Hereford served as best man. Groomsmen were Gary Taylor and Danny Merriman, both of Amarillo, and Dick Crook of Wichita, Kansas.

Troy Don Wheat, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Ushers were Glen and J. H. Lane of Lockney, nephews of the bride, Frank Hunter, Jerry Joe Rhoades, Pampa, nephew of the groom.

Mrs. Ann McCormick of Lockney accompanied Mrs. Ann Ford of Lockney as she sang "Love Call," "The Twelfth of Never," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown designed with an empire waistline with full long sleeves with deep cuffs and tiny covered buttons. The high neckline was lace trimmed. Her veil of illusion fell from a satin bow.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the dining room at Lane's Restaurant in Turkey. The table was laid with a white linen cloth and featured a three-tiered wedding cake trimmed with blue and white. It was flanked on each side by silver candelabra holding white tapers.

Mrs. Patricia Meacham of Lubbock served the cake, while Gleena Mullin poured the punch. Appointments of crystal and silver were used.

The groom's table was also laid with a white linen cloth and it featured a chocolate cake and coffee. Sue Legate of Hereford served the cake and Wanda Emerson of Amarillo poured coffee from a silver coffee service.

World Champions 'Drive Friendly'

Dallas Cowboy teammates Bob Hayes and Bob Lilly have come across with a pair of TDs for the Governor's Committee on Traffic Safety. Hayes, the fleet wide receiver around whom the entire Cowboy receiving corps is built, and Lilly, the six-time All-Pro who's been with Dallas for all of his pro career, scored with public service announcements for the "Drive Friendly" program. The recorded messages were recently released to all radio stations in Texas.

Covetousness has been described as Satan's "homefield." In this park he has won some of his greatest victories. Covetousness is to the soul what cancer is to the body. It is any wonder that Jesus said: "Take heed, and beware of covetousness?"

ART PROGRAM ENJOYED BY NUEVO STUDY CLUB

Fifteen members were present February 24 when the Nuevo Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Josh Smith.

After the business was transacted, Mrs. U. F. Coker, sr. opened the program with a devotional and asked each member to answer roll call with the name of her favorite artist. Many members answered with the name of a local artist from Turkey or this section of Texas.

The program was then turned over to Mrs. Euman Lyles who delighted the audience with a demonstration of her ability as an artist. At the end of her demonstration, the members viewed a beautiful landscape in oils.

The club will meet March 9 in the home of Mrs. R. C. Green. There are a few Community Birthday Calendars left for sale at $1.00 each. Anyone wishing to purchase one may call Mrs. Denver Powell.

PTA People Taking Action— For 75 Years!

National PTA President, Mrs. Elizabeth Mallory of Endicott, New York, invites all citizens to join her in celebrating the 75th birthday of the only volunteer organization devoted solely to working for the welfare of all children and youth. Organized in February, 1897 with a membership of 2,000 persons, the National PTA now has almost ten million members.

One of the most significant anniversaries in the history of volunteerism occurs in 1972—the PTA celebrates its 75th year of working totally in the interest of children and youth.

Founders Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst, who recognized the great need for such a volunteer movement, organized the first meeting of the PTA on February 17, 1897 in Washington, D.C. They expected some 200 persons at that meeting. One can imagine their elation when more than 2,000 attended.

The concept of PTA swept the nation, and now seventy-five years later, the organization has grown to one of almost 10,000,000 members. Since that time, scarcely a year has passed that the PTA has not implemented a project or involved its members in an activity that benefited children.

Fourteen years before the creation of the U. S. Public Health Service, the PTA was lobbying in Washington for a National Health Bureau. The first Pure Food Bill became law with the PTA's support. The organization has consistently worked to raise minimum wages for teachers... campaigned for strict supervision of motion pictures... supported hot lunch programs... urged continuous health supervision... worked to insure quality living and quality education for all children and youth.

During PTA's diamond jubilee year, Mrs. Elizabeth Mallory, president of the National PTA, challenges all members to accelerate their efforts to implement the priority areas of the PTA's Action Program.

- To provide for children and youth the kind of family life, education, and experiences that will keep them from turning to mood-and-mind-altering drugs to fill the emptiness of their lives or to escape from tensions and pressures;
 - To secure for every family dignity and freedom from hunger and discrimination in housing, employment, and education;
 - To prevent plunder and pollution of the physical environment so that our fragile planet remains livable;
 - To nurture goodwill, respect, caring and shared problem-solving among the diverse groups in our nation so that we can act together to meet the human needs and protect the human rights of all;
 - To involve youth meaningfully in our efforts to improve the quality of living and learning for all Americans.
- "These are burdensome tasks. But we can have no peace of mind unless we take up the burden," says Mrs. Mallory. "These are arduous tasks. But we have audacious faith that enough of us have courage and strength to undertake them and to recommit ourselves to the goals of PTA in our 75th year."

Kids... that's what PTA is all about. It began 75 years ago in February, 1897, when founders Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst recognized the need for improving the conditions affecting children and youth. Since that time, the National PTA has been instrumental in activities ranging from the establishment of hot lunch programs to lobbying for the passage of the recently enacted Drug Abuse Education Act. PTA believes that if a single child is lost, a part of the nation is also lost. As in 1897, PTA continues to help parents, teachers and students provide a better life for children growing up in modern America.

Mrs. Shorty Wheeler, Mrs. Billy Wheeler, Mrs. Dennis Denton and Roger visited in Childress Tuesday with Mrs. J. W. Harlan, who is a patient in the Childress General Hospital.

Johnny Dee Mullin, who is stationed with the Navy in San Diego, has been here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Mullin.

Mrs. Joe Richardson and Mrs. J. M. Hale visited in Memphis Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burch and family of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Hutton and son of Olney spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hutton.

Mrs. Jess Browning and Leo Bert Mullin visited in Childress Sunday with Mrs. Harlan and in Quannah with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Culver.

Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Christian and Robert of Memphis visited Sunday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Christian.
