Sunrise Services At Fairmont

by Rev W.J. Richey

Fairmont Missionary Baptist Church is having a Sunrise Service Easter Sunday, April 7, 1996 at the Clayton and Donna Piggis ranch. The Piggis live at the old "F" ranch located 5-1/2 miles south of Quitaque on F.M. 1065. After crossing the Los Lingos Creek and the Quitaque Creek turn left at the first gate.

Remember that Easter Sunday starts daylight saving time, so be sure to move your clock ahead one hour before going to bed Saturday night.

Breakfast will follow the services.

The meat will be furnished however, please bring food for your family, biscuits or bread, eggs, fruit or juice, sweet rolls and any item or dish you think you'd like to share.

Everyone is welcome to come and join the group for the services.

Briscoe County Approved For 1996 Feed Program

As of March 8, 1996 Briscoe County is approved for the Emergency Livestock Feed Program and the Briscoe County FSA Office is currently taking applications for assistance.

Producers are reminded that this is the beginning of a new feed year. Therefore, crop year 1995 carry over feed does not count against your eligibility.

At this time we do not know how long the feeding period will be due to the pending farm program legislation.

For more information please call or come by the FSA county office.

No City Election In Quitaque

The City Election for the City of Quitaque has been canceled.

According to Texas Election Laws (Sec. 2.052 Election Code) if each candidate whose name appears on the ballot is unopposed the election may be canceled.

Those who applied for a place on the ballot are Janice Henson, Arnold Castillo and Rhonda Rogers for council member positions. For Mayor, James M. Davidson applied.

The City Council will by Ordinance and City Secretary's certification declare the above unopposed candidates duly elected at the next regular Council Meeting.

Officers Elected For Flomot Cemetery Association

The results of recent voting for 1998-99 officers of the Flomot Cemetery Association are: Doyle and Mary Jo Calvert, President and Secretary. The three new trustees will be M. C. Jones, Annie B. Cloyd and Coy Franks.

Current president, Wilburn Martin, wishes to commend those who have sent in their membership dues and memorials to family members. Your generous support will insure that the cemetery will be cared for well into the future.

Plans are underway to repair or build new fences and gates on the north and east sides of the cemetery.

Membership and gifts to the cemetery are always appreciated.

Others Enter School Race

Six people from the Turkey-Quitaque ISD have filed to be placed on the ballot for the Valley School Trustee election to be held on Saturday, May 4, 1996.

Those who have placed their name on the ballot are Greg Ramsey, Bettie Green, Mark Allen, Brent Guest, Larry Curry and Gene Payne.

Three vacancies will be filled at this time. The terms of Don House, Gregg Ramsy and Brent Guest are up this year.

Post Enduro 'Cycle Races Held in Turkey Last Weekend

Last weekend Turkey was filled with numerous fabulous motor homes, new pickups and colorful motorcycles for the Grand Prix and Enduro motorcycle contests.

On Saturday, the youngsters rode in the Mini Enduro, on a course marked off in town. Thirty-five children participated in this race. Later the adults rode in the Grand Prix. This race is a three-mile course, and the riders make several loops. It is a much faster race, and speed is the main component. This course was also in town.

On Sunday, starting at 8:00 a.m. the Enduro races began, with riders sent out at one minute intervals. The last group left at 9:34 a.m. This race requires endurance and self-discipline. On the Enduro race there are 12 checkpoints. Between each one, riders read signs of the listed time they are to arrive at the next checkpoint. If they arrive early or late they are penalized. They are penalized more if they arrive early. This contest is for the A & B riders. Three hundred sixty-two riders participated in the Enduro.

All riders in the Grand Prix and the Enduro must be members of the AMA, for insurance purposes. The only reported casualty was a child's foot run over by another rider, but it was not broken. An adult rider suffered a broken leg, and one participant fell into a cactus.

Riders represented nearly all states from New York to California, and the majority of all states in between; however, most were from New Mexico, Colorado and Texas.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Turkey Fire Department did well with the concession stand. As a project they hope to acquire the former Mohon Jewelry building and replace it with a sidewalk mini-park.

All bikers were required to have a part installed on their muffler to prevent grass fires. Every rider had complied to this rule but one, and that one was not allowed to enter the races.

County Bans All Rural Fires

In an emergency meeting of the Hall County Commissioners Court Tuesday, March 19, the commissioners passed an order prohibiting the starting of any outdoor fire or fires in the rural areas of Hall County. They set fine limits for violators of the order, which reads:

"Due to the extreme dry conditions in our county, Commissioners' Court is declaring that an emergency exists, and is, by this order, prohibiting the starting of any outdoor fires by any person or persons in the rural areas of Hall County, Texas.

This order excludes a control burn under the direction of Natural Resources Conservation Service. This order shall remain in effect until rescinded by the said Commissioners' Court."

"Penalty for this violation shall be $50 to $1,000 fine.

Turkey Election Draws Opponents For City Council

With the filing ended March 20 for City Council and School board elections, only three candidates had filed for the Quitaque council, with no opposition for any place. Therefore there will be no city election in Quitaque.

However, in Turkey, three candidates had filed for one of two places on the City Council, two candidates for the other, and three candidates for mayor.

For Place 1, incumbent Louis Randall is joined in the fray by Marge Chaney and Mary Ham. For Place 4, incumbent Vicki Lindsey is opposed by Richard Greene.

Filing for the office of Mayor of Turkey are Albert Greene, and Don Howard, along with incumbent George Colvin.

The city election will be held the first Saturday in May, May 4. School elections will be held the same day.

Some CRP Set For Early Out

Agriculture Secretary Dan Glickman announced today that an "early out" of some Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) contracts expiring September 30, 1996, will be available during a sign-up period to be held from March 20 through April 26 at local offices of USDA's Farm Service Agency.

Glickman also said that current CRP participants whose contracts expire on September 30, 1996, would have an opportunity to extend their contracts for only one year. "A one year extension is the most prudent option until a new farm bill is enacted giving USDA new enrollment authority and establishing a longer-term policy for the CRP," Glickman said. "After the Farm Bill is enacted, USDA will announce a policy for extension for all CRP contract holders."

"Today's action is consistent with both the obvious growing need for increased grain production this year and with the Clinton administration's commitment to preserving and protecting those lands which are most fragile," Glickman said.

Contracts with the following types of land will not be eligible for early out: land with an erodibility index greater than 15; land devoted to useful life easements; field windbreaks; grass waterways; shallow water areas; filterstrips; bottom land timber on wetlands; shelterbelts and land within an average of 100 feet of a stream or other permanent body of water. "These restrictions ensure that environmentally-sensitive land continues to remain under contract," Glickman said.

Turkey Baptist Revival Slated

The Turkey Baptist Church will begin their revival Sunday March 31 thru Wednesday, April 3rd. Lewis Ellis, Pastor of the Baptist Church in Lefors will be holding the revival.

Sunday morning services will begin at 11:00 am, March 31st. Following the morning services, lunch will be served.

Sunday evening services will start at 6:00 pm and fellowship will follow the service.

Evening services will be held at 7:30 pm Monday, Tuesday

Highly erodible land released from the CRP for cropping must have an approved conservation plan. Any land used for haying or pasture must have a haying or grazing plan.

For contract extensions, the Commodity Credit Corporation will offer producers with CRP contracts expiring on September 30, 1996, the option to extend their contracts for one year.

"Extending these contracts will allow for the continued protection of highly erodible and environmentally-sensitive lands already in the program," Glickman said.

The one-year extension will not change producers' rental rates. All or a portion of the acreage under contract may be included in an extension, but no new acreage may be added. Obligations existing under an original contract will continue to apply to contracts that are modified and extended.

The one-year extension policy announced today permits those CRP participants with contracts expiring this year to make an informed decision about the early out. USDA intends to develop long-term CRP rules and regulations consistent with the changes Congress is now in the process of completing for the program. The actual terms and conditions will be developed through the regulatory process.

As with the current CRP, the actual level of future participation may be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

Affected participants will be notified by their local Farm Service Agency office during the spring of the opportunity to modify and extend their CRP contracts.

and Wednesday. Prior to the services a meal will be served at 6:30 pm. Different groups of the church will be responsible for the night meal.

Dusty Hansard a disc jockey on the Childress radio station will be leading the singing.

Melvin Clinton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and his congregation, wish to extend an invitation to all. You will be most welcome to all the services.

THEY'RE NOW!

by Eunice McFall

Tough Times, we have all had them at one time or another if we are honest with ourselves and will admit it. We really do not like to think of having difficult times in our lives but to be able to savor the sweetness of the good times, we will have to experience a few of the bad times also. How do we cope with them?

The first thing that comes to my mind is patience. We all have to have patience to exist in this old world. Once upon a time our preacher's wife said that she was always praying for patience and she always added "right now!" How many of us wish for patience "right now?" Perhaps that is what the tough time is all about—to teach us a form of patience so that we can appreciate the good times better. Perhaps we haven't earned our degree in patience yet.

We all need to know how to deal successfully with our difficulties. We need to have a feeling of control of our lives each and every day. And I know that all of us have had a few of those days when it just seems that everything is beyond our control—nothing goes off well or is done right!

About the first thing that we can do to help our "tough times" is to have a few positive thoughts about where we are and what we can do about it. Thinking positive is one of the most powerful forces that we can activate in this world. Sometimes things just start to fall into place when we change our attitude about our "tough times." When we are down and blue and only thinking negative thoughts, we seem to forget that the sun will shine once again and times will get better.

It is hard for us to think about happy days when we have our mind full of resentment, hate, apprehension or fear. If we let any one of these control our days, of course we will be having "tough times."

How can you greet the new day with a smile when in your heart you harbor hatred or resentment towards someone? How can you feel close to your neighbor when you are afraid of them? How can we face our daily lives if we let them be filled with apprehension of what could happen? Sure bad does go on in our world all the time, but this does not mean that we have to accept it as the norm and join in the hateful activities. Sure we are only one person but we do control how we react to the elements of our lives that we face each day. We do the choosing—happy or sad—friend or enemy—good or bad—loving or hating? What's it going to be? The choice is up to you! Have a good day!

Silent Auction To Benefit Historical Landmark

The Memphis Preservation Foundation is finalizing plans for their silent auction to be held Saturday, March 30, from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm in the Presbyterian Building located at the corner of Eighth and Robinson in Memphis. Proceeds will go toward the preservation of the Historic Presbyterian Church building which is no longer being used as a church. This non-profit corporation has taken on the task of securing for future generations to enjoy this Memphis Landmark which has received a historical medalion. The organ is also listed on the registry of historic organs.
 Complimentary coffee will be available for early shoppers. Sandwiches, soft drinks, cookies, chips, etc will be available for lunch. Silent auction is being done with help from the Atlantean Club, Delphian Club, Young Homemakers, Business Women's Club and Little Theatre.

A wide variety of items, from tires or a round bale of hay, to fine handcrafted items, glassware, art objects, paintings and lots of things in between, will be available.
 At two o'clock the marriage of Ms Tilly Tuttle and Archibald Carbunkle will take place in the sanctuary. "We are so glad the families, being very practical people, chose to have the wedding in conjunction with our silent auction", stated Wanda Hall, consultant for the wedding, "The recreation of the Virginia Browder Womanless Wedding production should be a hoot for everyone".

What Is A Kazakhstan?

It's not a "what," it's a "where!" Have you ever wished you and your family knew more about the ever-changing world around you? Many people have the desire to learn more about the diverse cultures of the world, but don't have the time to throw an Australian boomerang? Can you say, "hello" in Japanese?

Volunteering to host a high school foreign exchange student can be a fun and exciting way to learn more about the different cultures of the world, while opening a young person's eyes to the excitement of American life. The American Intercultural Student Exchange is currently seeking host families in your area for the upcoming school year. Host families provide exchange students with meals, a bed, and a supportive, family atmosphere. Local Representatives remain in contact with students from the day they arrive in August, until their departure the following June. AISE students attend local high schools, and have their own medical insurance and spending money. Have you thought about hosting an exchange student? Call our toll free number today to learn more about hosting, or to read some of the many student autobiographies we have on file. Students from over 50 countries are enrolled in the AISE program for the upcoming school year. Call AISE today at 1-800-Sibling.

Easter Eggs Then & Now

(NAPS)—Then: The Persians first began using colored eggs to celebrate spring in 3000 BC while the thirteenth century Macedonians were the first Christians to use them in Easter celebrations. In 1880 a New Jersey druggist founded the PAAS Egg Color Company and began selling packets of dye to neighborhood mothers.
For Easter 1996, the makers of PAAS are offering a wide array of egg decorating kits including the new Easter Story Egg Decorating Kit, Sparkling Glitter Easter Egg Decorating Kits, and PAAS Sand Art kit.

Now: To help make this Easter "eggestra" special, the makers of PAAS are offering a complete "Share The Easter Experience" package that includes free PAAS EggArouns egg wrappers plus a complete information sheet full of easy ways to add new dimensions to the holiday season. The package also includes a response sheet that enables individuals and groups to submit essays describing those experiences. The makers of PAAS will award one $500 gift certificate to a group or a $500 U.S. Savings Bond to the best individual effort, for sharing the most inspiring essay about how they helped others at Easter.

Spanking Does Have Its Place In Child's Growth, Development

Courtesy of Amarillo News-Globe by: Roy E. Turner

I would like to thank the Globe-News for allowing me to write this rebuttal to Amme Amerson's March 3 guest column in which she writes: "Parent's who use corporal punishment as discipline raise children who grow into teen-age delinquents and bullies with low self-esteem and emotional maladjustments-teens who attempt to solve life's problems with violence."
I write this column as a father of four: one son and three daughters: and grandfather of nine.
With regard to my four children, two are teachers, one is a registered tax assessor and one is a social worker. Regarding my three sons-in-law, one has a successful jewelry business, one is a banker and one is vice president of an international youth organization known as Yound Life. My daughter-in-law is a special education teacher.
My wife Virginia and our four children represent 145 years of continuous marriage. We take great pride in this.
Yes, my wife and I did spank our children. We also spank our grandchildren when we are keeping them, if they need it. I don't believe one can find any trace of a delinquent or bully in any of our children or grandchildren. All of them are our pride and joy.
I also speak as one of the first nine boys, along with my two brothers, to call Cal Farley's Boys Ranch home.
For 57 years, Boys Ranch has taken over 4,000 troubled children and turned their lives around. A great many of these children, no one wanted. Boys Ranch has produced teachers, pastors, social workers, politicians, as well as many self-employed individuals.
Yes, these children were also spanked and were given a loving and caring family home while living at Boys Ranch.
I believe that there are three very important things that children need in their lives. Children need a good role model, someone to look up to. They need someone who will set limits for them and see that these limits are met. Most of all, they need someone who will take the time to listen to them.
I also believe that until we put the Lord Jesus Christ back in our schools and bring our family values back, we will never stop juvenile delinquency and child abuse.
The future belongs to our youth.

Army Sgt. Returns From Haiti
Army Sgt. Maj. Rickey L. Branum has returned from participating in Operation Uphold Democracy in Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

The soldier was part of the largest contingency of troops in Haiti that includes a total of over 20,000 American servicemen. They are part of a 30-country Multinational Force (MNF) designed to protect the people of Haiti and to help restore order in that country.

Branum is an armor operations senior sergeant at Fort Polk, La. He is the son of Pearl Tapp of Quitaque.

His wife, Jovita, is the daughter of Alcaro Aquero of 2527 Dunloe, Dallas.

The sergeant is a 1968 graduate of Mesquite High School, Texas.

Emergency Farm Loans Applications Being Accepted For Briscoe County

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by a tornado are being accepted at the Farm Service Agency (FSA) office located in Tulia, Ross W. James said today.

Briscoe County is one of four in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Dan Glickman eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the natural disaster.

Ross W. James said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 90 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest is 3.75 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FSA emergency loan," Ross W. James said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance program will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until September 24, 1996, but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possible over into the new farming season," Ross W. James said.

FSA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U. S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U. S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FSA office in Tulia is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

FSA is an Equal Opportunity Lender.

Certain foods are associated with the Easter season. Pretzels were originally a Lenten food. Their twisted shapes suggested arms crossed in prayer. Hot cross buns, which have a cross made of icing on the top were first baked in England to be served on Good Friday but are now eaten through the Easter season.

EMS Profiles

Maria Cruz

My name is Maria Cruz. I am thirty-eight years old and the mother of three teenagers, Julie 19, Bubba 16 and Laurie 14 and a very rambunctious two and a half year old grandson, Aaron. I am a Volunteer EMT. I serve as treasurer on the EMS board and as acting Medical Director for our Service. I took my EMT training in 1992 in Silverton.

I wondered at the time whether or not I could do it. Between juggling my kids schedules, work and classes was I going to have enough time to devote to the ambulance service. You make time. In the middle of the day or night when you hear that beeper go off and you know someone is in trouble and needs your help, you don't think about what you have planned to do next or how long you'll be gone or even if you can be back in time to make that all important game or activity your kids are involved in. You just go, this is why you took the training, this is why you keep training, this is a gift the Lord gave you and you use it.

I cannot explain the feeling you get when you save someone's life and you know you made a difference nor can I explain the feeling of total loss when you don't and you know you did your best.

It is difficult at times to deal with these emotions when these are people you've known all your life, and many ask "Why do it?" "Why put yourself through it?" Because maybe I can make a difference.

No you don't get paid for it, your pay is that pat on the back or the hug from the patients family or the tears of relief you share together. That is reward enough for me.

I am very proud of our ambulance Service. We have volunteers who work together as a team and team work is what it takes to make an Ambulance Service work. Employers of these volunteers are also a part of this team for they allow us to take time off from our jobs to make these runs and I thank you.

Albert Castillo

I, J. Albert Castillo am an active EMT (Emergency Medical Technician) volunteer with the Quitaque Ambulance Service for the past six and one-half years, certified by the Texas Department of Health since 1989. I have served as an officer for three years and am now holding the office of vice-president.

I have attended classes in the past certified in Continuing Education Units (CEU's). Some of which were: Documentation, Military Anti-Shock Trousers (MAST), Vehicle Extractions, Trama Anatomy Seminar, Aero Care Landing Zone Personnel, Basic Trama Life Support (BTLS), to mention a few.

I also serve as Fire Chief with the Quitaque Volunteer Fire Department. This is my fifth year term in this capacity. I am employed at Merrell Food Store.

My wife, Sylvia works with the Kindergarten class at Valley School. On my time off that I have available I enjoy watching sports, spending time working different hobby projects with my wife, gardening, or just going out to have a good time together.

The reason why I joined the EMS is to help me know what to do in an emergency situation and help benefit our community. Hopefully someday we will have advanced equipment in our service to benefit not only ourselves, but the people that will need it the most. So Citizens support your local EMS organization and be involved. Your life depends on it.

Tax Facts

by: John Sharp

If you receive a gift certificate you might be wondering if it is subject to sales tax. Treat gift certificates just like cash. Sales tax is not collected when they are sold. When you use a gift certificate to buy taxable goods or services, tax is collected on the price of the item, including the value of the gift certificate.

However, if you are using a two-for-one coupon, it is counted as a discount. You subtract the value of a coupon before computing tax on the sale.

What about mandatory tips? You do not have to pay sales tax on mandatory gratuities for food or beverages, provided the charge is 20 percent or less, is listed as a separate item on the bill and is disbursed to employees who regularly provide the service upon which the tip is based.

The fee a debt collector charges for collecting a hot check is taxable. The debt collector may collect sales tax on the fee from either the person who wrote the hot check or from the person that hired the debt collector.

Effective January 1, 1996, motor vehicle dealers collect the motor vehicle tax and handle the license and title paperwork on all of their sales. Unless the dealer finances the sale, then they will submit the tax, title and registration fees to the county tax office for processing.

If you wrecked your car and the insurance company has declared it a total loss it will be considered a salvage vehicle. If you decide to buy it back from the insurance company it is not considered a motor vehicle so you will pay state and local sales tax on the purchase price.

"Let all things be done decently and in order."

-I Corinthians 14:40

If you are like a lot of us, you are hardworking, generous, kind-hearted, and in fact virtually the who list of Boy Scout attributes; but you have never learned the secret of being organized. You can quickly turn your house or office into a state of chaos, because you try to do too many jobs at once; and since you can't bear to throw anything away, you never have enough storage space. Moreover, you overload your circuits because you are too public-spirited to say no to any worthy cause; and so you are too busy to serve any of them properly. Nevertheless, take the time to attend your House of Worship, for it will help you bring neatness and order into your life. There are only so many hours in the day, and you should let the Lord show you how to make the most to them. After all, He arranged the workings of the whole universe, so He can easily do the same for you.

The Line Shack Restaurant in Memphis is hoping to re-open this week after their remodeling following a kitchen fire recently. On the day they reopen they will serve free coffee and donuts.

Visiting in the home of Virginia Degan last Sunday were her daughter, Betty Schneider and son, Mike Prather. Betty and Mike live in Amarillo.

Gladys Hanna had surgery recently in Lubbock. Mrs. Hanna is now home and recovering nicely.

While talking to Bonnie Hill last Monday, she thought she was on the road to recovery after being sick for about two weeks. Her daughter, Carol Weatherly of Memphis spent last Sunday with Bonnie.

Laura Steward and Tessa Myer were in Lubbock recently to attend a Styling Show. The new trends were sponsored by Armstrong-McCall.

Wilma Jewel Eudy had surgery recently. she is at home recuperating now.

Don't forget to do your recycling. The recycle containers are behind the Old Lumber Yard so take your old papers, aluminum, etc. to be recycled.

I have heard that Earl Dean Mullin is to have surgery soon. Good luck Earl Dean.

I have just heard that Inez Montgomery, a sister of Leona Degan's, passed away last Tuesday. The burial will probably be in Quitaque, at 11:00 a.m. on Friday.

Rod and Millie Setliff and girls, Robyn and Taylor visited with Arville and Lorene Setliff last week. Robyn and Taylor were on spring break.

Gladys Hanna had surgery in Plainview recently. She had returned home but became quite ill last Monday. She was taken by ambulance back to the hospital in Plainview.

Visiting in the home of Arlie Williams last week-end were all her children. They were Bridgette Johnson and son Richie from Idalou; grand daughter and great granddaughter Kelly Kelly and Brittany Kelly from Clarendon; Harve and Betty Williams also of Clarendon; Berry and Charlotte

Williams of Abilene and Darrell Cash of Clarendon.

Don't forget the Baptist Revival that begins this Sunday morning, March 31, at Turkey Baptist Church.

There is a German Western Music writer visiting at the Hotel Turkey this week. We hope to have a write-up about him next week before he returns to Germany.

Kasey Fuston Awarded Tech Scholarship

Texas Tech University's College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources recognized 36 Dean's Scholars for the 1995-96 academic year during a 4 p.m. reception Friday, March 15 at the University Center Matador Room.

These scholarships have been established by the college to reward academic excellence and to encourage highly capable young men and women to major in the agricultural science, said Sam Curl, dean of the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources.

The Dean's Scholars awards are based on academic excellence as well as leadership, character and citizenship. The Gold Award is $10,000 four-year scholarship and the Silver Award is a $5,000 four year scholarship. To keep the scholarship recipients must maintain a 3.4 GPA for Gold Awards and a 3.2 GPA for Silver Awards. The scholarships are funded by various donations to the college.

Kasey Fuston, a senior majoring in food technology from Turkey was awarded the Gold Award, and will receive a $2,500 for this year. Kasey is the daughter of Gene and Freida Fuston of Turkey.

Join the expedition into the Kingdom of the Son—it's a safari adventure filled with Bible Stories, crafts, games, snacks, songs and skits! You'll have a face-to-face encounter with the King as you discover the Lord's Prayer and learn to communicate with God through prayer.

It will be held at Turkey Methodist Church on June 3-7 and all the children (ages 3 or older) of the community are encouraged to attend.

VBS will be from 9 to 11:30 a.m. each day, Monday through Friday. Call Sue Hall at 423-1249 if you need further information.

Breast Cancer Screening To Be March 29

Courtesy of Memphis Democrat

The Women's Center of the Don and Sybil Harrington Cancer Center and High Plains Baptist Health Systems will conduct a Breast Cancer Screening Clinic at Hall County Hospital in Memphis on March 29, 1996.

Each participant at our screening will receive a breast exam and one-on-one instruction in breast self-examination by a registered nurse specially trained in breast cancer detection, and a mammogram by a mammography technician. Our program is certified by FDA, American College of Radiology and the State Health Departments of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Breast Cancer affects one in 8 women. The key to winning the battle against cancer is early detection by having an annual breast exam, mammogram and performing a breast self-exam each month.

The total cost of the screening is $70. Financial aid is available for breast screening and mammograms to individuals who qualify.

For more information or to schedule an appointment, please call the Women's Center at Harrington Cancer Center at 1-800-377-4673 or 806-359-4673.

Sharp Says Unfair Medicaid Funding Could Cost Briscoe County $422.3 Thousand

State Comptroller John Sharp has determined that unfair funding formulas now pending in the U.S. Congress would cost Briscoe County taxpayers between $370.9 thousand and $422.3 thousand in federal Medicaid cuts over the next seven years.

"This unacceptable legislation asks Briscoe County taxpayers to subsidize the health care of people in other states," Sharp said. "It would send twice as much money to a senior citizen in New York as to a senior citizen in Briscoe County."

"True block grants would help balance the federal budget and give states like Texas more flexibility," Sharp said. "But this proposed legislation isn't a block grant. It's a scheme to lock into place the unfair funding formulas of the past while giving distant bureaucrats in Washington as much control as ever over Texas programs."

Sharp released a county-by-county analysis of the different Medicaid funding formulas that have passed committees in both the U.S. House and U.S. Senate and will soon be resolved by a conference committee. His analysis shows that the House plan would cost Texas $4.9 billion over the next seven years. The Senate version would cost Texas $7.7 billion during the same period.

"These proposals offer Texans a choice between a bad plan and an even worse plan," Sharp said. "Both would pass the responsibility and expense for health care down to local communities. Public hospitals and other health care providers would have to raise local taxes to make up the difference, and private hospitals that receive no local tax support would have to shift Medicaid patients to public hospitals—adding to the challenges already faced by these facilities."

According to the Comptroller, Medicaid contributes to the cost of care for 75 percent of all Texans in nursing homes, and nearly one-third of total Medicaid spending in the state goes to care for elderly men and women.

"What's going to happen to our parents and grandparents if this legislation passes?" Sharp asked. "As the number of elderly Texans grows, the money for their care will be sent to other states."

"What's going to happen to the hospitals where more than 45 percent of Texas babies are born? Our state population is growing at more than twice the national rate, yet Congress wants to cut our federal funds so that a handful of powerful Northeastern and Midwestern states can receive more—whether their populations are increasing or not."

Under both the House and Senate plans, Sharp said, states would be required to spend general revenue funds to receive federal dollars, much as they do now.

"It's the same entitlement system Congress claimed it wanted to reform and change to block grants when this debate began earlier this year," Sharp said. "Now they're on the verge of making a bad system even worse. Federal bureaucrats will still pull the strings, but Texas and other high-growth states will receive fewer federal funds to comply with those rules and regulations."

Moreover, Sharp said, New York and other states with stagnant or declining populations would see their federal match rates increase, while Texas' federal match rate would remain the same as under current law.

There is only one thing about which I am certain, and that is that there is very little about which one can be certain.

"He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God."

-II Samuel 23:3

The greatness achieved by our founding fathers was to a great extent due to their exceptional qualities of leadership. However, in spite of this they believed that they could accomplish nothing without the help of the Almighty. They felt the awesome responsibility which they bore for the destiny of our nation and its citizens; and they prayed for divine guidance before making the decisions on which our freedom and our system of justice would depend for all time. They saw themselves as merely the instruments of God's will, and it was this very humility that earned them their place in the history books and in our hearts. We who are responsible for only ourselves and our families could learn much from our founding fathers; therefore, we should attend our House of Worship and thank God for their foresight which has allowed us, among other things, to choose it.

Bryant To Face Gramm In Run-Off

U.S. Senate candidate John Bryant's Putting America First program continues to strike a chord with voters statewide. Bryant is in the April 9 run-off election for the Democratic nomination to face Phil Gramm in November.

"More than fifty years after World War 11, it's time to put America first by ending our subsidy of Europe's and Japan's defense. When our allies pay for their own defense, we can bring home $130 billion a year to balance our budget, invest in education and strengthen law enforcement. We do not need cuts in Medicare, Medicaid, and college loans as advocated by Gramm and Newt Gingrich.

"In 1996 we should be putting America first with an end to unnecessary foreign subsidies; and a tough trade policy that tells foreign countries to either permit American products to be sold in their country or get their foreign products out of our country," Bryant said.

U.S. Rep. Bryant also plans to help American working families directly. His proposal for greater economic security for American working families includes: health insurance reform, an increase in the minimum wage, and incentives for corporations to treat their workers fairly.

"It is unfair that the average salary of major CEOs jumped 23% to $4.37 million last year, while U.S. workers incomes rose only 2.9 percent—the smallest in 15 years. It is time to put American working families first."

Bryant's courage and integrity continue to win statewide endorsements from groups representing Texas teachers, law enforcement, senior citizens, environmentalists and working families. Texans who support Bryant's record as a reformer, believe he is the only candidate in the Democratic primary who can beat Phil Gramm.

Plains Cotton Growers' 39th Annual Meeting, April 12

by Shawn Wade

"Change is a Challenge" and meeting new challenges head-on will be the focus of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers' 39th Annual Meeting, April 12. The meeting is being held in conjunction with the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association Trade Show and Convention, April 11-12.

The just announced agreement on a new farm bill by the House-Senate Conference Committee makes this year's speaker selection especially timely for all High Plains cotton producers. Both of this year's speakers come from the United States Department of Agriculture Consolidated Farm Service Agency (FSA) and will be discussing details of the development and implementation of the next farm bill.

This year's speakers are: Richard O. Newman, Deputy Administrator for Farm Programs, and Wayne Bjorlie, Director Fibers and Rice Analysis Division.

"We are pleased to have two excellent speakers addressing this year's meeting," says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson. "Their comments will be especially timely now that the Conference Committee has sent a compromise farm bill to the House and Senate for final approval next week."

Johnson notes that further information about the bill, which has been renamed the Federal Agricultural Improvement and Reform (FAIR) Act of 1996, will be made available as soon as possible.

Other scheduled agenda items for the PCG meeting include the presentation of two awards. The distinguished Texan in Agriculture Award from Texas A&M University will be presented to Mr. Don Anderson of Lubbock. A second presentation, to the Outstanding High Plains Cotton Agent for 1995, will also be presented at the meeting.

In keeping with the theme of challenges met and overcome attendees will also hear addresses from out-going PCG President Frank B. Jones and Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, and reports on two PCG-led initiatives: the High Plains Enhanced Boll Weevil Diapause Control Program and the Plains Cotton Improvement Program.

The PCG board of directors will meet following the membership meeting for the election of 1996-97 officers. Current officers include President Frank Jones of Lamesa, Vice President Jackie Burris of Wellman and Secretary-Treasurer Don Langston of Lubbock. Each of these individuals has served the maximum number of terms allowed in their current positions and new officers will be selected by the PCG Board.

The PCG Board of Directors is currently in the process of being elected in a series of county election meetings across the 25 county area. Newly elected directors will be confirmed by the PCG membership at the annual meeting.

The 39th PCG Annual Meeting will begin, April 12, with registration from 8:30-9:00 a.m. and is scheduled to end at 12:00 noon. The PCG meeting will be held in Room 107 of the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. The PCG Board of Directors will meet that afternoon in Room 108-109 starting at 1:30 p.m.

Rhoderick Irrigation Receives Award

Rhoderick Irrigation of Silverton, Texas has been awarded Lindsay Manufacturing Co.'s "Zimmatic Dealer Excellence Award" for 1995. The award is given to Zimmatic dealers for ensuring that their dealership has the capabilities to provide growers the latest in irrigation technology, equipment and service after the sale.

According to Robert Snoozy, Vice President of Marketing, the "Zimmatic Dealer Excellence Program" was initiated to recognize those Zimmatic dealers who have demonstrated a desire to improve all areas of customer service. Today's irrigator looks to the dealer for a broad range of information to better manage his irrigation practices. The Dealer Excellence Program positions the dealer to provide this information.

Lindsay Manufacturing Co. is the world leader in the production and marketing of center pivot, lateral and corner move systems, as well as computerized monitor and control units. Based in Lindsay Nebraska, the company has dealers in 38 states and Zimmatic products operating in more than 80 countries worldwide.

Texas Farmers Projected To Enhance Economy

Texas State Comptroller reported that Texas farmers and ranchers are projected to pump nearly $15 billion into the state's economy during 1996.

"Agricultural earnings will be up by 4.3 percent this year over 1995," Sharp said. "Cash receipts are climbing, exports are up and new markets are opening every day—a combination that ensures agriculture will bring in $14.6 billion during 1996 and remain one of the state's thriving industries for years to come."

"The hardworking folks who put food on our tables are improving their production, broadening their markets and overcoming the current lack of rain to keep Texas an agricultural leader around the world," Sharp said.

Sharp said that livestock production is the top cash commodity in Texas agriculture today.

"Cotton is still king, accounting for an expected $2.3 billion this year," Sharp said. "But greenhouse and nursery items, as well as corn, are also expected to do very well in 1996."

"Texas is a consistent leader in agricultural exports," Sharp said. "We're ahead of all other states in cotton exports, and the total value of our agricultural exports last year reached above $3 billion."

Sharp noted that Texas agriculture is finding newer, smaller markets.

"From exotic animals to aquaculture, the total value of these relatively new Texas products has more than doubled since 1991," Sharp said.

Sharp, who spearheaded the successful campaign last year for Proposition 3, making $200 million of existing bond authority available to finance an array of new economic development opportunities for local communities, said processing creates jobs and helps Texas farmers and ranchers compete in the global marketplace.

"Texas is the nation's second leading grower of peanuts, but if you want a jar of peanut butter, you'll probably have to buy it from a toothpaste manufacturer in Cincinnati, Ohio," Sharp said. "Texas grows more onions than all but one other state, but if you want a box of onion rings, chances are it'll come from a potato packager in Boise, Idaho."

"We're the nation's fourth-largest rice producer, but if you want breakfast cereal, it's likely to come from a corporation in Battle Creek, Michigan," Sharp said. "There's a good chance the spaghetti you buy will come from a candy manufacturer in Hershey, Pennsylvania, and unless you have a recipe handed down from Grandma, you'll be hard-pressed to find many Texas cucumbers being into pickles."

"Texas produces more raw goods than any other state, but 90 percent of those crops are sent out of state to be turned into finished products," Sharp said.

Sharp said that boosting the state's current 10 percent processing rate by a single percentage point could add more than $2 billion to the Texas economy each year.

"Raising the rate to the national average of 20 percent could mean an additional $22 billion for the state economy next year, the year after that and every subsequent year for the foreseeable future," Sharp said.

Vegetable Meeting Set For Gardeners

by Rebel L. Royall

The Briscoe County office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is sponsoring a Vegetable Grower's Meeting at the community room of the First National Bank at Quitaque. The meeting is to be held on Thursday, April 4th at 10:00 a.m.

Dr. Roland Roberts, Professor and Extension Horticulturist from Lubbock will be here to present the program. Subjects will include "What's new in peppers and tomatoes along with many other interesting ideas."

All home and commercial gardeners are encouraged to attend. It will be a very informative morning. Please call the Briscoe County Office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service by 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, April 4 to pre-register for this program. It will be cancelled if there is not enough pre-registration to justify the specialist's trip.

Extension programs serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, disability, or national origin.

On the day they reopen they will serve free coffee and donuts.

Express a mean opinion of yourself occasionally; it will show your friends that you know how to tell the truth.

A Family-Pleasing Appetizer Or Entree With Zing Catfish Fingers With Dipping Sauces

(NAPS)—The mild, delicate flavor and firm texture of genuine U.S. farm-raised catfish makes it perfect for dipping. In less than 15 minutes, you can whip up savory Catfish Fingers, which are a guaranteed crowd pleaser either as an appetizer or entree. Enhance them with a flavorful dipping sauce such as herb mayonnaise, honey-mustard or even salsa as shown above.

Catfish fingers have no bones or fishy odor, and are fun to eat, making them ideal for kids. And farm-raised catfish tastes so good, kids will never guess that it is full of essential vitamins, minerals, protein and low in fat.

For more quick-and-easy farm-raised catfish recipes, write to: Catfish Meals in Minutes, P.O. Box 568-A, Gibbstown, NJ 08027.

CATFISH FINGERS WITH DIPPING SAUCES

Ingredients:

- 1/2 cup yellow cornmeal
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- Salt to taste
- 1/2 teaspoon oregano
- 1/3 cup milk
- 1 egg
- Vegetable oil
- 4 genuine U.S. farm-raised catfish fillets

Directions:

In a bowl, combine first 4 ingredients. Beat together milk and egg. Cut catfish into thick sticks. Dip sticks into milk mixture, then in cornmeal. Heat oil to 350°F. Fry sticks in small batches, drain. Serve immediately with sauces. Serves 8.

Sauce suggestions:

- Herb mayonnaise
- Honey-mustard
- Fresh or commercially prepared salsa
- Melted cheese
- Barbecue sauce

Dumplings are eaten in various forms around the world. Chinese won ton, Italian ravioli, Jewish kreplach, and Polish pierogi are all types of dumplings.

The name for the sixth day of the week—Friday—comes from the Anglo-Saxon word Frigedæg, which means Frigg's day. Frigg is the goddess of love in Norse mythology.

Accessories Are Key To Staying In Style

(NAPS)—In a season of simple shapes and pared-down fashions, accessories are more important than ever to create a style that stands out from the rest.

This spring, it's the details that make the difference—a woven leather bag, a status scarf, or a special pin. What's more, in any season, accessories can add tremendous versatility to your entire wardrobe.

Here are a few tips from Talbots to help you get started:

- Add newness with a novelty piece. Fashion's return to simplicity has triggered a big comeback for scarves, bags, and fashion jewelry—especially novelty pins with decorative and whimsical touches. Pins make even the most basic shirts, sweaters and jackets interesting, and add eye-catching appeal to update your wardrobe.

- Extend your wardrobe with scarves. Draped around the neck, a scarf softens a severe look, or revitalizes your favorite sweaters. Tied at the waist, it doubles as a belt. Need pointers? Stores like Talbots will demonstrate styling techniques upon request.

- Never leave your belt-loops unattended. Clothes worn without a belt (especially when they're designed for one) look unfinished. Today's belts come in a variety of widths, colors and styles. Whether skinny or wide, smooth or textured, belts complete your look and flatter your waistline. For maximum effect, coordinate texture and color with your shoes and handbags.

- Use hosiery to fool...or draw...the eye. Coordinating hosiery with shoe color creates a long, fluid and slimming effect, particularly with shorter skirts. Socks with prints that coordinate with themes or motifs in your clothing, such as florals, paisleys or plaids, attract the eye and add pizzazz.

- Remember that shoes set the mood. Flats work with skirts of all lengths and enhance the beauty and simplicity of today's refined clothing styles. Quilted ballet or spectator flats in neutral shades or vibrant hues are spring "must-haves," and add the perfect finishing touch to a classic look.

This natural straw hat from Talbots is both practical and stylish.

- Choose hats for dramatic, or pragmatic, effects. A hat can create a stylish look for weddings, garden parties and special celebrations. It can also help protect you from the sun's harmful rays, and offer stylish cover on "bad-hair" days. For spring, a natural straw hat with a novelty trim is a practical choice that works for almost every occasion.

- And if you're still at a loss...go back to the basics. Every woman's wardrobe should include classic mid-heel pumps, a matching belt with a simple buckle, and a versatile handbag that holds everything you need and takes you from workday to weekends. Winter, spring, summer or fall, chestnut brown crocodile-embossed leather is a smart wardrobe investment.

Some final words: Look to accessories to experiment and create your own sense of personal style.

Look At What's For Dinner

(NAPS)—With years of experience in developing and preparing recipes that have become family favorites, the experts at Kraft Creative Kitchens—the state-of-the-art recipe and food testing center in Glenview, IL—have mastered the art of quick and simple cooking. These home economists are a great resource for winning dishes. Try a few of these well-tested tips from Kraft Creative Kitchens, to help you prepare a delicious family dinner in no time.

- Stretch one-dish casseroles or salads by stirring in cooked pasta. When pasta reaches the "al dente" state (firm to the bite), rinse with cold water and store in a plastic bag in the refrigerator or freezer. Drop the bag into a pot of boiling water to reheat.

- Preheat the oven or set water to boil before gathering up the rest of the ingredients for the dish. You won't end up waiting for the watched pot that never boils!
- For a time-saving winner, make one-dish recipes or dinner ideas from ingredients on hand. Create new and interesting dinner combinations depending on your family's likes and dislikes.

For example, try the following recipe:

Easy Pasta Bake
COOK
1 lb. ground beef in large skillet and drain.
STIR IN
1 jar (30 oz.) spaghetti sauce, 1/2 cup KRAFT 100% Grated Parmesan Cheese and 5 cups cooked pasta. Spoon into 13x9-inch baking dish.
TOP
1 pkg. (8 oz.) KRAFT Shredded Mozzarella Cheese. Bake at 375°F for 20 minutes.

Flying Dinosaur Fossil Found In Fort Worth

Courtesy of Dallas Morning News by Matt Crenson

A 100 million-year-old flying dinosaur remains were discovered in Tarrant County by amateur paleontologist, Chris Wadleigh.

Wadleigh found the snout belonging to a pterosaur, a flying dinosaur that evolved 70 million years before the first bird. The fossil has teeth and a distinctive crest that helped stabilize the animal's head like a keel as it swooped down on fish and other aquatic prey.

The pterosaur's inch-long teeth put it in a class by itself. Of all the other pterosaur fossils that have been found in North America, none have had teeth. The paleontologists didn't recover any whole teeth from the fossil but did find tooth fragments and sockets for teeth in the snout.

Wadleigh has been instrumental in contributing to the metroplex paleontological community and has been recognized in a book written by Professor Louis Jacobs.

Chris Wadleigh is the husband of Stormy, Lavern Benton's granddaughter. The couple live in Watauga, Texas.

The name Easter was adopted for the Christian Paschal festival from eastre, a pagan festival held at the vernal equinox in honor of the Teutonic goddess of the dawn, called Eostre.

Livestock Show Ready For Saturday

The livestock show is just around the corner, and it is gaining momentum all the time. Everything is practically ready now and will be in place for the big show Saturday. This is to be a real event in Turkey.

In a general way here is what the cash prizes will be: For hogs, first place $5, second $3, third $2.

All cattle will be: first $7.50, second $5.00 and third $3.00. Poultry will be: $3.00 first; $2.00 second; $1.00 third.

Grand champion will be given where there are two classes; Reserve champion will be selected where there are three classes. The cash award will be the same as for first and second place.---

CLOSES STORE AT FLOMOT

Casy Jones has closed out his grocery store at Flomot. The stock was sold to Virgil Young, who operates the M-System at Turkey and has been added to the stock there. This leaves only one grocery at Flomot, Kuykendall's.---

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hill Jr., and girls of Amarillo visited the Jess Russells over the week-end.---

Mrs. Gordon Hedrick, Larry and Sue visited her brother, Colquitt Butler and wife in Wichita Falls over the week-end.---

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Farley and Bumpie, Mrs. Ray Perkins and Mrs. Reddell Irby attended the funeral of their cousin, Randy Thompson at Clarendon Tuesday afternoon.---

FLOYD CO. COURT HOUSE BURNS TO THE GROUND

A roaring fire of undetermined origin virtually gutted the upper two stories of Floyd county's venerable courthouse here early March 11. The fire was discovered about 6:30 o'clock this morning by John Green, caretaker, who was going on duty for his day's work.

The brick structure, with basement and three stories, was built in 1911.
