Junk Vehicle Removal Law

by Jerry Beck
 There are many misconceptions and misrepresentations concerning the abatement of junk vehicles. Here is the procedure as prescribed by law:
 A five day notice is served to those having vehicles deemed as junk vehicles according to guidelines set by the State Of Texas. During this period, it is at the owners discretion how the ordinance (law) is complied with.
 At the end of the grace period a formal complaint will be served in the form of a citation. The person in violation will appear in Justice Court to make a plea. A fine may be assessed and the vehicle removed following appropriate court proceedings.

Mountain Bike Race To Be Featured During Quitaque's Fall Foliage Fest

Among the many activities available to visitors during the Fall Foliage celebration, will be a mountain bike race. The caprock area is prime terrain for mountain biking as evidenced by the large number of bikers seen in the park and on the Caprock Trails. It has been estimated that more than half the campers to Caprock Canyons State Park bring bicycles along with their other camping gear. Biking in our area is an outdoor activity worthy of promotion.
 The Caprock Bike Club, along with the Chamber of Commerce and Caprock Canyons State Park is sponsoring "Quitaque Quest" and is looking for a big turnout for this biking event. Quitaque Quest is a mountain bike racing event which is sanctioned by the National Off Road Biking Association and should be well attended. Quitaque Quest is advertised in at least one national circulated magazine, and a number of regional and statewide newspapers and magazine.

The October 21 bike race will utilize a number of interconnecting trails at Caprock Canyons State Park, beginning at the south end of Eagles Point Trail. The race course will proceed north along the rugged terrain of Eagles Point trail until it intersects with the Park pavement. The riders will ride on pavement for a distance and then again get onto the the North Prong and Lower Canyon hiking and equestrian trails. The racers will complete the 14 mile route by way of the county road and finally back into the Park. Riders will finish the race at the point where the race began. The more experienced participants will be expected to ride the course two times for 28 miles.
 There will be 24 different classes and categories in which participants may enter. Male participants in the Sport and Expert categories will be expected to ride 28 miles while beginners and all women entrants will race for 14 miles. Age classes are available four different age groups, beginning with the 12-18 group and extending thru the masters class. The cost to participants will be $12 thru October 14th and then $15 until race day. The race is scheduled to start at 10:00 AM and should last about 4-5 hours. An awards ceremony is scheduled to follow the racing activities.

THEN and NOW!

by Eunice McFall
 I recently read a letter to the editor in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal that had a few thoughts in it that we might should give some thought to! The lady from Denver City starts out by saying that it is time to trash old principles and adopt those in effect today.
 She gave some examples of some of the principles that she felt were adopted today. One was, it is more blessed to receive than to give. Most of our forefathers certainly did not live by that rule. If they had not given up their lives, there would not be a United States of America today. They felt strongly enough about their freedom and the freedom of future generations to want to fight for it. Would the society in which we live today give up their soft living to go and face an enemy that is threatening to come in and make the US subject to another nation?
 She also mentioned the Clintons' involvement with those accused of Whitewater fraud proves that birds of a feather do not flock together and that if it walks like a duck, quacks like a duck and looks like a duck, it ain't a duck. Boy, and here I always thought that you could take things at face value and feel good about it! So much for that theory.
 A stitch in time costs nine! Her next statement! I personally like the old adage—a stitch in time saves nine!
 Next—The meek shall not inherit the earth; loudmouths, women libbers, homosexuals and demonstrators shall, and the EPA shall have jurisdiction. Today as we listen to our news programs and read our daily newspapers, most of what we get of the news is the ones that are calling the loudest, but perhaps not the ones that really need to be heard, such as our children who are being hurt by the times in which we are living.
 Then—Women have the right to exercise control over their own bodies only after becoming pregnant. It is OK to kill a baby before, but not after, it is born. When it is stated in this way—What in the world are we thinking of to allow this sort of ideas to run rampant in the world in which we bring our children into, to grow up in and eventually face society as an adult by using all the "old" rules? Do we really hold the value of human life so lightly as to feel nothing is wrong with these statements?
 Her last comment was "If it ain't broke don't fix it—break it! My comment is that we really do need to do some thinking about how we want the future to be for our descendants and then get busy and put our priorities in order and to work."

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:
 After being away from Turkey for many years, I returned last October for the burial of my aunt, Madeline Mohon. My visit, while saddened by the death of my aunt, was still a wonderful experience renewing old friendships and visiting old home places. My parents were C.W. and Alvida Mohon and grandparents were Will and Mina Mohon. We moved to Turkey from Dallas during WWII and lived there until my father enlisted into the Army. My parents owned a produce store and my grandparents owned a jewelry store. I have many fond memories of the few years we spent in west Texas.
 My subscription will be due in October, therefore I am enclosing a check for renewal. I look forward to receiving the Tribune every week. It has some very interesting articles and, of course is a great source of information about the activities of many people I remember. Please accept my Thanks for this.

Sincerely,
 Judy Chapman

Are You My Lawbreaking Friend?

by Jerry Beck

Living in a small town has its advantages. You know everyone and are friends with almost everyone. This is what everyone strives for on a social level, however it sometimes creates problems on a professional level.

I stopped a man I have known for 15 years and arrested him for DWI. He could not understand how I, as a friend could do such a thing to him. What kind of friend would put a friend in a position where he, as a police officer, would have to do this to him?

Now you might think "Well DWI is a serious offense and the fellow needed to be taken off the road." Sure it is, but the concept applies to all law. It is required by law that a person have insurance, current tags, current inspection sticker and observe the traffic laws of this state.

I would look the other way as a friend, but what about the friends who feel I'm not being fair to them when they have to pay outrageous prices to drive legally? What happens when one of my friends who isn't keeps an eyesore around for his neighbors to look at?

These junk cars breed snakes, skunks, and can cause some child to be injured or even die, not to mention devaluating property of everyone around. Friend, there are close to 100 of these vehicles around Quitaque. Some better than others, some worse, all illegal!

What do we do, the City and myself, let our friends go and make everyone else abide by the law? We have tried to be fair and treat everyone the same by this ordinance. If anyone is offended, I am truly sorry, but where do we draw the line as to who must obey the law and who doesn't have to?

I can't let my friends go, because I would like to believe, you are all my friends. Am I wrong? Maybe I was wrong for putting my friend in jail for endangering those other people on the highway. After all he was only breaking one law and he wasn't hurting anyone else. YET!

Patriots Lose To Claude

The Patriots traveled to Claude to take on the Claude Mustangs. "We played a very good 1st half and 3rd quarter, but a strong 4th quarter by Claude kept us out of the game." Claude opened up scoring on their first possession and led the Patriots 7-0. Valley then answered with a score of their own by Shawn Stephens when he went 49 yds. around the left side of the line for Valley's only score of the game. The point after touchdown failing, the Mustangs led 7-6. The second half saw the Patriot's offense struggle and the defense allowing 1 third quarter touchdown and 2-4th quarter scores. With two minutes left the Patriots put together an impressive drive that was stopped on the 12 yd line when time expired. "We had a good game offensively, but just couldn't stop Claude." Jr. Reyna had 14 carries for 75 yds and Shawn Stephens had 14 carries for 88 yds.

Kirk Saul is number 1 in the all-time state passing leaders. He threw for 590 yds in the Valley vs. Chillothe game in 1986 game and he is listed as number 2 in Class A in the Valley vs. Alamo Catholic in 1986 when he threw for 455.

In the Class A All Time State Rushing leaders, Kevin Hendrix is listed as number 12 in the Valley vs. Silverton game in 1981 for 382 yds.

Kirk Saul is presently employed as a coach at Valley School.

Valley Junior High Football

The Valley Jr. High opened its 1995 football season with a hard fought game against the Claude Colts. In the first half, the Patriots dominated the play by controlling the ball for most of the half, but unable to cash in for any points. In the second half, fumbles proved costly to the Patriots as they were unable to get their offense on track. The lone score of the game came late in the third quarter when the Claude fullback broke for a 37 yd. TD run. That score proved to be the difference as the Patriots fell short in their season opener by the score of 8-0.

Help Your Child Get Ready for College

"Parents who encourage their children to take tougher courses in high school stand a better chance of succeeding in college," states U.S. Education Secretary Richard W. Riley.

As a new school year gets underway, strong evidence—higher SAT scores, significant educational gains by minorities, and lower dropout rates—suggests that emphasizing high standards and taking more difficult courses pays off.

These important gains are being posted as Congress prepares to enact some of the deepest cuts to education in the nation's history.

COUNTY SEAT NEWS from The Briscoe County News

New Boiler at Court House

Briscoe county is taking for bids for the construction of a new furnace boiler in the court house. The one in use now has been pronounced unsafe for further use by a boiler engineer from Amarillo. The present boiler will probably have to be fired a few times before the installation of a new one. It is hoped that the new boiler will be completed within six weeks and ready for use. A railing will be built around the boiler pit as a safety measure.

Registered at W.T.S.C.

Canyon—Four Quitaque students are listed in a West Texas State college directory issued by the college YWCA. These students are: Ethelyn Bailey, Joe Bailey, Jo Edd Cupell and Ruth Taylor.

Nearly nine hundred young men and women are enrolled this semester. Next semester's registration is expected to raise the total for the regular term to one thousand or more.

J. A. Simpson, who with Mr. Jackson bought and is operating the Fairmont gin, last week completed a new home near the gin which he and his family are now occupying.

H. W. Hamilton and family have moved to town and are living in their new home recently vacated by J. A. Simpson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hamilton have moved to Olney where he is engaged in business.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Price attended the medical meet which was held last week at Pampa.

Frank and Venus Gillespie attended the football game between Wellington and Paducah Friday. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Brooks of Estelline, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Stell and Mrs. Ed Baucum of Altus, Okla. visited Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Clark over the week end. Mmes. Brooks, Stell, Baucum and Clark are sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Stell also visited his mother in Lockney.
