Mrs. Timmons, a native of Northfield, Tx has served as a clerk at Childress, Tx, post office for the past five years.

Postmaster selections are made on the basis of merit from a list of qualified candidates submitted to the Sectional Center Manager by a Review Committee. The sectional center manager then selects and recommends to the Postmaster General the best qualified person for appointment to the vacancy.

Mrs. Timmons' hobbies are cooking and fishing. She has served in various officer positions for the local P.T.A.

and in the Northfield Home Extension Club.

She is looking forward towards meeting and serving the customers of Turkey.

'Texas' Honors Local Board Member Recently

Opening night festivities of "Texas" in its 23rd year honored previous and current board members of the Panhandle Heritage Foundation.

Marjorie Bain, board member, her daughter, Jinna Turner of Lockney, and Virginia Degan were among those present. Board members were honored at a reception in the flag area on the patio prior to the performance and recognized during the show. This is part of a continuing effort this year to reward the people from the 40 surrounding communities of the Texas Panhandle.

The annual musical drama opened among the cliffs at Palo Duro Canyon with a cast of 80, hailing from 14 states and one foreign country. A half-million dollars in renovations have been pumped into the show during the past three years. New costumes, sets and high quality sound and light equipment all contribute to the drama's appeal. The famed thunderstorm scene takes on a new dimension, and the fire ballet is danced through a haze of realistic smoke.

"Texas" tells the story of life in the Texas Panhandle in the late 1880's, and last year 100,000 persons traveled from every state and 84 foreign countries to see the production.

Chadwicks Awarded "Yard of the Month"

Buck and Ann Chadwick were singled out as recipients of "We the Women's" Yard of the Month award last week at their regular monthly meeting.

The Chadwicks have spent many hours in recent months enlarging their back yard, and now have beautiful climbing roses planted along the new fence. In addition, several fruit trees have been planted on the adjoining lot. Their lawn is a lush green and perfectly edged, giving a neat and lovely appearance.

There are many yards around Quitaque shaping up and looking especially nice. In addition to all of the yard improvements around town, there are a number of homes making major changes with brick or aluminum siding. It puts all of us in the mood to CLEAN UP -- PAINT UP -- AND FIX UP!

Let's Talk Turkey
 by Thelma Gafford

I don't have to tell you it's been hot this week, and thank goodness the pool is open. I've seen everybody young and old trying to stay cool. I've also seen some of our elder friends out working in their yards in this heat. Please... friends... do your work in the cool of the morning or evening. We don't want to lose any of you. You might even consider hiring some of our kids to do that mowing or those chores. Just don't over-do.

Another thing I've seen plenty of so far this summer, and that is a lot of beer cans being left around our towns. In fact someone left some cans at the pool the other night, after hours. They also damaged the fence gate, and one patio table. These people are called Fence Climbers. We have asked Deputy Garvin Speed to patrol the pool area, for this very reason. We would hate for our caretaker to find someone floating in there some morning. Swimming in a dark pool, as well as drinking and swimming is very risky, in more ways than one. We are so lucky to have the swimming pool, I'd really hate to have a tragedy, or some damage up there, that would hinder the enjoyment we all get out of it.

I would like to thank all the readers that have responded to my article last week about ways and means to improve our communities. If you have an idea, please drop me a line, or give me a call, don't be bashful, like me! Just go ahead and do it. I'll leave you with one idea that I had to go ahead with. "Some roses are red, Some are not. Wish we had Sea World, and San Antonio did not."

Obituaries

Eunice Christian

Services for Eunice Christian, 86, of Turkey were at 11:00 a. m. Thursday, June 16, at the First Baptist Church of Turkey with the Rev. Melvin Clinton, pastor, officiating. Assisting was the Rev. Steve Ulrey, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Turkey. Burial was in the Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors of Turkey.

Mrs. Christian died late Monday, June 13, in the Georgia Manor Nursing Home of Amarillo after a lengthy illness.
 She was born on August 1, 1901 at Moody, Tx. She moved to Turkey at the age of 2 and was a lifetime resident. She married the late Albert Christian on February 1, 1918 in Turkey. He preceded her in death on February 8, 1974. Also preceding her in death is a son, A.E. Jr., in 1919. She was a homemaker and a member of the First Baptist Church of Turkey.

Survivors include 4 sons: Glynn of Memphis, Larry of Lubbock, Ronnie of Runaway Bay, and Jackie of Amarillo; and a daughter, Edna Blakney of Turkey. Also surviving is a sister: Vivian Lee of Hobbs, New Mexico and 9 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Accent on Health

If someone were to tell you that by wearing a Band-Aid, you could lose weight, quit smoking, or even avoid AIDS and other diseases, would you think the claim ridiculous? Or would you pay $30 or $40 for your first month's supply of the devices and urge your friends to do the same?

Unfortunately, the latter occurs every day, according to the Texas Department of Health (TDH). Sales of adhesive skin "patches", purported to contain non-standard drugs, alleged to be effective against a wide range of disorders, have boomed in Texas in recent months.

TDH has joined the federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and the Texas Attorney General in investigating the products, claims, and sales practices of some 30 skin patch manufacturers and their distributors known to be operating in the state.

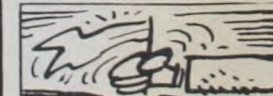

Ken Davis, an inspector for the TDH Division of Food and Drugs, said that none of the products currently being sold without prescription as skin patch medications have been approved by the FDA, either as safe or as effective. By law, he said, any drugs manufactured in Texas must be registered and must undergo TDH inspection as well as be approved by FDA. A manufacturer's failure to comply with the law is a Class A misdemeanor.

"To date," Davis said, "all the over-the-counter skin patch remedies we have seen have not been in legal compliance. The patches and the literature or advertising for them that have come to our attention have consistently been misleading, and the products we have sampled have been misbranded and adulterated."

Davis said that the so-called active ingredients, usually supplied in a vial or tube with the adhesive strips, often contain mixtures of common herbs and chemicals, or water. The products may be harmless, but investigations are underway about reports of skin rashes by users.

The Division of Food and Drugs and the Attorney General's office continue to gather information about the skin patch remedy industry, since it appears to be growing. "One manufacturer claims to have as many as 600 distributors in Texas, alone," Davis said.

He said that anyone wishing to report adverse reactions or illness following use of the patches should call the local health department or the TDH Division of Food and Drugs. Reports of suspected fraudulent advertising or sale of the products should be made either to TDH or to the Attorney General's office.

Plane Crash Ruled Due To Fuel Lack

The pilot of a single-engine Cessna notified flight controllers that his plane was out of fuel shortly before it went down, killing the pilot and 3 passengers last week.

The aircraft crashed in a hay field south of Elgin on Friday of last week. The four men aboard were en route from Perryton to Austin to attend a medical conference.

Killed were Christopher, 41, of Booker; Jerry Leon Weatherly, 44, Roy Henry Grunden, 34, and Donald Douglas Holmes, 36, all of Perryton.

Sales Tax To Up Revenue For Texas

State Comptroller Bob Bullock says that Texas cities can expect handsome revenue increases from their local sales taxes as the Texas economic recovery continues to pick up steam.

This month's city allocation checks showed a 23.5 percent increase over June 1987, a growth rate too high to attribute to the broadened sales tax base.

The City of Quitaque received $6,952.59 in sales tax receipts, up 22.11% from the same period last year.

Notary Seminars Available At Several Texas Colleges

The Texas Notary Public Association (TNPA) announces it is conducting educational seminars for Texas Notaries throughout the state of Texas, via its educational network, according to association President W. A. "Doc" Ruhmann.

Ruhmann said notary seminars are available in practically every part of the state through many educational institutions, junior and senior colleges and universities sponsoring the 3-hour seminar in cooperation with TNPA, a non-profit educational association with headquarters in Austin.

The seminar, entitled Texas Notary Law and Procedures covers all the duties and responsibilities of the commissioned notary. Applicable statutes, including the "new law" effective September 1987, are thoroughly explained. Course and reference material are provided for complete understanding.

Completion of the seminar not only assures the individual notary of knowledge, professionalism and legality of service but also assures the public and employers that notaries know how to competently perform the duties of an individual state officer appointed by the Secretary of State.

"The best protection against business liability is education of notaries that handle the thousands of business transactions in this state daily," Ruhmann said. Notaries successfully completing the course will also be designated a Certified Public Notary (CPN).

Record maintenance, posting of fees, proper charges and proper steps of notarial service, authority for acknowledgments, oaths, certification, identifying instruments and proper recording and identification of signatures and the use of stamps and seals will be thoroughly covered. Call 512/346-7428 for information on the courses in your area or call your area junior college.

DENTAL PROGRESS

FACTS FROM THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF DENTAL RESEARCH

Seal Out Dental Decay

Cavities may soon be a thing of the past, thanks to fluoride and plastic sealants which prevent the start of tooth decay.

Here's something to smile about: Experts say tooth decay can be nearly eliminated these days with the combined use of fluoride and protecting the teeth with plastic sealants. Sealants are representative of the continuing efforts by the National Institute of Dental Research, one of the National Institutes of Health, celebrating its 40th anniversary this year, to make better oral health possible for you and your family.

Nearly 90 percent of cavities in school children occur in the surfaces of teeth with vulnerable pits and grooves, where fluoride is least effective. Such tooth decay can be prevented by sealing the teeth with a plastic film or resin to protect them from bacterial products produced when sugary foods are eaten. These sealants are made of acrylic resins, similar to material used for other dental procedures, such as to repair broken edges of front teeth.

Sealants have been shown to be both safe and effective. The application procedure is simple: The surfaces of molars and premolars to be sealed are first cleaned, etched with a mild acid to improve adhesion, washed and thoroughly dried. Then the sealant is painted on.

Many concerned parents are asking their dentists if this decay-preventive method is suitable for their children. Most would agree that keeping teeth healthy and free of decay with sealants is preferable to the costs and problems caused by repairing dental cavities.

Hints for Homemakers

Quick and easy cole-slaw: Serve up this side dish in seconds by taking three cups of cabbage, cut into one-inch chunks. Place into blender. Cover with cold water, cover container and process on Grind for 2 seconds. Toss with a flavored mayonnaise and serve. Yield: 1-1/2 cups.

Feeding the smallest member of your family needn't be a big task. Home preparation of nutritious baby foods can be a breeze with the Osterizer blender's exclusive pulse action. It ensures that baby's food is processed to a uniform texture and smooth consistency. For infants, fruits and vegetables are usually mixed with formula and processed in the blender to a very fine, semi-liquid state. For fruity cottage cheese, process 1/3 cup cottage cheese, 1/3 cup fresh fruit and 1/4 cup orange or apple juice at Liquefy until smooth. The savings over commercial foods for little ones can be enormous.

Half-pint mini-blend containers are perfect for individual servings.

Caprock Comments

The drought is affecting everything... even the house-flies and mosquitoes are suffering. Seems they don't proliferate as well in dry weather; same as cotton, wheat, oats, and barley!

Summer is now here and we only have about three months of hot weather to look forward to. The Utilities people look forward to it with great anticipation while the general public looks to it in great consternation. Seen any electrical service bills lately?!

The nextdoor neighbor says when someone calls his wife and she isn't in, he always says, "She ain't home, listen for the click and then leave your message!"

By the time you read this, we will know who is National Basketball Champion. The season has been going on since sometime last fall. They have already fired three or four coaches... as they say, "It's fantastic!"

A local lady says that the real enjoyment of motherhood is when all the kids are in bed fast asleep!

We'd all be better off if they would make it just as hard to get into debt as it is to get out!

A man injured in an accident was asked why he didn't sue for damages... "I don't want damages," he said, "I've been damaged enough... what I want now is repairs!"

You can always look back and see where you've been, but it's pretty hard to look forward and see where you're going!

Conscience is that small sixth sense that comes to our aid when we are doing something wrong and tells you that you're about to get caught!

Seems that both our leading Presidential candidates have so many things wrong with them that it will be impossible for either one of them to get elected!

Say what you please, but there isn't anything wrong with the younger generation that getting married, becoming a parent, buying a house and everything else on the installment plan, and start paying taxes, won't cure!

When you reach middle-age, you're just as young as ever, only it takes a lot more effort!
