THEN & NOW!

How seriously do we take our responsibilities? Do we take them so lightly that we make many promises and never give any thought to carrying the promise out or do we take the yolk of responsibility so seriously that we never let up and have any fun? There has to be a middle road so that you can carry out your responsibility joyfully but not carelessly.

This past week I've been reading a book on the "family." Do we ever think of the awesome responsibility we have to our families, especially the children. If we knew all the problems to be faced with children--there probably would be fewer children born--but of course when you throw in the joy children bring to our lives, the troubles are nothing.

But back to our responsibility as a parent, we take on the job of loving, feeding, loving, nurturing, loving, educating and loving that tiny bit of humanity God lets us borrow for such a short time. As we go through all the stages of our children developing, we sometimes feel they will never outgrow certain habits that we dislike but then one day we turn around and bingo--they are all grown up and out on their own with families of their own. Yep, our responsibility has disappeared! Right? Wrong! Once we have a child our responsibility never ends--it changes, yes but end--NO--even when we reach the stage of being dependent in certain ways on our child, we still have a responsibility to do the best we can for ourselves but still the loving should be there. This makes this awesome responsibility worthwhile.

Not only in families do we share responsibility but to our friends, neighbors, bosses, community, country and world. Each time we throw down a piece of trash, we are acting irresponsible--someone has to clean up our mess! When we don't vote, we aren't sharing the responsibility of keeping our country free!

Last week, I failed in my responsibility to you--I failed to check the front page article on Elgin Conner after it was placed on the front page. In putting it there we had to cut it apart and in putting it back together it got scrambled!

The last half should have read "Regardless of the size of the communities, they share common problems.

Senator Teel Bivins of Amarillo was on hand to discuss recent legislation that affects Texas cities. He also answered questions from the mayors in a round table discussion.

Also, during a concurrent meeting of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission, board of directors, Mayor Conner was appointed to a two-year term on the Solid Waste Task Force that is working to develop a regional plan for disposal of solid waste for the Panhandle of Texas."

My apology to Mayor Conner for this mix-up. I shall try to execute my "responsibility" to our community better in the future.

West Texas Utilities Company Gives Good News To Customers

Customers of West Texas Utilities Co. have some good news in the form of lower costs for electricity beginning with October bills. The lower costs are produced by a one-time credit and a reduction in the fuel cost portion of the bill.

"Our continuing efforts to lower boiler fuel costs and related transportation costs were successful and prompted the reduction," said, Keith Edwards WTU's area manager. Those efforts include renegotiation of supply and transportation agreements, construction of a gas pipeline to the Fort Phantom power station near Ailene to provide better access to suppliers, and improvements in the efficiency of some plants so they burn less fuel to make electricity.

The credit will be issued on customer's electric bills during the billing month of October. An average residential customer using 660 kilowatt hours of electricity will see a reduction of $13.17 on the bill that month. The actual reduction for each customer is based on their previous month's use of electricity.

The reduction in the fuel portion of the electric bill will be in effect for all upcoming months. According to Edwards it will mean an average 3.5 percent reduction from costs last year.

The Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUCT) recently granted the company's request to reconcile fuel costs for April 1987 through December 1990 and adjust the fuel portion of the bill to recover projected fuel costs. WTU filed the request last February.

West Texas Utilities Co. serves 177,000 customers in a 52 county area that stretches from the Red River to the Rio Grande.

Sales Tax Permit Abolished October 1

"New businesses that are scheduled to open their doors on or after October 1 and have already paid the $25 sales tax permit fee, will have their money refunded," State Comptroller John Sharp says. "The same applies to existing businesses that have already filed to have their sales tax permit renewed on or after October 1."

The refunds coincide with the announcement that the annual $25 sales tax filing fee paid to the Comptroller's Office is abolished, effective October 1.

"Not only will the $25 fee be abolished, but we're also going to issue a sales tax permit to a business for an indefinite period of time. As long as they are making sales and sending their taxes to the state, businesses won't be required to renew those permits every year, as they are now," Sharp said.

Beginning October 1, the permits will only be cancelled if a taxpayer reports no sales or taxable purchases to the state for a year's time, or if the business does not file its sales tax returns and remit the taxes it collected to the state.

Hewett, Smith Unite

MRS. JERRY BRANDON SMITH

Amy Lynne Hewett and Jerry Brandon Smith were married in a 7 p.m. ceremony August 31, 1991 at First Baptist Church in Quitaque, Texas. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Hewett of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smith of Turkey.

The bride's brother Jonathan Hewett of First Baptist Church, Seminole, lead the couple in their vows before a white trellis interlaced with fresh greenery which formed an arch above a fan-shaped candelabra. The altar was flanked by two heart-shaped stands each glowing with 17 tapered candles.

Providing music on the organ and piano were Amy's aunt and uncle, Jane Hewett, Plainview and Bob Hewett, Amarillo. Soloists were Iva June Johnson who accompanied herself as she sang "There is Love" and "There Lies a Difference" and Jane Hewett sang "the Lord's Prayer" as the couple concluded their vows.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her dad. Her bouquet was of large white lilies, german status and lemon leaf. The bridal aisle was marked with white taffeta bows. Her formal gown of candlelight satin was yoked in imported net which was applied front and back with hand-beaded aloncon lace. The bodice's back keyhole opening was draped with beaded pearls and aloncon lace. The lace trimmed puffed satin sleeves were inset with beaded pearls and lace. The chapel train and skirt were applied with lace and pearls and scalloped around the bottom. Her veil's headpiece of silk flowers and sprays of pearls was attached to a layered poof with filament edge and was fingertip length.

Sarah Hewett of Dallas was her sister's maid of honor. Sandra Price of Canyon and Michelle House of Lubbock were her bridesmaids. They wore waltz length and puffed sleeve dresses with black more bodices and full white taffeta skirts. A large white bow accented the cut-out backs of their dresses. They each carried bouquets of white lilies.

At the start of the service, Norma Hewett and Brenda Smith, mothers of the bride and groom lighted the parent's unity candles and were escorted to their seats. The mothers' corsages were white gerber daisies accented with beaded pearls.

Catherine Hewett, the bride's niece, was flower girl. Her dress was styled "little girl fashion" after the bridesmaids and she carried a white lace basket tied with tiny black and white bows. Gaven Gray of Bothell, Washington and cousin to the bride was ring bearer. Two rings were attached to a white lace-edged pillow that he carried. Gaven's black bow tie and cummerbund matched the other men's black tuxedos.

Best man was Jason Smith of Turkey, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Derek Mullin of Lubbock, cousin of the groom and Shane House of Turkey.

Ushers were Joe Morrison of Canyon and Brandon Eddleman of Canyon. Brandon also served as candle lighter beside Shadi Mullin, cousin to the groom. Shadi's dress was identical to the bridesmaid's. Lacy Shannon sat at the guest registry.

A reception was held after the ceremony in fellowship hall at the church. After greeting the new couple and their parents in the receiving line, guests moved to the bride's table for servings of punch and the tiered wedding cake which was topped by a "Precious Moments" bridal couple. A groom's table was also handsomely and deliciously provided.

Servers at the reception were Melissa Maupin, Coree Price, Kelley Williams, Kayla Johnson, Leigh Barton and Susie Farley. Other houseparty members were Butch Brannan, uncle to the groom, who made the wedding cake; Margie Pinkerton and Susie House.

Out of town guest included Mr. and Mrs. Farris Martin, Inadale, grandparents of the groom; Rena Schott, Silverton, great aunt of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Berry, Tulsa, great aunt and uncle of the bride. The host of close family members and friends attending the happy event also included the ring bearer smother and sister, Jenny and Courtney Gray who came the longest distance for the wedding.

After a honeymoon trip to the Jack Tar Village at Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Brandon Smith are at home in Canyon where Brandon attends West Texas State University. Amy commutes to Amarillo for her job as a hair stylist in Penney's Westgate Salon. Brandon also has a part-time job at Coulter Gardens Nursery in Amarillo.

Valley JV Loses First Game Of Season

by Coach Browning

After playing very well the first half, which ended in a 14 to 14 tie, we just were unable to come up with the big plays and Lazbuddie did. Defensively we played hard the entire game but we had some mental breakdowns and at times we did a poor job of tackling. The effort was there and our kids never quit and were hitting as hard at the end as they were at the beginning of the game.

Offensively we moved the ball at times but always seemed to be our own worst enemy by getting a penalty, fumbling, or getting the play mixed up. We were able to score a couple of touchdowns early in the game but just could not manage to get the ball in the end zone again even though we did get inside their 10 yard line two other times.

This week we are going to spend time working on blocking and play execution to get ready to get back on the winning track against McLean's

JV Thursday night October 3.

Friday night, at halftime, before the routine, the Pep Squad chose Lawrence Hendrix, escorted by April Brittan, as Pep Squad Hero. The other three nominees were Cory Pointer escorted by Mandy Adams, Chad Powell escorted by Audra House and Tommy Pinkerton escorted by Julie Clay.
