THREE HUNDRED RABBITS KILLED IN DRIVE TUESDAY

Last Tuesday G. W. Cunningham, Jean Adams, Marvin Lawrence, Marvin Thorn and Rev. R. O. Baily of Cross Plains joined a party of citizens of the Mitchell and Cross community in a rabbit drive, and report having destroyed about three hundred of the pests.

DE LEON MEN BACK FROM FT. STOCKTON

C. E. Anderson, Sid Farrow, Bob Black and Arch Hansford made a trip to Fort Stockton this week to personally investigate the oil situation there. They remained in that city just two hours, found the situation largely speculative and while they will watch developments with interest, there is nothing at present to prove the presence of a big oil find there.

It is true that oil in paying quantities is being produced from a well only 96 feet deep. But other tests have been drilled north and east a few hundred feet from the 96-foot well and have found nothing. A well 1,200 feet deep, drilled some twenty years ago and capped, is only twenty feet away from the new producer, and it is believed by many that the oil coming from the new well is really coming from this older and deeper well, as it is a fact that the 1200-foot well got some oil when drilled, but has since been tied up in a law suit.

The well is sixteen miles northeast of Fort Stockton. A big earthen tank has been filled with oil, also seven or eight flow tanks, according to C. E. Anderson. However, this well may prove a "freak" and play out soon.—De Leon Free Press.

C. D. Beard, owner of the Dressy gin, was in town on Tuesday. Mr. Beard states that his gin has put out eleven hundred bales the past season. He states that the best season he ever had was in 1906 when he ginned about twenty four hundred bales. There is, roughly estimated, about 250 bales to be picked in the Dressy country as yet.

ANOTHER GOOD WELL BRINGS HILBURN FIELD ONE MILE NEARER CROSS PLAINS

ANOTHER WELL TO DRILL NEAR GOOCH

J. M. Senter of Fort Worth, B. J. Johnson and T. A. Baker of Cleburne have recently closed a deal for a lease on 433 acres near the Gooch well, which is located about three miles southeast of Cross Plains and near Pioneer. It is authoratively stated that they will begin drilling another well near the Gooch within the next two or three weeks. These parties are experienced oil men, have the capital with which to do things and their close watch on the Gooch well and the course of developments in this direction from the Hilburn field has insured them safety in taking on the extensive drilling campaign which they will soon commence on their acreage.

The Gooch No. 1, owned by Litzinger and associates, which came in a gusher about three months ago, was experiencing water trouble which completely shut of the production of oil the first of this week. This water, we are informed, is entering through a defect in the packer at the bottom of the eight-inch casing, and can be overcome with proper efforts.

The Gooch well was placed on the pump shortly after it ceased as a gusher, and for some time has been producing about fifty barrels per day. The superintendent of the pumping at this well informs us that during the month in which he has been with it preceeding this recent trouble, it produced one thousand barrels of good grade oil, filling the two 500 barrel capacity metal tanks.

The first well to be drilled by the new parties entering this field will be located a short distance northeast of the Gooch well and on a line with the Alvin well, which was temporarily abandoned on account of collapsed casing.

Buy a New Home Sewing Machine. Pay $10.00 down and the balance on installments, at B. L. Boydston's.

What promises to be another good well, and one that adds brightness to the belief that the Hilburn field is extending in the direction of Cross Plains, was proven the first of this week when the Magnolia well, located on the Collier tract of land, penetrated the oil sand at about the same depth as that of the Hilburn well, which came in a gusher at 3,100 feet. Drilling on the Collier well was stopped when the drill penetrated the sand only six inches and it came in a steady producer. When shot at this depth or drilled a few feet deeper its owners are of the opinion it will be the best well in the Hilburn field. The location of this well in 1 1/2 mile southwest of the Hilburn No. 1, and brings the field one mile nearer Cross Plains. The best of oil men seem now convinced beyond a doubt that the best developments from the Hilburn field will come directly south and southwest.

There are sixteen producing wells in the Cross Plains-Hilburn field, with everything running smooth for the Harris and Harve Vestal wells to be brought in within the next few weeks. Exclusive of the producers there are forty other wells drilling in the immediate Hilburn field, and three others drilling in the Cross Plains locality. Forty new locations have been made in the Hilburn field, on which rigs are building and material being placed.

CLINT RUTHERFORD DEAD

W. C. (Clint) Rutherford, for a number of years a resident of Cross Plains, died at his home in Roswell, New Mexico, on the 8th of January, 1921. His death had not been unexpected, as he left this place some eighteen months ago for El Paso on account of his health, later going to Roswell. He was twenty nine years of age, was a member of the Methodist church, and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He was reared at Scranton where his parents still reside. Coming to Cross Plains in 1911, when the railroad came here. He worked for the Shackelford lumber yard for a while, going thence to Putnam.

For a number of years he was engaged in the furniture business in this place, and was successful in the same. He served for one or two terms as mayor of the town. He leaves his wife and a daughter, Evelyn, about seven years of age, and many other relatives and friends to mourn his untimely death.

COTTON GINNED IN CALLAHAN COUNTY

A report received this week from S. E. Webb, county agent of the Department of Commerce, shows that 15,005 bales of cotton of the 1920 crop have been ginned in Callahan county, compared to 9,964 ginned from the 1919 crop.

Mrs. B. G. Lindley gave her daughter, Cozette, a party on Monday afternoon in celebration of her sixth natal day. Quite a number of little friends were in attendance and a nice time reported.

THE REVIEW PURCHASED BY LOCAL MEN.

It is not without a touch of sadness that the writer, the retiring owner of the Review, gives up his connection with the paper. An association with the business men of Cross Plains and the good citizens of the town and the surrounding county for a term of eight years and four months, in one capacity, is hard to sever. We esteem the great majority of these folk as our friends, and some of them rather close friends. The people have demonstrated that a newspaper is a necessity for the community, by their loyal support in every department of the paper. If the job printing could have been given to the business in a little more liberal spirit by some of the firms of the town, we would feel that our relationship here had been good indeed.

Our plans for the future are not well matured as yet, but we will remain in Cross Plains for some time, at least.

L. P. Henslee.

The purchase of the Review by myself and associates in the deal, all local men of Cross Plains, from Mr. Henslee, was consummated last Saturday, and it begins this week under new ownership and management. As the business justifies, it is the intention of the management to make every improvement possible in its publication. Mr. S. M. Buatt, who has been with the paper the greater part of the past two years, will continue to assist in the editorial and general work connected with its publication.

Had it Ever Occurred to You?

Had it ever occurred to you that you had as well try to be a successful physician without attending a medical school, or a successful lawyer without attending a law school, or a successful minister without attending a theological school, as to try to be a successful banker or merchant or business man of any kind without first being trained for business in the Tyler Commercial College. You would attend a university with a reputation if you wanted to make a first class doctor, lawyer or minister. Why not use the same good judgment in selecting a business school in which to secure your training? The Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, is the business university of the South; it enrolls more students annually than any other similar school in America. Its students have come from 39 different states and seven foreign countries; its graduates are holding the very best of positions in the leading cities of the United States.

If you will spend from $150.00 to $250.00 for tuition, board and books for a course of Shorthand, Book-keeping, Telegraphy, Cotton Classing, or Business Finance, or better still, spend $200.00 to $300. and complete any three of these courses, you will have made the best investment of your life. What young man or woman with grit and determination cannot raise this amount? Hundreds of students who borrowed every cent of the money to attend this school, or gave their note for part of their tuition, will readily tell you it was the best venture of their lives; they were soon able, through the good position secured them by the college, to pay what they owed and continue to hold their good positions or go into business for themselves and succeed. If you always remain where you are, you will always be what you are. Think this statement over seriously. More than 300 new students, before this month closes, will be added to the fifteen hundred that are now here. Why not you be among the number? You can enter any day and take up the work. For large free catalogue, verifying the above claims and more fill in and mail.

LATHE TURNS MASTS FOR SHIPS.

What is virtually a combination lathe and planer of gigantic size taking work upward of 100 feet in length, is the interesting shipyard tool invented in Georgia, that is making new records in the manufacture of masts and spars, says Popular Mechanics Magazine in an illustrated story. The big stick of timber, to be turned into a mast is centered between two tallstocks, one at each end, and supported at the center in an internal-gear chuck, which, driven by a 25-horsepower motor, revolves it at 18 r. p. m. The two cutting-head carriages, electrically propelled, travel on rails between the center and ends of the timber moving at the rate of three, six or twelve feet a minute.

OCCUPATION FOR BLIND.

Since an adding-machine operator seldom looks at the keys after he has become familiar with them, it is evident that blindness need be no insuperable bar to the use of such an instrument, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. To remove what obstacles there are, a blind inventor in California has devised an attachment with which he is able to operate an adding machine, and read his totals without trouble. An auxiliary keyboard is mounted on two parallel rods above the regular keys, and the cover glass is removed from the totaling dial.

PILGRIM STAMP ISSUE.

Pilgrim tercentenary commemorative postage stamps were announced recently by the Post Office department. The stamps are issued in three denominations, 1 cent, in green, showing the Mayflower; 2-cent, red, "Landing of the Pilgrims," and 5-cent, blue, "Signing of the Compact."

ODD NAMES FOR NEW COLORS

Pimento Red and Tangerine Yellow Are Among Others in the List This Year.

"The bride wore honeydew tulle, with pimento trimmings, tastefully set off by an endive veil. Chipendale shoes and bamboo stockings added an unusual touch to the costume."

Yes, it's going to be a hard life for the society editors, remarks the Louisville Courier-Journal. They'll have to write descriptions like the paragraph above when the 1921 style colors arrive. After becoming proficient they should be able to get work writing nice things to put under the beautiful fairyland pictures of the seed catalogues.

Really, there's no exaggeration.

An official statement from the Textile Color Card association of the United States, which co-operates with the associations of clothing manufacturers in bringing out new shades, gives a list of new colors which reads like a combination garden guide, sport page and geography.

There are 66 "standard" colors for silks, 12 for woolens and 10 for shoes.

Most of them are gay and festive, such as pimento red, tangerine yellow, oasis green and resolute blue. However, browns also will be popular. Some of the shades will be caramel, bamboo, raffia and Mexican. Copper browns will be known as Navajo, Algonquin and Mohawk.

DO NOT UNDERSTAND HEROISM

Why Certain Group of Authors Hold Odd Views Concerning Conduct of People in War.

Since the end of the war a certain group of authors have been vehemently asserting that all the actions of men and women during the struggle must be attributed to hysteria, remarks the London Express.

"Men were not heroic, they were merely high strung."

"Women did not weep for grief, but because of excitement."

So they go on, these sages, stripping memory of its solace, robbing mankind of its trust in mankind.

What is the reason?

What is behind the earnest desire to discredit their fellow beings?

It is because these authors did not grow with the war. The spectacle of men dying for an ideal throws out their whole scheme of thought.

In their books humanity is depicted as petty, vulgar, unclean and selfish. They cannot go on writing until they convince themselves that the greatness we all saw in human nature is a lie.

And they call what they write the real truth.

TRADING WITH THE CHINESE.

Our trade with China is increasing with leaps and bounds. The exports from Shanghai to the United States during the first six months of the present year were valued at $48,985,858 gold, an increase of $15,307,067 over the same period last year. Swift changes in values in the last year and the fluctuations of the rate of exchange are shown by the trade in raw silk. In the first six months of 1919, 2,389,611 pounds of raw silk, valued at $11,718,613, were shipped from Shanghai. In the first six months' period this year the quantity of silk shipped dropped to 1,394,613 pounds, but the value mounted to $14,468,415.

MALTESE FORM COLONY.

The most recent foreign-born colony to spring up in the United States is that of Maltese immigrants, who have settled in Detroit, Mich. Before the war there were less than 100 immigrants from the Island of Malta living in Detroit. Today, it is reported, there are more than 4,000.

The growth, while rapid, escaped notice until recently, when several hundred of the Maltese decided to organize a society for mutual acquaintance to keep alive the traditions of the home island and to better their conditions here.

A BAD ENDING.

"America," said the young man with a poetic light in his eye, "is the land where dreams come true."

"I wouldn't advise you to make a remark like that," said the hard-headed man of affairs, "to one of our prominent Bolsheviks on the eve of deportation. He might not agree with you."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

HI-JACKERS SHOWING UP IN RISING STAR OIL FIELD

The fact that hi-jackers are beginning to show up is an indication that the Rising Star oil field has grown to large proportions.
