BLAST KILLS BURKETT WOMAN

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

The Great Lafayette will display his antics on a high wire in Cross Plains, Saturday, June third. He informs this department that he will stretch a wire from the top of the Citizens State Bank building to the top of the Farmers building and walk across with a local girl on his shoulders.

Of course he doesn't plan on falling but if he should, the drop would be just a mere 40 feet, landing on a nice, soft concrete street. What a peaceful pastime.

And Miss Lella Mae Bennett, who reports Society for this erstwhile newspaper, has agreed to ride Lafayette's shoulders, while he tip toes about on that narrow wire, 40 feet in the sky.

Frankly, we wanted to have her head examined but mere mention of the fact brought her wrath upon us. Hence, no more has been said about it.

We have a good one on Jay Mayes this week. Monday he went to Abilene, to meet his brother Claude, who was returning home from naval service at California for a brief vacation. Jay walked over the bus station and was waiting around, when he saw three gobs enter a cafe.

One of the fellows was small and rather rotund, just about the size of Claude. Without the slightest thought of being mistaken, Jay rushed over, grabbed the seaman and bestowed an admiring kiss upon his cheek.

About nine tenths sore and even more baffled, the sailor turned around—it was not Claude—and addressed Jay with strong, harsh words, known only to men of the salty seas. Jay was so dumfounded that he merely ducked his head and sneaked away.

School is out today and the school 'mams' will bid their devoted admirers 'adios'. We sometimes wonder if the solitude of Summer months is what makes 'Slim' McNeal long for the wide open spaces, where he can hear the lonesome call of coyotes at eventide.

We have given the problem much thought and finally concluded that 'Slim' likes the mournful howl of the wolves because the beasts express his feeling so vividly. He says that a coyote's call is the most beautiful music he ever heard. Can you feature that? No of course not.

And in speaking of the school teachers departing, we also extend our sympathies and regrets to Dave Lee. His 'one and only' wont be back next year and Dave will probably get groucher than ever.

After hours of fruitless searching among time colored copies of old Cross Plains Reviews, this department has at last found a report of a baseball

Total of the moisture netted more than one inch in the city limits of Cross Plains, and even heavier rains are reported in other adjacent communities.

Farmers declare that no more rain is needed for the time being and that ample seasoning is ready in the earth to give a good start.

Dryden To Walk Wire 40 Feet High With Rider Here Saturday June 3

'Bunny Dryden', known in theatrical circles as The Great Lafayette, will display his ability on high and low wires in Cross Plains, Saturday, June third. His exhibitions will be held on Main Street, with out charge, as a compliment to citizens of this trade territory by Cross Plains merchants.

Dryden is one of the best known performers of his type in the nation today. He has received international publicity on several occasions in the Ripley, 'Believe it or Not' column, which appears in hundreds of the world's largest publications. He has filled headline engagements at the Palace Theater, New York, which is regarded by showmen as the zenith of vaudeville and theatrical achievement.

Dryden has been seen in Cross Plains before but his stunts Saturday week, will be of entirely different nature and far more dangerous, he has informed the Review. The feature of his two exhibitions—one in morning and one in afternoon—will be to walk a wire stretched from the top of the Citizens State Bank building across Main Street to the top of the Farmers National Bank building. He told a representative of the Review Tuesday that he would carry a local girl on his shoulders as he accomplished the hazardous feat.

Aside from his breath taking stunts on the wire, Dryden is endowed with scores of other unusual abilities, from which he will choose the repertoire of his performance here.

He is one of the few men—if not the only—who can burst a new inner tube with lung power. Dryden also bends 60 penny nails in his hands like hairpins.

This unusual artist is being brought to Cross Plains to render his best, by Cross Plains merchants, who have already pledged themselves to pay for the event.

J. H. KEMPER, EARLY SETTLER HERE, DIES TUESDAY MORNING

Interment Made In Cottonwood Cemetery; Services Held From Baptist Church

J. H. Kemper, a pioneer resident of this section, was interred in final rest in the Cottonwood cemetery Tuesday afternoon, beside his wife, who predeceased him in death 11 years. Funeral service was conducted by Reverends, Foster and Darby, from the Cross Plains Baptist Church.

Mr. Kemper succumbed shortly after two o'clock Tuesday morning of a stomach ailment. He had been ill only a short while and was taken to a Santa Anna hospital the day before his death for an examination. He died at the home of Mrs. Massie Wright, his daughter.

Surviving are five children, four of which were present at the funeral.

Joel Henson Kemper was born February 15, 1862, in Boone County, Indiana. He came to Texas, settling in this section early in life. Mr. Kemper was a pioneer business man in Cross Plains and it is for him that the Kemper Hotel here is named.

At the funeral service, nephews were pall bearers and grand-daughters were flower girls.

T. S. Holden is 'rigging up' for a well to be drilled to the Pioneer sand on the J. W. Newton farm, three miles South of Cross Cut. The test is being promoted by the Producers Investment Company, of Oklahoma.

A national rig will be used to drill the well. Operations are expected to get under way by the middle of Next week.

WILL RESUME WORK ON OPTIMISTIC WELL

Optimistic Oil Company's test, on the E. I. Vestal farm, two miles North of town, is expected to get under way sometime next week, according to C. D. Lane one of the investors in the project. The well was spudded two weeks ago but work has been held up since, pending an advancement in the price of crude oil and a general clearing of price disputes.

The test is located 600 feet from the old Vestal, which camp in for 700 barrels here a number of years ago. The contract calls for the drilling of the well approximately 2,000 feet.

CELEBRATED 'DRY' SPEAKS HERE SUNDAY

Atticus Webb, Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, spoke to a packed house at the Baptist Church here Sunday night, in a rally of Cross Plains United Forces For Prohibition.

He stressed the main items of taxes and value of young men and women against revenue received from the sale of alcoholic beverages. "For every dollar received for taxes, several would be spent for liquor", he stated emphatically.

"Texas 'drys' are getting in line for a big fight against the repeal movement to be voted upon August 26", Mr. Webb informed the Large audience.

BLOWN FROM CELLAR WHEN GAS EXPLODES LATE TUESDAY NITE

Lyn Brown Burns Trying To Remove Ingited Clothes From His Wife

Mrs. Lyn Brown, about 30, died Wednesday morning in a Santa Anna hospital of injuries sustained Tuesday night when gas in a storm cellar exploded, throwing her outside, severely burned and bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who live one mile Southwest of Burkett, had been watching a cloud Tuesday night and decided to get their two small sons and take refuge in a newly built storm cellar. Mrs. Brown ran outside, opened the cellar door and entered the steps, where she paused to make a light. Gas which had collected there, exploded, throwing her outside fatally injured. The accident occurred about ten-thirty Tuesday night.

Mr. Brown ran to his wife's rescue and began tearing off her clothes, which were aflame. His hands were burned considerably.

A Burkett physician was summoned and administered treatment. Mrs. Brown was then placed in an automobile and rushed to a Santa Anna hospital, where she expired Wednesday morning.

Interment was made Thursday in a Santa Anna cemetery, beside the grave of a twin son, who was killed in an automobile wreck between Cross Plains and Pioneer about two years ago.

Mrs. Brown is survived by her husband, two young sons and a number of relatives at Bangs, her former home.

Gas Line Near Cellar

Authorities were unable to say Wednesday afternoon, whether the gas collecting in the storm cellar, at the Brown home, was due to an excessive amount of natural gas in the air at Burkett—escaping about oil wells—or from probable leaks in a line which runs nearby the cellar, where the accident happened.

A local authority on natural gas told the Review yesterday that in damp weather gas is liable to form out of the atmosphere in any low enclosure.

GULF'S NEW MOTOR OIL TEXAS PRODUCTS

Here's one of the most remarkable stories, as well as one that is of special interest to all the people of Texas. Three years ago the Gulf Refining Company engineers made a discovery of revolutionary importance to the oil industry. A discovery so advanced, so significant, that it made possible a finer, longer-lived motor oil than the industry had ever seen.

This discovery was an utterly new refining process—the now famous Alchlor Process, exclusive with Gulf. The oil made by it is called Gulfpride.

At first it was possible to produce only limited quantities of this new and remarkable oil. But so amazingly outstanding was its quality that—utterly without advertising and publicity—its fame spread throughout the United States and all foreign nations. It came into universal demand wherever the finest motor lubrication was sought.

Gulfpride has now proved itself beyond question the finest motor oil in the world. This oil is manufactured in the Gulf Refinery in Port Arthur, Texas. It has established seventeen world's records! It has surpassed every set of specifications ever issued for a motor oil, including U. S. Army, U. S. Navy and British Government.

Gulfpride is now in demand in all corners of the earth and shipped to all points from Port Arthur, Texas, where it is manufactured.

Lady Took Cardui And Got Rid of Pain In Her Side

"Last summer, my health was bad, so I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. H. E. Slaughter, of Norman, Okla. "My mother had given me Cardui in girlhood, so naturally I turned to it when I felt I needed it. I felt run-down and a general weakness. I had bad, dizzy headaches when everything would seem to dance before my eyes. My right side pained me so much, but since taking Cardui the pain has left me. I have taken several bottles of Cardui and have improved a great deal."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

The current extensive advertising campaign of the Gulf Refining Company now appearing in Texas newspapers is stressing this oil and, too, the fact that Gulf stations sell three-grades of oil and gasoline at three different prices, ranging from the buying power of the motorist who wants a low priced gasoline or oil, but wants the most possible value for the money, to the motorist who wants the very best regardless of cost.

Will Rogers can be heard on the air every Sunday evening on the Gulf Refining Company radio program at 7:00 P. M. and Irvin S. Cobb on Wednesday and Friday evenings at the same hour. A weekly comic paper is distributed free at all Gulf stations.

FUNERAL NOTICES

Funeral notices are something of which none of us wish to think, and as a result they are often forgotten with the funeral arrangements. It is an item that should not be overlooked.

The Review Publishing Company is thoroughly stocked along this line.

Aubra Dodson Writes From The Capitol

Well, I have been gone from Austin for some time. Arrived back here Saturday night and came up to the halls of our state government about opening time (10 o'clock) Monday morning.

A Representative has offered a bill to change the bird shooting season in Texas, from eight weeks to six. Well, he had no more than submitted his idea when the fireworks started. I never realized before that our legislators were so well informed about birds. Why those fellows know when doves lay the first egg in the Spring and just when the last one is hatched. But one thing they overlooked is that no one has money enough to buy shells to shoot birds with.

They have been pretty fair to the fight fans here. They hold fights in the House of Representatives during the day and in hotel lobbies at night. Well, I am sitting here in the house gallery at 4:30 and have heard debates on the bird bill all day. After all this arguing they have decided to leave the law as it was.

A Representative has just introduced a bill to tax chain stores and the fight is on, after some hot debates. When the bill was voted on it went over 94 to 25. This is the biggest majority on anything since they voted to pay their first week's salaries and travelling expenses.

The Representatives all went in together and bought Speaker Coke Stevenson a most beautiful saddle and riding accessories. Well, they sure owed it to him and should have included a horse with their gift. He has the patience of Job. He stands there with a smile and a twinkle in his eye while they wrangle, argue and explode. And when the time comes to rule, he does so with the same smile and soft, but firm voice.

Folks, Cecil has made many friends among the Representatives. They all tell you in the gallery that the 'little Jew' down there is sure working for the people back home.

Must say 'adios' for the present. Will let you hear from me again soon.

Aubra C. Dodson.

"RENDER UNTO CAESAR"

"TEACHER, we know that you speak the truth," said the jealous "Pharisees and Herodians," and that you don't care anything about the authority or office which a man holds. You treat them all alike, and speak your mind bluntly because you get your thoughts direct from God.

"Now, tell us, is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar or not?"

Very clever, gentlemen, very clever, indeed. If Jesus answers that it isn't lawful, you will have the record of his reply in Herod's hands in an hour; and instantly he will be under arrest for propagating rebellion against the Roman power; if he answers that it is lawful, he will lose his popular following. Because the people hate the Romans, and dodge the taxes at every turn—very, very clever.

He looked at them with frank contempt, as if to say, "Do you really think I am quite as simple as all that?"

"Somebody lend me a coin," he exclaimed. An eager listener dug into his pocket and produced it. Jesus held it up where all could see.

"Whose picture is that?" he demanded. "Whose name?"

They began to be uneasy. The shrewdest suspected that the path was leading toward the precipice, yet there was no escape. They must answer. "Caesar's," they replied.

"Very good," said he ironically. "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's."

Another repulse for the best legal talent in the city—another good laugh for the crowd—another story to tell in the taverns, in the Temple court, in the market place . . . wherever the common folks crowded together—Says the narrative describing the defeated questioners "they marveled greatly at him"—and in another place—"and no man after that durst ask him any question." Every objection had been turned back upon the objectors; every trap had sprung upon the fingers of those who set it. No argument was left for them except the final one which is always a confession of failure. They had the brute force on their side. They could not stand against his thinking but they could, and did, nail him on the cross.

Not on a time, however. Not until his work was finished. Not until he had trained and equipped a force would carry on with double power because of the very fact of his death. Every year in our country there are thousands of conventions—political, charitable, business. Most of them are a waste. They are conducted on the false assumption that over-selling and exaggeration are potent forces—that the energies of men respond most powerfully to promises of easy victory and soft rewards. The great leaders of the world have known better.

WEBBVILLE 9 TRIMS
CROSS PLAINS 4-0
SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Webbville and Cross Plains baseball teams fought out an almost hitless ball game on the local diamond Sunday afternoon, in which the visitors took a four to nothing decision to add to their already abundant string of victories and no defeats. Only three hits were credited by both delegations and Webbville got all of them.

Features of the game were ragged playing in every department by Cross

Plains and consistent teamwork and headplay by the visitors.

Two pitchers faced Cross Plains batters and both displayed more than enough ability to make 'suckers' out of the complete team. 38 strikeouts are chalked up against the two squads.

The nearest Cross Plains came to making a safe hit was in the seventh inning when Bill Sheehan hit a long hard fly to deep center field. J. Gray roaming that garden for the visitors, made a neat catch however to help his pitching team-mates in their afternoon's work.

Lineups were as follow. E. Webb, first base; Adams, catcher; M. Gray, second; J. Gray, center field; Golson; left field; F. Gray, third base; P. Golson, right field and Laws, pitcher. Cross Plains; Ray, catcher; Scott, Pitcher; Davidson, first base; Davis, second base; Burkett, third; Bingham, short stop; Walker, left field. Yarbrough, center field and Sheehan, right field.

Walter Rudloff and wife visited in Gouldebuske Sunday.

Miss Vivian Jennings and Dave Lee visited in Coleman Tuesday night.

Truett Loveless and J. T. Freeman were in Eastland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Spurlin Freeman were in Brownwood Sunday.

Water-Heater

When you turn your "hot water" faucet you want . . . and NEED . . . an adequate supply of piping hot water. That, however, is only the primary requisite. If you can get this constant supply of hot water inexpensively, automatically and with perfect safety at all times, isn't that a perfect combination?

The modern ELECTRIC water heater gives you a surplus of hot water, and for good measure adds safety, cleanliness, health, dependability, quiet, comfort and convenience. Contrast these advantages with the flame noise, fumes, soot, smoke and odors of old-fashioned methods.

Ask a trained representative to show you the beautiful new electric water heaters now on display. They are equipped with emergency reliefs for both temperature and pressure . . . they offer all the well-known advantages of modern automatic electric water heating. . . they operate on the new "constant hot water service" plan that means LOW COST to you . . . and prices and terms are especially attractive!

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule . . . and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Tire Prices may never be so Low again!

GOODYEAR certainly makes it worth while for you to put money in tires now. Your dollars never bought tires to equal the quality, the safety, the mileage which Goodyear is today building in every tire wearing the Goodyear name—

And because Goodyear now concentrates on two main lines of tires—a real saving in costs is passed on to you.

Look at present prices of the world's most popular tire, the Goodyear All-Weather—and the prices of the thrifty Goodyear Pathfinder—and you'll certainly agree, it's smart to buy Goodyears NOW—while prices are still down close to bottom, and your money buys more than it may ever buy again.

Millions of people will have their first opportunity to see an automobile being built, when they visit this mammoth room where the Chevrolet Motor Company will assemble "Master Six" coaches and coupes in the special General Motors Building at "A Century of Progress" exposition. On the left, Fisher bodies are being fabricated on a "J" shaped line and on the right, Chevrolets are being assembled from the bare frame to the completed car, ready to be driven out of the building under their own power. Note, in the center of the photograph, the body being swung from the end of the Fisher line over to its place on a Chevrolet chassis. Visitors may purchase cars built here and drive them home.

Friends Eulogize Memory Of Late Mrs. Tom Bruce

In Loving Memory Of Mrs. T. J. Bruce

On May 16th at the Graham Hospital at Cisco, Texas, God saw fit to take away the blooming flower of our community, on wafted wings to her eternal home.

Ethel wasn't sick but a few days, in which her condition proved fatal. She regained consciousness only when her relatives would call her, she would answer in the most noble and sweetest smile that only God could inspire.

She was a devoted Christian and a member of the Missionary Baptist Church at Cross Plains. She was always at her place, never was called upon for duty that she didn't more than lend a helping hand. Her greatest desire in life was helping others in sickness and sorrow, and as I write this it makes tears come to my eyes, her friends and neighbors where her life was centered in helping them back to health and happiness in the most noble way God inspired her to do.

Ethel was a faithful member to her lodge, and in memory of the office she held, her faithful sisters paid their last respect in beautiful love and friendship as they gathered around her grave and gave their parting words.

Ethel was 44 years old a devoted wife to her husband and a loving sister to her brothers and sister and other relatives. Why the Lord saw fit to take her life, we do not know, but we do know he had a purpose, and he knows best. To her loved ones, I would say, she cannot come to you but you can go to her, she will be waiting for you.

May God bless you and comfort you. He alone can bind up your wounds and heal your broken hearts. One who knew and loved her as a neighbor and friend.

In Memory Of Ethel Bruce

In speaking of Mrs. Bruce, one can think of her only as one who lived for others; hers was an unselfish life in every respect. Self was disregarded in her great consideration of others. The writer can recall two instances within the last few weeks of her life wherein she stated that her greatest pleasure was in doing for her neighbors and friends.

No task was too great for her to undertake, and her work was above reproach, being always ready to help the sick and needy.

We cannot understand her untimely passing but if we could only penetrate that great realm of mystery we believe we could hear our Master say "well done thou good and faithful servant, come home."

We, who are left behind will miss her more than we can ever express and while our hearts are bleeding sore we can only say: Lord, Thy will be done, not ours.

Idea Number 3 For Summer Picnic

By Jack Scott

This is the third of a series of suggestory editorials published by the Review to stimulate interest in Cross Plains' annual picnic this summer, which will mark the fiftieth annual celebration on the banks of Turkey Creek by citizens of this and adjoining communities. It is the hope of the Review that some of the ideas set forth through these columns may be beneficial in making this year's celebration a fit commemoration of a half century's progress.

Nothing is more vital in making an event successful, than the program that is arranged for it. The plan will doubtless be for this year's picnic to include all former attractions as well as many others. But much life and enthusiasm can be added to our entertainment calendar this year by planning it early.

Last year former governors James E. Ferguson and Pat M. Neff told the entertainment committee that they would have been glad to have attended the Cross Plains picnic had they been advised earlier, but that practically all of their time was already taken when Cross Plains' invitation arrived. The same condition will again be true. To secure the best, we must ask early.

A feature that would be interesting this year would be to endeavor to gather one afternoon all of the old timers of this locality at the picnic and introduce them for a minute or so resume of the Cross Plains country as it used to be. There are literally hundreds of pioneers throughout the Cross Plains trade territory that could throw some interesting and informing history upon the section in which we are now living. These old settlers are entitled to a hearing of this type and we can think of no better occasion to present them. Many of them will be gone in a few scant years and their experiences of yesteryear will be forgotten unless they are passed on in a manner such as this.

Although the date for this year's celebration has not yet been set, in all probability it will be held about the middle of July—less than two months in the offing. It is due time for plans to be outlined.

The best way to begin this year is to call a meeting of all civic organizations, interested individuals and business men and name committies. Unless our plans are made at once, Cross Plains picnic will again be one of those last minute affairs. Lets start now. Whose ready to begin us?

Another suggestory editorial in this space next week.

Maximum Loan Limit is raised from $25,000 to $50,000 with approval of Farm Loan Commissioner.

Loans may be made through Farm Loan Commissioner not to exceed $5000 as follows: (1) To refinance either secured or unsecured indebtedness of the farmers. (2) To supply working capital for farm operations. (3) To supply funds to enable farmers to redeem or purchase farm property lost by foreclosure or involuntary sale since July 1, 1931. Loans of this nature will be made not in excess of 75% of normal value of property, determined by appraisal, and at 5% interest and with no payments on principal for three years and with ten years as a limit for repayment. These loans will be made on security other than land and also on land.

All borrowers on land from other companies or individuals will have opportunity to place their loans with the Federal Land Bank where security is acceptable.

Holder of land notes may have opportunity to transfer notes for 4% Government Guaranteed Bonds up to acceptable amounts determined by appraisal by Bank appraisers, provided requirements are met.

Limited time to make transfers to the bank is expected to cause heavy increase in loan applications the next few months.

The Citizens National Farm Loan Association of which W. Homer Shanks is Secretary—Treasurer has the highest classification given by the Federal Land Bank to farm loan associations and has been lending money for more than 15 years in Taylor, Jones, Shackelford and Callahan Counties.

Only a few associations in Texas have exceeded the number of loans closed by the Shanks organization the last three years.

Shanks expects loans of more than half million dollars to be made through his organization the next twelve months.

Cross Plains, Why Not Join In?

Tree planting in days past has been merely a silk hat pastime, indulged in by celebrities to commemorate some achievement of note. But Franklin D. Roosevelt, America's practical president, has given a new significance to the age old custom.

Mr. Roosevelt snatched the idea of planting trees from the aristocrats and placed it in the hands of common people, for a practical purpose. Besides putting thousands of idle men to work he is utilizing the idea to build up ample forests for future American generations. The idea is sound in every respect and Cross Plains might likewise join in the national movement to a good advantage.

Locally, this is one idea that can be worked out with hardly any cost at all, and to the beautification of our city.

It would be a splendid plan for our 'City Fathers' to purchase 100 trees at a very nominal cost and have them planted along conspicuous spots to beautify Cross Plains. The labor could be cared for by giving credit to men on delinquent taxes.

At the base of each tree, we would suggest that a small slab be cornered, bearing the name of some pioneer citizen here, who has contributed his—or her—efforts to the advancement of Cross Plains country. Besides adding much to the beauty of our town, the honorary markers at the base of these trees would serve materially to preserve local history, encourage civic pride, and finally, give a number of idle men sorely needed employment.

Such activity should encourage and inspire youthful Cross Plains to add something to development of their home town.

There is no better monument of a useful life than a living tree, standing as a silent sentinel in a man's behalf after he has passed on.

Give Your Shoes A Fair Chance

When your shoes become worn and need repairing, give them the same chance that you would take yourself, if you were ill. Choose the man to repair them with accuracy.

He should be skilled in the business and have various mechanical devices to supplement his efforts.

Gautney has one of the best equipped plants of its kind in West Texas and he is by no means a new comer to the shoe repairing industry. He will appreciate your patronage and will devote first class service to each job.

3 RULES big help to BOWELS

What a joy to have the bowels move like clockwork, every day! It's easy, if you mind these simple rules of a famous old doctor:

1. Drink a big tumblerful of water before breakfast, and several times a day.
2. Get plenty of outdoor exercise without unduly fatiguing yourself.
3. Try for a bowel movement at exactly the same hour every day.

Everyone's bowels need help at times, but the thing to use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You'll get a thorough cleaning-out, and it won't leave your insides weak and watery. This family doctor's prescription is just fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin, and other helpful ingredients that couldn't hurt a child. But how it wakes up those lazy bowels! How good you feel with your system rid of all that poisonous waste matter.

THINGS WORTH READING

So many good—and bad—things are in print nowadays, that we must be careful, lest we go astray and believe some stuff that is not good for us. Sometimes in the little folio circular that comes to my desk. I find some of the brightest, most practical ideas and so well worth reading.

A prominent woman, Marie Dressler, is quoted in "Food Facts," in substance, as follows:

The modern cult among women, is to reduce. No matter what happens just so you ladies remain slim. You resort to any means that promises a slim figure—some of it dangerous to you.

When you want to make a thing better, you fatten it, don't you? A cow, chicken, pig,—fruit or vegetable—you grow them as big as possible—Dressler sagely remarks, "I never could see any beauty in the human skeleton." She is right, too.

Let me quote this interesting woman again:

"I fail to see where the fun is in a life that holds nothing more than a sip of orange juice for breakfast, two biscuits and a raisin for lunch, and a small portion of a grated carrot for dinner—This is a cruel diet for which there is no necessity. Women are advised against eating carbohydrates—and since they do not know what carbohydrates are, they "play safe" and eat next to nothing at all."

I know a lady neighbor, who must weigh almost 300. She is as happy a woman as I know. Seemingly perfectly care-free. I saw her dining at a restaurant the other day, she sat at the corner on one of those little perches provided for speed—She was the picture of happy content. Isn't that about all that matters?

SAYS HER HUSBAND LOST 16 POUNDS IN 4 WEEKS

"I have never found a medicine that 'peps' you up like Kruschen Salts and better still, leaves you 'pepped up'. I take it two or three a week—not to reduce but merely to feel good and clean. My husband took it to reduce, he lost 16 pounds in 4 weeks." Mrs. E. A. Ferris, Washington, D. C. (December 29, 1932).

To lose fat and at the same time gain in physical attractiveness and feel spirited and youthful take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning.

A jar that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle at Smith Drug Store or any drugstore in the world but be sure and get Kruschen Salts the SAFE way to reduce wide hips, prominent front and double chin and again feel the joy of living—money back if dissatisfied after the first jar.

Black-Draught Clears Up Sluggish, Dull Feeling

"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time, and find it gives relief for this trouble," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark. "I think it is good for spells caused from gas on the stomach. If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

P.S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Thedford's Black-Draught.

R. F. C. OFFICIALS ARE REMINDED THAT FUNDS ARE FOR NEEDY ONLY

With Callahan County's $1,850 allotment of $1,850 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, came the instructions that none of the money should not be spent for employment of persons who have sufficient income from other sources, advised local R. F. C. officials yesterday.

The following letter from the regional office of the R. F. C. was received and perhaps explains the situation.

To all County Chairman and relief officers:

On May 2nd this office advised the uncertainty of securing any additional funds and requesting posting of notice that Federal Funds are no longer available.

With the passage by the Legislature of the resolution provided for a vote to amend the constitution to make it possible to bond the State up to $20,000,000.00 for relief purposes, further Federal Funds have been made possible.

In view of the above it is desirable that every person now on relief and those who will apply be re-interviewed and re-investigated fully, just as completely as if they were applying the first time.

A good plan to follow is to consider all cases closed as of the date of receipt of this communication and then proceed to have all persons make re-application for relief. This will enable relief officers to re-investigate every person anew and weed out many who have been on relief but should now be dropped.

With the coming of spring farm work great numbers should be able to secure some kind of work, and it is our obligation to see that they make every effort to do so.

Yours very truly,
Lawrence Westbrook,
Director.

PHIL PE CO GOLFER SHOOTS BRILLIANTLY FOR TOURNEY LAURELS

J. T. Hammett, 18 year old Phil Pe Co Country Club golfer, went to the semi-finals of the Ranger invitation golf tournament the past week and, forced Gid Faircloth, of Ranger, to shoot par golf in a driving rain, to eliminate him from the running.

Faircloth entered the finals and gave Jimmie Phillips, one of West Texas best golfers, a push for the honors. Phillips won however, at the sixteenth hole, three up.

The tournament was marked by adverse weather conditions with showers falling intermittently throughout the three days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

J. T. Hammett, local entry, won his way into the finals by defeating S. J. Barnett and Sam Brimberry. The Hammett-Barnett match went to the twentieth hole before J. T. was able to produce the necessary margin for victory.

NOTHING NEW ON GAS PROPOSITION HERE

A survey of minutes of the city council and interviews with members personally threw no new light on the gas situation here, this week.

'City Fathers' told a representative of the Review that they were going forward with their plans of installing a municipal distributing system if financial backing could be found, but as yet they had not located it.
