FARM NEWS From the County PMA Committee

WHEAT HISTORY NEEDED:

It is very important that every wheat grower come to the County PMA Office and bring the wheat history for his farm up to date. Letter notices have been mailed to all wheat growers, and this is just a reminder that it is very important that each wheat farmer's records be brought to date. The important information needed includes the Farm's wheat acreage and production for the 3 years of 1951, 1952 and 1953, and also other pertinent information.

The final decision has not yet been made as to whether acreage allotments or marketing quotas will be used for the 1954 crop of wheat. However, the indicated wheat supply is such that production controls will probably be necessary as directed by law.

The County wheat allotment will be apportioned among farms on the basis of (1) tillable acres, (2) crop rotation practices, including acreages planted to wheat, (3) type of soil, and (4) topography.

Your cooperation is requested in supplying needed information and this data should be furnished to the County Office as soon as possible and NOT later than May 29th.

1953 WHEAT PRICE SUPPORT RATE:

We have received notice of the minimum price support rate established on wheat for Donley County, which is $2.21 per bushel for wheat grading U. S. No. 1, and is subject to an increase, if necessary, to reflect 90 percent of the parity price of wheat on July 1, 1953.

1954 ACP MEETING:

Friday, April 15th, there will be a meeting consisting of the County Agent, James Gouley from the Farmer's Home Administration, the SCS Technician and Board of Supervisors, and the County and Community Committees. This group will select and discuss the 1954 practices for Donley County.

ATTENDS MEETING AT SPUR EXPERIMENT STATION

County Agent H. M. Breedlove attended a two day meeting at the Spur Experiment station in Spur, Texas on May 7 and 8th. The purpose of the meeting was to get the latest information from the station on research in cattle feeding, range brush control, soil and water conservation and silage storage and feeding test. The meeting was attended by county agents from over this section of the state and specialists from the Extension Service at College Station. This type of meeting is to keep county agents up on latest research information so it can be used in their respective counties.

Dusters To Play White Deer Here Sunday Afternoon

The Clarendon Dusters will be trying out another new team in the Caprock League here Sunday afternoon when they meet the team from White Deer. The Dusters will be in there battling to get back on the winning side again after dropping their last game to the Amarillo AAFB 8 to 7 last Sunday.

Last week's game was the Dusters' first time to meet the AAFB, so if first meetings run in the same manner, the game this Sunday should be a dandy. The Dusters know how to cope with the best, so if you want to see a good game just be out at Duster Park next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

First Baptist Seek Enrollment Goal

The Sunday school of the First Baptist Church is seeking to have every enrolled member in attendance on Sunday morning, May 17th, according to Bill Lowe, Superintendent.

With the closing of the school year and the beginning of the vacation period attendance in the Bible school usually shows a slight decline. And, as the 17th will be the last Sunday before the closing of school for the summer, effort is being put forth to have each and every member of the Sunday school in his place on that day.

Mr. Lowe urges that each member mark this date on his calendar and make it a point to be present Sunday, May 17th, at 9:45 a. m., First Baptist Church, Clarendon, Texas.

There are 503 enrolled in the Sunday school and it will necessitate the cooperation of every member to attain this objective. The previous "high" in attendance was 44—attained on April 19th of this year.

Vicious Whirlwind Causes Damage Here

A vicious, oversized, whirlwind invaded the east part of town Friday afternoon about 3:30 and apparently developed top velocity about the time it passed over the Magnolia Service Station across the street east of Palmer Motor Co. It ripped a large neon sign of the Dixie Cafe, which was mounted on top of the station, loose from its mooring and pitched it into the intersection of the street to the northwest. The whirlwind apparently created enough vacuum to pop a large plate glass show window out of the east side of the Palmer Motor Company. The sign was valued at $750 and the plate glass at over a hundred dollars.

Time To Think of Winter Feeding Now, Says County Agent

Now is the time to start thinking about your winter feeding problems says county agent H. M. Breedlove. Silage is the cheapest method for wintering beef and dairy cattle so now is the time to make plans to plant a crop to be put up in the trench silo for that winter feed. Breedlove says that from the latest research information that Honey Drip cane, Atlas Sargo and red top cane are about the best crops in this section for silage. Atlas Sargo is very popular for silage due to the fact that it matures a little earlier and can sprout out and give winter protection to the land after harvesting. Under ordinary conditions Atlas sargo should make from four tons up of silage per acre depending on moisture.

The cost or average cost per ton of silage put in the silo is about eight dollars and could be cheaper depending on the operator.

Well packed silage will weigh about thirty five pounds per cubic foot and cows will eat about twenty-five pounds per day and winter in good shape, with about four pounds of good alfalfa hay. Winter test have shown that the alfalfa mentioned took the place of cotton seed cake or meal and cut the cost of wintering cattle and furnished the necessary protein.

Breedlove is urging that all livestock men make plans for a trench silo as silage is the best substitute for a green pasture and a very cheap method of wintering livestock. Any one wishing information on silage and the specifications of the trench silo should contact the county agent.

Funeral services were held Friday morning at the First Methodist Church in Lelia Lake for Charlie M. Meyer with Rev. Ernest Phillips and Rev. Delton Fisher officiating. He had been a resident of Donley County the past seven years.

Donley County Has Freakish Weather

This past week has been filled with all kinds of weather which is typical of West Texas. We have had dust and sandstorms from every direction. Saturday night it looked like we might receive some moisture here in town but it developed a few miles to the east and followed a crescent shaped route dumping hail and a downpour of rain on an area starting in the Chamberlain community, on through Lelia Lake and then back northwest. The area wasn't very wide. Willard Knox reported a total of .54 inch of rain and hail. The hail damaged fruit considerably in some areas.

Tuesday, we had a different type of weather. It suddenly changed from summer to winter again with the mercury dropping to 35 degrees late Tuesday. Last but not entirely forgotten was the fine rain that fell Wednesday morning. It measured only a small amount but looked good anyway.

High School Rodeo Winners Listed

The Clarendon High School Rodeo last Saturday was considered quite successful even though they were hampered by various types of weather. The number of spectators would have been higher but the swirling dust was just too much for some to venture out Saturday afternoon, and the stormy weather Saturday night kept them away. The Rodeo went off in good shape and was a credit to the sponsors of the event.

Winners in the various events were as follows with the first, second and third place winners listed in this order.

CALF ROPING: Weldon McClung, Tullia; James Taylor, Lubbock; Buddy Cockrell, Pampa.

BOB BERRY, Tullia; Buck Boyd, Erick, Okla.; Joe Lynn Ballew, Clarendon.

In the Girls Barrel race, Miss Genevieve Smith was the winner and was crowned queen of the rodeo at the night performance.

Dusters Lose Close Game To AAFB

The Clarendon Dusters lost their first game of the season last Sunday afternoon to the Amarillo Air Force Base team in a very close contest. The game ended 8 to 7 in favor of the visitors.

The Dusters had an opportunity of overtaking the AAFB in the 8th but errors, etc. held them down. It just seemed to be one of those times when they were destined to lose. B. F. Dorman performed well on the mound after taking over in the 3rd inning. He had a little trouble at the beginning but pitched better as the game went along. The visitors made only one run after the 3rd inning. The Dusters were lagging 1 to 7 when they came to bat in the last of the fourth inning. Skinny Putman, first batter up, started the scoring again with a hard hit home run that landed several feet beyond the fence in left field.

Hen Performs Unusual In Double Egg

Edwin Eanes has one particular hen in his flock that laid a very unusual egg this past week. It appeared to be an extra large egg which usually has two yolks. He brought it to town and gave it to Homer Estlack, telling him that he could enjoy a double yolk egg for breakfast. When Mrs. Estlack broke the egg which measured 8 3/4 inches over-end and 7 1/4 inches in circumference, a perfectly normal hard shell egg of average size popped out into the bowl. When she broke this egg it had only the one yolk, but there was equal to two egg whites in the large egg surrounding the hard shell egg on the inside. Estlack said he had been cheated for he liked the egg yolk much better than one with three whites. The oddity of the egg made up the difference though.

months. They attributed the predation to a short rodent population and added that the coyotes now have changed their diet since late berries began ripening.
 Meanwhile Game Warden William H. Gooch of Raymondville called attention to the case of a 1952 fawn, discovered in an emaciated condition which, a post mortem showed, had been attacked by stomach worms.
 Ernest G. Marsh, Assistant Director of Wildlife Restoration for the Commission, wrote Gooch, "This parasite generally is present in both domestic and wild stock but it rarely does serious damage to the host animal except at times when the host animal is in relatively poor physical condition."
 "The past several years of drought conditions in your country has undoubtedly contributed to a general dietary deficiency among stock. This would be greater among deer with less control being exerted on their population density and with less supplemental feed in their diet. This deficiency, which would not necessarily be readily apparent, creates the perfect condition for the parasite to prosper. Though most animals would naturally recover from the subsequent severe depletionary effects of this parasite's activity, the host animal normally becomes visibly weakened. In this latter stage, bacterial infections are most likely to develop and cause further incapacitation of the host. Predation increases greatly. These losses will continue normally until the range reaches an optimum condition in the spring. As body nourishment is increased, the parasites are thrown off."

Deer Losses Are Related

AUSTIN—The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission reported that some seasonal losses to the South Texas deer herds have been reported. He said Game Warden Supervisor Herbert Ward of Catarina and several of his wardens described comparatively heavy coyote kills during the winter

"Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; casting all your cares upon him, for he careth for you." —I Peter 5:6-7

You know, when we get to thinking about how small we are in comparison to all of God's creation. We, just one little worthless insignificant man out of all mankind. And mankind, though many millions, just a small part of all of His great plan and purpose. We ask ourselves how we ever come to think, so many times, of our own importance. How we stand amid our cattle, our cars, and with it many cares, and say look at me. Look at me Lord and behold what a great creature that I am. But when we read the above scripture we are brought back to our senses. We know again that the only way we can eternally be exalted is to humble ourselves under the mighty hand of God.

In the last decade we as Americans have made a continual search for something to exalt us; for something to satisfy our ego and our pride. But mostly we don't find it. Many books have been written by famous doctors and preachers trying to point us the way and we buy and read them by the dozens. Sometimes they help us; sometimes not. But the truth of the matter is that in every home we do have a book that has the answer. Dusty, untouched, mostly holding the important records of our marriages and our deaths it lays on the table. In this book God gave us the rules for a complete and exalted life. In almost every chapter the key to happiness is found in verse after verse. The same story as the one above told over and over. We need to read and reread them and ask ourselves over and over; ask the deep most parts of our heart this question; Do we believe them with all our heart?

We better stop or Mama will be accusing us of preaching again, and we wouldn't want to do that. After all, in this column we have to think of politics and a lot of other things that usually don't sound very "Preachy".

The following little poem is our suggestion for our scrapbook, and was also included in the material sent in last week by Mrs. C. L. Armstrong, Gen. Del. Holtville, Calif. Actually, Mrs. Armstrong sounded a little homesick for West Texas. How about some of you writing her a letter.

A WISH
Do you wish the world were better?
Let us tell you what to do;
Set a watch upon your actions,
Keep them always straight and true.

Rid your mind of selfish motives,
Let your thoughts be clean and high;
You can make a little of heaven
Of the sphere you occupy.

Do you wish the world were wiser?
Well, suppose you make a start
By accumulating wisdom
In the scrapbook of your heart.
Do not waste one page on folly,
Live to learn, and learn to live.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN—The Legislature worked this week on compromise plans to give public school teachers more pay.

Those who wanted more money for teachers seemed ready to accept something less than the $600 per year they had originally demanded.

The House lagged behind in committee action on new tax bills to provide the money for teachers.

It would take about $33 million per year to give the school people an additional $600 annually. At the same time, the administration kept up its pressure against new taxation.

The governor asked the legislature to wait and see what would become of a natural gas tax, passed during the last session and being tested in the courts.

Meanwhile, the State supreme court declared the tax valid. But the issue was not finally settled. The gas companies could appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Representative Douglas E. Bergman of Dallas suggested that teacher pay be hiked $306 per year, starting next September, if the state wins its fight for the natural gas tax.

Representative D. H. Buchanan of Longview wanted to pass a new tax on natural gas, to bring in $15 million per year for teachers. This tax would become invalid if the present tax is found to be constitutional.

And Representative Lamar Zivley of Temple recommended financing a $360 per year raise for teachers with a tax on natural gas.

movements to adjourn the session—without any new tax. That would mean no pay increase for teachers.

Although both houses have voted $600 per year pay raises for schoolmarms, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has said that the money is not in sight to pay the cost.

That means no more money for teachers, unless a tax bill is passed.

Even so, the Senate has signified that it is ready to quit and go home.

And in the House, at week's end, it seemed likely that the sine die adjournment would come during the week of May 25.

The session passed its 120th day Tuesday, and the pay of legislators automatically dropped from $10 per day to $5 per day.

Lunch Room Program Brighter as H.B. 441 Zooms Past House Of Representatives

AUSTIN—A bill that will bring about $10,000,000 in surplus commodities to Texas in the next two years and one which will be a boon to the present lunch room program in public schools, zoomed past the House of Representatives to the Senate last week. House Bill 441, sponsored by Rep. Albert Reeves of Matador, has been dubbed one of the most important pieces of legislation that will be brought up this session. Reeves stated that he had been interested in the bill since last August. At that time the United States Department of Agriculture declared that no further surplus commodities would come to Texas unless there was an appointed agency to contract the incoming free food. The State Department of Public Welfare, headed by John Winters, set up a temporary division to contract the surplus commodities until a division was created. This imposed a hardship upon the state department, since there were no available funds to pay for handling the surplus foods, and also this meant double work for the employees in the department. Had Winters and his department not agreed to take on the project, the state would have lost millions of dollars worth of free food in its school lunch program, old peoples' homes, hospitals, eleemosynary institutions, special schools, etc. "I appreciate the fact that there was virtually no opposition to my bill in the House of Representatives, but I could hardly see how anyone could oppose a bill that would, in two years, net the state some $10,000,000 for merely the price of contracting the surplus commodities", Reeves said. The legislator pointed out that last year Texas received 835,540 pounds of processed cheese, which amounted to $417,770.00 wholesale; 2,557,468 pounds of frozen turkey, which amounted to $1,380,032.72 wholesale; 10,942 cases of grapefruit sections, which amounted to $43,768.00 wholesale; 441,616 pounds of butter, which amounted to $308,712.00 wholesale; and many more food items that skyrocketed the grand total to $3,665,790.98 worth of free commodities.

The new division in the State Department of Public Welfare will only cost the state about $50,000 per year, while at the same time Texas would profit about $4,950,000 annually from the surplus food. For sometime, even before the USDA made it a must, lawmakers have tried to create a division to handle the free food. A bill similar in most respects to H.B. 441, by Reeves, failed to pass last session. "I have seen the good work of our lunch room program in our public schools, and I know that we would miss this philanthropic project if it should die. I know that many other similar projects are available because of the surplus commodities we are getting free. I hope that the people in my district will write to as many senators as possible to expedite the passage of H.B. 441 before the session ends," the lawmaker declared. Because the earth's atmosphere bends the moon's rays, the moon is not actually where it appears to be when looked at from the ground. Drafts and notes differ in that the former is a written order to pay; the latter a written promise to pay.

What Makes One Job Better Than Another?

What if the tables were turned . . . and college graduates stopped filling out job applications, and instead, submitted questionnaires for companies to fill out? It might be they would ask:

"Why should I work for your company? . . . Is your bank balance healthy? . . . Are you expanding fast? . . . Will I get responsibility in a hurry? . . . Can I pick the type of work I like? . . . Are you fun to work with? . . . Do you have smart men I can learn from? . . . Free schooling to train me further? . . . Research and know-how? . . . Money for the finest equipment? . . . Will you recognize and utilize my talents?"

Isn't it a sign of a pretty good job when young men with talent can have a clear road ahead, can learn from people they respect and admire, and can work on projects of national importance?

From where we sit, we've been watching this happen. Teams of people at General Electric—in their twenties most often—are solving problems of jet plane engines, new chemicals, home appliances, guided missiles . . . everything from atomic power to air conditioning. And they're working in responsible jobs, with experts of recognized authority.

Maybe it's because we're growing fast that young men move into new and bigger jobs. Or because we've been lucky enough to hire the type of men who grab responsibility and work hard to achieve success. Whatever single factor or combination it is, young men and success do go together at General Electric.

Andy Rogers Sez!

By ANDY ROGERS
State Senator, District 30

Your present State Legislature has repeatedly turned down a lobbyist control bill which would require lobbyists to register and to state whom they represent. Another bill would require them to reveal their expense accounts and to state the purposes for which these accounts were used. This bill has had even less luck.

As anyone familiar with our government knows, our legislative halls are overrun with paid professional lobbyists. These professionals have long been accepted as a part of the Austin scene, daily contacting legislators and carrying on their trade. YET when school teachers, Optometrists, Farm Bureau members and others come to Austin to represent their views, there is always a group of legislators who cry, "Pressure Group". It is well for everyone to remember that the right "To Petition the government" is one of the five basic freedoms guaranteed by our Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

John White, Texas' Commissioner of Agriculture, says grafters are getting a good share of the $30,000,000 Texas spends each year on cotton seed for planting. He warns of the slicker salesman who claims his product has been treated with a secret chemical to kill cotton pests—or any wild unusual claim.

Gas companies obtain Texas Panhandle natural gas at unequaled low prices for their pipeline. Naturally these low prices encourage them to sell as much as possible from our Panhandle fields and to hold other areas in reserve. The best estimates show that this, our gas supply, will last about another sixteen to twenty years.

The pipeline companies repeatedly assure us that they will be eager to send gas—from other higher priced fields—or coal gas from the North when our own gas is gone. Senator Grady Hazlewood, of Amarillo, and most of the Panhandle representatives are sponsoring a bill to conserve our supply and to make it last longer.

They are not having much luck.

Last week, for the first time since 1937, your State Senate applied the Gag Rule. This meant that all debate and right to speak against a bill or any amendment to it were cut off. The legislation under consideration was a series of bills to O.K. statewide Toll Road building. This is one of the administrations' pet projects. The opposition to creating this Toll Road system claimed it would cost the people of Texas much more money than if the State continued its present free public highway system. Only four votes were cast against the new plans.

Also last week your State House of Representatives approved a Senate-sponsored resolution asking the Federal Government to quit holding secret hearings but turned down an amendment to stop their own secret and closed meetings.

Texas has only two surviving Confederate Veterans. One, 110 year old Walter Williams, of Franklin, receives a $150 per month pension from the State. The other is Thomas Riddle. Mrs. Carrie Hardin, of Childress, discovered him in poor circumstances at Wichita Falls a few years ago and arranged for him to be carried to the Confederate Home in Austin. There, he carries on alone today in a place once crowded with the South's heroes.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

The MacMillan Publishing Co. has just recently issued an elegant volume of "The Birds of America" by John James Audubon. This book is 12 1/2" x 9" and about 2 inches thick. We are fortunate to secure it for our shelves. It was given by Mr. and Mrs. Pete Kunz in memory of Mr. Carl Allmond's father, Mr. John W. Allmond. There is a new animal volume of Audubon's paintings, but it is too expensive to consider purchasing until it has been in circulation longer.

This week a friend of mine gave two lovely books. J. G. Randall's "Mid Stream, Lincoln the President," and "Desire" by Annermore Selink. It is a best seller in three languages. It is told with simplicity and charm, underlining some great moments of history with the small, fascinating, personal details that made a woman's world within the dazzling courts of Europe.

We also were given two recent copies of "John Bull"—March 7th and March 14th, one of "Punch,"—April 1st, and one April "Picture Post."

Most of our gift books will soon be catalogued, ready for use.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Adams and son, David, of Lorenzo, and Mrs. Billy Bob Adams and Beth Hall of Alanreed were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Adams and Donald Sunday.

Third Gold Star Herd Award Made To J. R. Gillham

A third Gold Star Herd award has been made to John R. Gillham of Greenbelt Dairy, Clarendon, Texas, on his herd of registered Jerseys.

The Gillham herd won the award after having completed another year on official Herd Improvement Registry testing. The Gold Star recognition is for unusually high production over a four-year period.

Last year Gillham's 31 cows had an average production of 8,823 lbs. milk containing 521 lbs. butterfat. Over the past four years Gillham has had an average of 28 cows in his herd producing 9,104 lbs. milk containing 509 lbs. butterfat apiece. All tests on the herd have been checked by Texas A&M College and The American Jersey Cattle Club. The Gillham herd average is more than two times greater than that of the "average" dairy cow in the United States.

The Herd Improvement Registry work is another of the programs carried on by The American Jersey Cattle Club to aid the continuous improvement of the Jersey breed. The Club's national headquarters is in Columbus, Ohio.

Guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Emmons and Butch were Bobby Emmons and Jimmy Bullock of Lubbock, Gladylene Emmons and Jerry LaGrone of Amarillo.

No doubt about it... Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

This year—for the 12th straight production year—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. That couldn't be true unless Chevrolet trucks offered more of what you want. Already, 1953's official sales figures tell a remarkable story of clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. But, this is not surprising, for truck users everywhere are discovering how far ahead of all others Chevrolet trucks really are.

They are discovering things like the tremendous new power in advanced Load-master engines in heavy-duty models . . . the remarkable gasoline economy . . . the extra ruggedness and strength of heavier, more rigid frame construction. And, in addition to all these advantages, the Chevrolet line lists for less than any other trucks of comparable size and capacity. So, before you buy any truck, stop in and see us.

Andy Rogers Ses!

By ANDY ROGERS
State Senator, District 30
 This session of our Legislature may well go home with a "Do Nothing" label on it.
 Change for the sake of change as advocated by many is nothing to brag about. Vision and courage to make changes in response to our needs of an increasing population, an expanding economy and a growing awareness of moral obligation to good government on the part of the citizens of Texas is another matter.
 The following are only a few of the many problems which your Legislature can't seem to handle:
 1. Need for a highway system to adequately meet our growth and economic needs. A proposal to use all of future gasoline tax increases for highways may get final passage. However, no new gasoline taxes will be passed.

There is some "hope" the federal government will drop its 2c per gallon tax and the State could in the future adopt it with no overall increase to Texas users.
 2. The fast growing demand for water conservation and development without which our future growth will be seriously threatened. A proposed law to tax all surface water, the tax to be used to help finance dams, etc., apparently is dead. Little else has been offered.
 3. Correcting the scandalous situation which quite aptly leads many to label Texas as the "Loan Shark State." A total of 9 bills to help remedy this situation have been introduced. None have been acted on.
 4. Revision or repeal of the auto inspection law. The House of Representatives killed repeal.

The Senate can't agree on what changes to make in their revised version.
 5. The seriously increasing shortage of public school teachers. A Senate bill to raise salaries was finally approved by the House of Representatives; then the leaders of the House made this law into nothing more than a "hot check" by refusing to let the House tax committee act. As the Senate is prevented by the Constitution from originating a tax bill, this approach was ended. Now, debate over a misnamed "compromise" rages. This would depend on whether or not the Natural Gas Pipelines decide to drop their law suits and pay their taxes.
 6. Old-age pensions. No one doubts that many are receiving money who should not qualify. This in turn deprives many in actual need of adequate payments. The Senate has approved a constitutional amendment to raise the ceiling on such state spending. The House will not have a chance to act on this and neither body has acted on a program to cut off pensions to the underserving.
 7. Economy. Total State spending will be held to present tax income but little has been done to eliminate unnecessary services, duplicate, overlapping and padded State payrolls. In all these evils Texas government ranks high.
 In short, many noble words have been spoken—little more than fond "hopes" have been offered. Now that the final day of this Session has been set for May 27th, any chance for action is very dim.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb
 "He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and knoweth not whether he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes." I John 2: 10-11.

If we attend the weekly meeting of our club and our hearts are filled with hatred and jealousy toward a fellow member we will get no good from going. It would just as well that we went off to ourselves and fed our feelings with pity and sympathy for we will get not one bit of joy and fellowship from the meeting. The giant of hate will stand between us and even the good that is in any of the other members and pretty soon will convince us that there is no one able to stand the test, save us.

 If this is true as we attend our clubs or as we walk about among our friends on the street how much more is it true in the church, or in what we call the spiritual family of us His children. He has told us that we should not offer even our gifts at the altar until we have made all things right with our brother. It is just as true that when we bring our spiritual cups to church hoping to have them filled from the everlasting goodness of his love we must be at peace with our brothers.

Hate burning within us is a terrible thing. As long as it smolders within our hearts it never hurts the one we hate; only us. Someone has said that "No man ever hurts us until he makes us hate him," or words to that effect. As this is always true. We begin by hating one that we think has harmed us, pretty soon we won't attend church with him; then we roll along our way of destruction in a hurry. Then comes worry, fear, guilt, nervousness, probably ulcers, to say nothing of a disposition that even our family will find it hard to endure.

I guess about ever so often most folks get up some morning with a good case of the blues. Try as best I can to cheer him up this character Uncle Zeb gets that way sometimes. Week after week he spends a couple of hours of his time writing this column and just having a big time doing it. In it he gets a lot of things off his mind and up to the point that he mails it in to the papers all is well. Then the paper goes to press and he gets to sort of brooding, and asking himself these questions: Does anyone read all this? Are they helped or hurt by doing so? And on and on until he wakes up all down in the dumps. Anyway, he doesn't get very much financial reward; just three papers free each week to send to his relatives, so how about this. If you read it and enjoy it write him a letter this week. Send it o/o of the editors. If you read him in the farm paper Southwestern Crop & Stock write to the editor Mr. A. B. Slagle, 1003 16th St. in Lubbock and tell him so. He is Uncle Zeb's paying customer so he needs a little help with him. Each spring is the anniversary of his column and at this the end of six years he needs another cheering up.

Want to make a quick getaway?

THE nearest we can come to word-picturing for you how it feels to drive a 1953 Buick with Twin-Turbine Dynaflo* is this:

When you toe the gas treadle, you can get away like silken lightning in a silent hurry.

More specifically, you can sweep your speedometer needle from zero to a legal 30 mph in the time you normally take two breaths.

Equally important, you get this dazzling getaway with whisper quiet—and with one smooth, progressive build-up of velvety power.

The literal truth is—no other car in all the world can get away with the combined quickness, quiet and utter smoothness of a 1953 Buick with TT Dynaflo.

It takes more than the advanced new engineering of this fully automatic transmission to produce such thrilling performance, of course.

It takes power, too.

And that's here in full measure—the highest horsepowers and compression ratios, Series for Series, in Buick's fifty great years—with the world's most advanced V8 engine powering the SUPER and ROADMASTER.

There's a lot more you get in any 1953 Buick in generous and hard-to-match measure—room, comfort, ride steadiness, visibility—and, above all, value.

But these are things you must discover for yourself—as you must the greatest Buick performance in history.

Why not drop in on us real soon? We'll be happy to put you at the wheel of a new Buick and let our points prove themselves.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM YOUR State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—Wednesday, May 27, has been set by the Legislature as the date for final adjournment. This makes it a relatively short session—only 15 days past the allotted 120 days.

This Legislature has been notable for its refusal to pass new taxes, despite pressure from the teachers for salary increases.

In the closing days, members worked on a compromise measure to give the teachers $306 more per year, rather than the $600 they had demanded.

Payment of the increase would come from a natural gas tax bill passed two years ago, but held up by court tests.

Recently the State Supreme Court held the tax to be valid.

—tpa—

Compromise legislation includes points urged by Governor Allan Shivers: it would bring pay raises of state employees and college teachers up to $300 per year and provide money for new state buildings for the prison system, deaf school, medical and dental schools of the University of Texas and Texas Southern University.

Representative Joe Kilgore of McAllen is author of the bill. Kilgore said the money involved in the bill is within the amount the state will receive if and when the gas tax is finally declared to be valid.

—tpa—

Under the compromise pay bill, supervisors and counselors would be dropped from the state payroll after one year. It is estimated this part of the Gilmer-Aikin program has cost about $2,500,000 per year.

In support of this change, Representative Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford said that these specialists often duplicate the work of superintendents and principals. Representative Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville took the opposite view on the change. He thinks counselors are good for public school students.

"If I'd had a counselor in school, I might not be here in the Legislature," Pipkin quipped.

—tpa—

Senators battled with a House-passed bill relaxing the car inspection law. An amendment was adopted which exempts from inspection trailers with a load capacity of 4,000 pounds or less. This was for the benefit of farm trailer operators.

Senator Carlos Ashley of Llano, who sought outright repeal of the inspection law, argued bitterly against the House bill.

He claimed that speed, carelessness and drunk driving are the main causes of highway accidents.

"More people caught hell on this car inspection law than any other thing in the history of Texas politics," he exclaimed.

According to Senator Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo the state doesn't need an auto inspection law.

"They ought to inspect the heads of the drivers instead of the cars," he said.

Changes in the bill included one dropping the annual inspection rule before a license can be obtained. Another change reduces the number of items to be inspected.

—tpa—

Both Senate and House considered ways to help the old folks and the handicapped.

House members worked on a bill, approved by the Senate, to increase the ceiling on welfare grants from $35 million to $42 million a year.

At the same time the Senate considered final legislation action on an aid bill for persons over 18 who cannot make a living because of mental or physical handicaps. It was proposed that state grants not exceed $20 monthly and be matched with federal funds two for one.

House Passes Human Welfare Resolution, H. J. R. No. 14

By ELBERT REEVES
State Representative
83th Legislative Dist.

AUSTIN—H.J.R. No. 14, which will mean much in terms of human welfare and at the same time save the people of Texas actual expense every day of its operation has passed the House. It is in the form of a constitutional amendment resolution. This resolution is designed to provide assistance for totally and permanently disabled persons, disabled by either mental or physical handicap, or both.

The federal government will match two dollars for one by the law of 1950. The state will pay just as much federal tax whether or not we derive any benefit from it. The state would spend $20 a month and the disabled recipient would receive $60 a month. The proposal sets forth that a maximum of $1,500,000 a year is to be contributed by the state.

The present statute excludes the handicapped persons, between the ages of 18 and 65, from public assistance provided for aged persons and needy children. This does not include the blind.

The savings would come back to the taxpayers and citizens in this way. Under present conditions many handicapped persons are sent to state hospitals because support at home is not possible. The state's cost per patient is $100 a month, which includes the capital investment in new buildings. This would mean a savings of $80 a month per patient, to the state.

Then official agencies in most counties have a heavy relief load, which in a county of 150,000 population runs as high as $40,000 a year. All cities have some provision to care for its helpless people. The taxpayer is a contributor to these welfare funds. The figure for voluntary unofficial relief and welfare funds would be reduced to $4,500,000 a year dedicated to take care of those persons who would otherwise become patients in state hospitals and those who could be taken off local and county relief. Another good phase of this program is that the unfortunate disabled who live in counties that do not have relief or welfare funds can share in this proposal.

The only discouraging angle to this situation is that it can not be voted on by the people for 18 months, and if approved then, it will be another six months before becoming effective. It is a foregone conclusion that its approval will parallel that of the measure providing for old age assistance.

Eighty percent of the fur seals in the world are found on the Pribilof Islands off the coast of Alaska.

PTA Gets Stung by a "Bee"

The local PTA is feeling sheepish today. Seems they complained the youngsters weren't learning enough. Said they couldn't even spell. So the kids challenged them to a spelling bee.

"I was captain of the PTA's," "Doc" Brown told me. "Both teams made the first round just fine. But on the second round Speedy Taylor went down on 'efficiency.' Then his boy Chip, who happened to be next on the school team, rattled it right off. From then on it was murder!"

So now "Doc" says that the whole PTA is thinking of signing up for night school!

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

BEHIND THE SCENES: Two matters that are causing much concern on Capitol Hill at the present time, and which have not been too widely publicized, are the conflict between the administration and the Republican Senate leadership with reference to the Bricker Amendment and the guess-work that is going on concerning the anticipated increase Amendment is a proposal by Senator Bricker, of Ohio, to amend the Constitution to definitely spell out that the Constitution of this country shall be the supreme law and providing that any treaty which denies or abridges any right enumerated in the United States Constitution shall not be of any force or effect. At present the Constitution of the United States reads as follows, to wit: "This Constitution (and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States shall be the supreme law of the land; and the Judges in every state shall be bound thereby, any thing in the Constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding." During the presidential campaign in 1952 the Bricker Amendment was discussed several times but the discussions were usually lacking in the details that must be considered in a matter of this kind. Senator Bricker and the proponents of his amendment in the Senate apparently assumed that Eisenhower was favorable to such an amendment and that the adoption of the resolution to so amend the Constitution would be more or less a matter of formality. As soon as the administration began to function there was a decided coolness toward the Bricker amendment. This situation finally came to a head when the Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, and President Eisenhower, together with the other high officials in the administration, announced that they had concluded that the Bricker amendment should not be adopted. Truman had taken the same position concerning the Bricker Amendment, and it was thought here on the Hill that much support for the Bricker Amendment was generated by the fact of Truman's unpopularity. However, since the new administration has taken this same position, there will no doubt be some fireworks later on. Senator Bricker and other proponents of the amendment have voiced their opinions in support of it in no uncertain terms during speeches at recent conventions of the American Society of Newspaper Editors and also the Daughters of The American Revolution. The problem concerned is not as simple as it might appear on its face. In fact, there are many incidental matters, facets and details that can, and no doubt would, arise. At the present time the treaties made between this country and foreign countries are of course not binding until ratified by the Senate. The decisions of the courts in the past concerning the priority of the Constitution or the treaties seem to conclude that these two pronouncements are on a parity insofar as one controlling the other is concerned. In any event, look for some happenings on this front.

The other matter referred to concerns interest rates, that is causing much trouble. Many economists subscribe to the policy that the best and quickest way to start a recession or a depression is to increase interest rates. However, another school of thought in the economic field denies this and takes the position that such a movement could well prevent a recession or depression by creating a stabilization of the dollar and a gradual deflationary trend which would be a guard against inflation. No matter which school of thought you might agree with, the fact remains that something will probably be done with the rates in the very near future. In fact, some action may be taken before this newsletter reaches you. It has been a matter that has been under consideration by the present legislative leaders and the administration, and we have all been expecting some action every day. A decision must be made on the problem for the reason that at the present time the mortgage market is almost non-existent. This means that many, many builders and contractors over this country find themselves in a vacuum as their business is financed primarily by the disposition of these mortgages as they complete the housing units. It would be utterly impossible for these builders to carry these mortgages themselves, and unless they can dispose of them as they move along, they have no alternative but to cease operations. This means extensive unemployment in many of the crafts, as well as in the common labor fields. It is going to be a hard decision to make, but it is one that must be made if our economy is to continue.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

The first book we shall announce is "Rock Taylor Football Coach" by John Gartner. It is rather difficult to find books that appeal to the High School group of boys.

A memorial book that we consider a valuable asset to our shelves is "Life On the Texas Range" text by J. Evetts Haley and photographs by Erwin E. Smith. This book was given by the Charlie Bairfields in memory of Mr. Patrick. There has been some very interesting books given as memorials in the last few months.

The May issue of "Red Book" is the 50th anniversary edition, and the book length novel at the back is by Loula Grace Erdman, our Panhandle writer. It is "Three At the Wedding." The editor says, "This novel is a penetrating study of the lives of three women, each of whom with honesty—shameful, proud or humble—faced a crisis in her own life."

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bairfield gave the Library a copy of Mr. J. Arthur Scoggin's book, "From Saddle to Pulpit" this week. Mr. Scoggin is Mr. Bairfield's uncle, and you will enjoy this edition very much if you haven't read it. It recalls so many characters who have passed on, and relates incidents so many have forgotten. We appreciate the copy and realize how thoughtful they were to purchase it for us.

Former Pastor Here To Be Awarded Honorary Degree

Dr. David M. Gardner, editor of the Baptist Standard, Dallas, will be awarded the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree by Howard Payne College, Brownwood, at commencement, May 22. Born in Milan, Tennessee, Dr. Gardner received his education in Texas. He graduated from Baylor University in 1912, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, in 1914. The Doctor of Divinity degree has been conferred upon him by Howard College, Birmingham, Alabama, and Stetson University, De Land, Florida.

Dr. Gardner has served as missionary evangelist in Texas and was evangelist for Southwestern Seminary in 1914. He had held pastorates in Clarendon and Memphis, Texas; Birmingham, Alabama, and St. Petersburg, Florida.

Following the retirement of Dr. Clarendon Lodge No. 700 A. F. & A. M. Stated Meeting 2nd Friday of each month

F. M. McConnell in 1944. Dr. Gardner became editor and general manager of the Baptist Standard. When Dr. Gardner became editor, the circulation of this paper was 109,000. Today it is 266,799.

The author of three books of sermons: "Radiant Realities," "Pictures of Salvation," and "A Rainbow for Every Cloud," Dr. Gardner has contributed many articles to the Baptist press and expresses himself on controverted subjects. He has a manuscript prepared on "Sermons for Special Days," which is not yet in print.

Mrs. Gardner is the former Sadie Ray Woodward of Clarendon. They have three children: David M. Jr., Sadie Rae Neelands, and Edith Marie King.

James Gillespie Blaine was called the Plumed Knight by his admirers and the Tattooed Man by his opponents.

The Red Horse Inn at Sudbury, Mass., a favorite retreat of Longfellow's, is the one referred to in his "Tales of a Wayside Inn."
