Thirty-Eight Identify Mystery Farm

There were thirty-eight to identify the Leader Mystery Farm of the Air last week. This was a pretty fair pickup from the total of ten that made identification last week. This one this week may be a hard one for the majority, so if you know it be sure to call or come in and get your name on the list.

We had a hotly contested race for the first position on the city list last week and to avoid numerous lines of explanation we are announcing two winners of the free subscription to the Leader. The two ladies to win the free subscription on the town list were Mrs. C. Huffman and Mrs. Frank Reid; the winner on the rural list was Nora Jackson. Colts Defeat McLean Cubs 14 to 7 In First Conference Game

The Jr. High Colts defeated the McLean Cubs 14 to 7 in their first conference game of the season at McLean last Thursday night. The Colts have had a little trouble getting started in their first three non-conference games but when this one came along that really counted, they played heads-up football.

The Cubs opened the scoring in the first quarter on a ten yard end run and from then on the Colts held them in check. The Colts came back to cross the goal line in the second period, only to have it called back on a clipping penalty and as the half ended they were on the 6 yard line.

When the second half started the Colts received the ball and carried it to the Cubs 30 yard line; a short time later Jerry Behrens went over for the touch down. Gerald Hill converted the extra point. After a couple of exchanges of the ball, the Colts took over again and went to work for another score and succeeded when Gerald Hill crashed over for the TD. Conversion of the extra point brought the score to 14-7. The Colts were still trying for another when the game ended and found them in possession of the ball on the Cubs 10 yard line.

White Deer Bucks Wallop Broncs 35-12

A weakened Broncho squad received a drubbing by the hands of the White Deer Bucks at White Deer last Friday night by a tune of 35 to 12.

The game was a one-sided affair until the latter part of the fourth quarter when the Broncs passing attack began to click netting their two touchdowns in the game. A number of players were ailing which accounted for part of the let-down and another thing in addition to that was the fact that the Broncs had been well scouted and the Bucks had built a good defense against the Broncs plays.

White Deer scored twice in the first quarter; once in the second; one in the third and again in the fourth period with the Eller twins doing most of the damage.

The Broncs fired up in the latter part of the fourth quarter with Max Johnson taking a beautiful long pass for 53 yards and the first Bronc score. A short time later he took a screen pass and raced 61 yards for the other tally. Both attempts for extra points failed.

This marked the second conference loss for the Broncs this season. They are idle this week end but are putting in full time in preparation for the Memphis game next week.

Colts To Play Lefors Here Tonight

The Jr. High Colts will take on the Junior High squad from Lefors here tonight at Broncho stadium at 7 o'clock. This will be the second conference game for the locals and they will be out to take their second conference win after defeating the McLean Cubs last Thursday night at McLean.

Coach Christian reported his boys in good shape for the game. They have the right spirit to win and will be in there doing their best, he added.

The Broncs have an open date this week, so all you fans are invited to come up and give these young fellows a good boost tonight.

The probable starting line-up for the Colts tonight will be Gerald Hill, J. R. Gardner, Jerry Behrens and Don Taylor in the backfield; Gerald Anderson, Keith Hudson, Richard Vallance, Jimmie Swinney, Bob Lesley, John Morrow, Bill Durham and Jimmie Johnson in the line.

Good Moisture Falls Over County During Past Week

Donley County, as well as all of the Panhandle area, has received good moisture during the past week with some areas receiving more than others. The south part of the county received the heaviest fall with considerable damage being reported from the hail that accompanied the moisture last Wednesday night.

This destructive hail fell over an area starting about five miles south of town and was heavier in the ranching area farther south. Several hundred acres of cotton and feed were damaged with some fields considered a total loss. Much damage was done to terraces and fields by the deluge of water in this area also. The hail was reported to be 8 inches deep on the highway to Brice and one informant stated that his car drug high-center for quite some distance driving thru the hail area. This same storm cut a swath on down thru Hall County where thousands of dollars in damage has been reported. Hail was still visible in drifts Thursday morning south of town in the rough range land.

It is hard to see crops wiped away that were ready for harvest but since mother nature controls such things it is nice to have the good moisture anyway.

From the hail area, we had a report of up to 5 inches last Wednesday night. Willard Knox reported 1.40 at Lelia Lake; Ben Lovell reported .49 at Ashtola with the area to the west receiving around 2 1/2 inches; Sam Dale reported .20 inch and A. M. Moss north of Lelia Lake reported 2.80 inches. Here in town we received 1.40 inches.

The rain moving across this area Tuesday night dropped more beneficial moisture with the following totals being reported: Lelia Lake another 1.40 plus .15 Sunday night; Ashtola .64 plus .15 Sunday night; Goldston 1 inch which was the most moisture reported there in quite some time. Here in town we received 1.08 Tuesday night with .10 Sunday night.

The moisture will be a great help to the wheat growers and everything in general except for the cotton.

Funeral Services Held Monday For Mrs. Monte Ritchie

Funeral services were held in Hamilton Massachusetts Monday for Mrs. Monte Ritchie, who passed away in a Massachusetts hospital Saturday evening. Burial was in the Hamilton Cemetery.

Mrs. Ritchie, age about 43, had been in failing health for several months. She was the wife of Monte Ritchie, one of the owners of the JA Ranch, 25 miles southwest of Clarendon.

She married Mr. Ritchie in the east and moved to the ranch in 1942. She made her home there until she became ill. She stayed at her Beverly Farms, Mass. residence most of the past 18 months. Besides her husband she is survived by three children; daughter Miss Cornelia Ritchie and two children by a former marriage, Miss Frances Woods and a son Pat Woods. She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Frances Balding, Long Island, N.Y.

CEMETERY ENTRANCE IMPROVED

During the past week the entrance to Citizens Cemetery was greatly improved by the removing of the old wood post and concrete pillars and a new wide entrance constructed in its place. The entrance was made several feet wider which makes it easier for cars to pass thru and a neat metal sign was placed over the entrance. Mr. Charles Speed did the concrete work and the Major Metalcraft of Groom made the sign. Both the concrete work and the metal sign were paid for by the county. This improvement adds much to the appearance of our cemetery.

HEAVY FINES
 MARK REPORT

AUSTIN—The Director of Law Enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission said the monthly arrest report includes several cases where courts severely punished game law violators.

He cited the cases of a San Antonio man who was fined $200 for head-lighting and $200 for killing an illegal buck, plus costs.

A Dallas man was fined $100 for killing a wild turkey hen, and $50 for killing a wild turkey during closed season and $50 for hunting from an automobile, all plus costs.

A San Saba man was fined $100 for hunting at night and $200 for hunting after forfeiture of his license, plus costs.

Most of the 99 trespassing cases listed brought light fines, many being $1, but where trespassing involved game law violations, penalties were higher.

For example, according to the Director, an Abilene man was fined $100 for hunting from an automobile and $100 for trespassing. A San Angelo man was fined $100 for shooting a female deer and $100 for trespassing.

The report covered the last phase of the big game and water-

It included 50 cases of killing ducks after dark, 20 cases of killing geese after hours, 16 cases of exceeding bag limit on ducks and 11 for exceeding the bag limit on geese.

The Director said a flagrant case involving shooting mourning doves out of season cost a San Angelo man $200 plus costs, while a Houston man paid $100 and costs for buying quail.

Melon Patches Lure Coyotes

AUSTIN—South Texas coyotes, sissy or not, are turning from raw meat to garden vegetables, according to a report from John E. Hearn of Cotulla, predator control supervisor for the Game and Fish Commission.

Hearn, quoted in the January issue of "Texas Game and Fish" Magazine, says the coyotes' vegetarian habits have been cultivated in keeping with revolutionary land utilization trends.

"The once tractless brush areas are being gradually cleared and converted to agriculture," states the magazine "The shrinkage of the wilderness has shrunk the natural prey of the coyotes and they have turned to farm products.

"The new diet may not be too good for the coyote for his numbers have dropped in recent years," according to Hearn.

The Predator Control Supervisor points out that the coyotes still relish fresh meat and that this characteristic craving has been used to help curb their depredations.

The magazine article goes on: "Hearn said that after one rancher complained that coyotes were raiding his 70-acre melon patch, and, incidentally were choosing the largest melons, they shot two jackrabbits. They made 16 baits, poisoned them and left them around the melon patch.

"The coyotes ate every one of the baits. Three dead animals attested to the effectiveness of the system. Hearn suspected that others had died after escaping from the scene."

Parent - Teacher Talk

The Character and Spiritual Education program at the PTA meeting last week proved interesting and inspirational.

Rev. Cockerell, appearing on crutches, gave a brief talk on Parents, First Teachers of Religion. In connection with this he had ordered enough Christian Family Series leaflets to give one to each family represented at the meeting.

The need for religion in the child's homelife was discussed by Mrs. T. M. Caldwell, Jr.; and Mr. H. G. Bobbitt stressed the importance of the family attending church as a group. Mrs. Donald Ballew gave a brief summary of how the teachers emphasize religion in the classroom.

Eighth graders, under the supervision of Mr. Briwn and Mr. Christian, presented a varied program consisting of vocal trios, a guitar and fiddle duet, a skit, and group singing.

The business meeting was very short since most of the PTA busy-ness for the remainder of the month rests on each room as it prepares for the Carnival which will be on Hallowe'en night, Saturday, October 31.

Mrs. Ballew's room hit the jack-pot, winning both the dollar for the most mothers present and the five dollar prize for the room with the most PTA memberships. Since the opening of school, she has been wanting tinkertoys and Lincoln logs for bad weather playtime for her first graders and those two prizes should make the purchase possible.

Rehearsals have started for the first graders' Tom Thumb wedding for Carnival night, and the wedding group is complete now.

Sharon Henson will be maid-of-honor for the bride, Lynda Gordon; and Richard Merchant will be Barry Hudson's best man. Parents of the groom are to be Sandy Deyhle and Kenneth Price, while Camille Byers and Freddy McAnear are parents of the bride.

Bridesmaids will be Carolyn and Marilyn Noble, Sandra Rhode and Dolfia Vallance, Mary Louise Caldwell and Jill Benson.

Regina Borden and Pamela Palmer will light the candles and Richard Bell and Lloyd McCord will act as ushers. Pat Murphy, fifth grade, plays the part of the preacher and Paula Word, second grade, will be soloist. Every first grader who wants to will have a part in the wedding.

There are to be two performances in the Jr. Hi auditorium on Carnival night, admission ten and twenty-five cents. Already parents who work late on Saturday nights are making arrangements to get off early or to find a fill-in so that they can catch one of the performances.

Things are shaping up in the other rooms, too. More white elephants are needed for prizes and more contributions are needed for Mrs. Guy's third grade country store. Mrs. Houston Bell and Mrs. Alfred McMurtry, neither with a third grade child, have each promised the store a batch of homemade bread. Some have promised home-canned vegetables. One or two others are making pot-holders. You know a country store will sell anything—make an offer whether you have a third grader or not. The Carnival is the responsibility of everyone with a child in school and the money made from the Carnival will go right back into something for the children.

Speaking of money—The PTA was responsible for the Audio-Visual Education program (a fancy name for educational movies) in the first eight grades and pays the expense of this program—about one hundred and twenty dollars this year. And right now the PTA is dickering for a much-needed set of encyclopedia for the E. Stevens building—another fifty or more dollars.

That's how the money goes—a little here, a little there, but all of it for something useful and necessary.

Mrs. Johnson's second grade has Treat Day next Tuesday.

ATOMIC RADIATION CAN STIMULATE GROWTH OF OAT-SEEDLING ROOTS
SCIENTIST REPORTS

AUSTIN—A University of Texas scientist reports that atomic radiation can stimulate the growth of oat-seedling roots. Dr. A. R. Schrank, associate professor of zoology, is studying radiation effects on oat plants to determine if a way can be found to detect quickly the effects of radiation of living things and to find out the nature of effects radiation causes in a plant. The information is important to scientists who are seeking ways to protect living things against atomic-radiation damage. Gamma ray dosage up to 6,000 roentgens (units for measuring radiation exposure) stimulates oat-root growth under certain conditions, Dr. Schrank says. Larger dosage stunts growth of a plant's roots and stem and decreases the number of roots, he declares. It also decreases the number of seedlings that have leaves emerging from their stems.

FARM NEWS

from the County PMA Committee

1954 COTTON QUOTA AND ALLOTMENT ANNOUNCED: REFERENDUM DECEMBER 15:

A national marketing quota of 10 million bales (standard bales of 500 pounds gross weight) and a national acreage allotment of 17,910,448 acres of the 1954 crop of upland cotton were proclaimed October 9, 1953 by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

The Secretary also announced that a national cotton marketing quota referendum will be held on December 15, 1953. At least two-thirds of the cotton farmers voting in this referendum must approve marketing quotas before they may be made effective.

"I know the marketing quota and acreage allotment announced October 9, will mean very severe adjustments, with a heavy impact on the economy of the Cotton Belt," Secretary Benson said in commenting on the proclamation. "I am acting in strict accordance with the legislative provisions and have no authority to adjust or change the quota level, or the acreage allotment specified to produce cotton at the quota level."

"Many members of Congress have expressed concern over the present situation and probably will press for revisions to the present Act when the Congress returns after the first of the year."

State and county Production and Marketing Administration committees are now compiling acreage data upon which to base farm acreage allotments. The national allotment will be apportioned to States, the State allotments to counties, and the county allotments to farms according to provisions of the law.

Individual farm acreage allotments will be available to producers prior to the referendum.

If growers approve quotas in the referendum, price supports will be available on the 1954 cotton crop at 90 per cent of parity to cooperators who plant within their allotted acreage. If quotas are turned down, supports to cooperators will drop to 50 per cent of parity.

Growers who exceed their acreage allotments, under a cotton quota program, will be subject to penalties of 50 per cent of parity on their excess production. In general, the farm marketing quota is the production from the farm's acreage allotment.

In the last previous referendum on cotton marketing quotas, held in December 1949, growers approved quotas by 89.4 per cent.

Interest In Individual Cage System For Laying Flock Increases

COLLEGE STATION—A relatively new development in the egg production field, housing the hens in individual cages, is receiving an increasing amount of attention in Texas. According to W. J. Moore, poultry husbandman for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, this system of producing commercial eggs has both advantages and disadvantages when compared with the more commonly used method of production—the laying house.

The cage system is an intensive method and requires a different management program for the laying flock, says Moore. The human element is an even greater factor than in the older and more standardized floor system, and, he adds, precision is the key to successful laying cage management. The system must be operated with clock-like precision if the hens are to do their work, says the specialist. The failure of one operation can throw the assembly line out of production. Feeding, watering, ventilation, cleaning, culling, and replacements all must be handled with precision.

Moore explains the advantages of the individual cage system this way. Egg production can be held fairly uniform throughout the year; cannibalism can be eliminated; competition between birds is eliminated; freedom from coccidiosis and roundworms; feed efficiency can be improved and mortality will be lower.

Blowin' Out the Corners
by Uncle Zeb

I guess there is just no other one thing that can up the spirits of most panhandle folks like a good rain. Truman may tell off his troubles; Benson may be almost persuaded to do something, and we will scarce drop the comic page to read about it. But, let it rain, maybe not a gully-washer, and all our spirits zoom, and we feel like better days are just around the corner. Where on earth but in West Texas could you find folks with so much willingness to forget the worst and try, try again.

Many countries are being duped today with a philosophy that the individual is not due a profit for his work, but that the state is the sole important thing and that we as cogs in that wheel are not important. I do not believe that America could ever be drunkened with this silly belief.

When the farmer goes out and plows and plants his land he is looking forward to a reward, a profit for his labors.

When the man of wealth builds a skyscraper, a railroad, or an ocean ship he is looking forward and risking his capital to the end that he might reap a profit.

Even with the robber when he goes out to steal and rob is looking for a profit, but in his case he is not willing to risk his work and his savings, but is seeking only the other fellows profit from his labor.

The smart and trained leaders who try to sell the ideas of doing away with the individual and his profit motive, are only liars and deceivers. Their desire is to make the world a slave to this thinking in order to further their power and influence which is their profit motive. No, I believe we have been too long a people of our own choosin to be drawn into this noose of slavery.

Heard a fellow making a talk the other day, and he was talking about West Texas; "Out here they have more cows and less milk; more rivers and less water than any place I've ever been. Out here the wind blows like everything, and so does the people." My goodness, I never would have said such a thing about us. It just can't be true.

"Uncle Bob writes me a card telling me that he doesn't feel the best in the world. Even in his sort of weakened down condition that old Scotch humor still works. Quoting from his card: "I've been a good old wagon, but I'm broke down" - - - He continues, "My motor is OK, but my chassis is all on the bum" - - - Anyway, I think it is pretty wonderful for his motor to be still good, especially his control tower.

Mrs. R. E. Boone from way up in Columbus, Ohio sends us some cute poems and little sayings. The following is a fair sample and is our Scrap Book suggestion for now. It is called

OLD FRIENDS

New friends I cherish, and treasure their worth
But Old friends to me are the salt of the earth.

Friends are like garments, that everyone wears—
New ones are needed for dress-up affairs.

But when we're at leisure, we're more apt to choose
The clothes that are purchased with last season's shoes.
Things we grow used to, are things we love best—
The ones we are certain have weathered the test.

And isn't it true (since we're talking of friends)
That new ones bring pleasure when everything blends,
But when we want someone who thinks as we do
And who fits, as I mentioned, like last summer's shoes—

We turn to the friends who have stuck thru the years
Who echo our laughter, and dry all our tears;
They know every weakness and fault we possess
But somehow they forget them in friendship's caress.

GABIE BETTS BURTON LIBRARY NOTES

By May L. Prewitt

Several have asked to read "The Shape of Sunday" which is the intimate biography of Lloyd C. Douglas by his daughters. The book is ready for our readers.

For the girls we have "Cherry Ames Dude Ranch Nurse" by Julie Tatham and the little people have "The Lonliest Chicken" by Mitzi Byrd and Peggy Martin. The illustrations will not appeal to the little people. Like them, I too, appreciate pretty pictures that are not modern art.

Two books were given us this week that were Book Club editions of 1952. These are: "Queen's Gift" by Fletcher and "A Many Splendored Thing" by Han Suyin. This latter has a jacket with a foreword by Malcolm McDonald, Commissioner - General for the United Kingdom in South East Asia. He states that this is a beautiful love story—all the more impressive because it is true.

Some body forgot to return the August issue of Arizona Highways, but a friend gave us another copy, and this one will remain in the Library permanently. They are all lovely magazines to keep on file.

CHAMBER SPECIALS

By Johnnie Allen

Now that school has been going for some time inquiries from students over the State have been on the increase, which makes us happy, asking for information about Clarendon and Donley County in general. This is one phase of work carried on by the Chamber of Commerce that is of great benefit to Clarendon although it is hard for us to see the benefits. If we stop and think the Chamber of Commerce is one of the few agencies in a City which can be depended upon if we want information about the City or surrounding area. If you want information about a City you have never seen who do you write? More people than we realize move to a particular area or City as result of information received from a Chamber of Commerce.

The National U. S. Highway 287 Association is holding a dinner and Business meeting at Vernon, Texas, on Nov. 10 at 7:30 P. M. in the Wilbarger Hotel. Anyone wishing to attend this meeting is requested to leave their names with the local Chamber of Commerce or notify Mr. W. H. Wright, Vernon, Texas, Secretary of the Association. This would be a worthwhile meeting to attend.

Noticed an article about the unsung hero of the Circus, the worker who reads the "Big Top" for its performances. We have unsung heroes in our City, the City employees and Utility men who keep our water, lights, gas and telephones functioning properly, working in any kind of weather or at any hour if needed, to restore services.

The Chamber of Commerce Directors have changed their meeting time. Regular Chamber of Commerce Directors meetings are now being held at 7:00 a. m. on Wednesday of each week.

What this country needs right now is day clubs for night workers.

Something really Special - in power, room, ride, price

WE picture here a car that keeps our order book pages turning quicker than quick. It is the 1953 Buick SPECIAL 4-Door Sedan—the bargain value that doesn't stay long on our showroom floor. For this is the best-selling Buick in the land—snapped up by eager buyers who know something really special when they see it.

For your information, we present some SPECIAL facts. It has a Fireball 8 Engine with the highest power and compression ratio ever placed in a Buick SPECIAL—plus, if you wish, the instant getaway response and utter smoothness of Twin-Turbine Dynaflo.* It has easy-sitting-room for six adults—as much room as you'll find in cars costing hundreds of dollars more. It has a ride unique among automobiles. The Buick Million Dollar Ride. The soft and steady and ever-level ride that comes of coil springs on all four wheels—a full-length torque-tube drive—a massive X-braced frame—a solid and substantial roadweight poised with meticulous balance on broadly spaced wheels. But what makes the Buick SPECIAL so extra special is the low delivered price it carries. It is a price just an easy step above the so-called "low-price three"—and a price that gives you more room and power and ride-comfort for your money than you get in any other car, except another Buick. Wouldn't you like to see, sit in and drive one of these great-powered Buicks — look into its beauty, its luxury, its handling ease—and judge for yourself how small a price tag it wears? Phone us this week, or drop in. We'll be happy to arrange a demonstration.

Shivers and Senterfitt State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—Texas politics, long brewing, boiled over with the announcement of Reuben Senterfitt that he intends to run for governor next year.

That puts the 1954 campaigning actively in motion.

It means that prospective candidates for governor must seriously consider making up their minds now about next year's plans.

Most of them have been waiting for Governor Allan Shivers to declare his intentions.

But Senterfitt, by his announcement, placed himself in the forefront of gubernatorial candidates—for the time being at least.

What will he do if Shivers comes out for re-election? Said Senterfitt: "I'm just going to wait and see what he does, and then I'll talk about that."

Senterfitt placed himself in this position: If Shivers runs again, Senterfitt can get out of the race—or stay in, depending on how he feels about it. If Shivers decides not to run, Senterfitt has a head start on the other candi-

Obviously, Senterfitt thinks Shivers will not be a candidate for governor next year.

Reporters asked Shivers for his comment on the situation. The reply was, "No comment."

Senterfitt has served two terms as speaker of the house. Conservative, quiet and an able organizer, Senterfitt, who is serving his seventh term as a representative of the San Saba district, is highly regarded by fellow-members of the Legislature.

Others who have been named as possible candidates for governor include Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey, former district judge Ralph Yarborough of Austin, Senator A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris, Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, Mayor Roy Hofheinz of Houston, Congressman Lloyd Bentsen Jr. of McAllen, and secretary of the navy R. B. Anderson of Vernon.

There were developments also in the prospective race for U. S. Senator.

Lyndon Johnson, the incumbent, has visited widely over the state. He has said that he expects no major opponent next year.

But Jack Porter of Houston, Republican national committeeman, has promised that there will be someone running against Johnson.

Several prospects have been mentioned for the senatorial race, including Congressman Martin Dies and Robert Stripling, former chief investigator for the House Un-American Activities committee.

Reliable inside information is, however, that the anti-Johnson people have just about settled on their man. They are working behind the scenes and preparing a smash announcement.

They think the candidate is a natural who will appeal strongly to the voters.

Half a million acres of the Texas tidelands will go on the auction block December 1.

Land Commissioner Bascom Giles says that the sale will be bigger than "anything we have ever done before."

Giles asked the oil companies about the land on which they would like to make bids. Fourteen companies responded, asking that 650,000 acres be put on sale.

Giles' recommendation, approved by the School Land Board, was that 500,000 acres be auctioned.

Quit talking about a recession, Governor Shivers advised Texans at a speech in Dallas.

There is more danger that Americans will talk themselves into a depression than there is that the economy itself will bog down, the governor told an audience of 700.

Texas' industrial growth will continue at ever-increasing rates, the governor predicted. The Gulf Coast is becoming the nation's chemical center, and Dallas will be the nation's textile manufacturing center, Shivers said.

He cited other signs to indicate that the state is in good financial condition.

Six attempts to gain statehood were made by Utah before it finally succeeded on January 4, 1896. Admission was repeatedly refused because of polygamous practices.

Angels are not biologically possible.

Profit by adversity. When fate hands you a lemon, make some lemonade.

"Bigger pies, not smaller slices"

We ran across a new word the other day... "demographer." That's a research man who studies statistics on births, deaths, populations.

Well, it seems the United States will have 20 million more people aboard by 1960, or thereabouts. Logical enough. We gained 20 million people in the forties.

Bigger pies are the order of the day. In the electrical industry, for instance, men with sharp pencils have figured that demand for electric power will have doubled during the decade ending in 1960. More power equipment is therefore needed. More electrical machinery for industry.

And better pies. Americans insist on better products, year by year. Somebody has to pioneer things. Looking ahead for five, ten, fifteen years—creating new and better products and improving old ones—that is the business of General Electric. For seventy-five years progress has been our most important product.

The babies who come into the world today won't want smaller slices of the world's goods and opportunities. Or even the same slice. They'll want more. Wait and see. Nothing less is worth planning for by the people who must organize for the future. It's no job for pessimists.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

RUSSIA AND THE HYDROGEN BOMB:

Much has been said and written in the past several weeks about Russia and the development of the Hydrogen bomb. That Russia has developed near future perfect such a bomb, should not come as a surprise to anyone. Least of all to those who are charged primarily with the defense of this country. In the first place, history will reflect that all newly designed or conceived weapons of warfare do not remain secret as between nations for any lengthy period of time. Scientific minds in all countries are constantly devoted to research in an effort to discover some new and novel means for man to destroy man. No one nation has a monopoly on brains. Therefore, this age-old mad race will continue at an ever increasing tempo until man someday awakens to the fact that the dedication of the efforts to peaceful pursuits will bring much greater rewards and benefits to mankind everywhere. Until that time comes, this country has no choice other than to meet the challenges of those who subscribe to the policy of world domination. Russia knows full well our capabilities in this field. She knows that the United States could not be destroyed by any kind of bomb or explosive she could invent or devise. She knows also that should she be foolish enough to drop a bomb on this country, it would be only a matter of minutes before Russia would be subjected to the most devastating retaliation ever witnessed by man. We have bases so located strategically that it would be much less possible for Russia to defend against that retaliation than it would for us to defend against her act of aggression in bringing the bomb to our shores. As crazy as Russian thinking seems to be, I do not think she is yet ready to commit suicide. I say these things because I feel that much fear and trembling has been created throughout this country by the many statements that have been made on the subject in the immediate past. We should not relax our vigilance or slow our research and development. We should face facts and reality and do it without being afraid. In order to do this and to meet these constant challenges, it will be necessary that money be spent on these programs. This money must come from the taxpayer's pocket. If it cannot be done properly with present revenues, it is my opinion that the American taxpayer will be willing to put up whatever might be necessary to meet the requirement. It is also my opinion that present revenues, and revenues available after the scheduled tax cuts, will be sufficient.

If they are not, then there should be a re-evaluation of what we are doing in the over-all government programs both civil and military, with the thought in mind of rearranging, reassigning and reallocating funds to the end that the objectives can be attained with available revenue. If such funds then appear to be insufficient, the American taxpayer should be given the plain simple facts about the deficiency and the need. The result will be that the people of this country will rise to the occasion as they have so many times in the past, and the needs for adequate defense will be provided. People do not mind being taxed when they know that the need exists and that the revenues are employed to effectively meet that need, but they do not like to be scared to death in the process. There are many who think that the recent developments and disclosures concerning Russia and the Hydrogen bomb are in the nature of a softening-up process preparatory to an announcement that taxes cannot be cut, and that new taxes will be needed. I do not agree with this thinking. As I have said many times before, I do not think that Congress will be asked to extend those taxes that automatically expire January 1, 1954. These taxes cannot be continued unless Congress takes affirmative action to extend them. Congress will be in no mood to extend these taxes under their present names or under assumed names.

DONLEY COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

With the recent moisture over most of the Donley County Soil Conservation District, farmers are urged to plant winter cover crops on all land that does not have sufficient cover to prevent blowing this winter and spring. Rye, wheat, Austrian winter peas and hairy vetch are adapted cover crops for this area.

The winter peas and vetch are better for soil improvement as they are legumes and, if properly inoculated and a good growth is obtained, approximately 75 pounds of nitrogen will be taken from the air and added to the soil.

Rye is by far the best crop for cover and soil protection especially when planted this late in the season. A good plan where a cover, soil improvement, and nitrogen are desired is to plant a mixture of rye and one of the winter legumes.

Mrs. Ritter of the PMA office advises that funds are still available for cover crop practices and new applications for approvals are being taken now.

The payment for seeding rye is $2.00 per acre and for Austrian winter peas, and hairy vetch the payment is 4 1/2 cents and 12 cents respectively.

The District has two grain drills and two row seeders for rent to farmers for planting winter cover crops. Anyone wishing to use these drills should contact Jack Gray.

THE JAYCEES SPEAK

DID YOU GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY? Too many of us didn't. It matters not what church you choose as they all have the same ultimate goal, that is, human salvation. There is little doubt of the good which could be done right here in Clarendon if we had 100% attendance in our churches of the listed membership alone. Countless dozens would follow the example set by those regularly attending. Our belief in the church of our choice is nothing to keep secret or hide as many of us are prone to do. We sometimes get the idea; "it's alright for Joe and Mary but not for me." The religious good done down through the ages could hardly have been done if the followers of God had had the attitude many of us have today. Brotherly love could well be the salvation of the modern world if it were only openly and faithfully practiced by all the world's laymen. If we would just spend the equal time it takes us to read this paper in a diligent study of the laws, creed, and beliefs of our particular church, how much improvement would be made? More than we could count, is the belief of many.

The Jaycees urge YOU and YOU and YOU to ATTEND CHURCH SOME WHERE NEXT SUNDAY.

In closing this writer offers a poem by an unknown writer:

"I sought my soul, but my soul

I could not see;
I sought my God, but my God eluded me;
I sought my brother; and I found all three."
